¹⁵ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they gathered themselves together. ¹⁶ And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head. ¹⁷ And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. ¹⁸ And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians [the men of] seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their host, so that he died there. ¹⁹ And when all the kings who were slaves to Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

11 And it came to pass, at the return of the year, at the time when kings go out [to battle], that David sent Joab, and his slaves with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the sons of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem.

² And it came to pass at evening, that David arose from off his bed, and walked on the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful to look at. ³ And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? ⁴ And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her, for she was purified from her uncleanness; and she returned to her house. ⁵ And the woman became pregnant; and she sent and told David, and said, I am pregnant.

⁶ And David sent to Joab, [saying,] Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷ And when Uriah came to him, David asked of him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered. ⁸ And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess [of food] from the king. ⁹ But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the slaves of his lord, and didn't go down to his house. ¹⁰ And when they had told David, saying, Uriah didn't go down to his house, David said to Uriah, Aren't you coming from a journey? Why didn't you go down to your house? ¹¹ And Uriah said to David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, remain in booths; and my lord Joab, and the slaves of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing. ¹² And David said to Uriah, Tarry here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart. So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day, and the next day. ¹³ And when David had called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk: and at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the slaves of his lord, but didn't go down to his house.

¹⁴ And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵ And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set* Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire* from him, that he may be struck, and die. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Joab kept watch on the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were. ¹⁷ And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people, even of the slaves of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also. ¹⁸ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; ¹⁹ and he charged the messenger, saying, When you have made an end of telling all the things concerning the war to the king, ²⁰ it will be that, if the king's wrath arises, and he says to you, Why did you* go so near to the city to fight? Didn't you* know that they would shoot from the wall? ²¹ Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal? Didn't a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you* go so near the wall? Then you will say, Your slave Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

²² So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for. ²³ And the messenger said to David, The men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate. ²⁴ And the shooters shot at your slaves from off the wall; and some of the king's slaves are dead, and your slave Uriah the Hittite is dead also. ²⁵ Then David said to the messenger, Thus you will say to Joab, Don't let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage him.

²⁶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband. ²⁷ And when the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased Yahweh.

12 And Yahweh sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. ² The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds; ³ but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his sons; it ate of his own morsel, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him as a daughter. ⁴ And there came a traveler to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who came to him, but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man who came to him. ⁵ And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As Yahweh lives, the man who has done this is worthy to die: ⁶ and he will restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity. ⁷ And Nathan said to David, You are the man. This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul; ⁸ and I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added to you such and such things. ⁹ Why have you despised Yahweh,^a to do that which is evil in his eyes? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the sons of Ammon. ¹⁰ Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. ¹¹ Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your fellow man, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. ¹² For you did it secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. ¹³ And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against Yahweh. And Nathan said to David, Yahweh also has put away your sin; you will not die. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, because by this deed you have shown utter contempt for Yahweh,^b the son also who is born to you will surely die. ¹⁵ And Nathan departed to his house.

And Yahweh struck the child who Uriah's wife bore to David, and it was very sick. ¹⁶ David therefore implored God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night on the earth. ¹⁷ And the elders of his house arose, [and stood] beside him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. ¹⁸ And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the slaves of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, Look, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he didn't listen to our voice: how he will then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead! ¹⁹ But when David saw that his slaves were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his slaves, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. ²⁰ Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel; and he came into the house of Yahweh, and worshiped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he ate. ²¹ Then his slaves said to him, What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, you rose and ate bread. ²² And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who knows whether Yahweh will not be gracious to me, that the child may live? ²³ But now he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.

²⁴ And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her, and lay with her: and she bore a son, and he named him Solomon. And Yahweh loved him; ²⁵ and he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he named him Jedidiah, for Yahweh's sake.

²⁶ Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and took the royal city. ²⁷ And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah; yes, I have taken the city of waters. ²⁸ Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; or else I will take the city, and it will be called after my name. ²⁹ And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. ³⁰ And he took the crown of Milcom from off his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and [in it were] precious stones; and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city, exceedingly much. ³¹ And he brought forth the people who were in it. And he put [them to work] with saws, and with harrows^c of iron, and with axes of iron. And he made them serve making bricks. And thus he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.^d

13 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. ² And Amnon was so vexed that he fell sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her. ³ But Amnon had a companion, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very subtle man. ⁴ And he said to him, Why, O son of the king, are you thus lean from day to day? Will you not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. ⁵ And Jonadab said to him, Lay down on your bed, and feign yourself sick: and when your father comes to see you, say to him, Let my sister Tamar come, I pray you, and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand. ⁶ So Amnon lay down, and feigned himself sick: and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, Let my sister Tamar come, I pray you, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.

⁷ Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and dress him food. ⁸ So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laying down. And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. ⁹ And she took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Send out all men from me. And they went out every man from him. ¹⁰ And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. ¹¹ And when she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, Come, lie with me, my sister. ¹² And she answered him, No, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: don't do this folly. ¹³ And I, where shall I carry my shame? And as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray you, speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you. ¹⁴ Nevertheless he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her.

²⁰ And Absalom her brother said to her, Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister: he is your brother; don't take this thing to heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house. ²¹ But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry, but he did not grieve the spirit of his son Amnon because he loved him, since he was his firstborn. ²² And Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

²³ And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. ²⁴ And Absalom came to the king, and said, Look now, your slave has sheep-shearers; let the king, I pray you, and his slaves go with your slave. ²⁵ And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let's not all go, lest we be burdensome to you. And he pressed him: nevertheless he would not go, but blessed him. ²⁶ Then Absalom said, If not, I pray you, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him, Why should he go with you? ²⁷ But Absalom pressed him, and he sent with him Amnon and all the king's sons. And Absalom prepared a feast like a king's feast. ²⁸ And Absalom commanded his attendants, saying, Now watch⁺, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say to you⁺, Strike Amnon, then kill him; don't be afraid; haven't I commanded you⁺? Be courageous, and be valiant. ²⁹ And the attendants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got up on his mule, and fled.

³⁴ But Absalom fled. And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and saw that many people came upon the Horonaim^a road, from the mountain side on the slope, and the watchman came and informed the king; he said, I saw men from the Horonaim road, from the mountain side. ³⁵ And Jonadab said to the king, Look, the king's sons have come: as your slave said, so it is. ³⁶ And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, look, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his slaves wept very intensely.

³⁷ But Absalom fled, and went to Talmi the son of Ammihur, king of Geshur. And [David] mourned for his son every day. ³⁸ So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. ³⁹ And the king's spirit longed to go forth to Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. ² And Joab sent to Tekoa, and fetched from there a wise woman, and said to her, I pray you, feign yourself to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel, I pray you, and don't anoint yourself with oil, but be as a woman who has a long time mourned for the dead: ³ and go in to the king, and speak on this manner to him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

⁴ And when the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king. ⁵ And the king said to her, What ails you? And she answered, Of a truth I am a widow, and my husband is dead.

⁶ And your female slave had two sons, and both of them strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed him. ⁷ And, look, the whole family has risen against your female slave, and they say, Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the soul of his brother whom he slew, and so destroy the heir also. Thus they will quench my charcoal which is left, and will leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the face of the earth.

⁸ And the king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will give charge concerning you. ⁹ And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be innocent. ¹⁰ And the king said, Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not touch you anymore. ¹¹ Then she said, I pray you, let the king remember Yahweh your God, that the avenger of blood does not destroy anymore, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As Yahweh lives, not one hair of your son will fall to the earth.

¹² Then the woman said, Let your slave, I pray you, speak a word to my lord the king. And he said, Say on. ¹³ And the woman said, Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not fetch home again his banished one. ¹⁴ For we must surely die, and are as water spilled on the ground, which can't be gathered up again; neither does God take away a soul, but he devises means, that he who is banished not be an outcast from him. ¹⁵ Now therefore seeing that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and your slave said, I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his slave. ¹⁶ For the king will hear, to deliver his slave out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God. ¹⁷ Then your slave said, Let, I pray you, the word of my lord the king be comfortable; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: and Yahweh your God be with you.

¹⁸ Then the king answered and said to the woman, Don't hide from me, I pray you, anything that I will ask you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. ¹⁹ And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your slave Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your slave; ²⁰ to change the face of the matter has your slave Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

²¹ And the king said to Joab, Look now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom back. ²² And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and did obeisance, and blessed the king: and Joab said, Today your slave knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has performed the request of his slave. ²³ So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴ And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, but don't let him see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and didn't see the king's face.

²⁵ Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as good-looking as Absalom: from the sole of his foot even to the top of his head there was no blemish in him. ²⁶ And when he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year's end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it); he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, after the king's weight. ²⁷ And to Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a beautiful woman.

²⁸ And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem; and he didn't see the king's face. ²⁹ Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him: and he sent again a second time, but he would not come. ³⁰ Therefore he said to his slaves, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's slaves set the field on fire. ³¹ Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, Why have your slaves set my field on fire? ³² And Absalom answered Joab, Look, I sent to you, saying, Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, Why have I come from Geshur? It were better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me. ³³ So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

15 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him. ² And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that, when any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him, and said, Of what city are you? And he said, Your slave is of one of the tribes of Israel. ³ And Absalom said to him, See, your matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear you. ⁴ Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice! ⁵ And it was so, that, when any man came near to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. ⁶ And on this manner Absalom did to all Israel who came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷ And it came to pass at the end of four years, that Absalom said to the king, I pray you, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to Yahweh, in Hebron. ⁸ For your slave vowed a vow while I remained at Geshur in Syria, saying, If Yahweh will indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve Yahweh. ⁹ And the king said to him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron. ¹⁰ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as you⁺ hear the sound of the trumpet, then you⁺ will say, Absalom is king in Hebron. ¹¹ And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they didn't know anything. ¹² And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

¹³ And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom. ¹⁴ And David said to all his slaves who were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us will escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, or else he will overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword. ¹⁵ And the king's slaves said to the king, Look, your slaves are ready to do whatever my lord the king will choose. ¹⁶ And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, who were concubines, to keep the house. ¹⁷ And the king went forth, and all the people after him; and they tarried in Beth-merhak. ¹⁸ And all his slaves passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

¹⁹ Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why do you also go with us? Return, and remain with the king: for you are a foreigner, and also an exile; [return] to your own place. ²⁰ Whereas you came but yesterday, should I this day make you go up and down with us, seeing I go where I may? Return, and take back your brothers with you; and may Yahweh show you mercy and truth. ²¹ And Ittai answered the king, and said, As Yahweh lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king will be, whether to death or to life, even there also will your slave be. ²² And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. ²³ And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

²⁴ And, look, Zadok also [came], and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had finished passing out of the city. ²⁵ And the king said to Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I will find favor in the eyes of Yahweh, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and his habitation: ²⁶ but if he says thus, I have no delight in you; look, here I am, let him do to me as is good in his eyes. ²⁷ The king said also to Zadok the priest, Do you see? Return into the city in peace, and your⁺ two sons with you⁺, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. ²⁸ See, I will tarry at the fords of the wilderness, until there comes word from you⁺ to inform me. ²⁹ Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they remained there.

³⁰ And David went up by the ascent of the [mount of] Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. ³¹ And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Yahweh, I pray you, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness. ³² And it came to pass, that, when David came to the top [of the ascent], where God was worshiped, look, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth on his head. ³³ And David said to him, If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me: ³⁴ but if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, I will be your slave, O king; as I have been your father's slave in time past, so I will now be your slave; then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel. ³⁵ And don't you have there with you Zadok and Abiathar the priests? Therefore it will be, that whatever thing you will hear out of the king's house, you will tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶ Look, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you⁺ will send to me everything that you⁺ will hear. ³⁷ So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city; and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16 And when David was a little past the top [of the ascent], look, Ziba the attendant of Mephibaal met him, with a couple of donkeys saddled, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and an ephah of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine. ² And the king said to Ziba, What do you mean by these? And Ziba said, The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as are faint in the wilderness may drink. ³ And the king said, And where is your master's son? And Ziba said to the king, Look, he remains at Jerusalem; for he said, Today will the house of Israel restore to me the kingdom of my father. ⁴ Then the king said to Ziba, Look, all that pertains to Mephibaal is yours. And Ziba said, I do obeisance; let me find favor in your sight, my lord, O king.

⁵ And when King David came to Bahurim, look, there came out from there a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came out, and cursed still as he came. ⁶ And he cast stones at David, and at all the slaves of King David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. ⁷ And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Begone, begone, you man of blood, and base fellow: ⁸ Yahweh has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead you have reigned; and Yahweh has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son; and, look, you are [taken] in your own mischief, because you are a man of blood.

⁹ Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah to the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over, I pray you, and take off his head. ¹⁰ And the king said, What have I to do with you*, you* sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because Yahweh has said to him, Curse David; who then will say, Why have you done so? ¹¹ And David said to Abishai, and to all his slaves, Look, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my soul: how much more [may] this Benjamite now [do it]? Leave him alone, and let him curse; for Yahweh has bidden him. ¹² It may be that Yahweh will look at the wrong done to me, and that Yahweh will repay me good for [his] cursing of me this day. ¹³ So David and his men went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside across from him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. ¹⁴ And the king, and all the people who were with him, came weary; and he refreshed himself there.

¹⁵ And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, [Long] live the king, [Long] live the king. ¹⁷ And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness to your companion? Why didn't you go with your companion? ¹⁸ And Hushai said to Absalom, No; but whom Yahweh, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, I will be his, and I will remain with him. ¹⁹ And again, whom should I serve? [Should I] not [serve] in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in your presence.

²⁰ Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give your* counsel what we will do. ²¹ And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you have become a stench to your father: then the hands of all who are with you will be strong. ²² So they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house; and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³ And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: ² and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid; and all the people who are with him will flee; and I will strike the king only; ³ and I will bring back all the people to you: all the people will return [if] the man you are seeking [is struck]: all the people will be in peace. ⁴ And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

⁵ Then Absalom said, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he says. ⁶ And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, Ahithophel has spoken after this manner: shall we do [after] his saying? If not, you speak. ⁷ And Hushai said to Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good. ⁸ Hushai said moreover, You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are bitter in soul, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. ⁹ Look, he is hid now in some pit, or in some [other] place: and it will come to pass, when some of them have fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom. ¹⁰ And even he who is a son of valor, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will completely melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are sons of valor. ¹¹ But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle in your own person. ¹² So we will come upon him in some place where he will be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him we will not leave so much as one. ¹³ Moreover, if he goes into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there. ¹⁴ And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For Yahweh had determined to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that Yahweh might bring evil on Absalom.

¹⁵ Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus I have counseled. ¹⁶ Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Don't lodge this night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; or else the king will be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him. ¹⁷ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting by En-rogel; and a female slave used to go and tell them; and they went and told King David: so they might not be seen coming into the city. ¹⁸ But a lad saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down there. ¹⁹ And the woman took and spread the covering over the well's opening, and strewed bruised grain on it; and nothing was known. ²⁰ And Absalom's slaves came to the woman to the house; and they said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

²¹ And it came to pass, after they departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told King David; and they said to David, Arise*, and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you*. ²² Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that had not gone over the Jordan. ²³ And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, and arose, and went home, to his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father.

²⁴ Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵ And Absalom set Amasa over the host instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was Ithra the Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother. ²⁶ And Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

²⁷ And it came to pass, when David came to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, ²⁸ brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched [grain], and beans, and lentils, and parched [pulse], ²⁹ and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David, and for the people who were with him, to eat: for they said, The people are hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

18 And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ² And David divided the people in three [parts], a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, I will surely go forth with you⁺ myself also. ³ But the people said, You will not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that you are ready to help us out of the city. ⁴ And the king said to them, What seems best to you⁺ I will do. And the king stood by the gate-side, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵ And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

⁶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. ⁷ And the people of Israel were struck there before the slaves of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men. ⁸ For the battle was spread there over the face of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

¹⁹ Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Let me now run, and bear the king good news, how that Yahweh has avenged him of his enemies. ²⁰ And Joab said to him, You will not be the bearer of good news this day, but you will bear good news another day; but this day you will bear no good news, because the king's son is dead. ²¹ Then Joab said to the Cushite, Go, tell the king what you have seen. And the Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran. ²² Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, But come what may, let me, I pray you, also run after the Cushite. And Joab said, Why will you run, my son, seeing that you will have no good news to deliver? ²³ But come what may, [he said], I will run. And he said to him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite.

²⁴ Now David was sitting between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and saw a man running alone. ²⁵ And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he is alone, there is good news in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. ²⁶ And the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gatekeeper, and said, Look, [another] man running alone. And the king said, He also brings good news. ²⁷ And the watchman said, I think the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and comes with good news.

²⁸ And Ahimaaz called, and said to the king, All is well. And he bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, Blessed be Yahweh your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king. ²⁹ And the king said, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's slave and your slave, I saw a great tumult, but I didn't know what it was. ³⁰ And the king said, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

³¹ And, look, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, good news for my lord the king; for Yahweh has avenged you this day of all those who rose up against you. ³² And the king said to the Cushite, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And the Cushite answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you to do you hurt, be as that young man is. ³³ And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, he said thus, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! O that I had died for you, O Absalom, my son, my son!

19 And it was told Joab, Look, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom. ² And the victory that day was turned into mourning to all the people; for the people heard it said that day, The king grieves for his son. ³ And the people went by stealth that day into the city, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. ⁴ And the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son! ⁵ And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, You have shamed this day the faces of all your slaves, who this day have saved your soul, and the souls of your sons and of your daughters, and the souls of your wives, and the souls of your concubines; ⁶ in that you love those who hate you, and hate those who love you. For you have declared this day, that princes and slaves are nothing to you: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all of us had died this day, then it would have pleased you well. ⁷ Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably to your slaves; for I swear by Yahweh, if you don't go forth, there will not tarry a man with you this night: and that will be worse to you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now. ⁸ Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told to all the people, saying, Look, the king is sitting in the gate: and all the people came before the king.

Now Israel had fled every man to his tent. ⁹ And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land from Absalom. ¹⁰ And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why don't you⁺ speak a word of bringing the king back?

¹¹ And King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you⁺ the last to bring the king back to his house, seeing the speech of all Israel has come to the king? ¹² You⁺ are my brothers, you⁺ are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you⁺ the last to bring back the king? ¹³ And say⁺ to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not captain of the host before me continually in the place of Joab. ¹⁴ And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as [the heart of] one man; so that they sent to the king, [saying,] Return, you and all your slaves. ¹⁵ So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan.

¹⁶ And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David. ¹⁷ And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty slaves with him; and they went through the Jordan in the presence of the king. ¹⁸ And there went over a ferryboat to bring over the king's household, and to do that which was good in his eyes. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when he came over the Jordan. ¹⁹ And he said to the king, Don't let my lord impute iniquity to me, neither remember that which your slave did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. ²⁰ For your slave knows that I have sinned: therefore, look, I have come this day the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

²⁴ And Mephibaal the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace to Jerusalem. ²⁵ And it came to pass, when he came to meet the king, that the king said to him, Why didn't you go with me, Mephibaal? ²⁶ And he answered, My lord, O king, my slave deceived me: for your slave said, I will saddle myself a donkey, that I may ride on it, and go with the king; because your slave is lame. ²⁷ And he has slandered your slave to my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in your eyes. ²⁸ For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your slave among those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should cry anymore to the king? ²⁹ And the king said to him, Why speak anymore of your matters? I say, You and Ziba divide the land. ³⁰ And Mephibaal said to the king, yes, let him take all, since my lord the king has come in peace to his own house.

³¹ And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him over the Jordan. ³² Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even 80 years old: and he had provided the king with sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. ³³ And the king said to Barzillai, You come over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem. ³⁴ And Barzillai said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? ³⁵ I am this day 80 years old: can I discern between good and bad? Can your slave taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear anymore the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your slave be yet a burden to my lord the king? ³⁶ Your slave would but just go over the Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense me with such a reward? ³⁷ Let your slave, I pray you, turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But look, your slave Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what will seem good to you. ³⁸ And the king answered, Chimham will go over with me, and I will do to him that which will seem good to you: and whatever you will require of me, that I will do for you. ³⁹ And all the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over: and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place.

⁴⁰ So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him: and all the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel. ⁴¹ And, look, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king, and his household, over the Jordan, and all David's men with him? ⁴² And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: why then are you⁺ angry for this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any gift? ⁴³ And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more [right] in David than you⁺: why then did you⁺ despise us, that our advice should not be had first in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 And there happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew the trumpet, and said, We have no portion in David, neither do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel. ² So all the men of Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah stuck to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

⁴ Then the king said to Amasa, Call together for me the men of Judah three days, and be present here. ⁵ So Amasa went to call [the men of] Judah together; but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. ⁶ And David said to Abishai, Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than did Absalom: you take your lord's slaves, and pursue after him, in case he found himself fortified cities, and tears out our eye. ⁷ And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. ⁸ When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. And Joab was girded with his apparel of war that he had put on, and on it was a belt with a sword fastened on his loins in its sheath; and as he went forth it fell out. ⁹ And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with you, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. ¹⁰ But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he struck him with it in the body, and shed out his insides to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died.

And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹¹ And there stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab. ¹² And Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. ¹³ When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

¹⁴ And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-maacah. And all those who joined him were gathered together, and also went after him. ¹⁵ And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. ¹⁶ Then a wise woman cried out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you⁺, to Joab, Come near here, that I may speak with you. ¹⁷ And he came near to her; and the woman said, Are you Joab? And he answered, I am. Then she said to him, Hear the words of your slave. And he answered, I am listening. ¹⁸ Then she spoke, saying, They used to speak in old time, saying, They will surely ask [counsel] at Abel: and so they ended [the matter]. ¹⁹ I am of those who are peaceful and faithful in Israel: you seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why will you swallow up the inheritance of Yahweh? ²⁰ And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. ²¹ The matter is not so: but a man of the hill-country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David; deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab, Look, his head will be thrown to you over the wall. ²² Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. And he blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

²³ Now Joab was over all the host of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites; ²⁴ and Adoram was over the men subject to slave labor; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder; ²⁵ and Sheva was scribe; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ²⁶ and also Ira the Jairite was chief ruler to David.

21 And there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David sought the face of Yahweh. And Yahweh said, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put to death the Gibeonites. ² And the king called the Gibeonites, and said to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the sons of Israel had sworn to them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah); ³ and David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you⁺? And how shall I make atonement, that you⁺ may bless the inheritance of Yahweh? ⁴ And the Gibeonites said to him, It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul, or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel. And he said, What you⁺ will say, that I will do for you⁺. ⁵ And they said to the king, The man who consumed us, and that devised against us, [that] we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel, ⁶ let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to Yahweh in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Yahweh. And the king said, I will give them.

⁷ But the king spared Mephibaal, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of Yahweh's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. ⁸ But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahtite: ⁹ And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mountain before Yahweh, and they fell [all] seven together. And they were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of barley harvest.

¹⁰ And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured on them from heaven; and she allowed neither the birds of the heavens to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. ¹¹ And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

¹⁸ And it came to pass after this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Saph, who was of the sons of the giant. ¹⁹ And there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jari the Bethlehemite slew Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. ²⁰ And there was again war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. ²¹ And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, slew him. ²² These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his slaves.

22 And David spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: ² and he said,

Yahweh is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, even mine;

³ God, my rock, in him I will take refuge;

My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge;

My savior, you save me from violence.

⁴ I will call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised:

So I will be saved from my enemies.

⁵ For the waves of death surrounded me;

The floods of ungodliness made me afraid:

⁶ The cords of Sheol were round about me;

The snares of death came upon me.

⁷ In my distress I called on Yahweh;

Yes, I called to my God:

And he heard my voice out of his temple,

And my cry [came] into his ears.

⁸ Then the earth shook and trembled,

The foundations of heaven quaked

And were shaken, because he was angry.

⁹ There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,

And fire out of his mouth devoured:

Coals were kindled by it.

¹⁰ He bowed the heavens also, and came down;

And thick darkness was under his feet.

¹¹ And he rode on a cherub, and flew;

Yes, he was seen on the wings of the wind.

¹² And he made darkness pavilions round about him,
 Gathering of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
¹³ At the brightness before him
 Coals of fire were kindled.
¹⁴ Yahweh thundered from heaven,
 And the Most High uttered his voice.
¹⁵ And he sent out arrows, and scattered them;
 Lightning, and discomfited them.
¹⁶ Then the channels of the sea appeared,
 The foundations of the world were laid bare,
 By the rebuke of Yahweh,
 At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
¹⁷ He sent from on high, he took me;
 He drew me out of many waters;
¹⁸ He delivered me from my strong enemy,
 From those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
¹⁹ They came upon me in the day of my calamity;
 But Yahweh was my support.
²⁰ He brought me forth also into a large place;
 He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
²¹ Yahweh rewarded me according to my righteousness;
 According to the cleanness of my hands he has recompensed me.
²² For I have kept the ways of Yahweh,
 And have not wickedly departed from my God.
²³ For all his ordinances were before me;
 And as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.
²⁴ I was also perfect toward him;
 And I kept myself from my iniquity.
²⁵ Therefore Yahweh has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
 According to my cleanness in his eyesight.
²⁶ With the merciful you will show yourself merciful;
 With the perfect man you will show yourself perfect;
²⁷ With the pure you will show yourself pure;
 And with the perverse you will show yourself froward.
²⁸ And the afflicted people you will save;
 But your eyes are on the haughty, that you may bring them down.
²⁹ For you are my lamp, O Yahweh;
 And Yahweh will lighten my darkness.
³⁰ For by you I run on a troop;
 By my God I leap over a wall.
³¹ As for God, his way is perfect:
 The word of Yahweh is tried;
 He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
³² For who is God, but Yahweh?
 And who is a rock, but our God?
³³ God is my strong fortress;
 And he opened up perfectly my way.
³⁴ He makes his feet like hinds' [feet],
 And sets me on my high places.
³⁵ He teaches my hands to war,
 So that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
³⁶ You have also given me the shield of your salvation;
 And your response has made me great.
³⁷ You have enlarged my steps under me;
 And my feet have not slipped.
³⁸ I have pursued my enemies, and destroyed them;
 Neither did I turn again until they were consumed.
³⁹ And I have consumed them, and struck them through, so that they can't arise:
 Yes, they have fallen under my feet.
⁴⁰ For you have girded me with strength to the battle;
 You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
⁴¹ You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me,
 That I might cut off those who hate me.
⁴² They looked, but there was none to save;

Even to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.
⁴³ Then I beat them small as the dust of the earth,
 I crush them as the mire of the streets, and spread them abroad.
⁴⁴ You also have delivered me from the strivings of my people;
 You have kept me to be the head of the nations:
 A people whom I have not known will serve me.
⁴⁵ The foreigners will submit themselves to me:
 As soon as they hear of me, they will obey me.
⁴⁶ The foreigners will fade away,
 And will come trembling out of their close places.
⁴⁷ Yahweh lives; and blessed be my rock;
 And exalted be God, the rock of my salvation,
⁴⁸ Even the God who executes vengeance for me,
 And who brings down peoples under me,
⁴⁹ And who brings me forth from my enemies:
 Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me;
 You deliver me from the violent man.
⁵⁰ Therefore I will give thanks to you, O Yahweh, among the nations,
 And will sing praises to your name.
⁵¹ Great deliverance he gives to his king,
 And shows loving-kindness to his anointed,
 To David and to his seed, forevermore.

23 Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse says,

And the [noble] man who was raised on high says,
 The anointed of the God of Jacob,
 And the sweet psalmist of Israel:
² The Spirit of Yahweh spoke by me,
 And his word was on my tongue.
³ The God of Israel said,
 The Rock of Israel spoke to me:
 One who rules over man righteously,
 Who rules in the fear of God,
⁴ [He will be] as the light of the morning, when the sun rises,
 A morning without clouds,
 [When] the tender grass [springs] out of the earth,
 Through clear shining after rain.
⁵ Truly my house is not so with God;
 Yet he has made with me an everlasting covenant,
 Ordered in all things, and sure:
 For it is all my salvation, and all [my] desire,
 Although he does not make it to grow.
⁶ But the ungodly will be all of them as thorns to be thrust away,
 Because they can't be taken with the hand;
⁷ But the man who touches them
 Must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear:
 And they will be completely burned with fire in [their] place.

⁸ These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Jishbaal the Hachmonite, [of] the elite troops; the same was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time.

⁹ And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel had gone away. ¹⁰ He arose, and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand stuck to the sword; and Yahweh wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take spoil.

¹¹ And after him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. ¹² But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistines; and Yahweh wrought a great victory.

¹³ And three of the elite troops went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴ And David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem. ¹⁵ And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate! ¹⁶ And the three mighty men broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but he would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh. ¹⁷ And he said, Be it far from me, O Yahweh, that I should do this: [shall I drink] the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their souls? Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

¹⁸ And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was [of] the elite troops. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred and slew them, and had a name among the three. ¹⁹ Was he not most honorable of the thirty? Therefore he was made their captain: nevertheless he didn't attain to the three.

²⁰ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a man of valor of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he slew the two [sons of] Ariel of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. ²¹ And he slew a handsome Egyptian: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²² These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty men. ²³ He was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three. And David set him over his guard.

24 And again the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah. ² And the king said to Joab, the captain of the host, who was with him, Go now to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number* the people, that I may know the sum of the people. ³ And Joab said to the king, May Yahweh your God add to the people, however many they may be, a hundredfold; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it: but why does my lord the king delight in this thing? ⁴ Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. ⁵ And they passed over the Jordan, and began from Aroer and from the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and to Jazer: ⁶ then they came to Gilead, and to the land of the Hittites, to Kadesh; and they came to Dan-jaan, and round about to Sidon, ⁷ and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beer-sheba. ⁸ So when they had gone to and fro through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹ And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

¹⁰ And David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. And David said to Yahweh, I have sinned greatly in that which I have done: but now, O Yahweh, put away, I urge you, the iniquity of your slave; for I have done very foolishly. ¹¹ And when David rose up in the morning, the word of Yahweh came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹² Go and speak to David, Thus says Yahweh, I offer you three things: choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you. ¹³ So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, Will seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or will there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now advise, and consider what answer I will return to him who sent me. ¹⁴ And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of Yahweh; for his mercies are great; and don't let me fall into the hand of man. ¹⁵ So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the time appointed; and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. ¹⁶ And when the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Yahweh repented of the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough; now let down your hand. And the angel of Yahweh was by the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁷ And David spoke to Yahweh when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, Look, I have sinned, and I, the shepherd, have done perversely; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray you, be against me, and against my father's house.

¹⁸ And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, Go up, rear an altar to Yahweh in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁹ And David went up according to the saying of Gad, as Yahweh commanded. ²⁰ And Araunah looked forth, and saw the king and his slaves coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. ²¹ And Araunah said, Why is my lord the king come to his slave? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor of you, to build an altar to Yahweh, that the plague may be stopped from the people. ²² And Araunah said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer up that which is good in his eyes: look, the oxen for the burnt-offering, and the threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for the wood: ²³ all this, O king, does Araunah give to the king. And Araunah said to the king, Yahweh your God accept you. ²⁴ And the king said to Araunah, No; but I will truly buy it of you at a price. Neither will I offer burnt-offerings to Yahweh my God which cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ²⁵ And David built an altar there to Yahweh, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings. So Yahweh was entreated for the land, and the plague was stopped from Israel.

I Kings

1 Now King David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat. ² Therefore his slaves said to him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may get heat. ³ So they sought for a beautiful damsel throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. ⁴ And the damsel was very beautiful; and she cherished the king, and ministered to him; but the king didn't have any sex with her.

⁵ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. ⁶ And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why have you done so? And he was also a very goodly man; and he was born after Absalom. ⁷ And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and those following Adonijah helped him. ⁸ But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. ⁹ And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zohaleth, which is beside En-rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's slaves: ¹⁰ but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he did not call.

¹⁵ And Bathsheba went in to the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king. ¹⁶ And Bathsheba bowed, and did obeisance to the king. And the king said, What do you want? ¹⁷ And she said to him, My lord, you swore by Yahweh your God to your slave, [saying,] Assuredly Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne. ¹⁸ And now, look, Adonijah reigns; and you, my lord the king, do not know it: ¹⁹ and he has slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host; but Solomon your slave he has not called. ²⁰ And you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹ Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king will sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted offenders.

²² And, look, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. ²³ And they told the king, saying, Look, Nathan the prophet. And when he came in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. ²⁴ And Nathan said, My lord, O king, have you said, Adonijah will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne? ²⁵ For he has gone down this day, and has slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, look, they are eating and drinking before him, and say, [Long] live King Adonijah. ²⁶ But me, even me your slave, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your slave Solomon, he has not called. ²⁷ Is this thing done by my lord the king, and you have not shown to your slave who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

²⁸ Then King David answered and said, Call to me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. ²⁹ And the king swore, and said, As Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, ³⁰ truly as I swore to you by Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne in my stead; truly so I will do this day. ³¹ Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did obeisance to the king, and said, Let my lord King David live forever.

³² And King David said, Call to me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. ³³ And the king said to them, Take with you⁺ the slaves of your⁺ lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: ³⁴ and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel; and blow⁺ the trumpet, and say, [Long] live King Solomon. ³⁵ Then you⁺ will come up after him, and he will come and sit on my throne; for he will be king in my stead; and I have appointed him to be leader over Israel and over Judah. ³⁶ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: Yahweh, the God of my lord the king, says so [too]. ³⁷ As Yahweh has been with my lord the king, even so he will be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.

⁴¹ And Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar? ⁴² While he yet spoke, look, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in; for you are a worthy man, and bring good news. ⁴³ And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Truly our lord King David has made Solomon king: ⁴⁴ and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king's mule; ⁴⁵ and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon; and they have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you⁺ have heard. ⁴⁶ And also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷ And moreover the king's slaves came to bless our lord King David, saying, Your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne: and the king bowed himself on the bed. ⁴⁸ And also thus said the king, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it.

2 Now the days of David drew near that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying, ² I am going the way of all the earth: be strong therefore, and show yourself a man;³ and keep the charge of Yahweh your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, [and] his commandments, and his ordinances, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do, and wherever you turn yourself;⁴ that Yahweh may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there will not fail you (he said) a man on the throne of Israel.⁵ Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, even what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his belt that was about his loins, and in his sandals that were on his feet.⁶ Do therefore according to your wisdom, and don't let his hoar head go down to Sheol in peace.⁷ But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those who eat at your table; for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.⁸ And, look, there is with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Yahweh, saying, I will not put you to death with the sword.⁹ Now therefore don't hold him innocent, for you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you will bring his hoar head down to Sheol with blood.

¹⁰ And David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.¹¹ And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty and three years he reigned in Jerusalem.¹² And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

¹³ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come peacefully? And he said, Peacefully.¹⁴ He said moreover, I have something to say to you. And she said, Say on.¹⁵ And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: nevertheless the kingdom has turned about, and has become my brother's; for it was his from Yahweh.¹⁶ And now I ask one petition of you; don't deny me. And she said to him, Say on.¹⁷ And he said, Speak, I pray you, to Solomon the king (for he will not say no to you), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife.¹⁸ And Bathsheba said, Good; I will speak for you to the king.

¹⁹ Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.²⁰ Then she said, I ask one small petition of you; don't deny me. And the king said to her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you.²¹ And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife.²² And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother; and [you ask] for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.²³ Then King Solomon swore by Yahweh, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own soul.²⁴ Now therefore as Yahweh lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, surely Adonijah will be put to death this day.²⁵ And King Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died.

²⁶ And to Abiathar the priest said the king, Go to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death: but I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of the Sovereign Yahweh before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted.²⁷ So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to Yahweh, that he might fulfill the word of Yahweh, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

²⁸ And the news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he didn't turn after Absalom. And Joab fled to the Tent of Yahweh, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.²⁹ And it was told King Solomon, Joab had fled to the Tent of Yahweh, and, look, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent to Joab, saying, What was [wrong] with you that you fled to the altar? And Joab said, Because I was afraid of you, I fled to Yahweh. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall on him.³⁰ And Benaiah came to the Tent of Yahweh, and said to him, Thus says the king, Come forth. And he said, No; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.³¹ And the king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house.³² And Yahweh will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, and my father David didn't know it, [to wit,] Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.³³ So will their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever: but to David, and to his seed, and to his house, and to his throne, there will be peace forever from Yahweh.³⁴ Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell on him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.³⁵ And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the host; and Zadok the priest the king put in the place of Abiathar.

³⁶ And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and don't go forth from there anywhere.³⁷ For on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, know you for certain that you will surely die: your blood will be on your own head.³⁸ And Shimei said to the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king has said, so will your slave do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

³⁹ And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the slaves of Shimei ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Look, your slaves are in Gath.⁴⁰ And Shimei arose, and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his slaves; and Shimei went, and brought his slaves from Gath.⁴¹ And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and came again.⁴² And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Did I not adjure you by Yahweh, and protest to you, saying, Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad anywhere, you will surely die? And you said to me, The saying that I have heard is good.⁴³ Why then haven't you kept the oath of Yahweh, and the commandment that I have charged you with? ⁴⁴ The king said moreover to Shimei, You know all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to David my father: therefore Yahweh will return your wickedness on your own head.⁴⁵ But King Solomon will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before Yahweh forever.⁴⁶ So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of Yahweh, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

² Only the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of Yahweh until those days.
³ And Solomon loved Yahweh, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

⁴ And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer on that altar. ⁵ In Gibeon Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, Ask what I will give you. ⁶ And Solomon said, You have shown to your slave David my father great loving-kindness, according as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you; and you have kept for him this great loving-kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. ⁷ And now, O Yahweh my God, you have made your slave king instead of David my father: and I am but a small lad; I don't know how to go out or come in. ⁸ And your slave is in the midst of your people which you have chosen, a great people, who are too many to be numbered or counted. ⁹ Give your slave therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this your great people?

¹⁰ And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. ¹¹ And God said to him, Because you have asked this thing, and haven't asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the soul of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; ¹² look, I have done according to your word: see, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you will any arise like you. ¹³ And I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there will not be any among the kings like you, all your days. ¹⁴ And if you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days. ¹⁵ And Solomon awoke; and, saw that it was a dream: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made a feast to all his slaves.

¹⁶ Then there came two women who were prostitutes, to the king, and stood before him. ¹⁷ And the one woman said, Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I gave birth with her in the house. ¹⁸ And it came to pass on the third day after I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, only us two in the house. ¹⁹ And this woman's son died in the night, because she laid on him. ²⁰ And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your slave slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom. ²¹ And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, look, he was dead; but when I had looked at him in the morning, I noticed he wasn't my son, whom I bore. ²² And the other woman said, No; but the living is my son, and the dead is your son. And this said, No; but the dead is your son, and the living is my son. Thus they spoke before the king.

²³ Then the king said, The one says, This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead: and the other says, No; but your son is the dead, and my son is the living. ²⁴ And the king said, Fetch me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. ²⁵ And the king said, Cut the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. ²⁶ Then the woman whose son was the living spoke to the king, for her heart yearned over her son, and she said, Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and in no way slay him. But the other said, He will be neither mine nor yours. Cut [him in two]! ²⁷ Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no way slay him: she is his mother. ²⁸ And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

4 And King Solomon was king over all Israel. ² And these were the princes whom he had: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest; ³ Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder; ⁴ and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ⁵ and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was chief ruler, [and] the king's friend; ⁶ and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to slave labor.

²⁹ And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceedingly much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore. ³⁰ And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the sons of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹ For he was wiser than all of man; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all the nations round about. ³² And he spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs were a thousand and five. ³³ And he spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish. ³⁴ And there came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

5 And Hiram king of Tyre sent his slaves to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father: for Hiram was ever a friend of David. ² And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, ³ You know how that David my father could not build a house for the name of Yahweh his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until Yahweh put them under the soles of his feet. ⁴ But now Yahweh my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary, nor evil occurrence. ⁵ And, look, I purpose to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, as Yahweh spoke to David my father, saying, Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he will build the house for my name. ⁶ Now therefore command that they cut for me cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my slaves will be with your slaves; and I will give you wages for your slaves according to all that you will say: for you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.

⁷ And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be Yahweh this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people. ⁸ And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard [the message] which you have sent to me: I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. ⁹ My slaves will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you will appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you will receive them; and you will accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. ¹⁰ So Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire. ¹¹ And Solomon gave Hiram twenty cors of wheat for food to his household, and twenty cors of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. ¹² And Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and the two made a league together.

¹³ And King Solomon raised slave labor out of all Israel; and the slave labor was thirty thousand men. ¹⁴ And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to slave labor. ¹⁵ And Solomon had 70,000 who bore burdens, and 80,000 who were hewers in the mountains; ¹⁶ besides Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who bore rule over the people who wrought in the work. ¹⁷ And the king commanded, and they hewed out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with wrought stone. ¹⁸ And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites fashioned them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of Yahweh. ² And the house which King Solomon built for Yahweh, its length was threescore cubits, and its width twenty [cubits], and its height thirty cubits. ³ And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was its length, according to the width of the house; [and] ten cubits was its width before the house. ⁴ And for the house he made windows of fixed latticework. ⁵ And against the wall of the house he built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle; and he made side-chambers round about. ⁶ The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside he made offsets [in the wall] of the house round about, that [the beams] should not have hold in the walls of the house. ⁷ And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was being built. ⁸ The entrance for the middle story was on the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle [story], and out of the middle into the third. ⁹ So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. ¹⁰ And he built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

¹¹ And the word of Yahweh came to Solomon, saying, ¹² Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father. ¹³ And I will stay among the sons of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

²³ And in the oracle he made two cherubim of olive-wood, each ten cubits high. ²⁴ And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. ²⁵ And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. ²⁶ The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. ²⁷ And he set the cherubim inside the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. ²⁸ And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

7 And Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. ² For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was a hundred cubits, and its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars. ³ And it was covered with cedar above over the forty and five beams, that were on the pillars; fifteen in a row. ⁴ And there were beams in three rows, and window was opposite window in three ranks. ⁵ And all the doors and jambs were made square with beams: and window was opposite window in three ranks. ⁶ And he made the porch of pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them. ⁷ And he made the porch of the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. ⁸ And his house where he was to dwell, the other court inside the porch, was of like work. He also made a house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom Solomon had taken as wife), like this porch.

⁹ All these were of costly stones, even of cut stone, according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court. ¹⁰ And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. ¹¹ And above were costly stones, even cut stone, according to measure, and cedar-wood. ¹² And the great court round about had three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams; like the inner court of the house of Yahweh, and the porch of the house.

¹³ And King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. ¹⁴ He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was filled with the wisdom and the understanding and the knowledge to work all works in bronze. And he came to King Solomon, and wrought all his work. ¹⁵ For he fashioned the two pillars of bronze, eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits encircled either of them about. ¹⁶ And he made two capitals of molten bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. ¹⁷ There were nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. ¹⁸ So he made the pillars; and there were two rows round about on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pomegranates: and so he did for the other capital. ¹⁹ And the capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily-work, four cubits. ²⁰ And there were capitals above also on the two pillars, close by the belly which was beside the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about on the other capital. ²¹ And he set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. ²² And on the top of the pillars was lily-work: so the work of the pillars was finished.

²³ And he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in a circle, and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it round about. ²⁴ And under the brim of it round about there were knops which circled it, for ten cubits, circling the sea round about: the knops were in two rows, cast when it was cast. ²⁵ It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. ²⁶ And it was a handbreadth thick: and its brim was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths.

²⁷ And he made the ten bases of bronze; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits its width, and three cubits its height. ²⁸ And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges; ²⁹ and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. ³⁰ And every base had four bronze wheels, and axles of bronze; and the four feet of it had undersetters: beneath the basin the undersetters were molten, with wreaths at the side of each. ³¹ And the mouth of it inside the capital and above was a cubit: and its mouth was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on the mouth of it were gravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round. ³² And the four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axletrees of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. ³³ And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their felloes, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten. ³⁴ And there were four undersetters at the four corners of each base: its undersetters were of the base itself. ³⁵ And in the top of the base there was a round circle half a cubit high; and on the top of the base its supports and its panels were of the same. ³⁶ And on the plates of its supports, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm-trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths round about. ³⁷ After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.

⁴⁰ And Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he wrought for King Solomon in the house of Yahweh: ⁴¹ the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; ⁴² and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; ⁴³ and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases; ⁴⁴ and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; ⁴⁵ and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for King Solomon, in the house of Yahweh, were of burnished bronze. ⁴⁶ The king had cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. ⁴⁷ And Solomon left all the vessels [unweighed], because they were exceedingly many: the weight of the bronze could not be found out.

⁴⁸ And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Yahweh: the golden altar, and the table on which the showbread was, of gold; ⁴⁹ and the lampstands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; ⁵⁰ and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, [to wit,] of the temple, of gold.

8 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' [houses] of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the city of David, which is Zion. ² And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. ³ And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. ⁴ And they brought up the ark of Yahweh, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; even these the priests and the Levites brought up. ⁵ And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. ⁶ And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. ⁷ For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. ⁸ And the poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there they are to this day. ⁹ There was nothing in the ark but the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, by which Yahweh made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁰ And it came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of Yahweh, ¹¹ so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh.

¹² Then Solomon spoke, Yahweh has said that he would stay in the thick darkness. ¹³ I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever. ¹⁴ And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. ¹⁵ And he said, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hand fulfilled it, saying, ¹⁶ Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel. ¹⁷ Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁸ But Yahweh said to David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: ¹⁹ nevertheless you will not build the house; but your son who will come forth out of your loins, he will build the house for my name. ²⁰ And Yahweh has established his word that he spoke; for I rose up in the place of David my father, and sat on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ²¹ And I have set a place there for the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

²² And Solomon stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven; ²³ and he said, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; who keeps covenant and loving-kindness with your slaves that walk before you with all their heart; ²⁴ who kept with your slave David my father that which you promised him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day. ²⁵ Now therefore, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your slave David my father that which you have promised him, saying, There will not fail from you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me. ²⁶ Now therefore, O God of Israel, let your word, I pray you, be verified, which you spoke to your slave David my father.

²⁷ But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? Look, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you; how much less this house that I have built! ²⁸ Yet you have respect to the prayer of your slave, and to his supplication, O Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your slave prays before you this day; ²⁹ that your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which you have said, My name will be there; to listen to the prayer which your slave will pray toward this place. ³⁰ And you will listen to the supplication of your slave, and of your people Israel, when they will pray toward this place: yes, hear in heaven your dwelling-place; and when you hear, forgive.

³¹ If a man sins against his fellow man, and he is subjected to an oath to cause him to swear, and he comes [and] swears before your altar in this house; ³² then you will hear in heaven, and do, and judge your slaves, condemning the wicked, to bring his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

³⁵ When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them: ³⁶ then you will hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your slaves, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

⁴¹ Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he will come out of a far country for your name's sake ⁴² (for they will hear of your great name, and of your mighty hand, and of your outstretched arm); when he will come and pray toward this house; ⁴³ you will hear in heaven your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you, as [do] your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

⁴⁴ If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you will send them, and they pray to Yahweh toward the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name; ⁴⁵ then you will hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

⁴⁶ If they sin against you, for there is none among man who does not sin, and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near; ⁴⁷ yet if they will bethink themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and plead to you for mercy in the land of those who carried them captive, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have dealt wickedly; ⁴⁸ if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name: ⁴⁹ then you will hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven your dwelling-place, and maintain their cause; ⁵⁰ and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions in which they have transgressed against you; and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them ⁵¹ (for they are your people, and your inheritance, which you brought forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron); ⁵² that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your slave, and to the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you. ⁵³ For you separated them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be your inheritance, as you spoke by Moses your slave, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Sovereign Yahweh.

⁶² And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before Yahweh. ⁶³ And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered to Yahweh, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of Yahweh. ⁶⁴ The same day the king hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of Yahweh; for there he offered the burnt-offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the bronze altar that was before Yahweh was too little to receive the burnt-offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings. ⁶⁵ So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Yahweh our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. ⁶⁶ On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Yahweh had shown to David his slave, and to Israel his people.

9 And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of Yahweh, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, ² that Yahweh appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³ And Yahweh said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before me: I have hallowed this house, which you have built, to put my name there forever; and my eyes and my heart will be there perpetually. ⁴ And as for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; ⁵ then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, according as I promised to David your father, saying, There will not fail to you a man on the throne of Israel. ⁶ But if you⁺ will turn away from following me, you⁺ or your⁺ sons, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you⁺, but will go and serve other gods, and worship them; ⁷ then I will cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, I will cast out of my sight; and Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. ⁸ And this house will be in ruins.^a Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will hiss; and they will say, Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house? ⁹ And they will answer, Because they forsook Yahweh their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them, and served them: therefore Yahweh has brought all this evil on them.

¹⁰ And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Yahweh and the king's house ¹¹ (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire), that then King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹² And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they were not right in his eyes. ¹³ And he said, What cities are these which you have given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul to this day. ¹⁴ And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

²³ These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, who bore rule over the people who wrought in the work.

10 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Yahweh, she came to prove him with hard questions. ² And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. ³ And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hid from the king which he did not tell her. ⁴ And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, ⁵ and the food of his table, and the sitting of his slaves, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Yahweh; there was no more spirit in her. ⁶ And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. ⁷ Nevertheless I didn't believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it: and, look, the half was not told me; your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard. ⁸ Happy are your wives,^a happy are these your slaves, that stand continually before you, [and] that hear your wisdom. ⁹ Blessed be Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel: because Yahweh loved Israel forever, therefore he made you king, to do justice and righteousness. ¹⁰ And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹⁴ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, ¹⁵ besides [that which] the traders [brought], and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mingled people, and of the governors of the country. ¹⁶ And King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred [shekels] of gold went to one buckler. ¹⁷ And [he made] three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁸ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold. ¹⁹ There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were supports on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the supports. ²⁰ And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. ²¹ And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver: it was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon. ²² For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years the navy of Tarshish came, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

²³ So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. ²⁴ And all the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. ²⁵ And they brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

²⁶ And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁷ And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars he made to be as the sycamore-trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. ²⁸ And the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt^b and from Kue.^c The king's merchants acquired those from Kue for a price. ²⁹ And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they would bring them out by their means.

11 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites; ² of the nations concerning which Yahweh said to the sons of Israel, You⁺ will not go among them, neither will they come among you⁺; for surely they will turn away your⁺ heart after their gods. Solomon stuck to these [women] in love. ³ And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. ⁴ For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart wasn't perfect with Yahweh his God, as was the heart of David his father. ⁵ For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the detestable thing^d of the Ammonites. ⁶ And Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and did not go fully after Yahweh, as did David his father. ⁷ Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh the detestable thing^e of Moab, in the mount that is before Jerusalem,^f and for Molech the detestable thing^g of the sons of Ammon. ⁸ And so he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

⁹ And Yahweh was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from Yahweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, ¹⁰ and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he did not keep that which Yahweh commanded. ¹¹ Therefore Yahweh said to Solomon, Since this was done of you, and you haven't kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely rend the kingdom from you, and will give it to your slave.

¹² Notwithstanding in your days I will not do it, for David your father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of your son.
¹³ Nevertheless I will not rend away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David my slave's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

¹⁴ And Yahweh raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. ¹⁵ For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host went up to bury the slain, and had struck every male in Edom ¹⁶ (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom); ¹⁷ that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's slaves with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a small lad. ¹⁸ And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. ¹⁹ And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. ²⁰ And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. ²¹ And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to my own country. ²² Then Pharaoh said to him, But what have you lacked with me, that, look, you seek to go to your own country? And he answered, Nothing: nevertheless only let me depart.

²³ And God raised up [another] adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. ²⁴ And he gathered men to him, and became captain over a troop, when David slew them [of Zobah]: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt in it, and reigned in Damascus. ²⁵ And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad [did]: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

that your soul desires, and will be king over Israel. ³⁸ And it will be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my slave did; that I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. ³⁹ And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not forever. ⁴⁰ Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

12 And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ² And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt, ³ and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴ Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore you make the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you. ⁵ And he said to them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

⁶ And King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel do you⁺ give me to return answer to this people? ⁷ And they spoke to him, saying, If you will be a slave to this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your slaves forever. ⁸ But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. ⁹ And he said to them, What counsel do you⁺ give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter? ¹⁰ And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus you will say to this people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter to us; thus you will speak to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹ And now whereas my father laded you⁺ with a heavy yoke, I will add to your⁺ yoke: my father chastised you⁺ with whips, but I will chastise you⁺ with scorpions.

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day. ¹³ And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, ¹⁴ and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your⁺ yoke heavy, but I will add to your⁺ yoke: my father chastised you⁺ with whips, but I will chastise you⁺ with scorpions. ¹⁵ So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about of Yahweh, that he might establish his word, which Yahweh spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ And when all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion do we have in David? Neither do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your⁺ tents, O Israel: now see to your own house, David. So Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ But as for the sons of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the men subject to slave labor; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. And King Rehoboam made speed to get up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.¹⁹ So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.²⁰ And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

²¹ And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.²² But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ²³ Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, ²⁴ Thus says Yahweh, You⁺ will not go up, nor fight against your⁺ brothers the sons of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the word of Yahweh, and returned and went their way, according to the word of Yahweh.

²⁵ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and dwelt in it; and he went out from there, and built Penuel.²⁶ And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom will return to the house of David: ²⁷ if this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.²⁸ For this reason the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and he said to them, It is too much for you⁺ to go up to Jerusalem: here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.²⁹ And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other he put in Dan.³⁰ And this thing became a sin; for the people went [to worship] before the one, even to Dan.³¹ And he made houses of high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi.³² And Jeroboam appointed a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; so he did in Beth-el, sacrificing to the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places that he had made.³³ And he went up to the altar which he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and he appointed a feast for the sons of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

13 And, look, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of Yahweh to Beth-el: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.² And he cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh, and said, O altar, altar, thus says Yahweh: Look, a son will be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places that burn incense on you, and man's bones they will burn on you.³ And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which Yahweh has spoken: Look, the altar will be rent, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out.⁴ And it came to pass, when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Beth-el, that Jeroboam put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to him.⁵ The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of Yahweh.⁶ And the king answered and said to the man of God, Entreat now the favor of Yahweh your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me again. And the man of God entreated Yahweh, and the king's hand was restored to him again, and became as it was before.⁷ And the king said to the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.⁸ And the man of God said to the king, If you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place;⁹ for so was it charged me by the word of Yahweh, saying, You will eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came.¹⁰ So he went another way, and didn't return by the way that he came to Beth-el.

¹¹ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; and one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken to the king, they also told them to their father.¹² And their father said to them, Which way did he go? Now his sons had seen which way the man of God went, who came from Judah.¹³ And he said to his sons, Saddle me the donkey. So they saddled him the donkey; and he rode on it.¹⁴ And he went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak; and he said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am.¹⁵ Then he said to him, Come home with me, and eat bread.¹⁶ And he said, I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place:¹⁷ for it was said to me by the word of Yahweh, You will eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.¹⁸ And he said to him, I also am a prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of Yahweh, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water. [But] he lied to him.¹⁹ So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

²⁰ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of Yahweh came to the prophet who brought him back;²¹ and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says Yahweh, Since you have been disobedient to the mouth of Yahweh, and haven't kept the commandment which Yahweh your God commanded you,²² but came back, and have eaten bread and drank water in the place of which he said to you, Eat no bread, and drink no water; your body will not come to the tomb of your fathers.²³ And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drank, that he saddled for himself the donkey, [to wit,] for the prophet whom he had brought back.²⁴ And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it; the lion also stood by the body.²⁵ And, look, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

²⁶ And when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient to the mouth of Yahweh: therefore Yahweh has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him, and slain him, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke to him.²⁷ And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle the donkey for me. And they saddled it.²⁸ And he went and found his body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body: the lion had not eaten the body, nor torn the donkey.²⁹ And the prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back; and he came to the city of the old prophet, to mourn, and to bury him.³⁰ And he laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, [saying,] Alas, my brother!³¹ And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.³² For the saying which he cried by the word of Yahweh against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely come to pass.

³³ After this thing Jeroboam did not return from his evil way, but made again from among all the people priests of the high places: whoever would, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places.³⁴ And this thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. ² And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray you, and disguise yourself, that you will not be known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and go to Shiloh: see, there is Ahijah the prophet, who spoke concerning me that I should be king over this people. ³ And take with you ten loaves, and cakes, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he will tell you what will become of the lad. ⁴ And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. ⁵ And Yahweh said to Ahijah, Look, the wife of Jeroboam comes to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick: thus and thus you will say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will feign herself to be another woman.

⁶ And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, you wife of Jeroboam; why feign you yourself to be another? For I am sent to you with difficult news. ⁷ Go, tell Jeroboam, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: Since I exalted you from among the people, and made you leader over my people Israel, ⁸ and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you; and yet you haven't been as my slave David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in my eyes, ⁹ but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made for yourself other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back: ¹⁰ therefore, look, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam [every] one urinating against a wall, whether slave or free in Israel, and will completely sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it is all gone. ¹¹ He of Jeroboam who dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and he who dies in the field, the birds of the heavens will eat: for Yahweh has spoken it. ¹² You arise therefore, go to your house: [and] when your feet enter into the city, the child will die. ¹³ And all Israel will mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam will come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴ Moreover Yahweh will raise up for himself a king over Israel, who will cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? Even now. ¹⁵ For Yahweh will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking Yahweh to anger. ¹⁶ And he will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin.

¹⁷ And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: [and] as she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. ¹⁸ And all Israel buried him, and mourned for him, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by his slave Ahijah the prophet.

¹⁹ And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, look, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ²⁰ And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

²¹ And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ²² And Judah did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. ²³ For they also built themselves high places, and pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree; ²⁴ and there were also homosexuals in the land: they did according to all the disgusting behaviors of the nations which Yahweh drove out before the sons of Israel.

²⁵ And it came to pass in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; ²⁶ and he took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ²⁷ And King Rehoboam made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. ²⁸ And it was so, that, as often as the king went into the house of Yahweh, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber.

15 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah. ² He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ³ And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with Yahweh his God, as the heart of David his father. ⁴ Nevertheless for David's sake Yahweh his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; ⁵ because David did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. ⁶ Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

⁹ And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah. ¹⁰ And forty and one years he reigned in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹ And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, as did David his father. ¹² And he put away the homosexuals out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. ¹³ And also Maacah his mother he removed from being queen, because she had made a horrible image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her horrible image, and burned it at the brook Kidron. ¹⁴ But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with Yahweh all his days. ¹⁵ And he brought into the house of Yahweh the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

¹⁶ And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ¹⁷ And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. ¹⁸ Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his slaves; and King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying, ¹⁹ [There is] a league between me and you, between my father and your father: look, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. ²⁰ And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. ²¹ And it came to pass, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. ²² Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; none was exempted: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and King Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

²³ Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. ²⁴ And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

²⁵ And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. ²⁷ And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸ Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha slew him, and reigned in his stead. ²⁹ And it came to pass that, as soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam: he did not leave to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of Yahweh, which he spoke by his slave Ahijah the Shilonite; ³⁰ for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger.

³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

³² And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

³³ In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, [and reigned] twenty and four years. ³⁴ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

16 And the word of Yahweh came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, ² Since I exalted you out of the dust, and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; ³ look, I will completely sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴ He who dies of Baasha in the city, the dogs will eat; and he who dies of his in the field, the birds of the heavens will eat.

⁸ In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, [and reigned] two years. ⁹ And his slave Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah: ¹⁰ and Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha: he left him not one urinating against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his companions. ¹² Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, ¹³ for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. ¹⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

¹⁵ In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. ¹⁶ And the people who were encamped heard it said, Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king: therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. ¹⁷ And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. ¹⁸ And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the castle of the king's house, and burned the king's house over him with fire, and died, ¹⁹ for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. ²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

²¹ Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. ²² But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. ²³ In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, [and reigned] twelve years: six years he reigned in Tirzah. ²⁴ And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria. ²⁵ And Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him. ²⁶ For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. ²⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁸ So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

²⁹ And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. ³⁰ And Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh above all who were before him. ³¹ And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him. ³² And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. ³³ And Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. ³⁴ In his days Hiel the Beth-elite built Jericho: he laid its foundation with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, who was from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, As Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there will not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. ² And the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, ³ Go from here, and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. ⁴ And it will be, that you will drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there. ⁵ So he went and did according to the word of Yahweh; for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. ⁶ And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. ⁷ And it came to pass after awhile, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

⁸ And the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, ⁹ Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there: look, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you. ¹⁰ So he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, look, a widow was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray you, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. ¹¹ And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray you, a morsel of bread in your hand. ¹² And she said, As Yahweh your God lives, I don't have a cake, but a handful of meal in the jar, and a little oil in the cruse: and, look, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. ¹³ And Elijah said to her, Don't be afraid; go and do as you have said; but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it forth to me, and afterward make for yourself and for your son. ¹⁴ For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, The jar of meal will not waste, neither will the cruse of oil fail, until the day that Yahweh sends rain on the earth. ¹⁵ And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, ate [many] days. ¹⁶ The jar of meal did not waste, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by Elijah.

¹⁷ And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so intense, that there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸ And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, O you man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son! ¹⁹ And he said to her, Give me your son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the chamber, where he dwelt, and laid him on his own bed. ²⁰ And he cried to Yahweh, and said, O Yahweh my God, have you also brought evil on the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? ²¹ And he stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to Yahweh, and said, O Yahweh my God, I pray you, let this child's soul come into him again. ²² And Yahweh listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. ²³ And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, See, your son lives. ²⁴ And the woman said to Elijah, Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of Yahweh in your mouth is truth.

18 And it came to pass after many days, that the word of Yahweh came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain on the earth. ² And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. And the famine was intense in Samaria. ³ And Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah feared Yahweh greatly: ⁴ for it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Yahweh, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) ⁵ And Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land, to all the fountains of water, and to all the brooks: perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we do not lose all the beasts. ⁶ So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

⁷ And as Obadiah was in the way, look, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Is it you, my lord Elijah? ⁸ And he answered him, It is I: go, tell your lord, Look, Elijah [is here]. ⁹ And he said, In what have I sinned, that you would deliver your slave into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? ¹⁰ As Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my lord has not sent to seek you: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you. ¹¹ And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Look, Elijah [is here]. ¹² And it will come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, I don't know where the Spirit of Yahweh will carry you; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will slay me: but I your slave have feared Yahweh from my youth. ¹³ Wasn't it told to my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of Yahweh, how I hid a hundred men of Yahweh's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? ¹⁴ And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Look, Elijah [is here]; and he will slay me. ¹⁵ And Elijah said, As Yahweh of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.

²⁰ So Ahab sent to all the sons of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to mount Carmel. ²¹ And Elijah came near to all the people, and said, How long do you* go limping between the two sides? If Yahweh is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. ²² Then Elijah said to the people, I, even I only, am left a prophet of Yahweh; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. ²³ Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under. ²⁴ And you* call on the name of your* god, and I will call on the name of Yahweh; and the God who answers by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

²⁵ And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose* one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you* are many; and call on the name of your* god, but put no fire under. ²⁶ And they took the bull which was given to them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. And they leaped about the altar which was made. ²⁷ And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god: either he is musing, or he has gone aside, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he sleeps and must be awakened. ²⁸ And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them. ²⁹ And it was so, when midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the [evening] oblation; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who regarded.

³⁰ And Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of Yahweh that was thrown down. ³¹ And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Yahweh came, saying, Israel will be your name.³² And with the stones he built an altar in the name of Yahweh; and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two seahs of seed.³³ And he put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. And he said, Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt-offering, and on the wood.³⁴ And he said, Do it the second time; and they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time; and they did it the third time.³⁵ And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.³⁶ And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the [evening] oblation, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, O Yahweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your slave, and that I have done all these things at your word.³⁷ Hear me, O Yahweh, hear me, that this people may know that you, Yahweh, are God, and [that] you have turned their heart back again.³⁸ Then the fire of Yahweh fell, and consumed the burnt-offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.³⁹ And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, Yahweh, he is God; Yahweh, he is God.⁴⁰ And Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal; don't let one of them escape. And they took them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

⁴¹ And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain.⁴² So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees.⁴³ And he said to his attendant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.⁴⁴ And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Look, there rises a cloud out of the sea, as small as a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say to Ahab, Make ready [your chariot], and go down, that the rain doesn't stop you.⁴⁵ And it came to pass in a little while, that the heavens grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel:⁴⁶ and the hand of Yahweh was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and as well how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.² Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your soul as the soul of one of them by tomorrow about this time.³ And he was afraid, he arose, and went for his soul, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his attendant there.⁴ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree: and he requested for his soul to die, and said, It is enough; now, O Yahweh, take away my soul; for I am not better than my fathers.⁵ And he lay down and slept under a juniper-tree; and, look, an angel touched him, and said to him, Arise and eat.⁶ And he looked and saw that there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water. And he ate and drank, and laid down again.⁷ And the angel of Yahweh came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you.⁸ And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

⁹ And he came there to a cave, and lodged there; and, look, the word of Yahweh came to him, and he said to him, What are you doing here, Elijah?¹⁰ And he said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword: and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my soul, to take it away.¹¹ And he said, Go forth, and stand on the mount before Yahweh. And, look, Yahweh passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yahweh; but Yahweh was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but Yahweh was not in the earthquake:¹² and after the earthquake a fire; but Yahweh was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.¹³ And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. And, look, there came a voice to him, and said, What are you doing here, Elijah?¹⁴ And he said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my soul, to take it away.

¹⁵ And Yahweh said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when you come, you will anoint Hazael to be king over Syria;¹⁶ and Jehu the son of Nimshi you will anoint to be king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you will anoint to be prophet in your place.¹⁷ And it will come to pass, that he who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will slay; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will slay.¹⁸ Yet I will leave [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which haven't bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him.¹⁹ So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke [of oxen] before him, and he [was] with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to him, and cast his mantle on him.²⁰ And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray you, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you?²¹ And he returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.

20 And Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together; and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.² And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said to him, Thus says Ben-hadad,³ Your silver and your gold is mine; your wives also and your sons, even the goodliest, are mine.⁴ And the king of Israel answered and said, It is according to your saying, my lord, O king; I am yours, and all that I have.⁵ And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaks Ben-hadad, saying, I indeed sent to you, saying, You will deliver to me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your sons;⁶ but I will send my slaves to you tomorrow about this time, and they will search your house, and the houses of your slaves; and it will be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hand, and take it away.

⁷ Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Consider, I pray you*, and see how this man seeks mischief: for he sent to me for my wives, and for my sons, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I didn't deny him.⁸ And all the elders and all the people said to him, Don't listen, neither consent.⁹ Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that you sent for to your slave at the first I will do; but this thing I will not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.¹⁰ And Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me.¹¹ And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Don't let him who girds on [his armor] boast himself as he who puts it off.¹² And it came to pass, when [Ben-hadad] heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his slaves, Set [yourselves in array]. And they set [themselves in array] against the city.

¹³ And, look, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, Thus says Yahweh, Have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you will know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁴ And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus says Yahweh, By the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who will begin the battle? And he answered, You. ¹⁵ Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he mustered all the people, even all the sons of Israel, being seven thousand.

¹⁶ And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings who helped him. ¹⁷ And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, Men have come out from Samaria. ¹⁸ And he said, Whether they have come out for peace, take them alive, or whether they have come out for war, take them alive. ¹⁹ So these went out of the city, the young men of the princes of the provinces, and the army which followed them. ²⁰ And they slew every one his man; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen. ²¹ And the king of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

²² And the prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, Go, strengthen yourself, and consider, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you. ²³ And the slaves of the king of Syria said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they. ²⁴ And do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place; ²⁵ and you number for yourself an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they. And he listened to their voice, and did so.

²⁶ And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. ²⁷ And the sons of Israel were mustered, and were victualled, and went against them: and the sons of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of young goats; but the Syrians filled the country. ²⁸ And a man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, Thus says Yahweh, Because the Syrians have said, Yahweh is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys; therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you* will know that I am Yahweh. ²⁹ And they encamped one opposite the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the sons of Israel slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand footmen in one day. ³⁰ But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty and seven thousand men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

³¹ And his slaves said to him, Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, we pray you, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: perhaps he will save your soul. ³² So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and [put] ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Your slave Ben-hadad says, I pray you, let my soul live. And he said, Is he yet alive? He is my brother. ³³ Now the men were using magic, and hurried to catch whether it was his mind; and they said, Your brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go*, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. ³⁴ And [Ben-hadad] said to him, The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you will make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria.

And I, [said Ahab], will let you go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

³⁵ And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow man by the word of Yahweh, Strike me, I pray you. And the man refused to strike him. ³⁶ Then he said to him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, look, as soon as you depart from me, a lion will slay you. And as soon as he departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him. ³⁷ Then he found another man, and said, Strike me, I pray you. And the man struck him, striking and wounding him. ³⁸ So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes. ³⁹ And as the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, Your slave went out into the midst of the battle; and, look, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he is missing, then your soul will be for his soul, otherwise you will pay a talent of silver. ⁴⁰ And as your slave was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said to him, So your judgment will be; you yourself have decided it. ⁴¹ And he hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets. ⁴² And he said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your soul will go for his soul, and your people for his people. ⁴³ And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

21 And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, close by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. ² And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it: or, if it seems good to you, I will give you the worth of it in silver. ³ And Naboth said to Ahab, Yahweh forbid it of me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you. ⁴ And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

⁵ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread? ⁶ And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, Give me your vineyard for silver; otherwise, if it pleases you, I will give you [another] vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give you my vineyard. ⁷ And Jezebel his wife said to him, Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry: I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. ⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, [and] who dwelt with Naboth. ⁹ And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people: ¹⁰ and set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them bear witness against him, saying, You cursed God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him to death.

¹¹ And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according to as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. ¹² They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. ¹³ And the two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him: and the base fellows bore witness against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth cursed God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones. ¹⁴ Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead. ¹⁵ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for silver; for Naboth is not alive, but dead. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

¹⁷ And the word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ¹⁸ Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria: look, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. ¹⁹ And you will speak to him, saying, Thus says Yahweh, Have you killed and also taken possession? And you will speak to him, saying, Thus says Yahweh, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth will dogs lick your blood, even yours. ²⁰ And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, O my enemy? And he answered, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the sight of Yahweh. ²¹ Look, I will bring evil on you, and will completely sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab [every] one urinating against a wall, whether slave or free in Israel: ²² and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin. ²³ And of Jezebel, Yahweh also spoke, saying, The dogs will eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel. ²⁴ He who dies of Ahab in the city, the dogs will eat; and he who dies in the field, the birds of the heavens will eat. ²⁵ (But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. ²⁶ And what he did was very disgusting in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Yahweh cast out before the sons of Israel.)

²⁷ And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. ²⁸ And the word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ²⁹ Do you see how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days I will bring the evil on his house.

22 And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. ² And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. ³ And the king of Israel said to his slaves, Do you⁺ know that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and we are still, and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Syria? ⁴ And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.

⁵ And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Inquire first, I pray you, for the word of Yahweh. ⁶ Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king. ⁷ But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of him? ⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, Micaiah the son of Imlah: but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Don't let the king say so. ⁹ Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah. ¹⁰ Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. ¹¹ And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron, and said, Thus says Yahweh, With these you will push the Syrians, until they are consumed. ¹² And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king.

¹³ And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Look now, the words of the prophets [declare] good to the king with one mouth: let your word, I pray you, be like the word of one of them, and speak good. ¹⁴ And Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what Yahweh says to me, that I will speak. ¹⁵ And when he came to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go up and prosper; and Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king. ¹⁶ And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh? ¹⁷ And he said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and Yahweh said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace. ¹⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? ¹⁹ And [Micaiah] said, Therefore hear the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. ²⁰ And Yahweh said, Who will entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner; and another said on that manner. ²¹ And there came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, I will entice him. ²² And Yahweh said to him, How? And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, You will entice him, and will prevail also: go forth, and do so. ²³ Now therefore, look, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you.

²⁴ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way did the Spirit of Yahweh go from me to speak to you? ²⁵ And Micaiah said, Look, you will see on that day, when you will go into an inner chamber to hide yourself. ²⁶ And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; ²⁷ and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. ²⁸ And Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, you⁺ peoples, all of you⁺.

²⁹ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. ³⁰ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. ³¹ Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, but only with the king of Israel. ³² And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel; and they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³ And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw that it wasn't the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. ³⁴ And a certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor: therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am critically wounded. ³⁵ And the battle increased that day: and the king was propped up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at evening; and the blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. ³⁶ And there went a cry throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his country.

³⁷ So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. ³⁸ And they washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood (now the prostitutes washed themselves [there]); according to the word of Yahweh which he spoke. ³⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁴⁰ So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

⁴¹ And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. ⁴² Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³ And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; he didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. ⁴⁴ And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

⁵¹ Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. ⁵² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. ⁵³ And he served Baal, and worshiped him, and provoked Yahweh to anger, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

II Kings

1 And Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. ² And Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness. ³ But the angel of Yahweh said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you⁺ go to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? ⁴ Now therefore thus says Yahweh, You will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but will surely die. And Elijah departed.

⁵ And the messengers returned to him, and he said to them, Why is it that you⁺ have returned? ⁶ And they said to him, A man came up to meet us, and said to us, Go, turn again to the king who sent you⁺, and say to him, Thus says Yahweh, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but will surely die. ⁷ And he said to them, What manner of man was he who came up to meet you⁺, and told you⁺ these words? ⁸ And they answered him, He was a hairy man, and girded with a loincloth of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

⁹ Then [the king] sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and saw that he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he spoke to him, O man of God, the king has said, Come down. ¹⁰ And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume you and your fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. ¹¹ And again he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said to him, O man of God, thus has the king said, Come down quickly. ¹² And Elijah answered and said to them, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume you and your fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. ¹³ And again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pled to him for mercy, and said to him, O man of God, I pray you, let my life, and the life of these fifty slaves of yours, be precious in your sight. ¹⁴ Look, fire came down from heaven, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight. ¹⁵ And the angel of Yahweh said to Elijah, Go down with him: don't be afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him to the king. ¹⁶ And he said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Since you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but will surely die.

¹⁷ So he died according to the word of Yahweh which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram began to reign in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. ¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 And it came to pass, when Yahweh was to take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. ² And Elijah said to Elisha, Tarry here, I pray you; for Yahweh has sent me as far as Beth-el. And Elisha said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Beth-el. ³ And the sons of the prophets who were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today? And he said, Yes, I know it; hold your⁺ peace. ⁴ And Elijah said to him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray you; for Yahweh has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho. ⁵ And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today? And he answered, Yes, I know it; hold your⁺ peace. ⁶ And Elijah said to him, Tarry here, I pray you; for Yahweh has sent me to the Jordan. And he said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And both of them went on. ⁷ And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood across from them far off: and both of them stood by the Jordan. ⁸ And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that both of them went over on dry ground. ⁹ And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I will do for you, before I am taken from you. And Elisha said, I pray you, let a double portion of your spirit be on me. ¹⁰ And he said, You have asked a hard thing: [nevertheless], if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be so to you; but if not, it will not be so. ¹¹ And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, look, [there appeared] a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, which separated them both apart; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. ¹² And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!

And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. ¹³ He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴ And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah, even he? And when he had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha went over.

¹⁵ And when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho across from him saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. ¹⁶ And they said to him, Look now, there are with your slaves fifty strong men; let them go, we pray you, and seek your master, in case the Spirit of Yahweh has taken him up, and cast him on some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, You⁺ will not send. ¹⁷ And when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but did not find him. ¹⁸ And they came back to him, while he tarried at Jericho; and he said to them, Didn't I say to you⁺, Don't go?

¹⁹ And the men of the city said to Elisha, Look, we pray you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees: but the water is bad, and the land miscarries. ²⁰ And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt in it. And they brought it to him. ²¹ And he went forth to the spring of the waters, and cast salt in it, and said, Thus says Yahweh, I have healed these waters; there will not be from there anymore death or miscarrying. ²² So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

²³ And he went up from there to Beth-el; and as he was going up by the way, there came forth young lads out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, you baldhead; go up, you baldhead. ²⁴ And he looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of Yahweh. And there came forth two she-bears out of the forest, and tore forty and two lads of them. ²⁵ And he went from there to mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

3 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. ² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. ³ Nevertheless he stuck to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart therefrom.

⁴ Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of a hundred thousand lambs, and of a hundred thousand rams. ⁵ But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶ And King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. ⁷ And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me: will you go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses. ⁸ And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom. ⁹ So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, nor for the beasts that followed them. ¹⁰ And the king of Israel said, Alas! For Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. ¹¹ But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may inquire of Yahweh by him? And one of the king of Israel's slaves answered and said, Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah. ¹² And Jehoshaphat said, The word of Yahweh is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

¹³ And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No; for Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. ¹⁴ And Elisha said, As Yahweh of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. ¹⁵ But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Yahweh came upon him. ¹⁶ And he said, Thus says Yahweh, Make this valley full of trenches. ¹⁷ For thus says Yahweh, You⁺ will not see wind, neither will you⁺ see rain; yet that valley will be filled with water, and you⁺ will drink, both you⁺ and your⁺ cattle and your⁺ beasts. ¹⁸ And this is but a light thing in the sight of Yahweh: he will also deliver the Moabites into your⁺ hand. ¹⁹ And you⁺ will strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and will fell every good tree, and stop all fountains of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. ²⁰ And it came to pass in the morning, about the time of offering the oblation, that, look, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

²¹ Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border. ²² And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water across from them as red as blood: ²³ and they said, This is blood; the kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each man his fellow man: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. ²⁴ And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went there and struck the Moabites. ²⁵ And they beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the fountains of water, and felled all the good trees, until they left [only] its stones in Kir-hareseth; nevertheless the slingers went about it, and struck it. ²⁶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too intense for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew the sword, to break through to the king of Syria; but they could not. ²⁷ Then he took his eldest son who should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering on the wall. And there was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

4 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, Your slave my husband is dead; and you know that your slave did fear Yahweh: and the creditor has come to take to him my two children to be slaves. ² And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me; what do you have in the house? And she said, Your slave doesn't have anything in the house, but a pot of oil. ³ Then he said, Go, borrow for yourself vessels abroad of all your neighbors, even empty vessels; don't borrow a few. ⁴ And you will go in, and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour out into all those vessels; and you will set aside that which is full. ⁵ So she went from him, and shut the door on her and on her sons; they brought [the vessels] to her, and she poured out. ⁶ And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, Bring me another vessel. And he said to her, There is not another vessel. And the oil stopped. ⁷ Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt, and you and your sons live from the rest.

⁸ And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where there was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. ⁹ And she said to her husband, Look now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us continually. ¹⁰ Let us make, I pray you, a little chamber on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a seat, and a lampstand: and it will be, when he comes to us, that he will turn in there. ¹¹ And it fell on a day, that he came there, and he turned into the chamber and lay there. ¹² And he said to Gehazi his attendant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. ¹³ And he said to him, Say now to her, Look, you have been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for you? Would you be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among my own people. ¹⁴ And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Truly she has no son, and her husband is old. ¹⁵ And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door. ¹⁶ And he said, At this season, when the time comes round, you will embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your slave.

¹⁷ And the woman became pregnant, and gave birth to a son at that season, when the time came round, as Elisha had said to her. ¹⁸ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. ¹⁹ And he said to his father, My head, my head. And he said to his attendant, Carry him to his mother. ²⁰ And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. ²¹ And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] on him, and went out. ²² And she called to her husband, and said, Send me, I pray you, one of the attendants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again. ²³ And he said, Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath. And she said, It will be well. ²⁴ Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her attendant, Drive, and go forward; don't slow down the riding for me, except I bid you. ²⁵ So she went, and came to the man of God to mount Carmel.

And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her far off, that he said to Gehazi his attendant, Look, yonder is the Shunammite: ²⁶ run, I pray you, now to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well. ²⁷ And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, Leave her alone: for her soul is vexed inside her; and Yahweh has hid it from me, and has not told me. ²⁸ Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? Did I not say, Don't deceive me? ²⁹ Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go your way: if you meet any man, don't greet him; and if any greets you, don't answer him again: and lay my staff on the face of the child. ³⁰ And the mother of the child said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he arose, and followed her. ³¹ And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child did not awaken.

³² And when Elisha came into the house, look, the child was dead, and laid on his bed. ³³ He went in therefore, and shut the door on both of them, and prayed to Yahweh. ³⁴ And he went up, and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands: and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. ³⁵ Then he returned, and walked in the house once to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself on him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. ³⁶ And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her.

And when she came in to him, he said, Take up your son. ³⁷ Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.

³⁸ And Elisha came again to Gilgal. And there was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his attendant, Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets. ³⁹ And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage; for they did not know them. ⁴⁰ So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat of it. ⁴¹ But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.

⁴² And there came a man from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, Give to the people, that they may eat. ⁴³ And his minister said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? But he said, Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says Yahweh, They will eat, and will have some left. ⁴⁴ So he set it before them, and they ate, and had some left, according to the word of Yahweh.

5 Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him Yahweh had given victory to Syria: he was also a mighty man of valor, [but he was] a leper. ² And the Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman's wife. ³ And she said to her mistress, Oh that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would recover him of his leprosy. ⁴ And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maiden who is of the land of Israel. ⁵ And the king of Syria said, Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand [pieces] of gold, and ten changes of raiment. ⁶ And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, And now when this letter has come to you, look, I have sent Naaman my slave to you, that you may recover him of his leprosy. ⁷ And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to recover a man of his leprosy? But consider, I pray you, and see how he seeks a quarrel against me.

⁸ And it was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Why have you rent your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel. ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰ And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will come again to you, and you will be clean. ¹¹ But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, Look, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Yahweh his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper. ¹² Are not Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. ¹³ And his slaves came near, and spoke to him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid you do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, Wash, and be clean? ¹⁴ Then he went down, and dipped [himself] seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh came again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

¹⁵ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, Look now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray you, take a present of your slave. ¹⁶ But he said, As Yahweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused. ¹⁷ And Naaman said, If not, yet, I pray you, let there be given to your slave two mules' burden of earth; for your slave will from now on offer neither burnt-offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to Yahweh. ¹⁸ In this thing Yahweh pardon your slave: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, Yahweh pardon your slave in this thing. ¹⁹ And he said to him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

²⁰ But Gehazi the attendant of Elisha the man of God, said, Look, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: as Yahweh lives, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. ²¹ So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw one running after him, he dismounted from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well? ²² And he said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Look, even now there have come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; give them, I pray you, a talent of silver, and two changes of raiment. ²³ And Naaman said, Be pleased to take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of raiment, and laid them on two of his attendants; and they bore them before him. ²⁴ And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house; and he let the men go, and they departed. ²⁵ But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, Where did you come from, Gehazi? And he said, Your slave went no where. ²⁶ And he said to him, Didn't my heart go [with you], when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive silver, and to receive garments, and oliveyards and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and male slaves and female slaves? ²⁷ The leprosy therefore of Naaman will stick to you, and to your seed forever. And he went out from his presence a leper [as white] as snow.

6 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, Look now, the place where we dwell before you is too strait for us. ² Let us go, we pray you, to the Jordan, and take from there every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go⁺. ³ And one said, Be pleased, I pray you, to go with your slaves. And he answered, I will go. ⁴ So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. ⁵ But as one was felling a beam, the ax-head fell into the water; and he cried, and said, Alas, my master! For it was borrowed. ⁶ And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in there, and made the iron to swim. ⁷ And he said, Take it up to you. So he put out his hand, and took it.

⁸ Now the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his slaves, saying, In such and such a place will be my camp. ⁹ And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you do not pass such a place; for the Syrians are coming down there. ¹⁰ And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice. ¹¹ And the heart of the king of Syria was very troubled for this thing; and he called his slaves, and said to them, Will you⁺ not show me which of us is for the king of Israel? ¹² And one of his slaves said, No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber. ¹³ And he said, Go and see where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Look, he is in Dothan.

¹⁴ Therefore he sent there horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and surrounded the city. ¹⁵ And when the minister of the man of God had risen early, and gone forth, look, a host with horses and chariots was round about the city. And servant said to him, Alas, my master! What shall we do? ¹⁶ And he answered, Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them. ¹⁷ And Elisha prayed, and said, Yahweh, I pray you, open his eyes, that he may see. And Yahweh opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, look, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. ¹⁸ And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yahweh, and said, Strike this people, I pray you, with blindness. And he struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. ¹⁹ And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you⁺ to the man whom you⁺ seek. And he led them to Samaria.

²⁰ And it came to pass, when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Yahweh, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And Yahweh opened their eyes, and they saw; and, look, they were in the midst of Samaria. ²¹ And the king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them? ²² And he answered, You will not strike them: would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. ²³ And he prepared great provision for them; and when they had eaten and drank, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria did not come into the land of Israel anymore.

²⁴ And it came to pass after this, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵ And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, look, they besieged it, until a donkey's head was sold for 80 [shekels] of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five [shekels] of silver. ²⁶ And as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. ²⁷ And he said, If Yahweh does not help you, from where shall I help you? Out of the threshing-floor, or out of the wine press? ²⁸ And the king said to her, What ails you? And she answered, This woman said to me, Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow. ²⁹ So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, Give your son, that we may eat him; and she has hid her son. ³⁰ And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes (now he was passing by on the wall); and the people looked and saw that he had sackcloth inside on his flesh. ³¹ Then he said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat will stand on him this day.

³² But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him; and [the king] sent a man from before him: but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Do you⁺ see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door fast against him: isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him? ³³ And while he was yet talking with them, look, the king came down to him: and he said, Look, this evil is of Yahweh; why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?

7 And Elisha said, Hear⁺ the word of Yahweh: thus says Yahweh, Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour will be [sold] for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. ² Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Look, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Look, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat of it.

³ Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate: and they said one to another, Why do we sit here until we die? ⁴ If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we will die there; and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall to the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will but die. ⁵ And they rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, look, there was no man there. ⁶ For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. ⁷ Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their soul. ⁸ And when these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank, and carried from there silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried from there also, and went and hid it.

⁹ Then they said one to another, We are not doing right; this day is a day of good news, and we hold our peace: if we tarry until the morning light, punishment will overtake us; now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household. ¹⁰ So they came and called to the porter of the city; and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, look, there was not a man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were. ¹¹ And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's household inside. ¹² And the king arose in the night, and said to his slaves, I will now show you⁺ what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we will take them alive, and get into the city. ¹³ And one of his slaves answered and said, Let some take, I pray you, five of the horses that remain, which are left in it, look, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are consumed; and let us send and see. ¹⁴ They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. ¹⁵ And they went after them to the Jordan: and, look, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their hurry. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

¹⁶ And the people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was [sold] for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, according to the word of Yahweh. ¹⁷ And the king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. ¹⁸ And it came to pass, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two seahs of barley will be for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria; ¹⁹ and that captain answered the man of God, and said, Now, look, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Look, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat of it: ²⁰ it came to pass even so to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.

8 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn: for Yahweh has called for a famine; and it will also come upon the land seven years. ² And the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God; and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. ³ And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land. ⁴ Now the king was talking with Gehazi the attendant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray you, all the great things that Elisha has done. ⁵ And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that, look, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life. ⁶ And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

⁷ And Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick; and he was told, saying, The man of God has come here. ⁸ And the king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Yahweh by him, saying, Will I recover of this sickness? ⁹ So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Will I recover of this sickness? ¹⁰ And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, You will surely recover; nevertheless Yahweh has shown me that he will surely die. ¹¹ And he settled his countenance steadfastly [on him], until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. ¹² And Hazael said, Why is my lord weeping? And he answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel: their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will slay with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their pregnant women. ¹³ And Hazael said, But what is your slave, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, Yahweh has shown me that you will be king over Syria. ¹⁴ Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And he answered, He told me that you would surely recover. ¹⁵ And it came to pass on the next day, that he took the coverlet, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

¹⁶ And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. ¹⁷ He was thirty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife; and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹⁹ Nevertheless Yahweh would not destroy Judah, for David his slave's sake, as he promised him to give to him a lamp to his sons always.

²⁰ In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. ²¹ Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents. ²² So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then did Libnah revolt at the same time. ²³ And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁴ And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. ²⁶ Ahaziah was two and twenty years old, when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. ²⁷ And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸ And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. ²⁹ And King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

9 And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, Gird up your loins, and take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. ² And when you come there, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brothers, and carry him to an inner chamber. ³ Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus says Yahweh, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and don't tarry. ⁴ So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. ⁵ And when he came, look, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have a message for you, O captain. And Jehu said, To which of us all? And he said, To you, O captain. ⁶ And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, I have anointed you king over the people of Yahweh, even over Israel. ⁷ And you will strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my slaves the prophets, and the blood of all the slaves of Yahweh, at the hand of Jezebel. ⁸ For the whole house of Ahab will perish; and I will cut off from Ahab [every] one urinating against a wall, whether slave or free in Israel. ⁹ And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. ¹⁰ And the dogs will eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there will be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

¹¹ Then Jehu came forth to the slaves of his lord: and one said to him, Is all well? Why did this insane fellow come to you? And he said to them, You⁺ know the man and what his talk was. ¹² And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I have anointed you king over Israel. ¹³ Then they hurried, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is king.

¹⁴ So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria; ¹⁵ but King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it is in your⁺ soul, then let none escape and go forth out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel. ¹⁶ So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah came down to see Joram.

¹⁷ Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? ¹⁸ So one went on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he didn't come back. ¹⁹ Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me. ²⁰ And the watchman told, saying, He came even to them, and didn't come back: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously.

²¹ And Joram said, Get ready. And they got his chariot ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²² And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many? ²³ And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah. ²⁴ And Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. ²⁵ Then [Jehu] said to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and you rode together after Ahab his father, Yahweh laid this burden on him: ²⁶ Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says Yahweh; and I will repay you in this plot [of ground], says Yahweh. Now therefore take and cast him into the plot, according to the word of Yahweh.

²⁷ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, "Him too. Kill him." [This happened] in the chariot at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. ²⁸ And his slaves carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.

²⁹ And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah. ³⁰ And when Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window. ³¹ And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Is it peace, Zimri, your master's murderer? ³² And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? Who? And two or three eunuchs looked out to him. ³³ And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses; and he trod her under foot. ³⁴ And when he came in, he ate and drank; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she's a king's daughter. ³⁵ And they went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. ³⁶ Therefore they came back, and told him. And he said, This is the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by his slave Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel will the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel; ³⁷ and the body of Jezebel will be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they will not say, This is Jezebel.

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters to the rulers of Samaria, to the elders of Jezreel, and to the tutors [appointed by] Ahab, saying, ² And now as soon as this letter comes to you⁺, seeing your⁺ master's sons are with you⁺, and there are with you⁺ chariots and horses, and a fortified city, and armor; ³ look⁺ for the best and meet of your⁺ master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your⁺ master's house. ⁴ But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Look, the two kings didn't stand before him: how then shall we stand? ⁵ And he who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who brought up [the children], sent to Jehu, saying, We are your slaves, and will do all that you will bid us; we will not make any man king: do that which is good in your eyes. ⁶ Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you⁺ are on my side, and if you⁺ will listen to my voice, take⁺ the heads of the men your⁺ master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up. ⁷ And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel. ⁸ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay⁺ them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning. ⁹ And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, You⁺ are righteous: look, I conspired against my master, and slew him; but who struck all these? ¹⁰ Now know that nothing will fall to the earth of the word of Yahweh, which Yahweh spoke concerning the house of Ahab: for Yahweh has done that which he spoke by his slave Elijah. ¹¹ So Jehu struck all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and those who he knew well, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

¹² And he arose and departed, and went to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing-house of the shepherds in the way, ¹³ Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are you⁺? And they answered, We are the brothers of Ahaziah: and we go down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen. ¹⁴ And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men; neither did he leave any of them. ¹⁵ And when he had departed from there, he found Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him, and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it is, give me your hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. ¹⁶ And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for Yahweh. So they made him ride in his chariot. ¹⁷ And when he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke to Elijah.

¹⁸ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. ¹⁹ Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice [to do] to Baal; whoever will be wanting, he will not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the intent that he might destroy the worshipers of Baal. ²⁰ And Jehu said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. ²¹ And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who didn't come. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. ²² And he said to him who was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshipers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. ²³ And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said to the worshipers of Baal, Search and look, in case there are here with you⁺ any of the slaves of Yahweh, but only the worshipers of Baal themselves [should be here]. ²⁴ And they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt-offerings. Now Jehu had appointed himself eighty men outside, and said, If any of the men whom I bring into your⁺ hands escape, [he who lets him go], his soul will be for the soul of him.

²⁵ And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the citadel of the house of Baal. ²⁶ And they brought forth the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them. ²⁷ And they broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it an outside latrine, to this day. ²⁸ Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

²⁹ Nevertheless from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin, Jehu didn't depart from after them, [to wit,] the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. ³⁰ And Yahweh said to Jehu, Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, [and] have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Israel. ³¹ But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yahweh, the God of Israel, with all his heart: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin.

³² In those days Yahweh began to cut off from Israel: and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel; ³³ from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. ³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ³⁵ And Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead. ³⁶ And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

11 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed. ² But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, even him and his nurse [and put them] in the bedchamber; and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain; ³ And he was hid with her in the house of Yahweh six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

⁴ And in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of Yahweh; and he made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of Yahweh, and showed them the king's son. ⁵ And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you⁺ will do: a third part of you⁺, that come in on the Sabbath, will be keepers of the watch of the king's house; ⁶ And a third part will be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so you⁺ will keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier. ⁷ And the two companies of you⁺, even all who go forth on the Sabbath, will keep the watch of the house of Yahweh about the king. ⁸ And you⁺ will circle the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes inside the ranks, let him be slain: and be⁺ with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in.

¹³ And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard [and of] the people, she came to the people into the house of Yahweh: ¹⁴ and she looked and saw that the king stood by the pillar, as the manner was, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason! Treason! ¹⁵ And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Bring her forth between the ranks; and slay him who follows her with the sword. For the priest said, Don't let her be slain in the house of Yahweh. ¹⁶ So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house: and there she was slain.

between the king also and the people. ¹⁸ And all the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of Yahweh. ¹⁹ And he took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of Yahweh, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. ²⁰ So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they had slain Athaliah with the sword at the king's house. ²¹ Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

12 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ² And Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. ³ Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

⁹ But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Yahweh: and the priests who kept the threshold put in it all the silver that was brought into the house of Yahweh. ¹⁰ And it was so, when they saw that there was much silver in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put in bags and counted the silver that was found in the house of Yahweh. ¹¹ And they gave the silver that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, that had the oversight of the house of Yahweh: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, that wrought on the house of Yahweh, ¹² and to the masons and the hewers of stone, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the breaches of the house of Yahweh, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. ¹³ But there were not made for the house of Yahweh cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the silver that was brought into the house of Yahweh; ¹⁴ for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired the house of Yahweh with it. ¹⁵ Moreover they did not reckon with the men, into whose hand they delivered the silver to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶ The silver for the trespass-offerings, and the silver for the sin-offerings, was not brought into the house of Yahweh: it was the priests'.

and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

²⁰ And his slaves arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, [on the way] that goes down to Silla.

13 In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] seventeen years. ² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart therefrom. ³ And the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually. ⁴ And Jehoahaz implored Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them. ⁵ (And Yahweh gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the sons of Israel dwelt in their tents as formerly. ⁶ Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin, but they walked in them: and the Asherah also remained in Samaria.) ⁷ For he did not leave to Jehoahaz of the people but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing. ⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁹ And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁰ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] sixteen years. ¹¹ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked in them. ¹² Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ¹³ And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴ Now Elisha had fallen sick of his sickness of which he died: and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen! ¹⁵ And Elisha said to him, Take a bow and arrows; and he took to himself a bow and arrows. ¹⁶ And he said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow; and he put his hand [on it]. And Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. ¹⁷ And he said, Open the window eastward; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot; and he shot. And he said, Yahweh's arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you will strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them. ¹⁸ And he said, Take the arrows; and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike on the ground; and he struck three times, and stopped. ¹⁹ And the man of God was angry with him, and said, You should have struck five or six times: then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you will strike Syria but three times.

²⁰ And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. ²¹ And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, look, they spied a band; and they hastily put^a the man into the tomb of Elisha. And they went [in], and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

²² And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³ But Yahweh was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither did he cast them from his presence as yet. ²⁴ And Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his stead. ²⁵ And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times Joash struck him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

14 In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah began to reign. ² He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. ³ And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done. ⁴ Nevertheless the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. ⁵ And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he slew his slaves who had slain the king his father: ⁶ but the sons of the murderers he did not put to death; according to that which is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, The fathers will not be put to death for the sons, nor the sons be put to death for the fathers; but every man will die for his own sin. ⁷ He slew of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, to this day.

⁸ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. ⁹ And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle. ¹⁰ You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up: glory of it, and remain at home; for why should you meddle to [your] hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?

the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ¹⁹ And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there. ²⁰ And they brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. ²¹ And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. ²² He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, [and reigned] forty and one years. ²⁴ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. ²⁵ He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of Yahweh, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his slave Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath-hepher. ²⁶ For Yahweh saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel. ²⁷ And Yahweh didn't say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

15 In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign. ² He was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. ³ And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. ⁴ Nevertheless the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. ⁵ And Yahweh struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house. And Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land. ⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁷ And Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

⁸ In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. ⁹ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as his fathers had done: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. ¹⁰ And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. ¹¹ Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, look, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ¹² This was the word of Yahweh which he spoke to Jehu, saying, Your sons to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Israel. And so it came to pass.

¹³ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned the space of a month in Samaria. ¹⁴ And Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. ¹⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, look, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ¹⁶ Then Menahem struck Tiphshah, and all who were in it, and its borders, from Tirzah: because they did not open to him, therefore he struck it; and all the women in it who were pregnant he ripped up.

¹⁷ In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, [and reigned] ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. ¹⁹ There came against the land Pul the king of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. ²⁰ And Menahem exacted the silver of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and didn't remain there in the land. ²¹ Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²² And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] two years. ²⁴ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. ²⁵ And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and struck him in Samaria, in the castle of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites: and he slew him, and reigned in his stead. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, look, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

²⁷ In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] twenty years. ²⁸ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.

²⁹ In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria. ³⁰ And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. ³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, look, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

³³ He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴ And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. ³⁵ Nevertheless the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh. ³⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ³⁷ In those days Yahweh began to send against Judah, Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. ³⁸ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. ² Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh his God, like David his father. ³ But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the disgusting behaviors of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the sons of Israel. ⁴ And he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. ⁶ At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Edomites came to Elath, and dwelt there, to this day.

⁷ So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am your slave and your son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me. ⁸ And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria. ⁹ And the king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried [the people of] it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

¹⁰ And King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all its workmanship. ¹¹ And Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Urijah the priest made it against the coming of King Ahaz from Damascus. ¹² And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered on it. ¹³ And he burned his burnt-offering and his meal-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings, on the altar. ¹⁴ And the bronze altar, which was before Yahweh, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of Yahweh, and put it on the north side of his altar. ¹⁵ And King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, On the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meal-offering, and the king's burnt-offering, and his meal-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meal-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: but the bronze altar will be for me to inquire by. ¹⁶ Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel, [and reigned] nine years. ² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. ³ Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his slave, and brought him tribute. ⁴ And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. ⁵ Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. ⁶ In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

⁷ And it was so, because the sons of Israel had sinned against Yahweh their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and had feared other gods; ⁸ and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the sons of Israel; and [walked in the statutes] which the kings of Israel made. ⁹ And the sons of Israel secretly did things that were not right against Yahweh their God: and they built themselves high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city; ¹⁰ and they set themselves up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree; ¹¹ and there they burned incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom Yahweh carried away before them; and they wrought wicked things to provoke Yahweh to anger; ¹² and they served idols, of which Yahweh had said to them, You⁺ will not do this thing. ¹³ Yet Yahweh testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, Turn⁺ from your⁺ evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your⁺ fathers, and which I sent to you⁺ by my slaves the prophets. ¹⁴ Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who didn't believe in Yahweh their God. ¹⁵ And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and [went] after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Yahweh had charged them that they should not act like them. ¹⁶ And they forsook all the commandments of Yahweh their God, and made themselves molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. ¹⁷ And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and told the future and used magic, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger. ¹⁸ Therefore Yahweh was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.

¹⁹ Also Judah did not keep the commandments of Yahweh their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. ²⁰ And Yahweh rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. ²¹ For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following Yahweh, and made them sin a great sin. ²² And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them; ²³ until Yahweh removed Israel out of his sight, as he spoke by all his slaves the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.

²⁷ Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry there one of the priests whom you⁺ brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land. ²⁸ So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear Yahweh. ²⁹ Nevertheless every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they dwelt. ³⁰ And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, ³¹ and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their sons in the fire to Adramelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³² So they feared Yahweh, and made to them from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. ³³ They feared Yahweh, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

³⁴ To this day they do after the former manner: they don't fear Yahweh, neither do they act after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law or after the commandment which Yahweh commanded the sons of Jacob, whom he named Israel; ³⁵ with whom Yahweh had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, You⁺ will not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: ³⁶ but Yahweh, who brought you⁺ up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, him you⁺ will fear, and to him you⁺ will bow yourselves, and to him you⁺ will sacrifice: ³⁷ and the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you⁺, you⁺ will observe to do forevermore; and you⁺ will not fear other gods: ³⁸ and the covenant that I have made with you⁺ you⁺ will not forget; neither will you⁺ fear other gods: ³⁹ but Yahweh your⁺ God you⁺ will fear; and he will deliver you⁺ out of the hand of all your⁺ enemies. ⁴⁰ Nevertheless they did not listen, but they did after their former manner. ⁴¹ So these nations feared Yahweh, and served their graven images; their sons likewise, and the sons of their sons, as did their fathers, so they do to this day.

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. ² He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. ³ And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that David his father had done. ⁴ He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for in those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. ⁵ He trusted in Yahweh, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [among them] who were before him. ⁶ For he stuck to Yahweh; he did not depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which Yahweh commanded Moses. ⁷ And Yahweh was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him. ⁸ He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.

⁹ And it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. ¹⁰ And at the end of three years they took it: in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. ¹¹ And the king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹² because they didn't obey the voice of Yahweh their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the slave of Yahweh commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

¹⁹ And Rabshakeh said to them, Say⁺ now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust? ²⁰ You say (but they are but vain words), [There is] counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? ²¹ Now, look, you trust on the staff of this bruised reed, even on Egypt; on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. ²² But if you⁺ say to me, We trust in Yahweh our God; isn't that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You⁺ will worship before this altar in Jerusalem? ²³ Now therefore, I pray you, give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ²⁴ How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's slaves, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ²⁵ Have I now come up without Yahweh against this place to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

²⁶ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray you, to your slaves in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and don't speak with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. ²⁷ But Rabshakeh said to them, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? [Has he] not [sent me] to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own feces, and to drink their own urine with you⁺? ²⁸ Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, Hear⁺ the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. ²⁹ Thus says the king, Don't let Hezekiah deceive you⁺; for he will not be able to deliver you⁺ out of his hand: ³⁰ neither let Hezekiah make you⁺ trust in Yahweh, saying, Yahweh will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ³¹ Don't listen to Hezekiah: for thus says the king of Assyria, Make your⁺ peace with me, and come out to me; and eat⁺ every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink⁺ every one the waters of his own cistern; ³² Until I come and take you⁺ away to a land like your⁺ own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you⁺ may live, and not die: and don't listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you⁺, saying, Yahweh will deliver us. ³³ Have any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴ Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ³⁵ Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

19 And it came to pass, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. ² And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. ³ And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of disgrace; for the children have come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. ⁴ It may be Yahweh your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard: therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant who is left. ⁵ So the slaves of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶ And Isaiah said to them, Thus you⁺ will say to your⁺ master, Thus says Yahweh, Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the attendants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷ Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear [some] news, and will return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. ⁸ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. ⁹ And when he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Look, he has come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ Thus you⁺ will speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹ Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them completely: and will you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

¹⁴ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of Yahweh, and spread it before Yahweh. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed before Yahweh, and said, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sits [above] the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth. ¹⁶ Incline your ear, O Yahweh, and hear; open your eyes, O Yahweh, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent him to defy the living God. ¹⁷ Of a truth, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations, ¹⁸ and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of man's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ¹⁹ Now therefore, O Yahweh our God, save us, I urge you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you Yahweh are God alone.

²⁰ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard [you]. ²¹ This is the word that Yahweh has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²² Whom have you defied and blasphemed? And against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? [Even] against the Holy One of Israel. ²³ By your messengers you have defied the Lord, and have said, When I mount my chariot I will come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir-trees; and I will enter into its farthest lodging-place, its park forest. ²⁴ I have dug and drank strange waters, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt.

²⁵ Have you not heard how I had done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. ²⁶ Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as grain blighted before it is grown up. ²⁷ I know your rising up, and your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁸ Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.

³⁵ And it came to pass that night, that the angel of Yahweh went forth, and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians: and when men arose early in the morning, look, these were all dead bodies. ³⁶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. ³⁷ And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

20 In those days Hezekiah was sick to death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Set your house in order: for you will die, and not live. ² Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh, saying, ³ Remember now, O Yahweh, I urge you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight. And Hezekiah wept intensely. ⁴ And it came to pass, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle part of the city, that the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, ⁵ Turn back, and say to Hezekiah the leader of my people, Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: look, I will heal you; on the third day you will go up to the house of Yahweh. ⁶ And I will add to your days fifteen years; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my slave David's sake. ⁷ And Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

⁸ And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What will be the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I will go up to the house of Yahweh the third day? ⁹ And Isaiah said, This will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do the thing that he has spoken: The shadow has gone forward ten steps. Shall it come back ten steps? ¹⁰ And Hezekiah answered, It is an easy thing for the shadow to decline ten steps, no,^a but let the shadow return backward ten steps. ¹¹ And Isaiah the prophet cried to Yahweh; and he brought back the shadow on the steps it had gone down, on the steps of Ahaz, backward ten steps.

¹² At that time Berodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. ¹³ And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. ¹⁴ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, What did these men say? And from where did they come to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country, even from Babylon. ¹⁵ And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house they have seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.

¹⁶ And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yahweh. ¹⁷ Look, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, will be carried to Babylon: nothing will be left, says Yahweh. ¹⁸ And of your sons who will issue from you, whom you will beget, they will take away; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. ¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Yahweh which you have spoken is good. He said moreover, Is it not so, if peace and truth will be in my days? ²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²¹ And Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned five and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hephzibah. ² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, after the disgusting behaviors of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the sons of Israel. ³ For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. ⁴ And he built altars in the house of Yahweh, of which Yahweh said, In Jerusalem I will put my name. ⁵ And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of Yahweh. ⁶ And he made his son to pass through the fire, and interpreted omens, and used magic, and dealt with spiritists and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger. ⁷ And he set the graven image of Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which Yahweh said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever; ⁸ neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander anymore out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my slave Moses commanded them. ⁹ But they didn't listen: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than did the nations whom Yahweh destroyed before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ And Yahweh spoke by his slaves the prophets, saying, ¹¹ Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these disgusting things, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols; ¹² therefore this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Look, I bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle. ¹³ And I will stretch over

Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴ And I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they will become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; ¹⁵ because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even to this day.

¹⁶ Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ¹⁸ And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁹ Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did Manasseh his father. ²¹ And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them: ²² and he forsook Yahweh, the God of his fathers, and didn't walk in the way of Yahweh. ²³ And the slaves of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house. ²⁴ But the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against King Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead. ²⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁶ And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. ² And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in all the way of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

³ And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Yahweh, saying, ⁴ Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of Yahweh, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people: ⁵ and let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of Yahweh, to repair the breaches of the house, ⁶ to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. ⁷ Nevertheless there was no reckoning made with them of the silver that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully.

⁸ And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the house of Yahweh. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ⁹ And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Your slaves have emptied out the silver that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh. ¹⁰ And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has delivered to me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he rent his clothes. ¹² And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's slave, saying, ¹³ Go⁺, inquire of Yahweh for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that was found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is kindled against us, because our fathers haven't listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.

¹⁴ So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they communed with her. ¹⁵ And she said to them, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: Tell⁺ the man who sent you⁺ to me, ¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. ¹⁷ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched. ¹⁸ But to the king of Judah, who sent you⁺ to inquire of Yahweh, thus you⁺ will say to him, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: As concerning the words which you have heard, ¹⁹ because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before Yahweh, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have rent your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh. ²⁰ Therefore, look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, neither will your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place. And they brought the king word again.

23 And the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. ² And the king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the house of Yahweh. ³ And the king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all [his] heart, and all [his] soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant.

⁴ And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of the temple of Yahweh all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of heaven, and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Beth-el. ⁵ And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; those also that burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. ⁶ And he brought out the Asherah from the house of Yahweh, outside Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust on the graves of the common people. ⁷ And he broke down the houses of the homosexuals, who were in the house of Yahweh, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah. ⁸ And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. ⁹ Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't come up to the altar of Yahweh in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. ¹⁰ And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. ¹¹ And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of Yahweh, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. ¹² And the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of Yahweh, the king broke down, and beat [them] down from there, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron. ¹³ And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the Mount of Olives,^a which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the detestable thing of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the detestable thing of Moab, and for Milcom the disgusting thing of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled. ¹⁴ And he broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with man's bones.

¹⁵ Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah. ¹⁶ And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the mount; and he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of Yahweh proclaimed by the man of God when Jeroboam stood at the feast on the altar. And he turned and lifted his eyes on the grave of the man of God who proclaimed these things. ¹⁷ Then he said, What monument is that which I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Beth-el. ¹⁸ And he said, Leave him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones remain, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. ¹⁹ And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke [Yahweh] to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. ²⁰ And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned man's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

²⁴ Moreover the spiritists, and the wizards, and the talismans, and the idols, and all the detestable things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah put away, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of Yahweh. ²⁵ And like him there was no king before him, that turned to Yahweh with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him did there arise any like him.

²⁶ Notwithstanding, Yahweh did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked him. ²⁷ And Yahweh said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name will be there.

²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

³¹ Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that his fathers had done. ³³ And Pharaoh-necoh put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of a hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. ³⁴ And Pharaoh-necoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim: but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there. ³⁵ And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the silver according to the mouth of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh-necoh.

³⁶ Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that his fathers had done.

24 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his slave three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. ² And Yahweh sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the sons of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by his slaves the prophets. ³ Surely according to the mouth of Yahweh this came upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did, ⁴ and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and Yahweh would not pardon. ⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁶ So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. ⁷ And the king of Egypt didn't come again anymore out of his land; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

⁸ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months: and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that his father had done.

slaves, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³ And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of Yahweh, as Yahweh had said. ¹⁴ And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the blacksmiths; none remained, except the poorest sort of the people of the land. ¹⁵ And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶ And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the blacksmiths a thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. ¹⁷ And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, [Jehoiachin's] father's brother, king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

¹⁸ Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰ For through the anger of Yahweh it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence.

And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 25 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. ² So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ³ On the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine was intense in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁴ Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war [fled] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, while the Chaldeans were against the city all around; and [the king] went by the way of the Arabah. ⁵ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁶ Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him. ⁷ And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

⁸ Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a slave of the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem. ⁹ And he burned the house of Yahweh, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire. ¹⁰ And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were [with] the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about. ¹¹ And the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive. ¹² But the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

¹³ And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of Yahweh, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried the bronze of them to Babylon. ¹⁴ And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered, they took away. ¹⁵ And the firepans, and the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. ¹⁶ The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh, the bronze of all these vessels was without weight. ¹⁷ The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital round about, all of bronze: and like these had the second pillar with network.

¹⁸ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: ¹⁹ and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. ²⁰ And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²¹ And the king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.

²⁷ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; ²⁸ and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, ²⁹ and changed his prison garments. And [Jehoiachin] ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: ³⁰ and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given to him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

Shemaiah-³⁸ these mentioned by name were princes in their families: and their fathers' houses increased greatly.³⁹ And they went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.⁴⁰ And they found fat and good pasture, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceful; for those who dwelt there previously were of Ham.⁴¹ And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and struck their tents, and the Meunim who were found there, and destroyed them completely to this day, and dwelt in their stead; because there was pasture there for their flocks.⁴² And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.⁴³ And they struck the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have dwelt there to this day.

5 And the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn; but, since he defiled his father's couch, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.² For Judah prevailed above his brothers, and from him came a leader; but the birthright was Joseph's),³ the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.⁴ The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,⁵ Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,⁶ Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.⁷ And his brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,⁸ and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-meon:⁹ and eastward he dwelt even to the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.¹⁰ And in the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the [land] east of Gilead.

And they dwelt in their stead until the captivity.

²⁸ And certain of them had charge of the vessels of service; for by count these were brought in and by count these were taken out. ²⁹ Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰ And some of the sons of the priests prepared the confection of the spices. ³¹ And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans. ³² And some of their brothers, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the showbread, to prepare it every Sabbath.

³⁵ And in Gibeon there dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife's name was Maacah: ³⁶ and his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, ³⁷ and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸ And Mikloth begot Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brothers in Jerusalem, across from their brothers. ³⁹ And Ner begot Kish; and Kish begot Saul; and Saul begot Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. ⁴⁰ And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begot Micah. ⁴¹ And the sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, [and Ahaz]. ⁴² And Ahaz begot Jarah; and Jarah begot Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza; ⁴³ and Moza begot Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. ⁴⁴ And Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

⁷ And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. ⁸ And it came to pass on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa. ⁹ And they stripped him, and took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the good news to their idols, and to the people. ¹⁰ And they put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. ¹¹ And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹² all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

¹³ So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against Yahweh, because of the word of Yahweh, which he did not keep; and also for asking counsel of a spiritist, to inquire, ¹⁴ and did not inquire of Yahweh: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

11 Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, Look, we are your bone and your flesh. ² In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel: and Yahweh your God said to you, You will be shepherd of my people Israel, and you will be leader over my people Israel. ³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of Yahweh by Samuel.

⁴ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (the same is Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. ⁵ And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, You will not come in here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of David. ⁶ And David said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first will be chief and captain. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief. ⁷ And David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. ⁸ And he built the city round about, from Millo even round about; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. ⁹ And David waxed greater and greater; for Yahweh of hosts was with him.

¹⁵ And three [the elite] of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶ And David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem. ¹⁷ And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate! ¹⁸ And the three broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh, ¹⁹ and said, My God forbid it of me, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their souls in jeopardy? For with [the jeopardy of] their souls they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

²⁰ And Abishai, the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and slew them, and had a name among the three. ²¹ Of the three, he was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain: nevertheless he didn't attain to the three.

²² Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a man of valor of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he slew the two [sons of] Ariel of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. ²³ And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²⁴ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. ²⁵ Look, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three: and David set him over his guard.

²⁶ Also the mighty men of the armies: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem, ²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, ²⁸ Ira the son of Ikkeiah the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, ²⁹ Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, ³⁰ Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, ³¹ Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, ³² Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, ³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, ³⁴ the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite, ³⁵ Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur, ³⁶ Hopher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, ³⁷ Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, ³⁸ Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, ³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah, ⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, ⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai, ⁴² Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, ⁴³ Hanan the son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴ Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵ Jedaiel the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, ⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, ⁴⁷ Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12 Now these are those who came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. ² They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Saul's brothers of Benjamin. ³ The chief was Ahiezer; then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite, ⁴ and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite, ⁵ Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, ⁶ Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, ⁷ and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

¹⁶ And there came of the sons of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold to David. ¹⁷ And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, If you⁺ have come peacefully to me to help me, my heart will be knit to you⁺; but if [you⁺ have come] to betray me to my adversaries, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look on it, and rebuke it. ¹⁸ Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the elite troops, [and he said], We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse: peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

¹⁹ Of Manasseh also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they didn't help them; for the lords of the Philistines on advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall away to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads. ²⁰ As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jedaiel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. ²¹ And they helped David against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the host. ²² For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great host, like the host of God.

²³ And these are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the mouth of Yahweh. ²⁴ The sons of Judah that bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. ²⁵ Of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. ²⁶ Of the sons of Levi four thousand and six hundred. ²⁷ And Jehoiada was the leader of [the house of] Aaron; and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, ²⁸ and Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty and two captains. ²⁹ And of the sons of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand: for until now the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. ³⁰ And of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses. ³¹ And of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king. ³² And of the sons of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their commandment. ³³ Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the host, that could set the battle in array, with all manner of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and that could order [the battle array, and were] not of double heart. ³⁴ And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. ³⁵ And of the Danites that could set the battle in array, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. ³⁶ And of Asher, such as were able to go out in the host, that could set the battle in array, forty thousand. ³⁷ And on the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

³⁸ All these being men of war, that could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. ³⁹ And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had prepared for them. ⁴⁰ Moreover those who were near to them, [even] as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, victuals of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

13 And David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. ² And David said to all the assembly of Israel, If it seems good to you⁺, and if it is of Yahweh our God, let us send abroad every where to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us; ³ and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we did not seek to it in the days of Saul. ⁴ And all the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. ⁵ So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor [the brook] of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim. ⁶ And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, [that is], to Kiriath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, who is called by the name: Yahweh who sits [above] the cherubim. ⁷ And they carried the ark of God on a new cart, [and brought it] out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. ⁸ And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

⁹ And when they came to the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰ And the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God. ¹¹ And David was displeased, because Yahweh had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez-uzza, to this day. ¹² And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me? ¹³ So David didn't remove the ark to him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹⁴ And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months: and Yahweh blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

14 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. ² And David perceived that Yahweh had established him king over Israel; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for his people Israel's sake.

⁸ And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. ⁹ Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰ And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will you deliver them into my hand? And Yahweh said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand. ¹¹ So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breach of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim. ¹² And they left their gods there; and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire.

¹³ And the Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley. ¹⁴ And David inquired again of God; and God said to him, You will not go up after them: turn away from them, and come upon them across from the mulberry-trees. ¹⁵ And it will be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then you will go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the host of the Philistines. ¹⁶ And David did as God commanded him: and they struck the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. ¹⁷ And the fame of David went out into all lands; and Yahweh brought the fear of him on all nations.

15 And [David] made houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it. ² Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for Yahweh has chosen them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to him forever. ³ And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Yahweh to its place, which he had prepared for it. ⁴ And David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and the Levites: ⁵ of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers a hundred and twenty; ⁶ of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred and twenty; ⁷ of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brothers a hundred and thirty; ⁸ of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; ⁹ of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; ¹⁰ of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers a hundred and twelve. ¹¹ And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, ¹² and said to them, You⁺ are the heads of the fathers' [houses] of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both you⁺ and your⁺ brothers, that you⁺ may bring up the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel, to [the place] that I have prepared for it. ¹³ For because you⁺ did not [bear it] at the first, Yahweh our God made a breach on us, for we did not seek him according to the ordinance. ¹⁴ So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁵ And the sons of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles on them, as Moses commanded according to the word of Yahweh.

²⁵ So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. ²⁶ And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, that they sacrificed seven bullocks and seven rams. ²⁷ And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song [with] the singers: and David had on him an ephod of linen. ²⁸ Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with psalteries and harps.

16 And they brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before God. ² And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh. ³ And he dealt to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, and a portion [of flesh], and a cake of raisins.

⁴ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of Yahweh, and to celebrate and to thank and praise Yahweh, the God of Israel: ⁵ Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with psalteries and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; ⁶ and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

⁷ Then on that day David first appointed to give thanks to Yahweh, by the hand of Asaph and his brothers. ⁸ O give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name; Make known his doings among the peoples. ⁹ Sing to him, sing praises to him; Talk⁺ of all his marvelous works. ¹⁰ Glory⁺ in his holy name; Let the heart of them rejoice who seek Yahweh. ¹¹ Seek⁺ Yahweh and his strength; Seek his face evermore. ¹² Remember his marvelous works that he has done, His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth, ¹³ O you⁺ seed of Israel his slave, You⁺ sons of Jacob, his chosen ones. ¹⁴ He is Yahweh our God; His judgments are in all the earth. ¹⁵ Remember his covenant forever, The word which he commanded to a thousand generations, ¹⁶ [The covenant] which he made with Abraham, And his oath to Isaac, ¹⁷ And confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, To Israel for an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸ Saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan, The lot of your⁺ inheritance; ¹⁹ When you⁺ were but a few men in number, Yes, very few, and sojourners in it; ²⁰ And they went about from nation to nation, And from one kingdom to another people. ²¹ He allowed no man to do them wrong; Yes, he reprov'd kings for their sakes, ²² [Saying,] Don't touch my anointed ones, And do my prophets no harm. ²³ Sing to Yahweh, all the earth; Proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day. ²⁴ Declare his glory among the nations, His marvelous works among all the peoples. ²⁵ For great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised: He also is to be awed above all gods. ²⁶ For all the gods of the peoples are idols: But Yahweh made the heavens. ²⁷ Grandeur and majesty are before him: Strength and gladness are in his place. ²⁸ Ascribe to Yahweh, you⁺ kindreds of the peoples, Ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength; ²⁹ Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his name: Bring an offering, and come before him; Worship Yahweh in holy array. ³⁰ Tremble before him, all the earth: Indeed, the world will be established, it will not be moved. ³¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; And let them say among the nations, Yahweh reigns. ³² Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it; Let the field exult, and all that is in it; ³³ Then will the trees of the forest sing for joy before Yahweh; For he comes to judge the earth. ³⁴ O give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good; For his loving-kindness [endures] forever. ³⁵ And say⁺, Save us, O God of our salvation, And gather us together and deliver us from the nations, To give thanks to your holy name, And to triumph in your praise. ³⁶ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, From everlasting even to everlasting. And all the people said, Amen, and praised Yahweh.

offerings to Yahweh on the altar of burnt-offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of Yahweh, which he commanded to Israel; ⁴¹ and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to Yahweh, because his loving-kindness [endures] forever; ⁴² and with them Heman and Jeduthun [with] trumpets and cymbals for those who should sound aloud, and [with] instruments for the songs of God; and the sons of Jeduthun to be at the gate. ⁴³ And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

17 And it came to pass, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Look, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of Yahweh [dwells] under curtains. ² And Nathan said to David, Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you. ³ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴ Go and tell David my slave, Thus says Yahweh, You will not build me a house to dwell in: ⁵ for I haven't dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel, to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from [one] tabernacle [to another]. ⁶ In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, Why haven't you⁺ built me a house of cedar? ⁷ Now therefore thus you will say to my slave David, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, I took you from the sheeppcote, from following the sheep, that you should be leader over my people Israel: ⁸ and I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. ⁹ And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may stay in their own place, and be moved no more; neither will the sons of wickedness waste them anymore, as at the first, ¹⁰ and [as] from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house. ¹¹ And it will come to pass, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. ¹² He will build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³ I will be his father, and he will be my son: and I will not take my loving-kindness away from him, as I took it from him who was before you; ¹⁴ but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever; and his throne will be established forever. ¹⁵ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶ Then David the king went in, and sat before Yahweh; and he said, Who am I, O Yahweh God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? ¹⁷ And this was a small thing in your eyes, O God; but you have spoken of your slave's house for a great while to come, and you see me according to the rank of man placed high, O Yahweh God. ¹⁸ What can David [say] yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your slave? For you know your slave. ¹⁹ O Yahweh, for your slave's sake, and according to your own heart, you have wrought all this greatness, to make known all [these] great things. ²⁰ O Yahweh, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²¹ And what other nation in the earth is like your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, to make yourself a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed out of Egypt? ²² For you made your people Israel your own people forever; and you, Yahweh, became their God. ²³ And now, O Yahweh, let the word that you have spoken concerning your slave, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken. ²⁴ And let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, Yahweh of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and the house of David your slave is established before you. ²⁵ For you, O my God, have revealed to your slave that you will build him a house: therefore your slave has found [in his heart] to pray before you. ²⁶ And now, O Yahweh, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your slave: ²⁷ and now it has pleased you to bless the house of your slave, that it may continue forever before you: for you, O Yahweh, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.

18 And after this it came to pass, that David struck the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. ² And he struck Moab; and the Moabites became slaves to David, and brought tribute.

³ And David struck Hadarezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. ⁴ And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hocked all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for a hundred chariots.

⁹ And when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰ he sent Hadoram his son to King David, to greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadarezer and struck him (for Hadarezer had wars with Tou); and [he had with him] all manner of vessels of gold and silver and bronze. ¹¹ These also King David dedicated to Yahweh, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

¹⁴ And David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people. ¹⁵ And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁶ and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was scribe; ¹⁷ and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

19 And it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. ² And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's slaves came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. ³ But the princes of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Haven't his slaves come to you to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? ⁴ So Hanun took David's slaves, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵ Then there went certain persons, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your^a beards are grown, and then return.

⁶ And when the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves a stench to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire themselves chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Arammaacah, and out of Zobah. ⁷ So they hired themselves thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. ⁸ And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. ⁹ And the sons of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

¹⁶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head. ¹⁷ And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. ¹⁸ And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians [the men of] seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host. ¹⁹ And when the slaves of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Syrians help the sons of Ammon anymore.

20 And it came to pass, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out [to battle], that Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the sons of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. ² And David took the crown of Milcom from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city, exceedingly much. ³ And he brought forth the people who were in it. And he put [them to work] with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. And thus David did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.^a

⁴ And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, of the sons of the giant; and they were subdued. ⁵ And there was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. ⁶ And there was again war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six [on each hand], and six [on each foot]; and he also was born to the giant. ⁷ And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him. ⁸ These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his slaves.

21 And Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel. ² And David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them. ³ And Joab said, Yahweh make his people a hundred times as many as they are: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's slaves? Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel? ⁴ Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. ⁵ And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. And all those of Israel were a thousand thousand and a hundred thousand men who drew sword: and Judah was 470,000 men who drew sword. ⁶ But Levi and Benjamin he did not count among them; for the king's word was disgusting to Joab. ⁷ And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel. ⁸ And David said to God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, put away, I urge you, the iniquity of your slave; for I have done very foolishly.

⁹ And Yahweh spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹⁰ Go and speak to David, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I offer you three things: choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you. ¹¹ So Gad came to David, and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Take which you will: ¹² either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or three days the sword of Yahweh, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of Yahweh destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I will return to him who sent me. ¹³ And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall, I pray, into the hand of Yahweh; for very great are his mercies: and don't let me fall into the hand of man. ¹⁴ So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel; and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. ¹⁵ And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, Yahweh looked, and he repented of the evil, and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now let down your hand. And the angel of Yahweh was standing by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁶ And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of Yahweh standing between earth and heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. ¹⁷ And David said to God, Is it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray you, O Yahweh my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued.

¹⁸ Then the angel of Yahweh commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and rear an altar to Yahweh in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹ And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of Yahweh. ²⁰ And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. ²¹ And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. ²² Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build on it an altar to Yahweh: for the full [price in] silver you will give it to me, that the plague may be stopped from the people. ²³ And Ornan said to David, Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: look, I give [you] the oxen for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal-offering; I give it all. ²⁴ And King David said to Ornan, No; but I will truly buy it for the full [price in] silver: for I will not take that which is yours for Yahweh, nor offer a burnt-offering without cost. ²⁵ So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. ²⁶ And David built there an altar to Yahweh, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called on Yahweh; and he answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt-offering. ²⁷ And Yahweh commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath.

²⁸ At that time, when David saw that Yahweh had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. ²⁹ For the tabernacle of Yahweh, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt-offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. ³⁰ But David could not go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of Yahweh.

22 Then David said, This is the house of Yahweh God, and this is the altar of burnt-offering for Israel. ² And David commanded to gather together the sojourners who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to cut wrought stones to build the house of God. ³ And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and bronze in abundance without weight; ⁴ and cedar-trees without number: for the Sidonians and those of Tyre brought cedar-trees in abundance to David. ⁵ And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for Yahweh must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

⁶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁷ And David said to Solomon his son, As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of Yahweh my God. ⁸ But the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars: you will not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight. ⁹ Look, a son will be born to you, who will be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about; for his name will be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days: ¹⁰ he will build a house for my name; and he will be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever. ¹¹ Now, my son, Yahweh be with you; and prosper you, and build the house of Yahweh your God, as he has spoken concerning you. ¹² Only may Yahweh give you discretion and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel; that so you may keep the law of Yahweh your God. ¹³ Then you will prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which Yahweh charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed. ¹⁴ Now, look, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of Yahweh a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and of bronze and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone I have prepared; and you may add thereto. ¹⁵ Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all men who are skillful in every manner of work: ¹⁶ of the gold, the silver, and the bronze, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and do it, and Yahweh be with you.

¹⁷ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, [saying,] ¹⁸ Isn't Yahweh your* God with you*? And has he not given you* rest on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Yahweh, and before his people. ¹⁹ Now set your* heart and your* soul to seek after Yahweh your* God; arise therefore, and build* the sanctuary of Yahweh God, to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of Yahweh.

23 Now David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel. ² And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. ³ And the Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward: and their number by their polls, the [able-bodied] men, was thirty and eight thousand. ⁴ Of these, twenty and four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of Yahweh; and six thousand were officers and judges; ⁵ and four thousand were doorkeepers; and four thousand praised Yahweh with the instruments which I made, [said David], to praise using them. ⁶ And David divided them into courses according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷ Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. ⁸ The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, and Zetham, and Joel, three. ⁹ The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' [houses] of Ladan. ¹⁰ And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. ¹¹ And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they became a fathers' house in one reckoning.

¹² The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

¹³ The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before Yahweh, to minister to him, and to bless in his name, forever. ¹⁴ But as for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵ The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. ¹⁶ The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief. ¹⁷ And the sons of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. ¹⁸ The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief. ¹⁹ The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁰ The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second.

²⁴ These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' [houses] of the ones of those who were counted, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of Yahweh, from twenty years old and upward. ²⁵ For David said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he stays in Jerusalem forever: ²⁶ and also the Levites will no more have need to carry the tabernacle and all the vessels of it for its service. ²⁷ For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward. ²⁸ For their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Yahweh, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God; ²⁹ for the showbread also, and for the fine flour for a meal-offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all manner of measure and size; ³⁰ and to stand every morning to thank and praise Yahweh, and likewise at evening; ³¹ and to offer all burnt-offerings to Yahweh, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before Yahweh; ³² and that they should keep the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of the house of Yahweh.

24 And the courses of the sons of Aaron [were these]. The sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ² But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no sons: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. ³ And David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service. ⁴ And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and [thus] they were divided: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers' houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight. ⁵ Thus they were divided by lot, one sort with another; for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. ⁶ And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' [houses] of the priests and of the Levites; one fathers' house being taken for Eleazar, and one taken,^a one taken for Ithamar.

⁷ Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, ⁸ the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ⁹ the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, ¹⁰ the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, ¹¹ the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, ¹² the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, ¹³ the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, ¹⁴ the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵ the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzaz, ¹⁶ the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, ¹⁷ the one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, ¹⁸ the three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. ¹⁹ This was the ordering of them in their service, to come into the house of Yahweh according to the ordinance [given] to them by Aaron their father, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

25 Moreover David and the captains of the host set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of those who did the work according to their service was: ² of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asharelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied after the order of the king. ³ Of Jeduthun; the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri,

^a According to this, Ithamar has eight heads each of whom will be attributed two chosen ones. (See HOTTP, CTAT) and Jeshaiiah and Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising Yahweh. ⁴ Of Heman; the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. ⁵ All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. ⁶ All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of Yahweh, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God; Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king. ⁷ And the number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to Yahweh, even all who were skillful, was 288. ⁸ And they cast lots for their offices, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

⁹ Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah; he and his brothers and sons were twelve: ¹⁰ the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹¹ the fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹² the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹³ the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹⁴ the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹⁵ the eighth to Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹⁶ the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹⁷ the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹⁸ the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ¹⁹ the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁰ for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²¹ for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²² for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²³ for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁴ for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁵ for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁶ for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁷ for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁸ for the one and twentieth to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ²⁹ for the two and twentieth to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ³⁰ for the three and twentieth to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, twelve: ³¹ for the four and twentieth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

26 For the courses of the doorkeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Ebiasaph. ² And Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh. ⁴ And Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethanel the fifth, ⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him. ⁶ Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled over the house of their father; for they were mighty men of valor. ⁷ The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brothers were valiant men, Elihu, and Semachiah. ⁸ All these were of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service; threescore and two of Obed-edom. ⁹ And Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen. ¹⁰ Also Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief), ¹¹ Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen.

¹² Of these were the courses of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having offices like their brothers, to minister in the house of Yahweh. ¹³ And they cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. ¹⁴ And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a discreet counselor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. ¹⁵ To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the storehouse. ¹⁶ To Shuppim and Hosah westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the causeway that goes up, watch against watch. ¹⁷ Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and two. ¹⁸ For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar. ¹⁹ These were the courses of the doorkeepers; of the sons of the Korahites, and of the sons of Merari.

27 Now the sons of Israel after their number, [to wit,] the heads of fathers' [houses] and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers that ministered to the king, in any matter of the courses which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year—of every course were twenty and four thousand. ² Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ³ [He was] of the sons of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. ⁴ And over the course of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and his course; and Mikloth the leader: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ⁵ The third captain of the host for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, chief: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ⁶ This is that Benaiah, who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty: and his course was Ammizabad his son. ⁷ The fourth [captain] for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ⁸ The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ⁹ The sixth [captain] for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkeish the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ¹⁰ The seventh [captain] for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the sons of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ¹¹ The eighth [captain] for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ¹² The ninth [captain] for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ¹³ The tenth [captain] for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ¹⁴ The eleventh [captain] for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the sons of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ¹⁵ The twelfth [captain] for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

¹⁶ Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri the leader: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah: ¹⁷ of Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: of Aaron, Zadok: ¹⁸ of Judah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael: ¹⁹ of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel: ²⁰ of the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah: ²¹ of the half-[tribe] of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner: ²² of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel. ²³ But David did not take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because Yahweh had said he would increase Israel like the stars of heaven. ²⁴ Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but didn't finish; and there came wrath for this on Israel; neither was the number put into the account in the chronicles of King David.

²⁵ And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jonathan the son of Uzziab: ²⁶ And over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub: ²⁷ and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: and over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite: ²⁸ and over the olive trees and the sycamore-trees that were in the lowland was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash: ²⁹ and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai: ³⁰ and over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite: and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. ³¹ All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

28 And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers, and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valor, to Jerusalem. ² Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, Hear me, my brothers, and my people: as for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and for the footstool of our God; and I had made ready for the building. ³ But God said to me, You will not build a house for my name, because you are a man of war, and have shed blood. ⁴ Nevertheless Yahweh, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever: for he has chosen Judah to be leader; and in the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel; ⁵ And of all my sons (for Yahweh has given me many sons), he has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Yahweh over Israel. ⁶ And he said to me, Solomon your son, he will build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. ⁷ And I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is constant to do my commandments and my ordinances, as at this day. ⁸ Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of Yahweh, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of Yahweh your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your sons after you forever.

⁹ And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing soul; for Yahweh searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts: if you seek him, he will be found of you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. ¹⁰ Take heed now; for Yahweh has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

¹¹ Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch [of the temple], and of its houses, and of its treasures, and of its upper rooms, and of its inner chambers, and of the place of the mercy-seat; ¹² and the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of Yahweh, and for all the chambers round about, for the treasures of the house of God, and for the treasures of the dedicated things; ¹³ also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Yahweh, and for all the vessels of service in the house of Yahweh; ¹⁴ of gold by weight for the [vessels of] gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; [of silver] for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; ¹⁵ by weight also for the lampstands of gold, and for their lamps, of gold, by weight for every lampstand and for its lamps; and for the lampstands of silver, [silver] by weight for [every] lampstand and for its lamps, according to the use of every lampstand; ¹⁶ and the gold by weight for the tables of showbread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; ¹⁷ and the flesh-hooks, and the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl; ¹⁸ and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, [even] the cherubim, that spread out [their wings], and covered the ark of the covenant of Yahweh. ¹⁹ All this, [said David], I have been made to understand in writing from the hand of Yahweh, even all the works of this pattern.

²⁰ And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; for Yahweh God, even my God, is with you; he will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of Yahweh is finished. ²¹ And, look, there are the courses of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God: and there will be with you in all manner of work every willing man who has skill, for any manner of service: also the captains and all the people will be wholly at your commandment.

29 And David the king said to all the assembly, Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for Yahweh God. ² Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the [things of] gold, and the silver for the [things of] silver, and the bronze for the [things of] bronze, the iron for the [things of] iron, and wood for the [things of] wood; onyx stones, and [stones] to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of diverse colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. ³ Moreover also, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, seeing that I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, ⁴ even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; ⁵ of gold for the [things of] gold, and of silver for the [things of] silver, and for all manner of work [to be made] by the hands of artificers. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to Yahweh?

⁶ Then the princes of the fathers' [houses], and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly; ⁷ and they gave for the service of the house of God: of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of bronze eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents. ⁸ And they with whom [precious] stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of Yahweh, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹ Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to Yahweh: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

¹⁰ Therefore David blessed Yahweh before all the assembly; and David said, Blessed be you, O Yahweh, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. ¹¹ Yours, O Yahweh, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the grandeur: for all that is in the heavens and in the earth [is yours]; yours is the kingdom, O Yahweh, and you are exalted as head above all. ¹² Both riches and honor come of you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and in your hand it is to make great, and to give strength to all. ¹³ Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name. ¹⁴ But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? For all things come of you, and of your own we have given you. ¹⁵ For we are strangers before you, and sojourners, as all our fathers were: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no hope [to remain on the earth]. ¹⁶ O Yahweh our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes of your hand, and is all your own. ¹⁷ I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now I have seen with joy your people, who are present here, offer willingly to you. ¹⁸ O Yahweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart to you; ¹⁹ and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision.

And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him to Yahweh to be leader, and Zadok to be priest. ²³ Then Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴ And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of King David, submitted themselves to Solomon the king. ²⁵ And Yahweh magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal grandeur as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶ Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷ And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty and three [years] he reigned in Jerusalem. ²⁸ And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead. ²⁹ Now the acts of David the king, first and last, look, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, ³⁰ with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

II Chronicles

1 And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and Yahweh his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. ² And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' [houses]. ³ So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tent of meeting of God, which Moses the slave of Yahweh had made in the wilderness. ⁴ But the ark of God David had brought up from Kiriath-jearim to [the place] that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. ⁵ Moreover the bronze altar, that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of Yahweh: and Solomon and the assembly sought to it. ⁶ And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before Yahweh, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings on it.

⁷ In that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, Ask what I will give you. ⁸ And Solomon said to God, You have shown great loving-kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his stead. ⁹ Now, O Yahweh God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. ¹⁰ Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this your people, that is so great?

¹¹ And God said to Solomon, Because this was in your heart, and you haven't asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the soul of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king: ¹² wisdom and knowledge is granted to you; and I will give you riches, and wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had that have been before you; neither will there any after you have the like. ¹³ So Solomon went to the high place that was at Gibeon, [then] from the tent of meeting [at Gibeon] to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel.

¹⁴ And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. ¹⁵ And the king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars he made to be as the sycamore-trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. ¹⁶ And the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt^a and from Kue.^b The king's merchants acquired those from Kue for a price.¹⁷ And they fetched up and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

2 Now Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of Yahweh, and a house for his kingdom.² And Solomon counted out 70,000 men to bear burdens, and 80,000 men who were hewers in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.³ And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house to dwell in it, [even so deal with me].⁴ Look, I am about to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of Yahweh our God. This is [an ordinance] forever to Israel.⁵ And the house which I build is great; for great is our God above all gods.⁶ But who is able to build him a house, seeing heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him a house, except only to burn incense before him?⁷ Now therefore send me a skillful man to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave [all manner of] engravings, [to be] with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.⁸ Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and algum-trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that your slaves know how to cut timber in Lebanon: and, look, my slaves will be with your slaves,⁹ even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

¹⁰ And, look, I will give to your slaves, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand cors of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand cors of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.¹¹ Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because Yahweh loves his people, he has made you king over them.¹² Hiram said moreover, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endued with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for Yahweh, and a house for his kingdom.¹³ And now I have sent a skillful man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's, ¹⁴ the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to devise any device; that there may be [a place] appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.¹⁵ Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his slaves.

¹⁶ And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you will need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.¹⁷ And Solomon numbered all the sojourners who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.¹⁸ And he set 70,000 of them to bear burdens, and 80,000 who were hewers in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people at work.³ Then Solomon began to build the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem on mount Moriah, where [Yahweh] appeared to David his father, which he made ready in the place that David had appointed, in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.² And he began to build in the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.³ Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the width twenty cubits.⁴ And the porch that was before [the house], the length of it, according to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height 120; and he overlaid it inside with pure gold.⁵ And the greater house he ceiled with fir-wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and wrought on it palm-trees and chains.⁶ And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.⁷ He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors, with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls.

⁸ And he made the most holy house: its length, according to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.⁹ And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

¹⁰ And in the most holy house he made two cherubim of molten work; and they overlaid them with gold.¹¹ And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one [cherub] was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was [likewise] five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.¹² And the wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits [also], sticking to the wing of the other cherub.¹³ The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house.

¹⁵ Also he made before the house two pillars of 35 cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

¹⁶ And he made chains in the oracle, and put [them] on the tops of the pillars; and he made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

4 Moreover he made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits its length, and twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

² Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in a circle; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it round about.³ And under it was the likeness of oxen, which circled it round about, for ten cubits, circling the sea round about. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast.⁴ It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward.⁵ And it was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths.

⁶ He also made ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the

burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

⁹ Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with bronze. ¹⁰ And he set the sea on the right side [of the house] eastward, toward the south. ¹¹ And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing the work that he wrought for King Solomon in the house of God: ¹² the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, ¹³ and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. ¹⁴ He also made the bases, and the basins he made on the bases; ¹⁵ one sea, and the twelve oxen under it. ¹⁶ The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all the vessels of them, Hiram his father made for King Solomon for the house of Yahweh of bright bronze. ¹⁷ In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. ¹⁸ Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the bronze could not be found out.

¹⁹ And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables on which was the showbread; ²⁰ and the lampstands with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold; ²¹ and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold; ²² and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the house, [to wit,] of the temple, were of gold.

5 Thus all the work that Solomon wrought for the house of Yahweh was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

¹¹ And it came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and did not keep their courses; ¹² also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets); ¹³ it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Yahweh; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Yahweh, [saying,] For he is good; for his loving-kindness [endures] forever; that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of Yahweh, ¹⁴ so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of God.

6 Then Solomon spoke, Yahweh has said that he would stay in the thick darkness. ² But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever. ³ And the king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood.

⁴ And he said, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, ⁵ Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither did I choose any man to be leader over my people Israel: ⁶ but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel. ⁷ Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁸ But Yahweh said to David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: ⁹ nevertheless you will not build the house; but your son who will come forth out of your loins, he will build the house for my name. ¹⁰ And Yahweh has performed his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹¹ And there I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which he made with the sons of Israel.

¹² And he stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands ¹³ (for Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;); ¹⁴ and he said, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; who keeps covenant and loving-kindness with your slaves that walk before you with all their heart; ¹⁵ who have kept with your slave David my father that which you promised him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day. ¹⁶ Now therefore, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your slave David my father that which you have promised him, saying, There will not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me. ¹⁷ Now therefore, O Yahweh, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your slave David.

before you; ²⁰ that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place of which you have said that you would put your name there; to listen to the prayer which your slave will pray toward this place. ²¹ And listen to the supplications of your slave, and of your people Israel, when they will pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when you hear forgive.

²² If a man sins against his fellow man, and he is subjected to an oath to cause him to swear, and he comes [and] swears before your altar in this house; ²³ then hear from heaven, and act, and judge your slaves, requiting the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

²⁶ When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them: ²⁷ then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your slaves, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

³² Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he will come from a far country for your great name's sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they will come and pray toward this house: ³³ then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

³⁴ If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you will send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; ³⁵ then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

³⁶ If they sin against you (for there is no man who does not sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near; ³⁷ yet if they will bethink themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and plead to you for mercy in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly; ³⁸ if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name: ³⁹ then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you. ⁴⁰ Now, O my God, let, I urge you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.

⁴¹ Now therefore arise, O Yahweh God, into your resting-place, you, and the ark of your strength: let your priests, O Yahweh God, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints rejoice in goodness. ⁴² O Yahweh God, don't turn away the face of your anointed one: remember [your] loving-kindnesses to David your slave.

7 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Yahweh filled the house. ² And the priests could not enter into the house of Yahweh, because the glory of Yahweh filled Yahweh's house. ³ And all the sons of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of Yahweh was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped, and gave thanks to Yahweh, [saying,] For he is good; for his loving-kindness [endures] forever. ⁴ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before Yahweh.

⁵ And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶ And the priests stood, according to their offices; the Levites also with instruments of music of Yahweh, which David the king had made to give thanks to Yahweh (for his loving-kindness [endures] forever), when David praised by their hand: and the priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood. ⁷ Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of Yahweh; for there he offered the burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat.

¹¹ Thus Solomon finished the house of Yahweh, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of Yahweh, and in his own house, he prosperously effected. ¹² And Yahweh appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. ¹³ If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; ¹⁴ if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. ¹⁵ Now my eyes will be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. ¹⁶ For now I have chosen and hallowed this house, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart will be there perpetually. ¹⁷ And as for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; ¹⁸ then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according to as I covenanted with David your father, saying, There will not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel.

¹⁹ But if you⁺ turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you⁺, and will go and serve other gods, and worship them; ²⁰ then I will pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. ²¹ And this house, which is so high,^a everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will say, Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house? ²² And they will answer, Because they forsook Yahweh, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them, and served them: therefore he has brought all this evil on them.

8 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of Yahweh, and his own house, ² that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the sons of Israel to dwell there.

³ And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

⁴ And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities, which he built in Hamath. ⁵ Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; ⁶ and Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

¹¹ And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, My wife will not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, to where the ark of Yahweh has come.

¹² Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings to Yahweh on the altar of Yahweh, which he had built before the porch, ¹³ even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, [even] in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

¹⁴ And he appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their courses at every gate: for so David the man of God had commanded. ¹⁵ And they did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

¹⁶ Now all the work of Solomon was prepared to the day of the foundation of the house of Yahweh, and until it was finished. [So] the house of Yahweh was completed.

¹⁷ Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. ¹⁸ And Hiram sent him ships by the hands of his slaves, and slaves who had knowledge of the sea; and they came with the slaves of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to King Solomon.

9 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great train, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she came to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. ² And Solomon told her all her questions; and there was not anything hid from Solomon which he did not tell her. ³ And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, ⁴ and the food of his table, and the sitting of his slaves, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, his cupbearers also, and their apparel, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Yahweh; there was no more spirit in her. ⁵ And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. ⁶ Nevertheless I didn't believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and, look, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: you exceed the fame that I heard. ⁷ Happy are your men,^b and happy are these your slaves, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. ⁸ Blessed be Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for Yahweh your God: because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore he made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness.

¹³ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold, ¹⁴ besides that which the traders and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. ¹⁵ And King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred [shekels] of beaten gold went to one buckler. ¹⁶ And [he made] three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred [shekels] of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁷ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁸ And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and supports on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the supports. ¹⁹ And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. ²⁰ And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. ²¹ For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the slaves of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

^a The text of 1 Kings 9:8 ('in ruins') is considered to be the original wording during this event. However, the original text written in 2 Chronicles, which is so high, is done either for stressing (see HOTTP and CTAT) or as a euphemism.

^b The text of 1 Kings 10:8 ('wives') is considered to be the original wording during this event. However, the original text written here, men, reflects an attempt to remove the mention of Solomon's badly reputed women in 1 Kings 11. (see HOTTP and CTAT).

²² So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. ²³ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. ²⁴ And they brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. ²⁵ And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁶ And he ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. ²⁷ And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars he made to be as the sycamore-trees who are in the lowland, for abundance. ²⁸ And they brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

10 And Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ² And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. ³ And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴ Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you. ⁵ And he said to them, Come again to me after three days. And the people departed.

⁶ And King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel do you⁺ give me to return answer to this people? ⁷ And they spoke to him, saying, If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your slaves forever. ⁸ But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. ⁹ And he said to them, What counsel do you⁺ give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter? ¹⁰ And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus you will say to the people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter to us; thus you will say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹ And now whereas my father laded you⁺ with a heavy yoke, I will add to your⁺ yoke: my father chastised you⁺ with whips, but I [will chastise you⁺] with scorpions.

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day.

¹³ And the king answered them roughly; and King Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, ¹⁴ and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, I will make your⁺ yoke heavy, and I will add to [the yoke of] my father. He chastised you⁺ with whips, but I [will chastise you⁺] with scorpions. ¹⁵ So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that Yahweh might establish his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat ¹⁶ and to all Israel: that the king would not listen to them.

The people answered the king, saying, What portion do we have in David? Neither do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your⁺ tents, O Israel: now see to your own house, David. So all Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ But as for the sons of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to slave labor; and the sons of Israel stoned him to death with stones. And King Rehoboam made speed to get up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

11 And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. ² But the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ³ Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴ Thus says Yahweh, You⁺ will not go up, nor fight against your⁺ brothers: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the words of Yahweh, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

⁵ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. ⁶ He built Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, ⁷ And Beth-zur, and Soco, and Adullam, ⁸ and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, ⁹ and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, ¹⁰ and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities. ¹¹ And he fortified the strongholds, and put leaders in them, and stores of victuals, and oil and wine. ¹² And in every city [he put] shields and spears, and made them exceedingly strong. And Judah and Benjamin belonged to him.

12 And it came to pass, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of Yahweh, and all Israel with him. ² And it came to pass in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against Yahweh, ³with twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen. And the people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. ⁴And he took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. ⁵Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus says Yahweh, You⁺ have forsaken me, therefore I have also left you⁺ in the hand of Shishak. ⁶Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, Yahweh is righteous. ⁷And when Yahweh saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸Nevertheless they will be his slaves, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

⁹ So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house: he took all away: he took away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ¹⁰And King Rehoboam made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, that kept the door of the king's house. ¹¹And it was so, that, as often as the king entered into the house of Yahweh, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber. ¹²And when he humbled himself, the wrath of Yahweh turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah there were good things [found].

¹³ So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did that which was evil, because he did not set his heart to seek Yahweh.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³And Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor. ⁴And Abijah stood up on mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill-country of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, O Jeroboam and all Israel: ⁵Don't you⁺ know that Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? ⁶Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the slave of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. ⁷And there were gathered to him worthless men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them. ⁸And now you⁺ think to withstand the kingdom of Yahweh in the hand of the sons of David; and you⁺ are a great multitude, and there are with you⁺ the golden calves which Jeroboam made you⁺ for gods. ⁹Haven't you⁺ driven out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests after the manner of the peoples of [other] lands? So that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priest of [those that are] no gods. ¹⁰But as for us, Yahweh is our God, and we haven't forsaken him; and [we have] priests ministering to Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in their work: ¹¹and they burn to Yahweh every morning and every evening burnt-offerings and sweet incense: the showbread also [they set] in order on the pure table; and the lampstand of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of Yahweh our God; but you⁺ have forsaken him. ¹²And, look, God is with us at our head, and his priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you⁺. O sons of Israel, don't fight⁺ against Yahweh, the God of your⁺ fathers; for you⁺ will not prosper.

¹³ But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴And when Judah looked back, and saw that the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to Yahweh, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. ¹⁵Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. ¹⁸Thus the sons of Israel were brought under at that time, and the sons of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Yahweh, the God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with its towns, and Jeshanah with its towns, and Ephron with its towns. ²⁰Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and Yahweh struck him, and he died. ²¹But Abijah waxed mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and begot twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. ²²And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years. ²And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of Yahweh his God: ³for he took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, ⁴and commanded Judah to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. ⁵Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun-images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. ⁶And he built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because Yahweh had given him rest. ⁷For he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars; the land is yet before us, because we have sought Yahweh our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered. ⁸And Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, 280,000: all these were mighty men of valor.

⁹ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah. ¹⁰Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. ¹¹And Asa cried to Yahweh his God, and said, Yahweh, there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength: help us, O Yahweh our God; for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O Yahweh, you are our God; don't let common man prevail against you. ¹²So Yahweh struck the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. ¹³And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before Yahweh, and before his host; and they carried away very much booty. ¹⁴ And they struck all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of Yahweh came upon them: and they despoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them. ¹⁵ They struck also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

15 And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded: ² and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear⁺ me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: Yahweh is with you⁺, while you⁺ are with him; and if you⁺ seek him, he will be found of you⁺; but if you⁺ forsake him, he will forsake you⁺. ³ Now for a long season Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law: ⁴ But when in their distress they turned to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them. ⁵ And in those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great vexations were on all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶ And they were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God vexed them with all adversity. ⁷ But be⁺ strong, and don't let your⁺ hands be slack; for your⁺ work will be rewarded.

⁸ And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the detestable things out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill-country of Ephraim; and he renewed the altar of Yahweh, that was before the porch of Yahweh. ⁹ And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who sojourned with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that Yahweh his God was with him. ¹⁰ So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹ And they sacrificed to Yahweh in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. ¹² And they entered into the covenant to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; ¹³ and that whoever would not seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. ¹⁴ And they swore to Yahweh with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. ¹⁵ And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and Yahweh gave them rest round about.

16 In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. ² Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of Yahweh and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying, ³ [There is] a league between me and you, as [there was] between my father and your father: look, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. ⁴ And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store-cities of Naphtali. ⁵ And it came to pass, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and let his work cease. ⁶ Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and he built with them Geba and Mizpah.

⁷ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him, Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and haven't relied on Yahweh your God, therefore the host of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. ⁸ Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge host, with chariots and horsemen exceedingly many? Yet, because you relied on Yahweh, he delivered them into your hand. ⁹ For the eyes of Yahweh run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. In this you have done foolishly; for from now on you will have wars. ¹⁰ Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

¹¹ And, look, the acts of Asa, first and last, see, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ¹² And in the thirty and ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceedingly great: yet in his disease he did not seek to Yahweh, but to the physicians. ¹³ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. ¹⁴ And they buried him in his own tombs, which he had cut out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and diverse kinds [of spices] prepared by the perfumers' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

⁷ Also in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben-hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; ⁸ and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. ⁹ And they taught in Judah, having the Book of the Law of Yahweh with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people.

¹⁰ And the fear of Yahweh fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹ And some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. ¹² And Jehoshaphat waxed exceedingly great; and he built in Judah castles and cities of store. ¹³ And he had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And this was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valor three hundred thousand; ¹⁵ and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him 280,000; ¹⁶ and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Yahweh; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. ¹⁷ And of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; ¹⁸ and next to him Jehozabad and with him 180,000 ready prepared for war. ¹⁹ These were those who ministered to the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab. ² And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up [with him] to Ramoth-gilead. ³ And Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as you are, and my people as your people; and [we will be] with you in the war.

⁴ And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Inquire first, I pray you, for the word of Yahweh. ⁵ Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king. ⁶ But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of him? ⁷ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh: but I hate him; for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Don't let the king say so. ⁸ Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. ⁹ Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. ¹⁰ And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and said, Thus says Yahweh, With these you will push the Syrians, until they are consumed. ¹¹ And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king.

¹² And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Look, the words of the prophets [declare] good to the king with one mouth: let your word therefore, I pray you, be like one of theirs, and speak good. ¹³ And Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what my God says, that I will speak. ¹⁴ And when he came to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go⁺ up, and prosper; and they will be delivered into your⁺ hand. ¹⁵ And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh? ¹⁶ And he said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and Yahweh said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace. ¹⁷ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? ¹⁸ And [Micaiah] said, Therefore hear⁺ the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. ¹⁹ And Yahweh said, Who will entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spoke saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. ²⁰ And there came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, I will entice him. And Yahweh said to him, How? ²¹ And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, You will entice him, and will prevail also: go forth, and do so. ²² Now therefore, look, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you.

²³ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way did the Spirit of Yahweh go from me to speak to you? ²⁴ And Micaiah said, Look, you will see on that day, when you will go into an inner chamber to hide yourself. ²⁵ And the king of Israel said, Take⁺ Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; ²⁶ and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. ²⁷ And Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, you⁺ peoples, all of you⁺.

²⁸ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. ²⁹ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. ³⁰ Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, but only with the king of Israel. ³¹ And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they turned about to fight against him: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped him; and God moved them [to depart] from him. ³² And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw that it wasn't the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. ³³ And a certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor: therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am critically wounded. ³⁴ And the battle increased that day: nevertheless the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening; and about the time of the going down of the sun he died.

19 And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. ² And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate Yahweh? For this thing wrath is on you from before Yahweh. ³ Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God.

⁴ And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beer-sheba to the hill-country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. ⁵ And he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, ⁶ and said to the judges, Consider what you⁺ do: for you⁺ do not judge for man, but for Yahweh; and [he is] with you⁺ in the judgment. ⁷ Now therefore let the fear of Yahweh be on you⁺; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with Yahweh our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes.

20 And it came to pass after this, that the sons of Moab, and the sons of Ammon, and with them some of the Meunites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. ² Then there came some who told Jehoshaphat, saying, There comes a great multitude against you from beyond the sea from Edom; and, look, they are in Hazazon-tamar (the same is En-gedi). ³ And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek to Yahweh; and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴ And Judah gathered themselves together, to seek [help] of Yahweh: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek Yahweh.

⁵ And Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Yahweh, before the new court; ⁶ and he said, O Yahweh, the God of our fathers, are not you God in heaven? And are not you ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? And in your hand is power and might, so that none is able to withstand you. ⁷ Did you not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it to the seed of Abraham your friend forever? ⁸ And they dwelt in it, and have built you a sanctuary in it for your name, saying, ⁹ If evil comes on us, the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before you (for your name is in this house), and cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save. ¹⁰ And now, look, the sons of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and did not destroy them; ¹¹ look, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of your possession, which you have given us to inherit. ¹² O our God, will you not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither do we know what to do: but our eyes are on you. ¹³ And all Judah stood before Yahweh, with their little ones, their wives, and their sons.

¹⁴ Then on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of Yahweh in the midst of the assembly; ¹⁵ and he said, Listen⁺, all Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat: Thus says Yahweh to you⁺, Don't be⁺ afraid, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours⁺, but God's. ¹⁶ Tomorrow go⁺ down against them: look, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz; and you⁺ will find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷ You⁺ will not need to fight in this [battle]: set yourselves, stand⁺ still, and see the salvation of Yahweh with you⁺, O Judah and Jerusalem; don't be afraid, nor be dismayed: tomorrow go out against them: for Yahweh is with you⁺. ¹⁸ And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Yahweh, worshiping Yahweh. ¹⁹ And the Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites and of the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel, with an exceedingly loud voice.

²⁰ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you⁺ inhabitants of Jerusalem: believe in Yahweh your⁺ God, so you⁺ will be established; believe his prophets, so you⁺ will prosper. ²¹ And when he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who should sing to Yahweh, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to Yahweh; for his loving-kindness [endures] forever. ²² And when they began to sing and to praise, Yahweh set ambushers against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck. ²³ For the sons of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, completely to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another.

²⁴ And when Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they looked on the multitude; and saw that they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped.

²⁵ And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the spoil of them, they found beasts of burden, in abundance, and riches, and clothing, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much. ²⁶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed Yahweh: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Beracah to this day. ²⁷ Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for Yahweh had made them to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸ And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets to the house of Yahweh. ²⁹ And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that Yahweh fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

³¹ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³² And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh. ³³ Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts to the God of their fathers. ³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, look, they are written in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is inserted in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

³⁵ And after this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel; the same did very wickedly: ³⁶ and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion-geber. ³⁷ Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, Yahweh has destroyed your works. And the ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead. ² And he had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. ³ And their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah: but the kingdom he gave to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. ⁴ Now when Jehoram had risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he slew all his brothers with the sword, and diverse also of the princes of Israel. ⁵ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ⁶ And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ⁷ Nevertheless Yahweh would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons always.

¹¹ Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem prostitute, and led Judah astray. ¹² And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father, Because you haven't walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³ but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem prostitute, like the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself: ¹⁴ look, Yahweh will strike with a great plague your people, and your sons, and your wives, and all your substance; ¹⁵ and you with many sicknesses by disease of your insides, until your insides fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

¹⁶ And Yahweh stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians: ¹⁷ and they came up against Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸ And after all this Yahweh struck him in his insides with an incurable disease. ¹⁹ And it came to pass, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his insides fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of intense diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. ²⁰ He was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead; for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. ² Ahaziah was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. ³ He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly. ⁴ And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. ⁵ He also walked after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. ⁶ And he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

⁷ Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram: for when he came, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸ And it came to pass, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and slew them. ⁹ And he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and slew him; and they buried him, for they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Yahweh with all his heart. And the house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom.

¹⁰ Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Judah. ¹¹ But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she did not slay him. ¹² And he was hid with them in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. ² And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' [houses] of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. ³ And all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Look, the king's son will reign, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the sons of David. ⁴ This is the thing that you⁺ will do: a third part of you⁺, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, will be porters of the thresholds; ⁵ and a third part will be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people will be in the courts of the house of Yahweh. ⁶ But let none come into the house of Yahweh, except the priests, and those who minister of the Levites; they will come in, for they are holy: but all the people will keep the charge of Yahweh. ⁷ And the Levites will circle the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be slain: and be⁺ with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out.

⁸ So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the courses. ⁹ And Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God. ¹⁰ And he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about. ¹¹ Then they brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and [gave him] the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, [Long] live the king.

¹² And when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of Yahweh: ¹³ and she looked and saw that the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets; the singers also [played] on instruments of music, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason! Treason! ¹⁴ And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Have her forth between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword: for the priest said, Don't slay her in the house of Yahweh. ¹⁵ So they made way for her; and she went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house: and they slew her there.

¹⁶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be Yahweh's people. ¹⁷ And all the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. ¹⁸ And Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of Yahweh under the hand of the Levitical priests, whom David had distributed in the house of Yahweh, to offer the burnt-offerings of Yahweh, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David. ¹⁹ And he set the porters at the gates of the house of Yahweh, that none who was unclean in anything should enter in. ²⁰ And he took the captains of hundreds, and the majestic ones, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of Yahweh: and they came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. ²¹ So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And Athaliah they had slain with the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah, of Beer-sheba. ² And Joash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the days of Jehoiada the priest. ³ And Jehoiada took for himself two wives; and he begot sons and daughters.

⁴ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to restore the house of Yahweh. ⁵ And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel silver to repair the house of your⁺ God from year to year; and see that you⁺ hurry the matter. Nevertheless the Levites did not hurry it. ⁶ And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tax of Moses the slave of Yahweh, and of the assembly of Israel, for the tent of the testimony? ⁷ For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also they bestowed all the dedicated things of the house of Yahweh on the Baalim.

⁸ So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of Yahweh. ⁹ And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for Yahweh the tax that Moses the slave of God laid on Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰ And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. ¹¹ And it was so, that, at what time the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much silver, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered silver in abundance. ¹² And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of Yahweh; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of Yahweh, and also such as wrought iron and bronze to repair the house of Yahweh. ¹³ So the workmen wrought, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up the house of God in its state, and strengthened it. ¹⁴ And when they had made an end, they brought the rest of the silver before the king and Jehoiada, of which were made vessels for the house of Yahweh, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt-offerings in the house of Yahweh continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵ But Jehoiada waxed old and was full of days, and he died; he was a hundred and thirty years old when he died. ¹⁶ And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house. ¹⁷ Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king listened to them. ¹⁸ And they forsook the house of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness. ¹⁹ Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to Yahweh; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

²⁰ And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, Thus says God, Why do you⁺ transgress the commandments of Yahweh, so that you⁺ can't prosper? Because you⁺ have forsaken Yahweh, he has also forsaken you⁺. ²¹ And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of Yahweh. ²² Thus Joash the king didn't remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, Yahweh look at it, and require it.

²³ And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the king of Damascus. ²⁴ For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; and Yahweh delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash.

25 Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem. ² And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, but not with a perfect heart. ³ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his slaves who had killed the king his father. ⁴ But he did not put their sons to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the Book of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, The fathers will not die for the sons, neither will the sons die for the fathers; but every man will die for his own sin.

⁵ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. ⁶ He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver. ⁷ But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, don't let the army of Israel go with you; for Yahweh is not with Israel, [to wit,] with all the sons of Ephraim. ⁸ But if you will go, do [valiantly], be strong for the battle: God will cast you down before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to cast down. ⁹ And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, Yahweh is able to give you much more than this. ¹⁰ Then Amaziah separated them, [to wit,] the army that came to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. ¹¹ And Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck of the sons of Seir ten thousand. ¹² And the sons of Judah carried away alive [another] ten thousand, and brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that all of them were broken in pieces. ¹³ But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth-horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil.

of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. ¹⁵ Therefore the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which haven't delivered their own people out of your hand? ¹⁶ And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that [the king] said to him, Have we made you of the king's counsel? Forbear; why should you be struck? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and haven't listened to my counsel.

¹⁷ Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. ¹⁸ And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle. ¹⁹ You say, Look, you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast: remain now at home; why should you meddle to [your] hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?

²⁰ But Amaziah would not hear; for it was of God, that he might hand them over, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. ²¹ So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ²² And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. ²³ And Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. ²⁴ And [he took] all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

²⁵ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, look, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷ Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following Yahweh they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there. ²⁸ And they brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

26 And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. ² He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. ³ Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jechiliah, of Jerusalem. ⁴ And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. ⁵ And he set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God: and as long as he sought Yahweh, God made him to prosper.

⁶ And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in [the country of] Ashdod, and among the Philistines. ⁷ And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Meunim. ⁸ And the Meunites gave tribute to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt; for he waxed exceedingly strong. ⁹ Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning [of the wall], and fortified them. ¹⁰ And he built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns, for he had much cattle; in the lowland also, and in the plain: [and he had] husbandmen and vinedressers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields; for he loved husbandry. ¹¹ Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. ¹² The whole number of the heads of fathers' [houses], even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand and six hundred. ¹³ And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. ¹⁴ And Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging. ¹⁵ And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong.

¹⁶ But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against Yahweh his God; for he went into the temple of Yahweh to burn incense on the altar of incense. ¹⁷ And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of Yahweh, who were valiant men: ¹⁸ and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said to him, It does not pertain to you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Yahweh, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither will it be for your honor from Yahweh God. ¹⁹ Then Uzziah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of Yahweh, beside the altar of incense. ²⁰ And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him, and saw that he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; yes, he himself hurried also to go out, because Yahweh had struck him. ²¹ And Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of Yahweh: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. ²² Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. ²³ So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

27 Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. ² And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: nevertheless he did not enter into the temple of Yahweh. And the people did yet corruptly. ³ He built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. ⁴ Moreover he built cities in the hill-country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. ⁵ He fought also with the king of the sons of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the sons of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand cors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the sons of Ammon render to him, in the second year also, and in the third. ⁶ So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before Yahweh his God. ⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, look, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸ He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, like David his father; ² but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and also made molten images for the Baalim. ³ Moreover he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his sons in the fire, according to the disgusting behaviors of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the sons of Israel. ⁴ And he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Therefore Yahweh his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they struck him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. ⁶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. ⁷ And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the leader of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king.

⁸ And the sons of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. ⁹ But a prophet of Yahweh was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said to them, Look, because Yahweh, the God of your⁺ fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your⁺ hand, and you⁺ have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. ¹⁰ And now you⁺ purpose to subdue the sons of Judah and Jerusalem for male slaves and female slaves to yourselves: [but] are there not even with you⁺ trespasses of your⁺ own against Yahweh your⁺ God? ¹¹ Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, whom you⁺ have taken captive of your⁺ brothers; for the fierce wrath of Yahweh is on you⁺. ¹² Then certain of the heads of the sons of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, ¹³ and said to them, You⁺ will not bring in the captives here: for you⁺ purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against Yahweh, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. ¹⁴ So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly. ¹⁵ And the men who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and arrayed them, and gave them sandals, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm-trees, to their brothers: then they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶ At that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. ¹⁷ For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives. ¹⁸ The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederath, and Soco with its towns, and Timnah with its towns, Gimzo also and its towns: and they dwelt there. ¹⁹ For Yahweh brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed intensely against Yahweh. ²⁰ And Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and distressed him, but did not strengthen him. ²¹ For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of Yahweh, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but it did not help him.

of all Israel. ²⁴ And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of Yahweh; and he made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵ And in every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked Yahweh to anger, the God of his fathers. ²⁶ Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, look, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷ And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

29 Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. ² And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that David his father had done. ³ In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of Yahweh, and repaired them. ⁴ And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, ⁵ and said to them, Hear me, you⁺ Levites; now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of Yahweh, the God of your⁺ fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. ⁶ For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of Yahweh, and turned their backs. ⁷ Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. ⁸ Therefore the wrath of Yahweh was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed to and fro, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you⁺ see with your⁺ eyes. ⁹ For, look, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. ¹⁰ Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Yahweh, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. ¹¹ My sons, now don't be negligent; for Yahweh has chosen you⁺ to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you⁺ should be his ministers, and burn incense.

¹² Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; ¹³ and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴ and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. ¹⁵ And they gathered their brothers, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of Yahweh, to cleanse the house of Yahweh. ¹⁶ And the priests went in to the inner part of the house of Yahweh, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Yahweh into the court of the house of Yahweh. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron. ¹⁷ Now they began on the first [day] of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of Yahweh; and they sanctified the house of Yahweh in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. ¹⁸ Then they went in to Hezekiah the king inside [the palace], and said, We have cleansed all the house of Yahweh, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all its vessels, and the table of showbread, with all its vessels. ¹⁹ Moreover all the vessels, which King Ahaz in his reign had cast away when he trespassed, we have prepared and sanctified; and, look, they are before the altar of Yahweh.

²⁰ Then Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of Yahweh. ²¹ And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of Yahweh. ²² So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. ²³ And they brought near the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them: ²⁴ and the priests killed them, and they made a sin-offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded [that] the burnt-offering and the sin-offering [should be made] for all Israel.

²⁵ And he set the Levites in the house of Yahweh with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of Yahweh by his prophets. ²⁶ And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. ²⁷ And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering on the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, the song of Yahweh began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. ²⁸ And all the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this [continued] until the burnt-offering was finished.

³¹ Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now you⁺ have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh; come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of Yahweh. And the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart [brought] burnt-offerings. ³² And the number of the burnt-offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to Yahweh. ³³ And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. ³⁴ But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt-offerings: therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. ³⁵ And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and with the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of Yahweh was set in order. ³⁶ And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel. ² For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month. ³ For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. ⁴ And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. ⁵ So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written. ⁶ So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, You⁺ sons of Israel, turn again to Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant that have escaped of you⁺ out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷ And don't be⁺ like your⁺ fathers, and like your⁺ brothers, who trespassed against Yahweh, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you⁺ see. ⁸ Now don't be⁺ stiff-necked, as your⁺ fathers were; but yield yourselves to Yahweh, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve Yahweh your⁺ God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you⁺. ⁹ For if you⁺ turn again to Yahweh, your⁺ brothers and your⁺ sons will find compassion before those who led them captive, and will come again into this land: for Yahweh your⁺ God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you⁺, if you⁺ return to him.

¹⁰ So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. ¹¹ Nevertheless certain men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. ¹² Also on Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by the word of Yahweh.

¹³ And there assembled at Jerusalem many people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly. ¹⁴ And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense they took away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. ¹⁵ Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt-offerings into the house of Yahweh. ¹⁶ And they stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood [which they received] of the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷ For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites had the charge of killing the passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Yahweh. ¹⁸ For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, The good Yahweh pardon everyone ¹⁹ that sets his heart to seek God, Yahweh, the God of his fathers, though [he is] not [cleansed] according to the purification of the sanctuary. ²⁰ And Yahweh listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. ²¹ And the sons of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Yahweh day by day, [singing] with loud instruments to Yahweh. ²² And Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding [in the service] of Yahweh. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace-offerings, and making confession to Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

² And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of Yahweh. ³ [He appointed] also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, [to wit,] for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of Yahweh. ⁴ Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of Yahweh. ⁵ And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the sons of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things they brought in abundantly. ⁶ And the sons of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to Yahweh their God, and laid them by heaps. ⁷ In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. ⁸ And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Yahweh, and his people Israel. ⁹ Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. ¹⁰ And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since [the people] began to bring the oblations into the house of Yahweh, we have eaten and had enough, and have plenty left: for Yahweh has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

¹¹ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of Yahweh; and they prepared them. ¹² And they brought in the oblations and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was leader, and Shimei his brother was second. ¹³ And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the leader of the house of God. ¹⁴ And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east [gate], was over the freewill-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of Yahweh, and the most holy things. ¹⁵ And under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by courses, to the great as well as to the small: ¹⁶ besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of Yahweh, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their courses; ¹⁷ and those who were reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their courses; ¹⁸ and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. ¹⁹ Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites.

²⁰ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and he wrought that which was good and right and faithful before Yahweh his God. ²¹ And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32 After these things, and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself. ² And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib came, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, ³ he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were outside the city; and they helped him. ⁴ So many people were gathered together, and they stopped all the fountains, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? ⁵ And he took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised up the towers, and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo [in] the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. ⁶ And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, ⁷ Be strong and of good courage, don't be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him; for there is a greater with us than with him: ⁸ with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is Yahweh our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹ After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his slaves to Jerusalem (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰ Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, On what do you⁺ trust, that you⁺ remain in the siege in Jerusalem? ¹¹ Does not Hezekiah persuade you⁺, to give you⁺ over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Yahweh our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹² Has not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You⁺ will worship before one altar, and on it will you⁺ burn incense? ¹³ Don't you⁺ know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any wise able to deliver their land out of my hand? ¹⁴ Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers completely destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your⁺ God should be able to deliver you⁺ out of my hand? ¹⁵ Now therefore don't let Hezekiah deceive you⁺, nor persuade you⁺ after this manner, neither believe⁺ him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less will you⁺ God deliver you⁺ out of my hand?

¹⁶ And his slaves spoke yet more against Yahweh God, and against his slave Hezekiah. ¹⁷ He also wrote letters, to rail on Yahweh, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so will the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand. ¹⁸ And they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. ¹⁹ And they spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of man's hands.

²⁰ And Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. ²¹ And Yahweh sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he came into the house of his god, those who came forth from inside him slew him there with the sword. ²² Thus Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all [others], and he gave them rest on every side. ²³ And many brought gifts to Yahweh to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from then on.

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death: and he prayed to Yahweh; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign.

²⁵ But Hezekiah did not render again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶ Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Yahweh didn't come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷ And Hezekiah had exceedingly much riches and honor: and he provided for himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels; ²⁸ storehouses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and flocks for the folds. ²⁹ Moreover he provided for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance.

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. ² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, after the disgusting behaviors of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the sons of Israel. ³ For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Baalim, and made Asheroth, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. ⁴ And he built altars in the house of Yahweh, of which Yahweh said, In Jerusalem will my name be forever. ⁵ And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of Yahweh. ⁶ He also made his sons to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he interpreted omens, and used magic, and did witchcraft, and dealt with spiritists and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger. ⁷ And he set the graven image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever: ⁸ neither will I anymore remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your* fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances [given] by Moses. ⁹ And Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than did the nations whom Yahweh destroyed before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ And Yahweh spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they gave no heed. ¹¹ Therefore Yahweh brought on them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. ¹² And when he was in distress, he implored Yahweh his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. ¹³ And he prayed to him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Yahweh he was God.

²¹ Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²² And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the graven images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. ²³ And he didn't humble himself before Yahweh, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. ²⁴ And his slaves conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. ²⁵ But the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against King Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. ² And he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in the ways of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images. ⁴ And they broke down the altars of the Baalim in his presence; and the sun-images that were on high above them he hewed down; and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves [of them] that had sacrificed to them. ⁵ And he burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶ And [so he did] in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, he searched their houses round about. ⁷ And he broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the graven images into powder, and hewed down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

⁸ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of Yahweh his God.

⁹ And they came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the silver that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁰ And they delivered it into the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and the workmen who wrought in the house of Yahweh gave it to mend and repair the house; ¹¹ even to the carpenters and to the builders they gave it, to buy cut stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹² And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and [others of] the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music. ¹³ Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

¹⁴ And when they brought out the silver that was brought into the house of Yahweh, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of Yahweh [given] by Moses. ¹⁵ And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the house of Yahweh. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. ¹⁶ And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, All that was committed to your slaves, they are doing. ¹⁷ And they have emptied out the silver that was found in the house of Yahweh, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen. ¹⁸ And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has delivered a book to me. And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹⁹ And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. ²⁰ And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's slave, saying, ²¹ Go⁺, inquire of Yahweh for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that was found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Yahweh, to do according to all that is written in this book.

²² So Hilkiah, and those whom the king [had commanded], went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they spoke to her to that effect. ²³ And she said to them, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: Tell⁺ the man who sent you⁺ to me, ²⁴ Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. ²⁵ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched. ²⁶ But to the king of Judah, who sent you⁺ to inquire of Yahweh, thus you⁺ will say to him, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: As concerning the words which you have heard, ²⁷ because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before me, and have rent your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh. ²⁸ Look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, neither will your eyes see all the evil that I will bring on this place, and on its inhabitants. And they brought back word to the king.

²⁹ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰ And the king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the house of Yahweh. ³¹ And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. ³² Then he caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³ And Josiah took away all the disgusting things out of all the countries that pertained to the sons of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Yahweh their God. All his days they did not depart from following Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

35 And Josiah kept a Passover to Yahweh in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the first month. ² And he set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of Yahweh. ³ And he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to Yahweh, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; there will no more be a burden on your⁺ shoulders: now serve Yahweh your⁺ God, and his people Israel. ⁴ And prepare yourselves after your⁺ fathers' houses by your⁺ courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. ⁵ And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your⁺ brothers the sons of the people, and [let there be for each] a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. ⁶ And kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your⁺ brothers, to do according to the word of Yahweh by Moses.

⁷ And Josiah gave to the sons of the people, of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Passover-offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. ⁸ And his princes gave for a freewill-offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the leaders of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred [small cattle], and three hundred oxen. ⁹ Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover-offerings five thousand [small cattle], and five hundred oxen.

¹⁰ So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their courses, according to the king's commandment. ¹¹ And they killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled [the blood which they received] from their hand, and the Levites flayed them. ¹² And they removed the burnt-offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the sons of the people, to offer to Yahweh, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the oxen. ¹³ And they roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings they boiled in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the sons of the people. ¹⁴ And afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron [were busy] in offering the burnt-offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵ And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters were at every gate: they did not need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.

¹⁶ So all the service of Yahweh was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt-offerings on the altar of Yahweh, according to the commandment of King Josiah. ¹⁷ And the sons of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. ¹⁸ And there was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept.

²⁰ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. ²¹ But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with you, king of Judah? [I come] not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; and God has commanded me to hurry: forbear yourself from [meddling with] God, who is with me, that he does not destroy you. ²² Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and didn't listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³ And the archers shot at King Josiah; and the king said to his slaves, Take me away; for I am critically wounded. ²⁴ So his slaves took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. ²⁵ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and, look, they are written in the lamentations. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of Yahweh, ²⁷ and his acts, first and last, look, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. ² Joahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³ And the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴ And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

⁵ Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh his God. ⁶ Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. ⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of Yahweh to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. ⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and the disgusting things that he did, and that which was found in him, look, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

⁹ Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹⁰ And at the return of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of Yahweh, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹ Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: ¹² and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh his God; he didn't humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet [speaking] from the mouth of Yahweh. ¹³ And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁴ Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the disgusting things of the nations; and they polluted the house of Yahweh which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. ¹⁵ And Yahweh, the God of their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending, because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place: ¹⁶ but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of Yahweh arose against his people, until there was no remedy.

¹⁷ Therefore he brought on them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed: he gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸ And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon. ¹⁹ And they burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it. ²⁰ And those who had escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon; and they were slaves to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: ²¹ to fulfill the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths: [for] as long as it lay desolate it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

²² Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and [put it] also in writing, saying, ²³ Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth has Yahweh, the God of heaven, given me; and he has charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you* of all his people, Yahweh his God be with him, and let him go up.

Ezra

1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and [put it] also in writing, saying, ² Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth has Yahweh, the God of heaven, given me; and he has charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³ Whoever there is among you* of all his people, his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Yahweh, the God of Israel (he is God), which is in Jerusalem. ⁴ And whoever is left, in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the freewill-offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.

⁵ Then the heads of fathers' [houses] of Judah and Benjamin rose up, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up to build the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem. ⁶ And all those who were round about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. ⁷ Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of Yahweh, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of his gods; ⁸ even those Cyrus king of Persia brought forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. ⁹ And this is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, a thousand platters of silver, nine and twenty altered, ¹⁰ thirty bowls of gold, spare^a silver bowls four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. ¹¹ All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar had brought up, when those of the captivity were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 Now these are the sons of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, every one to his city; ² who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel: ³ The sons of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy and two. ⁴ The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. ⁵ The sons of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five. ⁶ The sons of Pahath-moab, of the sons of Jeshua [and] Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. ⁷ The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. ⁸ The sons of Zattu, nine hundred forty and five. ⁹ The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. ¹⁰ The sons of Bani, six hundred forty and two. ¹¹ The sons of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three. ¹² The sons of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two. ¹³ The sons of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and six. ¹⁴ The sons of Bigvai, two thousand fifty and six. ¹⁵ The sons of Adin, four hundred fifty and four. ¹⁶ The sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. ¹⁷ The sons of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three. ¹⁸ The sons of Jorah, a hundred and twelve. ¹⁹ The sons of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three. ²⁰ The sons of Gibbar, ninety and five. ²¹ The sons of Beth-lehem, a hundred twenty and three. ²² The men of Netophah, fifty and six. ²³ The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty and eight. ²⁴ The sons of Azmaveth, forty and two. ²⁵ The sons of Kiriath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three. ²⁶ The sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty and one. ²⁷ The men of Michmas, a hundred twenty and two. ²⁸ The men of Beth-el and Ai, two hundred twenty and three. ²⁹ The sons of Nebo, fifty and two. ³⁰ The sons of Magbish, a hundred fifty and six. ³¹ The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. ³² The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty. ³³ The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five. ³⁴ The sons of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. ³⁵ The sons of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty.

³⁶ The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three. ³⁷ The sons of Immer, a thousand fifty and two. ³⁸ The sons of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven. ³⁹ The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

⁴³ Those given [to temple service]: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴ the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵ the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶ the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shamlai, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷ the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸ the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹ the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰ the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephisim, ⁵¹ the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵² the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁴ the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁵ The sons of Solomon's slaves: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶ the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Ami. ⁵⁸ All those given [to temple service], and the sons of Solomon's slaves, were three hundred ninety and two.

⁵⁹ And these were those who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, [and] Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, and their seed, whether they were of Israel: ⁶⁰ the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two. ⁶¹ And of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. ⁶² These sought their register [among] those who were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore they were deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. ⁶³ And the governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.

⁶⁴ The whole assembly together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, ⁶⁵ besides their male slaves and their female slaves, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶ Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; ⁶⁷ their camels, four hundred thirty and five; [their] donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁶⁸ And some of the heads of fathers' [houses], when they came to the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to set it up in its place: ⁶⁹ they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work threescore and one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

⁷⁰ So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people: and the singers, and the porters, and those given [to temple service] dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 And when the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. ² Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. ³ And they set the altar on its base; for fear was on them because of the peoples of the countries: and they offered burnt-offerings on it to Yahweh, even burnt-offerings morning and evening. ⁴ And they kept the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and [offered] the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; ⁵ and afterward the continual burnt-offering, and [the offerings] of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of Yahweh that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill-offering to Yahweh. ⁶ From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt-offerings to Yahweh: but the foundation of the temple of Yahweh was not yet laid.

⁷ They gave silver also to the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, to those of Sidon, and to those of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

⁸ Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began. And they appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of Yahweh. ⁹ Then Jeshua stood with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and Binnui^a [and] Hodaviah together, to have the oversight of the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. ¹⁰ And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Yahweh, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise Yahweh, after the order of David king of Israel. ¹¹ And they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks to Yahweh, [saying,] For he is good, for his loving-kindness [endures] forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Yahweh, because the foundation of the house of Yahweh was laid. ¹² But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' [houses], the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: ¹³ so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard far off.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the captivity were building a temple to Yahweh, the God of Israel; ² then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers' [houses], and said to them, Let us build with you⁺; for we seek your⁺ God, as you⁺ do; and we have been sacrificing to him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here. ³ But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' [houses] of Israel, said to them, You⁺ have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to Yahweh, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us. ⁴ Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, ⁵ and hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. ⁶ And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. ¹³ Be it known now to the king, that, if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. ¹⁴ Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not meet for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and certified the king; ¹⁵ that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so you will find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition inside the same of old time; for which cause was this city laid waste. ¹⁶ We inform the king that, if this city is built, and the walls finished, by this means you will have no portion beyond the River.

¹⁷ [Then] the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their fellow slaves who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest [of the country] beyond the River: Peace, and so forth. ¹⁸ The letter which you⁺ sent to us has been plainly read before me. ¹⁹ And I decreed, and search has been made, and it was found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it. ²⁰ There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all [the country] beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them. ²¹ Make⁺ now a decree to cause these [work]men to cease, and that this city will not be built, until a decree will be made by me. ²² And take heed that you⁺ are not slack in this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

²³ Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their fellow slaves, they went in a hurry to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. ²⁴ Then the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel [they prophesied] to them. ² Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, rose up and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. ³ At the same time Tattenai came to them, the governor beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai, and their fellow slaves, and said thus to them, Who gave you⁺ a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall? ⁴ Then we told them after this manner, what the names of the [work]men were who were making this building. ⁵ But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it.

⁶ The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai, and his fellow slaves the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king; ⁷ they sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darius the king, all peace. ⁸ Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. ⁹ Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, Who gave you⁺ a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall? ¹⁰ We asked them their names also, to inform you, that we might write the names of the [work]men who were at the head of them. ¹¹ And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the slaves of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. ¹² But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. ¹³ But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God. ¹⁴ And the gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; ¹⁵ and he said to him, Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in its place. ¹⁶ Then the same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now it has been in building, and yet it is not completed. ¹⁷ Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let there be a search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it is so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

6 Then Darius the king made a decree, and a search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. ² And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a roll, and in it was thus written for a record: ³ In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height threescore cubits, and its width threescore cubits; ⁴ with three courses of great stones, and a course of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house. ⁵ And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to its place; and you will put them in the house of God.

⁶ Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and your⁺ fellow slaves the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, be⁺ far from there: ⁷ leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. ⁸ Moreover I make a decree what you⁺ will do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses will be given with all diligence to these [work]men, that they are not hindered. ⁹ And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for burnt-offerings to the God of heaven; [also] wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given to them day by day without fail; ¹⁰ that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savor to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. ¹¹ Also I have made a decree, that whoever will alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened on it; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: ¹² and the God who has caused his name to stay there overthrow all kings and peoples who will put forth their hand to alter [the same], to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence.

¹³ Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and their fellow slaves, because Darius the king had sent, did accordingly with all diligence. ¹⁴ And the elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. ¹⁵ And this house was finished on the twenty-third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

¹⁶ And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. ¹⁷ And they offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin-offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸ And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the Book of Moses.

¹⁹ And the sons of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the first month. ²⁰ For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves, all of them as one, but all the exiles had not purified themselves; for the Levites, all of them as one, were pure: and they killed the Passover for all the sons of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. ²¹ And the sons of Israel who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, ate, ²² and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for Yahweh had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ² the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³ the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴ the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵ the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest— ⁶ this Ezra went up from Babylon. And he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which Yahweh, the God of Israel, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of Yahweh his God on him. ⁷ And there went up some of the sons of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and those given [to temple service], to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. ⁸ And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. ⁹ For on the first [day] of the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first [day] of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him. ¹⁰ For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of Yahweh, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and ordinances.

¹¹ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of the commandments of Yahweh, and of his statutes to Israel: ¹² Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect and so forth. ¹³ I make a decree, that all those of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you. ¹⁴ Since you are sent of the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand, ¹⁵ and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶ and all the silver and gold that you will find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill-offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem; ¹⁷ therefore you will with all diligence buy with this silver bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meal-offerings and their drink-offerings, and will offer them on the altar of the house of your⁺ God which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ And whatever will seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do⁺ that after the will of your⁺ God. ¹⁹ And the vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰ And whatever more will be needful for the house of your God, which you will have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure-house. ²¹ And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, will require of you⁺, it is to be done with all diligence, ²² to a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred cors of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. ²³ Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? ²⁴ Also we inform you⁺, that concerning any of the priests and Levites, the singers, porters, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it will not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on them. ²⁵ And you, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach⁺ him who doesn't know them. ²⁶ And whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it is to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

²⁷ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem; ²⁸ and has extended loving-kindness to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened according to the hand of Yahweh my God on me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8 Now these are the heads of their fathers' [houses], and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king: ² Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush. ³ Of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty. ⁴ Of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah; and with him two hundred males. ⁵ Of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel; and with him three hundred males. ⁶ And of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males. ⁷ And of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah; and with him seventy males. ⁸ And of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael; and with him eighty males. ⁹ Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males. ¹⁰ And of the sons of Bani, Shelomith the son of Josiphiah; and with him a hundred and threescore males. ¹¹ And of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty and eight males. ¹² And of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him a hundred and ten males. ¹³ And of the sons of Adonikam, [who were] the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them threescore males. ¹⁴ And of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur; and with them seventy males.

¹⁵ And I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. ¹⁶ Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers. ¹⁷ And I sent them forth to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I put words in their mouth to say to Iddo, [and] his brothers those given [to temple service], at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. ¹⁸ And according to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; ¹⁹ and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; ²⁰ and of those given [to temple service], whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were mentioned by name.

²¹ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. ²² For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him. ²³ So we fasted and implored our God for this: and he was entreated of us.

²⁴ Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them, ²⁵ and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his princes, and all Israel there present, had offered: ²⁶ I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and a hundred silver vessels [weighing ...]^a talents; of gold a hundred talents; ²⁷ and twenty bowls of gold, of a thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright bronze, precious as gold. ²⁸ And I said to them, You⁺ are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill-offering to Yahweh, the God of your⁺ fathers. ²⁹ Watch⁺, and keep them, until you⁺ weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' [houses] of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh. ³⁰ So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

³⁵ The sons of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt-offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and two lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering to Yahweh. ³⁶ And they delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

9 Now when these things were done, the princes drew near to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, haven't separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, [doing] according to their disgusting things, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ² For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands: yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass.³ And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded.⁴ Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass of them of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening oblation.

⁵ And at the evening oblation I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe rent; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to Yahweh my God; ⁶ and I said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens.⁷ Since the days of our fathers we have been exceedingly guilty to this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.⁸ And now for a little moment grace has been shown from Yahweh our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our slavery.⁹ For we are slaves; yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery, but has extended loving-kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.¹⁰ And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments,¹¹ which you have commanded by your slaves the prophets, saying, The land, to which you⁺ go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their disgusting behaviors, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness:¹² now therefore do not give your⁺ daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your⁺ sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you⁺ may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your⁺ sons forever.¹³ And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that you our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant,¹⁴ shall we again break your commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples who do these disgusting things? Wouldn't you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? ¹⁵ O Yahweh, the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is this day: look, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this.

10 Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very intensely.² And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land: yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing.³ Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.⁴ Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you: be of good courage, and do it.

⁵ Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the Levitical priests, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore.⁶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: and he spent the night there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of the trespass of them of the captivity.⁷ And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the sons of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem;⁸ and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity.

⁹ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth [day] of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.¹⁰ And Ezra the priest stood up, and said to them, You⁺ have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel.¹¹ Now therefore make confession to Yahweh, the God of your⁺ fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women.¹² Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, As you have said concerning us, so must we do.¹³ But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside: neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.¹⁴ Let now our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned from us, until this matter is dispatched.¹⁵ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this [matter]: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

¹⁶ And the sons of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest selected men, certain heads of their fathers' [houses], after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.¹⁷ And they made an end with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.¹⁸ And among the sons of the priests there were found that had married foreign women: [namely], of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.¹⁹ And they gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, [they offered] a ram of the flock for their guilt.²⁰ And of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.²¹ And of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah.²² And of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

²⁴ And of the singers: Eliashib. And of the porters: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

²⁵ And of Israel: Of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.²⁶ And of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.²⁷ And of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.²⁸ And of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai.²⁹ And of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth.³⁰ And of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.³¹ And [of] the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,³² Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah.³³ Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei.³⁴ Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel,³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu,³⁸ and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,³⁹ and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,⁴⁰ Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹ Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴² Shallum, Amariah, Joseph. ⁴³ Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabab, Zebina, Iddo, and Joel, Benaiah. ⁴⁴ All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had sons.

Nehemiah

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah.

Now it came to pass in the month Kislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, ² that Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. ³ And they said to me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.

⁴ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, ⁵ and said, I urge you, O Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving-kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments: ⁶ Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your slave, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the sons of Israel your slaves while I confess the sins of the sons of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned: ⁷ we have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your slave Moses. ⁸ Remember, I urge you, the word that you commanded your slave Moses, saying, If you⁺ trespass, I will scatter you⁺ abroad among the peoples: ⁹ but if you⁺ return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your⁺ outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen to make my name stay there. ¹⁰ Now these are your slaves and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. ¹¹ O Lord, I urge you, let now your ear be attentive to the prayer of your slave, and to the prayer of your slaves, who delight to fear your name; and prosper, I pray you, your slave this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.

Now I was cupbearer to the king. 2 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been [formerly] sad in his presence. ² And the king said to me, Why is your countenance sad, seeing you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very intensely afraid. ³ And I said to the king, Let the king live forever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are consumed with fire? ⁴ Then the king said to me, For what do you make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵ And I said to the king, If it pleases the king, and if your slave has found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it. ⁶ And the king said to me (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long will your journey be? And when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. ⁷ Moreover I said to the king, If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; ⁸ and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the castle which pertains to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I will enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God on me.

⁹ Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. ¹⁰ And when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the slave, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, for man came to seek the welfare of the sons of Israel. ¹¹ So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. ¹² And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither did I tell man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem; neither was there any beast with me, but the beast that I rode on. ¹³ And I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the Dragon's Well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. ¹⁴ Then I went on to the fountain gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass. ¹⁵ Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. ¹⁶ And the rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.

¹⁷ Then I said to them, You⁺ see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we will no more be a reproach. ¹⁸ And I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for the good [work]. ¹⁹ But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the slave, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that you⁺ do? Will you⁺ rebel against the king? ²⁰ Then I answered them, and said to them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his slaves will arise and build: but you⁺ have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

³ And the fish gate the sons of Hassenaah built; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. ⁴ And next to them repaired Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz. And next to them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel. And next to them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. ⁵ And next to them the Tekoites repaired; but their majestic ones did not put their necks to the work of their lord.

⁶ And the old gate repaired Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. ⁷ And next to them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, [that appertained] to the throne of the governor beyond the River. ⁸ Next to him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths. And next to him repaired Hananiah one of the perfumers. And they left Jerusalem as far as the broad wall. ⁹ And next to them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ And next to them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, across from his house. And next to him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabneiah. ¹¹ Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. ¹² And next to him repaired Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

4 But it came to pass that, when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. ² And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they leave themselves alone? Will they sacrifice? Will they make an end in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, seeing they are burned? ³ Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they are building, if a fox goes up, he will break down their stone wall. ⁴ Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn back their reproach on their own head, and give them up for a spoil in a land of captivity; ⁵ and don't cover their iniquity, and don't let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have provoked [you] to anger before the builders. ⁶ So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half [the height] of it: for the people had a mind to work.

⁷ But it came to pass that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, [and] that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very angry; ⁸ and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion in it. ⁹ But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. ¹⁰ And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. ¹¹ And our adversaries said, They will not know, neither see, until we come into the midst of them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. ¹² And it came to pass that, when the Jews who dwelt by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, You⁺ must return to us. ¹³ Therefore I set in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set [there] the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴ And I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Don't be⁺ afraid of them: remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your⁺ brothers, your⁺ sons, and your⁺ daughters, your⁺ wives, and your⁺ houses.

¹⁵ And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one to his work. ¹⁶ And it came to pass from that time forth, that half of my attendants wrought in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. ¹⁷ Those who built the wall and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other held his weapon; ¹⁸ and the builders, everyone had his sword girded by his side, and so built. And he who sounded the trumpet was by me. ¹⁹ And I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another: ²⁰ in whatever place you⁺ hear the sound of the trumpet, resort⁺ there to us; our God will fight for us.

5 Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. ² For there were some who said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many: let us get grain, that we may eat and live. ³ There were also some who said, We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses: let us get grain, because of the famine. ⁴ There were also some who said, We have borrowed silver for the king's tribute [on] our fields and our vineyards. ⁵ Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our sons as their sons: and, look, we bring into slavery our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are brought into slavery [already]: neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards.

⁶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. ⁷ Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, You⁺ exact usury, every one of his brother. And I held a great assembly against them.⁸ And I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our brothers the Jews, who were sold to the nations; and would you⁺ even sell your⁺ brothers, and should they be sold to us? Then they held their peace, and never found a word.⁹ Also I said, The thing that you⁺ do is not good: Shouldn't you⁺ walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies?¹⁰ And I likewise, my brothers and my attendants, lend them silver and grain. I pray you⁺, let us leave off this usury.¹¹ Restore, I pray you⁺, to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the silver, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you⁺ exact of them.¹² Then they said, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so we will do, even as you say. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise.¹³ Also I shook out my lap, and said, So may God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that does not perform this promise; even thus will he be shaken out, and emptied. And all the assembly said, Amen, and praised Yahweh. And the people did according to this promise.

¹⁴ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, [that is], twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor.¹⁵ But the former governors who were before me were chargeable to the people, and took of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their attendants bore rule over the people: but I did not do so, because of the fear of God.¹⁶ Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither did we buy any land: and all my attendants were gathered there to the work.¹⁷ Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, a hundred and fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were round about us.¹⁸ Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I did not demand the bread of the governor, because the service was heavy on this people.¹⁹ Remember to me, O my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

6 Now it came to pass, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),² that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in [one of] the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do mischief to me.³ And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down: why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?⁴ And they sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.⁵ Then Sanballat sent his attendant to me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand,⁶ in which was written, It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews think to rebel; for which cause you are building the wall: and you would be their king, according to these words.⁷ And you have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now it will be reported to the king according to these words. So now, come and let us take counsel together.⁸ Then I sent to him, saying, There are no such things done as you say, but you feign them out of your own heart.⁹ For all of them would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it will not be done. So now, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰ And I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay you; yes, in the night they will come to slay you.¹¹ And I said, Should a man such as I flee? And who is there, that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.¹² And I discerned, and saw that God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me: and Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.¹³ For this cause he was hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.¹⁴ Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

¹⁵ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth [day] of [the month] Elul, in fifty and two days.¹⁶ And it came to pass, when all our enemies heard [of it], that all the nations that were about us feared, and were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.¹⁷ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and [the letters] of Tobiah came to them.¹⁸ For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife.¹⁹ Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. [And] Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

7 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,² that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the castle, charge over Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.³ And I said to them, Don't let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand [on guard], let them shut the doors, and bar^{*} them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one [to be] across from his house.⁴ Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few in it, and the houses were not built.

⁵ And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it:⁶ These are the sons of the province, that went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and that returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one to his city;⁷ who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel:⁸ The sons of Parosh, two thousand a hundred and seventy and two.⁹ The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.¹⁰ The sons of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.¹¹ The sons of Pahathmoab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred [and] eighteen.¹² The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.¹³ The sons of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five.¹⁴ The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.¹⁵ The sons of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight.¹⁶ The sons of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight.¹⁷ The sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two.¹⁸ The sons of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven.¹⁹ The sons of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven.²⁰ The sons of Adin, six hundred fifty and five.²¹ The sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.²² The sons of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight.²³ The sons of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four.²⁴ The sons of Hariph, a hundred and twelve.²⁵ The sons of Gibeon, ninety and five.²⁶ The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188.²⁷ The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty and eight.²⁸ The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty and two.²⁹ The men of Kiriath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three.³⁰ The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty and one.³¹ The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty and two.³² The men of Beth-el and Ai, a hundred twenty and three.³³ The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two.³⁴ The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.³⁵ The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty.³⁶ The sons of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.³⁷ The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one.³⁸ The sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

³⁹ The priests: The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.⁴⁰ The sons of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.⁴¹ The sons of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.⁴² The sons of Harim, a thousand [and] seventeen.

⁴⁶ Those given [to temple service]: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,⁴⁷ the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,⁴⁸ the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Salmai,⁴⁹ the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,⁵⁰ the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda,⁵¹ the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah.⁵² The sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephushesim,⁵³ the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,⁵⁴ the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,⁵⁵ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,⁵⁶ the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁷ The sons of Solomon's slaves: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,⁵⁸ the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,⁵⁹ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pohereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.⁶⁰ All those given [to temple service], and the sons of Solomon's slaves, were three hundred ninety and two.

⁶¹ And these were those who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel:

⁶⁶ The whole assembly together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,⁶⁷ besides their male slaves and their female slaves, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women;^a ⁶⁹ four hundred thirty and five camels; six thousand seven hundred and twenty donkeys.

⁷⁰ And some from among the heads of fathers' [houses] gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury a thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.⁷¹ And some of the heads of fathers' [houses] gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand and two hundred minas of silver.⁷² And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

⁷³ So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and those given [to temple service], and all Israel, dwelt in their cities.

And when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel were in their cities. 8 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded to Israel. ² And Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. ³ And he read it before the broad place that was before the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were [attentive] to the Book of the Law. ⁴ And Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, [and] Meshullam. ⁵ And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people (for he was above all the people); and when he opened it, all the people stood up: ⁶ and Ezra blessed Yahweh, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with the lifting up of their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshiped Yahweh with their faces to the ground. ⁷ Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people [stood] in their place. ⁸ And they read in the book, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading.

⁹ And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, This day is holy to Yahweh your⁺ God; don't mourn, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰ Then he said to them, Go your⁺ way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord: neither be⁺ grieved; for the joy of Yahweh is your⁺ strength. ¹¹ So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your⁺ peace, for the day is holy; neither be⁺ grieved. ¹² And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

¹⁴ And they found written in the law, how that Yahweh had commanded by Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; ¹⁵ and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth to the mount, and fetch olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. ¹⁶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one on the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷ And all the assembly of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and dwelt in the booths; for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the sons of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness. ¹⁸ Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

9 Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the sons of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth on them. ² And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. ³ And they stood up in their place, and read in the Book of the Law of Yahweh their God a fourth part of the day; and [another] fourth part they confessed, and worshiped Yahweh their God. ⁴ Then stood up on the stairs of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, [and] Chenani, and cried with a loud voice to Yahweh their God.

⁵ Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, [and] Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless Yahweh your* God from everlasting to everlasting; and let them bless your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶ You are Yahweh, even you alone; you have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all; and the host of heaven worships you. ⁷ You are Yahweh the God, who chose Abram, and brought him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham, ⁸ and found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, to give it to his seed, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.

⁹ And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea, ¹⁰ and showed signs and wonders on Pharaoh, and on all his slaves, and on all the people of his land; for you knew that they dealt proudly against them, and you made a name for yourself, as it is this day. ¹¹ And you divided the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers you cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters. ¹² Moreover in a pillar of cloud you led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go. ¹³ You came down also on mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments, ¹⁴ and made known to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses your slave, ¹⁵ and gave them bread from heaven for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commanded them that they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.

¹⁶ But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their neck, and didn't listen to your commandments, ¹⁷ and refused to obey, neither were mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and in Egypt appointed a captain to return to their slavery. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and did not forsake them. ¹⁸ Yes, when they had made themselves a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; ¹⁹ yet you in your manifold mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud did not depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. ²⁰ You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. ²¹ Yes, forty years you sustained them in the wilderness, [and] they lacked nothing; their clothes did not wax old, and their feet did not swell. ²² Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you allotted after their portions: so they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. ²³ You also multiplied their sons as the stars of heaven, and brought them into the land concerning which you said to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. ²⁴ So the sons went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would. ²⁵ And they took fortified cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns cut out, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they ate, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

²⁶ Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against you, and cast your law behind their back, and slew your prophets who testified against them to turn themselves again to you, and they wrought great provocations. ²⁷ Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries. ²⁸ But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore you left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times you delivered them according to your mercies, ²⁹ and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and didn't listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances (which if man does, he will live in them), and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. ³⁰ Yet many years you bore with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets: yet they would not give ear: therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. ³¹ Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God.

³² Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving-kindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you, that has come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. ³³ Nevertheless you are just in all that has come upon us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly; ³⁴ neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you testified against them. ³⁵ For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and fat land which you gave before them, neither did they turn from their wicked works. ³⁶ Look, we are slaves this day, and as for the land that you gave to our fathers to eat the fruit of it and the good of it, see, we are slaves in it. ³⁷ And it yields much increase to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. ³⁸ And yet for all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, [and] our priests, seal to it.

10 Now those who sealed were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah, ² Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³ Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

²⁸ And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, those given [to temple service], and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding; ²⁹ They joined to their brothers, their majestic ones, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the slave of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes; ³⁰ and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; ³¹ and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

³² Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; ³³ for the showbread, and for the continual meal-offering, and for the continual burnt-offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin-offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. ³⁴ And we cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of Yahweh our God, as it is written in the law; ³⁵ and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all manner of trees, year by year, to the house of Yahweh; ³⁶ also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstborns of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; ³⁷ and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, and our heave-offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. ³⁸ And the priest the son of Aaron will be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites will bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure-house. ³⁹ For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi will bring the heave-offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

11 And the princes of the people dwelt in Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the [other] cities. ² And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.

Levites, and those given [to temple service], and the sons of Solomon's slaves. ⁴ And in Jerusalem dwelt certain of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin. Of the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez; ⁵ and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite. ⁶ All the sons of Perez who dwelt in Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

⁷ And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah. ⁸ And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. ⁹ And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city.

¹⁰ Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, ¹¹ Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God, ¹² and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty and two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, ¹³ and his brothers, chiefs of fathers' [houses], two hundred forty and two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴ and their brothers, mighty men of valor, a hundred twenty and eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Hagedolim.

¹⁵ And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶ and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God; ¹⁷ and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the chief of praise, he led in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸ All the Levites in the holy city were 284.

¹⁹ Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, that kept watch at the gates, were a hundred seventy and two. ²⁰ And the residue of Israel, of the Levitical priests, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. ²¹ But those given [to temple service] dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gishpa were over those given [to temple service].

²² The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of God. ²³ For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. ²⁴ And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

²⁵ And as for the villages, with their fields, some of the sons of Judah dwelt in Kiriath-arba and its towns, and in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages, ²⁶ and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, and Beth-pelet, ²⁷ and in Hazar-shual, and in Beer-sheba and its towns, ²⁸ and in Ziklag, and in Meconah and in its towns, ²⁹ and in En-rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth, ³⁰ Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they encamped from Beer-sheba to the valley of Hinnom. ³¹ The sons of Benjamin also [dwelt] from Geba [onward], at Michmash and Aija, and at Beth-el and its towns, ³² at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, ³³ Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, ³⁴ Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, ³⁵ Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. ³⁶ And of the Levites, certain courses in Judah [were joined] to Benjamin.

12 Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ² Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, ³ Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, ⁴ Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah, ⁵ Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, ⁶ Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah. ⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jeshua.

⁸ Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, [and] Mattaniah, who was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers. ⁹ Also Bakbukiah and Unno, their brothers, were next to them according to their offices. ¹⁰ And Jeshua begot Joiakim, and Joiakim begot Eliashib, and Eliashib begot Joiada, ¹¹ and Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

¹² And in the days of Joiakim were priests, heads of fathers' [houses]: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; ¹³ of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; ¹⁴ of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph; ¹⁵ of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; ¹⁶ of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; ¹⁷ of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; ¹⁸ of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; ¹⁹ and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; ²⁰ of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; ²¹ of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

13 On that day they read in the Book of Moses in the audience of the people; and in it was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, ² because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: nevertheless our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³ And it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

⁴ Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, ⁵ had prepared for him a great chamber, where previously they laid the meal-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the heave-offerings for the priests. ⁶ But in all this [time] I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king: and after certain days I asked leave of the king, ⁷ and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. ⁸ And it grieved me intensely: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. ⁹ Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and there I brought again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal-offerings and the frankincense.

¹⁰ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled every one to his field. ¹¹ Then I contended with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. ¹² Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. ¹³ And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers. ¹⁴ Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and don't wipe away my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances.

²³ In those days also I saw the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, [and] of Moab: ²⁴ and their sons spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. ²⁵ And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, [saying,] You⁺ will not give your⁺ daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your⁺ sons, or for yourselves. ²⁶ Didn't Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. ²⁷ Shall we then listen to you⁺ to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?

²⁸ And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. ²⁹ Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

³⁰ Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed charges for the priests and for the Levites, every one in his work; ³¹ and for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Esther

1 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces), ² that in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, ³ in the third year of his reign, he made a feast to all his princes and his slaves; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him; ⁴ when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the excellent honor of his greatness many days, even 180 days. ⁵ And when these days were fulfilled, the king made a feast to all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. ⁶ [There were hangings of] white [cloth], [of] green, and [of] blue, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, and white, and yellow, and black marble. ⁷ And they gave them drink in vessels of gold (the vessels being diverse one from another), and royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king. ⁸ And the drinking was according to the law; none could compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

⁹ Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to King Ahasuerus. ¹⁰ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that ministered in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, ¹¹ to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the peoples and the princes her beauty; for she was fair to look at. ¹² But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the chamberlains: therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him.

¹³ Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times (for so was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment; ¹⁴ and the next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom), ¹⁵ What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains? ¹⁶ And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. ¹⁷ For this deed of the queen will come abroad to all women, to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it will be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she didn't come. ¹⁸ And this day the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the deed of the queen will say [the like] to all the king's princes. So [there will arise] much contempt and wrath. ¹⁹ If it pleases the king, let there go forth a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it not be altered, that Vashti come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to her fellow woman who is better than she. ²⁰ And when the king's decree which he will make will be published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give to their husbands honor, both to great and small. ²¹ And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of

Memucan: ²² for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and should speak according to the language of his people.

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. ² Then the king's attendants who ministered to him said, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: ³ and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, to the custody of Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them; ⁴ and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

⁵ There was a certain Jew in Shushan the palace, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, ⁶ who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. ⁷ And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden had a beautiful body and face; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter.

⁸ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. ⁹ And the maiden was good in his eyes, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with her portions, and the seven maidens who were meet to be given her out of the king's house: and he removed her and her maidens to the best place of the house of the women. ¹⁰ Esther had not made known her people nor her kindred; for Mordecai had charged her that she should not make it known. ¹¹ And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what would become of her.

¹² Now when the turn of every maiden came to go in to King Ahasuerus, after that it had been done to her according to the law for the women twelve months (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, [to wit,] six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors and with the things for the purifying of the women), ¹³ then in this wise the maiden came to the king: whatever she desired was given to her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king's house. ¹⁴ In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines: she came in to the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. ¹⁵ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked on her.

¹⁶ So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷ And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained favor and kindness in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸ Then the king made a great feast to all his princes and his slaves, even Esther's feast; and he ordered a rest to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the bounty of the king.

¹⁹ And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. ²⁰ Esther had not yet made known her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like when she was brought up with him. ²¹ In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who kept the threshold, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. ²² And the thing became known to Mordecai, who showed it to Esther the queen; and Esther told the king [of it] in Mordecai's name. ²³ And when inquisition was made of the matter, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the Book of the Chronicles before the king.

3 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. ² And all the king's slaves, who were in the king's gate, bowed down to, and revered Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow down, nor reverence him. ³ Then the king's slaves, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, Why do you transgress the king's commandment? ⁴ Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. ⁵ And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow down, nor reverence him, then Haman was full of wrath. ⁶ But it was contemptible in his eyes to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had made known to him the people of Mordecai: therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

⁷ In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, [to] the twelfth [month], which is the month Adar. ⁸ And Haman said to King Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; and their laws are diverse from [those of] every people; neither do they keep the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them. ⁹ If it pleases the king, let it be written that they are to be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who have the charge of the [king's] business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. ¹⁰ And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. ¹¹ And the king said to Haman, The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you.

¹² Then the king's scribes were called in the first month, on the thirteenth day of it; and there was written according to all that Haman commanded to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to its writing, and to every people after their language; in the name of King Ahasuerus was it written, and it was sealed with the king's ring. ¹³ And letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. ¹⁴ A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. ¹⁵ The posts went forth in a hurry by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

4 Now when Mordecai knew all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; ² and he came even before the king's gate: for none might enter inside the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. ³ And in every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ And Esther's maidens and her chamberlains came and told it to her; and the queen was exceedingly grieved: and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take his sackcloth from off him; but he did not receive it. ⁵ Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend on her, and charged him to go to Mordecai, to know what this was, and why it was. ⁶ So Hathach went forth to Mordecai to the broad place of the city, which was before the king's gate. ⁷ And Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the silver that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. ⁸ Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him, for her people.

¹⁰ Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a message to Mordecai [saying]: ¹¹ All the king's slaves, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whoever, whether man or woman, will come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he is to be put to death, except those to whom the king will hold out the golden scepter, that he may live: but I haven't been called to come in to the king these thirty days. ¹² And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

¹³ Then Mordecai bade them return answer to Esther, Don't think within your soul that you will escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. ¹⁴ For if you altogether hold your peace at this time, then will relief and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish: and who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this? ¹⁵ Then Esther bade them return answer to Mordecai, ¹⁶ Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast⁺ for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast in like manner; and so I will go in to the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. ¹⁷ So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

5 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, opposite the king's house: and the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, opposite the entrance of the house. ² And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his eyes; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the scepter. ³ Then the king said to her, What do you want, queen Esther? And what is your request? It will be given to you even to the half of the kingdom. ⁴ And Esther said, If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.

⁵ Then the king said, Cause Haman to hurry, that it may be done as Esther has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. ⁶ And the king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition? And it will be granted to you: and what is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it will be performed. ⁷ Then Esther answered, and said, My petition and my request is: ⁸ if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said.

⁹ Then Haman went forth that day joyful and glad of heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he didn't stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai. ¹⁰ Nevertheless Haman refrained himself, and went home; and he sent and fetched his friends and Zeresh his wife.

6 On that night the king could not sleep; and he commanded to bring the Book of Records of the Chronicles, and they were read before the king. ² And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, of those who kept the threshold, who had sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. ³ And the king said, What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this? Then the king's attendants who ministered to him said, Nothing has been done for him. ⁴ And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman came into the outward court of the king's house, to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. ⁵ And the king's attendants said to him, Look, Haman stands in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. ⁶ So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What will be done to the man whom the king delights to honor? Now Haman said in his heart, Whom would the king delight to honor more than me? ⁷ And Haman said to the king, For the man whom the king delights to honor, ⁸ let royal apparel be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a royal crown is set: ⁹ and let the apparel and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man with them whom the king delights to honor, and cause him to ride on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus it will be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.

¹⁰ Then the king said to Haman, Hurry, and take the apparel and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that you have spoken. ¹¹ Then Haman took the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus it will be done to the man whom the king delights to honor. ¹² And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. ¹³ And Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of the seed of the Jews, you will not prevail against him, but will surely fall before him. ¹⁴ While they were yet talking with him, the king's chamberlains came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. ² And the king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Esther? And it will be granted you: and what is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it will be performed. ³ Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my soul be given to me at my petition, and my people at my request: ⁴ for we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for male slaves and female slaves, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's damage. ⁵ Then King Ahasuerus spoke and said to Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, whose heart has filled him to do so? ⁶ And Esther said, An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. ⁷ And the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine [and went] into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his soul to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. ⁸ Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch on which Esther was. Then said the king, Will he even force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹ Then Harbonah said, one of the chamberlains that was before the king, Look also at the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, stands in the house of Haman. And the king said, Hang him on it. ¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath was pacified.

8 On that day the king Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman the Jews' enemy to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her. ² And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

⁹ Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the three and twentieth [day] of it; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. ¹⁰ And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, riding on swift steeds that were used in the king's service, bred of the stud: ¹¹ in which the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their soul, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, [their] little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, ¹² on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, [namely], on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. ¹³ A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. ¹⁴ So the posts that rode on swift steeds that were used in the king's service went out, being hurried and pressed on by the king's commandment; and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace.

¹⁵ And Mordecai went forth from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad. ¹⁶ The Jews had light and gladness, and joy and honor. ¹⁷ And in every province, and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness and joy, a feast and a good day. And many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews had fallen on them.

9 Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have rule over them (whereas it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over those who hated them), ² the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. ³ And all the princes of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and those who did the king's business, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. ⁴ For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went forth throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. ⁵ And the Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they would to those who hated them. ⁶ And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷ And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, ⁸ and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, ⁹ and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaizatha, ¹⁰ the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy, they slew; but on the spoil they didn't lay their hand.

¹¹ On that day the number of those who were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. ¹² And the king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? And it will be granted you: or what is your request further? And it will be done. ¹³ Then said Esther, If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows. ¹⁴ And the king commanded it to be done so: and a decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. ¹⁵ And the Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men in Shushan; but on the spoil they didn't lay their hand. ¹⁶ And the other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their souls, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of those who hated them seventy and five thousand; but on the spoil they didn't lay their hand.

²⁰ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far, ²¹ to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, ²² as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. ²³ And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them; ²⁴ because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; ²⁵ but when [the matter] came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

²⁶ Therefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, ²⁷ the Jews appointed, and took on them, and on their seed, and on all such as joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to its writing, and according to its appointed time, every year; ²⁸ and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the remembrance of them perish from their seed.

10 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tax on the land, and on the isles of the sea. ² And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia? ³ For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

I Maccabees

1 Now it came to pass that Alexander the [son] of Philip the Macedonian, who first reigned in Greece, coming out of the land of Cethim, overthrew Darius king of the Persians and Medes.^a ⁴ He subdued countries of nations, and princes: and they became tributaries to him. ⁷ And Alexander reigned twelve years, and he died. ¹⁰ And there came out of his successors^b a wicked root, Antiochus Epiphanes, the son of King Antiochus, who had been a hostage at Rome: and he reigned in the hundred and thirty-seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks.

¹¹ In those days there went out of Israel wicked men, and they persuaded many, saying: Let's go, and make a covenant with the nations that are round about us: for since we departed from them, many evils have befallen us. ¹² And the word seemed good in their eyes. ¹³ And some of the people determined to do this, and went to the king: and he gave them license to do after the ordinances of the nations. ¹⁴ And they built a gymnasium in Jerusalem, according to the laws of the nations.^c ¹⁵ And they made themselves foreskins, and departed from the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the nations, and were sold to do evil.

¹⁶ And the kingdom was established before Antiochus, and he had a mind to reign over the land of Egypt, that he might reign over two kingdoms. ¹⁷ And he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots and elephants, and horsemen, and a great number of ships. ¹⁸ And he made war against Ptolemy king of Egypt, but Ptolemy was afraid at his presence, and fled, and many were wounded to death. ¹⁹ And he took the strong cities in the land of Egypt: and he took the spoils of the land of Egypt.

²⁰ And after Antiochus had ravaged Egypt in the hundred and forty-third year, he returned and went up against Israel. ²¹ And he went up to Jerusalem with a great multitude. ²² And he proudly entered into the sanctuary, and took away the golden altar, and the lampstand of light, and all the vessels of it, and the table of proposition, and the pouring vessels, and the vials, and the little mortars of gold, and the veil, and the crowns, and the golden ornament that was before the temple: and he broke them all in pieces. ²³ And he took the silver and gold, and the precious vessels: and he took the hidden treasures which he found: and when he had taken all away he departed into his own country. ²⁴ And he made a great slaughter of men, and spoke very proudly.

This finding is primarily based on the parallel account in Josephus not starting until verse 10 as well as factual errors in the passage. ²⁵ And there was great mourning in Israel,
And in every place where they were:
²⁶ And the princes, and the ancients mourned,
And the virgins and the young men were made feeble,
And the beauty of the women was changed.
²⁷ Every bridegroom took up lamentation:
And the bride who sat in the marriage bed, mourned:
²⁸ And the land was moved for the inhabitants of it,
And all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

²⁹ And after two full years the king sent the chief collector of his tributes to the cities of Judah, and he came to Jerusalem with a great multitude. ³⁰ And he spoke to them peaceful words in deceit: and they believed him.^a And he fell on the city suddenly, and struck it with a great slaughter, and destroyed many people in Israel. ³¹ And he took the spoils of the city, and burned it with fire, and threw down the houses of it, and the walls of it round about: ³² And they took the women captive, and the children, and the cattle they possessed. ³³ And they built the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with strong towers, and made it a fortress for them. ³⁴ And they placed there a sinful nation, wicked men, and they fortified themselves in it. And they stored up armor, and victuals, and gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem; ³⁵ And laid them up there: and they became a great snare.

³⁶ And this was a place to lie in wait against the sanctuary,
And an evil adversary in Israel.
³⁷ And they shed innocent blood round about the sanctuary,
And defiled the holy place.
³⁸ And the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled away by reason of them,
And the city was made the habitation of strangers,
And she became a stranger to her own seed,
And her children forsook her.
³⁹ Her sanctuary was desolate like a wilderness,
Her festival days were turned into mourning,
Her Sabbaths into reproach,
Her honors were brought to nothing.
⁴⁰ Her dishonor was increased according to her glory,
And her excellency was turned into mourning.

⁴¹ And King Antiochus wrote to all his kingdom, that all the people should be one: and every one should leave his own law.
⁴² And all nations consented according to the word of King Antiochus. ⁴³ And many of Israel consented to his service, and they sacrificed to idols, and profaned the Sabbath. ⁴⁴ And the king sent letters by the hands of messengers to Jerusalem, and to all the cities of Judah: that they should follow the law of the nations of the earth; ⁴⁵ and should forbid burnt-offerings and sacrifices, and atonements to be made in the temple of God; and should prohibit the Sabbath, and the festival days, to be celebrated. ⁴⁶ And he commanded the holy places to be profaned, and the holy people of Israel. ⁴⁷ And he commanded altars to be built, and temples, and idols, and swine's flesh to be sacrificed, and unclean beasts. ⁴⁸ And that they should leave their sons uncircumcised, and let their souls be defiled with all uncleannesses, and detestable things, ⁴⁹ to the end that they should forget the law, and should change all the ordinances of God. ⁵⁰ And that whoever would not do according to the word of King Antiochus should be put to death. ⁵¹ According to all these words he wrote to his whole kingdom, and he appointed rulers over the people who should force them to do these things.^b And they commanded the cities of Judah to sacrifice. ⁵² Then many of the people were gathered to those who had forsaken the law of the Lord: and they committed evils in the land: ⁵³ And they drove away the people of Israel into lurking holes, and into the secret places of fugitives.

⁵⁴ On the fifteenth^c day of the month Kislev, in the hundred and forty-fifth year, King Antiochus set up the detestable idol of desolation on the altar of God, and they built altars throughout all the cities of Judah round about: ⁵⁵ And they burned incense, and sacrificed at the doors of the houses, and in the streets. ⁵⁶ And they cut in pieces, and burned with fire the books of the law of God: ⁵⁷ And every one with whom the books of the covenant were found, and whoever observed the law, they put to death, according to the edict of the king. ⁵⁸ Thus by their power they dealt with the people of Israel, who were found in the cities month after month. ⁵⁹ And on the five and twentieth day of the month they sacrificed on the altar of the idol that was upon the altar of God. ⁶⁰ Now the women who circumcised their children, were slain according to the commandment of King Antiochus. ⁶¹ And they hanged the children about their necks in all their houses: and those who had circumcised them, they put to death. ⁶² And many of the people of Israel determined with themselves, that they would not eat unclean things: and they chose rather to die than to be defiled with unclean meats. ⁶³ And they would not break the holy covenant of God, and they were put to death: ⁶⁴ And there was very great wrath on the people.

2 In those days arose Mathathias the son of John, the [son] of Simeon, a priest of the sons of Joarib, from Jerusalem, and he abode in the mountain of Modin. ² And he had five sons: John who was surnamed Gaddis: ³ And Simon, who was surnamed Thasi: ⁴ And Judas, who was called Maccabeus: ⁵ And Eleazar, who was surnamed Abaron: and Jonathan, who was surnamed Apphus. ⁶ These saw the evils that were done in the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem. ⁷ And Mathathias said:

Woe is me!

Why was I born to see the ruin of my people,

And the ruin of the holy city,

And to live there,

When it is given into the hands of the enemies?

⁸ The holy places have come into the hands of strangers:

Her temple has become as a man without honor.

⁹ The vessels of her glory are carried away captive:

Her old men are murdered in the streets,

And her young men have fallen by the sword of the enemies.

¹⁰ What nation has not inherited her kingdom, and gotten of her spoils?

¹¹ All her ornaments are taken away.

She who was free is made a slave.

¹² And look, our sanctuary, and our beauty,

and our glory is laid waste,

And the nations have defiled them.

¹³ To what end then should we live any longer?

¹⁴ And Mathathias and his sons rent their garments, and they covered themselves with sackcloth, and made great lamentation.

¹⁵ And those who were sent from King Antiochus came there, to compel those who had fled into the city of Modin, to sacrifice, and to burn incense, and to depart from the law of God. ¹⁶ And many of the people of Israel consented, and came to them: but Mathathias and his sons stood firm. ¹⁷ And those who were sent from Antiochus, answering, said to Mathathias: You are a ruler, and an honorable, and great man in this city, and adorned with sons, and brothers. ¹⁸ Therefore you come first, and obey the king's commandment, as all nations have done, and the men of Judah, and those who remain in Jerusalem: and you, and your sons, will be in the number of the king's friends, and enriched with gold, and silver, and many presents.

¹⁹ Then Mathathias answered, and said with a loud voice: Although all nations obey King Antiochus, so as to depart every man from the service of the law of his fathers, and consent to his commandments: ²⁰ I and my sons, and my brothers will obey the covenant of our fathers. ²¹ God be merciful to us: it is not profitable for us to forsake the law, and the ordinances of God: ²² We will not listen to the words of King Antiochus, neither will we sacrifice, and turn aside from the commandments of our law, either to the right hand or to the left.

²⁹ Then many who sought after righteousness and justice went down into the desert. ³⁰ And they abode there, they and their sons, and their wives, and their cattle: because afflictions increased on them. ³¹ And it was told to the king's men, and to the army that was in Jerusalem in the city of David, that certain men who had broken the king's commandment, had gone away into the secret places in the wilderness, and that many had gone after them. ³² And forthwith they went out toward them, and made war against them on the Sabbath day, ³³ And they said to them: Do you⁺ still resist? Come forth, and do according to the edict of King Antiochus, and you⁺ will live. ³⁴ And they said: We will not come forth, neither will we obey the king's edict, to profane the Sabbath day. ³⁵ And they made haste to give them battle. ³⁶ But they did not answer them, neither did they cast a stone at them, nor stop up the secret places, ³⁷ saying: Let us all die in our innocency: and heaven and earth will be witnesses for us, that you⁺ put us to death wrongfully. ³⁸ So they gave them battle on the Sabbath: and they were slain with their wives, and their children, and their cattle, to the number of a thousand souls.

³⁹ And Mathathias and his friends heard of it, and they mourned for them exceedingly. ⁴⁰ And every man said to his fellow man: If we will all do as our brothers have done, and not fight against the nations for our souls, and our ordinances: they will now quickly root us out of the earth. ⁴¹ And they determined in that day, saying: Whoever will come up against us to fight on the Sabbath day, we will fight against him: and we will not all die, as our brothers who were slain in the secret places.

⁴² Then was assembled to them the congregation of the Assideans, the stoutest of Israel, every one who had a good will for the law. ⁴³ And all those who fled from the evils, joined themselves to them, and were a support to them.

⁴⁴ And they gathered an army,
And slew the sinners in their wrath,
And the wicked men in their indignation:
And the rest fled to the nations for safety.

⁴⁵ And Mathathias and his friends went round about, and they threw down the altars: ⁴⁶ And they circumcised all the children whom they found in the confines of Israel who were uncircumcised: and they did valiantly. ⁴⁷ And they pursued after the sons of pride, and the work prospered in their hands: ⁴⁸ And they recovered the law out of the hands of the nations, and out of the hands of the kings: and they did not yield the horn to the sinner.

⁴⁹ Now the days drew near that Mathathias should die, and he said to his sons:

Now has pride and chastisement gotten strength,
And the time of destruction,
and the wrath of indignation:

⁵⁰ Now therefore, O my sons, be⁺ zealous for the law,
And give your⁺ souls for the covenant of your⁺ fathers.

⁵¹ And call to remembrance the works of the fathers,
Which they have done in their generations:

And you⁺ will receive great glory,
And an everlasting name.

⁶¹ And thus consider through all generations:
That none who trust in him fail in strength.

⁶² And do not fear the words of a sinful man,
For his glory is dung, and worms:

⁶³ Today he is lifted up,
And tomorrow he will not be found,
Because he has returned into his earth;
And his thought has come to nothing.

⁶⁴ You⁺ therefore, my sons, be manly, be strong in the law:
For by it you⁺ will be glorious.

⁶⁵ And look, I know that your⁺ brother Simon
Is a man of counsel.

Give ear to him always,
And he will be a father to you⁺.

⁶⁸ Render to the nations their reward,
And take heed to the precepts of the law.

⁶⁹ And he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers. ⁷⁰ And he died in the hundred and forty-sixth year: and he was buried by his sons in the sepulchres of his fathers in Modin, and all Israel mourned for him with great mourning.

3 Then his son Judas, called Maccabeus, rose up in his place.
² And all his brothers helped him, and all those who had joined themselves to his father, and they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

³ And he got his people great honor,
 And put on a breastplate as a giant,
 And girt his warlike armor about him in battles,
 And protected the camp with his sword.
⁴ In his acts he was like a lion,
 And like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey.
⁵ And he pursued the wicked and sought them out,
 And those who troubled his people he burned with fire.
⁶ And his enemies were driven away for fear of him,
 And all the workers of iniquity were troubled:
 And salvation prospered in his hand.
⁷ And he grieved many kings,
 And made Jacob glad with his works,
 And his memory is blessed forever.
⁸ And he went through the cities of Judah,
 And destroyed the wicked out of them,
 And turned away wrath from Israel.
⁹ And he was renowned even to the utmost part of the earth,
 And he gathered those who were perishing.

¹³ And Seron captain of the army of Syria heard that Judas had assembled a company of the faithful, and a congregation with him. ¹⁴ And he said: I will get myself a name, and will be glorified in the kingdom, and will overthrow Judas, and those who are with him, who have despised the edict of the king. ¹⁵ And he made himself ready: and the host of the wicked went up with him, strong helpers, to be revenged of the sons of Israel. ¹⁶ And they approached even as far as Beth-horon: and Judas went forth to meet him, with a small company. ¹⁷ But when they saw the army coming to meet them, they said to Judas: How shall we, being few, be able to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, and we are ready to faint with fasting today? ¹⁸ And Judas said: It is an easy matter for many to be shut up in the hands of a few: and there is no difference in the sight of the God of heaven to deliver with a great multitude, or with a small company: ¹⁹ For the success of war is not in the multitude of the army, but strength comes from heaven. ²⁰ They come against us with an insolent multitude, and with pride, to destroy us, and our wives, and our children, and to take our spoils. ²¹ But we will fight for our souls and our laws: ²² And the Lord himself will overthrow them before our face: but as for you^a, don't fear them. ²³ And as soon as he had made an end of speaking, he rushed suddenly on them: and Seron and his host were overthrown before him: ²⁴ And he pursued him by the descent of Beth-horon even to the plain, and there fell of them eight hundred men, and the rest fled into the land of the Philistines. ²⁵ And the fear of Judas and of his brothers, and the dread of them fell on all the nations round about them. ²⁶ And his fame came to the king, and all nations told of the battles of Judas.

²⁷ Now when King Antiochus heard these words, he was angry in his mind: and he sent and gathered the forces of all his kingdom, an exceedingly strong army. ²⁸ And he opened his treasury, and gave out pay to the army for a year: and he commanded them, that they should be ready for all things. ²⁹ And he perceived that the silver of his treasures failed, and that the tributes of the country were small because of the dissension, and the evil that he had brought on the land, that he might take away the laws of old times. ³⁰ And he feared that he should not have as formerly enough, for charges and gifts, which he had given before with a liberal hand: for he had abounded more than the kings who had been before him. ³¹ And he was greatly perplexed in his soul, and purposed to go into Persia, and to take tributes of the countries, and to gather much silver. ³² And he left Lysias, a nobleman of the royal seed, to oversee the affairs of the kingdom, from the river Euphrates even to the river of Egypt: ³³ And to bring up his son Antiochus, until he came again. ³⁴ And he delivered to him half the army, and the elephants: and he gave him charge concerning all that he would have done, and concerning the inhabitants of Judea, and Jerusalem. ³⁵ And that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away the memory of them from that place. ³⁶ And that he should settle foreigners to live in all their coasts, and divide their land by lot.^a ³⁷ So the king took the half of the army that remained, and went forth from Antioch the chief city of his kingdom, in the hundred and forty-seventh year: and he passed over the river Euphrates, and went through the higher countries.

³⁸ Then Lysias chose Ptolemy the [son] of Dorymenus, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the king's friends. ³⁹ And he sent with them forty thousand men, and seven thousand horsemen: to go into the land of Judah, and to destroy it according to the king's orders. ⁴⁰ So they went forth with all their power, and came, and pitched near Emmaus in the plain country. ⁴¹ And the merchants of the countries heard the fame of them: and they took silver and gold in abundance, and servants: and they came into the camp, to buy the sons of Israel for slaves: and there were joined to them the forces of Syria, and of the land of the strangers.

⁴² And Judas and his brothers saw that evils were multiplied, and that the armies approached to their borders: and they knew the orders the king had given to destroy the people and utterly abolish them. ⁴³ And they said every man to his fellow man: Let's raise up the low condition of our people, and let's fight for our people, and our sanctuary. ⁴⁴ And the assembly was gathered that they might be ready for battle: and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion.

⁴⁵ Now Jerusalem was not inhabited,
 But was like a desert.
 There was none of her children who went in or out,
 And the sanctuary was trodden down.
 And the foreigners were in the castle,^b
 There was the habitation of the nations.
 And joy was taken away from Jacob,
 And the pipe and harp ceased there.

⁴⁶ And they assembled together, and came to Maspha opposite Jerusalem: for in Maspha was a place of prayer heretofore in Israel. ⁴⁷ And they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and put ashes on their heads. And they rent their garments. ⁴⁸ And they laid open the books of the law, in which the nations searched for the likenesses of their idols. ⁴⁹ And they brought the priestly ornaments, and the firstfruits and tithes, and stirred up the Nazarites who had fulfilled their days. ⁵⁰ And they cried with a loud voice toward heaven, saying:

What shall we do with these, And where shall we carry them?
⁵¹ For your holies are trodden down, and are profaned, And your priests are in mourning, and are brought low. ⁵² And look, the nations have come together against us to destroy us: You know what they intend against us. ⁵³ How shall we be able to stand before their face, Unless you, O God, help us?

⁵⁴ Then they sounded with trumpets, and cried out with a loud voice.

⁵⁵ And after this Judas appointed captains over the people, over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens. ⁵⁶ And he said to those who were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or were fearful, that they should return every man to his house, according to the law. ⁵⁷ So they removed the camp, and pitched on the south side of Emmaus. ⁵⁸ And Judas said: Gird yourselves, and be sons of valor, and be ready against the morning, that you^a may fight with these nations that are assembled against us to destroy us and our sanctuary.^a ⁵⁹ For it is better for us to die in battle, than to see the evils of our nation, and of the holies. ⁶⁰ Nevertheless as it shall be the will of God in heaven so be it done.

4 Then Gorgias took five thousand men, and a thousand of the best horsemen: and they removed out of the camp by night. ² That they might come upon the camp of the Jews, and strike them suddenly: and the men who were of the castle were their guides.^b ³ And Judas heard of it, and rose up, he and the valiant men, to attack the king's forces that were in Emmaus. ⁴ For as yet the army was dispersed from the camp. ⁵ And Gorgias came by night into the camp of Judas, and found no man, and he sought them in the mountains: for he said: These men flee from us.

⁶ And when it was day, Judas showed himself in the plain with three thousand men only, who neither had armor nor swords. ⁷ And they saw the camp of the nations that it was strong, and the men in breastplates, and the horsemen round about them, and these were trained up to war. ⁸ And Judas said to the men who were with him: Don't fear^a their multitude, neither be^a afraid of their assault. ⁹ Remember in what manner our fathers were saved in the Red Sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with a great army. ¹⁰ And now let us cry to heaven: and the Lord will have mercy on us, and will remember the covenant of our fathers, and will destroy this army before our face this day: ¹¹ And all nations will know that there is one who redeems and delivers Israel.

¹⁶ And Judas returned again with his army that followed him, ¹⁷ And he said to the people: Don't be greedy of the spoils: for there is war before us. ¹⁸ And Gorgias and his army are near us in the mountain; but, stand^a now against our enemies, and overthrow them, and you^a will take the spoils afterward with safety. ¹⁹ And as Judas was speaking these words, look, part of them appeared looking forth from the mountain. ²⁰ And Gorgias saw that his men were put to flight, and that they had set fire to the camp: for the smoke that was seen declared what was done. ²¹ And when they had seen this, they were seized with great fear, seeing at the same time Judas and his army in the plain ready to fight. ²² So they all fled away into the land of the strangers. ²³ And Judas returned to take the spoils of the camp, and they got much gold, and silver, and blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches.

²⁴ And returning home they sung a hymn, And blessed God in heaven, Because he is good, Because his mercy endures forever.

²⁵ So Israel had a great deliverance that day. ²⁶ And such of the strangers as escaped, went and told Lysias all that had happened. ²⁷ And when he heard these things, he was amazed and discouraged: because things had not succeeded in Israel according to his mind, and as the king had commanded.

²⁸ So the year following Lysias gathered together sixty thousand chosen men, and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue them. ²⁹ And they came into Judea, and pitched their tents in Beth-horon, and Judas met them with ten thousand men. ³⁰ And they saw that the army was strong, and he prayed, and said:

Blessed are you, O Savior of Israel, Who broke the violence of the mighty by the hand of your servant David, And delivered up the camp of the strangers into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul and of his armorbearer. ³¹ Shut up this army in the hands of your people Israel, And let them be confounded in their host and their horsemen. ³² Strike them with fear, and cause the boldness of their strength to languish, And let them quake at their own destruction. ³³ Cast them down with the sword of those who love you: And let all who know your name, praise you with hymns.

³⁴ And they joined battle: and there fell of the army of Lysias five thousand men. ³⁵ And when Lysias saw that his men were put to flight, and how bold the Jews were, and that they were ready either to live, or to die manfully, he went to Antioch, and chose soldiers, that they might come again into Judea with greater numbers.

³⁶ Then Judas, and his brothers said: Look our enemies are discomfited: let us go up now to cleanse the holy places and to repair them. ³⁷ And all the army assembled together, and they went up into Mount Zion. ³⁸ And they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned, and shrubs growing up in the courts as in a forest, or on the mountains, and the chambers joining to the temple thrown down. ³⁹ And they rent their garments, and made great lamentation, and put ashes on their heads: ⁴⁰ And they fell down to the ground on their faces, and they sounded with the trumpets of alarm, and they cried toward heaven.

⁴¹ Then Judas appointed men to fight against those who were in the castle, until they had cleansed the holy places. ⁴² And he chose priests without blemish, whose will was set on the law of God: ⁴³ And they cleansed the holy places, and took away the stones that had been defiled into an unclean place. ⁴⁴ And he considered about the altar of burnt-offerings that had been profaned, what he should do with it. ⁴⁵ And a good counsel came into their minds, to pull it down: otherwise it should be a reproach to them, because the nations had defiled it; so they threw it down. ⁴⁶ And they laid up the stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet, and give answer concerning them. ⁴⁷ Then they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar according to the former: ⁴⁸ And they built up the holy places, and the things that were within the temple: and they sanctified the temple, and the courts. ⁴⁹ And they made new holy vessels, and brought in the lampstand, and the altar of incense, and the table into the temple. ⁵⁰ And they put incense on the altar, and lit up the lamps that were on the lampstand, and they gave light in the temple. ⁵¹ And they set the loaves on the table, and hung up the veils, and finished all the works that they had begun to make.

⁵² And they arose before the morning on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month (which is the month of Kislev) in the hundred and forty-eighth year. ⁵³ And they offered sacrifice according to the law on the new altar of burnt-offerings which they had made. ⁵⁴ According to the time, and according to the day in which the nations had defiled it, in the same it was dedicated anew with canticles, and harps, and lutes, and cymbals. ⁵⁵ And all the people fell on their faces, and adored, and blessed up to heaven, him who had prospered them. ⁵⁶ And they kept the dedication of the altar eight days, and they offered burnt-offerings with joy, and sacrifices of salvation, and of praise. ⁵⁷ And they adorned the front of the temple with crowns of gold, and settings, and they renewed the gates, and the chambers, and hanged doors on them. ⁵⁸ And there was exceedingly great joy among the people, and the reproach of the nations was turned away. ⁵⁹ And Judas, and his brothers, and all the congregation of Israel decreed, that the day of the dedication of the altar should be kept in its season from year to year for eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month of Kislev, with joy and gladness. ⁶⁰ They built up also at that time Mount Zion, with high walls, and strong towers round about, otherwise the nations should at any time come, and tread it down as they did before. ⁶¹ And he placed a garrison there to keep it, and he fortified it to secure Bethsura, that the people might have a defense against Idumea.

5 Now it came to pass, when the nations round about heard that the altar and the sanctuary were built up as before, that they were exceedingly angry. ² And they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob who were among them, and they began to kill some of the people, and to persecute them. ³ Then Judas fought against the sons of Esau in Idumea, and those who were in Acrabathane: because they beset the Israelites round about, and he made a great slaughter of them. ⁴ And he remembered the malice of the sons of Bean: who were a snare and a stumblingblock to the people, by lying in wait for them in the way. ⁵ And they were shut up by him in towers, and he set on them, and devoted them to utter destruction, and burned their towers with fire, and all who were in them. ⁶ Then he passed over to the sons of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and many people, and Timotheus was their captain. ⁷ And he fought many battles with them, and they were discomfited in their sight, and he struck them. ⁸ And he took the city of Gazer and her towns^a, and returned into Judea.

⁹ And the nations that were in Gilead, assembled themselves together against the Israelites who were in their quarters to destroy them: and they fled into the fortress of Datheman. ¹⁰ And they sent letters to Judas and his brothers, saying: The nations that are round about are gathered together against us, to destroy us. ¹¹ And they are preparing to come, and to take the fortress into which we have fled. And Timotheus is the captain of their host. ¹² Now therefore come, and deliver us out of their hands, for many of us have been slain. ¹³ And all our brothers who were in the places of Tubin, have been killed. And they have carried away their wives, and their children, captives, and taken their spoils, and they have slain there almost a thousand men. ¹⁴ And while they were yet reading these letters, look, there came other messengers out of Galilee with their garments rent, who related according to these words, ¹⁵ saying that those of Ptolemais, and of Tyre, and of Sidon, were assembled against them, and all Galilee is filled with strangers, in order to consume us.

¹⁶ Now when Judas and the people heard these words, a great assembly met together to consider what they should do for their brothers who were in trouble, and were assaulted by them.

²¹ And Simon went into Galilee, and fought many battles with the nations: and the nations were discomfited before his face, and he pursued them even to the gate of Ptolemais. ²² And there fell of the nations almost three thousand men, and he took the spoils of them. ²³ And he took with him those who were in Galilee and in Arbatis with their wives, and children, and all that they had, and he brought them into Judea with great joy.

²⁴ And Judas Maccabeus, and Jonathan his brother passed over the Jordan, and went three days' journey through the desert. ²⁵ And the Nabutheans met them, and received them in a peaceful manner, and told them all that happened to their brothers in the land of Gilead. ²⁶ And that many of them were shut up in Barasa, and in Bosor, and in Alima, and in Casphor, and in Mageth, and in Carnaim: all these strong and great cities. ²⁷ Yes, and that they were kept shut up in the rest of the cities of Gilead, and that they had appointed to bring their army on the next day near to these cities, and to take them and to destroy them all in one day. ²⁸ Then Judas and his army suddenly turned their march into the desert, to Bosor, and took the city: and he slew every male by the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burned it with fire. ²⁹ And they removed from there by night, and went until they came to the fortress.

³¹ And Judas saw that the fight had begun, and the cry of the battle went up to heaven like a trumpet, and a great cry out of the city: ³² And he said to his host: Fight⁺ today for your⁺ brothers. ³³ And he came with three companies behind them, and they sounded their trumpets, and cried out in prayer. ³⁴ And the host of Timotheus understood that it was Maccabeus, and they fled away before his face: and they made a great slaughter of them: and there fell of them in that day almost eight thousand men. ³⁵ And Judas turned aside to Maspha, and assaulted, and took it, and he slew every male of it, and took the spoils of it, and burned it with fire. ³⁶ From there he marched, and took Casbon, and Mageth, and Bosor, and the rest of the cities of Gilead.

and commanded them, saying: Allow no man to stay behind: but let all come to the battle.⁴³ And he passed over to them first, and all the people after him, and all the nations were discomfited before them, and they threw away their weapons, and fled to the temple that was in Carnaim.⁴⁴ And he took that city, and the temple he burned with fire, with all things that were in it: and Carnaim was subdued, and could not stand against the face of Judas.

⁴⁵ And Judas gathered together all the Israelites who were in the land of Gilead, from the least even to the greatest, and their wives, and children, and an army exceedingly great, to come into the land of Judah.⁴⁶ And they came as far as Ephron: now this was a great city situate in the way, strongly fortified, and there was no means to turn from it to the right hand or to the left, but the way was through the midst of it.⁴⁷ And those who were in the city, shut themselves in, and stopped up the gates with stones: and Judas sent to them with peaceful words,⁴⁸ saying: Let us pass through your^a land, to go into our country: and no man will hurt you^a: we will only pass through on foot. But they would not open to them.⁴⁹ Then Judas commanded proclamation to be made in the camp, that they should make an assault every man in the place where he was.⁵⁰ And the men of the army drew near, and he assaulted that city all the day, and all the night, and the city was delivered into his hands.⁵¹ And they slew every male with the edge of the sword, and he razed the city, and took the spoils of it, and passed through all the city over those who were slain.⁵² Then they passed over the Jordan to the great plain that is over against Bethsan.⁵³ And Judas gathered together the hindmost, and he exhorted the people all the way through, until they came into the land of Judah.⁵⁴ And they went up to Mount Zion with joy and gladness, and offered burnt-offerings, because not one of them was slain, until they had returned in peace.

⁵⁵ Now in the days that Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Gilead, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais,⁵⁶ Joseph the [son] of Zacharias, and Azarias captain of the soldiers, heard of the good success, and the battles that were fought.⁵⁷ And he said: Let's also get ourselves a name, and let's go fight against the nations that are round about us.⁵⁸ And he gave charge to those who were in his army, and they went toward Jamnia.⁵⁹ And Gorgias and his men went out of the city, to give them battle.⁶⁰ And Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and were pursued to the borders of Judea: and there fell, on that day, of the people of Israel about two thousand men, and there was a great overthrow of the people:⁶¹ Because they did not listen to Judas, and his brothers, thinking that they should do manfully.⁶² But they were not of the seed of those men by whom salvation was brought to Israel.

⁶³ And the men of Judah were magnified exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and of all the nations where their name was heard.⁶⁴ And people assembled to them with joyful acclamations.⁶⁵ Then Judas and his brothers went forth and attacked the sons of Esau, in the land toward the south, and he took Hebron, and her towns.⁶⁶ And he burned the walls of it and the towers all round it.⁶⁷ And he removed his camp to go into the land of the aliens, and he went through Samaria.⁶⁸ In that day some priests fell in battle, while desiring to do manfully they went out unadvisedly to fight.⁶⁹ And Judas turned to Azotus into the land of the strangers, and he threw down their altars, and he burned the statues of their gods with fire: and he took the spoils of the cities, and returned into the land of Judah.

6 Now King Antiochus was going through the higher countries, and he heard that the city of Elymais in Persia was greatly renowned, and abounding in silver and gold.² And that there was in it a temple, exceedingly rich: and coverings of gold, and breastplates, and shields which King Alexander, the [son] of Philip the Macedonian who reigned first in Greece, had left there.³ And he came, and sought to take the city and to pillage it: but he was not able, because the design was known to those who were in the city.⁴ And they rose up against him in battle, and he fled away from there, and departed with great sadness, and returned toward Babylonia.⁵ And while he was in Persia, there came one who told him, how the armies that were in the land of Judah were put to flight:⁶ And that Lysias went with a very great power, and was put to flight before the face of the Jews, and that they had grown strong by the armor, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten out of the camps which they had destroyed:⁷ And that they had thrown down the detestable thing which he had set up on the altar in Jerusalem, and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls as before, and Bethsura also his city.

⁸ And it came to pass when the king heard these words, that he was struck with fear, and exceedingly moved: and he laid himself down on his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not fallen out to him as he imagined.⁹ And he remained there many days: for great grief came more and more on him, and he made account that he should die.¹⁰ And he called for all his friends, and said to them: Sleep has gone from my eyes, and I have fallen away, and my heart is cast down for anxiety.¹¹ And I said in my heart: Into how much tribulation I came, and into what floods of sorrow I now am. I who was pleasant and beloved in my power!¹² But now I remember the evils that I have done in Jerusalem, from whence also I took away all the spoils of gold, and of silver that were in it, and I sent to destroy the inhabitants of Judah without cause.¹³ I know therefore that for this cause these evils have found me. And look, I perish with great grief in a strange land.¹⁴ Then he called Philip, one of his friends, and he made him regent over all his kingdom.¹⁵ And he gave him the crown, and his robe, and his ring, that he should go to Antiochus his son, and should bring him up for the kingdom.¹⁶ So King Antiochus died there in the year one hundred and forty-nine.¹⁷ And Lysias understood that the king was dead, and he set up Antiochus his son to reign, whom he brought up young: and he called his name Eupator.

²¹ And some of the besieged got out: and some wicked men of Israel joined themselves to them.²² And they went to the king, and said: How long do you delay to execute the judgment, and to revenge our brothers?²³ We determined to serve your father and to do according to his orders, and obey his edicts:²⁴ And for this, the sons of our people are alienated from us, and have slain as many of us as they could find, and have spoiled our inheritances.²⁵ Neither have they put forth their hand against us only, but also against all our borders.²⁶ And look, they have approached this day to the castle of Jerusalem to take it, and they have fortified the stronghold of Bethsura.²⁷ And unless you speedily prevent them, they will do greater things than these, and you will not be able to subdue them.

²⁸ Now when the king heard this, he was angry: and he called together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those who were over the horsemen.²⁹ There came also to him from other realms, and from the islands of the sea hired troops.

³⁰ And the number of his army was a hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and thirty-two elephants, trained to battle. ³¹ And they went through Idumea, and approached to Bethsura, and fought many days, and they made engines: but they went forth and burned them with fire, and fought manfully.

⁴³ And Eleazar the [son] of Saura saw one of the beasts harnessed with the king's harness: and it was higher than the other beasts: and it seemed to him that the king was on it. ⁴⁴ And he exposed himself to deliver his people and to get himself an everlasting name. ⁴⁵ And he ran up to it boldly in the midst of the legion, killing on the right hand, and on the left, and they fell by him on this side and that side. ⁴⁶ And he went between the feet of the elephant, and put himself under it: and slew it, and it fell to the ground on him, and he died there. ⁴⁷ Then they seeing the strength of the king and the fierceness of his army, turned away from them.

⁴⁸ But the king's army went up against them to Jerusalem: and the king's army pitched their tents against Judea and Mount Zion. ⁴⁹ And he made peace with those who were in Bethsura: and they came forth out of the city, because they had no victuals, being shut up there, for it was the year of rest to the land. ⁵⁰ And the king took Bethsura: and he placed there a garrison to keep it. ⁵¹ And he turned his army against the sanctuary for many days: and he set up there battering slings, and engines and instruments to cast fire, and engines to cast stones and javelins, and pieces to shoot arrows, and slings. ⁵² And they also made engines against their engines, and they fought for many days. ⁵³ But there were no victuals in the city, because it was the seventh year: and such as had stayed in Judea of those who came from among the nations, had eaten the residue of all that which had been stored up. ⁵⁴ And there remained in the holy places but a few, for the famine had prevailed over them: and they were dispersed every man to his own place.

to be king, ⁵⁶ had returned from Persia, and Media, with the army that went with him, and that he sought to take on him the affairs of the kingdom. ⁵⁷ And he made haste to go, and said to the king and to the captains of the army: We decay daily, and our provision of victuals is small, and the place that we lay siege to is strong, and it lies on us to take order for the affairs of the kingdom. ⁵⁸ Now therefore let's come to an agreement with these men, and make peace with them and with all their nation. ⁵⁹ And let's covenant with them, that they may live according to their own laws as before. For because of our despising their laws, they have been provoked, and have done all these things.

⁶⁰ And the proposal was acceptable in the sight of the king, and of the princes: and he sent to them to make peace: and they accepted of it. ⁶¹ And the king and the princes swore to them: and they came out of the stronghold. ⁶² Then the king entered into Mount Zion, and saw the strength of the place: and he quickly broke the oath that he had taken, and gave commandment to throw down the wall round about. ⁶³ And he departed in haste, and returned to Antioch, where he found Philip master of the city: and he fought against him, and took the city.

7 In the hundred and fifty-first year Demetrius the [son] of Seleucus departed from the city of Rome, and came up with a few men into a city of the seacoast, and reigned there. ² And it came to pass, as he entered into the house of the kingdom of his fathers, that the army seized on Antiochus, and Lysias, to bring them to him. ³ And when he knew it, he said: Don't let me see their face. ⁴ So the army slew them. And Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom.

⁵ And there came to him the wicked and ungodly men of Israel: and Alcimus was at the head of them, who desired to be made high priest. ⁶ And they accused the people to the king, saying: Judas and his brothers have destroyed all your friends, and he has driven us out of our land. ⁷ Now therefore send some man whom you trust, and let him go, and see all the havoc he has made among us, and in the king's lands: and let him punish all his friends and their helpers.

⁸ Then the king chose Bacchides, one of his friends who ruled beyond the great river in the kingdom, and was faithful to the king: and he sent him, ⁹ to see the havoc that Judas had made: and the wicked Alcimus he made high priest, and commanded him to take revenge on the sons of Israel. ¹⁰ And they arose, and came with a great army into the land of Judah: and they sent messengers, and spoke to Judas and his brothers with peaceful words deceitfully. ¹¹ But they gave no heed to their words: for they saw that they had come with a great army.

¹² Then there assembled to Alcimus and Bacchides a company of the scribes to require things that are just. ¹³ And first [were] the Assideans who were among the sons of Israel, and they sought peace of them. ¹⁴ For they said: One who is a priest of the seed of Aaron has come, he will not deceive us. ¹⁵ And he spoke to them peacefully: and he swore to them, saying: We will do you⁺ no harm nor your⁺ friends. ¹⁶ And they believed him. And he took sixty of them, and slew them in one day, according to the word that is written:

¹⁷ The flesh of your saints, And their blood they have shed round about Jerusalem, And there was none to bury them.

¹⁸ Then fear and trembling fell on all the people: for they said: There is no truth, nor justice among them: for they have broken the covenant, and the oath which they made.

¹⁹ And Bacchides removed the camp from Jerusalem, and pitched in Bethzecha: and he sent, and took many of those who had fled away from him, and some of the people he killed, and threw them into a great pit. ²⁰ Then he committed the country to Alcimus, and left with him troops to help him. So Bacchides went away to the king.

²¹ But Alcimus did what he could to maintain his chief priesthood. ²² And those who disturbed the people resorted to him, and they got the land of Judah into their power, and did much hurt in Israel. ²³ And Judas saw all the evils that Alcimus, and those who were with him, did to the sons of Israel, much more than the nations. ²⁴ And he went out into all the coasts of Judea round about, and took vengeance on the men who had revolted, and they ceased to go forth any more into the country. ²⁵ And Alcimus saw that Judas, and those who were with him prevailed: and he knew that he could not stand against them, and he went back to the king, and accused them of many crimes.

²⁶ And the king sent Nicanor one of his principal lords, who was a great enemy to Israel: and he commanded him to destroy the people. ²⁷ And Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great army, and he sent to Judas and to his brothers deceitfully with friendly words, ²⁸ saying: Let there be no fighting between me and you[†]. I will come with a few men to see your[†] faces with peace. ²⁹ And he came to Judas, and they saluted one another peacefully. And the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by force. ³⁰ And the thing was known to Judas: that he came to him with deceit. And he was much afraid of him, and would not see his face any more. ³¹ And Nicanor knew that his counsel was discovered: and he went out to fight against Judas near Capharsalama. ³² And there fell of Nicanor's army almost five thousand men, and they fled into the city of David.

³³ And after this Nicanor went up into Mount Zion: and some of the priests and the people came out to salute him peacefully, and to show him the burnt-offerings that were offered for the king. ³⁴ But he mocked and despised them, and abused them: and he spoke proudly, ³⁵ And swore in anger, saying: Unless Judas and his army are delivered into my hands, as soon as ever I return in peace, I will burn this house. And he went out in a great rage. ³⁶ And the priests went in, and stood before the face of the altar and the temple: and weeping, they said: ³⁷ You, O Lord, have chosen this house for your name to be called on in it, that it might be a house of prayer and supplication for your people. ³⁸ Be avenged of this man, and his army, and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and do not allow them to continue any longer.

³⁹ Then Nicanor went out from Jerusalem, and encamped near to Beth-horon: and an army of Syria joined him. ⁴⁰ But Judas pitched in Adarsa with three thousand men: and Judas prayed, and said: ⁴¹ O Lord, when those who were sent by King Sennacherib blasphemed you, an angel went out, and slew of them a hundred and eighty-five thousand: ⁴² Even so destroy this army in our sight today, and let the rest know that he has spoken ill against your sanctuary: and judge him according to his wickedness. ⁴³ And the armies joined battle on the thirteenth day of the month Adar: and the army of Nicanor was defeated, and he himself was first slain in the battle. ⁴⁴ And when his army saw that Nicanor was slain, they threw away their weapons, and fled. ⁴⁵ And they pursued after them one day's journey from Adazer, even until you[†] come to Gazara, and they sounded the trumpets after them with signals. ⁴⁶ And they went forth out of all the towns of Judea round about, and they pushed them with the horns, and they turned again to them, and they were all slain with the sword, and there was not left of them so much as one. ⁴⁷ And they took the spoils of them for a booty, and they cut off

Nicanor's head, and his right hand, which he had proudly stretched out, and they brought it, and hung it up over against Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ And the people rejoiced exceedingly, and they spent that day with great joy. ⁴⁹ And he ordained that this day should be kept every year, being the thirteenth of the month of Adar. ⁵⁰ And the land of Judah was quiet for a short time.^a 9 Now when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his army had fallen in battle, he sent again Bacchides and Alcimus into Judea; and the right wing of his army with them. ² And they took the road that leads to Gilgal, and they camped in Masaloth, which is in Arabella: and they made themselves masters of it, and slew many souls of men. ³ In the first month of the hundred and fifty-second year they brought the army to Jerusalem: ⁴ And they arose, and went to Berea with twenty thousand men, and two thousand horsemen.

⁵ Now Judas had pitched his tents in Laisa, and three thousand chosen men with him: ⁶ And they saw the multitude of the army that they were many, and they were seized with great fear: and many withdrew themselves out of the camp, and there remained of them no more than eight hundred men. ⁷ And Judas saw that his army slipped away, and the battle pressed on him, and his heart was cast down: because he did not have time to gather them together, and he was discouraged. ⁸ Then he said to those who remained: Let us arise, and go against our enemies, if we may be able to fight against them. ⁹ But they dissuaded him, saying: We will not be able, but let us save our souls now, and return to our brothers, and then we will fight against them: for we are but few. ¹⁰ Then Judas said: God forbid we should do this thing, and flee away from them: but if our time has come, let us die manfully for our brothers, and don't let us stain our glory.

¹¹ And the army removed out of the camp, and they stood over against them: and the horsemen were divided into two troops, and the slingers, and the archers went before the army, and those who were in the front were all men of valor. ¹² And Bacchides was in the right wing, and the legion drew near on two sides, and they sounded the trumpets: ¹³ And they also who were on Judas' side, even they also cried out, and the earth shook at the noise of the armies: and the battle was fought from morning even to the evening. ¹⁴ And Judas perceived that the stronger part of the army of Bacchides was on the right side, and all the stout of heart came together with him: ¹⁵ And the right wing was discomfited by them, and he pursued them even to Mount Azotus. ¹⁶ And those who were in the left wing saw that the right wing was discomfited, and they followed after Judas, and those who were with him, at their back: ¹⁷ And the battle was hard fought, and there fell many wounded of the one side and of the other. ¹⁸ And Judas was slain, and the rest fled away.

¹⁹ And Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the tomb of their fathers in the city of Modin. ²⁰ And all the people of Israel bewailed him with great lamentation, and they mourned for him many days. ²¹ And said:

How has the mighty man fallen, who saved the people of Israel!

²² But the rest of the words of the wars of Judas, and of the noble acts that he did, and of his greatness, are not written: for they were very many. ²³ And it came to pass after the death of Judas, that the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the confines of Israel, and all the workers of iniquity rose up.

^a Chapter 8 is not included. Based on the context, style of writing, historical errors, and lack of a significant amount of Josephus parallels, it is likely that it was added after the original version of this book was completed.

²⁴ In those days there was a very great famine, and they and all their country yielded to Bacchides. ²⁵ And Bacchides chose the wicked men, and made them lords of the country. ²⁶ And they sought out, and made diligent search after the friends of Judas, and brought them to Bacchides, and he took vengeance of them, and abused them. ²⁷ And there came to pass a great tribulation in Israel, such as had not come to pass since the day that a prophet was last seen^a in Israel.

³² And Bacchides had knowledge of it, and sought to kill him. ³³ And Jonathan and Simon his brother knew it, and all who were with them: and they fled into the desert of Thecua, and they pitched by the water of the pool of Asphar.^b ³⁵ And Jonathan sent his brother a captain of the people, to desire the Nabutheans his friends, that they would lend them their equipage, which was copious. ³⁶ And the sons of Jambri came forth out of Madaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went away with them.

⁴¹ And the marriage was turned into mourning, And the noise of their musical instruments into lamentation.

⁴² And they took vengeance for the blood of their brother: and they returned to the bank of the Jordan.

⁴³ And Bacchides heard it, and he came on the Sabbath day even to the bank of the Jordan with a great power. ⁴⁴ And Jonathan said to his company: Let us arise, and fight for our souls: for it is not as formerly. ⁴⁵ For look, the battle is before us, and the water of the Jordan on this side and on that side, and banks, and marshes, and woods: and there is no place for us to turn aside. ⁴⁶ Now therefore cry⁺ to heaven, that you⁺ may be delivered from the hand of your⁺ enemies. And they joined battle. ⁴⁷ And Jonathan stretched forth his hand to strike Bacchides, but he turned away from him backwards. ⁴⁸ And Jonathan, and those who were with him leaped into the Jordan, and swam over the Jordan to them. ⁴⁹ And there fell of Bacchides' side that day a thousand men: and they returned to Jerusalem. ⁵⁰ And they built strong cities in Judea, the fortress that was in Jericho, and in Ammaus, and in Beth-horon, and in Bethel, and Thamnata, and Phara, and Thopo, with high walls, and gates, and bars. ⁵¹ And he placed garrisons in them, that they might wage war against Israel. ⁵² And he fortified the city of Bethsura, and Gazara, and the castle, and set garrisons in them, and provisions of victuals. ⁵³ And he took the sons of the chief men of the country for hostages, and put them in the castle in Jerusalem in custody.

⁵⁴ Now in the year one hundred and fifty-three, the second month, Alcimus commanded the walls of the inner court of the sanctuary to be thrown down, and the works of the prophets to be destroyed: and he began to destroy. ⁵⁵ At that time Alcimus was struck: and his works were hindered, and his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak a word, nor give order concerning his house. ⁵⁶ And Alcimus died at that time in great torment. ⁵⁷ And Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead: and he returned to the king, and the land was quiet for two years.

⁵⁸ And all the wicked held a council, saying: Look, Jonathan and those who are with him live at ease, and without fear: now therefore let's bring Bacchides here, and he will take them all in one night. ⁵⁹ So they went, and gave him counsel. ⁶⁰ And he arose to come with a great army: and he sent secretly letters to his adherents who were in Judea, to seize on Jonathan, and those who were with him: but they could not, for their design was known to them. ⁶¹ And he apprehended of the men of the country, who were the principal authors of the mischief, fifty men, and slew them. ⁶² And Jonathan, and Simon, and those who were with him retired into Bethbessen, which is in the desert: and he repaired the breaches of it, and they fortified it.

⁷⁰ And Jonathan had knowledge of it, and he sent ambassadors to him to make peace with him, and to restore to him the prisoners. ⁷¹ And he accepted it willingly, and did according to his words, and swore that he would do him no harm all the days of his life. ⁷² And he restored to him the prisoners which he before had taken out of the land of Judah. And he returned and went away into his own country, and he came no more into their borders. ⁷³ So the sword ceased from Israel: and Jonathan dwelt in Machmas, and Jonathan began there to judge the people, and he destroyed the wicked out of Israel.

10 Now in the hundred and sixtieth year, Alexander, the [son] of Antiochus, [surnamed] Epiphanes, came up and took Ptolemais, and they received him, and he reigned there. ² And King Demetrius heard of it, and gathered together an exceedingly great army, and went forth against him to fight. ³ And Demetrius sent a letter to Jonathan with peaceful words, to magnify him. ⁴ For he said: Let's first make peace with him, before he makes [peace] with Alexander against us. ⁵ For he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brother, and against his nation. ⁶ And he gave him authority to gather together an army, and to make arms, and

^b Verse 34 is likely to be a later addition to the text here based on style and context considerations. It reads: ³⁴ And Bacchides understood it, and he came himself with all his army over the Jordan on the Sabbath day.

that he should be his confederate. And the hostages who were in the castle, he commanded to be delivered to him.

⁷ And Jonathan came to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the hearing of all the people, and of those who were in the castle.

⁹ And the hostages were delivered to Jonathan, and he restored them to their parents. ¹⁰ And Jonathan dwelt in Jerusalem, and began to build, and to repair the city. ¹¹ And he ordered workmen to build the walls, and Mount Zion round about with square stones for fortification: and so they did. ¹² And the strangers who were in the strongholds, which Bacchides had built, fled away. ¹³ And every man left his place, and departed into his own country. ¹⁴ Only in Bethsura there remained some of them, who had forsaken the law, and the commandments of God: for this was a place of refuge for them.

¹⁵ And King Alexander heard of the promises that Demetrius had made Jonathan: and they told him of the battles, and the worthy acts that he and his brothers had done, and the labors that they had endured. ¹⁶ And he said: Shall we find such another man? Now therefore we will make him our friend and our confederate. ¹⁷ So he wrote a letter, and sent it to him according to these words, saying: ¹⁸ King Alexander to his brother Jonathan: Greetings. ¹⁹ We have heard of you, that you are a man of great power, and fit to be our friend: ²⁰ Now therefore we make you this day high priest of your nation, and that you be called the king's friend (and he sent him a purple robe, and a crown of gold), and that you be of one mind with us in our affairs, and keep friendship with us.

²² And Demetrius heard these words, and was exceedingly sorry, and said: ²³ What is this that we have done, that Alexander has prevented us to gain the friendship of the Jews to strengthen himself? ²⁴ I also will write to them words of request, and offer dignities, and gifts: that they may be with me to aid me. ²⁵ And he wrote to them in these words: King Demetrius to the nation of the Jews: Greetings. ²⁶ Whereas you⁺ have kept covenant with us, and have continued in our friendship, and have not joined with our enemies, we have heard of it, and are glad. ²⁷ And now continue still to keep fidelity toward us, and we will reward you⁺ with good things, for what you⁺ have done in our behalf. ²⁸ And we will remit to you⁺ many charges, and will give you⁺ gifts. ²⁹ And now I free you⁺, and all the Jews from tributes, and I release you⁺ from the customs of salt, and I give back the crowns, and the thirds of the seed. ³⁰ And the half of the fruit of trees, which is my share, I leave to you⁺ from this day forward, so that it will not be taken of the land of Judah, and of the three cities that are added thereto out of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth and forever. ³¹ And let Jerusalem be holy and free, with the borders of it: and let the tenths, and tributes be for itself. ³² I give back also the power of the castle that is in Jerusalem, and I give it to the high priest, to place in it such men as he will choose to keep it. ³³ And every soul of the Jews who has been carried captive from the land of Judah in all my kingdom, I set at liberty freely, that all be discharged from tributes even of their cattle.

³⁴ And I will that all the feasts, and the Sabbaths, and the new moons, and the days appointed, and three days before the solemn day, and three days after the solemn day, be all days of immunity and freedom, for all the Jews who are in my kingdom.

³⁵ And no man will have power to do any thing against them, or to trouble any of them, in any cause. ³⁶ And let there be enrolled in the king's army to the number of thirty thousand of the Jews: and allowance will be made them as is due to all the king's forces, and certain of them will be appointed to be in the fortresses of the great king. ³⁷ And some of them will be set over the affairs of the kingdom, who are of trust, and let the governors be taken from among themselves, and let them walk in their own laws, as the king has commanded in the land of Judah. ³⁸ And the three cities that are added to Judea, out of the country of Samaria, let them be accounted with Judea: that they may be under one, and obey no other authority but that of the high priest. ³⁹ Ptolemais, and the confines of it, I give as a free gift to the holy places, that are in Jerusalem, for the necessary charges of the holy things.

⁴⁰ And I give every year fifteen thousand sicles of silver out of the king's accounts, of what belongs to me. ⁴¹ And all that is above, which those who were over the affairs the years before, had not paid, from this time they will give it to the works of the house. ⁴² Moreover the five thousand sicles of silver which they received from the account of the holy places, every year, will also belong to the priests who execute the ministry. ⁴³ And whoever will flee into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and in all the borders of it, being indebted to the king for any matter, let them be set at liberty, and all that they have in my kingdom, let them have it free. ⁴⁴ For the building also, or repairing the works of the holy places, the charges will be given out of the king's revenues. ⁴⁵ For the building also of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying of it round about, the charges will be given out of the king's account, as also for the building of the walls in Judea.

⁴⁶ Now when Jonathan, and the people heard these words, they gave no credit to them nor received them: because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Israel, for he had afflicted them exceedingly. ⁴⁷ And their inclinations were toward Alexander, because he had been the chief promoter of peace in their regard, and him they always helped.

⁴⁸ And King Alexander gathered together a great army, and moved his camp near to Demetrius. ⁴⁹ And the two kings joined battle, and the army of Demetrius fled away, and Alexander pursued after him, and pressed them close. ⁵⁰ And the battle was hard fought until the sun went down: and Demetrius was slain that day.

⁵¹ And Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemy king of Egypt, with words to this effect, saying: ⁵² Forasmuch as I have returned into my kingdom, and have sat on the throne of my fathers, and have gotten the dominion, and have overthrown Demetrius, and possessed our country, ⁵³ And have joined battle with him, and both he and his army have been destroyed by us, and we are placed on the throne of his kingdom: ⁵⁴ Now therefore let us make friendship one with another: and give me now your daughter as wife, and I will be your son-in-law, and I will give both you and her gifts worthy of you.

⁵⁵ And King Ptolemy answered, saying: Happy is the day in which you returned to the land of your fathers, and sat on the throne of their kingdom. ⁵⁶ And now I will do to you as you have written: but meet me at Ptolemais, that we may see one another, and I will give her to you as you have said.

⁵⁹ And King Alexander wrote to Jonathan, that he should come and meet him. ⁶⁰ And he went honorably to Ptolemais, and he met there the two kings, and he gave them much silver, and gold, and presents: and he found favor in their sight. ⁶¹ And some pestilent men of Israel, men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him to accuse him: and the king gave no heed to them. ⁶² And he commanded that Jonathan's garments should be taken off, and that he should be clothed with purple: and they did so. And the king had him sit with him. ⁶³ And he said to his princes: Go out with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause. ⁶⁴ So when his accusers saw his glory proclaimed, and him clothed with purple, they all fled away. ⁶⁵ And the king magnified him, and enrolled him among his chief friends, and made him governor and partaker of his dominion. ⁶⁶ And Jonathan returned into Jerusalem with peace and joy.

⁶⁷ In the year one hundred and sixty-five Demetrius the son of Demetrius came from Crete into the land of his fathers. ⁶⁸ And King Alexander heard of it, and was much troubled, and returned to Antioch. ⁶⁹ And King Demetrius made Apollonius his general, who was governor of Celesyria: and he gathered together a great army, and came to Jamnia. And he sent to Jonathan the high priest, ⁷⁰ saying: You alone stand against us, and I am laughed at, and reproached, because you show your power against us in the mountains. ⁷¹ Now therefore if you trust in your forces, come down to us into the plain, and there let us try one another: for with me is the strength of war. ⁷² Ask, and learn who I am, and the rest who help me, who also say that your⁺ foot can't stand before our face, for your fathers have twice been put to flight in their own land. ⁷³ And now how will you be able to abide the horsemen, and so great an army in the plain, where there is no stone, nor rock, nor place to flee to?

⁷⁴ Now when Jonathan heard the words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind: and he chose ten thousand men, and went out of Jerusalem, and Simon his brother met him to help him. ⁷⁵ And they pitched their tents near Joppa, but they shut him out of the city: because a garrison of Apollonius was in Joppa, and he laid siege to it. ⁷⁶ And those who were in the city being frightened, opened the gates to him: so Jonathan took Joppa. ⁷⁷ And Apollonius heard of it, and he took three thousand horsemen, and a great army. ⁷⁸ And he went to Azotus as one who was making a journey, and immediately he went forth into the plain: because he had a great number of horsemen, and he trusted in them. And Jonathan followed after him to Azotus, and they joined battle. ⁷⁹ And Apollonius left privately in the camp a thousand horsemen behind them. ⁸⁰ And Jonathan knew that there was an ambush behind him, and they surrounded his army, and cast darts at the people from morning until evening. ⁸¹ But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them: and so their horses were fatigued. ⁸² Then Simon drew forth his army, and attacked the legion: for the horsemen were wearied: and they were discomfited by him, and fled. ⁸³ And those who were scattered about the plain, fled into Azotus, and went into Bethdagon their idol's temple, there to save themselves. ⁸⁴ But Jonathan set fire to Azotus, and the cities that were round about it, and took the spoils of them, and the temple of Dagon: and all those who had fled into it, he burned with fire. ⁸⁵ So those who were slain by the sword, with those who were burned, were almost eight thousand men.

11 And the king of Egypt gathered together an army, like the sand that lies on the seashore, and many ships: and he sought to get the kingdom of Alexander by deceit, and join it to his own kingdom. ² And he went out into Syria with peaceful words, and they opened to him the cities, and met him: for King Alexander had ordered them to go forth to meet him, because he was his father-in-law. ³ Now when Ptolemy entered into the cities, he put garrisons of soldiers in every city. ⁴ And when he came near to Azotus, they showed him the temple of Dagon that was burned with fire, and Azotus, and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were cast abroad, and the graves of those who were slain in the battle, which they had made near the way. ⁵ And they told the king that Jonathan had done these things, to make him odious: but the king held his peace. ⁶ And Jonathan came to meet the king at Joppa with glory, and they saluted one another, and they lodged there. ⁷ And Jonathan went with the king as far as the river, called Eleutherus: and he returned into Jerusalem.

⁸ And King Ptolemy got the dominion of the cities by the seaside, even to Seleucia, and he devised evil designs against Alexander. ⁹ And he sent ambassadors to Demetrius, saying: Come, let's make a covenant between us, and I will give you my daughter whom Alexander has, and you will reign in the kingdom of your father. ¹⁰ For I repent that I have given him my daughter: for he has sought to kill me. ¹¹ And he slandered him, because he coveted his kingdom. ¹² And he took away his daughter, and gave her to Demetrius, and alienated himself from Alexander, and his enmities were made manifest.

¹³ And Ptolemy entered into Antioch, and set two crowns on his head, that of Egypt, and that of Asia. ¹⁴ Now King Alexander was in Cilicia at that time: because those who were in those places had rebelled. ¹⁵ And when Alexander heard of it, he came to give him battle, and King Ptolemy brought forth his army, and met him with a strong power, and put him to flight. ¹⁶ And Alexander fled into Arabia, there to be protected: and King Ptolemy was exalted. ¹⁷ And Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it to Ptolemy. ¹⁸ And King Ptolemy died the third day after: and those who were in the strongholds were destroyed by those who were within the camp. ¹⁹ And Demetrius reigned in the hundred and sixty-seventh year.

²⁰ In those days Jonathan gathered together those who were in Judea, to take the castle that was in Jerusalem: and they made many engines of war against it. ²¹ Then some wicked men who hated their own nation, went away to King Demetrius, and told him that Jonathan was besieging the castle. ²² And when he heard it, he was angry: and forthwith he came to Ptolemais, and wrote to Jonathan, that he should not besiege the castle, but should come to him in haste, and speak to him.

²³ But when Jonathan heard this, he bade them besiege it still: and he chose some of the ancients of Israel, and of the priests, and put himself in danger. ²⁴ And he took gold, and silver, and raiment, and many other presents, and went to the king at Ptolemais, and he found favor in his sight. ²⁵ And certain wicked men of his nation made complaints against him. ²⁶ And the king treated him as his predecessors had done before: and he exalted him in the sight of all his friends. ²⁷ And he confirmed him in the high priesthood, and all the honors he had before, and he made him the chief of his friends.

²⁸ And Jonathan requested of the king that he would make Judea free from tribute, and the three governments, and Samaria, and the confines thereof: and he promised him three hundred talents. ²⁹ And the king consented: and he wrote letters to Jonathan of all these things to this effect: ³⁰ King Demetrius to his brother Jonathan, and to the nation of the Jews: Greetings. ³¹ We send you⁺ here a copy of the letter, which we have written to Lasthenes our parent concerning you³², that you³² might know it. ³² King Demetrius to Lasthenes his parent: Greetings. ³³ We have determined to do good to the nation of the Jews who are our friends, and keep the things that are just with us, for their goodwill which they bear toward us. ³⁴ We have ratified therefore to them all the borders of Judea, and the three cities, Apherema, Lydda, and Ramatha, which are added to Judea, out of Samaria, and all their confines, to be set apart to all those who sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the payments which the king received of them every year, and for the fruits of the land, and of the trees. ³⁵ And as for other things that belonged to us of the tithes, and of the tributes, from this time we discharge them of them: the salt pans also, and the crowns that were presented to us. ³⁶ We give all to them, and nothing hereof will be revoked from this time forth and forever. ³⁷ Now therefore see that you make a copy of these things, and let it be given to Jonathan, and set on the holy mountain, in a conspicuous place.

³⁸ And King Demetrius seeing that the land was quiet before him, and nothing resisted him, sent away all his forces, every man to his own place, except the foreign army, which he had drawn together from the islands of the nations: so all the troops of his fathers hated him. ³⁹ Now there was one Tryphon who had been of Alexander's party before: who seeing that all the army murmured against Demetrius, went to Emalchuel the Arabian, who brought up Antiochus the son of Alexander. ⁴⁰ And he pressed him much to deliver him to him, that he might be king in his father's place: and he told him all that Demetrius had done, and how his soldiers hated him. And he remained there many days.

⁴⁵ And those who were of the city assembled themselves together, to the number of a hundred and twenty thousand men, and would have killed the king. ⁴⁶ And the king fled into the palace, and those of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight. ⁴⁷ And the king called the Jews to his assistance: and they came to him all at once, and they all dispersed themselves through the city. ⁴⁸ And they slew in that day a hundred thousand men, and they set fire to the city, and got many spoils that day, and delivered the king. ⁴⁹ And those who were of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would: and they were discouraged in their mind, and cried to the king, making supplication, and saying: ⁵⁰ Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us, and the city. ⁵¹ And they threw down their arms, and made peace, and the Jews were glorified in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all who were in his realm, and were renowned throughout the kingdom, and returned to Jerusalem with many spoils. ⁵² So King Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom: and the land was quiet before him. ⁵³ And he falsified all whatsoever he had said, and alienated himself from Jonathan, and did not reward him according to the benefits he had received from him, but gave him great trouble.

⁶⁰ Then Jonathan went forth and passed through the cities beyond the river: and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves to him to help him, and he came to Ascalon, and they met him honorably out of the city. ⁶¹ And he went from there to Gaza: and those who were in Gaza shut him out: and he besieged it, and burned all the suburbs round about, and took the spoils. ⁶² And the men of Gaza made supplication to Jonathan, and he gave them the right hand: and he took their sons for hostages, and sent them to Jerusalem: and he went through the country as far as Damascus.

12 ²⁴ Now Jonathan heard that the generals of Demetrius had come again with a greater army than before to fight against him. ²⁵ So he went out from Jerusalem, and met them in the land of Amath: for he gave them no time to enter into his country. ²⁶ And he sent spies into their camp, and they came back and brought him word that they designed to come upon them in the night. ²⁷ And when the sun set, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in arms all night long ready to fight, and he set sentinels round about the camp. ²⁸ And the enemies heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, and they were struck with fear, and dread in their heart: and they kindled fires in their camp.

²⁹ But Jonathan and those who were with him didn't know until the morning: for they saw the lights burning. ³⁰ And Jonathan pursued after them, but did not overtake them: for they had passed the river Eleutherus. ³¹ And Jonathan turned on the Arabians who are called Zabadeans: and he defeated them, and took the spoils of them. ³² And he went forward, and came to Damascus, and passed through all that country. ³³ Simon also went forth, and came as far as Ascalon, and the nearby fortresses, and he turned aside to Joppa, and took possession of it, ³⁴ (For he heard that they designed to deliver the hold to those who took part with Demetrius,) and he put a garrison there to keep it.

³⁵ And Jonathan came back, and called together the ancients of the people, and he took a resolution with them to build fortresses in Judea, ³⁶ and to build up walls in Jerusalem, and raise a mount between the castle and the city, to separate it from the city, so that it might have no communication, and that they might neither buy nor sell. ³⁷ And they came together to build up the city: for the wall that was on the brook toward the east was broken down, and he repaired that which is called Caphetetha. ³⁸ And Simon built Adiada in Sephela, and fortified it, and set up gates and bars.

³⁹ Now when Tryphon had conceived a design to make himself king of Asia, and to take the crown, and to stretch out his hand against King Antiochus: ⁴⁰ Fearing otherwise Jonathan would not allow him, but would fight against him: he sought to seize on him, and to kill him. So he rose up and came to Bethsan. ⁴¹ And Jonathan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for battle, and came to Bethsan.

⁴² Now when Tryphon saw that Jonathan came with a great army, he was afraid to stretch forth his hand against him, ⁴³ And he received him with honor, and commended him to all his friends, and gave him presents: and he commanded his troops to obey him, as himself. ⁴⁴ And he said to Jonathan: Why have you troubled all the people, whereas we have no war? ⁴⁵ Now therefore send them back to their own houses: and choose you a few men who may be with you, and come with me to Ptolemais, and I will deliver it to you, and the rest of the strongholds, and the army, and all who have any charge, and I will return and go away: for this is the cause of my coming. ⁴⁶ And Jonathan believed him, and did as he said: and sent away his army, and they departed into the land of Judah: ⁴⁷ But he kept with him three thousand men: of whom he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him. ⁴⁸ Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, those of Ptolemais shut the gates of the city, and took him: and all those who came in with him they slew with the sword.

13 Now Simon heard that Tryphon was gathering together a very great army, to invade the land of Judah, and to destroy it. ² And seeing that the people were in dread, and in fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and assembled the people. ³ And he exhorted them, saying: You* know what great battles I and my brothers, and the house of my father, have fought for the laws, and the sanctuary, and the distresses that we have seen. ⁴ By reason whereof all my brothers have lost their lives for Israel's sake, and I am left alone. ⁵ And now far be it from me to spare my soul in any time of trouble: for I am not better than my brothers. ⁶ I will avenge then my nation and the sanctuary, and our children, and wives: for all the nations are gathered together to destroy us out of mere malice. ⁷ And the spirit of the people was revived as soon as they heard these words. ⁸ And they answered with a loud voice, saying: You are our leader in the place of Judas, and Jonathan your brother. ⁹ Fight our battles, and we will do whatsoever you will say to us. ¹⁰ So gathering together all the men of war, he made haste to finish all the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about. ¹¹ And he sent Jonathan the [son] of Absalom, and with him a new army into Joppa, and he cast out those who were in it, and himself remained there.

¹² And Tryphon removed from Ptolemais with a great army, to invade the land of Judah, and Jonathan was with him in custody. ¹³ But Simon pitched in Addus, over against the plain. ¹⁴ And when Tryphon understood that Simon had risen up in the place of his brother Jonathan, and that he meant to join battle with him, he sent messengers to him, ¹⁵ saying: We have detained your brother Jonathan for the silver that he owed in the king's account, by reason of the affairs which he had the management of. ¹⁶ But now send a hundred talents of silver, and his two sons for hostages, that when he is set at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will release him. ¹⁷ Now Simon knew that he spoke deceitfully to him, nevertheless he ordered the silver, and the children to be sent: otherwise he should bring on himself a great hatred of the people of Israel, who might have said: ¹⁸ Because he did not send the silver, and the children, therefore he perished. ¹⁹ So he sent the children, and the hundred talents: and he lied, and did not let Jonathan go.

²⁰ And after this Tryphon entered within the country, to destroy it: and they went about by the way that leads to Ador: and Simon and his army marched to every place wherever they went. ²¹ And those who were in the castle, sent messengers to Tryphon, that he should make haste to come through the desert, and send them victuals. ²² And Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night: but there fell a very great snow, and he did not come into the country of Gilead. ²³ And when he approached to Bascama, he slew Jonathan and his sons there. ²⁴ And Tryphon returned, and went into his own country.

³³ And Simon built up the strongholds of Judea, fortifying them with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars: and he stored up victuals in the fortresses. ³⁴ And Simon chose men and sent to King Demetrius, to the end that he should grant liberty to the land: for all that Tryphon did was to spoil. ³⁵ And King Demetrius, in answer to this request, wrote a letter in this manner: ³⁶ King Demetrius to Simon the high priest, and friend of kings, and to the ancients, and to the nation of the Jews: Greetings. ³⁷ The golden crown, and the palm, which you* sent, we have received: and we are ready to make a firm peace with you⁺, and to write to the king's chief officers to release you⁺ the things that we have released. ³⁸ For all that we have decreed in your⁺ favor, will stand in force. The strongholds that you⁺ have built, will be your⁺ own. ³⁹ And as for any oversight or fault committed to this day, we forgive it, and the crown which you⁺ owed: and if any other thing were taxed in Jerusalem, now do not let it be taxed. ⁴⁰ And if any of you⁺ are fit to be enrolled among ours, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace between us.

⁴¹ In the year one hundred and seventy the yoke of the nations was taken off from Israel. ⁴² And the people of Israel began to write in the instruments and public records,

"The First Year under Simon the High Priest, the Great Captain and Prince of the Jews." ^a

Job

1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil. ² And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters. ³ His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the sons of the east. ⁴ And his sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. ⁵ And it was so, when the days of their feasting had gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts. Thus Job did continually.

⁶ Now it came to pass on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan also came among them. ⁷ And Yahweh said to Satan, Where do you come from? Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. ⁸ And Yahweh said to Satan, Have you considered my slave Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. ⁹ Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰ Haven't you made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance has increased in the land. ¹¹ But put forth your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face. ¹² And Yahweh said to Satan, Look, all that he has is in your power; only on him do not put forth your hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh.

¹³ And it fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, ¹⁴ that there came a messenger to Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys pasturing beside them; ¹⁵ and the Sabeans fell [on them], and took them away: yes, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only have escaped alone to tell you. ¹⁶ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God has fallen from heaven, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I only have escaped alone to tell you. ¹⁷ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made three bands, and fell on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only have escaped alone to tell you. ¹⁸ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house; ¹⁹ and, look, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead; and I only have escaped alone to tell you.

²⁰ Then Job arose, and rent his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped; ²¹ and he said, Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked I will return there: Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away; blessed be the name of Yahweh. ²² In all this Job did not sin, nor charge God foolishly.

2 Again it came to pass on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan came also among them to present himself before Yahweh. ² And Yahweh said to Satan, Where do you come from? And Satan answered Yahweh, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. ³ And Yahweh said to Satan, Have you considered my slave Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil: and he still holds fast his integrity, although you moved me against him, to destroy him without cause. ⁴ And Satan answered Yahweh, and said, Skin for skin, yes, all that a man has he will give for his soul. ⁵ But put forth your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce you to your face. ⁶ And Yahweh said to Satan, Look, he is in your hand; only spare his soul.

¹¹ Now when Job's three companions heard of all this evil that came upon him, they came every one from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to bemoan him and to comfort him. ¹² And when they lifted up their eyes far off, and didn't know him, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward heaven. ¹³ So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

3 After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day. ² And Job answered and said:

³ Let the day perish in which I was born,
And the night which said, A [noble] man was conceived.
⁴ Let that day be darkness;
Don't let God from above seek for it,
Neither let the light shine on it.

^a The text from Chapter 13 Verse 43 through Chapter 16 Verse 24 is not included based on the context, style of writing, and general lack of parallel readings in Josephus.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own;
 Let a cloud stay on it;
 Let all that makes blackness of day terrify it.
 6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it:
 Don't let it rejoice among the days of the year;
 Don't let it come into the number of the months.
 7 Look, let that night be barren;
 Let no joyful voice come in it.
 8 Let them curse it who curse the day,
 Who are ready to rouse up leviathan.
 9 Let the stars of its twilight be dark:
 Let it look for light, but have none;
 Neither let it see the eyelids of the morning:
 10 Because it did not shut up the doors of my [mother's] womb,
 Nor hid trouble from my eyes.
 11 Why didn't I die from the womb?
 Why didn't I give up the ghost when my mother bore me?
 12 Why did the knees receive me?
 Or why the breasts, that I should be nursed?
 13 For now I should have lain down and been quiet;
 I should have slept; then I would have been at rest,
 14 With kings and counselors of the earth,
 Who built up waste places for themselves;
 15 Or with princes who had gold,
 Who filled their houses with silver:
 16 Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been,
 As infants who never saw light.
 17 There the wicked cease from troubling;
 And there the weary are at rest.
 18 There the prisoners are at ease together;
 They don't hear the voice of the taskmaster.
 19 The small and the great are there:
 And the slave is free from his master.
 20 Why is light given to him who is in misery,
 And life to the bitter in soul?
 21 Who long for death, but it does not come,
 And dig for it more than for hid treasures;
 22 Who rejoice exceedingly,
 And are glad, when they can find the grave
 23 To a [noble] man whose way is hid,
 And whom God has hedged in.
 24 For my sighing comes before I eat,
 And my groanings are poured out like water.
 25 For the thing which I fear comes on me,
 And that which I am afraid of comes to me.
 26 I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest;
 But trouble comes.
 4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and said,
 2 If one assay to commune with you, will you be grieved?
 But who can withhold himself from speaking?
 3 Look, you have instructed many,
 And you have strengthened the weak hands.
 4 Your words have upheld him who was falling,
 And you have made firm the feeble knees.
 5 But now it has come to you, and you faint;
 It touches you, and you are troubled.
 6 Isn't your fear [of God] your confidence,
 [And] the integrity of your ways your hope?
 7 Remember, I pray you, who [ever] perished, being innocent?
 Or where were the upright cut off?
 8 According to as I have seen, those who plow iniquity,
 And sow trouble, reap the same.
 9 By the breath of God they perish,
 And by the blast of his anger are they consumed.
 10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion,
 And the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
 11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey,
 And the whelps of the lioness are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me,
 And my ear received a whisper of it.
 13 In thoughts from the visions of the night,
 When deep sleep falls on men,
 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling,
 Which made all my bones to shake.
 15 Then a spirit passed before my face;
 The hair of my flesh stood up.
 16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance;
 A form was before my eyes:
 [There was] silence, and I heard a voice [saying],
 17 Will common man be more just than God?
 Will [noble] man be more pure than his Maker?
 18 Look, he puts no trust in his slaves;
 And his angels he charges with folly:
 19 How much more those who stay in houses of clay,
 Whose foundation is in the dust,
 Who are crushed before the moth!
 20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed:
 They perish forever without any regarding it.
 21 Is not their tent-cord plucked up inside them?
 They die, and that without wisdom.
 5 Call now; is there any who will answer you?
 And to which of the holy ones will you turn?
 2 For vexation kills the foolish man,
 And jealousy slays the silly one.
 3 I have seen the foolish taking root:
 But suddenly I cursed his habitation.
 4 His sons are far from safety,
 And they are crushed in the gate,
 Neither is there any to deliver them:
 5 Whose harvest the hungry eats up,
 And takes it even out of the thorns;
 And the snare gapes for their substance.
 6 For affliction does not come forth from the dust,
 Neither does trouble spring out of the ground;
 7 But man is born to trouble,
 As the sparks fly upward.
 8 But as for me, I would seek to God,
 And to God I would commit my cause;
 9 Who does great things and unsearchable,
 Marvelous things without number:
 10 Who gives rain on the earth,
 And sends waters on the fields;
 11 So that he sets up on high those who are low,
 And those who mourn are exalted to safety.
 12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
 So that their hands can't perform their enterprise.
 13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness;
 And the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.
 14 They meet with darkness in the daytime,
 And grope at noonday as in the night.
 15 But he saves from the sword of their mouth,
 Even the needy from the hand of the mighty.
 16 So the poor has hope,
 And iniquity stops her mouth.
 17 Look, happy is [the] common man whom God corrects:
 Therefore don't despise the chastening of the Almighty.
 18 For he makes sore, and binds up;
 He wounds, and his hands make whole.
 19 He will deliver you in six troubles;
 Yes, in seven no evil will touch you.
 20 In famine he will redeem you from death;
 And in war from the power of the sword.
 21 You will be hid from the scourge of the tongue;

Neither will you be afraid of destruction when it comes.
 22 At destruction and famine you will laugh;
 Neither will you be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
 23 For you will be in league with the stones of the field;
 And the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.
 24 And you will know that your tent is in peace;
 And you will visit your fold, and will miss nothing.
 25 You will know also that your seed will be great,
 And your offspring as the grass of the earth.
 26 You will come to your grave in a full age,
 Like a shock of grain comes in in its season.
 27 See this, we have searched it, so it is;
 Hear it, and know it for your good.

6 Then Job answered and said,
 2 Oh that my vexation were but weighed,
 And all my calamity laid in the balances!
 3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas:
 Therefore my words have been rash.
 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are inside me,
 The poison of which my spirit drinks up:
 The terrors of God set themselves in array against me.
 5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass?
 Or does the ox low over his fodder?
 6 Can that which has no savor be eaten without salt?
 Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
 7 My soul refuses to touch [them];
 They are as loathsome food to me.
 8 Oh that I might have my request;
 And that God would grant [me] the thing that I long for!
 9 Even that it would please God to crush me;
 That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
 10 And be it still my consolation,
 Yes, let me exult in pain that does not spare,
 That I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
 11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
 And what is my end, that my soul should be patient?
 12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
 Or is my flesh of bronze?
 13 Is it not that I have no help in me,
 And that wisdom is driven quite from me?
 14 To him who is ready to faint, kindness [should be shown]
 from his friend;
 Even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
 15 My brothers have betrayed as a wadi,
 As a channel of wadis, they pass away;
 16 Which are black by reason of the ice,
 [And] in which the snow hides itself:
 17 What time they wax warm, they vanish;
 When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
 18 The caravans [that travel] by the way of them turn aside;
 They go up into the waste, and perish.
 19 The caravans of Tema looked,
 The companies of Sheba waited for them.
 20 They were put to shame because they had hoped;
 They came there, and were confounded.
 21 For now you⁺ are nothing;
 You⁺ see a terror, and are afraid.
 22 Did I say, Give to me?
 Or, Offer a present for me of your⁺ substance?
 23 Or, Deliver me from the adversary's hand?
 Or, Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?
 24 Teach me, and I will hold my peace;
 And cause me to understand in what I have erred.
 25 How forcible are words of uprightness!
 But your⁺ reproof, what does it reprove?
 26 Do you⁺ think to reprove words,
 Seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind?

27 Yes, you⁺ would cast [lots] on the fatherless,
 And make merchandise of your⁺ companion.
 28 Now therefore be pleased to look at me;
 For surely I will not lie to your⁺ face.
 29 Return, I pray you⁺, let there be no injustice;
 Yes, return again, my cause is righteous.
 30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
 Can't my taste discern mischievous things?
7 Is there not a warfare to common man on earth?
 And are not his days like the days of a hired worker?
 2 As a slave who earnestly desires the shadow,
 And as a hired worker who looks for his wages:
 3 So am I made to possess months of misery,
 And wearisome nights are appointed to me.
 4 When I lie down,
 I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone?
 And I am full of tossings to and fro to the dawning of the day.
 5 My flesh is clothed with the maggot and clods of dust;
 My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh.
 6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
 And are spent without hope.
 7 Oh remember that my life is a breath:
 My eye will no more see good.
 8 The eye of him who sees me will look at me no more;
 Your eyes will be on me, but I will not be.
 9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away,
 So he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more.
 10 He will return no more to his house,
 Neither will his place know him anymore.
 11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth;
 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
 12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster,
 That you set a watch over me?
 13 When I say, My bed will comfort me,
 My couch will ease my complaint;
 14 Then you scare me with dreams,
 And terrify me through visions:
 15 So that my soul chooses strangling,
 And death rather than my bones.
 16 I loathe [my life]; I would not live always:
 Leave me alone; for my days are vanity.
 17 What is common man, that you should magnify him,
 And that you should set your mind on him,
 18 And that you should visit him every morning,
 And try him every moment?
 19 How long will you not look away from me,
 Nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle?
 20 If I have sinned, what do I do to you, O you watcher of man?
 Why have you set me as a mark for you,
 So that I am a burden to you?
 21 And why don't you pardon my transgression, and take away
 my iniquity?
 For now I will lie down in the dust;
 And you will seek me diligently, but I will not be.

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,
 2 How long will you speak these things?
 And [how long] will the words of your mouth be [like] a mighty wind?
 3 Does God pervert justice?
 Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?
 4 If your sons have sinned against him,
 And he has delivered them into the hand of their transgression;
 5 If you would seek diligently to God,
 And make your supplication to the Almighty;

6 If you were pure and upright:
 Surely now he would awake for you,
 And make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.
 7 And though your beginning was small,
 Yet your latter end would greatly increase.
 8 For inquire, I pray you, of the former age,
 And apply yourself to that which their fathers have searched out:
 9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing,
 Because our days on earth are a shadow);
 10 Will not they teach you, and tell you,
 And utter words out of their heart?
 11 Can the rush grow up without mire?
 Can the flag grow without water?
 12 While it is yet in its greenness, [and] not cut down,
 It withers before any [other] herb.
 13 So are the paths of all who forget God;
 And the hope of the godless man will perish:
 14 Whose confidence will break in sunder,
 And whose trust is a spider's web.
 15 He will lean on his house, but it will not stand:
 He will hold it fast, but it will not endure.
 16 He is green before the sun,
 And his shoots go forth over his garden.
 17 His roots are wrapped about the [stone]-heap,
 He looks at the place of stones.
 18 If he is destroyed from his place,
 Then it will deny him, [saying,]
 I haven't seen you.
 19 Look, this is the joy of his way;
 And out of the earth will others spring.
 20 Look, God will not cast away a perfect man,
 Neither will he uphold the evildoers.
 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter,
 And your lips with shouting.
 22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame;
 And the tent of the wicked will be no more.

9 Then Job answered and said,
 2 Of a truth I know that it is so:
 But how can common man be just with God?
 3 If he is pleased to contend with him,
 He can't answer him one of a thousand.
 4 [He is] wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
 Who has hardened himself against him, and prospered?—
 5 [Him] who removes the mountains, and they do not know it,
 When he overturns them in his anger;
 6 Who shakes the earth out of its place,
 And its pillars tremble;
 7 Who commands the sun, and it does not rise,
 And seals up the stars;
 8 Who alone stretches out the heavens,
 And treads on the waves of the sea;
 9 Who makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
 And the chambers of the south;
 10 Who does great things past finding out,
 Yes, marvelous things without number.
 11 Look, he goes by me, and I don't see him:
 He passes on also, but I don't perceive him.
 12 Look, he seizes [the prey], who can hinder him?
 Who will say to him, What are you doing?
 13 God will not withdraw his anger;
 The helpers of Rahab stoop under him.
 14 How much less shall I answer him,
 And choose out my words [to reason] with him?
 15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet I would not answer;

I would plead for mercy to my judge.
 16 If I had called, and he had answered me,
 Yet I would not believe that he listened to my voice.
 17 For he breaks me with a tempest,
 And multiplies my wounds without cause.
 18 He will not allow me to take my breath,
 But fills me with bitterness.
 19 If [we speak] of strength, look, [he is] mighty!
 And if of justice, Who, [he says,] will summon me?
 20 Though I be righteous, my own mouth will condemn me:
 Though I be perfect, it will prove me perverse.
 21 I am perfect; I do not regard my soul;
 I despise my life.
 22 It is all one; therefore I say,
 He destroys the perfect and the wicked.
 23 If the scourge slays suddenly,
 He will mock at the trial of the innocent.
 24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked;
 He covers the faces of its judges:
 If [it is] not [he], then who is it?
 25 Now my days are swifter than a post:
 They flee away, they see no good.
 26 They are passed away as the swift ships;
 As the eagle that swoops on the prey.
 27 If I say, I will forget my complaint,
 I will put off my [sad] countenance, and be of good cheer;
 28 I am afraid of all my sorrows,
 I know that you will not hold me innocent.
 29 I will be condemned;
 Why then do I labor in vain?
 30 If I wash myself with snow,^a
 And clean my my hands with lye;
 31 Yet you will plunge me in the pit,
 And my own clothes will be disgusted with me.
 32 For he is not a man as I am, that I should answer him,
 That we should come together in judgment.
 33 If only there were an umpire between us
 That might lay his hand on us both,
 34 [Then] he would take his rod away from me,
 And his terror would not make me afraid.
 35 Then I would speak and not fear him;
 For I am not so in myself.

10 My soul is weary of my life;
 I will give free course to my complaint;
 I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
 2 I will say to God, Do not condemn me;
 Show me why you contend with me.
 3 Is it good to you that you should oppress,
 That you should despise the work of your hands,
 And shine on the counsel of the wicked?
 4 Do you have eyes of flesh?
 Or do you see as common man sees?
 5 Are your days as the days of common man,
 Or your years as the days of [noble] man,
 6 That you inquire after my iniquity,
 And search after my sin,
 7 Although you know that I am not wicked,
 And there is none who can deliver out of your hand?
 8 Your hands have framed me and fashioned me,
 Together round about; yet you destroy me.
 9 Remember, I urge you, that you have fashioned me as clay;
 And will you bring me into dust again?
 10 Have you not poured me out as milk,

And curdled me like cheese?
 11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh,
 And knit me together with bones and sinews.
 12 You have granted me life and loving-kindness;
 And your visitation has preserved my spirit.
 13 Yet these things you hid in your heart;
 I know that this is with you:
 14 If I sin, then you mark me,
 And you will not acquit me from my iniquity.
 15 If I am wicked, woe to me;
 And if I am righteous, yet I will not lift up my head,
 Filled with shame and drunk with my affliction.
 16 And if [my head] exalts itself, you hunt me as a lion;
 And again you show yourself marvelous on me.
 17 You renew your witnesses against me,
 And increase your indignation on me:
 Changes and warfare are with me.

18 Why then have you brought me forth out of the womb?
 I should have given up the ghost, and no eye would have seen me.
 19 I should have been as though I had not been;
 I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
 20 Are not my days few? Let him stop.
 Let him turn away from me, that I may take comfort a little,
 21 Before I go from where I will not return,
 [Even] to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death;
 22 The land dark as midnight,
 [The land] of the shadow of death, without any order,
 And where the light is as midnight.

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,
 2 Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered?
 And should a man full of talk be justified?
 3 Should your boastings make men hold their peace?
 And when you mock, will no man make you ashamed?
 4 For you say, My doctrine is pure,
 And I am clean in your eyes.
 5 But oh that God would speak,
 And open his lips against you,
 6 And that he would show you the secrets of wisdom!
 For he is manifold in understanding.
 Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.

7 Can you by searching find out God?
 Can you find out the Almighty to perfection?
 8 At the height of heaven, what can you do?
 Deeper than Sheol; what can you know?
 9 The measure of it is longer than the earth,
 And broader than the sea.
 10 If he passes through, and shuts up,
 And calls to judgment, then who can hinder him?
 11 For he knows false men:
 He sees iniquity also, even though he does not consider it.
 12 But a vain man is void of understanding,
 Yes, man is born [as] a wild donkey's colt.

13 If you set your heart aright,
 And stretch out your hands toward him;
 14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away,
 And don't let unrighteousness stay in your tents.
 15 Surely then you will lift up your face without spot;
 Yes, you will be steadfast, and will not fear:
 16 For you will forget your misery;
 You will remember it as waters that are passed away,

17 And [your] lifetime will be clearer than the noonday;
 Though there is darkness, it will be as the morning.
 18 And you will be secure, because there is hope;
 Yes, you will search [about you], and will take your rest in safety.
 19 Also you will lie down, and none will make you afraid;
 Yes, many will make suit to you.
 20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
 And they will have no way to flee;
 And their hope will be the breathing out of the soul.

12 Then Job answered and said,
 2 No doubt but you^a are the people,
 And wisdom will die with you^a.
 3 But I have understanding as well as you^a;
 I am not inferior to you^a:
 Yes, who doesn't know such things as these?
 4 I am as one who is a laughingstock to his fellow man,
 I who called on God, and he answered:
 The just, the perfect man is a laughingstock.
 5 In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune;
 It is ready for them whose foot slips.
 6 The tents of robbers prosper,
 And those who provoke God are secure;
 Into whose hand God brings [abundantly].

7 But ask now the beasts, and they will teach you;
 And the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you:
 8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
 And the fish of the sea will declare to you.
 9 Who doesn't know in all these,
 That the hand of Yahweh has wrought this,
 10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing,
 And the breath of all mankind?
 11 Does not the ear try words,
 Even as the palate tastes its food?
 12 With aged men is wisdom,
 And in length of days understanding.

13 With [God] is wisdom and might;
 He has counsel and understanding.
 14 Look, he breaks down, and it can't be built again;
 He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening.
 15 Look, he withholds the waters, and they dry up;
 Again, he sends them out, and they overturn the earth.
 16 With him is strength and wisdom;
 The deceived and the deceiver are his.
 17 He leads counselors away stripped,
 And judges he makes fools.
 18 He looses the authority of kings,
 And he binds their loins with a loincloth.^a 19 He leads priests away stripped,
 And overthrows the mighty.
 20 He removes the speech of the trusty,
 And takes away the understanding of the elders.
 21 He pours contempt on princes,
 And looses the belt of the strong.
 22 He uncovers deep things out of darkness,
 And brings out to light the shadow of death.
 23 He increases the nations, and he destroys them:
 He enlarges the nations, and he leads them captive.

^a The likely meaning is that God, having removed their symbol of authority, puts a loincloth on the kings which is worn for doing hard physical labor, and so depicts a slave.

²⁴ He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth,
And causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
²⁵ They grope in the dark without light;
And he makes them to stagger like a drunk man.

13 Look, my eye has seen all [this],
My ear has heard and understood it.

² What you⁺ know, [the same] do I know also:
I am not inferior to you⁺.

³ Surely I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to reason with God.

⁴ But you⁺ are forgers of lies;
You⁺ are all physicians of no value.

⁵ Oh that you⁺ would altogether hold your⁺ peace!
And it would be your⁺ wisdom.

⁶ Hear now my reasoning,
And listen to the pleadings of my lips.

⁷ Will you⁺ speak unrighteously for God,
And talk deceitfully for him?

⁸ Will you⁺ show partiality to him?
Will you⁺ contend for God?

⁹ Is it good that he should search you⁺ out?
Or as one deceives common man, will you⁺ deceive him?

¹⁰ He will surely reprove you⁺,
If you⁺ secretly show partiality.

¹¹ Will not his splendor make you⁺ afraid,
And his dread fall on you⁺?

¹² Your⁺ memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
Your⁺ defenses are defenses of clay.

¹³ Listen⁺ to me silently, that I may speak;
And let come upon me what will.

¹⁴ Why should I take my flesh in my teeth,
And put my soul in my hand?

¹⁵ Look, he will slay me; I have no hope:
Nevertheless I will maintain my ways before him.

¹⁶ This also will be my salvation,
That a godless man will not come before him.

¹⁷ Hear diligently my speech,
And let my declaration be in your⁺ ears.

¹⁸ Look now, I have set my cause in order;
I know that I am righteous.

¹⁹ Who is he that will contend with me?
For then I would hold my peace and give up the ghost.

²⁰ Only don't do two things to me;
Then I will not hide myself from your face:

²¹ Withdraw your hand far from me;
And don't let your terror make me afraid.

²² Then call, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, and answer me.

²³ How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me to know my transgression and my sin.

²⁴ Why do you hide your face,
And hold me for your enemy?

²⁵ Will you harass a driven leaf?
And will you pursue the dry stubble?

²⁶ For you write bitter things against me,
And make me to inherit the iniquities of my youth:

²⁷ You put my feet also in the stocks,
And mark all my paths;

You set a bound to the soles of my feet:

²⁸ Though I am like a rotten thing that consumes,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 Man, who is born of a woman,
Is of few days, and full of trouble.

² He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down:
He flees also as a shadow, and does not continue.

³ And do you open your eyes on such a one,
And bring me into judgment with you?

⁴ Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
Not one.

⁵ Seeing his days are determined,
The number of his months is with you,
And you have appointed his bounds that he can't pass;

⁶ Look away from him, that he may rest,
Until he will accomplish, as a hired worker, his day.

⁷ For there is hope of a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that its tender branch will not cease.

⁸ Though its root waxes old in the earth,
And its stock dies in the ground;

⁹ Yet through the scent of water it will bud,
And put forth boughs like a plant.

¹⁰ But [noble] man dies, and is laid low:
Yes, man gives up the ghost, and where is he?

¹¹ [As] the waters fail from the sea,
And the river wastes and dries up;

¹² So man lies down and does not rise:
Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake,
Nor be roused out of their sleep.

¹³ Oh that you would hide me in Sheol,
That you would keep me secret, until your wrath is past,
That you would appoint me a set time, and remember me!

¹⁴ If a [noble] man dies, will he live [again]?
All the days of my warfare I would wait,
Until my release should come.

¹⁵ You would call, and I would answer you:
You would have a desire to the work of your hands.

¹⁶ But now you number my steps:
Don't you watch over my sin?

¹⁷ My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And you fasten up my iniquity.

¹⁸ But the mountain falling comes to nothing;
And the rock is removed out of its place;

¹⁹ The waters wear the stones;
The overflowings of it wash away the dust of the earth:
So you destroy the hope of common man.

²⁰ You prevail forever against him, and he passes;
You change his countenance, and send him away.

²¹ His sons come to honor, and he does not know it;
And they are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it of them.

²² But his flesh on him has pain,
And his soul inside him mourns.

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

² Should a wise man make answer with vain knowledge,
And fill himself with the east wind?

³ Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
Or with speeches by which he can do no good?

⁴ Yes, you do away with fear,
And hinder devotion before God.

⁵ For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of the crafty.

⁶ Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
Yes, your own lips testify against you.

⁷ Are you the first of man who was born?
Or were you brought forth before the hills?

⁸ Have you heard the secret counsel of God?
And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

⁹ What do you know, that we don't know?

What do you understand, which is not in us?
 10 With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men,
 Much older than your father.
 11 Are the consolations of God too small for you,
 Even the word that is gentle toward you?
 12 Why does your heart carry you away?
 And why do your eyes flash,
 13 That against God you turn your spirit,
 And let words go out of your mouth?
 14 What is common man, that he should be clean?
 And he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
 15 Look, he puts no trust in his holy ones;
 Yes, the heavens are not clean in his eyes:
 16 How much less one who is disgusting and corrupt,
 A man who drinks iniquity like water!
 17 I will show you, hear me;
 And that which I have seen I will declare:
 18 (Which wise men have told
 From their fathers, and have not hid it;
 19 To whom alone the land was given,
 And no stranger passed among them):
 20 The wicked man travails with pain all his days,
 Even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.
 21 A sound of terrors is in his ears;
 In prosperity the destroyer will come upon him.
 22 He does not believe that he will return out of darkness,
 And he is destined for the sword.
 23 He is destined for bread, as bread for vultures.
 He knows that he is ready for destruction.
 24 The day of darkness terrifies him, distress and anguish make him afraid;
 They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
 25 Because he has stretched out his hand against God,
 And behaves himself proudly against the Almighty;
 26 He runs on him with a [stiff] neck,
 With the thick bosses of his bucklers;
 27 Because he has covered his face with his fatness,
 And gathered fat on his loins;
 28 And he has stayed in desolate cities,
 In houses which no man inhabited,
 Which were ready to become heaps;
 29 He will not be rich, neither will his substance continue,
 Neither will their possessions be extended on the earth.
 30 He will not depart out of darkness;
 The flame will dry up his branches,
 And by the breath of [God's] mouth he will go away.
 31 Let him not trust in vanity, deceiving himself;
 For vanity will be his recompense.
 32 It will be accomplished before his time,
 And his branch will not be green.
 33 He will shake off his unripe grape as the vine,
 And will cast off his flower as the olive tree.
 34 For the company of the godless will be barren,
 And fire will consume the tents of bribery.
 35 They are pregnant with mischief, and give birth to iniquity,
 And their heart prepares deceit.
16 Then Job answered and said,
 2 I have heard many such things:
 Miserable comforters are all of you+.
 3 Will vain words have an end?
 Or what provokes you that you answer?
 4 I also could speak as you+ do;
 If your+ soul were in my soul's stead,
 I could join words together against you+,
 And shake my head at you+.
 5 [But] I would strengthen you+ with my mouth,

And the solace of my lips would assuage [your+ grief].
 6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged;
 And though I forbear, what am I eased?
 7 But now he has made me weary:
 You have made desolate all my company.
 8 And you have shriveled me up, [which] is a witness [against me]:
 And my leanness rises up against me,
 It testifies to my face.
 9 He has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me;
 He has gnashed on me with his teeth:
 My adversary sharpens his eyes on me.
 10 They have gaped on me with their mouth;
 They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully:
 They gather themselves together against me.
 11 God delivers me to the ungodly,
 And casts me into the hands of the wicked.
 12 I was at ease, and he broke me apart;
 Yes, he has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces:
 He has also set me up for his mark.
 13 His archers circle me round about;
 He splits my reins apart, and does not spare;
 He pours out my gall on the ground.
 14 He breaks me with breach on breach;
 He runs on me like a giant.
 15 I have sewed sackcloth on my skin,
 And have laid my horn in the dust.
 16 My face is red with weeping,
 And on my eyelids is the shadow of death;
 17 Although there is no violence in my hands,
 And my prayer is pure.
 18 O earth, do not cover my blood,
 And let my cry have no [resting]-place.
 19 Even now, look, my witness is in heaven,
 And he who vouches for me is on high.
 20 My companions scoff at me:
 [But] my eye pours out tears to God,
 21 That he would maintain the right of a [noble] man with God,
 And of a son of man with his fellow man!
 22 For when a few years have come,
 I will go the way from where I will not return.
17 My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct,
 Graves are [ready] for me.
 2 Surely there are mockers with me,
 And my eye dwells on their provocation.
 3 Give now a pledge, be surety for me with yourself;
 Who is there that will strike hands with me?
 4 For you have hid their heart from understanding:
 Therefore you will not exalt [them].
 5 He who denounces his companions for a prey,
 Even the eyes of his sons will fail.
 6 But he has made me a byword of the people;
 And they spit in my face.
 7 My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow,
 And all my members are as a shadow.
 8 Upright men will be astonished at this,
 And the innocent will stir himself up against the godless.
 9 Yet will the righteous hold on his way,
 And he who has clean hands will wax stronger and stronger.
 10 But as for all of you+, come on now again;
 And I will not find a wise man among you+.
 11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off,
 Even the thoughts of my heart.
 12 They change the night into day:

The light, [they say,] is near to the darkness.
 13 If I look for Sheol as my house;
 If I have spread my couch in the darkness;
 14 If I have said to the pit, You are my father;
 To the maggot, [You are] my mother, and my sister;
 15 Where then is my hope?
 And as for my hope, who will see it?
 16 You will go down with me to Sheol.
 Shall we not go down together to the dust?

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,
 2 How long will you⁺ hunt for words?
 Consider, and afterward we will speak.
 3 Why are we counted as beasts,
 [And] have we become unclean in your⁺ sight?
 4 You who tear your soul in your anger,
 Will the earth be forsaken for you?
 Or will the rock be removed out of its place?
 5 Yes, the light of the wicked will be put out,
 And the spark of his fire will not shine.
 6 The light will be dark in his tent,
 And his lamp above him will be put out.
 7 The steps of his strength will be straitened,
 And his own counsel will cast him down.
 8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
 And he walks on the toils.
 9 A trap will take [him] by the heel,
 [And] a snare will lay hold on him.
 10 A noose is hid for him in the ground,
 And a trap for him in the way.
 11 Terrors will make him afraid on every side,
 And will chase him at his heels.
 12 His strength will be hunger-bitten,
 And calamity will be ready at his side.
 13 The members of his body will be devoured,
 [Yes,] the firstborn of death will devour his members.
 14 He will be rooted out of his tent in which he trusts;
 And he will be brought to the king of terrors.
 15 There will stay in his tent that which is none of his:
 Brimstone will be scattered on his habitation.
 16 His roots will be dried up beneath,
 And above will his branch be cut off.
 17 His remembrance will perish from the earth,
 And he will have no name in the street.
 18 He will be driven from light into darkness,
 And chased out of the world.
 19 He will have neither son nor son's son among his people,
 Nor any remaining where he sojourned.
 20 Those who come after will be astonished at his day,
 As those who went before were frightened.
 21 Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous,
 And this is the place of him who doesn't know God.

19 Then Job answered and said,
 2 How long will you⁺ vex my soul,
 And break me in pieces with words?
 3 These ten times you⁺ have reproached me:
 You⁺ are not ashamed that you⁺ deal harshly with me.
 4 And if indeed I have erred,
 My error remains with myself.
 5 If indeed you⁺ will magnify yourselves against me,
 And plead against me my reproach;
 6 Know now that God has subverted me [in my cause],
 And has surrounded me with his net.
 7 Look, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard:
 I cry for help, but there is no justice.
 8 He has walled up my way that I can't pass,
 And has set darkness in my paths.

9 He has stripped me of my glory,
 And taken the crown from my head.
 10 He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone;
 And my hope he has plucked up like a tree.
 11 He has also kindled his wrath against me,
 And he counts me to him as [one of] his adversaries.
 12 His troops come on together,
 And cast up their way against me,
 And encamp round about my tent.
 13 He has put my brothers far from me,
 And my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.
 14 My kinsfolk have failed,
 And my familiar friends have forgotten me.
 15 Those who dwell in my house, and my female slaves, count me for a stranger;
 I am an alien in their sight.
 16 I call to my slave, and he gives me no answer,
 [Though] I plead to him with my mouth.
 17 My breath is strange to my wife,
 And my supplication to the sons of my own mother.
 18 Even young children despise me;
 If I arise, they speak against me.
 19 All my familiar friends are disgusted by me,
 And they whom I loved are turned against me.
 20 My bone sticks to my skin and to my flesh,
 And I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.
 21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you⁺ my companions;
 For the hand of God has touched me.
 22 Why do you⁺ persecute me as God,
 And are not satisfied with my flesh?
 23 Oh that my words were now written!
 Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
 24 That with an iron pen and lead
 They were engraved in the rock forever!
 25 But as for me I know that my Redeemer lives,
 And at last he will stand up on the earth:
 26 And after my skin, [even] this [body], is destroyed,
 Then without my flesh will I see God;
 27 Whom I, even I, will see, on my side,
 And my eyes will behold, and not as a stranger.
 My heart is consumed inside me.
 28 If you⁺ say, How we will persecute him!
 And that the root of the matter is found in me;
 29 Be⁺ afraid of the sword:
 For wrath [brings] the punishments of the sword,
 That you⁺ may know there is a judgment.

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,
 2 Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me,
 Even by reason of my haste that is in me.
 3 I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame;
 And the spirit of my understanding answers me.
 4 Do you [not] know this of old time,
 Since man was placed on earth,
 5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
 And the joy of the godless but for a moment?
 6 Though his height mounts up to the heavens,
 And his head reaches to the clouds;
 7 Yet he will perish forever like his own dung:
 Those who have seen him will say, Where is he?
 8 He will fly away as a dream, and will not be found:
 Yes, he will be chased away as a vision of the night.
 9 The eye which saw him will see him no more;
 Neither will his place anymore look at him.
 10 His sons will seek the favor of the poor,
 And his hands will give back his wealth.
 11 His bones are full of his youth,
 But it will lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth,
 Though he hides it under his tongue,
 13 Though he spares it, and will not let it go,
 But keeps it still inside his mouth;
 14 Yet his food in his insides is turned,
 It is the gall of cobras inside him.
 15 He has swallowed down riches, and he will vomit them up again;
 God will cast them out of his belly.
 16 He will suck the poison of cobras:
 The viper's tongue will slay him.
 17 He will not look at the rivers,
 The flowing streams of honey and butter.
 18 That which he labored for he will restore, and will not swallow it down;
 According to the substance that he has gotten, he will not rejoice.
 19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor;
 He has violently taken away a house, and he will not build it up.
 20 Because he knew no quietness inside him,
 He will not save anything of that in which he delights.
 21 There was nothing left that he didn't devour;
 Therefore his prosperity will not endure.
 22 In the fullness of his sufficiency he will be in straits:
 The hand of everyone who is in misery will come upon him.
 23 When he is about to fill his belly,
 [God] will cast the fierceness of his wrath on him,
 And will rain it on him while he is eating.
 24 He will flee from the iron weapon,
 And the bow of bronze will strike him through.
 25 He draws it forth, and it comes out of his back;
 Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall:
 Terrors are on him.
 26 All darkness is laid up for his treasures:
 A fire not blown [by man] will devour him;
 It will consume that which is left in his tent.
 27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity,
 And the earth will rise up against him.
 28 The increase of his house will depart;
 [His goods] will flow away in the day of his wrath.
 29 This is the portion of [the] wicked man from God,
 And the heritage appointed to him by God.

21 Then Job answered and said,
 2 Hear diligently my speech;
 And let this be your⁺ consolations.
 3 Allow me, and I also will speak;
 And after I have spoken, mock on.
 4 As for me, is my complaint to man?
 And why should I not be impatient?
 5 Mark me, and be astonished,
 And lay your⁺ hand on your⁺ mouth.
 6 Even when I remember I am troubled,
 And horror takes hold on my flesh.
 7 Why do the wicked live,
 Become old, yes, wax mighty in power?
 8 Their seed is established with them in their sight,
 And their offspring before their eyes.
 9 Their houses are safe from fear,
 Neither is the rod of God on them.
 10 Their bull genders, and does not fail;
 Their cow calves, and does not cast her calf.
 11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,
 And their children dance.
 12 They sing to the timbrel and harp,
 And rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
 13 They spend their days in prosperity,
 And in a moment they go down to Sheol.

14 And they say to God, Depart from us;
 For we do not desire knowledge of your ways.
 15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
 And what profit should we have, if we pray to him?
 16 Look, their prosperity is not in their hand:
 The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
 17 How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out?
 That their calamity comes on them?
 That [God] distributes sorrows in his anger?
 18 That they are as stubble before the wind,
 And as chaff that the storm carries away?
 19 [You⁺ say], God lays up his iniquity for his sons.
 Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it:
 20 Let his own eyes see his destruction,
 And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
 21 For what does he care for his house after him,
 When the number of his months is cut off?
 22 Will any teach God knowledge,
 Seeing he judges those who are high?
 23 One dies in his full strength,
 Being wholly at ease and quiet:
 24 His pails are full of milk,
 And the marrow of his bones is moistened.
 25 And another dies in bitterness of soul,
 And never tastes of good.
 26 They lie down alike in the dust,
 And the maggot covers them.
 27 Look, I know your⁺ thoughts,
 And the devices with which you⁺ would wrong me.
 28 For you⁺ say, Where is the house of the prince?
 And where is the tent in which the wicked dwelt?
 29 Have you⁺ not asked wayfaring men?
 And don't you⁺ know their evidences,
 30 That the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity?
 That they are led forth to the day of wrath?
 31 Who will declare his way to his face?
 And who will repay him what he has done?
 32 Yet he will be borne to the grave,
 And men will keep watch over the tomb.
 33 The clods of the valley will be sweet to him,
 And all of man will draw after him,
 As there were innumerable before him.
 34 How then do you⁺ comfort me in vain,
 Seeing in your⁺ answers there remains [only] falsehood?

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
 2 Can a [noble] man be profitable to God?
 Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.
 3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous?
 Or is it gain [to him], that you make your ways perfect?
 4 Is it for your fear [of him] that he reproves you,
 That he enters with you into judgment?
 5 Isn't your wickedness great?
 Neither is there any end to your iniquities.
 6 For you have taken pledges of your brother for nothing,
 And stripped the naked of their clothing.
 7 You haven't given water to the weary to drink,
 And you have withheld bread from the hungry.
 8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth;
 And the honorable man, he dwelt in it.
 9 You have sent widows away empty,
 And the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
 10 Therefore snares are round about you,
 And sudden fear troubles you,
 11 Or darkness, so that you can't see,
 And abundance of waters cover you.
 12 Isn't God in the height of heaven?

And look at the height of the stars, how high they are!
 13 And you say, What does God know?
 Can he judge through the thick darkness?
 14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see;
 And he walks on the vault of heaven.
 15 Will you keep the old way
 Which wicked men have trodden?
 16 Who were snatched away before their time,
 Whose foundation was poured out as a stream,
 17 Who said to God, Depart from us;
 And, What can the Almighty do for us?
 18 Yet he filled their houses with good things:
 But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
 19 The righteous see it, and are glad;
 And the innocent laugh them to scorn,
 20 [Saying,] Surely those who rose up against us are cut off,
 And the remnant of them the fire has consumed.
 21 Acquaint now yourself with him, and be at peace:
 By this good will come to you.
 22 Receive, I pray you, the law from his mouth,
 And lay up his words in your heart.
 23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up,
 If you put away unrighteousness far from your tents.
 24 And lay [your] treasure in the dust,
 And [the gold of] Ophir among the stones of the brooks;
 25 And the Almighty will be your treasure,
 And precious silver to you.
 26 For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty,
 And will lift up your face to God.
 27 You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you;
 And you will pay your vows.
 28 You will also decree a thing, and it will be established to you;
 And light will shine on your ways.
 29 When they are cast down, you will say, [There is] lifting up;
 And the humble person he will save.
 30 He will deliver [even] him who is not innocent:
 Yes, he will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.

23 Then Job answered and said,
 2 Even today is my complaint rebellious:
 My hand is heavy on my groaning.
 3 Oh that I knew where I might find him!
 That I might come even to his seat!
 4 I would set my cause in order before him,
 And fill my mouth with arguments.
 5 I would know the words which he would answer me,
 And understand what he would say to me.
 6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
 No; but he would give heed to me.
 7 There the upright might reason with him;
 So should I be delivered forever from my judge.
 8 Look, I go forward, but he is not [there];
 And backward, but I can't perceive him;
 9 On the left hand, when he does work, but I can't behold him;
 He hides himself on the right hand, that I can't see him.
 10 But he knows the way that I take;
 When he has tried me, I will come forth as gold.
 11 My foot has held fast to his steps;
 His way I have kept, and did not turn aside.
 12 I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips;
 I have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.
 13 But he is in one,^a and who can turn him?

And what his soul desires, even that he does.
 14 For he performs that which is appointed for me:
 And many such things are with him.
 15 Therefore I am terrified at his presence;
 When I consider, I am afraid of him.
 16 For God has made my heart faint,
 And the Almighty has terrified me;
 17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness,
 Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

24 Why are times not laid up by the Almighty?
 And why don't those who know him see his days?
 2 They move the landmarks;
 They violently take away flocks, and feed them.
 3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless;
 They take the widow's ox for a pledge.
 4 They turn the needy out of the way:
 The poor of the earth all hide themselves.
 5 Look, as wild donkeys in the desert,
 They go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food;
 The wilderness [yields] them bread for their children.
 6 They cut their fodder in the field;
 And they glean the vintage of the wicked.
 7 They lie all night naked without clothing,
 And have no covering in the cold.
 8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
 And embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
 9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast,
 And take a pledge of the poor;
 10 [So that] they go about naked without clothing,
 And being hungry they carry the sheaves.
 11 They make oil inside their walls;
 They tread [their] winepresses, and suffer thirst.
 12 From out of the populous city men groan,
 And the soul of the wounded cries out:
 Yet God does not regard the folly.
 13 These are of those who rebel against the light;
 They don't know its ways,
 Nor remain in its paths.
 14 The murderer rises with the light;
 He kills the poor and needy;
 And in the night he is as a thief.
 15 The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight,
 Saying, No eye will see me:
 And he disguises his face.
 16 In the dark they dig through houses:
 They shut themselves up in the daytime;
 They don't know the light.
 17 For the morning is to all of them as thick darkness;
 For they know the terrors of the thick darkness.
 18 Swiftly they [pass away] on the face of the waters;
 Their portion is cursed in the earth:
 They don't turn into the way of the vineyards.
 19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters:
 [So does] Sheol [those who] have sinned.
 20 The womb will forget him;
 The maggot will feed sweetly on him;
 He will be remembered no more;
 And unrighteousness will be broken as a tree.
 21 He devours the barren who does not bear,
 And does not do good to the widow.
 22 Yet [God] preserves the mighty by his power:
 He rises up who has no assurance of life.
 23 [God] gives them to be in security, and they rest on it;
 And his eyes are on their ways.

^a he is in one is literal, meaning could be 'he is alone' (i.e. none is equal to him).

- ²⁴ They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone;
Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as a [dried-up] flower,^a
And are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.
²⁵ And if it is not so now, who will prove me a liar,
And make my speech worth nothing?

- 25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,
² Dominion and fear are with him;
He makes peace in his high places.
³ Is there any number of his armies?
And on whom does not his ambush^b arise?
⁴ How then can common man be just with God?
Or how can he be clean who is born of a woman?
⁵ Look, even the moon has no brightness,
And the stars are not pure in his eyes:
⁶ How much less is common man, who is a maggot!
And the son of man, who is a worm!

- 26 Then Job answered and said,
² How you have helped him who is without power!
How you have saved the arm that has no strength!
³ How you have counseled him who has no wisdom,
And plentifully declared sound knowledge!
⁴ To whom have you uttered words?
And whose breath came forth from you?

⁵ The spirits of the dead tremble
Beneath the waters and those that stay in them.^c
⁶ Sheol is naked before [God],
And Abaddon has no covering.
⁷ He stretches out the north over empty space,
And hangs the earth on nothing.
⁸ He binds up the waters in his thick clouds;
And the cloud is not rent under them.
⁹ He encloses the face of the throne,
And spreads his cloud on it.
¹⁰ He has described a boundary on the face of the waters,
To the confines of light and darkness.
¹¹ The pillars of heaven tremble
And are astonished at his rebuke.
¹² He stirs up the sea with his power,
And by his understanding he strikes through Rahab.
¹³ By his Spirit the heavens are garnished;
His hand has pierced the swift serpent.
¹⁴ Look, these are but the outskirts of his ways:
And how small a whisper do we hear of him!
But the thunder of his power who can understand?

- 27 And Job again took up his parable, and said,
² As God lives, who has taken away my right,
And the Almighty, who has vexed my soul
³ (For my life is yet whole in me,
And the breath of God is in my nostrils);
⁴ Surely my lips will not speak unrighteousness,
Neither will my tongue utter deceit.
⁵ Far be it from me that I should justify you*:
Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
⁶ My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go:
My heart will not reproach [me] so long as I live.
⁷ Let my enemy be as the wicked,
And let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.

- ⁸ For what is the hope of the godless, though he gets himself
gain,
When God takes away his soul?
⁹ Will God hear his cry,
When trouble comes on him?
¹⁰ Will he delight himself in the Almighty,
And call on God at all times?
¹¹ I will teach you* concerning the hand of God;
That which is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
¹² Look, all you* yourselves have seen it;
Why then have you* become altogether vain?

¹³ This is the portion of [the] wicked man with God,
And the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty:
¹⁴ If his sons are multiplied, it is for the sword;
And his offspring will not be satisfied with bread.
¹⁵ Those who remain of him will be buried in death,
And his widows will make no lamentation.
¹⁶ Though he heaps up silver as the dust,
And prepares raiment as the clay;
¹⁷ He may prepare it, but the just will put it on,
And the innocent will divide the silver.
¹⁸ He builds his house as the moth,
And as a booth which the keeper makes.
¹⁹ He lies down rich, but he will not be gathered [to his fathers];
He opens his eyes, and he is not.
²⁰ Terrors overtake him like waters;^d
A tempest steals him away in the night.
²¹ The east wind carries him away, and he departs;
And it sweeps him out of his place.
²² For [God] will hurl at him, and not spare:
He would fain flee out of his hand.
²³ Men will clap their hands at him,
And will hiss him out of his place.

- 28 Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place for gold which they refine.
² Iron is taken out of the earth,
And copper is molten out of the stone.
³ [Man] sets an end to darkness,
And searches out, to the furthest bound,
The stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.
⁴ He breaks open a shaft away from where men sojourn;
They are forgotten of the foot;
They hang far from common man, they swing to and fro.
⁵ As for the earth, out of it comes bread;
And underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
⁶ Its stones are the place of sapphires,
And it has dust of gold.
⁷ That path no bird of prey knows,
Neither has the falcon's eye seen it:
⁸ The proud beasts haven't trodden it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed by it.
⁹ He puts forth his hand on the flinty rock;
He overturns the mountains by the roots.
¹⁰ He cuts out channels among the rocks;
And his eye sees every precious thing.
¹¹ He dams up the sources of the rivers;
And the thing that is hid he brings forth to light.

¹² But where will wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
¹³ Common man doesn't know its price;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.

^c those that stay in them refers to animals and other forms of life which live in the waters.

14 The deep says, It is not in me;
 And the sea says, It is not with me.
 15 It can't be obtained for gold,
 Neither will silver be weighed for its price.
 16 It can't be valued with the gold of Ophir,
 With the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
 17 Gold and glass can't equal it,
 Neither will it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
 18 No mention will be made of coral or of crystal:
 Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.
 19 The topaz of Ethiopia will not equal it,
 Neither will it be valued with pure gold.
 20 From where then comes wisdom?
 And where is the place of understanding?
 21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living,
 And kept close from the birds of the heavens.
 22 Destruction and Death say,
 We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.
 23 God understands its way,
 And he knows its place.
 24 For he looks to the ends of the earth,
 And sees under the whole heaven;
 25 To make a weight for the wind:
 Yes, he metes out the waters by measure.
 26 When he made a decree for the rain,
 And a way for the lightning of the thunder;
 27 Then he saw it, and declared it;
 He established it, yes, and searched it out.
 28 And to man he said,
 Look, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom;
 And to depart from evil is understanding.

29 And Job again took up his parable, and said,
 2 Oh that I were as in the months of old,
 As in the days when God watched over me;
 3 When his lamp shined on my head,
 And by his light I walked through darkness;
 4 As I was in the ripeness of my days,
 When the friendship of God was on my tent;
 5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
 And my children were about me;
 6 When my steps were washed with butter,
 And the rock poured me out streams of oil!
 7 When I went forth to the gate to the city,
 When I prepared my seat in the street,
 8 The young men saw me and hid themselves,
 And the aged rose up and stood;
 9 The princes refrained from talking,
 And laid their hand on their mouth;
 10 The voice of the leaders was hushed,
 And their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
 11 For when the ear heard [me], then it blessed me;
 And when the eye saw [me], it gave witness to me:
 12 Because I delivered the poor who cried,
 The fatherless also, who had none to help him.
 13 The blessing of him who was ready to perish came upon me;
 And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me:
 My justice was as a robe and a diadem.
 15 I was eyes to the blind,
 And I was feet to the lame.
 16 I was a father to the needy:
 And the cause of him who I didn't know I searched out.
 17 And I broke the jaws of the unrighteous,
 And plucked the prey out of his teeth.
 18 Then I said, I will die in my nest,
 And I will multiply my days as the sand:

19 My root is spread out to the waters,
 And the dew lies all night on my branch;
 20 My glory is fresh in me,
 And my bow is renewed in my hand.
 21 To me men gave ear, and waited,
 And kept silent for my counsel.
 22 After my words they did not speak again;
 And my speech distilled on them.
 23 And they waited for me as for the rain;
 And they opened their mouth wide [as] for the latter rain.
 24 I smiled on them, when they had no confidence;
 And the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
 25 I chose out their way, and sat [as] chief,
 And stayed as a king in the army,
 As one who comforts the mourners.

30 But now those who are younger than I have me in derision,
 Whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.
 2 Yes, the strength of their hands, whereto should it profit me?
 Men in whom ripe age has perished.
 3 They are gaunt with want and famine;
 They gnaw the desert, in the gloom of wasteness and desolation.
 4 They pluck salt-wort by the bushes;
 And the roots of the broom are their food.
 5 They are driven forth from the midst [of men];
 They cry after them as after a thief;
 6 So that they stay in frightful valleys,
 In holes of the earth and of the rocks.
 7 Among the bushes they bray;
 Under the nettles they are gathered together.
 8 [They are] sons of fools, yes, sons of base men;
 They were scourged out of the land.
 9 And now I have become their song,
 Yes, I am a byword to them.
 10 They are disgusted by me, they stand aloof from me,
 And do not spare to spit in my face.
 11 For he has loosed his cord, and afflicted me;
 And they have cast off the bridle before me.
 12 On my right hand rise the rabble;
 They thrust aside my feet,
 And they cast up against me their ways of destruction.
 13 They mar my path,
 They set forward my calamity,
 [Even] men who have no helper.
 14 As through a wide breach they come:
 In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves [on me].
 15 Terrors are turned on me;
 They chase my honor as the wind;
 And my welfare has passed away as a cloud.
 16 And now my soul is poured out inside me;
 Days of affliction have taken hold on me.
 17 In the night season my bones are pierced in me,
 And the [pains] that gnaw me take no rest.
 18 By [God's] great force is my garment disfigured;
 It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
 19 He has cast me into the mire,
 And I have become like dust and ashes.
 20 I cry to you, and you do not answer me:
 I stand up, and you gaze at me.
 21 You have turned to be cruel to me;
 With the might of your hand you persecute me.
 22 You lift me up to the wind, you cause me to ride [on it];
 And you dissolve me in the storm.
 23 For I know that you will bring me to death,
 And to the house appointed for all living.
 24 Nevertheless, does not one stretch out his hand when he falls?

And, when he is ruined, cry for help because of it?^a 25 Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble?
 Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy?
 26 When I looked for good, then evil came;
 And when I waited for light, there came darkness.
 27 My insides are troubled, and do not rest;
 Days of affliction have come upon me.
 28 I go mourning without the sun:
 I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
 29 I am a brother to jackals,
 And a companion to ostriches.
 30 My skin is black, [and falls] from me,
 And my bones are burned with heat.
 31 Therefore my harp is [turned] to mourning,
 And my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

31 I made a covenant with my eyes;
 How then should I look at a virgin?
 2 For what is the portion from God above,
 And the heritage from the Almighty on high?
 3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous,
 And disaster to the workers of iniquity?
 4 Doesn't he see my ways,
 And number all my steps?
 5 If I have walked with falsehood,
 And my foot has hurried to deceit
 6 (Let me be weighed in an even balance,
 That God may know my integrity);
 7 If my step has turned out of the way,
 And my heart walked after my eyes,
 And if any spot has stuck to my hands:
 8 Then let me sow, and let another eat;
 Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.
 9 If my heart has been enticed to a woman,
 And I have laid wait at my fellow man's door;
 10 Then let my wife grind to another,
 And let others have sex with her.^b
 11 For that were a heinous crime;
 Yes, it were an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
 12 For it is a fire that consumes to Destruction,
 And would root out all my increase.
 13 If I have despised the cause of my male slave or of my female slave,
 When they contended with me;
 14 What then shall I do when God rises up?
 And when he visits, what shall I answer him?
 15 Did not he who made me in the womb make him?
 And did not one fashion us in the womb?
 16 If I have withheld the poor from [their] desire,
 Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,
 17 Or have eaten my morsel alone,
 And the fatherless has not eaten of it
 18 (No, from my youth he^c grew up with me as with a father,
 And her^d I have guided from my mother's womb);
 19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
 Or that the needy had no covering;
 20 If his loins haven't blessed me,
 And if he has not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
 21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
 Because I saw my help in the gate:
 22 Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder-blade,
 And my arm be broken from the bone.
 23 For calamity from God is a terror to me,
 And by reason of his splendor I can do nothing.

24 If I have made gold my hope,
 And have said to the fine gold, [You are] my confidence;
 25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 And because my hand had gotten much;
 26 If I have seen the sun when it shined,
 Or the moon walking in brightness,
 27 And my heart has been secretly enticed,
 And my mouth has kissed my hand:
 28 This also was an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
 For I should have denied the God who is above.
 29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
 Or lifted up myself when evil found him
 30 (Yes, I haven't allowed my mouth to sin
 By asking for his soul with a curse);
 31 If the men of my tent haven't said,
 Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?
 32 (The sojourner has not lodged in the street;
 But I have opened my doors to the traveler);
 33 If like man I have covered my transgressions,
 By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,
 34 Because I feared the great multitude,
 And the contempt of families terrified me,
 So that I kept silent, and didn't go out of the door-
 35 Oh that I had one to hear me!
 (Look, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me);
 And [that I had] the indictment which my adversary has written!
 36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
 I would bind it to me as a crown:
 37 I would declare to him the number of my steps;
 As a leader I would go near to him.
 38 If my land cries out against me,
 And its furrows weep together;
 39 If I have eaten its fruits without silver,
 Or have caused its owners to breathe out their soul:
 40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat,
 And cockle instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ² Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified his soul rather than
 God. ³ Also against his three companions was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned
 Job. ⁴ Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were older than he. ⁵ And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

⁶ And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said,
 I am young, and you⁺ are very old;
 Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you⁺ my opinion.
⁷ I said, Days should speak,
 And multitude of years should teach wisdom.
⁸ But there is a spirit in common man,
 And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.
⁹ It is not the great who are wise,
 Nor the aged who understand justice.
¹⁰ Therefore I said, Listen to me;
 I also will show my opinion.
¹¹ Look, I waited for your⁺ words,
 I listened for your⁺ reasonings,
 While you⁺ searched out what to say.

^c i.e. the orphan

^d i.e. the widow

12 Yes, I attended to you*,
 And, look, there was none who convinced Job,
 Or that answered his words, among you*.
 13 Beware you* don't say, We have found wisdom;
 God may vanquish him, not man:
 14 For he has not directed his words against me;
 Neither will I answer him with your* speeches.
 15 They are amazed, they answer no more:
 They haven't a word to say.
 16 And shall I wait, because they don't speak,
 Because they stand still, and answer no more?
 17 I also will answer my part,
 I also will show my opinion.
 18 For I am full of words;
 The spirit inside me constrains me.
 19 Look, my breast is as wine which has no vent;
 Like blacksmith's bellows it is ready to burst.
 20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed;
 I will open my lips and answer.
 21 Don't let me, I pray you*, respect a man's person;
 Neither will I give flattering titles to any among man.
 22 For I don't know to give flattering titles;
 [Else] would my Maker soon take me away.
33 Nevertheless, Job, I pray you, hear my speech,
 And listen to all my words.
 2 Look now, I have opened my mouth;
 My tongue has spoken in my mouth.
 3 My words [will utter] the uprightness of my heart;
 And that which my lips know they will speak sincerely.
 4 The Spirit of God has made me,
 And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
 5 If you can, answer me;
 Set [your words] in order before me, stand forth.
 6 Look, I am toward God even as you are:
 I also am formed out of the clay.
 7 Look, my terror will not make you afraid,
 Neither will my pressure be heavy on you.
 8 Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
 And I have heard the voice of [your] words, [saying,]
 9 I am clean, without transgression;
 I am pure, neither is there iniquity in me:
 10 Look, he finds occasions against me,
 He counts me for his enemy:
 11 He puts my feet in the stocks,
 He marks all my paths.
 12 Look, I will answer you, in this you are not just;
 For God is greater than common man.
 13 Why do you strive against him
 Because he doesn't give account of any of his matters?
 14 For God speaks once,
 Yes twice, [though man] does not regard it.
 15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
 When deep sleep falls on men,
 In slumberings on the bed;
 16 Then he opens the ears of men,
 And seals their warning,
 17 That he may withdraw man [from his] purpose,
 And hide pride from a [noble] man;
 18 He keeps back his soul from the pit,
 And his life from perishing by the sword.
 19 He is chastened also with pain on his bed,
 And with continual strife in his bones;
 20 So that his life abhors bread,
 And his soul dainty food.
 21 His flesh is consumed away, that it can't be seen;

And his bones that were not seen stick out.
 22 Yes, his soul draws near to the pit,
 And his life to the destroyers.
 23 If there is with him an angel,
 An interpreter, one among a thousand,
 To show to man what is right for him;
 24 Then [God] is gracious to him, and says,
 Protect him from going down to the pit,
 I have found a ransom.
 25 His flesh becomes fresher than a child's;
 He returns to the days of his youth.
 26 He prays to God, and he is favorable to him,
 So that he sees his face with joy:
 And he restores to common man his righteousness.
 27 He sings before men, and says,
 I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,
 And it didn't profit me:
 28 He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit,
 And my life will see the light.
 29 Look, God works all these things,
 Twice, [yes] thrice, with a [noble] man,
 30 To bring back his soul from the pit,
 That he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
 31 Mark well, O Job, listen to me:
 Hold your peace, and I will speak.
 32 If you have anything to say, answer me:
 Speak, for I desire to justify you.
 33 If not, listen to me:
 Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom.
34 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
 2 Hear my words, you* wise men;
 And give ear to me, you* who have knowledge.
 3 For the ear tries words,
 As the palate tastes food.
 4 Let us choose for us that which is right:
 Let us know among ourselves what is good.
 5 For Job has said, I am righteous,
 And God has taken away my right:
 6 Against my right he has lied;
 My wound is incurable, [though I am] without transgression.
 7 What [noble] man is like Job,
 Who drinks up scoffing like water,
 8 Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity,
 And walks with wicked men?
 9 For he has said, It profits a [noble] man nothing
 That he should delight himself with God.
 10 Therefore listen to me, you* men of understanding:
 Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness,
 And from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
 11 For the work of man he will render to him,
 And cause a man to find according to his ways.
 12 Yes, certainly, God will not do wickedly,
 Neither will the Almighty pervert justice.
 13 Who gave him a charge over the earth?
 Or who has disposed the whole world?
 14 If he sets his heart on himself,
 [If] he gathers to himself his spirit and his breath;
 15 All flesh will perish together,
 And man will turn again to dust.

16 If now [you have] understanding, hear this:
 Listen to the voice of my words.
 17 Will even one who hates justice govern?
 And will you condemn him who is righteous [and] mighty?—
 18 [Him] who says to a king, [You are] vile,
 [Or] to nobles, [You⁺ are] wicked;
 19 Who does not respect the persons of princes,
 Nor show favoritism to the rich more than the poor;
 For all of them are the work of his hands.
 20 In a moment they die, even at midnight;
 The people are shaken and pass away,
 And the mighty are taken away without a [human] hand.
 21 For his eyes are on the ways of a man,
 And he sees all his goings.
 22 There is no darkness, nor thick gloom,
 Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
 23 For he does not need further to consider a man,
 That he should go before God in judgment.
 24 He breaks in pieces mighty men [in ways] past finding out,
 And sets others in their stead.
 25 Therefore he takes knowledge of their works;
 And he overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
 26 He strikes them as wicked men
 In the open sight of others;
 27 Because they turned aside from following him,
 And would not have regard to any of his ways:
 28 So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him,
 And he heard the cry of the afflicted.
 29 When he gives quietness, who then can condemn?
 And when he hides his face, who then can see him?
 Alike whether [it is done] to a nation, or to man:
 30 He makes king [the] godless man
 From among the seducers of the people.
 31 For has any said to God,
 I have borne [chastisement], I will not offend [anymore]:
 32 That which I do not see, teach me:
 If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more?
 33 Will his recompense be as you will, that you refuse it?
 For you must choose, and not I:
 Therefore speak what you know.
 34 Men of understanding will say to me,
 And the wise [noble] man will listen to me:
 35 Job speaks without knowledge,
 And his words are without wisdom.
 36 Oh that Job were tried to the end,
 Because of his answering like wicked men.
 37 For he adds rebellion to his sin;
 He claps his hands among us,
 And multiplies his words against God.

35 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
 2 Do you think this to be [your] right,
 [Or] do you say, My righteousness is more than God's,
 3 That you say, What advantage will it be to you?
 [And], What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?
 4 I will answer you,
 And your companions with you.
 5 Look to the heavens, and see;
 And look at the skies, which are higher than you.
 6 If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him?
 And if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
 7 If you are righteous, what do you give him?
 Or what does he receive of your hand?
 8 Your wickedness [may hurt] a man as you are;
 And your righteousness [may profit] a son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
 They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
 10 But none says, Where is God my Maker,
 Who gives songs in the night,
 11 Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
 And makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?
 12 There they cry, but none gives answer,
 Because of the pride of evil men.
 13 Surely God will not hear an empty [cry],
 Neither will the Almighty regard it.
 14 How much less when you say you don't see him,
 The cause is before him, and you wait for him!
 15 But now, because he has not visited in his anger,
 Neither does he greatly regard foolishness;
 16 Therefore Job opens his mouth in vanity;
 He multiplies words without knowledge.

36 Elihu also proceeded, and said,
 2 Allow me a little, and I will show you;
 For I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf.
 3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
 And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
 4 For truly my words are not false:
 One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
 5 Look, God is mighty, and does not despise any:
 He is mighty in strength of understanding.
 6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked,
 But gives to the afflicted [their] right.
 7 He doesn't withdraw his eyes from the righteous:
 But with kings on the throne
 He sets them forever, and they are exalted.
 8 And if they are bound in fetters,
 And are taken in the cords of affliction;
 9 Then he shows them their work,
 And their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
 10 He opens also their ear to instruction,
 And commands that they return from iniquity.
 11 If they listen and serve [him],
 They will spend their days in prosperity,
 And their years in pleasures.
 12 But if they don't listen, they will perish by the sword,
 And they will die without knowledge.
 13 But those who are godless in heart lay up anger:
 They don't cry for help when he binds them.
 14 Their soul dies in youth,
 And their life [perishes] among the homosexuals.
 15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction,
 And opens their ear in oppression.
 16 Yes, he would have allured you out of the mouth of distress
 Into a broad place, where there is no straitness;
 And that which is set on your table would be full of fatness.
 17 But you are full of the judgment of the wicked:
 Judgment and justice take hold [on you].
 18 For beware that wrath doesn't stir you up against chastisements;
 Neither let the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.
 19 Will your cry avail, [that you are] not in distress,
 Or all the forces of [your] strength?
 20 Do not desire the night,
 When peoples are cut off in their place.
 21 Take heed, do not regard iniquity:
 For this you have chosen rather than affliction.
 22 Look, God does loftily in his power:
 Who is a teacher like him?
 23 Who has enjoined him his way?
 Or who can say, You have wrought unrighteousness?

24 Remember that you magnify his work,
 Of which men have sung.
 25 All of man have looked on it;
 Common man watches it far off.
 26 Look, God is great, and we don't know him;
 The number of his years is unsearchable.
 27 For he draws up the drops of water,
 Which distill in rain from his vapor,
 28 Which the skies pour down
 And drop on man abundantly.
 29 Yes, can any understand the spreadings of the clouds,
 The thunderings of his pavilion?
 30 Look, he spreads his light around him;
 And he covers the bottom of the sea.
 31 For by these he judges the peoples;
 He gives food in abundance.
 32 He covers his hands with the lightning,
 And gives it a charge that it strikes the mark.
 33 The noise of it tells concerning him,
 The cattle also [tell] concerning [the storm] that comes up.

37 Yes, at this my heart trembles,
 And is moved out of its place.
 2 Hear carefully the noise of his voice,
 And the sound that goes out of his mouth.
 3 He sends it forth under the whole heaven,
 And his lightning to the ends of the earth.
 4 After it a voice roars;
 He thunders with the voice of his splendor;
 And he does not restrain [the lightnings] when his voice is heard.
 5 God thunders marvelously with his voice;
 Great things he does, which we can't comprehend.
 6 For he says to the snow, Fall on the earth;
 Likewise to the shower of rain,
 And to the showers of his mighty rain.
 7 He seals up the hand of all of man,
 That all men whom he has made may know [it].
 8 Then the beasts go into coverts,
 And stay in their dens.
 9 Out of the chamber [of the south] comes the storm,
 And cold out of the north.
 10 By the breath of God ice is given;
 And the width of the waters is straitened.
 11 Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture;
 He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning:
 12 And it is turned round about by his guidance,
 That they may do whatever he commands them
 On the face of the habitable world,
 13 Whether it is for correction, or for his land,
 Or for loving-kindness, that he causes it to come.
 14 Listen to this, O Job:
 Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
 15 Do you know how God lays [his charge] on them,
 And causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
 16 Do you know the balancings of the clouds,
 The wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
 17 How your garments are warm,
 When the earth is still by reason of the south [wind]?
 18 Can you with him spread out the sky,
 Which is strong as a molten mirror?
 19 Teach us what we will say to him;
 [For] we can't set [our speech] in order by reason of darkness.
 20 Will it be told to him that I would speak?
 Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?

21 And now men don't see the light which is bright in the skies;
 But the wind passes, and clears them.
 22 Out of the north comes golden splendor:
 God has on him awesome grandeur.
 23 [Concerning] the Almighty, we can't find him out:
 He is excellent in power;
 And in justice and plenteous righteousness he will not afflict.
 24 Men therefore fear him:
 He does not regard any who are wise of heart.
38 Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
 2 Who is this that darkens counsel
 By words without knowledge?
 3 Gird up now your loins like a [noble] man;
 For I will demand of you, and you declare to me.
 4 Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
 Declare, if you have understanding.
 5 Who determined its measures, if you know?
 Or who stretched the line on it?
 6 On what were its foundations fastened?
 Or who laid its cornerstone,
 7 When the morning stars sang together,
 And all the sons of God shouted for joy?
 8 Or [who] shut up the sea with doors,
 When it broke forth, [as if] it had issued out of the womb;
 9 When I made clouds its garment,
 And thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,
 10 And marked out for it my bound,
 And set bars and doors,
 11 And said, This far you will come, but no further;
 And here will your proud waves be placed?
 12 Have you commanded the morning since your days [began],
 [And] caused the sunrise to know its place;
 13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
 And the wicked be shaken out of it?
 14 It is changed as clay under the seal;
 And [all things] stand forth as a garment:
 15 And from the wicked their light is withheld,
 And the high arm is broken.
 16 Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
 Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
 17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
 Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
 18 Have you comprehended the earth in its width?
 Declare, if you know it all.
 19 Where is the way to the place that light stays?
 And as for darkness, where is its place,
 20 That you should take it to its bound,
 And that you should discern the paths to its house?
 21 [Doubtless], you know, for you were then born,
 And the number of your days is great!
 22 Have you entered the treasures of the snow,
 Or have you seen the treasures of the hail,
 23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
 Against the day of battle and war?
 24 Where is the way to the place that light is distributed,
 Or [from where is] the east wind scattered on the earth?
 25 Who has cleft a channel for the floodwater,
 And a way for the lightning of the thunder;
 26 To cause it to rain on a land where there is not a man;
 On the wilderness, in which there is not man;
 27 To satisfy the waste and desolate [ground],
 And to cause the tender grass to spring forth?

28 Has the rain a father?
 Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
 29 Out of whose womb came the ice?
 And the frost of heaven, who has given birth to it?
 30 The waters hide themselves [and become] like stone,
 And the face of the deep is frozen.
 31 Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades,
 Or loose the bands of Orion?
 32 Can you lead forth the Mazzaroth in their season?
 Or can you guide the Bear with her train?
 33 Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?
 Can you establish their dominion in the earth?
 34 Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
 That abundance of waters may cover you?
 35 Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go,
 And say to you, Here we are?
 36 Who has put wisdom in the ibis?^a
 Or who has given understanding to the rooster?
 37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
 Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven,
 38 When the dust runs into a mass,
 And the clods are stuck together?
 39 Can you hunt the prey for the lioness,
 Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
 40 When they couch in their dens,
 [And] remain in the covert to lie in wait?
 41 Who provides for the raven his prey,
 When his young ones cry to God,
 [And] wander for lack of food?
39 Do you know the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth?
 [Or] can you mark when the hinds calve?
 2 Can you number the months that they fulfill?
 Or do you know the time when they bring forth?
 3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young,
 They cast out their pains.
 4 Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open field;
 They go forth, and don't return again.
 5 Who has sent out the wild donkey free?
 Or who has loosed the bonds of the swift donkey,
 6 Whose home I have made the wilderness,
 And the salt land his dwelling-place?
 7 He scorns the tumult of the city,
 Neither does he hear the shoutings of the driver.
 8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
 And he searches after every green thing.
 9 Will the wild-ox be content to serve you?
 Or will he spend the night by your crib?
 10 Can you bind the wild-ox with his band in the furrow?
 Or will he harrow the valleys after you?
 11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great?
 Or will you leave to him your labor?
 12 Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed,
 And gather [the grain] of your threshing-floor?
 13 The wings of the ostrich wave proudly;
 [But] is it a pious plumage and down? ^b
 14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth,
 And warms them in the dust,
 15 And forgets that the foot may crush them,
 Or that the wild beast may trample them.

^a a bird in ancient Egypt

16 She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers:
 Though her labor is in vain, [she is] without fear;
 17 Because God has deprived her of wisdom,
 Neither has he imparted to her understanding.
 18 What time she lifts up herself on high,
 She scorns the horse and his rider.
 19 Have you given the horse [his] might?
 Have you clothed his neck with the quivering mane?
 20 Have you made him to leap as a locust?
 The grandeur of his snorting is terrible.
 21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength:
 He goes out to meet the armed men.
 22 He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed;
 Neither does he turn back from the sword.
 23 The quiver rattles against him,
 The flashing spear and the javelin.
 24 He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage;
 Neither does he believe that it is the voice of the trumpet.
 25 As often as the trumpet [sounds] he says, Aha!
 And he smells the battle far off,
 The thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
 26 Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars,
 [And] stretches her wings toward the south?
 27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up,
 And makes her nest on high?
 28 On the cliff she dwells, and makes her home,
 On the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
 29 From there she spies out the prey;
 Her eyes watch it far off.
 30 Her young ones also suck up blood:
 And where the slain are, there she is.
40 Moreover Yahweh answered Job, and said,
 2 Will he who criticizes contend with the Almighty?
 He who argues with God, let him answer it.
 3 Then Job answered Yahweh, and said,
 4 Look, I am of small account; What shall I answer you?
 I lay my hand on my mouth.
 5 Once I have spoken, and I will not answer;
 Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further.
 6 Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
 7 Gird up your loins now like a [noble] man:
 I will demand of you, and you declare to me.
 8 Will you even annul my judgment?
 Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?
 9 Or do you have an arm like God?
 And can you thunder with a voice like him?
 10 Deck yourself now with excellency and dignity;
 And array yourself with grandeur and majesty.
 11 Pour forth the overflowings of your anger;
 And look at everyone who is proud, and abase him.
 12 Look at everyone who is proud, [and] bring him low;
 And tread down the wicked where they stand.
 13 Hide them in the dust together;
 Bind their faces in the hidden [place].
 14 Then I will also confess of you
 That your own right hand can save you.
 15 Now look at behemoth, which I made as well as you;
 He eats grass as an ox.
 16 See now, his strength is in his loins,
 And his force is in the muscles of his belly.

- ¹⁷ He moves his tail like a cedar:
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
- ¹⁸ His bones are [as] tubes of bronze;
His limbs are like bars of iron.
- ¹⁹ He is the chief of the ways of God:
[Only] he who made him brings his sword near.
- ²⁰ Surely the mountains bring him forth food,
Where all the beasts of the field play.
- ²¹ He lies under the lotus-trees,
In the covert of the reed, and the fen.
- ²² The lotus-trees cover him with their shade;
The willows of the brook circle him about.
- ²³ Look, if a river overflows, he does not tremble;
He is confident, though a Jordan swells even to his mouth.
- ²⁴ Will any take him before his eyes,
Or pierce through his nose with a snare?

- 41 Can you draw out leviathan with a fishhook?
Or press down his tongue with a cord?
- ² Can you put a rope into his nose?
Or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
- ³ Will he make many supplications to you?
Or will he speak soft words to you?
- ⁴ Will he make a covenant with you,
That you should take him for a slave forever?
- ⁵ Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him for your maidens?
- ⁶ Will the bands [of fishermen] make traffic of him?
Will they part him among the merchants?
- ⁷ Can you fill his skin with barbed irons,
Or his head with fish-spears?
- ⁸ Lay your hand on him;
Remember the battle, and do so no more.
- ⁹ Look, the hope of him is in vain:
Will not one be overcome even at the sight of him?
- ¹⁰ None is so fierce that he dare stir him up;
Who then is he that can stand before me?
- ¹¹ Who has first given to me, that I should repay him?
- ¹² I will not keep silent concerning his limbs,
Nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
- ¹³ Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who will come inside his jaws?
- ¹⁴ Who can open the doors of his face?
Around his teeth is terror.
- ¹⁵ [His] strong scales are [his] back,
Shut up together [as with] a close seal.
- ¹⁶ One is so near to another,
That no air can come between them.
- ¹⁷ They are stuck [as close as] a man to his brother;
They join together, so that they can't be sundered.
- ¹⁸ His sneezings flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
- ¹⁹ Out of his mouth go burning torches,
And sparks of fire leap forth.
- ²⁰ Out of his nostrils a smoke goes,
As of a boiling pot and [burning] rushes.
- ²¹ His soul kindles coals,
And a flame goes forth from his mouth.
- ²² In his neck resides strength,
And terror dances before him.
- ²³ The flakes of his flesh are stuck:
They are firm on him; they can't be moved.
- ²⁴ His heart is as firm as a stone;
Yes, firm as the nether millstone.
- ²⁵ When he raises himself up, the gods are afraid:
By reason of consternation they are beside themselves.
- ²⁶ If one lays at him with the sword, it can't avail;

- Nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.
- ²⁷ He counts iron as straw,
[And] bronze as rotten wood.
- ²⁸ The arrow can't make him flee:
Sling-stones are turned with him into stubble.
- ²⁹ Clubs are counted as stubble:
He laughs at the rushing of the javelin.
- ³⁰ His underparts are [like] sharp potsherds:
He spreads [as it were] a threshing-wain on the mire.
- ³¹ He makes the deep to boil like a pot:
He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
- ³² He makes a path to shine after him;
One would think the deep to be gray-headed.
- ³³ On earth there is not his like,
That is made without fear.
- ³⁴ He beholds everything that is high:
He is king over all the sons of pride.

- 42 Then Job answered Yahweh, and said,
² I know that you can do all things,
And that no purpose of yours can be restrained.
- ³ Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?
Therefore I have uttered that which I didn't understand,
Things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know.
- ⁴ Hear, I urge you, and I will speak;
I will demand of you, and declare you to me.
- ⁵ I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear;
But now my eye sees you:
- ⁶ Therefore I abhor [myself],
And repent in dust and ashes.
- ⁷ And it was so, that, after Yahweh had spoken these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two companions; for you⁺ have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my slave Job has.
- ⁸ Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my slave Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my slave Job will pray for you⁺; for him I will accept, that I do not deal with you⁺ after your⁺ folly; for you⁺ have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my slave Job has. ⁹ So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according to as Yahweh commanded them: and Yahweh accepted Job.
- ¹⁰ And Yahweh turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his companions: and Yahweh gave Job twice as much as he had before. ¹¹ Then there came to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that Yahweh had brought on him: every man also gave him a kesitah [of silver], and every one a ring of gold. ¹² So Yahweh blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: And he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-donkeys. ¹³ He had also seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ And he called the name of the first, Jemimah: and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. ¹⁵ And in all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brothers. ¹⁶ And after this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, [even] four generations. ¹⁷ So Job died, being old and full of days.

Psalms

1 BOOK I.

Blessed is the man
 who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked;
 and in the way of sinners, does not stand,
 and in the seat of scoffers, does not sit.
² But rather in the law of Yahweh, does he delight;
 and in his law does he meditate, day and night.
³ And he is like a tree planted by streams of water:
 its fruit it yields in season,
 and its leaf does not wither,
 and in all that he does, he prospers.
⁴ Not so are the wicked:
 but rather they are like chaff, which is blown away by the wind.
⁵ Therefore, the wicked will not stand in the judgment;
 nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
⁶ For Yahweh knows the way of the righteous;
 But the way of the wicked, will perish.

2 Why do the nations rage,
 And the peoples meditate a vain thing?
² The kings of the earth set themselves,
 And the rulers take counsel together,
 Against Yahweh, and against his anointed, [saying.]
³ Let us break apart their bonds,
 And cast away from us their cords.
⁴ He who sits in the heavens will laugh:
 The Lord will have them in derision.
⁵ Then he will speak to them in his wrath,
 And in his intense displeasure, he will vex them:
⁶ Yet I have set my king
 On Zion my holy hill.
⁷ I will tell of the decree:
 Yahweh said to me,
 You are my son;
 This day I have begotten you.
⁸ Ask of me, and I will give [you] the nations for your inheritance;
 And for your possession, the uttermost parts of the earth.
⁹ You will shepherd^a them with a rod of iron;
 Like a potter's vessel, you will dash them in pieces.
¹⁰ Now therefore you⁺ kings, be wise;
 Be instructed, you⁺ judges of the earth.
¹¹ Serve Yahweh with fear,
 And rejoice with trembling.
¹² Embrace purity^b, or else he will be angry,
 and you⁺ will perish in the way,
 For his wrath will soon be kindled.
 Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

3 A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

Yahweh, how are my adversaries increased!
 Many are those who rise up against me.
² Many there are who say of my soul,
 There is no help for him in God. Selah.
³ But you, O Yahweh, are a shield about me;
 My glory and the lifter up of my head.
⁴ I cry to Yahweh with my voice,
 And he answers me out of his holy hill. Selah.
⁵ I laid myself down and slept; I awakened;
 For Yahweh sustains me.
⁶ I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people
 Who have set themselves against me round about.
⁷ Arise, O Yahweh; save me, O my God:
 For you have struck all my enemies on the cheek bone;
 You have broken the teeth of the wicked.
⁸ Salvation belongs to Yahweh:
 Your blessing be on your people. Selah.

4 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness;
 You have set me at large [when I was] in distress: Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.
² O you⁺ sons of a man,^c how long will my glory be turned into dishonor? Will you⁺ love vanity?
 Will you⁺ seek after falsehood? Selah.
³ But know that Yahweh has set apart for himself him who is godly:
 Yahweh will hear when I call to him.
⁴ Stand in awe, and don't sin:
 Commune with your⁺ own heart on your⁺ bed, and be still.
 Selah.
⁵ Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
 And put your⁺ trust in Yahweh.
⁶ Many there are that say, Who will show us [any] good?
 Yahweh, lift up the light of your countenance on us.
⁷ You have put gladness in my heart,
 More than [they have] when their grain and their new wine are increased.
⁸ In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep;
 For you, Yahweh, alone make me dwell in safety.

5 For the Chief Musician; with the Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

Give ear to my words, O Yahweh,
 consider my meditation.
² Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God,
 for to you I will pray.
³ O Yahweh, in the morning you will hear my voice;
 In the morning I will order [my prayer] to you, and will keep watch.
⁴ For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness:
 Evil will not sojourn with you.

^a shepherd, traditionally read 'break'. 'Shepherd' follows the LXX and the Hebrew in the MT, but with different vowel pointing.

^b Embrace purity partly follows LXX interpretation (i.e. 'accept correction' or 'embrace discipline'). MT could be literally, 'Kiss cleanness/purity'. Some interpret this as 'Kiss the son' possibly by textual correction or accepting an Aramaic definition in this Hebrew text.

^c See footnote at Psalm 49:2.

⁵ The arrogant will not stand in your sight;
You hate all workers of iniquity.
⁶ You will destroy those who speak lies:
Yahweh is disgusted by the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

⁷ But as for me, in the abundance of your loving-kindness I will come into your house:

In your fear I will worship toward your holy temple.

⁸ Lead me, O Yahweh, in your righteousness because of my enemies;

Make your way straight before my face.

⁹ For there is no faithfulness in their mouth;

Their inward part is much wickedness;

Their throat is an open tomb;

They flatter with their tongue.

¹⁰ Hold them guilty, O God;

Let them fall by their own counsels;

Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions;

For they have rebelled against you.

¹¹ But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice,

Let them ever shout for joy,

Because you defend them:

Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.

¹² For you will bless the righteous; O Yahweh,
you will circle him with favor as with a shield.

6 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

O Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your anger,
Neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

² Have mercy on me, O Yahweh; for I am withered away:
Heal me, O Yahweh; for my bones are troubled.

³ My soul also is intensely troubled:

And you, O Yahweh, how long?

⁴ Return, O Yahweh, deliver my soul:

Save me for your loving-kindness' sake.

⁵ For in death there is no remembrance of you:

In Sheol who will give you thanks?

⁶ I am weary with my groaning;

Every night I make my bed to swim;

I water my couch with my tears.

⁷ My eye wastes away because of grief;

It waxes old because of all my adversaries.

⁸ Depart from me, all you* workers of iniquity;

For Yahweh has heard the voice of my weeping.

⁹ Yahweh has heard my supplication;

Yahweh will receive my prayer.

¹⁰ All my enemies will be put to shame and intensely troubled:

They will turn back, they will be put to shame suddenly.

7 Shiggaion of David, which he sang to Yahweh, concerning the words of Cush a Benjamite.

O Yahweh my God, in you I take refuge:

Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me,

² Or else they will tear my soul like a lion,

Rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

³ O Yahweh my God, if I have done this;

If there is iniquity in my hands;

⁴ If I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me;

(Yes, I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary;)

⁵ Let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;

Yes, let him tread my life down to the earth,

And cause my glory to stay in the dust. Selah.

⁶ Arise, O Yahweh, in your anger;

Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries,
And awake for me; you have commanded judgment.

⁷ And let the congregation of the peoples circle you about;
And over them you return on high.

⁸ Yahweh will judge the peoples:

Judge me, O Yahweh, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me.

⁹ Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but you establish the righteous:

For, the righteous God tries the minds and hearts.

¹⁰ My shield is with God,

Who saves the upright in heart.

¹¹ God is a righteous judge,

Yes, a God who has indignation every day.

¹² If a man doesn't turn, he will whet his sword;

He has bent his bow, and made it ready.

¹³ He has also prepared for him the instruments of death;

He makes his arrows fiery [shafts].

¹⁴ Look, he travails with iniquity;

Yes, he has become pregnant with mischief, and given birth to falsehood.

¹⁵ He has made a pit, and dug it,

And has fallen into the ditch which he made.

¹⁶ His mischief will return on his own head,

And his violence will come down on the top of his own head.

¹⁷ I will give thanks to Yahweh according to his righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of Yahweh Most High.

8 For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of David.

O Yahweh, our Lord,

How majestic is your name in all the earth,

Who has set your grandeur on the heavens!

² Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings you have established strength,

Because of your adversaries,

That you might still the enemy and the avenger.

³ When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,

The moon and the stars, which you have appointed;

⁴ What is common man, that you are mindful of him?

And the son of man, that you visit him?

⁵ For you have made him but a little lower than God,

And crown him with glory and majesty.

⁶ You make him to have dominion over the works of your hands;

You have put all things under his feet:

⁷ All sheep and oxen,

Yes, and the beasts of the field,

⁸ The birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,

Whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

⁹ O Yahweh, our Lord,

How majestic is your name in all the earth!

9 For the Chief Musician; set to Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.

I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart;

I will show forth all your marvelous works.

² I will be glad and exult in you;

I will sing praise to your name, O you Most High.

³ When my enemies turn back,

They stumble and perish at your presence.

⁴ For you have maintained my right and my cause;

You sit in the throne judging righteously.

- ⁵ You have rebuked the nations, you have destroyed the wicked;
You have blotted out their name forever and ever.
- ⁶ The enemy have come to an end, they are desolate forever;
And the cities which you have overthrown,
The very remembrance of them has perished.
- ⁷ But Yahweh sits [as king] forever:
He has prepared his throne for judgment;
- ⁸ And he will judge the world in righteousness,
He will judge the peoples in uprightness.
- ⁹ Yahweh also will be a high tower for the oppressed,
A high tower in times of trouble;
- ¹⁰ And those who know your name will put their trust in you;
For you, Yahweh, have not forsaken those who seek you.
- ¹¹ Sing praises to Yahweh, who dwells in Zion:
Declare among the people his doings.
- ¹² For he who makes inquisition for blood remembers them;
He does not forget the cry of the poor.
- ¹³ Have mercy on me, O Yahweh;
Look at my affliction [which I suffer] of those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death;
- ¹⁴ That I may show forth all your praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in your salvation.
- ¹⁵ The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made:
In the net which they hid is their own foot taken.
- ¹⁶ Yahweh has made himself known, he has executed judgment:
The wicked stumbles in the work of his own hands.
Higgaion. Selah.
- ¹⁷ The wicked will be turned back to Sheol,
Even all the nations that forget God.
- ¹⁸ For the needy will not always be forgotten,
Nor the expectation of the poor perish forever.
- ¹⁹ Arise, O Yahweh; Don't let common man prevail:
Let the nations be judged in your sight.
- ²⁰ Put them in fear, O Yahweh:
Let the nations know themselves to be but common man.
Selah.

- 10 Why do you stand far off, O Yahweh?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- ² In the pride of the wicked the poor is hotly pursued;
Let them be taken in the devices that they have conceived.
- ³ For the wicked boasts of his soul's desire,
And the covetous curses, [yes,] scorns Yahweh.
- ⁴ The wicked, in the pride of his countenance, [says], He will not require [it].
All his thoughts are, There is no God.
- ⁵ His ways are firm at all times;
Your judgments are far above out of his sight:
As for all his adversaries, he puffs at them.
- ⁶ He says in his heart, I will not be moved;
To all generations I will not be in adversity.
- ⁷ His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression:
Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
- ⁸ He sits in the lurking-places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the innocent;
His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.
- ⁹ He lurks in secret as a lion in his covert;
He lies in wait to catch the poor:
He catches the poor, when he draws him in his net.
- ¹⁰ He crouches, he bows down,
And the helpless fall by his strong ones.
- ¹¹ He says in his heart, God has forgotten;
He hides his face; he will never see it.
- ¹² Arise, O Yahweh; O God, lift up your hand:
Do not forget the poor.

- ¹³ Why does the wicked despise God,
And say in his heart, You will not require [it]?
- ¹⁴ You have seen [it]; for you behold mischief and spite, to repay it with your hand:
The helpless commits [himself] to you;
You have been the helper of the fatherless.
- ¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked;
And as for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none.
- ¹⁶ Yahweh is King forever and ever:
The nations have perished out of his land.
- ¹⁷ Yahweh, you have heard the desire of the meek:
You will prepare their heart, you will cause your ear to hear;
- ¹⁸ To judge the fatherless and the oppressed,
That common man who is of the earth may be terrible no more.

11 For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David.

- In Yahweh I take refuge:
How do you^a say to my soul,
Flee to your^a mountain, birds;
- ² For, look, the wicked bend the bow,
They make ready their arrow on the string,
That they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart;
- ³ If the foundations are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?
- ⁴ Yahweh is in his holy temple;
Yahweh, his throne is in heaven;
His eyes look at, his eyelids try, the sons of man.
- ⁵ Yahweh tries the righteous;
But the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates.
- ⁶ On the wicked he will rain snares;
Fire and brimstone and burning wind will be the portion of their cup.
- ⁷ For Yahweh is righteous; he loves righteousness:
The upright will see his face.

12 For the Chief Musician; set to the Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

- Help, Yahweh; for the godly man ceases;
For the faithful fail from among the sons of man.
- ² They speak falsehood every man with his fellow man:
With flattering lip, and with a double heart, they speak.
- ³ Yahweh will cut off all flattering lips,
The tongue that speaks great things;
- ⁴ Who have said, With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own: who is lord over us?
- ⁵ Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the sighing of the needy,
Now I will arise, says Yahweh;
I will set him in the safety he pants for.
- ⁶ The words of Yahweh are pure words;
As silver tried in a furnace on the earth,
Purified seven times.
- ⁷ You will keep them, O Yahweh,
You will preserve him from this generation forever.
- ⁸ The wicked walk on every side,
When vileness is exalted among the sons of man.

13 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

How long, O Yahweh? Will you forget me forever?
 How long will you hide your face from me?
² How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
 Having sorrow in my heart all the day?
 How long will my enemy be exalted over me?
³ Consider [and] answer me, O Yahweh my God:
 Lighten my eyes, or else I will sleep the [sleep of] death;
⁴ Or else my enemy will say, I have prevailed against him;
 [and] my adversaries will rejoice when I am moved.
⁵ But I have trusted in your loving-kindness;
 My heart will rejoice in your salvation.
⁶ I will sing to Yahweh,
 Because he has dealt bountifully with me.

14 For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David.

The fool has said in his heart, There is no God.
 They are corrupt, they have done disgusting works;
 There is none who does good.
² Yahweh looked down from heaven on the sons of man,
 To see if there were any who understood,
 Who sought after God.
³ They have all gone aside; they have together become filthy;
 There is none who does good, no, not one.
⁴ Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
 Who eat up my people [as] they eat bread,
 And do not call on Yahweh?
⁵ There they were in great fear;
 For God is in the generation of the righteous.
⁶ You⁺ put to shame the counsel of the poor,
 Because Yahweh is his refuge.
⁷ Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
 When Yahweh brings back the captivity of his people,
 Then will Jacob rejoice, [and] Israel will be glad.

15 A Psalm of David.

Yahweh, who will sojourn in your tabernacle?
 Who will stay in your holy hill?
² He who walks uprightly, and works righteousness,
 And speaks truth in his heart;
³ He who does not slander with his tongue,
 Nor does evil to his friend,
 Nor takes up a reproach against his fellow man;
⁴ In whose eyes a reprobate is despised,
 But who honors those who fear Yahweh;
 He who swears to his own hurt, and does not change;
⁵ He who does not put out his silver to interest,
 Nor takes reward against the innocent.
 He who does these things will never be moved.

16 Michtam of David.

Preserve me, O God;
 for in you I take refuge.
² I have said to Yahweh, You are my Lord:
 I have no good beyond you.
³ As for the saints who are in the earth,
 They are the majestic ones in whom is all my delight.
⁴ Their sorrows will be multiplied who hurry for another [god]:
 Their drink-offerings of blood I will not offer,
 Nor take their names on my lips.
⁵ Yahweh is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup:
 You maintain my lot.
⁶ The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places;

Yes, I have a goodly heritage.

⁷ I will bless Yahweh, who has given me counsel;
 Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
⁸ I have set Yahweh always before me:
 Because he is at my right hand, I will not be moved.
⁹ Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices;
 My flesh also will stay in safety.
¹⁰ For you will not leave my soul to Sheol;
 Neither will you allow your holy one to see the pit.
¹¹ You will show me the path of life:
 In your presence is fullness of joy;
 In your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

17 A Prayer of David.

Hear the right, O Yahweh, attend to my cry;
 Give ear to my prayer, that does not go out of feigned lips.
² Let my sentence come forth from your presence;
 Let your eyes look at equity.
³ You have proved my heart; you have visited me in the night;
 You have tried me, and find nothing;
 I have purposed that my mouth will not transgress.
⁴ As for the works of man, by the word of your lips
 I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
⁵ My steps have held fast to your paths,
 My feet have not slipped.
⁶ I have called on you, for you will answer me, O God:
 Incline your ear to me, [and] hear my speech.
⁷ Show your marvelous loving-kindness,
 O you who save by your right hand those who take refuge
 [in you]
 From those who rise up [against them].
⁸ Keep me as the apple of the eye;
 Hide me under the shadow of your wings,
⁹ From the wicked who oppress me,
 My deadly enemies, who circle about my soul.
¹⁰ They are enclosed in their own fat:
 With their mouth they speak proudly.
¹¹ They advance against me, now they surround me;
 They set their eyes to cast [me] down to the earth.
¹² He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey,
 And as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
¹³ Arise, O Yahweh,
 Confront him, cast him down:
 Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;
¹⁴ From men by your hand, O Yahweh,
 From men of this world, whose portion is in [this] life,
 And whose belly you fill with your treasure:
 They are satisfied with sons,
 And leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
¹⁵ As for me, I will see your face in righteousness;
 I will be satisfied, when I awake, with [seeing] your form.

18 For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David the slave of Yahweh, who spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul, and he said:

I love you, O Yahweh, my strength.
² Yahweh is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
 My God, my rock, in whom I will take refuge;
 My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.
³ I will call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised:
 So I will be saved from my enemies.
⁴ The cords of death surrounded me,
 And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

5 The cords of Sheol were round about me;
 The snares of death came upon me.
 6 In my distress I called on Yahweh,
 And cried to my God:
 He heard my voice out of his temple,
 And my cry before him came into his ears.
 7 Then the earth shook and trembled;
 The foundations also of the mountains quaked
 And were shaken, because he was angry.
 8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
 And fire out of his mouth devoured:
 Coals were kindled by it.
 9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down;
 And thick darkness was under his feet.
 10 And he rode on a cherub, and flew;
 Yes, he soared on the wings of the wind.
 11 He made darkness his hiding-place, his pavilion round about him,
 Darkness of water, thick clouds of the skies.
 12 At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,
 Hailstones and coals of fire.
 13 Yahweh also thundered in the heavens,
 And the Most High uttered his voice,
 Hailstones and coals of fire.
 14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
 Yes, lightnings manifold, and discomfited them.
 15 Then the channels of water appeared,
 And the foundations of the world were laid bare,
 At your rebuke, O Yahweh,
 At the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
 16 He sent from on high, he took me;
 He drew me out of many waters.
 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
 And from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
 18 They came upon me in the day of my calamity;
 But Yahweh was my support.
 19 He brought me forth also into a large place;
 He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
 20 Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness;
 According to the cleanness of my hands he has recompensed me.
 21 For I have kept the ways of Yahweh,
 And have not wickedly departed from my God.
 22 For all his ordinances were before me,
 And I do not put away his statutes from me.
 23 I was also perfect with him,
 And I kept myself from my iniquity.
 24 Therefore Yahweh has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
 According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyes.
 25 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful;
 With the perfect [noble] man you will show yourself perfect;
 26 With the pure you will show yourself pure;
 And with the perverse you will show yourself froward.
 27 For you will save the afflicted people;
 But the haughty eyes you will bring down.
 28 For you will light my lamp:
 Yahweh my God will lighten my darkness.
 29 For by you I run on a troop;
 And by my God I leap over a wall.
 30 As for God, his way is perfect:
 The word of Yahweh is tried;
 He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
 31 For who is God, but Yahweh?
 And who is a rock, besides our God,
 32 The God who girds me with strength,
 And makes my way perfect?
 33 He makes my feet like hinds' [feet]:
 And sets me on my high places.

34 He teaches my hands to war;
 So that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
 35 You have also given me the shield of your salvation;
 And your right hand has held me up,
 And your response made me great.
 36 You have enlarged my steps under me,
 And my feet have not slipped.
 37 I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them;
 Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.
 38 I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise:
 They will fall under my feet.
 39 For you have girded me with strength to the battle:
 You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
 40 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me,
 That I might cut off those who hate me.
 41 They cried, but there was none to save;
 Even to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.
 42 Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind;
 I cast them out as the mire of the streets.
 43 You have delivered me from the strivings of a people;
 You have made me the head of the nations:
 A people whom I have not known will serve me.
 44 As soon as they hear of me they will obey me;
 The foreigners will submit themselves to me.
 45 The foreigners will fade away,
 And will come trembling out of their close places.
 46 Yahweh lives; and blessed be my rock;
 And exalted be the God of my salvation,
 47 Even the God who executes vengeance for me,
 And subdues peoples under me.
 48 He rescues me from my enemies;
 Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me;
 You deliver me from the violent man.
 49 Therefore I will give thanks to you, O Yahweh, among the nations,
 And will sing praises to your name.
 50 Great deliverance he gives to his king,
 And shows loving-kindness to his anointed,
 To David and to his seed, forevermore.

19 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The heavens declare the glory of God;
 And the firmament shows his handiwork.
 2 Day to day gushes out speech,
 And night to night shows knowledge.
 3 There is no speech nor language;
 Where their voice is not heard.
 4 Their line has gone out through all the earth,
 And their words to the end of the world.
 In them he has set a tabernacle for the sun,
 5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
 And rejoices as a strong man to run his course.
 6 His going forth is from the end of the heavens,
 And his circuit to the ends of it;
 And there is nothing hid from its heat.
 7 The law of Yahweh is perfect, restoring the soul:
 The testimony of Yahweh is sure, making wise the simple.
 8 The precepts of Yahweh are right, rejoicing the heart:
 The commandment of Yahweh is pure, enlightening the eyes.
 9 The fear of Yahweh is clean, enduring forever:
 The ordinances of Yahweh are true, [and] righteous altogether.
 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb.

- ¹¹ Moreover by them is your slave warned:
In keeping them there is great reward.
¹² Who can discern [his] errors?
Acquit me from hidden [faults].
¹³ Keep back your slave also from presumptuous [sins];
Don't let them have dominion over me:
Then I will be upright,
And I will be innocent from great transgression.
¹⁴ Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in your sight,
O Yahweh, my rock, and my redeemer.

20 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- May Yahweh answer you in the day of trouble;
The name of the God of Jacob set you up on high;
² Send you help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen you out of Zion;
³ Remember all your offerings,
And accept your burnt-sacrifice; Selah.

⁴ Grant you your heart's desire,
And fulfill all your counsel.
⁵ We will triumph in your salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners:
Yahweh fulfill all your petitions.
⁶ Now I know that Yahweh saves his anointed;
He will answer him from his holy heaven
With the saving strength of his right hand.
⁷ Some [trust] in chariots, and some in horses;
But we will make mention of the name of Yahweh our God.
⁸ They are bowed down and fallen;
But we have risen, and stand upright.
⁹ Save, Yahweh:
Let the King answer us when we call.

21 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- The king will joy in your strength, O Yahweh;
And in your salvation how greatly he will rejoice!
² You have given him his heart's desire,
And have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah.

³ For you meet him with the blessings of goodness:
You set a crown of fine gold on his head.
⁴ He asked life of you, you gave it him,
Even length of days forever and ever.
⁵ His glory is great in your salvation:
Grandeur and majesty you lay on him.
⁶ For you make him most blessed forever:
You make him glad with joy in your presence.
⁷ For the king trusts in Yahweh;
And through the loving-kindness of the Most High he will not be moved.
⁸ Your hand will find out all your enemies;
Your right hand will find out those who hate you.
⁹ You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger:
Yahweh will swallow them up in his wrath,
And the fire will devour them.
¹⁰ Their fruit you will destroy from the earth,
And their seed from among the sons of man.

- ¹¹ For they intended evil against you;
They conceived a device which they are not able to perform.
¹² For you will make them turn their back;
You will make ready with your bowstrings against their face.
¹³ Be exalted, O Yahweh, in your strength:
So we will sing and praise your power.

22 For the Chief Musician; set to Ajeleth hash-Shahar. A Psalm of David.

- My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
[Why are you so] far from helping me, [and from] the words of my groaning?
² O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you don't answer;
And in the night season, and am not silent.
³ But you are holy,
O you who inhabit the praises of Israel.
⁴ Our fathers trusted in you:
They trusted, and you delivered them.
⁵ They cried to you, and were delivered:
They trusted in you, and were not put to shame.
⁶ But I am a worm, and not a man;
A reproach of man, and despised of the people.
⁷ All those who see me laugh me to scorn:
They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, [saying,]
⁸ Commit [yourself] to Yahweh; Let him deliver him:
Let him rescue him, seeing he delights in him.
⁹ But you are he who took me out of the womb;
You made me trust [when I was] on my mother's breasts.
¹⁰ I was cast on you from the womb;
You are my God since my mother bore me.
¹¹ Don't be far from me; for trouble is near;
For there is none to help.
¹² Many bulls have surrounded me;
Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.
¹³ They gape on me with their mouth,
[As] a ravening and a roaring lion.
¹⁴ I am poured out like water,
And all my bones are out of joint:
My heart is like wax;
It is melted inside me.
¹⁵ My strength is dried up like a potsherd;
And my tongue is sticking to my jaws;
And you have brought me into the dust of death.
¹⁶ For dogs have surrounded me:
A company of evildoers have enclosed me;
They surrounded me like a lion [threatening] to tear me to pieces.^a
¹⁷ I may count all my bones.
They look and stare on me;
¹⁸ They part my garments among them,
And on my vesture they cast lots.
¹⁹ But don't be far off, O Yahweh:
O you my help, hurry to help me.
²⁰ Deliver my soul from the sword,
My darling from the power of the dog.
²¹ Save me from the lion's mouth;
Yes, from the horns of the wild-oxen you have answered
me.

²² I will declare your name to my brothers:
In the midst of the assembly I will praise you.
²³ You* who fear Yahweh, praise him;

^a Literally this reads, 'They surrounded me like a lion my hands and my feet.' This is the reading of the MT which follows HOTTP with a good degree of certainty (B on a scale of A-D). Also see Gesenius who concur in his lexicon on page 388. Note the similar context of dogs and lions in verses 13, 20 and 21. However, LXX, DSS and other manuscripts may read 'They pierced my hands and my feet'.

All you⁺ the seed of Jacob, glorify him;
 And stand in awe of him, all you⁺ the seed of Israel.
²⁴ For he has not despised nor detested the affliction of the afflicted;
 Neither has he hid his face from him;
 But when he cried to him, he heard.
²⁵ Of you comes my praise in the great assembly:
 I will pay my vows before those who fear him.
²⁶ The meek will eat and be satisfied;
 They will praise Yahweh who seek after him:
 Let your⁺ heart live forever.
²⁷ All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to Yahweh;
 And all the kindreds of the nations will worship before you.
²⁸ For the kingdom is Yahweh's;
 And he is the ruler over the nations.
²⁹ All the fat ones of the earth will eat and worship:
 All those who go down to the dust will bow before him,
 Even he who can't keep his soul alive.
³⁰ A seed will serve him;
 It will be told of the Lord to the [next] generation.
³¹ They will come and will declare his righteousness
 To a people who will be born, that he has done it.

23 A Psalm of David.

Yahweh is my shepherd; I will not want.
² He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
 He leads me beside still waters.
³ He restores my soul:
 He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
⁴ Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for you are with me;
 Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
⁵ You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies:
 You have anointed my head with oil;
 My cup runs over.
⁶ Surely goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house of Yahweh forever.

24 A Psalm of David.

The earth is Yahweh's, and the fullness of it;
 The world, and those who dwell in it.
² For he has founded it on the seas,
 And established it on the floods.
³ Who will ascend into the hill of Yahweh?
 And who will stand in his holy place?
⁴ He who has innocent hands, and a pure heart;
 Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood,
 And has not sworn deceitfully.
⁵ He will receive a blessing from Yahweh,
 And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
⁶ This is the generation of those who seek after him,
 Who seek your face, Jacob. Selah.
⁷ Lift up your⁺ heads, O you⁺ gates;
 And be⁺ lifted up, you⁺ everlasting doors:
 And the King of glory will come in.
⁸ Who is the King of glory?
 Yahweh strong and mighty,
 Yahweh mighty in battle.

⁹ Lift up your⁺ heads, O you⁺ gates;
 Yes, lift them up, you⁺ everlasting doors:
 And the King of glory will come in.
¹⁰ Who is this King of glory?
 Yahweh of hosts,
 He is the King of glory. Selah.

25 [A Psalm] of David.

To you, O Yahweh, I lift up my soul.
² O my God, in you I have trusted,
 Don't let me be put to shame;
 Don't let my enemies triumph over me.
³ Yes, none who wait for you will be put to shame:
 They will be put to shame who are betrayers without cause.
⁴ Show me your ways, O Yahweh;
 Teach me your paths.
⁵ Guide me in your truth, and teach me;
 For you are the God of my salvation;
 For you I wait all the day.
⁶ Remember, O Yahweh, your tender mercies and your loving-kindness;
 For they have been ever of old.
⁷ Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions:
 According to your loving-kindness remember me,
 For your goodness' sake, O Yahweh.
⁸ Good and upright is Yahweh:
 Therefore he will instruct sinners in the way.
⁹ The meek he will guide in justice;
 And the meek he will teach his way.
¹⁰ All the paths of Yahweh are loving-kindness and truth
 To such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
¹¹ For your name's sake, O Yahweh,
 Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
¹² What man is he who fears Yahweh?
 He will instruct him in the way that he will choose.
¹³ His soul will dwell at ease;
 And his seed will inherit the land.
¹⁴ The friendship of Yahweh is with those who fear him;
 And he will show them his covenant.
¹⁵ My eyes are ever toward Yahweh;
 For he will pluck my feet out of the net.
¹⁶ Turn to me, and have mercy on me;
 For I am desolate and afflicted.
¹⁷ The troubles of my heart are enlarged:
 Oh bring me out of my distresses.
¹⁸ Consider my affliction and my travail;
 And forgive all my sins.
¹⁹ Consider my enemies, for they are many;
 And they hate me with cruel hatred.
²⁰ Oh keep my soul, and deliver me:
 Don't let me be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.
²¹ Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,
 For I wait for you.
²² Redeem Israel, O God,
 Out of all his troubles.

26 [A Psalm] of David.

Judge me, O Yahweh, for I have walked in my integrity:
 I have trusted also in Yahweh without wavering.
² Examine me, O Yahweh, and prove me;
 Try my heart and my mind.
³ For your loving-kindness is before my eyes;
 And I have walked in your truth.
⁴ I have not sat with men of falsehood;
 Neither will I go in with dissemblers.

- ⁵ I hate the assembly of evildoers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
- ⁶ I will wash my hands in innocence:
So I will go about your altar, O Yahweh;
- ⁷ That I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard,
And tell of all your wondrous works.
- ⁸ Yahweh, I love the habitation of your house,
And the place where your glory dwells.
- ⁹ Don't gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with men of blood;
- ¹⁰ In whose hands is wickedness,
And their right hand is full of bribes.
- ¹¹ But as for me, I will walk in my integrity:
Redeem me, and be merciful to me.
- ¹² My foot stands in an even place:
In the congregations I will bless Yahweh.

27 [A Psalm] of David.

- Yahweh is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
Yahweh is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
- ² When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh,
[Even] my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
- ³ Though a host should encamp against me,
My heart will not fear:
Though war should rise against me,
Even then I will be confident.
- ⁴ One thing I have asked of Yahweh, that I will seek after;
That I may dwell in the house of Yahweh all the days of my life,
To see the beauty of Yahweh,
And to inquire in his temple.
- ⁵ For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion:
In the covert of his tabernacle he will hide me;
He will lift me up on a rock.
- ⁶ And now will my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me;
And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to Yahweh.
- ⁷ Hear, O Yahweh, when I cry with my voice:
Have mercy also on me, and answer me.
- ⁸ My heart said to you, My face will seek^a your face.
O Yahweh, I will seek [you].
- ⁹ Don't hide your face from me;
Don't put your slave away in anger:
You have been my help;
Don't cast me off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
- ¹⁰ When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then Yahweh will take me up.
- ¹¹ Teach me your way, O Yahweh;
And lead me in a plain path,
Because of my enemies.
- ¹² Don't deliver me over to the soul of my adversaries:
For false witnesses have risen up against me,
And such as breathe out cruelty.

- ¹³ [I had fainted], unless I had believed to see the goodness of Yahweh
In the land of the living.
- ¹⁴ Wait for Yahweh:
Be strong, and let your heart take courage;
Yes, wait for Yahweh.

28 [A Psalm] of David.

- To you, O Yahweh, I will call:
My rock, don't be deaf to me;
Or else, if you are silent to me,
I will become like those who go down into the pit.
- ² Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry to you,
When I lift up my hands toward your holy oracle.
- ³ Don't draw me away with the wicked,
And with the workers of iniquity;
Who speak peace with their fellow men,
But mischief is in their hearts.
- ⁴ Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings:
Give them after the operation of their hands;
Render to them their recompense.
- ⁵ Because they do not regard the works of Yahweh,
Nor the operation of his hands,
He will break them down and not build them up.
- ⁶ Blessed be Yahweh,
Because he has heard the voice of my supplications.
- ⁷ Yahweh is my strength and my shield;
My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped:
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices;
And with my song I will praise him.
- ⁸ Yahweh is strength to his people,
And he is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.
- ⁹ Save your people, and bless your inheritance:
Be their shepherd also, and bear them up forever.

29 A Psalm of David.

- Ascribe to Yahweh, O you⁺ sons of the mighty,
Ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength.
- ² Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his name;
Worship Yahweh in holy array.
- ³ The voice of Yahweh is on the waters:
The God of glory thunders,
Even Yahweh on many waters.
- ⁴ The voice of Yahweh is powerful;
The voice of Yahweh is full of majesty.
- ⁵ The voice of Yahweh breaks the cedars;
Yes, Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- ⁶ He makes them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild-ox.
- ⁷ The voice of Yahweh splits the flames of fire.
- ⁸ The voice of Yahweh shakes the wilderness;
Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- ⁹ The voice of Yahweh makes the hinds to calve,
And strips the forests bare:
And in his temple everything says, Glory.
- ¹⁰ Yahweh sat [as King] at the Flood;
Yes, Yahweh sits as King forever.
- ¹¹ Yahweh will give strength to his people;
Yahweh will bless his people with peace.

^a seek is an imperative command here, as if the psalmist is commanding his face to seek Yahweh's face.

30 A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House. [A Psalm] of David.

- I will extol you, O Yahweh; for you have raised me up,
And have not made my foes to rejoice over me.
- ² O Yahweh my God,
I cried to you, and then you healed me.
- ³ O Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol;
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
- ⁴ Sing praise to Yahweh, O you⁺ saints of his,
And give thanks to his holy memorial [name].
- ⁵ For his anger is but for a moment; His favor is for a lifetime:
Weeping may spend the night, But joy [comes] in the morning.
- ⁶ As for me, I said in my prosperity,
I will not be moved—forever.
- ⁷ You, Yahweh, of your favor had made my mountain to stand strong:
You hid your face; I was troubled.
- ⁸ To you, O Yahweh, I will cry;
And to the Lord I will plead for mercy:
- ⁹ What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise you? Will it declare your truth?
- ¹⁰ Hear, O Yahweh, and have mercy on me:
Yahweh, be my helper.
- ¹¹ You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;
You have loosed my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;
- ¹² So that glory will sing praise to you, and not be silent.
O Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you—forever.

31 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- In you, O Yahweh, I take refuge;
Let me never be put to shame:
Deliver me in your righteousness.
- ² Bow down your ear to me; deliver me speedily:
Be to me a strong rock,
A house of defense to save me.
- ³ For you are my rock and my fortress;
Therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.
- ⁴ Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me;
For you are my stronghold.
- ⁵ Into your hand I commend my spirit:
You have redeemed me, O Yahweh, you God of truth.
- ⁶ I hate those who regard lying vanities;
But I trust in Yahweh.
- ⁷ I will be glad and rejoice in your loving-kindness;
For you have seen my affliction:
You have known my soul in adversities;
- ⁸ And you have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;
You have set my feet in a large place.
- ⁹ Have mercy on me, O Yahweh, for I am in distress:
My eye wastes away with grief, [yes,] my soul and my body.
- ¹⁰ For my life is spent with sorrow,
And my years with sighing:
My strength fails because of my iniquity,
And my bones are wasted away.
- ¹¹ Because of all my adversaries I have become a reproach,
Yes, to my neighbors exceedingly,
And a fear to my acquaintance:
Those who saw me outside fled from me.
- ¹² I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind:
I am like a broken vessel.

- ¹³ For I have heard the defaming of many,
Terror on every side:
While they took counsel together against me,
They devised to take away my soul.
- ¹⁴ But I trusted in you, O Yahweh:
I said, You are my God.
- ¹⁵ My times are in your hand:
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
- ¹⁶ Make your face to shine on your slave:
Save me in your loving-kindness.
- ¹⁷ Don't let me be put to shame, O Yahweh; for I have called on you:
Let the wicked be put to shame, let them be silent in Sheol.
- ¹⁸ Let the lying lips be mute,
Which speak against the righteous insolently,
With pride and contempt.
- ¹⁹ Oh how great is your goodness,
Which you have laid up for those who fear you,
Which you have wrought for those who take refuge in you,
Before the sons of man!
- ²⁰ In the covert of your presence you will hide them from the plottings of man:
You will keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
- ²¹ Blessed be Yahweh;
For he has shown me his marvelous loving-kindness in a strong city.
- ²² As for me, I said in my haste,
I am cut off from before your eyes:
Nevertheless you heard the voice of my supplications
When I cried to you.
- ²³ Oh love Yahweh, all you⁺ his saints:
Yahweh preserves the faithful,
And plentifully rewards him who deals proudly.
- ²⁴ Be strong, and let your⁺ heart take courage,
All you⁺ who hope in Yahweh.

32 [A Psalm] of David. Maschil.

- Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.
- ² Blessed is [the] man to whom Yahweh does not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no guile.
- ³ When I kept silent, my bones wasted away
Through my groaning all the day long.
- ⁴ For day and night your hand was heavy on me:
My moisture was changed in the drought of summer.
Selah.
- ⁵ I acknowledged my sin to you,
And my iniquity I did not hide:
I said, I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh;
And you forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.
- ⁶ For this let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found:
Surely when the great waters overflow they will not reach to him.
- ⁷ You are my hiding-place; you will preserve me from trouble;
You will circle me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.
- ⁸ I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you will go:
I will counsel you with my eye on you.
- ⁹ Don't be⁺ as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding;
Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in,
[Or else] they will not come near to you.

- ¹⁰ Many sorrows will be to the wicked;
But he who trusts in Yahweh, loving-kindness will circle him about.
- ¹¹ Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you⁺ righteous;
And shout for joy, all you⁺ who are upright in heart.

- 33 Rejoice in Yahweh, O you⁺ righteous:
Praise is comely for the upright.
- ² Give thanks to Yahweh with the harp:
Sing praises to him with the psaltery of ten strings.
- ³ Sing to him a new song;
Play skillfully with a loud noise.
- ⁴ For the word of Yahweh is right;
And all his work is [done] in faithfulness.
- ⁵ He loves righteousness and justice:
The earth is full of the loving-kindness of Yahweh.
- ⁶ By the word of Yahweh were the heavens made,
And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
- ⁷ He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap:
He lays up the deeps in storehouses.
- ⁸ Let all the earth fear Yahweh:
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
- ⁹ For he spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.
- ¹⁰ Yahweh brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.
- ¹¹ The counsel of Yahweh stands fast forever,
The thoughts of his heart to all generations.
- ¹² Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh,
The people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.
- ¹³ Yahweh looks from heaven;
He beholds all the sons of man;
- ¹⁴ From the place of his habitation he looks forth
On all the inhabitants of the earth,
- ¹⁵ He who fashions the hearts of them all,
Who considers all their works.
- ¹⁶ There is no king saved by the multitude of a host:
A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
- ¹⁷ A horse is a vain thing for safety;
Neither does he deliver any by his great power.
- ¹⁸ Look, the eye of Yahweh is on those who fear him,
On those who hope in his loving-kindness;
- ¹⁹ To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.
- ²⁰ Our soul has waited for Yahweh:
He is our help and our shield.
- ²¹ For our heart will rejoice in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.
- ²² Let your loving-kindness, O Yahweh, be on us,
According to as we have hoped in you.

34 A Psalm of David; when he changed his behavior before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

- I will bless Yahweh at all times:
His praise will continually be in my mouth.
- ² My soul will make her boast in Yahweh:
The meek will hear of it, and be glad.
- ³ Oh magnify Yahweh with me,
And let us exalt his name together.
- ⁴ I sought Yahweh, and he answered me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵ They looked to him, and were radiant;
And their faces will never be confounded.
- ⁶ This poor man cried, and Yahweh heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.

- ⁷ The angel of Yahweh encamps round about those who fear him,
And delivers them.
- ⁸ Oh taste and see that Yahweh is good:
Blessed is the [noble] man who takes refuge in him.
- ⁹ Oh fear Yahweh, you⁺ his saints;
For there is no want to those who fear him.
- ¹⁰ The young lions lack, and suffer hunger;
But those who seek Yahweh will not want any good thing.
- ¹¹ Come, you⁺ sons, listen to me:
I will teach you⁺ the fear of Yahweh.
- ¹² What man is he who desires life,
And loves [many] days, that he may see good?
- ¹³ Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking guile.
- ¹⁴ Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.
- ¹⁵ The eyes of Yahweh are toward the righteous,
And his ears are [open] to their cry.
- ¹⁶ The face of Yahweh is against those who do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
- ¹⁷ [The righteous] cried, and Yahweh heard,
And delivered them out of all their troubles.
- ¹⁸ Yahweh is near to those who are of a broken heart,
And saves such as are of a contrite spirit.
- ¹⁹ Many are the afflictions of the righteous;
But Yahweh delivers him out of them all.
- ²⁰ He keeps all his bones:
Not one of them is broken.
- ²¹ Evil will slay the wicked;
And those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
- ²² Yahweh redeems the soul of his slaves;
And none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

35 [A Psalm] of David.

- Strive, O Yahweh, with those who strive with me:
Fight against those who fight against me.
- ² Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.
- ³ Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against those who pursue me:
Say to my soul, I am your salvation.
- ⁴ Let them be put to shame and brought to dishonor who seek after my soul:
Let them be turned back and confounded who devise my hurt.
- ⁵ Let them be as chaff before the wind,
And the angel of Yahweh driving [them] on.
- ⁶ Let their way be dark and slippery,
And the angel of Yahweh pursuing them.
- ⁷ For without cause they have hid for me the pit of their net;
Without cause they have dug [it] for my soul.
- ⁸ Let destruction come upon him unawares;
And let his net that he has hid catch himself:
With destruction let him fall in it.
- ⁹ And my soul will be joyful in Yahweh:
It will rejoice in his salvation.
- ¹⁰ All my bones will say, Yahweh, who is like you,
Who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him,
Yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?
- ¹¹ Unrighteous witnesses rise up;
They ask me of things that I don't know.
- ¹² They reward me evil for good,
[To] the bereaving of my soul.
- ¹³ But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth:
I afflicted my soul with fasting;

And my prayer returned into my own bosom.

¹⁴ I behaved myself as though it had been my companion or my brother:

I bowed down mourning, as one who bewails his mother.

¹⁵ But in my adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together:

The objects gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know [it];

They tore me, and did not cease:

¹⁶ Among the wicked, the godless fools^a

Who gnashed on me with their teeth.

¹⁷ Lord, how long will you watch?

Rescue my soul from their destructions,

My darling from the lions.

¹⁸ I will give you thanks in the great assembly:

I will praise you among many people.

¹⁹ Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;

Neither let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.

²⁰ For they don't speak peace;

But they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.

²¹ Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me;

They said, Aha, aha, our eye has seen it.

²² You have seen it, O Yahweh; don't keep silent:

O Lord, don't be far from me.

²³ Stir up yourself, and awake to the justice [due] to me,

[Even] to my cause, my God and my Lord.

²⁴ Judge me, O Yahweh my God, according to your righteousness;

And don't let them rejoice over me.

²⁵ Don't let them say in their heart, Aha, our soul:

Don't let them say, We have swallowed him up.

²⁶ Let them be put to shame and confounded together who rejoice at my hurt:

Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.

²⁷ Let them shout for joy, and be glad, who favor my righteous cause:

Yes, let them say continually, Yahweh be magnified,

Who has pleasure in the prosperity of his slave.

²⁸ And my tongue will talk of your righteousness

36 For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David the slave of Yahweh.

The transgression of the wicked says inside his heart,

There is no fear of God before his eyes.

² For he flatters himself in his own eyes,

That his iniquity will not be found out and be hated.

³ The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit:

He has ceased to be wise [and] to do good.

⁴ He devises iniquity on his bed;

He sets himself in a way that is not good;

He does not abhor evil.

⁵ Your loving-kindness, O Yahweh, is in the heavens;

Your faithfulness [reaches] to the skies.

⁶ Your righteousness is like the mountains of God;

Your judgments are a great deep:

O Yahweh, you preserve man and beast.

⁷ How precious is your loving-kindness, O God!

And the sons of man take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

⁸ They will be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of your house;

And you will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.

⁹ For with you is the fountain of life:

In your light we will see light.

¹⁰ Oh continue your loving-kindness to those who know you,

And your righteousness to the upright in heart.

¹¹ Don't let the foot of pride come against me,

And don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

¹² There the workers of iniquity have fallen:

They are thrust down, and will not be able to rise.

37 [A Psalm] of David.

Don't fret yourself because of evildoers,

Neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.

² For they will soon be cut down like the grass,

And wither as the green herb.

³ Trust in Yahweh, and do good;

Stay in the land, and pasture on faithfulness.

⁴ Delight yourself also in Yahweh;

And he will give you the desires of your heart.

⁵ Commit your way to Yahweh;

Trust also in him, and he will bring it to pass.

⁶ And he will make your righteousness to go forth as the light,

And your justice as the noonday.

⁷ Rest in Yahweh, and wait patiently for him:

Don't fret yourself because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who brings wicked devices to pass.

⁸ Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:

Don't fret yourself, [it tends] only to evildoing.

⁹ For evildoers will be cut off;

But those who wait for Yahweh, they will inherit the land.

¹⁰ For yet a little while, and the wicked will not be:

Yes, you will diligently consider his place, and he will not be.

¹¹ But the meek will inherit the land,

And will delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

¹² The wicked plots against the just,

And gnashes on him with his teeth.

¹³ The Lord will laugh at him;

For he sees that his day is coming.

¹⁴ The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow,

To cast down the poor and needy,

To slay such as are upright in the way.

¹⁵ Their sword will enter into their own heart,

And their bows will be broken.

¹⁶ Better is a little that the righteous has

Than the abundance of many wicked.

¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked will be broken;

But Yahweh upholds the righteous.

¹⁸ Yahweh knows the days of the perfect;

And their inheritance will be forever.

¹⁹ They will not be put to shame in the time of evil;

And in the days of famine they will be satisfied.

²⁰ But the wicked will perish,

And the enemies of Yahweh will be as the fat of lambs:

They will consume; in smoke they will consume away.

²¹ The wicked borrows, and does not pay again;

But the righteous deals graciously, and gives.

²² For such as are blessed of him will inherit the land;

And those who are cursed of him will be cut off.

²³ A [noble] man's goings are established of Yahweh;

^a godless fools is literally 'mockers of the feast/cake'. See also DBL entry #5056 and K&D in this verse.

And he delights in his way.
 24 Though he falls, he will not be completely cast down;
 For Yahweh upholds him with his hand.
 25 I have been young, and now am old;
 Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
 Nor his seed begging bread.
 26 All the day long he deals graciously, and lends;
 And his seed is blessed.
 27 Depart from evil, and do good;
 And stay forevermore.
 28 For Yahweh loves justice,
 And does not forsake his saints;
 They are preserved forever:
 But the seed of the wicked will be cut off.
 29 The righteous will inherit the land,
 And stay in it forever.
 30 The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom,
 And his tongue speaks justice.
 31 The law of his God is in his heart;
 None of his steps will slide.
 32 The wicked watches the righteous,
 And seeks to slay him.
 33 Yahweh will not leave him in his hand,
 Nor condemn him when he is judged.
 34 Wait for Yahweh, and keep his way,
 And he will exalt you to inherit the land:
 When the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
 35 I have seen the wicked in great power,
 And spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
 36 But one passed by, and, look, he was not:
 Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.
 37 Mark the perfect man, and look at the upright;
 For there is a [happy] end to the man of peace.
 38 As for transgressors, they will be destroyed together;
 The end of the wicked will be cut off.
 39 But the salvation of the righteous is of Yahweh;
 He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.
 40 And Yahweh helps them, and rescues them;
 He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them,
 Because they have taken refuge in him.

38 A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

O Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your wrath;
 Neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
 2 For your arrows pierce into me,
 And your hand presses me intensely.
 3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation;
 Neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.
 4 For my iniquities have gone over my head:
 As a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
 5 My wounds stink and are corrupt,
 Because of my foolishness.
 6 I am pained and bowed down greatly;
 I go mourning all the day long.
 7 For my loins are filled with burning;
 And there is no soundness in my flesh.
 8 I am faint and very bruised:
 I have groaned by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
 9 Lord, all my desire is before you;
 And my groaning is not hid from you.
 10 My heart throbs, my strength fails me:
 As for the light of my eyes, it also has gone from me.
 11 My friends and my companions stand aloof from my plague;
 And my kinsmen stand far off.
 12 Those also who seek after my soul lay snares [for me];
 And those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things,
 And meditate deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, don't hear;
 And I am as a mute man who does not open his mouth.
 14 Yes, I am as a man who does not hear,
 And in whose mouth are no reproofs.
 15 For in you, O Yahweh, I hope:
 You will answer, O Lord my God.
 16 For I said, Or else they will rejoice over me:
 When my foot slips, they magnify themselves against me.
 17 For I am ready to fall,
 And my sorrow is continually before me.
 18 For I will declare my iniquity;
 I will be sorry for my sin.
 19 But those who are my enemies without cause are strong;
 And those who hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
 20 Those also who render evil for good
 Are adversaries to me, because I follow the thing that is good.
 21 Don't forsake me, O Yahweh:
 O my God, don't be far from me.
 22 Hurry to help me,
 O Lord, my salvation.

39 For the Chief Musician, for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

I said, I will take heed to my ways,
 That I don't sin with my tongue:
 I will keep my mouth with a bridle,
 While the wicked is before me.
 2 I was mute with silence, I held my peace, even from good;
 And my sorrow was stirred.
 3 My heart was hot inside me;
 While I was musing the fire burned:
 [Then] I spoke with my tongue:
 4 Yahweh, make me to know my end,
 And the measure of my days, what it is;
 Let me know how frail I am.
 5 Look, you have made my days [as] handbreadths;
 And my lifetime is as nothing before you:
 Surely every man at his best estate is altogether vanity.
 Selah.
 6 Surely everyone among man walks in a vain show;
 Surely they are disquieted in vain:
 He heaps up [riches], and does not know who will gather them.
 7 And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
 My hope is in you.
 8 Deliver me from all my transgressions:
 Don't make me the reproach of the foolish.
 9 I was mute, I did not open my mouth;
 Because you did it.
 10 Remove your stroke away from me:
 I am consumed by the blow of your hand.
 11 When you with rebukes correct man for iniquity,
 You make his beauty to consume away like a moth:
 Surely everyone among man is vanity. Selah.
 12 Hear my prayer, O Yahweh, and give ear to my cry;
 Don't hold your peace at my tears:
 For I am a stranger with you,
 A sojourner, as all my fathers were.
 13 Oh spare me, that I may recover strength,
 Before I go from here, and be no more.

40 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

I waited patiently for Yahweh;
 And he inclined to me, and heard my cry.
² He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay;
 And he set my feet on a rock, and established my goings.
³ And he has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God:
 Many will see it, and fear,
 And will trust in Yahweh.
⁴ Blessed is the [noble] man who makes Yahweh his trust,
 And does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
⁵ Many, O Yahweh my God, are the wonderful works which you have done,
 And your thoughts which are toward us;
 They can't be set in order to you;
 If I would declare and speak of them,
 They are more numerous than can be numbered.
⁶ Sacrifice and offering you have no delight in;
 My ears you have opened:
 Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required.
⁷ Then I said, Look, I have come;
 In the roll of the book it is written of me:
⁸ I delight to do your will, O my God;
 Yes, your law is inside me.
⁹ I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness in the great assembly;
 Look, I will not refrain my lips,
 O Yahweh, you know.
¹⁰ I have not hid your righteousness inside my heart;
 I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation;
 I have not concealed your loving-kindness and your truth from the great assembly.
¹¹ Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, O Yahweh;
 Let your loving-kindness and your truth continually preserve me.
¹² For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
 My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
 They are more than the hairs of my head;
 And my heart has failed me.
¹³ Be pleased, O Yahweh, to deliver me:
 Hurry to help me, O Yahweh.
¹⁴ Let them be put to shame and confounded together
 Who seek after my soul to destroy it:
 Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor
 Who delight in my hurt.
¹⁵ Let them be desolate by reason of their shame
 Who say to me, Aha, aha.
¹⁶ Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you:
 Let such as love your salvation say continually,
 Yahweh be magnified.
¹⁷ But I am poor and needy;
 [Yet] the Lord thinks on me:
 You are my help and my deliverer;
 Make no tarrying, O my God.

41 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Blessed is he who considers the poor:
 Yahweh will deliver him in the day of evil.
² Yahweh will preserve him, and keep him alive,
 And he will be called blessed on the earth;
 And you will not deliver him to the soul of his enemies.
³ Yahweh will support him on the couch of languishing:
 You make all his bed in his sickness.
⁴ I said, O Yahweh, have mercy on me:
 Heal my soul; for I have sinned against you.
⁵ My enemies speak evil against me, [saying,]
 When will he die, and his name perish?
⁶ And if he comes to see [me], he speaks falsehood;
 His heart gathers iniquity to itself:
 When he goes abroad, he tells it.
⁷ All who hate me whisper together against me;
 Against me they devise my hurt.
⁸ An evil disease, [they say], is poured out on him;
 And now that he lies he will rise up no more.
⁹ Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,
 Who ate of my bread,
 Has lifted up his heel against me.
¹⁰ But you, O Yahweh, have mercy on me, and raise me up,
 That I may repay them.
¹¹ By this I know that you delight in me,
 Because my enemy does not triumph over me.
¹² And as for me, you uphold me in my integrity,
 And set me before your face forever.
¹³ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel,
 From everlasting and to everlasting.
 Amen, and Amen.

42 BOOK II.

For the Chief Musician. Maschil of the sons of Korah.

As a doe pants after the water brooks,
 So my soul pants after you, O God.
² My soul thirsts for God, for the living God:
 When shall I come and see the face of God?^a
³ My tears have been my food day and night,
 While they continually say to me, Where is your God?
⁴ These things I remember, and pour out my soul inside me,
 How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,
 With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.
⁵ Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 And [why] are you disquieted inside me?
 Hope in God; for I will yet praise him,
 My salvation^b ⁶ and my God.
 My soul is cast down inside me:
 Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,
 And the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.
⁷ Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls:
 All your waves and your billows have gone over me.
⁸ [Yet] Yahweh will command his loving-kindness in the daytime;
 And in the night his song will be with me,
 [Even] a prayer to the God of my life.
⁹ I will say to God my rock, Why have you forgotten me?
 Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
¹⁰ With a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me,

^b my salvation is literally, 'the salvation of my face'. Also at 42:11, and 43:5. For verse division, see HOTTP.

While they continually say to me, Where is your God?
¹¹ Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 And why are you disquieted inside me?
 Hope in God; for I will yet praise him,
 My salvation and my God.

43 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation:

Oh deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

² For you are the God of my strength; why have you cast me off?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

³ Oh send out your light and your truth; let them lead me:
 Let them bring me to your holy hill,
 And to your tabernacles.

⁴ Then I will go to the altar of God,
 To God my exceeding joy;
 And on the harp I will praise you, O God, my God.

⁵ Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 And why are you disquieted inside me?
 Hope in God; for I will yet praise him,
 My salvation and my God.

44 For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of the sons of Korah.
 Maschil.

We have heard with our ears, O God,
 Our fathers have told us,
 What work you did in their days,
 In the days of old.

² You drove out the nations with your hand;
 But you planted them:
 You afflicted the peoples;
 But you spread them abroad.

³ For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword,
 Neither did their own arm save them;
 But your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your countenance,
 Because you were favorable to them.

⁴ It is you, my King, [you are] God,
 Who commands deliverance for Jacob.

⁵ Through you we will push down our adversaries:
 Through your name we will tread them under who rise up against us.

⁶ For I will not trust in my bow,
 Neither will my sword save me.

⁷ But you have saved us from our adversaries,
 And have put them to shame who hate us.

⁸ In God we have made our boast all the day long,
 And we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah.

⁹ But now you have cast [us] off, and brought us to dishonor,
 And don't go forth with our hosts.

¹⁰ You make us to turn back from the adversary;
 And those who hate us take spoil for themselves.

¹¹ You have made us like sheep [appointed] for food,
 And have scattered us among the nations.

¹² You sell your people for nothing,
 And have not increased [your wealth] by their price.

¹³ You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
 A scoffing and a derision to those who are round about us.

¹⁴ You make us a byword among the nations,
 A shaking of the head among the peoples.

¹⁵ All the day long is my dishonor before me,
 And the shame of my face has covered me,

¹⁶ For the voice of him who reproaches and blasphemes,

By reason of the enemy and the avenger.

¹⁷ All this has come upon us; Yet we have not forgotten you,
 Neither have we dealt falsely in your covenant.

¹⁸ Our heart is not turned back,
 Neither have our steps declined from your way,

¹⁹ That you have intensely broken us in the place of jackals,
 And covered us with the shadow of death.

²⁰ If we have forgotten the name of our God,
 Or spread forth our hands to a strange god;

²¹ Will not God search this out?
 For he knows the secrets of the heart.

²² Yes, for your sake we are killed all the day long;
 We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

²³ Awake, why do you sleep, O Lord?
 Arise, don't cast [us] off forever.

²⁴ Why do you hide your face,
 And forget our affliction and our oppression?

²⁵ For our soul is bowed down to the dust:
 Our body sticks to the earth.

²⁶ Rise up for our help,
 And redeem us for your loving-kindness' sake.

45 For the Chief Musician; set to Shoshannim.
 [A Psalm] of the sons of Korah. Maschil. A Song of loves.

My heart overflows with a goodly matter;
 I speak the things which I have made concerning the king:
 My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

² You are fairer than the sons of man;
 Grace is poured into your lips:
 Therefore God has blessed you forever.

³ Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one,
 Your grandeur and your majesty.

⁴ And in your majesty ride on prosperously,
 Because of truth and meekness [and] righteousness:
 And your right hand will teach you awesome things.

⁵ Your arrows are sharp;
 The peoples fall under you;
 [They are] in the heart of the king's enemies.

⁶ Your throne, O God, is forever and ever:
 A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.

⁷ You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness:
 Therefore God, your God, has anointed you
 With the oil of gladness above your peers.

⁸ All your garments [smell of] myrrh, and aloes, [and] cassia;
 Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.

⁹ Kings' daughters are among your honorable women:
 At your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

¹⁰ Listen, O daughter, and consider, and incline your ear;
 Forget also your own people, and your father's house:

¹¹ So will the king desire your beauty;
 For he is your lord; and you will reverence him.

¹² And the daughter of Tyre [will be there] with a gift;
 The rich among the people will entreat your favor.

¹³ The king's daughter inside [the palace] is all glorious:
 Her clothing is inwrought with gold.

¹⁴ She will be led to the king in embroidered work:
 The virgins her companions who follow her
 Will be brought to you.

¹⁵ With gladness and rejoicing they will be led:
 They will enter into the king's palace.

¹⁶ Instead of your fathers will be your sons,
 Whom you will make princes in all the earth.

¹⁷ I will make your name to be remembered in all generations:
 Therefore will the peoples give you thanks forever and ever.

46 For the Chief Musician.
[A Psalm] of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A Song.

God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth changes,
And though the mountains shake into the heart of the seas;
3 Though its waters roar and are troubled,
Though the mountains tremble with its swelling. Selah.
4 There is a river, the streams of which make glad the city of God,
The holy of the tabernacles of the Most High.
5 God is in the midst of her; she will not be moved:
God will help her, and that right early.
6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.
7 Yahweh of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.
8 Come, look at the works of Yahweh,
What desolations he has made in the earth.
9 He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth;
He breaks the bow, and cuts the spear in sunder;
He burns the shields^a in the fire.
10 Be still, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.
11 Yahweh of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

47 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Oh clap your⁺ hands, all you⁺ peoples;
Shout to God with the voice of triumph.
2 For Yahweh Most High is awesome;
He is a great King over all the earth.
3 He subdues peoples under us,
And nations under our feet.
4 He chooses our inheritance for us,
The glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.
5 God has gone up with a shout,
Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praises to God, sing praises:
Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
7 For God is the King of all the earth:
Sing⁺ praises with understanding.
8 God reigns over the nations:
God sits on his holy throne.
9 The princes of the peoples are gathered together
[To be] the people of the God of Abraham:
For the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.

48 A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised,
In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,
Is mount Zion, [on] the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.

3 God has made himself known in her palaces for a refuge.
4 For, look, the kings assembled themselves,
They passed by together.
5 They saw it, then they were amazed;
They were dismayed, they hurried away.
6 Trembling took hold of them there,
Pain, as of a woman in travail.
7 With the east wind
You break the ships of Tarshish.
8 As we have heard, so we have seen
In the city of Yahweh of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish it forever. Selah.
9 We have thought on your loving-kindness, O God,
In the midst of your temple.
10 As is your name, O God,
So is your praise to the ends of the earth:
Your right hand is full of righteousness.
11 Let mount Zion be glad,
Let the daughters of Judah rejoice,
Because of your judgments.
12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her;
Number its towers;
13 Mark⁺ well her bulwarks;
Consider her palaces:
That you⁺ may tell it to the generation following.
14 For this God is our God forever and ever:
He will be our guide.

49 Set to Muth. For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Hear this, all you⁺ peoples;
Give ear, all you⁺ inhabitants of this world,
2 Both sons of man and sons of a man^b
Together, rich and poor.
3 My mouth will speak wisdom;
And the meditation of my heart will be of understanding.
4 I will incline my ear to a parable:
I will open my dark saying on the harp.
5 Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When iniquity at my heels circles me about?
6 Those who trust in their wealth,
And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
7 None [of them] can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him;
8 (For the redemption of their soul is costly,
And it fails forever;)
9 That he should still live always,
That he should not see the pit.
10 For he will see it. Wise men die;
The fool and the brutish alike perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
11 Their graves are their houses forever,
[And] their dwelling-places to all generations;
[Even though] they call lands after their own names.
12 But man [being] in honor does not reside:
He is like the beasts that perish.
13 This way of theirs is their folly:
Yet after them men approve their sayings. Selah.
14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol;
Death will be their shepherd;

^b sons of man and sons of a man, these are distinct phrases representing different Hebrew words. 'son of man' and 'sons of man' are used numerous times. 'sons of a man' is used infrequently and can also be found at Gen 42:11, 13, Psa 4:2, Psa 62:9 (both phrases), Lam 3:33.

'son of a man' can be found at Lev 24:10 (of a man and of a woman), 1Sam 9:1, 17:12, 2Sam 1:13, 17:25, 23:20, 1Ch 11:22. For gender information, see Appendix. 'sons of a woman' (wife) see 1Ch 4:19. 'son of a woman' see Lev 24:10 (of a man and of a woman) and 1Ki 7:14.

And the upright will have dominion over them in the morning;
And their beauty will be for Sheol to consume,
Far away from their lofty home.

¹⁵ But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol;
For he will receive me. Selah.

¹⁶ Don't be afraid when one is made rich,
When the glory of his house is increased.

¹⁷ For when he dies he will carry nothing away;
His glory will not descend after him.

¹⁸ Though while he lived he blessed his soul
(And men praise you, when you do well to yourself,)

¹⁹ He will go to the generation of his fathers;
They will never see the light.

²⁰ Man who is in honor, and does not understand,
Is like the beasts that perish.

50 A Psalm of Asaph.

The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, has spoken,
And called the earth from the rising of the sun to the going down of it.

² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shined forth.

³ Our God comes, and does not keep silent:
A fire devours before him,
And it is very tempestuous round about him.

⁴ He calls to the heavens above,
And to the earth, that he may judge his people:

⁵ Gather my saints together to me,
Those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

⁶ And the heavens will declare his righteousness;
For God is judge himself. Selah.

⁷ Hear, O my people, and I will speak;
O Israel, and I will testify to you:
I am God, [even] your God.

⁸ I will not reprove you for your sacrifices;
And your burnt-offerings are continually before me.

⁹ I will take no bull out of your house,
Nor he-goats out of your folds.

¹⁰ For every beast of the forest is mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.

¹¹ I know all the birds of the mountains;
And the wild beasts of the field are mine.

¹² If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
For the world is mine, and the fullness of it.

¹³ Shall I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?

¹⁴ Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving;
And pay your vows to the Most High:

¹⁵ And call on me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you will glorify me.

¹⁶ But to the wicked God says,
What have you to do to declare my statutes,
And that you have taken my covenant in your mouth,

¹⁷ Seeing you hate instruction,
And cast my words behind you?

¹⁸ When you saw a thief, you consented with him,
And have been a partaker with adulterers.

¹⁹ You give your mouth to evil,
And your tongue frames deceit.

²⁰ You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother's son.

²¹ These things you have done, and I kept silent;
You thought that I was altogether such a one as yourself:
[But] I will reprove you, and set [them] in order before your eyes.

²² Now consider this, you⁺ who forget God,
Or else I will tear you⁺ in pieces, and there will be none to deliver:

²³ Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me;
And to him who orders his way [aright]
I will show the salvation of God.

51 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness:
According to the multitude of your tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

² Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.

³ For I know my transgressions;
And my sin is ever before me.

⁴ Against you, you only, I have sinned,
And done that which is evil in your sight;
That you may be justified when you speak,
And be clear when you judge.

⁵ Look, I was brought forth in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.

⁶ Look, you desire truth in the inward parts;
And in the hidden part you will make me to know wisdom.

⁷ Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean:
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

⁸ Make me to hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.

⁹ Hide your face from my sins,
And blot out all my iniquities.

¹⁰ Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit inside me.

¹¹ Don't cast me away from your presence;
And don't take your Holy Spirit from me.

¹² Restore to me the joy of your salvation;
And uphold me with a willing spirit.

¹³ Then I will teach transgressors your ways;
And sinners will be converted to you.

¹⁴ Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, God of my salvation;

¹⁵ O Lord, open my lips;
And my mouth will show forth your praise.

¹⁶ For you do not delight in sacrifice; or else I would give it:
You have no pleasure in burnt-offering.

¹⁷ The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:
A broken and a contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

¹⁸ Do good in your good pleasure to Zion:
Build the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
In burnt-offering and whole burnt-offering:
Then they will offer bullocks on your altar.

52 For the Chief Musician. Maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

Why do you boast yourself in mischief, O mighty man?
The loving-kindness of God [endures] continually.

² Your tongue devises much wickedness,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

³ You love evil more than good,
And lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

⁴ You love all devouring words,
O you deceitful tongue.

⁵ God will likewise break you down forever;
He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent,
And root you out of the land of the living. Selah.

⁶ The righteous also will see [it], and fear,
And will laugh at him, [saying,]

⁷ Look, this is the [prominent] man who did not make God his strength,
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his plunder.

⁸ But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God:

I trust in the loving-kindness of God forever and ever.

⁹ I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it;
And I will proclaim your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints.

53 For the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath. Maschil of David.

The fool has said in his heart, There is no God.
They are corrupt, and have done disgusting iniquity;
There is none who does good.

² God looked down from heaven on the sons of man,
To see if there were any who understood,
Who sought after God.

³ Every one of them has gone back; they have together become filthy;

There is none who does good, no, not one.

⁴ Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people [as] they eat bread,
And do not call on God?

⁵ There they were in great fear, where no fear was;
For God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you:
You have put [them] to shame, because God has rejected
them.

⁶ Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back the captivity of his people,
Then Jacob will rejoice, [and] Israel will be glad.

54 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments.
Maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself with us?

Save me, O God, by your name,
And judge me in your might.

² Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.

³ For strangers have risen up against me,
And violent men have sought after my soul:
They have not set God before them. Selah.

⁴ Look, God is my helper:
The Lord is of those who uphold my soul.

⁵ He will bring back the evil to my enemies:
Destroy them in your truth.

⁶ With a freewill-offering I will sacrifice to you:
I will give thanks to your name, O Yahweh, for it is good.

⁷ For he has delivered me out of all trouble;
And my eye has seen [my desire] on my enemies.

55 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David.

Give ear to my prayer, O God;
And don't hide yourself from my supplication.

² Attend to me, and answer me:
I am restless in my complaint, and moan,

³ Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked;
For they cast iniquity on me,
And in anger they persecute me.

⁴ My heart is very pained inside me:
And the terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵ Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me,
And horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶ And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away, and stay at rest.

⁷ Look, then I would wander far off,
I would lodge in the wilderness. Selah.

⁸ I would hurry myself to a shelter
From the stormy wind and tempest.

⁹ Destroy, O Lord, [and] divide their tongue;
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰ Day and night they go about it on its walls:
Iniquity also and mischief are in the midst of it.

¹¹ Wickedness is in the midst of it:
Oppression and guile do not depart from its streets.

¹² For it is not an enemy who reproached me;
Or I could have borne it:
It is not one who hated me who magnified himself against
me;

Or I would have hid myself from him:
¹³ But it was you, [a] common man like me,
My best friend who I knew well.

¹⁴ We took sweet counsel together;
We walked in the house of God with the throng.

¹⁵ Let death come suddenly on them,
Let them go down alive into Sheol;
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst of them.

¹⁶ As for me, I will call on God;
And Yahweh will save me.

¹⁷ Evening, and morning, and at noonday, I will complain, and moan;

And he will hear my voice.

¹⁸ He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me;

For they were many [who strove] with me.

¹⁹ God will hear, and answer them,
Even he who remains of old. Selah.

[The men] who have no changes,
And who don't fear God.

²⁰ He has put forth his hands against such as were at peace
with him:

He has profaned his covenant.

²¹ His mouth was smooth as butter,
But his heart was war:

His words were softer than oil,
Yet they were drawn swords.

²² Cast your burden on Yahweh, and he will sustain you:
He will never allow the righteous to be moved.

²³ But you, O God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction:
Bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live out half their days;
But I will trust in you.

56 For the Chief Musician; set to The Silent Dove - Those Far Away.

[A Psalm] of David. Michtam: when the Philistines took him in Gath.

Be merciful to me, O God; for common man would swallow me up:

All the day long those fighting oppress me.

² My enemies would swallow me up all the day long;
For they are many who fight proudly against me.

³ When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.

⁴ In God (I will praise his word)
In God I have put my trust, I will not be afraid;
What can flesh do to me?

⁵ All the day long they wrest my words:
All their thoughts are against me for evil.

⁶ They gather themselves together, they hide themselves,
They mark my steps,
Even as they have waited for my soul.

⁷ Will they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, O God.

⁸ You number my wanderings:
Put my tears into your bottle;
Are they not in your book?

⁹ Then my enemies will turn back in the day that I call:
This I know, that God is for me.

¹⁰ In God, I will praise [his] word;
In Yahweh, I will praise [his] word;

¹¹ In God I have put my trust, I will not be afraid;
What can man do to me?

¹² Your vows are on me, O God:
I will render thank-offerings to you.

¹³ For you have delivered my soul from death:
[Have you] not [delivered] my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God
In the light of the living?

57 For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tash-heth.
[A Psalm] of David. Michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me;
For my soul takes refuge in you:
Yes, in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge,
Until [these] calamities have passed by.

² I will cry to God Most High,
To God who performs [all things] for me.

³ He will send from heaven, and save me,
[When] he who would swallow me up reproaches; Selah.
God will send forth his loving-kindness and his truth.

⁴ My soul is among lions;
I lie among those who are set on fire,
Even the sons of man, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.

⁵ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;

⁶ They have prepared a net for my steps;
My soul is bowed down:
They have dug a pit before me;
They have fallen into the midst of it themselves. Selah.

⁷ My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed:
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.

⁸ Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp:
I myself will awake the dawn.

⁹ I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples:
I will sing praises to you among the nations.

¹⁰ For your loving-kindness is great to the heavens,
And your truth to the skies.

¹¹ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;

58 For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tashheth. [A Psalm] of David. Michtam.

Do you⁺ indeed in silence speak righteousness?
Do you⁺ judge uprightly, O you⁺ sons of man?

² No, in heart you⁺ work wickedness;
You⁺ weigh out the violence of your⁺ hands in the earth.

³ The wicked are estranged from the womb:
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.

⁴ Their poison is like the poison of a serpent:
[They are] like the deaf cobra that stops her ear,

⁵ Which does not harken to the voice of charmers
Using magic words with mastery.

⁶ Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth:
Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Yahweh.

⁷ Let them melt away as water that runs apace:
When he aims his arrows, let them be as though they were cut off.

⁸ [Let them be] as a snail which melts and passes away,

⁹ Before your⁺ pots can feel the thorns,
He will take them away with a whirlwind, the green and the burning alike.

¹⁰ The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance:
He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;

¹¹ So that man will say, Truly there is a reward for the righteous:
Truly there is a God who judges in the earth.

59 For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tashheth.
[A Psalm] of David. Michtam;
when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

Deliver me from my enemies, O my God:
Set me on high from those who rise up against me.

² Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,
And save me from the bloodthirsty men.

³ For, look, they lie in wait for my soul;
The mighty gather themselves together against me:

Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Yahweh.

⁴ They run and prepare themselves without [my] fault:
Awake to help me, and behold.

⁵ Even you, O Yahweh God of hosts, the God of Israel,
Arise to visit all the nations:

Don't be merciful to any wicked betrayers. Selah.

- ⁶ They return at evening, they howl like a dog,
And go round about the city.
- ⁷ Look, they gush out with their mouth;
Swords are in their lips:
[They say,] For who hears?
- ⁸ But you, O Yahweh, will laugh at them;
You will have all the nations in derision.
- ⁹ My strength, I will give heed to you;
For God is my high tower.
- ¹⁰ My God with his loving-kindness will meet me:
God will let me see [my desire] on my enemies.
- ¹¹ Don't slay them, or else my people will forget:
Scatter them by your power, and bring them down,
O Lord our shield.
- ¹² [For] the sin of their mouth, [and] the words of their lips,
Let them even be taken in their pride,
And for cursing and lying which they speak.
- ¹³ Consume them in wrath, consume them, so that they will be no more:
And let them know that God rules in Jacob,
To the ends of the earth. Selah.
- ¹⁴ And at evening let them return, let them howl like a dog,
And go round about the city.
- ¹⁵ They will wander up and down for food,
And tarry all night if they are not satisfied.
- ¹⁶ But I will sing of your strength;
Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving-kindness in the morning:
For you have been my high tower,
And a refuge in the day of my distress.
- ¹⁷ To you, O my strength, I will sing praises:
For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

60 For the Chief Musician; set to Shushan Eduth. Michtam of David, to teach;
when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned, and struck of Edom in the Valley of Salt twelve thousand.

- O God you have cast us off, you have broken us down;
You have been angry; oh restore us again.
- ² You have made the land to tremble; you have rent it:
Heal its breaches; for it shakes.
- ³ You have shown your people hard things:
You have made us to drink the wine of staggering.
- ⁴ You have given a banner to those who fear you,
That it may be displayed because of the bow. Selah.
- ⁵ That your beloved may be delivered,
Save with your right hand, and answer us.
- ⁶ God has spoken in his holiness: I will exult;
I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
- ⁷ Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is the defense of my head;
Judah is my scepter.
- ⁸ Moab is my washpot;
On Edom I will cast my sandal:
Philistia, shout because of me.
- ⁹ Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who has led me to Edom?
- ¹⁰ Have not you, O God, cast us off?
And you don't go forth, O God, with our hosts.
- ¹¹ Give us help against the adversary;
For vain is the help of man.
- ¹² Through God we will do valiantly;
For it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

61 For the Chief Musician; on a stringed instrument. [A Psalm] of David.

- Hear my cry, O God;
Attend to my prayer.
- ² From the end of the earth I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed:
You will lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
- ³ For you have been a refuge for me,
A strong tower from the enemy.
- ⁴ I will dwell in your tabernacle forever:
I will take refuge in the covert of your wings. Selah.
- ⁵ For you, O God, have heard my vows:
You have given [me] the heritage of those who fear your name.
- ⁶ You will prolong the king's life;
His years will be as many generations.
- ⁷ He will remain before God forever:
Oh prepare loving-kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.
- ⁸ So I will sing praise to your name forever,
That I may daily perform my vows.

62 For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

- My soul waits in silence for God only:
From him [comes] my salvation.
- ² He only is my rock and my salvation:
[He is] my high tower; I will not be greatly moved.
- ³ How long will you⁺ set on a man,
That you⁺ may slay [him], all of you⁺
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?
- ⁴ They only consult to thrust him down from his dignity;
They delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.
Selah.
- ⁵ My soul, wait in silence for God only;
For my expectation is from him.
- ⁶ He only is my rock and my salvation:
[He is] my high tower; I will not be moved.
- ⁷ With God is my salvation and my glory:
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
- ⁸ Trust in him at all times, you⁺ people;
Pour out your⁺ heart before him:
God is a refuge for us. Selah.
- ⁹ Surely sons of man are vanity, and sons of a man^a are a lie:
In the balances they will go up;
They are together lighter than vanity.
- ¹⁰ Don't trust in oppression,
And don't become vain in robbery:
If riches increase, don't set your⁺ heart [on them].
- ¹¹ God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this,
That power belongs to God.
- ¹² Also to you, O Lord, belongs loving-kindness;
For you render to every man according to his work.

63 A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O God, you are my God; earnestly I will seek you:
 My soul thirsts for you, my flesh longs for you,
 In a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
² So I have looked on you in the sanctuary,
 To see your power and your glory.
³ Because your loving-kindness is better than life,
 My lips will praise you.
⁴ So I will bless you while I live:
 I will lift up my hands in your name.
⁵ My soul will be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
 And my mouth will praise you with joyful lips;
⁶ When I remember you on my bed,
 [And] meditate on you in the night-watches.
⁷ For you have been my help,
 And in the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.
⁸ My soul sticks [closely] after you:
 Your right hand upholds me.
⁹ But those who seek my soul, to destroy it,
 Will go into the lower parts of the earth.
¹⁰ They will be given over to the power of the sword:
 They will be a portion for foxes.
¹¹ But the king will rejoice in God:
 Everyone who swears by him will glory;
 For the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped.

64 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint:
 Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
² Hide me from the secret counsel of evildoers,
 From the tumult of the workers of iniquity;
³ Who have whet their tongue like a sword,
 And have aimed their arrows, even bitter words,
⁴ That they may shoot in secret places at the perfect:
 Suddenly they shoot at him, and aren't afraid.
⁵ They encourage themselves in an evil purpose;
 They commune of laying snares secretly;
 They say, Who will see them?
⁶ They search out iniquities;
 We have accomplished, [they say], a diligent search:
 And the inward thought and the heart of a man is deep.
⁷ But God will shoot at them;
 With an arrow they will suddenly be wounded.
⁸ And they made their own tongue stumble against themselves:
 All who see them will wag the head.
⁹ And all of man will fear;
 And they will declare the work of God,
 And will wisely consider of his doing.
¹⁰ The righteous will be glad in Yahweh, and will take refuge in him;
 And all the upright in heart will glory.

65 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm. A Song of David.

Praise is due to you, O God, in Zion;
 And to you will the vow be performed.
² O you who hear prayer,
 To you will all flesh come.
³ Iniquities prevail against me:
 As for our transgressions, you will forgive them.
⁴ Blessed is the man whom you choose, and cause to approach [to you]
 That he may stay in your courts:
 We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,

Your holy temple.

⁵ By awesome things you will answer us in righteousness,
 O God of our salvation,
 You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
 And of those who are far off on the sea:
⁶ Who by his strength sets fast the mountains,
 Being girded about with might;
⁷ Who stills the roaring of the seas,
 The roaring of their waves,
 And the tumult of the peoples.
⁸ Those also who dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at your tokens:
 You make the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.
⁹ You visit the earth, and water it,
 You greatly enrich it;
 The river of God is full of water:
 You provide them grain, when you have so prepared the earth.
¹⁰ You soak its furrows;
 You settle its ridges:
 You make it soft with showers;
 You bless the springing of it.
¹¹ You crown the year with your goodness;
 And your paths drop fatness.
¹² They drop on the pastures of the wilderness;
 And the hills are girded with joy.
¹³ The pastures are clothed with flocks;
 The valleys also are covered over with grain;
 They shout for joy, they also sing.

66 For the Chief Musician. A Song, a Psalm.

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth:
² Sing forth the glory of his name:
 Make his praise glorious.
³ Say to God, How awesome are your works!
 Through the greatness of your power will your enemies
 submit themselves to you.
⁴ All the earth will worship you,
 And will sing to you;
 They will sing to your name. Selah.
⁵ Come, and see the works of God;
 [He is] awesome in his doing toward the sons of man.
⁶ He turned the sea into dry land;
 They went through the river on foot:
 There we rejoiced in him.
⁷ He rules by his might forever;
 His eyes observe the nations:
 Don't let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.
⁸ Oh bless our God, you⁺ peoples,
 And make the voice of his praise to be heard;
⁹ Who holds our soul in life,
 And does not allow our feet to be moved.
¹⁰ For you, O God, have proved us:
 You have tried us, as silver is tried.
¹¹ You brought us into the net;
 You laid an intense burden on our loins.
¹² You caused common man to ride over our heads;
 We went through fire and through water;
 But you brought us out into abundance.
¹³ I will come into your house with burnt-offerings;
 I will pay you my vows,
¹⁴ Which my lips uttered,
 And my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.

- 15 I will offer to you burnt-offerings of fatlings,
With the incense of rams;
I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.
- 16 Come, and hear, all you⁺ who fear God,
And I will declare what he has done for my soul.
- 17 I cried to him with my mouth,
And he was extolled with my tongue.
- 18 If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The Lord will not hear;
- 19 But truly God has heard;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.
- 20 Blessed be God,
Who has not turned away my prayer,
Nor his loving-kindness from me.

67 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm, a Song.

God be merciful to us, and bless us,
[And] cause his face to shine on us; Selah.

- 2 That your way may be known on earth,
Your salvation among all nations.
- 3 Let the peoples praise you, O God;
Let all the peoples praise you.
- 4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
For you will judge the peoples with equity,
And govern the nations on earth. Selah.
- 5 Let the peoples praise you, O God;
Let all the peoples praise you.
- 6 The earth has yielded its increase:
God, even our own God, will bless us.
- 7 God will bless us;
And all the ends of the earth will fear him.

68 For the Chief Musician; A Psalm of David, a Song.

- Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered;
And let those who hate him flee before him.
- 2 As smoke is driven away, you will drive them away:
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God:
Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
- 4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name:
Cast up a highway for him who rides through the deserts;
His name is Yah; and exult⁺ before him.
- 5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
Is God in his holy habitation.
- 6 God sets the solitary in families:
He brings out the prisoners into prosperity;
But the rebellious stay in a parched land.
- 7 O God, when you went forth before your people,
When you marched through the wilderness; Selah.
- 8 The earth trembled,
The heavens also dropped [rain] at the presence of God:
This Sinai [trembled] at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
- 9 You, O God, sent a plentiful rain,
You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.
- 10 Your congregation dwelt in it:
You, O God, prepared of your goodness for the poor.
- 11 The Lord gives the word:
The women who publish the good news are a great host.

- 12 Kings of armies flee, they flee;
And she who tarries at home divides the spoil.
- 13 When you⁺ lie among the sheepfolds,
[It is as] the wings of a dove covered with silver,
And her pinions with yellow gold.
- 14 When the Almighty scattered kings there,
[It was as when] it snows in Zalmon.
- 15 A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A high mountain is the mountain of Bashan.
- 16 Why do you⁺ lurk, you⁺ high mountains,
At the mountain which God has desired for his dwelling place?
Yes, Yahweh will stay [in it] forever.
- 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands on thousands;
The Lord is among them, [as in] Sinai, in the sanctuary.
- 18 You have ascended on high, you have led away captives;
You have received gifts among man,
Yes, [among] the rebellious also, that Yah God might stay [with them].
- 19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burden,
Even the God who is our salvation. Selah.
- 20 God is to us a God of deliverances;
And to Yahweh the Lord belongs escape from death.
- 21 But God will strike through the head of his enemies,
The hairy top of the head of such a one as goes on still in his guiltiness.
- 22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan,
I will bring [them] again from the depths of the sea;
- 23 That you may crush [them, dipping] your foot in blood,
That the tongue of your dogs may have its portion from [your] enemies.
- 24 They have seen your goings, O God,
Even the goings of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.
- 25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,
In the midst of the young women playing with timbrels.
- 26 Bless⁺ God in the congregations,
Even the Lord, [you⁺ who are] of the fountain of Israel.
- 27 There is little Benjamin their ruler,
The princes of Judah [and] their council,
The princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.
- 28 Your God has commanded your strength:
Strengthen, O God, that which you have wrought for us.
- 29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem
Kings will bring presents to you.
- 30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds,
The multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples,
Trampling under foot the pieces of silver:
He has scattered the peoples who delight in war.
- 31 Bronze will come out of Egypt;
Ethiopia will bring her hands [with tribute] in a hurry to God.
- 32 Sing to God, you⁺ kingdoms of the earth;
Oh sing praises to the Lord; Selah.
- 33 To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old;
Look, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
- 34 Ascribe⁺ strength to God:
His excellency is over Israel,
And his strength is in the skies.
- 35 O God, [you are] awesome out of your holy places:
The God of Israel, he gives strength and power to [his] people.
Blessed be God.

69 For the Chief Musician; set to Shoshannim. [A Psalm] of David.

Save me, O God;

For the waters have come in to my soul.

² I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing:

I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

³ I am weary with my crying; my throat is dried:

My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

⁴ Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head:

Those who would cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty:

That which I did not take away I have to restore.

⁵ O God, you know my foolishness;

And my sins are not hid from you.

⁶ Don't let those who wait for you be put to shame through me,

O Sovereign Yahweh of hosts:

Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, O God of Israel.

⁷ Because for your sake I have borne reproach;

Shame has covered my face.

⁸ I have become a stranger to my brothers,

And an alien to my mother's sons.

⁹ For the zeal of your house has eaten me up;

And the reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.

¹⁰ When I wept, [and chastened] my soul with fasting,

That was to my reproach.

¹¹ When I made sackcloth my clothing,

I became a byword to them.

¹² Those who sit in the gate talk of me;

And [I am] the song of the drunkards.

¹³ But as for me, my prayer is to you, O Yahweh, in an acceptable time:

O God, in the abundance of your loving-kindness, Answer me in the truth of your salvation.

¹⁴ Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink:

Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.

¹⁵ Don't let the floodwater overwhelm me,

Neither let the deep swallow me up;

And don't let the pit shut its mouth on me.

¹⁶ Answer me, O Yahweh; for your loving-kindness is good:

According to the multitude of your tender mercies turn to me.

¹⁷ And don't hide your face from your slave;

For I am in distress; answer me speedily.

¹⁸ Draw near to my soul, and redeem it:

Ransom me because of my enemies.

¹⁹ You know my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor:

My adversaries are all before you.

²⁰ Reproach has broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness:

And I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; And for comforters, but I found none.

²¹ They gave me also gall for my food;

And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

²² Let their table before them become a snare;

And for the secure ones, [let it become] a trap.

²³ Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see;

And make their loins continually to shake.

²⁴ Pour out your indignation on them,

And let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.

²⁵ Let their habitation be desolate;

Let none dwell in their tents.

²⁶ For they persecute him whom you have struck;

And they tell of the sorrow of those whom you have wounded.

²⁷ Add iniquity to their iniquity;

And don't let them come into your righteousness.

²⁸ Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life,

And not be written with the righteous.

²⁹ But I am poor and sorrowful:

Let your salvation, O God, set me up on high.

³⁰ I will praise the name of God with a song,

And will magnify him with thanksgiving.

³¹ And it will please Yahweh better than an ox,

³² The meek have seen it, and are glad:

You⁺ who seek after God, let your⁺ heart live.

³³ For Yahweh hears the needy,

And does not despise his prisoners.

³⁴ Let heaven and earth praise him,

The seas, and everything that moves in them.

³⁵ For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah;

And they will remain there, and have it in possession.

³⁶ The seed also of his slaves will inherit it;

And those who love his name will stay there.

70 For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David; to bring to remembrance.

[Hurry], O God, to deliver me;

Hurry to help me, O Yahweh.

² Let them be put to shame and confounded

Who seek after my soul:

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor

Who delight in my hurt.

³ Let them be turned back by reason of their shame

Who say, Aha, aha.

⁴ Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;

And let such as love your salvation say continually,

Let God be magnified.

⁵ But I am poor and needy;

Hurry to me, O God:

You are my help and my deliverer;

O Yahweh, make no tarrying.

71 In you, O Yahweh, I take refuge:

Let me never be put to shame.

² Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me:

Bow down your ear to me, and save me.

³ Be to me a rock for my dwelling, to where I may continually resort:

You have given commandment to save me;

For you are my rock and my fortress.

⁴ Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,

Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

⁵ For you are my hope, O Sovereign Yahweh:

⁶ By you I have been held up from the womb;

You are he who took me out of my mother's bowels:

My praise will be continually of you.

⁷ I am as a wonder to many;

But you are my strong refuge.

⁸ My mouth will be filled with your praise,

And with your honor all the day.

⁹ Don't cast me off in the time of old age;

Don't forsake me when my strength fails.

¹⁰ For my enemies speak concerning me;

And those who watch for my soul take counsel together,

¹¹ Saying, God has forsaken him:

Pursue and take him; for there is none to deliver.

¹² O God, don't be far from me;

O my God, hurry to help me.

13 Let them be put to shame [and] consumed who are adversaries to my soul;
 Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor who seek my hurt.
 14 But I will hope continually,
 And will praise you yet more and more.
 15 My mouth will tell of your righteousness,
 [And] of your salvation all the day;
 For I don't know the numbers [of it].
 16 I will come with the mighty acts of the Sovereign Yahweh:
 I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours
 only.
 17 O God, you have taught me from my youth;
 And until now I have declared your wondrous works.
 18 Yes, even when I am old and grayheaded, O God, don't forsake me,
 Until I have declared your strength to [the next] generation,
 Your might to everyone who is to come.
 19 Your righteousness also, O God, is very high;
 You who have done great things,
 O God, who is like you?
 20 You, who have shown us many and intense troubles,
 Will quicken us again,
 And will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
 21 You will increase my greatness,
 And turn again and comfort me.
 22 I will also praise you with the psaltery,
 [Even] your truth, O my God:
 To you I will sing praises with the harp,
 O you Holy One of Israel.
 23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you;
 And my soul, which you have redeemed.
 24 My tongue also will talk of your righteousness all the day long;
 For they are put to shame, for they are confounded, who seek my hurt.

72 [A Psalm] of Solomon.

Give the king your judgments, O God,
 And your righteousness to the king's son.
 2 He will judge your people with righteousness,
 And your poor with justice.
 3 The mountains will bring peace to the people,
 And the hills, in righteousness.
 4 He will judge the poor of the people,
 He will save the sons of the needy,
 And will break in pieces the oppressor.
 5 May he endure as long as the sun,
 And so long as the moon, throughout all generations.
 6 He will come down like rain on the mown grass,
 As showers that water the earth.
 7 In his days will righteousness flourish,
 And abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.
 8 He will have dominion also from sea to sea,
 And from the River to the ends of the earth.
 9 Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before him;
 And his enemies will lick the dust.
 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles will render tribute:
 The kings of Sheba and Seba will offer gifts.
 11 Yes, all kings will fall down before him;
 All nations will serve him.
 12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries,
 And the poor, who has no helper.
 13 He will have pity on the poor and needy,
 And the souls of the needy he will save.
 14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence;
 And precious will their blood be in his eyes.
 15 And he will live;

And he will give to him of the gold of Sheba:
 And he will pray for him continually;
 He will bless him all the day long.
 16 There will be abundance of grain in the earth on the top of the mountains;
 The fruit of it will shake like Lebanon:
 And they of the city will flourish like grass of the earth.
 17 His name will endure forever;
 His name will increase as long as the sun:
 And men will be blessed in him;
 All nations will call him happy.
 18 Blessed be Yahweh God, the God of Israel,
 Who alone does wondrous things:
 19 And blessed be his glorious name forever;
 And let the whole earth be filled with his glory.
 Amen, and Amen.
 20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse have ended.

73 BOOK III. A Psalm of Asaph.

Surely God is good to Israel,
 [Even] to such as are pure in heart.
 2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone;
 My steps had well near slipped.
 3 For I was envious at the arrogant,
 When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
 4 For there are no pangs in their death;
 But their strength is firm.
 5 They are not in trouble as common man;
 Neither are they plagued like man.
 6 Therefore pride is as a chain about their neck;
 Violence covers them as a garment.
 7 Their eyes stand out with fatness:
 They have more than heart could wish.
 8 They scoff, and in wickedness utter oppression:
 They speak loftily.
 9 They have set their mouth in the heavens,
 And their tongue walks through the earth.
 10 Therefore his people return here:
 And waters of a full [cup] are drained by them.
 11 And they say, How does God know?
 And is there knowledge in the Most High?
 12 Look, these are the wicked;
 And, being always at ease, they increase in riches.
 13 Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart,
 And washed my hands in innocence;
 14 For all the day long I have been plagued,
 And chastened every morning.
 15 If I had said, I will speak thus;
 Look, I would have betrayed the generation of your sons.
 16 When I thought how I might know this,
 It was too painful for me;
 17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God,
 And considered their latter end.
 18 Surely you set them in slippery places:
 You cast them down to destruction.
 19 How they have become a desolation in a moment!
 They are completely consumed with terrors.
 20 As a dream when one awakes,
 So, O Lord, when you awake, you will despise their image.
 21 For my heart was grieved,
 And I was pricked in my inward parts:
 22 So brutish was I, and ignorant;
 I was [as] a beast before you.
 23 Nevertheless I am continually with you:
 You have held my right hand.

- ²⁴ You will guide me with your counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.
²⁵ Whom have I in heaven [but you]
And there is none on earth that I desire besides you.
²⁶ My flesh and my heart fails;
[But] God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
²⁷ For, look, those who are far from you will perish:
You have destroyed all those prostituting from you.
²⁸ But it is good for me to draw near to God:
I have made the Sovereign Yahweh my refuge,
That I may tell of all your works.

74 Maschil of Asaph.

- O God, why have you cast [us] off forever?
Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?
² Remember your congregation, which you have gotten of old,
Which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your
inheritance;
[And] mount Zion, in which you have stayed.
³ Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins,
All the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
⁴ Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly;
They have set up their ensigns for signs.
⁵ They seemed as men who lifted up
Axes on a thicket of trees.
⁶ And now all its carved work
They break down with hatchet and hammers.
⁷ They have set your sanctuary on fire;
They have profaned the dwelling-place of your name [by casting it] to the ground.
⁸ They said in their heart, Let us make havoc of them altogether:
They have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.
⁹ We don't see our signs:
There is no more any prophet;
Neither is there among us any who knows how long.
¹⁰ How long, O God, will the adversary reproach?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
¹¹ Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand?
[Pluck it] out of your bosom [and] consume [them].
¹² Yet God is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
¹³ You divided the sea by your strength:
You broke the heads of the sea-monsters in the waters.
¹⁴ You broke the heads of leviathan in pieces;
You gave him to be food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.
¹⁵ You split fountain and flood:
You dried up mighty rivers.
¹⁶ The day is yours, the night also is yours:
You have prepared the light and the sun.
¹⁷ You have set all the borders of the earth:
You have made summer and winter.
¹⁸ Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O Yahweh,
And that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
¹⁹ Oh don't deliver the soul of your turtledove to the wild beast:
Don't forget the life of your poor forever.
²⁰ Have respect to the covenant;
For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of violence.
²¹ Oh don't let the oppressed return ashamed:
Let the poor and needy praise your name.
²² Arise, O God, plead your own cause:

- Remember how the foolish man reproaches you all the day.
²³ Do not forget the voice of your adversaries:
The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

75 For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tash-heth. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

- We give thanks to you, O God;
We give thanks and call on your name:
We tell of your wondrous works.
² When I will find the set time,
I will judge uprightly.
³ The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved:
I have set up the pillars of it. Selah.
⁴ I said to the arrogant, Do not deal arrogantly;
And to the wicked, Don't lift up the horn:
⁵ Don't lift up your* horn on high;
Don't speak with a stiff neck.
⁶ For neither from the east, nor from the west,
Nor yet from the south, [comes] lifting up.
⁷ But God is the judge:
He puts down one, and lifts up another.
⁸ For in the hand of Yahweh there is a cup, and the wine foams;
It is an undiluted mixture, and he pours out of the same:
Surely its dregs, all the wicked of the earth will drain them,
and drink them.
⁹ But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
¹⁰ All the horns of the wicked also I will cut off;
But the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

76 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

- In Judah is God known:
His name is great in Israel.
² In Salem also is his tabernacle,
And his dwelling-place in Zion.
³ There he broke the arrows of the bow;
The shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.
⁴ Glorious are you [and] majestic,
From the everlasting mountains.
⁵ The stouthearted are made a spoil,
They have slept their sleep;
And none of the men of might have found their hands.
⁶ At your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
⁷ You, even you, are to be awed;
And who may stand in your sight when once you are angry?
⁸ You caused sentence to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared, and was still,
⁹ When God arose to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth. Selah.
¹⁰ Surely the wrath of man will praise you:
The residue of wrath you will gird on you.
¹¹ Vow, and pay to Yahweh your* God:
Let all who are round about him bring presents to him who ought to be feared.
¹² He will cut off the spirit of leaders:
He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

77 For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

- I will cry to God with my voice,
Even to God with my voice; and he will give ear to me.
- ² In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord:
My hand during the night [was] before him, and did not slack;
My soul refused to be comforted.
- ³ I remember God, and am disquieted:
I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. Selah.
- ⁴ You hold my eyes watching:
I am so troubled that I can't speak.
- ⁵ I have considered the days of old,
I call to remembrance the years of ancient times.
- ⁶ I sang in the night:
With my own heart I meditate;
And my spirit makes diligent search.
- ⁷ Will the Lord cast off forever?
And will he be favorable no more?
- ⁸ Is his loving-kindness clean gone forever?
Does his promise fail forevermore?
- ⁹ Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.
- ¹⁰ And I said, This is my infirmity;
[But I will remember] the years of the right hand of the Most High.
- ¹¹ I will make mention of the deeds of Yah;
For I will remember your wonders of old.
- ¹² I will meditate also on all your work,
And muse on your doings.
- ¹³ Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary:
Who is a great god like God?
- ¹⁴ You are the God who does wonders:
You have made known your strength among the peoples.
- ¹⁵ You have with your arm redeemed your people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.
- ¹⁶ The waters saw you, O God;
The waters saw you, they were afraid:
The depths also trembled.
- ¹⁷ The clouds poured out water;
The skies sent out a sound:
Your arrows also went abroad.
- ¹⁸ The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
The lightnings lightened the world:
The earth trembled and shook.
- ¹⁹ Your way was in the sea,
And your paths in the great waters,
And your footsteps were not known.
- ²⁰ You led your people like a flock,
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78 Maschil of Asaph.

- Give ear, O my people, to my law:
Incline your⁺ ears to the words of my mouth.
- ² I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will gush out dark sayings of old,
- ³ Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
- ⁴ We will not hide them from their sons,
Telling to the generation to come the praises of Yahweh,
And his strength, and his wondrous works that he has done.

- ⁵ For he established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which he commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to their sons;
- ⁶ That the generation to come might know [them], even the sons who should be born;
Who should arise and tell [them] to their sons,
- ⁷ That they might set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep his commandments,
- ⁸ And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that did not set their heart aright,
And whose spirit was not steadfast with God.
- ⁹ The sons of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
- ¹⁰ They did not keep the covenant of God,
And refused to walk in his law;
- ¹¹ And they forgot his doings,
And his wondrous works that he had shown them.
- ¹² He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
- ¹³ He split the sea, and caused them to pass through;
And he made the waters to stand as a heap.
- ¹⁴ In the daytime also he led them with a cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
- ¹⁵ He split rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
- ¹⁶ He brought streams also out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.
- ¹⁷ Yet they still went on to sin against him,
To rebel against the Most High in the desert.
- ¹⁸ And they tried God in their heart
By asking food according to their soul.
- ¹⁹ Yes, they spoke against God;
They said, Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?
- ²⁰ Look, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
And streams overflowed;
Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?
- ²¹ Therefore Yahweh heard, and was furious;
And a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also went up against Israel;
- ²² Because they did not believe in God,
And did not trust in his salvation.
- ²³ Yet he commanded the skies above,
And opened the doors of heaven;
- ²⁴ And he rained down manna on them to eat,
And gave them food from heaven.
- ²⁵ Man ate the bread of the mighty:
He sent them food to the full.
- ²⁶ He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens;
And by his power he guided the south wind.
- ²⁷ He rained flesh also on them as the dust,
And winged birds as the sand of the seas:
- ²⁸ And he let it fall in the midst of their camp,
Round about their habitations.
- ²⁹ So they ate, and were well filled;
And he gave them their own desire.
- ³⁰ They were not estranged from that which they desired,
Their food was yet in their mouths,
- ³¹ When the anger of God went up against them,
And slew of the fattest of them,
And struck down the young men of Israel.
- ³² For all this they sinned still,
And did not believe in his wondrous works.
- ³³ Therefore their days he consumed in vanity,
And their years in terror.
- ³⁴ When he slew them, then they inquired after him;
And they returned and sought God earnestly.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock,
 And the Most High God their redeemer.
 36 But they flattered him with their mouth,
 And lied to him with their tongue.
 37 For their heart was not right with him,
 Neither were they faithful in his covenant.
 38 But he, being merciful, forgave [their] iniquity, and destroyed
 [them] not:
 Yes, many a time he turned his anger away,
 And did not stir up all his wrath.
 39 And he remembered that they were but flesh,
 A wind that passes away, and does not come again.
 40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness,
 And grieved him in the desert!
 41 And they turned again and tried God,
 And provoked the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They did not remember his hand,
 Nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
 43 How he set his signs in Egypt,
 And his wonders in the field of Zoan,
 44 And turned their rivers into blood,
 And their streams, so that they could not drink.
 45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them;
 And frogs, which destroyed them.
 46 He gave also their increase to the caterpillar,
 And their labor to the locust.
 47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
 And their sycamore-trees with frost.
 48 He gave over their cattle also to the hail,
 And their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
 49 He cast on them the fierceness of his anger,
 Wrath, and indignation, and trouble,
 A band of angels of evil.
 50 He made a path for his anger;
 He did not spare their soul from death,
 But gave their life over to the pestilence,
 51 And struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
 The chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
 52 But he led forth his own people like sheep,
 And guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
 53 And he led them safely, so that they did not fear;
 But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
 54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary,
 To this mountain, which his right hand had gotten.
 55 He drove out the nations also before them,
 And allotted them for an inheritance by line,
 And caused the tribes of Israel to stay in their tents.
 56 Yet they tried and rebelled against the Most High God,
 And did not keep his testimonies;
 57 But turned back, and betrayed [him] like their fathers:
 They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
 58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places,
 And moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
 59 When God heard [this], he was furious,
 And greatly abhorred Israel;
 60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
 The tent which he made a place to stay among man;
 61 And delivered his strength into captivity,
 And his glory into the adversary's hand.
 62 He gave his people over also to the sword,
 And was furious with his inheritance.
 63 Fire devoured their young men;
 And their virgins had no marriage-song.
 64 Their priests fell by the sword;
 And their widows made no lamentation.
 65 Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep,
 Like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
 66 And he struck his adversaries backward:
 He put them to a perpetual reproach.
 67 Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph,

And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,
 68 But chose the tribe of Judah,
 The mount Zion which he loved.
 69 And he built his sanctuary like the heights,
 Like the earth which he has established forever.
 70 He chose David also his slave,
 And took him from the sheepfolds:
 71 From following the ewes that have their young he brought him,
 To be the shepherd of Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.
 72 So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart,
 And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

79 A Psalm of Asaph.

O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;
 Your holy temple they have defiled;
 They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
 2 The dead bodies of your slaves they have given to be food to the birds of the heavens,
 The flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.
 3 Their blood they have shed like water round about Jerusalem;
 And there was none to bury them.
 4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
 A scoffing and derision to those who are round about us.
 5 How long, O Yahweh? Will you be angry forever?
 Will your jealousy burn like fire?
 6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you,
 And on the kingdoms that do not call on your name.
 7 For they have devoured Jacob,
 And laid waste his habitation.
 8 Don't remember against us the iniquities of our forefathers:
 Let your tender mercies speedily meet us;
 For we are brought very low.
 9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name;
 And deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.
 10 Why should the nations say, Where is their God?
 Let the avenging of the blood of your slaves which is shed
 Be known among the nations in our sight.
 11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you:
 According to the greatness of your power, preserve those who are appointed to death;
 12 And render to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom
 Their reproach, with which they have reproached you, O Lord.
 13 So we your people and sheep of your pasture
 Will give you thanks forever:
 We will show forth your praise to all generations.

80 For the Chief Musician, set to Shoshannim Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
 You who lead Joseph like a flock;
 You who sit [above] the cherubim, shine forth.
 2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might,
 And come to save us.
 3 Turn us again, O God;
 And cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

- ⁴ O Yahweh God of hosts,
How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?
- ⁵ You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in large measure.
- ⁶ You make us a strife to our neighbors;
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
- ⁷ Turn us again, O God of hosts;
And cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.
- ⁸ You brought a vine out of Egypt:
You drove out the nations, and planted it.
- ⁹ You prepared [room] before it,
And it took deep root, and filled the land.
- ¹⁰ The mountains were covered with its shadow,
And its boughs were [like] cedars of God.
- ¹¹ It sent out its branches to the sea,
And its shoots to the River.
- ¹² Why have you broken down its walls,
So that all those who pass by the way pluck it?
- ¹³ The boar out of the forest ravages it,
And the wild beasts of the field feed on it.
- ¹⁴ Turn again, we urge you, O God of hosts:
Look down from heaven, and look, and visit this vine,
- ¹⁵ And the stock which your right hand planted,
And the son who you made strong for yourself.
- ¹⁶ It is burned with fire, it is cut down:
They perish at the rebuke of your countenance.
- ¹⁷ Let your hand be on the man of your right hand,
On the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
- ¹⁸ So we will not go back from you:
Quicken us, and we will call on your name.
- ¹⁹ Turn us again, O Yahweh God of hosts;
Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

81 For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. [A Psalm] of Asaph.

- Sing aloud to God our strength:
Make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.
- ² Raise a song, and bring here the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the psaltery.
- ³ Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
At the full moon, on our feast-day.
- ⁴ For it is a statute for Israel,
An ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- ⁵ He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony,
When he went out over the land of Egypt,
[Where] I heard a language that I did not know.
- ⁶ I removed his shoulder from the burden:
His hands were freed from the basket.
- ⁷ You called in trouble, and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I proved you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.
- ⁸ Hear, O my people, and I will testify to you:
O Israel, if you would listen to me!
- ⁹ There will be no strange god in you;
Neither will you worship any foreign god.
- ¹⁰ I am Yahweh your God,
Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt:
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- ¹¹ But my people did not listen to my voice;
And Israel did not want me.
- ¹² So I let them go after the stubbornness of their heart,

^a gods refers to 'judges' of the people. See it also used this way in verse 6, as well as Exodus 21:6, 22:8-9, 22:28, and John 10:34-35. Also see the footnote at Exodus 22:9.

- That they might walk in their own counsels.
- ¹³ Oh that my people would listen to me,
That Israel would walk in my ways!
- ¹⁴ I would soon subdue their enemies,
And turn my hand against their adversaries.
- ¹⁵ The haters of Yahweh should submit themselves to him:
But their time should endure forever.
- ¹⁶ He would feed them also with the finest of the wheat;
And with honey out of the rock I would satisfy you.

82 A Psalm of Asaph.

- God stands in the congregation of God;
He judges among the gods.^a
- ² How long will you⁺ judge unjustly,
And respect the persons of the wicked? Selah.
- ³ Judge the poor and fatherless:
Do justice to the afflicted and destitute.
- ⁴ Rescue the poor and needy:
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.
- ⁵ They don't know, neither do they understand;
They walk to and fro in darkness:
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- ⁶ I said, You⁺ are gods,^b
And all of you⁺ are sons of the Most High.
- ⁷ Nevertheless you⁺ will die like man,
And fall like one of the princes.
- ⁸ Arise, O God, judge the earth;
For you will inherit all the nations.

83 A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

- O God, don't keep your silence:
Don't hold your peace, and don't be still, O God.
- ² For, look, your enemies make a tumult;
And those who hate you have lifted up the head.
- ³ They take crafty counsel against your people,
And consult together against your hidden ones.
- ⁴ They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation;
That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
- ⁵ For they have consulted together with one consent;
Against you they make a covenant:
- ⁶ The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab, and the Hagarenes;
- ⁷ Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek;
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre:
- ⁸ Assyria also is joined with them;
They have helped the sons of Lot. Selah.
- ⁹ Do to them as to Midian,
As to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;
- ¹⁰ Who perished at Endor,
Who became as dung for the earth.
- ¹¹ Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb;
Yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna;
- ¹² Who said, Let us take to ourselves in possession
The habitations of God.
- ¹³ O my God, make them like the whirling dust;
As stubble before the wind.
- ¹⁴ As the fire that burns the forest,
And as the flame that sets the mountains on fire,
- ¹⁵ So pursue them with your tempest,

^b gods here means judges, see footnotes at Psalm 82:1 and Exodus 22:9. See also John 10:34-35.

And terrify them with your storm.
¹⁶ Fill their faces with confusion,
 That they may seek your name, O Yahweh.
¹⁷ Let them be put to shame and dismayed forever;
 Yes, let them be confounded and perish;
¹⁸ That they may know that you alone, whose name is Yahweh,
 Are the Most High over all the earth.

84 For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

How amiable are your tabernacles,
 O Yahweh of hosts!
² My soul longs, yes, even faints for the courts of Yahweh;
 My heart and my flesh cry out to the living God.
³ Yes, the sparrow has found her a house,
 And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young,
 Even your altars, O Yahweh of hosts,
 My King, and my God.
⁴ Blessed are those who dwell in your house:
 They will still be praising you. Selah.
⁵ Blessed is [the] man whose strength is in you;
 In whose heart are the highways [to Zion].
⁶ Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs;
 Yes, the early rain covers it with blessings.
⁷ They go from strength to strength;
 The God of gods will be seen^a in Zion.
⁸ O Yahweh God of hosts, hear my prayer;
 Give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.
⁹ Look, O God our shield,
 And look at the face of your anointed.
¹⁰ For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.
 I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
 Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
¹¹ For Yahweh God is a sun and a shield:
 Yahweh will give grace and glory;
 No good thing will he withhold from those who walk uprightly.
¹² O Yahweh of hosts,
 Blessed is [the] man who trusts in you.

85 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Yahweh, you have been favorable to your land;
 You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.
² You have forgiven the iniquity of your people;
 You have covered all their sin. Selah.
³ You have taken away all your wrath;
 You have turned [yourself] from the fierceness of your anger.
⁴ Turn us, O God of our salvation,
 And cause your indignation toward us to cease.
⁵ Will you be angry with us forever?
 Will you draw out your anger to all generations?
⁶ Will you not quicken us again,
 That your people may rejoice in you?
⁷ Show us your loving-kindness, O Yahweh,
 And grant us your salvation.

⁸ I will hear what God Yahweh will speak;
 For he will speak peace to his people, and to his saints:
 But don't let them turn again to folly.
⁹ Surely his salvation is near those who fear him,
 That glory may stay in our land.
¹⁰ Mercy and truth are met together;
 Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
¹¹ Truth springs out of the earth;
 And righteousness has looked down from heaven.
¹² Yes, Yahweh will give that which is good;
 And our land will yield its increase.
¹³ Righteousness will go before him,
 And will make his footsteps a way [to walk in].

86 A Prayer of David

Bow down your ear, O Yahweh, and answer me;
 For I am poor and needy.
² Preserve my soul; for I am godly:
 O you my God, save your slave who trusts in you.
³ Be merciful to me, O Lord;
 For to you I cry all the day long.
⁴ Rejoice the soul of your slave;
 For to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
⁵ For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive,
 And abundant in loving-kindness to all those who call on you.
⁶ Give ear, O Yahweh, to my prayer;
 And listen to the voice of my supplications.
⁷ In the day of my trouble I will call on you;
 For you will answer me.
⁸ There is none like you among the gods, O Lord;
 Neither [are there any works] like your works.
⁹ All nations whom you have made will come and worship before you, O Lord;
 And they will glorify your name.
¹⁰ For you are great, and do wondrous things:
 You alone are God.
¹¹ Teach me your way, O Yahweh; I will walk in your truth:
 Unite my heart to fear your name.
¹² I will praise you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart;
 And I will glorify your name forevermore.
¹³ For great is your loving-kindness toward me;
 And you have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
¹⁴ O God, the proud have risen up against me,
 And a company of violent men have sought after my soul,
 And have not set you before them.
¹⁵ But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious,
 Slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness and truth.
¹⁶ Oh turn to me, and have mercy on me;
 Give your strength to your male slave,
 And save the son of your female slave.
¹⁷ Show me a token for good,
 That those who hate me may see it, and be put to shame,
 Because you, Yahweh, have helped me, and comforted me.

87 A Psalm of the sons of Korah; a Song.

His foundation is in the holy mountains.

² Yahweh loves the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.

³ Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God. Selah.

⁴ I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon as among those who know me:

Look, Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia:
This [man] was born there.

⁵ Yes, of Zion it will be said, This man and that man were born in her;

And the Most High himself will establish her.

⁶ Yahweh will count, when he writes up the peoples,
This [man] was born there. Selah.

⁷ Those who sing as well as those who dance [will say]
All my fountains are in you.

88 A Song, a Psalm of the sons of Korah;
for the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath Leannoth.
Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

O Yahweh, the God of my salvation,
I have cried day and night before you.

² Let my prayer enter into your presence;
Incline your ear to my cry.

³ For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life draws near to Sheol.

⁴ I am reckoned with those who go down into the pit;
I am as an [able-bodied] man without strength,

⁵ Cast off among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom you remember no more,
And they are cut off from your hand.

⁶ You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In dark places, in the deeps.

⁷ Your wrath lies hard on me,
And you have afflicted me with all your waves. Selah.

⁸ You have put my acquaintances far from me;
You have made me disgusting to them:

I am shut up, and I can't come forth.

⁹ My eye wastes away by reason of affliction:
I have called daily on you, O Yahweh;

I have spread forth my hands to you.

¹⁰ Will you show wonders to the dead?
Will the spirits of the dead arise and praise you? Selah.

¹¹ Will your loving-kindness be declared in the grave?
Or your faithfulness in Destruction?

¹² Will your wonders be known in the dark?
And your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

¹³ But to you, O Yahweh, I have cried;
And in the morning my prayer will come before you.

¹⁴ Yahweh, why do you cast off my soul?
Why do you hide your face from me?

¹⁵ I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up:
While I suffer your terrors I am distracted.

¹⁶ Your fierce wrath has gone over me;
Your terrors have cut me off.

¹⁷ They came round about me like water all the day long;
They surrounded me together.

¹⁸ Lover and companion you have put far from me,
My acquaintances into darkness.

89 Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I will sing of the loving-kindness of Yahweh forever:

With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.

² For I have said, Mercy will be built up forever;
Your faithfulness you will establish in the very heavens.

³ I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn to David my slave:

⁴ Your seed I will establish forever,
And build up your throne to all generations. Selah.

⁵ And the heavens will praise your wonders, O Yahweh;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

⁶ For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh?
Who among the sons of the mighty is like Yahweh,

⁷ A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,
And to be awed above all those who are round about him?

⁸ O Yahweh God of hosts,
Who is a mighty one, like you, O Yah?
And your faithfulness is round about you.

⁹ You rule the pride of the sea:
When its waves arise, you still them.

¹⁰ You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one who is slain;
You have scattered your enemies with the arm of your strength.

¹¹ The heavens are yours, the earth also is yours:
The world and the fullness of it, you have founded them.

¹² The north and the south, you have created them:
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.

¹³ You have a mighty arm;
Strong is your hand, and high is your right hand.

¹⁴ Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne:
Loving-kindness and truth go before your face.

¹⁵ Blessed is the people who know the joyful sound:
They walk, O Yahweh, in the light of your countenance.

¹⁶ In your name they rejoice all the day;
And in your righteousness they stand.

¹⁷ For you are the glory of their strength;
And in your favor our horn will be exalted.

¹⁸ For our shield belongs to Yahweh;
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁹ Then you spoke in vision to your saints,
And said, I have laid help on one who is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

²⁰ I have found David my slave;
With my holy oil I have anointed him:

²¹ With whom my hand will be established;
My arm also will strengthen him.

²² The enemy will not exact from him,
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

²³ And I will beat down his adversaries before him,
And strike those who hate him.

²⁴ But my faithfulness and my loving-kindness will be with him;
And in my name will his horn be exalted.

²⁵ I will set his hand also on the sea,
And his right hand on the rivers.

²⁶ He will cry to me, You are my Father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.

²⁷ I also will make him [my] firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the earth.

²⁸ My loving-kindness I will keep for him forevermore;
And my covenant will stand fast with him.

²⁹ His seed also I will make to endure forever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.

³⁰ If his sons forsake my law,
And don't walk in my ordinances;

³¹ If they break my statutes,

And don't keep my commandments;
³² Then I will visit their transgression with the rod,
 And their iniquity with stripes.
³³ But my loving-kindness I will not completely take from him,
 Nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
³⁴ My covenant I will not break,
 Nor alter the thing that has gone out of my lips.
³⁵ Once I have sworn by my holiness:
 I will not lie to David:
³⁶ His seed will endure forever,
 And his throne as the sun before me.
³⁷ It will be established forever as the moon,
 And [as] the faithful witness in the sky. Selah.

³⁸ But you have cast off and rejected,
 You have been furious with your anointed.
³⁹ You have abhorred the covenant of your slave:
 You have profaned his crown [by casting it] to the ground.
⁴⁰ You have broken down all his hedges;
 You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
⁴¹ All who pass by the way rob him:
 He has become a reproach to his neighbors.
⁴² You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
 You have made all his enemies to rejoice.
⁴³ Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword,
 And have not made him to stand in the battle.
⁴⁴ You have made his brightness to cease,
 And cast his throne down to the ground.
⁴⁵ The days of his youth you have shortened:
 You have covered him with shame. Selah.

⁴⁶ How long, O Yahweh? Will you hide yourself forever?
 [How long] will your wrath burn like fire?
⁴⁷ Remember me: How short is my lifetime?
 For what vanity have you created all the sons of man?
⁴⁸ What [prominent] man is he who will live and not see death,
 Who will deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah.

⁴⁹ Lord, where are your former loving-kindnesses,
 Which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
⁵⁰ Remember, Lord, the reproach of your slaves,
 That I bear in my bosom from all of the many peoples,
⁵¹ With which your enemies have reproached, O Yahweh,
 With which they have reproached the footsteps of your anointed.

⁵² Blessed be Yahweh forevermore.
 Amen, and Amen.

90 BOOK IV.

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

Lord, you have been our dwelling-place
 In all generations.
² Before the mountains were brought forth,
 Or you had ever formed the earth and the world,
 Even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
³ You turn common man to destruction,
 And say, Return, you* sons of man.
⁴ For a thousand years in your sight
 Are but as yesterday when it is past,
 And as a watch in the night.
⁵ You carry them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep:
 In the morning they are like grass which grows up.
⁶ In the morning it flourishes, and grows up;
 In the evening it is cut down, and withers.
⁷ For we are consumed in your anger,
 And in your wrath are we troubled.

⁸ You have set our iniquities before you,
 Our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
⁹ For all our days are passed away in your wrath:
 We bring our years to an end as a sigh.
¹⁰ The days of our years are seventy years,
 Or even by reason of strength eighty years;
 Yet is their pride but labor and sorrow;
 For it is soon gone, and we fly away.
¹¹ Who knows the power of your anger,
 And your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?
¹² So teach us to number our days,
 That we may get us a heart of wisdom.
¹³ Return, O Yahweh; how long?
 And let it repent you concerning your slaves.
¹⁴ Oh satisfy us in the morning with your loving-kindness,
 That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
¹⁵ Make us glad according to the days in which you have afflicted us,
 And the years in which we have seen evil.
¹⁶ Let your work appear to your slaves,
 And your majesty on their sons.
¹⁷ And let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
 And establish the work of our hands on us;
 Yes, the work of our hands establish it.

91 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
 Will reside under the shadow of the Almighty.

² I will say of Yahweh, He is my refuge and my fortress;
 My God, in whom I trust.
³ For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler,
 And from the word of calamity.
⁴ He will cover you with his pinions,
 And under his wings you will take refuge:
 His truth is a shield and a buckler.
⁵ You will not be afraid for the terror by night,
 Nor for the arrow that flies by day;
⁶ For the pestilence that walks in darkness,
 Nor for the destruction that wastes at noonday.
⁷ A thousand will fall at your side,
 And ten thousand at your right hand;
 [But] it will not come near you.
⁸ Only with your eyes you will look,
 And see the reward of the wicked.
⁹ For you, O Yahweh, are my refuge!
 You have made the Most High your habitation;
¹⁰ No evil will befall you,
 Neither will any plague come near your tent.
¹¹ For he will give his angels charge over you,
 To keep you in all your ways.
¹² They will bear you up in their hands,
 Or else you would dash your foot against a stone.
¹³ You will tread on the lion and cobra:
 The young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.
¹⁴ Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver
 him:
 I will set him on high, because he has known my name.
¹⁵ He will call on me, and I will answer him;
 I will be with him in trouble:
 I will deliver him, and honor him.
¹⁶ With long life I will satisfy him,
 And show him my salvation.

92 A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath day.

It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh,
 And to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
² To show forth your loving-kindness in the morning,
 And your faithfulness every night,

³ With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery;
With a solemn sound on the harp.
⁴ For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your work:
I will triumph in the works of your hands.
⁵ How great are your works, O Yahweh!
Your thoughts are very deep.
⁶ A brutish man does not know;
Neither does a fool understand this:
⁷ When the wicked spring as the grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity flourish;
It is that they will be destroyed forever.
⁸ But you, O Yahweh, are on high forevermore.
⁹ For, look, your enemies, O Yahweh,
For, look, your enemies will perish;
All the workers of iniquity will be scattered.
¹⁰ But my horn you have exalted like [the horn of] the wild-ox:
I am anointed with fresh oil.
¹¹ My eye also has seen my enemies,
My ears have heard the evildoers who rise up against me.
¹² The righteous will flourish like the palm-tree:
He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
¹³ They are planted in the house of Yahweh;
They will flourish in the courts of our God.
¹⁴ They will still bring forth fruit in old age;
They will be full of sap and green:
¹⁵ To show that Yahweh is upright;
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93 Yahweh reigns; he is clothed with splendor;
Yahweh is clothed with strength; he has girded himself with it:
Indeed, the world will be established, it will not be moved.
² Your throne is established of old:
You are from everlasting.
³ The floods have lifted up, O Yahweh,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.
⁴ Above the voices of many waters,
The majestic breakers of the sea,
Yahweh on high is majestic.
⁵ Your testimonies are very sure:
Holiness becomes your house,
O Yahweh, forevermore.

94 O Yahweh, God to whom vengeance belongs,
God to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth.
² Lift up yourself, Judge of the earth:
Render to the proud [their] desert.
³ Yahweh, how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked triumph?
⁴ They gush out, they speak arrogantly:
All the workers of iniquity boast themselves.
⁵ They break in pieces your people, O Yahweh,
And afflict your heritage.
⁶ They slay the widow and the sojourner,
And murder the fatherless.
⁷ And they say, Yah will not see,
Neither will the God of Jacob consider.
⁸ Consider, you⁺ brutish among the people;
And you⁺ fools, when will you⁺ be wise?
⁹ He who planted the ear, will he not hear?
He who formed the eye, will he not see?
¹⁰ He who chastises the nations, will not he correct,
[Even] he who teaches man knowledge?
¹¹ Yahweh knows the thoughts of man,
That they are vanity.
¹² Blessed is the [noble] man whom you chasten, O Yah,
And teach out of your law;

¹³ That you may give him rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit is dug for the wicked.
¹⁴ For Yahweh will not cast off his people,
Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
¹⁵ For judgment will return to righteousness;
And all the upright in heart will follow it.
¹⁶ Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
¹⁷ Unless Yahweh had been my help,
My soul would have soon stayed in silence.
¹⁸ When I said, My foot slips;
Your loving-kindness, O Yahweh, held me up.
¹⁹ In the multitude of my thoughts inside me
Your comforts delight my soul.
²⁰ Will the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you,
Which frames mischief by statute?
²¹ They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
And condemn the innocent blood.
²² But Yahweh has been my high tower,
And my God the rock of my refuge.
²³ And he has brought on them their own iniquity,
And will cut them off in their own wickedness;
Yahweh our God will cut them off.

95 Oh come, let us sing to Yahweh;
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
² Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
Let us make a joyful noise to him with psalms.
³ For Yahweh is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.
⁴ In his hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the mountains are his also.
⁵ The sea is his, and he made it;
And his hands formed the dry land.
⁶ Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before Yahweh our Maker:
⁷ For he is our God,
And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
Today, oh that you⁺ would hear his voice!
⁸ Do not harden your⁺ heart, as at Meribah,
As in the day of Massah in the wilderness;
⁹ When your⁺ fathers tried me,
Proved me, and saw my work.
¹⁰ Forty years long I was grieved with [that] generation,
And said, It is a people who errs in their heart,
And they have not known my ways:
¹¹ Therefore I swore in my wrath,
That they should not enter into my rest.

96 Oh sing to Yahweh a new song:
Sing to Yahweh, all the earth.
² Sing to Yahweh, bless his name;
Proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
³ Declare his glory among the nations,
His marvelous works among all the peoples.
⁴ For great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised:
He is to be awed above all gods.
⁵ For all the gods of the peoples are idols;
But Yahweh made the heavens.
⁶ Grandeur and majesty are before him:
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
⁷ Ascribe to Yahweh, you⁺ kindreds of the peoples,
Ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength.
⁸ Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his name:
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
⁹ Oh worship Yahweh in holy array:

Tremble before him, all the earth.

- ¹⁰ Say among the nations, Yahweh reigns:
Indeed, the world will be established, it will not be moved:
He will judge the peoples with equity.
- ¹¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it;
- ¹² Let the field exult, and all that is in it;
Then will all the trees of the forest sing for joy
- ¹³ Before Yahweh; for he comes,
For he comes to judge the earth:
He will judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with his truth.

- 97 Yahweh reigns; let the earth rejoice;
Let the multitude of isles be glad.
- ² Clouds and darkness are round about him:
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
- ³ A fire goes before him,
And burns up his adversaries round about.
- ⁴ His lightnings lightened the world:
The earth saw, and trembled.
- ⁵ The mountains melted like wax at the presence of Yahweh,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- ⁶ The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the peoples have seen his glory.
- ⁷ Let all them be put to shame that serve graven images,
That boast themselves of idols:
Worship him, all you⁺ gods.
- ⁸ Zion heard and was glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoiced,
Because of your judgments, O Yahweh.
- ⁹ For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth:
You are exalted far above all gods.
- ¹⁰ O you⁺ who love Yahweh, hate evil:
He preserves the souls of his saints;
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
- ¹¹ Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
- ¹² Be glad in Yahweh, you⁺ righteous;
And give thanks to his holy memorial [name].

98 A Psalm.

- Oh sing to Yahweh a new song;
For he has done marvelous things:
His right hand, and his holy arm, has wrought salvation for him.
- ² Yahweh has made known his salvation:
His righteousness he has openly shown in the sight of the nations.
- ³ He has remembered his loving-kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- ⁴ Make a joyful noise to Yahweh, all the earth:
Break forth and sing for joy, yes, sing praises.
- ⁵ Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp;
With the harp and the voice of melody.
- ⁶ With trumpets and sound of cornet
Make a joyful noise before the King, Yahweh.
- ⁷ Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it;
The world, and those who dwell in it;
- ⁸ Let the floods clap their hands;
Let the hills sing for joy together
- ⁹ Before Yahweh; for he comes to judge the earth:
He will judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with equity.

- 99 Yahweh reigns; let the peoples tremble:
He sits [above] the cherubim; let the earth be moved.
- ² Yahweh is great in Zion;
And he is high above all the peoples.
- ³ Let them praise your great and awesome name:
He is holy.

- ⁴ The king's strength also loves justice;
You establish equity;
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.
- ⁵ Exalt⁺ Yahweh our God,
And worship at his footstool:
He is holy.

- ⁶ Moses and Aaron among his priests,
And Samuel among those who call on his name;
They called on Yahweh, and he answered them.
- ⁷ He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud:
They kept his testimonies,
And the statute that he gave them.
- ⁸ You answered them, O Yahweh our God:
You were a God who forgave them,
Though you took vengeance of their doings.
- ⁹ Exalt⁺ Yahweh our God,
And worship at his holy hill;
For Yahweh our God is holy.

100 A Psalm of thanksgiving.

- Make a joyful noise to Yahweh, all you⁺ lands.
- ² Serve Yahweh with gladness:
Come before his presence with singing.
- ³ Know⁺ that Yahweh, he is God:
It is he who has made us, and we are his;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
- ⁴ Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:
Give thanks to him, and bless his name.
- ⁵ For Yahweh is good; his loving-kindness [endures] forever,
And his faithfulness to all generations.

101 A Psalm of David.

- I will sing of loving-kindness and justice:
To you, O Yahweh, I will sing praises.
- ² I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way:
Oh when will you come to me?
I will walk inside my house with a perfect heart.
- ³ I will set no base thing before my eyes:
I hate the work of those who turn aside;
It will not stick to me.
- ⁴ A perverse heart will depart from me:
I will know no evil thing.
- ⁵ Whoever secretly slanders his fellow man, I will destroy him:
I will not allow him who has a high look and a proud heart.
- ⁶ My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me:
He who walks in a perfect way, he will minister to me.
- ⁷ He who works deceit will not dwell inside my house:
He who speaks falsehood will not be established before my eyes.
- ⁸ Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land;
To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of Yahweh.

102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and pours out his complaint before Yahweh.

Hear my prayer, O Yahweh,
And let my cry come to you.
² Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress:
Incline your ear to me;
In the day when I call answer me speedily.
³ For my days consume away in smoke,
And my bones are burned as a firebrand.
⁴ My heart is struck like grass, and withered;
For I forget to eat my bread.
⁵ By reason of the voice of my groaning
My bones stick to my flesh.
⁶ I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I have become as an owl of the waste places.
⁷ I watch, and have become like a sparrow
That is alone on the housetop.
⁸ My enemies reproach me all the day;
Those who are insane against me curse by me.
⁹ For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mingled my drink with weeping,
¹⁰ Because of your indignation and your wrath:
For you have taken me up, and cast me away.
¹¹ My days are like a shadow that declines;
And I am withered like grass.
¹² But you, O Yahweh, will remain forever;
And your memorial [name] to all generations.
¹³ You will arise, and have mercy on Zion;
For it is time to have pity on her,
Yes, the set time has come.
¹⁴ For your slaves take pleasure in her stones,
And have pity on her dust.
¹⁵ So the nations will fear the name of Yahweh,
And all the kings of the earth your glory.
¹⁶ For Yahweh has built up Zion;
He has appeared in his glory.
¹⁷ He has regarded the prayer of the destitute,
And has not despised their prayer.
¹⁸ This will be written for the generation to come;
And a people which will be created will praise Yah.
¹⁹ For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary;
From heaven Yahweh looked at the earth;
²⁰ To hear the sighing of the prisoner;
To loose those who are appointed to death;
²¹ That men may declare the name of Yahweh in Zion,
And his praise in Jerusalem;
²² When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve Yahweh.
²³ He weakened my strength in the way;
He shortened my days.
²⁴ I said, O my God, don't take me away in the midst of my days:
Your years are throughout all generations.
²⁵ Of old did you lay the foundation of the earth;
And the heavens are the work of your hands.
²⁶ They will perish, but you will endure;
Yes, all of them will wax old like a garment;
As a vesture you will change them, and they will be changed:
²⁷ But you are the same,
And your years will have no end.
²⁸ The sons of your slaves will stay,
And their seed will be established before you.

103 [A Psalm] of David.

Bless Yahweh, O my soul;
And all that is inside me, [bless] his holy name.
² Bless Yahweh, O my soul,
And do not forget all his benefits:
³ Who forgives all your iniquities;
Who heals all your diseases;
⁴ Who redeems your life from the pit;
Who crowns you with loving-kindness and tender mercies;
⁵ Who satisfies your desire with good things,
[So that] your vitality is renewed like the eagle.
⁶ Yahweh executes righteous acts,
And judgments for all who are oppressed.
⁷ He made known his ways to Moses,
His doings to the sons of Israel.
⁸ Yahweh is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness.
⁹ He will not always chide;
Neither will he keep [his anger] forever.
¹⁰ He has not dealt with us after our sins,
Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.
¹¹ For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is his loving-kindness toward those who fear him.
¹² As far as the east is from the west,
So far has he removed our transgressions from us.
¹³ Like a father pities his sons,
So Yahweh pities those who fear him.
¹⁴ For he knows our frame;
He remembers that we are dust.
¹⁵ As for common man, his days are as grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
¹⁶ For the wind passes over it, and it is gone;
And its place will know it no more.
¹⁷ But the loving-kindness of Yahweh is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him,
And his righteousness to sons of sons;
¹⁸ To such as keep his covenant,
And to those who remember his precepts to do them.
¹⁹ Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens;
And his kingdom rules over all.
²⁰ Bless Yahweh, you⁺ his angels,
Who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word,
Listening to the voice of his word.
²¹ Bless Yahweh, all you⁺ his hosts,
You⁺ ministers of his, who do his pleasure.
²² Bless Yahweh, all you⁺ his works,
In all places of his dominion:
Bless Yahweh, O my soul.

104 Bless Yahweh, O my soul.

O Yahweh my God, you are very great;
You are clothed with grandeur and majesty:
² Covering yourself with light as with a garment;
Stretching out the heavens like a curtain;
³ Who lays the beams of his chambers in the waters;
Who makes the clouds his chariot;
Who walks on the wings of the wind;
⁴ Who makes winds his messengers;
Flames of fire his ministers;
⁵ Who laid the foundations of the earth,
That it should not be moved forever.
⁶ You covered it with the deep as with a vesture;
The waters stood above the mountains.
⁷ At your rebuke they fled;
At the voice of your thunder they hurried away
⁸ (The mountains rose, the valleys sank down)
To the place which you had founded for them.

⁹ You have set a bound that they may not pass over;
That they don't turn again to cover the earth.
¹⁰ He sends forth springs into the valleys;
They run among the mountains;
¹¹ They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
¹² By them the birds of the heavens stay;
They sing among the foliage.
¹³ He waters the mountains from his chambers:
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.
¹⁴ He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And herb for the service of man;
That he may bring forth food out of the earth,
¹⁵ And wine that makes glad the heart of common man,
[And] oil to make his face to shine,
And bread that strengthens common man's heart.
¹⁶ The trees of Yahweh are filled [with moisture],
The cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;
¹⁷ Where the birds make their nests:
As for the stork, her house is on their top.
¹⁸ The high mountains are for the wild goats;
The rocks are a refuge for the conies.
¹⁹ He appointed the moon for seasons:
The sun knows his going down.
²⁰ You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep forth.
²¹ The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
²² The sun rises, they get them away,
And lay them down in their dens.
²³ Man goes forth to his work
And to his labor until the evening.
²⁴ O Yahweh, how manifold are your works!
In wisdom you have made them all:
The earth is full of your riches.
²⁵ Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
In which are innumerable creeping things,
Both small and great beasts.
²⁶ There go the ships;
There is leviathan, whom you have formed to play in it.
²⁷ These all wait for you,
That you may give them their food in due season.
²⁸ You give to them, they gather;
You open your hand, they are satisfied with good.
²⁹ You hide your face, they are troubled;
You take away their breath, they die,
And return to their dust.
³⁰ You send forth your Spirit, they are created;
And you renew the face of the ground.
³¹ Let the glory of Yahweh endure forever;
Let Yahweh rejoice in his works:
³² Who looks on the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
³³ I will sing to Yahweh as long as I live:
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.
³⁴ Let your meditation be sweet to him:
I will rejoice in Yahweh.
³⁵ Let sinners be consumed out of the earth.
And let the wicked be no more.
Bless Yahweh, O my soul.
Hallelujah.^a

105 Oh give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name;
Make known among the peoples his doings.

² Sing to him, sing praises to him;
Talk⁺ of all his marvelous works.

³ Glory⁺ in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice who seek Yahweh.
⁴ Seek⁺ Yahweh and his strength;
Seek his face evermore.
⁵ Remember his marvelous works that he has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,
⁶ O you⁺ seed of Abraham his slave,
You⁺ sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.
⁷ He is Yahweh our God:
His judgments are in all the earth.
⁸ He has remembered his covenant forever,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,
⁹ [The covenant] which he made with Abraham,
And his oath to Isaac,
¹⁰ And confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
¹¹ Saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan,
The lot of your⁺ inheritance;
¹² When they were but a few men in number,
Yes, very few, and sojourners in it.
¹³ And they went about from nation to nation,
From one kingdom to another people.
¹⁴ He did not allow man to do them wrong;
Yes, he reprov'd kings for their sakes,
¹⁵ [Saying,] Don't touch my anointed ones,
And do my prophets no harm.
¹⁶ And he called for a famine on the land;
He broke the whole staff of bread.
¹⁷ He sent a man before them;
Joseph was sold for a slave:
¹⁸ His feet they hurt with fetters:
His soul was laid in iron,
¹⁹ Until the time that his word came to pass,
The word of Yahweh tried him.
²⁰ The king sent and loosed him;
Even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
²¹ He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his substance;
²² To bind his princes in his soul,
And teach his elders wisdom.
²³ Israel also came into Egypt;
And Jacob sojourn'd in the land of Ham.
²⁴ And he increased his people greatly,
And made them stronger than their adversaries.
²⁵ He turned their heart to hate his people,
To deal subtly with his slaves.
²⁶ He sent Moses his slave,
[And] Aaron whom he had chosen.
²⁷ They set among them his signs,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
²⁸ He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they did not rebel against his words.
²⁹ He turned their waters into blood,
And slew their fish.
³⁰ Their land swarmed with frogs
In the chambers of their kings.
³¹ He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
And lice in all their borders.
³² He gave them hail for rain,
³³ He struck their vines also and their fig trees,
And broke the trees of their borders.
³⁴ He spoke, and the locust came,
And the grasshopper, and that without number,
³⁵ And ate up every herb in their land,
And ate up the fruit of their ground.

^a Hallelujah is Hebrew for 'Praise⁺ Yah'. Also in the New Testament, for example see Revelation 19:1.

³⁶ He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
 The chief of all their strength.
³⁷ And he brought them forth with silver and gold;
 And there was not one feeble person among his tribes.
³⁸ Egypt was glad when they departed;
 For the fear of them had fallen on them.
³⁹ He spread a cloud for a covering,
 And fire to give light in the night.
⁴⁰ They asked, and he brought quails,
 And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
⁴¹ He opened the rock, and waters gushed out;
 They ran in the dry places [like] a river.
⁴² For he remembered his holy word,
⁴³ And he brought forth his people with joy,
⁴⁴ And he gave them the lands of the nations;
 And they took the labor of the peoples in possession:
⁴⁵ That they might keep his statutes,
 And observe his laws.
 Hallelujah.

106 Hallelujah.

Oh give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good;
 For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
² Who can utter the mighty acts of Yahweh,
 Or show forth all his praise?
³ Blessed are those who keep justice,
 And he who does righteousness at all times.
⁴ Remember me, O Yahweh, with the favor that you bear to your people;
 Oh visit me with your salvation,
⁵ That I may see the prosperity of your chosen,
 That I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
 That I may glory with your inheritance.
⁶ We have sinned with our fathers,
 We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.
⁷ Our fathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt;
 They did not remember the multitude of your lovingkindnesses,
 But were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
⁸ Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
 That he might make his mighty power to be known.
⁹ He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up:
 So he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.
¹⁰ And he saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
 And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
¹¹ And the waters covered their adversaries;
 There was not one of them left.
¹² Then they believed his words;
 They sang his praise.
¹³ They soon forgot his works;
 They did not wait for his counsel,
¹⁴ But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
 And tried God in the desert.
¹⁵ And he gave them their request,
 But sent leanness into their soul.
¹⁶ They envied Moses also in the camp,
 [And] Aaron the saint of Yahweh.
¹⁷ The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
 And covered the company of Abiram.
¹⁸ And a fire was kindled in their company;
 The flame burned up the wicked.
¹⁹ They made a calf in Horeb,
 And worshiped a molten image.

²⁰ Thus they exchanged his glory
 For the likeness of an ox that eats grass.^a
²¹ They forgot God their Savior,
 Who had done great things in Egypt,
²² Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 [And] awesome works by the Red Sea.
²³ Therefore he said that he would destroy them,
 Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach,
 To turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy [them].
²⁴ Yes, they despised the pleasant land,
 They did not believe his word,
²⁵ But murmured in their tents,
 And did not listen to the voice of Yahweh.
²⁶ Therefore he swore to them,
 That he would overthrow them in the wilderness,
²⁷ And that he would cast down their seed among the nations,
 And scatter them in the lands.
²⁸ They joined themselves also to Baal-peor,
 And ate the sacrifices of the dead.
²⁹ Thus they provoked him to anger with their doings;
 And the plague broke in on them.
³⁰ Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment;
 And so the plague was stopped.
³¹ And that was reckoned to him for righteousness,
 To all generations forevermore.
³² They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,
 So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes;
³³ Because they were rebellious against his spirit,
 And he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.
³⁴ They did not destroy the peoples,
 As Yahweh commanded them,
³⁵ But mingled themselves with the nations,
 And learned their works,
³⁶ And served their idols,
 Which became a snare to them.
³⁷ Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons,
³⁸ And shed innocent blood,
 Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
 Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
 And the land was polluted with blood.
³⁹ Thus they were defiled with their works,
 And prostituted in their doings.
⁴⁰ Therefore the wrath of Yahweh was kindled against his people,
 And he was disgusted with his inheritance.
⁴¹ And he gave them into the hand of the nations;
 And those who hated them ruled over them.
⁴² Their enemies also oppressed them,
 And they were brought into subjection under their hand.
⁴³ Many times he delivered them;
 But they were rebellious in their counsel,
 And were brought low in their iniquity.
⁴⁴ Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
 When he heard their cry:
⁴⁵ And he remembered for them his covenant,
 And repented according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.
⁴⁶ He made them also to be pitied
 Of all those who carried them captive.
⁴⁷ Save us, O Yahweh our God,
 And gather us from among the nations,
 To give thanks to your holy name,
 And to triumph in your praise.

⁴⁸ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel,
From everlasting even to everlasting.
And let all the people say,
Amen, Hallelujah.

107 BOOK V.

O give thanks to Yahweh; For he is good;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
² Let the redeemed of Yahweh say [so]
Whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
³ And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the west.
⁴ They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way;
They found no city of habitation.
⁵ Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
⁶ Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses,
⁷ He led them also by a straight way,
That they might go to a city of habitation.
⁸ Oh that men would praise Yahweh for his loving-kindness,
And for his wonderful works to the sons of man!
⁹ For he satisfies the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he fills with good.

¹⁰ Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron,
¹¹ Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And despised the counsel of the Most High:
¹² Therefore he brought down their heart with labor;
They fell down, and there was none to help.
¹³ Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble,
And he saved them out of their distresses.
¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And broke their bonds in sunder.
¹⁵ Oh that men would praise Yahweh for his loving-kindness,
And for his wonderful works to the sons of man!
¹⁶ For he has broken the gates of bronze,
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

¹⁷ Fools because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
¹⁸ Their soul is disgusted by all manner of food;
And they draw near to the gates of death.
¹⁹ Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble,
And he saves them out of their distresses.
²⁰ He sends his word, and heals them,
And delivers [them] from their destructions.
²¹ Oh that men would praise Yahweh for his loving-kindness,
And for his wonderful works to the sons of man!
²² And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with singing.

²³ Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business in great waters;
²⁴ These see the works of Yahweh,
And his wonders in the deep.
²⁵ For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up its waves.
²⁶ They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the depths:
Their soul melts away because of trouble.
²⁷ They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunk man,
And are at their wits' end.
²⁸ Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble,
And he brings them out of their distresses.
²⁹ He makes the storm be calm,

So that its waves are still.
³⁰ Then they are glad because they are quiet;
So he brings them to their desired haven.
³¹ Oh that men would praise Yahweh for his loving-kindness,
And for his wonderful works to the sons of man!
³² Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
And praise him in the seat of the elders.

³³ He turns rivers into a wilderness,
And watersprings into a thirsty ground;
³⁴ A fruitful land into a salt desert,
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
³⁵ He turns a wilderness into a pool of water,
And a dry land into watersprings.
³⁶ And there he makes the hungry to dwell,
That they may prepare a city of habitation,
³⁷ And sow fields, and plant vineyards,
And get fruits of increase.
³⁸ He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly;
And he does not allow their cattle to decrease.
³⁹ Again, they are diminished and bowed down
Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
⁴⁰ He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in the waste, where there is no way.
⁴¹ Yet he sets the needy on high from affliction,
And makes [him] families like a flock.
⁴² The upright will see it, and be glad;
And all iniquity will stop her mouth.
⁴³ Whoever is wise will give heed to these things;
And they will consider the loving-kindnesses of Yahweh.

108 A Song, A Psalm of David.

My heart is fixed, O God;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises, even with my glory.
² Awake, psaltery and harp:
I myself will awake the dawn.
³ I will give thanks to you, O Yahweh, among the peoples;
And I will sing praises to you among the nations.
⁴ For your loving-kindness is great above the heavens;
And your truth [reaches] to the skies.
⁵ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And your glory above all the earth.
⁶ That your beloved may be delivered,
Save with your right hand, and answer me.
⁷ God has spoken in his holiness:
I will be exalted;
I will divide Shechem;
And mete out the valley of Succoth.
⁸ Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is the defense of my head;
Judah is my scepter.
⁹ Moab is my washpot;
On Edom I will cast my sandal;
Over Philistia I will shout.
¹⁰ Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who has led me to Edom?
¹¹ Haven't you cast us off, O God?
And you don't go forth, O God, with our hosts.
¹² Give us help against the adversary;
For vain is the help of man.
¹³ Through God we will do valiantly:
For it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

109 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Don't hold your peace, O God of my praise;
² For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit they have opened against me:
 They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.
³ They have surrounded me also with words of hatred,
 And fought against me without a cause.
⁴ In return for my love they are my adversaries:
 But I [give myself to] prayer.
⁵ And they have rewarded me evil for good,
 And hatred for my love.
⁶ Set a wicked man over him;
 And let an adversary stand at his right hand.
⁷ When he is judged, let him come forth guilty;
 And let his prayer be turned into sin.
⁸ Let his days be few;
⁹ Let his sons be fatherless,
 And his wife a widow.
¹⁰ Let his sons be vagabonds, and beg;
 And let them seek [their bread] out of their desolate places.
¹¹ Let the extortioner catch all that he has;
 And let strangers make spoil of his labor.
¹² Let there be none to extend kindness to him;
 Neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.
¹³ Let his posterity be cut off;
 In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
¹⁴ Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with Yahweh;
 And don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
¹⁵ Let them be before Yahweh continually,
 That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth;
¹⁶ Because he did not remember to show kindness,
 But persecuted the poor and needy man,
 And the broken in heart, to slay [them].
¹⁷ Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him;
 And he did not delight in blessing, and it was far from him.
¹⁸ He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment,
 And it came into his inward parts like water,
 And like oil into his bones.
¹⁹ Let it be to him as the raiment with which he covers himself,
 And for the belt with which he is girded continually.
²⁰ This is the reward of my adversaries from Yahweh,
 And of those who speak evil against my soul.
²¹ But deal with me, O Yahweh the Lord, for your name's sake:
 Because your loving-kindness is good, deliver me;
²² For I am poor and needy,
 And my heart is wounded inside me.
²³ I am gone like the shadow when it declines:
 I am tossed up and down as the locust.
²⁴ My knees are weak through fasting;
 And my flesh fails of fatness.
²⁵ I have also become a reproach to them:
 When they see me, they shake their head.
²⁶ Help me, O Yahweh my God;
 Oh save me according to your loving-kindness:
²⁷ That they may know that this is your hand;
 [That] you, Yahweh, have done it.
²⁸ Let them curse, but you bless:
 When they arise, they will be put to shame,
 But your slave will rejoice.
²⁹ Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor,
 And let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
³⁰ I will give great thanks to Yahweh with my mouth;
 Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
³¹ For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,
 To save him from those who judge his soul.

110 A Psalm of David.

Yahweh says to my Lord,
 Sit at my right hand,
 until I make your enemies
 a stool for your feet.
² The rod of your strength
Yahweh will send forth out of Zion:
 Rule in the midst of your enemies.
³ With you is princely dignity
 in the day of your power,
 on the holy mountains;
 Like dew from the womb of the dawn,
 I have begotten you.
⁴ Yahweh has sworn,
 and will not repent:
 You are a priest forever
 after the order of Melchizedek.
⁵ The Lord at your right hand will strike through kings in the day of his wrath.
⁶ He will judge among the nations,
 He will fill [the places] with dead bodies;
 He will strike through the head
 in many countries.
⁷ He will drink of the brook in the way:
 Therefore he will lift up the head.

111 Hallelujah.

I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart,
 In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.
² The works of Yahweh are great,
 Sought out of all those who have pleasure in them.
³ His work is grandeur and majesty;
 And his righteousness endures forever.
⁴ He has made his wonderful works to be remembered:
 Yahweh is gracious and merciful.
⁵ He has given food to those who fear him:
 He will ever be mindful of his covenant.
⁶ He has shown his people the power of his works,
 In giving them the heritage of the nations.
⁷ The works of his hands are truth and justice;
 All his precepts are sure.
⁸ They are established forever and ever;
 They are done in truth and uprightness.
⁹ He has sent redemption to his people;
 He has commanded his covenant forever:
 Holy and awesome is his name.
¹⁰ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom;
 A good understanding have all those who do that:
 His praise endures forever.

112 Hallelujah.

Blessed is the man who fears Yahweh,
 Who delights greatly in his commandments.
² His seed will be mighty on earth:
 The generation of the upright will be blessed.
³ Wealth and riches are in his house;
 And his righteousness endures forever.
⁴ To the upright there rises light in the darkness:
 [He is] gracious, and merciful, and righteous.
⁵ It is well with the man who deals graciously and lends;
 He will maintain his cause in judgment.
⁶ For he will never be moved;
 The righteous will be had in everlasting remembrance.
⁷ He will not be afraid of evil news:
 His heart is fixed, trusting in Yahweh.

- ⁸ His heart is established, he will not be afraid,
Until he sees [his desire] on his adversaries.
⁹ He has dispersed, he has given to the needy;
His righteousness endures forever:
His horn will be exalted with honor.
¹⁰ The wicked will see it, and be grieved;
He will gnash with his teeth, and melt away:
The desire of the wicked will perish.

113 Hallelujah.

- Praise, O you⁺ slaves of Yahweh,
Praise the name of Yahweh.
² Blessed be the name of Yahweh
From this time forth and forevermore.
³ From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same
Yahweh's name is to be praised.
⁴ Yahweh is high above all nations,
And his glory above the heavens.
⁵ Who is like Yahweh our God,
Who has his seat on high,
⁶ Who humbles himself to look at
[The things that are] in heaven and in the earth?
⁷ He raises up the poor out of the dust,
And lifts up the needy from the dunghill;
⁸ That he may set him with princes,
Even with the princes of his people.
⁹ He makes the barren woman to keep house,
[And to be] a joyful mother of sons.
Hallelujah.

114 When Israel went forth out of Egypt,

- The house of Jacob from a people of strange language;
² Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.
³ The sea saw it, and fled;
The Jordan was driven back.
⁴ The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.
⁵ What ails you, O you sea, that you flee?
You Jordan, that you turn back?
⁶ You⁺ mountains, that you⁺ skip like rams;
You⁺ little hills, like lambs?
⁷ Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob,
⁸ Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

115 Not to us, O Yahweh, not to us,

- But to your name give glory,
For your loving-kindness, and for your truth's sake.
² Why should the nations say,
Where now is their God?
³ But our God is in the heavens:
He has done whatever he pleased.
⁴ Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of man's hands.
⁵ They have mouths, but they don't speak;
They have eyes, but they don't see;
⁶ They have ears, but they don't hear;
They have noses, but they don't smell;
⁷ They have hands, but they don't handle;
They have feet, but they don't walk;
Neither do they speak through their throat.
⁸ Those who make them will be like them;
Yes, everyone who trusts in them.
⁹ O Israel, trust in Yahweh:
He is their help and their shield.

- ¹⁰ O house of Aaron, trust⁺ in Yahweh:
He is their help and their shield.
¹¹ You⁺ who fear Yahweh, trust in Yahweh:
He is their help and their shield.
¹² Yahweh has been mindful of us; he will bless [us]
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.
¹³ He will bless those who fear Yahweh,
Both small and great.
¹⁴ Yahweh will increase you⁺ more and more,
You⁺ and your⁺ sons.
¹⁵ Blessed are you⁺ of Yahweh,
Who made heaven and earth.
¹⁶ The heavens are the heavens of Yahweh;
But the earth he has given to the sons of man.
¹⁷ The dead don't praise Yah,
Neither any who go down into silence;
¹⁸ But we will bless Yah
From this time forth and forevermore.
Hallelujah.

116 I love Yahweh, because he hears

- My voice and my supplications.
² Because he has inclined his ear to me,
Therefore I will call [on him] as long as I live.
³ The cords of death surrounded me,
And the pains of Sheol got hold on me:
I found trouble and sorrow.
⁴ Then I called on the name of Yahweh:
O Yahweh, I urge you, deliver my soul.
⁵ Gracious is Yahweh, and righteous;
Yes, our God is merciful.
⁶ Yahweh preserves the simple:
I was brought low, and he saved me.
⁷ Return to your rest, O my soul;
For Yahweh has dealt bountifully with you.
⁸ For you have delivered my soul from death,
My eyes from tears,
[And] my feet from falling.
⁹ I will walk before Yahweh
In the land of the living.
¹⁰ I believe, for I will speak:
I was greatly afflicted:
¹¹ I said in my haste,
Everyone of man is a liar.
¹² What shall I render to Yahweh
For all his benefits toward me?
¹³ I will take the cup of salvation,
And call on the name of Yahweh.
¹⁴ I will pay my vows to Yahweh,
Yes, in the presence of all his people.
¹⁵ Precious in the sight of Yahweh
Is the death of his saints.
¹⁶ O Yahweh, truly I am your slave:
I am your slave, the son of your female slave;
You have loosed my bonds.
¹⁷ I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call on the name of Yahweh.
¹⁸ I will pay my vows to Yahweh,
Yes, in the presence of all his people,
¹⁹ In the courts of Yahweh's house,
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah.

117 O praise Yahweh, all you^a nations;
 Laud him, all you^a peoples.
² For his loving-kindness is great toward us;
 And the truth of the Yahweh [endures] forever.
 Hallelujah.

118 Oh give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good;
 For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
² Let Israel now say,
 That his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
³ Let the house of Aaron now say,
 That his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
⁴ Let them now who fear Yahweh say,
 That his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
⁵ Out of my distress I called on Yah:
 Yah answered me [and set me] in a large place.
⁶ Yahweh is on my side; I will not fear:
 What can man do to me?
⁷ Yahweh is on my side among those who help me:
 Therefore I will see [my desire] on those who hate me.
⁸ It is better to take refuge in Yahweh
 Than to put confidence in man.
⁹ It is better to take refuge in Yahweh
 Than to put confidence in princes.
¹⁰ All nations surrounded me:
 In the name of Yahweh I will make them circumcised.
¹¹ They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me:
 In the name of Yahweh I will make them circumcised.
¹² They surrounded me like bees; They are quenched as the fire of thorns:
 In the name of Yahweh I will make them circumcised.
¹³ You thrusted intensely at me that I might fall;
 But Yahweh helped me.
¹⁴ Yah is my strength and song;
 And he has become my salvation.
¹⁵ The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous:
 The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly.
¹⁶ The right hand of Yahweh is exalted:
 The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly.
¹⁷ I will not die, but live,
 And declare the works of Yah.
¹⁸ Yah has chastened me intensely;
 But he has not given me over to death.
¹⁹ Open to me the gates of righteousness:
 I will enter into them, I will give thanks to Yah.
²⁰ This is the gate of Yahweh;
 The righteous will enter into it.
²¹ I will give thanks to you; for you have answered me,
 And have become my salvation.
²² The stone which the builders rejected
 Has become the head of the corner.
²³ This is Yahweh's doing;
 It is marvelous in our eyes.
²⁴ This is the day which Yahweh has made;
 We will rejoice and be glad in it.
²⁵ Save now, we urge you, O Yahweh:
 O Yahweh, we urge you, send now prosperity.
²⁶ Blessed be he who comes in the name of Yahweh:
 We have blessed you^a out of the house of Yahweh.

²⁷ Yahweh is God, and he has given us light:
 Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
²⁸ You are my God, and I will give thanks to you:
 You are my God, I will exalt you.
²⁹ Oh give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good;
 For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.

119[ALEPH א]^a

Blessed are those who are perfect in the way,
 Who walk in the law of Yahweh.
² Blessed are those who keep his testimonies,
 Who seek him with the whole heart.
³ Yes, they do no unrighteousness;
 They walk in his ways.
⁴ You have commanded [us] your precepts,
 That we should observe them diligently.
⁵ Oh that my ways were established
 To observe your statutes!
⁶ Then I will not be put to shame,
 When I have respect to all your commandments.
⁷ I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart,
 When I learn your righteous judgments.
⁸ I will observe your statutes:
 Oh don't forsake me completely.

⁹ [BET ב]

How will a young man cleanse his way?
 By taking heed [thereto] according to your word.
¹⁰ With my whole heart I have sought you:
 Oh don't let me wander from your commandments.
¹¹ Your word I have laid up in my heart,
 That I might not sin against you.
¹² Blessed are you, O Yahweh:
 Teach me your statutes.
¹³ With my lips I have declared
 All the ordinances of your mouth.
¹⁴ I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
 As much as in all riches.
¹⁵ I will meditate on your precepts,
 And have respect to your ways.
¹⁶ I will delight myself in your statutes:
 I will not forget your word.

¹⁷ [GIMEL ג]

Deal bountifully with your slave, that I may live;
 So I will observe your word.
¹⁸ Open my eyes, that I may look at Wondrous things out of your law.
¹⁹ I am a sojourner in the earth:
 Don't hide your commandments from me.
²⁰ My soul breaks for the longing
 That it has to your ordinances at all times.
²¹ You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
 Who wander from your commandments.
²² Take away from me reproach and contempt;
 For I have kept your testimonies.
²³ Princes also sat and talked against me;
 [But] your slave meditated on your statutes.
²⁴ Your testimonies also are my delight

²⁵ [DALET ד]

My soul sticks to the dust:
 Quicken me according to your word.

^a Psalm 119 is acrostic. It contains twenty-two sections which correspond to the twenty-two letters of the Hebrew alphabet. Each verse in a section starts with the same Hebrew letter. The Hebrew letter and English name for it are shown in brackets at the beginning of each section.

²⁶ I declared my ways, and you answered me:
Teach me your statutes.

²⁷ Make me to understand the way of your precepts:
So I will meditate on your wondrous works.

²⁸ My soul melts for heaviness:
Strengthen me according to your word.

²⁹ Remove from me the way of falsehood;
And grant me your law graciously.

³⁰ I have chosen the way of faithfulness:
Your ordinances I have set [before me].

³¹ I stick to your testimonies:
O Yahweh, don't put me to shame.

³² I will run the way of your commandments,
When you will enlarge my heart.

³³ [HE ה]

Teach me, O Yahweh, the way of your statutes;
And I will keep it to the end.

³⁴ Give me understanding, and I will keep your law;
Yes, I will observe it with my whole heart.

³⁵ Make me to go in the path of your commandments;
For in it I delight.

³⁶ Incline my heart to your testimonies,
And not to covetousness.

³⁷ Turn away my eyes from looking at vanity,
And quicken me in your ways.

³⁸ Confirm to your slave your word,
Which [is in order] to the fear of you.

³⁹ Turn away my reproach of which I am afraid;
For your ordinances are good.

⁴⁰ Look, I have longed after your precepts:
Quicken me in your righteousness.

⁴¹ [VAV ו]

Let your loving-kindnesses also come to me, O Yahweh,
Even your salvation, according to your word.

⁴² So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me;
For I trust in your word.

⁴³ And don't take the word of truth completely out of my mouth;
For I have hoped in your ordinances.

⁴⁴ So I will observe your law continually
Forever and ever.

⁴⁵ And I will walk at liberty;
For I have sought your precepts.

⁴⁶ I will also speak of your testimonies before kings,
And will not be put to shame.

⁴⁷ And I will delight myself in your commandments,
Which I have loved.

⁴⁸ I will lift up my hands also to your commandments, which I have loved;

And I will meditate on your statutes.

⁴⁹ [ZAYIN ז]

Remember the word to your slave,
Because you have made me to hope.

⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my affliction;
For your word has quickened me.

⁵¹ The proud have had me greatly in derision:
[Yet] I have not swerved from your law.

⁵² I have remembered your ordinances of old, O Yahweh,
And have comforted myself.

⁵³ Hot indignation has taken hold on me,
Because of the wicked who forsake your law.

⁵⁴ Your statutes have been my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.

⁵⁵ I have remembered your name, O Yahweh, in the night,
And have observed your law.

⁵⁶ This I have had,
Because I have kept your precepts.

⁵⁷ [CHET ח]

Yahweh is my portion:

I have said that I would observe your words.

⁵⁸ I entreated your favor with my whole heart:
Be merciful to me according to your word.

⁵⁹ I thought on my ways,
And turned my feet to your testimonies.

⁶⁰ I hurried, and did not delay,
To observe your commandments.

⁶¹ The cords of the wicked have wrapped me round;
[But] I have not forgotten your law.

⁶² At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you
Because of your righteous ordinances.

⁶³ I am a partner of all those who fear you,
And of those who observe your precepts.

⁶⁴ The earth, O Yahweh, is full of your loving-kindness:
Teach me your statutes.

⁶⁵ [TET ט]

You have dealt well with your slave,
O Yahweh, according to your word.

⁶⁶ Teach me good judgment and knowledge;
For I have believed in your commandments.

⁶⁷ Before I was afflicted I went astray;
But now I observe your word.

⁶⁸ You are good, and do good;
Teach me your statutes.

⁶⁹ The proud have forged a lie against me:
With my whole heart I will keep your precepts.

⁷⁰ Their heart is as fat as grease;
But I delight in your law.

⁷¹ It is good for me that I have been afflicted;
That I may learn your statutes.

⁷² The law of your mouth is better to me
Than thousands of gold and silver.

⁷³ [YOD י]

Your hands have made me and fashioned me:
Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments.

⁷⁴ Those who fear you will see me and be glad,
Because I have hoped in your word.

⁷⁵ I know, O Yahweh, that your judgments are righteous,
And that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.

⁷⁶ Let, I pray you, your loving-kindness be for my comfort,
According to your word to your slave.

⁷⁷ Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
For your law is my delight.

⁷⁸ Let the proud be put to shame; For they have overthrown me wrongfully:

[But] I will meditate on your precepts.

⁷⁹ Let those who fear you turn to me;
And they will know your testimonies.

⁸⁰ Let my heart be perfect in your statutes,
That I will not be put to shame.

⁸¹ [KAF כ]

My soul faints for your salvation;
[But] I hope in your word.

⁸² My eyes fail for your word,
While I say, When will you comfort me?

⁸³ For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke;
Yet I don't forget your statutes.

⁸⁴ How many are the days of your slave?
When will you execute judgment on those who persecute
me?

⁸⁵ The proud have dug pits for me,
Who are not according to your law.

⁸⁶ All your commandments are faithful:
They persecute me wrongfully; help me.

⁸⁷ They had almost consumed me on earth;
But I did not forsake your precepts.
⁸⁸ Quicken me after your loving-kindness;
So I will observe the testimony of your mouth.

⁸⁹ [LAMED ל]

Forever, O Yahweh,
Your word is settled in heaven.
⁹⁰ Your faithfulness is to all generations:
You have established the earth, and it stands fast.
⁹¹ They stand this day according to your ordinances;
For all things are your slaves.
⁹² Unless your law had been my delight,
I should then have perished in my affliction.
⁹³ I will never forget your precepts;
For with them you have quickened me.
⁹⁴ I am yours, save me;
For I have sought your precepts.
⁹⁵ The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me;
[But] I will consider your testimonies.
⁹⁶ I have seen an end of all perfection;

⁹⁷ [MEM מ]

Oh how I love your law!
It is my meditation all the day.
⁹⁸ Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies;
For they are ever with me.
⁹⁹ I have more understanding than all my teachers;
For your testimonies are my meditation.
¹⁰⁰ I understand more than the aged,
Because I have kept your precepts.
¹⁰¹ I have refrained my feet from every evil way,
That I might observe your word.
¹⁰² I have not turned aside from your ordinances;
For you have taught me.
¹⁰³ How sweet are your words to my taste!
[Yes, sweeter] than honey to my mouth!
¹⁰⁴ Through your precepts I get understanding;
Therefore I hate every false way.

¹⁰⁵ [NUN נ]

Your word is a lamp to my feet,
And a light to my path.
¹⁰⁶ I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
That I will observe your righteous ordinances.
¹⁰⁷ I am afflicted very much:
Quicken me, O Yahweh, according to your word.
¹⁰⁸ Accept, I urge you, the freewill-offerings of my mouth, O
Yahweh,
And teach me your ordinances.
¹⁰⁹ My soul is continually in my hand;
Yet I don't forget your law.
¹¹⁰ The wicked have laid a snare for me;
Yet I have not gone astray from your precepts.
¹¹¹ Your testimonies I have taken as a heritage forever;
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
¹¹² I have inclined my heart to perform your statutes
Forever, even to the end.

¹¹³ [SAMEK ס]

I hate those who are of a double mind;
But I love your law.
¹¹⁴ You are my hiding-place and my shield:
I hope in your word.
¹¹⁵ Depart from me, you⁺ evildoers,
That I may keep the commandments of my God.
¹¹⁶ Uphold me according to your word, that I may live;
And don't let me be ashamed of my hope.

¹¹⁷ Hold me up, and I will be safe,
And I will look to your statutes continually.
¹¹⁸ You have set at nothing all those who err from your statutes;
For their deceit is falsehood.
¹¹⁹ You consider all the wicked of the earth like dross:
Therefore I love your testimonies.
¹²⁰ My flesh trembles for fear of you;
And I am afraid of your judgments.

¹²¹ [AYIN ע]

I have done justice and righteousness:
Don't leave me to my oppressors.
¹²² Be surety for your slave for good:
Don't let the proud oppress me.
¹²³ My eyes fail for your salvation,
And for your righteous word.
¹²⁴ Deal with your slave according to your loving-kindness,
And teach me your statutes.
¹²⁵ I am your slave; give me understanding,
That I may know your testimonies.
¹²⁶ It is time for Yahweh to work;
[For] they have made void your law.
¹²⁷ Therefore I love your commandments
Above gold, yes, above fine gold.
¹²⁸ Therefore I esteem all [your] precepts concerning all [things] to be right;

¹²⁹ [PE פ]

Your testimonies are wonderful;
Therefore my soul keeps them.
¹³⁰ The opening of your words gives light;
It gives understanding to the simple.
¹³¹ I opened my mouth wide, and panted;
For I longed for your commandments.
¹³² Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
As your manner is to those who love your name.
¹³³ Establish my footsteps in your word;
And don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.
¹³⁴ Redeem me from the oppression of man:
So I will observe your precepts.
¹³⁵ Make your face to shine on your slave;
And teach me your statutes.
¹³⁶ Streams of water run down my eyes,
Because they do not observe your law.

¹³⁷ [TSADE צ]

Righteous are you, O Yahweh,
And upright are your judgments.
¹³⁸ You have commanded your testimonies in righteousness
And very faithfulness.
¹³⁹ My zeal has consumed me,
Because my adversaries have forgotten your words.
¹⁴⁰ Your word is very pure;
Therefore your slave loves it.
¹⁴¹ I am small and despised;
[Yet] I don't forget your precepts.
¹⁴² Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
And your law is truth.
¹⁴³ Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me;
[Yet] your commandments are my delight.
¹⁴⁴ Your testimonies are righteous forever:
Give me understanding, and I will live.

¹⁴⁵ [QOF ק]

I have called with my whole heart; answer me, O Yahweh:
I will keep your statutes.
¹⁴⁶ I have called to you; save me,
And I will observe your testimonies.

¹⁴⁷ I anticipated the dawning of the morning, and cried:
 I hoped in your words.
¹⁴⁸ My eyes anticipated the night-watches,
 That I might meditate on your word.
¹⁴⁹ Hear my voice according to your loving-kindness:
 Quicken me, O Yahweh, according to your ordinances.
¹⁵⁰ They draw near that follow after wickedness;
 They are far from your law.
¹⁵¹ You are near, O Yahweh;
 And all your commandments are truth.
¹⁵² Of old I have known from your testimonies,
 That you have founded them forever.

¹⁵³ [RESH ר]
 Consider my affliction, and deliver me;
 For I do not forget your law.
¹⁵⁴ Plead my cause, and redeem me:
 Quicken me according to your word.
¹⁵⁵ Salvation is far from the wicked;
 For they don't seek your statutes.
¹⁵⁶ Great are your tender mercies, O Yahweh:
 Quicken me according to your ordinances.
¹⁵⁷ Many are my persecutors and my adversaries;
 [Yet] I have not swerved from your testimonies.
¹⁵⁸ I saw the betrayers, and was grieved,
 Because they do not observe your word.
¹⁵⁹ Consider how I love your precepts:
 Quicken me, O Yahweh, according to your loving-kindness.
¹⁶⁰ The sum of your word is truth;
 And every one of your righteous ordinances [endures] forever.

¹⁶¹ [SHIN ש]
 Princes have persecuted me without a cause;
 But my heart stands in awe of your words.
¹⁶² I rejoice at your word,
 As one who finds great spoil.
¹⁶³ I hate and am disgusted by falsehood;
 [But] I love your law.
¹⁶⁴ Seven times a day I praise you,
 Because of your righteous ordinances.
¹⁶⁵ Great peace have those who love your law;
 And they have no occasion of stumbling.
¹⁶⁶ I have hoped for your salvation, O Yahweh,
 And have done your commandments.
¹⁶⁷ My soul has observed your testimonies;
 And I love them exceedingly.
¹⁶⁸ I have observed your precepts and your testimonies;
 For all my ways are before you.

¹⁶⁹ [TAV ת]
 Let my cry come near before you, O Yahweh:
 Give me understanding according to your word.
¹⁷⁰ Let my supplication come before you:
 Deliver me according to your word.
¹⁷¹ Let my lips gush out with praise;
 For you teach me your statutes.
¹⁷² Let my tongue sing of your word;
 For all your commandments are righteousness.
¹⁷³ Let your hand be ready to help me;
 For I have chosen your precepts.
¹⁷⁴ I have longed for your salvation, O Yahweh;
 And your law is my delight.
¹⁷⁵ Let my soul live, and it will praise you;
 And let your ordinances help me.
¹⁷⁶ I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek your slave;
 For I do not forget your commandments.

120 A Song of Ascents.

In my distress I cried to Yahweh,
 And he answered me.
² Deliver my soul, O Yahweh, from lying lips,
³ What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you,
 You deceitful tongue?
⁴ Sharp arrows of the mighty,
 With coals of juniper.
⁵ Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech,
 That I stay among the tents of Kedar!
⁶ My soul has stayed too long
 With him who hates peace.
⁷ I am [for] peace:
 But when I speak, they are for war.

121 A Song of Ascents.

I will lift up my eyes to the mountains:
 From where will my help come?
² My help [comes] from Yahweh,
 Who made heaven and earth.

³ He will not allow your foot to be moved:
 He who keeps you will not slumber.
⁴ Look, he who keeps Israel
 Will neither slumber nor sleep.
⁵ Yahweh is your keeper:
 Yahweh is your shade on your right hand.
⁶ The sun will not strike you by day,
 Nor the moon by night.
⁷ Yahweh will keep you from all evil;
 He will keep your soul.
⁸ Yahweh will keep your going out and your coming in
 From this time forth and forevermore.

122 A Song of Ascents; of David.

I was glad when they said to me,
 Let us go to the house of Yahweh.
² Our feet are standing
 Inside your gates, O Jerusalem,
³ Jerusalem is built
 As a city that is compact together;
⁴ Where the tribes go up, even the tribes of Yah,
 [For] an ordinance for Israel,
 To give thanks to the name of Yahweh.
⁵ For there are set thrones for judgment,
 The thrones of the house of David.
⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
 Those who love you will prosper.
⁷ Peace be inside your walls,
 And prosperity inside your palaces.
⁸ For my brothers and companions' sakes,
 I will now say, Peace be inside you.
⁹ For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God
 I will seek your good.

123 A Song of Ascents.

To you I lift up my eyes,
 O you who sit in the heavens.
² Look, as the eyes of male slaves [look] to the hand of their master,
 As the eyes of a female slave to the hand of her mistress;
 So our eyes [look] to Yahweh our God,

- Until he has mercy on us.
³ Have mercy on us, O Yahweh, have mercy on us;
 For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
⁴ Our soul is exceedingly filled
 With the scoffing of those who are at ease,
 And with the contempt of the proud.

124 A Song of Ascents; of David.

- If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side,
 Let Israel now say,
² If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side,
 When man rose up against us;
³ Then they would have swallowed us up alive,
 When their wrath was kindled against us;
⁴ Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
 The stream would have gone over our soul;
⁵ Then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
⁶ Blessed be Yahweh,
 Who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
⁷ Our soul has escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers:
 The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
⁸ Our help is in the name of Yahweh,
 Who made heaven and earth.

125 A Song of Ascents.

- Those who trust in Yahweh
 Are as mount Zion, which can't be moved, but remains forever.
² As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,
 So Yahweh is round about his people
 From this time forth and forevermore.
³ For the scepter of wickedness will not rest on the lot of the righteous;
 That the righteous don't put forth their hands to iniquity.
⁴ Do good, O Yahweh, to those who are good,
 And to those who are upright in their hearts.
⁵ But as for such as turn aside to their crooked ways,
 Yahweh will lead them forth with the workers of iniquity.
 Peace be on Israel.

126 A Song of Ascents.

- When Yahweh brought back those who returned to Zion,
 We were like those who dream.
² Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
 And our tongue with singing:
 Then they said among the nations,
 Yahweh has done great things for them.
³ Yahweh has done great things for us,
 [Of which] we are glad.
⁴ Turn again our captivity, O Yahweh,
 As the streams in the South.
⁵ Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
⁶ He who goes forth and weeps, bearing seed for sowing,
 Will doubtless come again with joy, bringing his sheaves
 [with him].

127 A Song of Ascents; of Solomon.

- If Yahweh does not build the house,
 They labor in vain who build it:
 If Yahweh does not keep the city,
 The watchman wakes but in vain.

- ² It is vain for you⁺ to rise up early,
 To take rest late,
 To eat the bread of toil;
 Thus he gives to his beloved sleep.
³ Look, sons are a heritage of Yahweh;
 [And] the fruit of the womb is [his] reward.
⁴ As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
 So are the sons of youth.
⁵ Happy is the [noble] man who has his quiver full of them:
 They will not be put to shame,
 When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 A Song of Ascents.

- Blessed is everyone who fears Yahweh,
 Who walks in his ways.
² For you will eat the labor of your hands:
 Happy you will be, and it will be well with you.
³ Your wife will be as a fruitful vine,
 In the innermost parts of your house;
 Your sons like olive plants,
 Around your table.
⁴ Look, thus will the [able-bodied] man be blessed
 Who fears Yahweh.
⁵ Yahweh will bless you out of Zion:
 And you will see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
⁶ Yes, you will see the sons of your sons.
 Peace be on Israel.

129 A Song of Ascents.

- Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth up,
 Let Israel now say,
² Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth up:
 Yet they have not prevailed against me.
³ The plowers plowed on my back;
 They made long their furrows.
⁴ Yahweh is righteous:
 He has cut apart the cords of the wicked.
⁵ Let them be put to shame and turned backward,
 All those who hate Zion.
⁶ Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
 Which withers before it grows up;
⁷ With which the reaper does not fill his hand,
 Nor he who binds sheaves his bosom.
⁸ Neither do those who go by say,
 The blessing of Yahweh be on you⁺
 We bless you⁺ in the name of Yahweh.

130 A Song of Ascents.

- Out of the depths I have cried to you, O Yahweh.
² Lord, hear my voice:
 Let your ears be attentive
 To the voice of my supplications.
³ If you, Yah, should mark iniquities,
 O Lord, who could stand?
⁴ But there is forgiveness with you,
 That you may be feared.
⁵ I wait for Yahweh, my soul waits,
 And I hope in his word.

- ⁶ My soul [waits] for the Lord
 More than watchmen [wait] for the morning;
 [Yes, more than] watchmen for the morning.
⁷ O Israel, hope in Yahweh;
 For with Yahweh there is loving-kindness,
 And with him is plenteous redemption.
⁸ And he will redeem Israel
 From all his iniquities.

131 A Song of Ascents; of David.

- Yahweh, my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty;
 Neither do I exercise myself in great matters,
 Or in things too wonderful for me.
² Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul;
 Like a weaned child with his mother,
 Like a weaned child is my soul inside me.
³ O Israel, hope in Yahweh
 From this time forth and forevermore.

132 A Song of Ascents.

- Yahweh, remember for David
 All his affliction;
² How he swore to Yahweh,
 And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
³ Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house,
 Nor go up into my bed;
⁴ I will not give sleep to my eyes,
 Or slumber to my eyelids;
⁵ Until I find out a place for Yahweh,
 A tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob.
⁶ Look, we heard of it in Ephrathah:
 We found it in the field of the forest.
⁷ We will go into his tabernacles;
 We will worship at his footstool.
⁸ Arise, O Yahweh, into your resting-place;
 You, and the ark of your strength.
⁹ Let your priests be clothed with righteousness;
 And let your saints shout for joy.
¹⁰ For your slave David's sake
 Don't turn away the face of your anointed.
¹¹ Yahweh has sworn to David in truth;
 He will not turn from it:
 Of the fruit of your body I will set on your throne.
¹² If your sons will keep my covenant
 And my testimony that I will teach them,
 Their sons also will sit on your throne forevermore.
¹³ For Yahweh has chosen Zion;
 He has desired it for his habitation.
¹⁴ This is my resting-place forever:
 Here I will dwell; for I have desired it.
¹⁵ I will abundantly bless her provisions:
 I will satisfy her poor with bread.
¹⁶ Her priests also I will clothe with salvation;
 And her saints will shout aloud for joy.
¹⁷ There I will make the horn of David to bud:
 I have appointed a lamp for my anointed.
¹⁸ His enemies I will clothe with shame;
 But on himself will his crown flourish.

133 A Song of Ascents; of David.

- Look, how good and how pleasant it is
 For brothers to dwell together in unity!
² It is like the precious oil on the head,
 That ran down on the beard,
 Even Aaron's beard;
 That came down on the skirt of his garments;
³ Like the dew of Hermon,
 That comes down on the mountains of Zion:
 For there Yahweh commanded the blessing,
 Even life forevermore.

134 A Song of Ascents.

- Look, bless⁺ Yahweh, all you⁺ slaves of Yahweh,
 Who by night stand in the house of Yahweh.
² Lift up your⁺ hands to the sanctuary,
 And bless⁺ Yahweh.
³ May Yahweh bless you out of Zion;
 Even he who made heaven and earth.

135 Hallelujah. Praise⁺ the name of Yahweh;

- Praise [him], O you⁺ slaves of Yahweh,
² You⁺ who stand in the house of Yahweh,
 In the courts of the house of our God.
³ Hallelujah; for Yahweh is good:
 Sing praises to his name; for it is pleasant.
⁴ For Yah has chosen Jacob to himself,
⁵ For I know that Yahweh is great,
 And that our Lord is above all gods.
⁶ Whatever Yahweh pleased, that he has done,
 In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;
⁷ Who causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
 Who makes lightnings for the rain;
 Who brings forth the wind out of his treasures;
⁸ Who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
 Both of man and beast;
⁹ Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt,
 On Pharaoh, and on all his slaves;
¹⁰ Who struck many nations,
 And slew mighty kings,
¹¹ Sihon king of the Amorites,
 And Og king of Bashan,
 And all the kingdoms of Canaan,
¹² And gave their land for a heritage,
 A heritage to Israel his people.
¹³ Your name, O Yahweh, [endures] forever;
 Your memorial [name], O Yahweh, throughout all generations.
¹⁴ For Yahweh will judge his people,
 And repent himself concerning his slaves.
¹⁵ The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
 The work of man's hands.
¹⁶ They have mouths, but they don't speak;
 They have eyes, but they don't see;
¹⁷ They have ears, but they don't hear;
 Neither is there any breath in their mouths.
¹⁸ Those who make them will be like them;
 Yes, everyone who trusts in them.

- ¹⁹ O house of Israel, bless⁺ Yahweh:
O house of Aaron, bless⁺ Yahweh:
²⁰ O house of Levi, bless⁺ Yahweh:
You⁺ who fear Yahweh, bless⁺ Yahweh.
²¹ Blessed be Yahweh out of Zion,
Who stays at Jerusalem.
Hallelujah.

- 136 Oh give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
² Oh give thanks to the God of gods;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
³ Oh give thanks to the Lord of lords;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
⁴ To him who alone does great wonders;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
⁵ To him who by understanding made the heavens;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
⁶ To him who spread forth the earth above the waters;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
⁷ To him who made great lights;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
⁸ The sun to rule by day;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
⁹ The moon and stars to rule by night;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
¹⁰ To him who struck Egypt in their firstborn;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
¹¹ And brought out Israel from among them;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
¹² With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
¹³ To him who divided the Red Sea in sunder;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
¹⁴ And made Israel to pass through the midst of it;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
¹⁵ But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
¹⁶ To him who led his people through the wilderness;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
¹⁷ To him who struck great kings;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
¹⁸ And slew majestic kings;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
¹⁹ Sihon king of the Amorites;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
²⁰ And Og king of Bashan;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
²¹ And gave their land for a heritage;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
²² Even a heritage to Israel his slave;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
²³ Who remembered us in our low estate;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever;
²⁴ And has delivered us from our adversaries;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever:
²⁵ Who gives food to all flesh;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.
²⁶ Oh give thanks to the God of heaven;
For his loving-kindness [endures] forever.

- 137 By the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yes, we wept,
When we remembered Zion.
² On the willows in the midst of it
We hung up our harps.
³ For there those who led us captive required of us songs,
And those who wasted us [required of us] mirth, [saying]

- Sing us one of the songs of Zion.
⁴ How shall we sing Yahweh's song
In a foreign land?
⁵ If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget [her skill].
⁶ Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth,
If I don't remember you;
If I don't prefer Jerusalem
Above my chief joy.
⁷ Remember, O Yahweh, against the sons of Edom
The day of Jerusalem;
Who said, Raze it, raze it,
Even to its foundation.
⁸ O daughter of Babylon, who are to be destroyed,
Happy he will be, who rewards you
As you have served us.
⁹ Happy he will be, who takes and dashes your little ones
Against the rock.

138 A [Psalm] of David.

- I will give you thanks with my whole heart:
Before the gods I will sing praises to you.
² I will worship toward your holy temple,
And give thanks to your name for your loving-kindness and for your truth:
For you have magnified your word above all your name.
³ In the day that I called you answered me,
You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
⁴ All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, O Yahweh,
For they have heard the words of your mouth.
⁵ Yes, they will sing of the ways of Yahweh;
For great is the glory of Yahweh.
⁶ For though Yahweh is high, yet he has respect to the lowly;
But the haughty he knows from afar.
⁷ Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me;
You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies,
And your right hand will save me.
⁸ Yahweh will perfect that which concerns me:
Your loving-kindness, O Yahweh, [endures] forever;
Don't forsake the works of your own hands.

139 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- O Yahweh, you have searched me, and known [me].
² You know my sitting down and my rising up;
You understand my thought far off.
³ You search out my path and my lying down,
And are acquainted with all my ways.
⁴ For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, look, O Yahweh, you know it altogether.
⁵ You have beset me behind and before,
And laid your hand on me.
⁶ [Such] knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I can't attain to it.
⁷ Where shall I go from your Spirit?
Or where shall I flee from your presence?
⁸ If I ascend up into heaven, you are there:
If I make my bed in Sheol, look, you are there.
⁹ If I take the wings of the morning,
And stay in the uttermost parts of the sea;
¹⁰ Even there your hand will lead me,
And your right hand will hold me.
¹¹ If I say, Surely the darkness will overwhelm me,
And the light about me will be night;
¹² Even the darkness does not hide from you,
But the night shines as the day:

The darkness and the light are both alike [to you].
¹³ For you formed my inward parts:
 You knit me together in my mother's womb.
¹⁴ I will give thanks to you; because of your awesome works^a I am distinguished^b
 Wonderful are your works;
 And my soul knows that very well.
¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from you,
 When I was made in secret,
 [And] curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
¹⁶ Your eyes saw me developing from conception;
 And in your book they were all written,
 [Even] the days that were formed [for me]
 When as yet there was none of them.
¹⁷ How precious also are your thoughts to me, O God!
 How great is the sum of them!
¹⁸ If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
 When I awake, I am still with you.
¹⁹ Surely you will slay the wicked, O God:
 Depart from me therefore, you* bloodthirsty men.
²⁰ For they speak against you wickedly,
 And your enemies are lifted up in vain.
²¹ Don't I hate them, O Yahweh, that hate you?
 And am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
²² I hate them with perfect hatred:
 They have become my enemies.
²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart:
 Try me, and know my thoughts;
²⁴ And see if there is any wicked way in me,
 And lead me in the way everlasting.

140 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Deliver me, O Yahweh, from [the] evil man;
 Preserve me from the violent man:
² Who devise mischiefs in their heart;
 Continually they gather themselves together for war.
³ They have sharpened their tongue like a serpent;
 Adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.
⁴ Keep me, O Yahweh, from the hands of the wicked;
 Preserve me from the violent man:
 Who have purposed to thrust aside my steps.
⁵ The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords;
 They have spread a net by the wayside;
 They have set traps for me. Selah.
⁶ I said to Yahweh, You are my God:
 Give ear to the voice of my supplications, O Yahweh.
⁷ O Yahweh the Lord, the strength of my salvation,
 You have covered my head in the day of battle.
⁸ Don't grant, O Yahweh, the desires of the wicked;
 Don't further his evil plot. They will exalt themselves.
 Selah.
⁹ As for the head of those who speak lies about me,^c
 Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
¹⁰ Let burning coals fall on them:
 Let them be cast into the fire,
 Into deep pits, from where they will not rise.
¹¹ A man of tongue will not be established in the earth:
 Evil will hunt a man of violence to overthrow him.
¹² I know that Yahweh will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
 And justice for the needy.

¹³ Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name:
 The upright will dwell in your presence.

141 A Psalm of David.

Yahweh, I have called on you; hurry to me:
 Give ear to my voice, when I call to you.
² May my prayer be placed as incense before you;
 The lifting of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
³ Set a watch, O Yahweh, before my mouth;
 Keep the door of my lips.
⁴ Don't incline my heart to any evil thing,
 To do deeds of wickedness
 With men who work iniquity:
 And don't let me eat of their dainties.
⁵ Let the righteous strike me [it will be] a kindness;
 And let him reprove me, [it will be as] oil on the head;
 Don't let my head refuse it:
 For continually my prayer is against their evil deeds.
⁶ Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock;
 And they will hear my words; for they are sweet.
⁷ As a millstone broken on the earth,
 Our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
⁸ For my eyes are to you, O Yahweh the Lord:
 In you I take refuge; don't leave my soul destitute.
⁹ Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me,
 And from the traps of the workers of iniquity.
¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
 While I nevertheless escape.

142 Maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a Prayer.

I cry with my voice to Yahweh;
 With my voice to Yahweh I plead for mercy.
² I pour out my complaint before him;
 Before him I show my trouble.
³ When my spirit was overwhelmed inside me,
 You knew my path.
 In the way in which I walk
 They have hidden a snare for me.
⁴ Look at [my] right hand, and see;
 For there is no man who knows me:
 Refuge has failed me;
 No man cares for my soul.
⁵ I cried to you, O Yahweh;
 I said, You are my refuge,
 My portion in the land of the living.
⁶ Attend to my cry;
 For I am brought very low:
 Deliver me from my persecutors;
 For they are stronger than I.
⁷ Bring my soul out of prison,
 That I may give thanks to your name:
 The righteous will circle me about;
 For you will deal bountifully with me.

143 A Psalm of David.

Hear my prayer, O Yahweh; give ear to my supplications:
 In your faithfulness answer me, [and] in your righteousness.
² And don't enter into judgment with your slave;
 For in your sight no man living is righteous.

^b See Exodus 33:16 for similar use of distinguished. Also see HOTTP.
^c speak lies about me is literally: 'those who change me'.

- ³ For the enemy has persecuted my soul;
He has struck my life down to the ground:
He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those who have been long dead.
- ⁴ Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed inside me;
My heart inside me is desolate.
- ⁵ I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all your doings;
I muse on the work of your hands.
- ⁶ I spread forth my hands to you:
My soul [thirsts] after you, as a weary land. Selah.
- ⁷ Hurry to answer me, O Yahweh; my spirit fails:
Don't hide your face from me,
Lest I become like those who go down into the pit.
- ⁸ Cause me to hear your loving-kindness in the morning;
For in you I trust:
Cause me to know the way in which I should walk;
For I lift up my soul to you.
- ⁹ Deliver me, O Yahweh, from my enemies:
I flee to you to hide me.
- ¹⁰ Teach me to do your will;
For you are my God:
Your Spirit is good;
Lead me in the land of uprightness.
- ¹¹ Quicken me, O Yahweh, for your name's sake:
In your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.
- ¹² And in your loving-kindness cut off my enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul;
For I am your slave.

144 [A Psalm] of David.

- Blessed be Yahweh my rock,
Who teaches my hands to war,
[And] my fingers to fight:
- ² My loving-kindness and my fortress,
My high tower and my deliverer;
My shield and he in whom I take refuge;
Who subdues my people under me.
- ³ Yahweh, what is man, that you take knowledge of him?
Or the son of common man, that you make account of him?
- ⁴ Man is like vanity:
His days are as a shadow that passes away.
- ⁵ Bow your heavens, O Yahweh, and come down:
Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
- ⁶ Cast forth lightning, and scatter them;
Send out your arrows, and discomfit them.
- ⁷ Stretch forth your hand from above;
Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
Out of the hand of aliens;
- ⁸ Whose mouth speaks deceit,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
- ⁹ I will sing a new song to you, O God:
On a psaltery of ten strings I will sing praises to you.
- ¹⁰ You are he who gives salvation to kings;
Who rescues David his slave from the hurtful sword.
- ¹¹ Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of aliens,
Whose mouth speaks deceit,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
- ¹² That our sons will be as plants grown up in their youth,
And our daughters as cornerstones cut after the fashion of a palace;
- ¹³ [That] our garners are full, affording all manner of store,
[And] our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;
- ¹⁴ [That] our oxen are well laden;

- [That there is] no breaking in, and no going forth,
And no outcry in our streets:
- ¹⁵ Happy is the people who is in such a case;
[Yes,] happy is the people whose God is Yahweh.

145 [A Psalm of] praise; of David.

- I will extol you, my God, O King;
And I will bless your name forever and ever.
- ² Every day I will bless you;
And I will praise your name forever and ever.
- ³ Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
- ⁴ One generation will laud your works to another,
And will declare your mighty acts.
- ⁵ Of the glorious majesty of your grandeur, they will tell;
And of your wondrous works, I will meditate.
- ⁶ And men will speak of the might of your awesome acts;
And I will declare your greatness.
- ⁷ They will cause the memory of your great goodness to gush out,
And will sing of your righteousness.
- ⁸ Yahweh is gracious, and merciful;
Slow to anger, and of great loving-kindness.
- ⁹ Yahweh is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
- ¹⁰ All your works will give thanks to you, O Yahweh;
And your saints will bless you.
- ¹¹ They will speak of the glory of your kingdom,
And talk of your power;
- ¹² To make known to the sons of man his mighty acts,
And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
- ¹³ Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And your dominion [endures] throughout all generations.
- Yahweh is faithful in all his words,
And merciful in all his deeds.
- ¹⁴ Yahweh upholds all who fall,
And raises up all those who are bowed down.
- ¹⁵ The eyes of all wait for you;
And you give them their food in due season.
- ¹⁶ You open your hand,
And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
- ¹⁷ Yahweh is righteous in all his ways,
And gracious in all his works.
- ¹⁸ Yahweh is near to all those who call on him,
To all who call on him in truth.
- ¹⁹ He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him;
He also will hear their cry and will save them.
- ²⁰ Yahweh preserves all those who love him;
But all the wicked he will destroy.
- ²¹ My mouth will speak the praise of Yahweh;
And let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

146 Hallelujah.

- Praise Yahweh, O my soul.
- ² While I live I will praise Yahweh:
I will sing praises to my God while I have any being.
- ³ Don't put your^r trust in princes,
Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
- ⁴ His breath goes forth, he returns to his earth;
In that very day his thoughts perish.
- ⁵ Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in Yahweh his God:
- ⁶ Who made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that [is] in them;
Who keeps truth forever;
- ⁷ Who executes justice for the oppressed;
Who gives food to the hungry.

Yahweh looses the prisoners;
⁸ Yahweh opens [the eyes of] the blind;
 Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down;
 Yahweh loves the righteous;
⁹ Yahweh preserves the sojourners;
 He upholds the fatherless and widow;
 But the way of the wicked he turns upside down.
¹⁰ Yahweh will reign forever,
 Your God, O Zion, to all generations.
 Hallelujah.

147 Hallelujah;
 For it is good to praise our God;
 For it is pleasant to sing his praise.
² Yahweh builds up Jerusalem;
 He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
³ He heals the broken in heart,
 And binds up their wounds.
⁴ He counts the number of the stars;
 He calls them all by [their] names.
⁵ Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
 His understanding is infinite.
⁶ Yahweh upholds the meek;
 He brings the wicked down to the ground.
⁷ Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving;
 Sing praises on the harp to our God,
⁸ Who covers the heavens with clouds,
 Who prepares rain for the earth,
 Who makes grass to grow on the mountains.
⁹ He gives to the beast his food,
 [And] to the young ravens which cry.
¹⁰ He does not delight in the strength of the horse;
 He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
¹¹ Yahweh takes pleasure in those who fear him,
 In those who hope in his loving-kindness.
¹² Praise Yahweh, O Jerusalem;
 Praise your God, O Zion.
¹³ For he has strengthened the bars of your gates;
 He has blessed your sons inside you.
¹⁴ He makes peace in your borders;
 He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
¹⁵ He sends out his commandment on earth;
 His word runs very swiftly.
¹⁶ He gives snow like wool;
 He scatters the frost like ashes.
¹⁷ He casts forth his ice like morsels:
 Who can stand before his cold?
¹⁸ He sends out his word, and melts them:
 He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
¹⁹ He shows his word to Jacob,
 His statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
²⁰ He has not dealt so with any nation;
 And as for his ordinances, they have not known them.
 Hallelujah.

148 Hallelujah.
 Praise⁺ Yahweh from the heavens:
 Praise him in the heights.
² Praise⁺ him, all his angels:
 Praise⁺ him, all his host.
³ Praise⁺ him, sun and moon:
 Praise him, all you⁺ stars of light.
⁴ Praise him, you⁺ heavens of heavens,
 And you⁺ waters that are above the heavens.
⁵ Let them praise the name of Yahweh;
 For he commanded, and they were created.
⁶ He has also established them forever and ever:
 He has made a decree which will not pass away.

⁷ Praise Yahweh from the earth,
 You⁺ sea-monsters, and all deeps.
⁸ Fire and hail, snow and vapor;
 Stormy wind, fulfilling his word;
⁹ Mountains and all hills;
 Fruitful trees and all cedars;
¹⁰ Beasts and all cattle;
 Creeping things and flying birds;
¹¹ Kings of the earth and all peoples;
 Princes and all judges of the earth;
¹² Both young men and virgins;
 Old men and children:
¹³ Let them praise the name of Yahweh;
 For his name alone is exalted;
 His grandeur is above the earth and the heavens.
¹⁴ And he has lifted up the horn of his people,
 The praise of all his saints;
 Even of the sons of Israel, a people near to him.
 Hallelujah.

149 Hallelujah.
 Sing to Yahweh a new song,
 And his praise in the assembly of the saints.
² Let Israel rejoice in him who made him:
 Let the sons of Zion be joyful in their King.
³ Let them praise his name in the dance:
 Let them sing praises to him with timbrel and harp.
⁴ For Yahweh takes pleasure in his people:
 He will beautify the meek with salvation.
⁵ Let the saints exult in glory:
 Let them sing for joy on their beds.
⁶ [Let] the high praises of God [be] in their throat,
 And a two-edged sword in their hand;
⁷ To execute vengeance on the nations,
 And punishments on the peoples;
⁸ To bind their kings with chains,
 And their nobles with fetters of iron;
⁹ To execute on them the judgment written:
 This is majesty for all his saints.
 Hallelujah.

150 Hallelujah.
 Praise God in his sanctuary:
 Praise him in the firmament of his power.
² Praise him for his mighty acts:
 Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
³ Praise him with trumpet sound:
 Praise him with psaltery and harp.
⁴ Praise him with timbrel and dance:
 Praise him with stringed instruments and pipe.
⁵ Praise him with loud cymbals:
 Praise him with high sounding cymbals.
⁶ Let everything that has breath praise Yah.
 Hallelujah.

Proverbs

1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

- ² To know wisdom and instruction;
To discern the words of understanding;
³ To receive instruction in wise dealing,
In righteousness and justice and equity;
⁴ To give prudence to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion:
⁵ That the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;
And that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsels:
⁶ To understand a proverb, and a figure,
The words of the wise, and their dark sayings.
- ⁷ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge;
[But] the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.
⁸ My son, hear the instruction of your father,
And don't forsake the law of your mother:
⁹ For they will be a chaplet of grace to your head,
And chains about your neck.
¹⁰ My son, if sinners entice you,
Do not consent.
¹¹ If they say, Come with us,
Let us lay in wait for blood;
Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
¹² Let us swallow them up alive as Sheol,
And whole, as those who go down into the pit;
¹³ We will find all precious substance;
We will fill our houses with spoil;
¹⁴ You will cast your lot among us;
We will all have one bag:
¹⁵ My son, don't walk in the way with them;
Refrain your foot from their path:^a
¹⁷ For in vain is the net spread
In the sight of any bird:
¹⁸ And these lay wait for their own blood;
They lurk secretly for their own souls.
¹⁹ So are the ways of everyone who is greedy of gain;
It takes away the soul of its owners.
- ²⁰ Wisdom cries aloud in the street;
She utters her voice in the broad places;
²¹ She cries in the most noisy places;
At the entrance of the gates,
In the city, she utters her words:
²² How long, you⁺ simple ones, will you⁺ love simplicity?
And scoffers delight themselves in scoffing,
And fools hate knowledge?
²³ Turn⁺ at my reproof:
Look, I will cause my spirit to gush out on you⁺
I will make my words known to you⁺.
²⁴ Because I have called, and you⁺ have refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man has regarded;
²⁵ But you⁺ have set at nothing all my counsel,
And would have none of my reproof:
²⁶ I also will laugh in [the day of] your⁺ calamity;
I will mock when your⁺ fear comes;
²⁷ When your⁺ fear comes as a storm,
And your⁺ calamity comes on as a whirlwind;
When distress and anguish come upon you⁺.

- ²⁸ Then they will call on me, but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me:
²⁹ For they hated knowledge,
And did not choose the fear of Yahweh:
³⁰ They didn't want my counsel;
They despised all my reproof.
³¹ Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way,
And be filled with their own devices.
³² For the backsliding of the simple will slay them,
And the careless ease of fools will destroy them.
³³ But whoever harkens to me will stay securely,
And will be quiet without fear of evil.

- 2 My son, if you will receive my words,
And lay up my commandments with you;
² So as to incline your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;
³ Yes, if you cry after discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding;
⁴ If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hidden treasures:
⁵ Then you will understand the fear of Yahweh,
And find knowledge of God.
⁶ For Yahweh gives wisdom;
Out of his mouth [comes] knowledge and understanding:
⁷ He lays up sound wisdom for the upright;
[He is] a shield to those who walk in integrity;
⁸ That he may guard the paths of justice,
And preserve the way of his saints.
⁹ Then you will understand righteousness and justice,
And equity, [yes,] every good path.
¹⁰ For wisdom will enter into your heart,
And knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;
¹¹ Discretion will watch over you;
Understanding will keep you:
¹² To deliver you from the way of evil,
From the men who speak perverse things;
¹³ Who forsake the paths of uprightness,
To walk in the ways of darkness;
¹⁴ Who rejoice to do evil,
And delight in the perverseness of evil;
¹⁵ Who are crooked in their ways,
And wayward in their paths:
¹⁶ To deliver you from the strange woman,
Even from the foreigner who flatters with her words;
¹⁷ Who forsakes the best friend of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her God:
¹⁸ For her house inclines to death,
And her paths to the spirits of the dead;
¹⁹ None who go to her return again,
Neither do they attain to the paths of life:
²⁰ That you may walk in the way of good men,
And keep the paths of the righteous.
²¹ For the upright will stay in the land,
And the perfect will be left in it.
²² But the wicked will be cut off from the land,
And betrayers will be rooted out of it.

- 3 My son, do not forget my law;
But let your heart keep my commandments:
² For length of days, and years of life,
And peace, they will add to you.
³ Don't let kindness and truth forsake you:
Bind them about your neck;

^a HOTTP with uncertainty, and LXX omit verse 16: For their feet run to evil, And they hurry to shed blood.

4 So you will find favor and good understanding
 In the sight of God and man.
 5 Trust in Yahweh with all your heart,
 And lean not on your own understanding:
 6 In all your ways acknowledge him,
 And he will direct your paths.
 7 Don't be wise in your own eyes;
 Fear Yahweh, and depart from evil:
 8 It will be health to your navel,
 And marrow to your bones.
 9 Honor Yahweh with your substance,
 And with the first fruits of all your increase:
 10 So your barns will be filled with corn,
 And your vats will overflow with new wine.
 11 My son, don't despise the chastening of Yahweh;
 Neither be weary of his reproof:
 12 For whom Yahweh loves he reproves;
 Even as a father the son in whom he delights.
 13 Happy is [the] man who finds wisdom,
 And [the] man who gets understanding.
 14 For the gaining of it is better than the gaining of silver,
 And its profit than fine gold.
 15 She is more precious than rubies:
 And none of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
 16 Length of days is in her right hand;
 In her left hand are riches and honor.
 17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
 And all her paths are peace.
 18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold on her:
 And happy is everyone who retains her.
 19 Yahweh by wisdom founded the earth;
 By understanding he established the heavens.
 20 By his knowledge the depths were broken up,
 And the skies drop down the dew.
 21 My son, don't let them depart from your eyes;
 Keep sound wisdom and discretion:
 22 So they will be life to your soul,
 And grace to your neck.
 23 Then you will walk in your way securely,
 And your foot will not stumble.
 24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid:
 Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
 25 Don't be afraid of sudden fear,
 Neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes:
 26 For Yahweh will be your confidence,
 And will keep your foot from being taken.
 27 Don't withhold good from them to whom it is due,
 When it is in the power of your hand to do it.
 28 Don't say to your fellow man,
 Go, and come again,
 And tomorrow I will give;
 When you have it by you.
 29 Don't devise evil against your fellow man
 Who dwells securely by you.
 30 Don't strive with man without cause,
 If he has done you no harm.
 31 Don't envy the man of violence,
 And choose none of his ways.
 32 For the perverse is disgusting to Yahweh;
 But his friendship is with the upright.
 33 The curse of Yahweh is in the house of the wicked;
 But he blesses the habitation of the righteous.
 34 Surely he scoffs at the scoffers;
 But he gives grace to the lowly.
 35 The wise will inherit glory;
 But shame will be the promotion of fools.

4 Hear, [my] sons, the instruction of a father,
 And attend to know understanding:
 2 For I give you⁺ good doctrine;
 Don't forsake⁺ my law.
 3 For I was a son to my father,
 Tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
 4 And he taught me, and said to me:
 Let your heart retain my words;
 Keep my commandments, and live;
 5 Get wisdom, get understanding;
 Don't forget, neither decline from the words of my mouth;
 6 Don't forsake her, and she will preserve you;
 Love her, and she will keep you.
 7 Wisdom [is] the principal thing; [therefore] get wisdom;
 Yes, with all your getting get understanding.
 8 Exalt her, and she will promote you;
 She will bring you to honor, when you embrace her.
 9 She will give to your head a chaplet of grace;
 A crown of beauty she will deliver to you.
 10 Hear, my son, and receive my sayings;
 And the years of your life will be many.
 11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom;
 I have led you in paths of uprightness.
 12 When you go, your steps will not be straitened;
 And if you run, you will not stumble.
 13 Take fast hold of instruction; don't let her go:
 Keep her; for she is your life.
 14 Don't enter into the path of the wicked,
 And don't walk in the way of evil men.
 15 Avoid it, don't pass by it;
 Turn from it, and pass on.
 16 For they don't sleep, except they do evil;
 And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause
 some to fall.
 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
 And drink the wine of violence.
 18 But the path of the righteous is as the dawning light,
 That shines more and more to the perfect day.
 19 The way of the wicked is as darkness:
 They don't know at what they stumble.
 20 My son, attend to my words;
 Incline your ear to my sayings.
 21 Don't let them depart from your eyes;
 Keep them in the midst of your heart.
 22 For they are life to those who find them,
 And health to all their flesh.
 23 Keep your heart with all diligence;
 For out of it are the issues of life.
 24 Put away from you a wayward mouth,
 And perverse lips put far from you.
 25 Let your eyes look right on,
 And let your eyelids look straight before you.
 26 Make level the path of your feet,
 And let all your ways be established.
 27 Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left:
 Remove your foot from evil.
 5 My son, attend to my wisdom;
 Incline your ear to my understanding:
 2 That you may preserve discretion,
 And that your lips may keep knowledge.
 3 For the lips of a strange woman drop honey,
 And her mouth is smoother than oil:

⁴ But in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
⁵ Her feet go down to death;
Her steps take hold on Sheol;
⁶ If she does not find the level path of life:
Her ways are unstable, [and] she will not know.

⁷ Now therefore, [my] sons, listen to me,
And do not depart from the words of my mouth.
⁸ Remove your way far from her,
And don't come near the door of her house;
⁹ Or else you will give your grandeur to others,
And your years to the cruel;
¹⁰ Or else strangers will be filled with your strength,
And your labors [be] in the house of an alien,
¹¹ And you mourn at your latter end,
When your flesh and your body are consumed,
¹² And say, How I have hated instruction,
And my heart despised reproof;
¹³ Neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!
¹⁴ I was well-near in all evil
In the midst of the assembly and congregation.

¹⁵ Drink waters out of your own cistern,
And running waters out of your own well.
¹⁶ Should your springs be dispersed abroad,
And streams of water in the streets?
¹⁷ Let them be for yourself alone,
And not for strangers with you.
¹⁸ Let your fountain be blessed;
And rejoice in the wife of your youth.
¹⁹ [As] a loving hind and a pleasant doe,
Let her nipples immerse you at all times;
And be ravished always with her love.
²⁰ For why should you, my son, be ravished with a strange woman,
And embrace the bosom of a foreigner?
²¹ For the ways of man are before the eyes of Yahweh;
And he makes level all his paths.
²² His own iniquities will take the wicked,
And he will be held with the cords of his sin.
²³ He will die for lack of instruction;
And in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

6 My son, if you have become surety for your fellow man,
If you have stricken your hands for a stranger;
² You are snared with the words of your mouth,
You are taken with the words of your mouth.
³ Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself,
Seeing you have come into the hand of your fellow man:
Go, humble yourself, and importune your fellow man;
⁴ Don't give sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids;
⁵ Deliver yourself as a roe from the hand [of the hunter],
And as a bird from the hand of the fowler.
⁶ Go to the ant, you sluggard;
Consider her ways, and be wise:
⁷ Which having no chief,
Overseer, or ruler,
⁸ Provides her bread in the summer,
And gathers her food in the harvest.
⁹ How long will you sleep, O sluggard?
When will you arise out of your sleep?

¹⁰ [Yet] a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep:
¹¹ So will your poverty come as a robber,
And your want as an armed man.
¹² [A] worthless man, a man of iniquity,
Is he who walks with a perverse mouth;
¹³ Who winks with his eyes, who speaks with his feet,
Who makes signs with his fingers;
¹⁴ In whose heart is perverseness,
Who devises evil continually,
Who sows discord.
¹⁵ Therefore will his calamity come suddenly;
All of a sudden he will be broken, and that without remedy.
¹⁶ There are six things which Yahweh hates;
Yes, seven which are disgusting to his soul:
¹⁷ Haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
And hands that shed innocent blood;
¹⁸ A heart that devises wicked purposes,
Feet that are swift in running to mischief,
¹⁹ A false witness who utters lies,
And he who sows discord among brothers.
²⁰ My son, keep the commandment of your father,
And don't forsake the law of your mother:
²¹ Bind them continually on your heart;
Tie them about your neck.
²² When you walk, it will lead you;
When you sleep, it will watch over you;
And when you awake, it will talk with you.
²³ For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is a light;
And reproofs of instruction are the way of life:
²⁴ To keep you from the evil woman,
From the flattery of the foreigner's tongue.
²⁵ Don't lust after her beauty in your heart;
Neither let her take you with her eyelids.
²⁶ For on account of a prostitute [a man is brought] to a piece of bread;
And the adulteress hunts for the precious soul.
²⁷ Can a man take fire in his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?
²⁸ Or can one walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be scorched?
²⁹ So he who goes in to his fellow man's wife;
Whoever has any sex with her^a will not be unpunished.
³⁰ Men do not despise a thief, if he steals
To satisfy his soul when he is hungry;
³¹ But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold;
He will give all the substance of his house.
³² He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding:
He who does it destroys his own soul.
³³ Wounds and dishonor he will get;
And his reproach will not be wiped away.
³⁴ For jealousy is the rage of a [noble] man;
And he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
³⁵ He will not regard any ransom;
Neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

7 My son, keep my words,
And lay up my commandments with you.
2 Keep my commandments and live;
And my law as the apple of your eye.
3 Bind them on your fingers;
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom,
You are my sister;
And call understanding [your] kinswoman:
5 That they may keep you from the strange woman,
From the foreigner who flatters with her words.
6 For at the window of my house
I looked forth through my lattice;
7 And I saw among the simple ones,
I discerned among the youths,
A young man void of understanding,
8 Passing through the street near her corner;
And he went the way to her house,
9 In the twilight, in the evening of the day,
In the middle of the night and in the darkness.
10 And, look, there met him a woman
With the attire of a prostitute, and wily of heart.
11 She is clamorous and willful;
Her feet do not stay in her house:
12 Now she is in the streets, now in the broad places,
And lies in wait at every corner.
13 So she caught him, and kissed him,
[And] with an impudent face she said to him:
14 Sacrifices of peace-offerings are with me;
This day I have paid my vows.
15 Therefore I came forth to meet you,
Diligently to seek your face, and I have found you.
16 I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry,
With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
17 I have perfumed my bed
With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning;
Let us solace ourselves with loves.
19 For the man is not at home;
He has gone on a long journey:
20 He has taken a bag of silver with him;
He will come home at the full moon.
21 With her much fair speech she causes him to yield;
With the flattering of her lips she forces him along.
22 He goes after her right away,
As an ox goes to the slaughter,
Or as [one in] fetters to the correction of the fool;
23 Until an arrow strikes through his liver;
As a bird hurries to the snare,
And does not know that it is for his soul.
24 Now therefore, [my] sons, listen to me,
And attend to the words of my mouth.
25 Don't let your heart decline to her ways;
Don't go astray in her paths.
26 For she has cast down many wounded:
Yes, all her slain are a mighty host.
27 Her house is the way to Sheol,
Going down to the chambers of death.

8 Does not wisdom cry,
And understanding put forth her voice?
2 On the top of high places by the way,
Where the paths meet, she stands;
3 Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the coming in at the doors, she cries aloud:

4 To you⁺, O men, I call;
And my voice is to the sons of man.
5 O you⁺ simple, understand prudence;
And, you⁺ fools, be of an understanding heart.
6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things;
And the opening of my lips will be right things.
7 For my mouth will utter truth;
And wickedness is disgusting to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
9 They are all plain to him who understands,
And right to those who find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction, and not silver;
And knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 For wisdom is better than rubies;
And all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.
12 I, wisdom, stay with prudence,
And find out knowledge [and] discretion.
13 The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil:
Pride, and arrogance, and the evil way,
And the perverse mouth, I hate.
14 Counsel is mine, and sound knowledge:
I am understanding;
I have might.
15 By me kings reign,
And princes decree justice.
16 By me princes rule,
And nobles, [even] all those who govern righteously.
17 I love those who love me;
And those who seek me diligently will find me.
18 Riches and honor are with me;
[Yes,] durable wealth and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold;
And my revenue than choice silver.
20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of justice;
21 That I may cause those who love me to inherit substance,
And that I may fill their treasuries.
22 Yahweh possessed me in the beginning of his way,
Before his works of old.
23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
Before the earth was.
24 When there were no depths,
I was brought forth,
When there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills I was brought forth;
26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,
Nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
27 When he established the heavens,
I was there:
When he set a circle on the face of the deep,
28 When he made firm the skies above,
When the fountains of the deep became strong,
29 When he gave to the sea its bound,
That the waters should not transgress his commandment,
When he marked out the foundations of the earth;
30 Then I was by him, [as] a master craftsman;
And I was daily [his] delight,
Rejoicing always before him,
31 Rejoicing in his habitable earth;
And my delight was with the sons of man.
32 Now therefore, [my] sons, listen to me;
For blessed are those who keep my ways.
33 Hear instruction, and be wise,

And don't refuse it.

- ³⁴ Blessed is [the] man who hears me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
³⁵ For whoever finds me finds life,
And will obtain favor of Yahweh.
³⁶ But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul:
All those who hate me love death.

- 9 Wisdom has built her house;
She has cut out her seven pillars:
² She has killed her beasts;
She has mingled her wine;
She has also furnished her table:
³ She has sent forth her maidens;
She cries on the highest places of the city:
⁴ Whoever is simple, let him turn in here:
As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,
⁵ Come, eat⁺ of my bread,
And drink of the wine which I have mingled.
⁶ Leave off, you⁺ simple ones, and live;
And walk in the way of understanding.

⁷ He who corrects a scoffer gets to himself reviling;
And he who reproves a wicked man [gets] himself a blot.
⁸ Don't reprove a scoffer, or else he will hate you:
Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
⁹ Give [instruction] to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser:
Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
¹⁰ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom;
And knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
¹¹ For by me your days will be multiplied,
And the years of your life will be increased.
¹² If you are wise, you are wise for yourself;
And if you scoff, you alone will bear it.

¹³ The foolish woman is clamorous;
[She is] simple, and knows nothing.
¹⁴ And she sits at the door of her house,
On a seat in the high places of the city,
¹⁵ To call to those who pass by,
Who go right on their ways:
¹⁶ Whoever is simple, let him turn in here;
And as for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,
¹⁷ Stolen waters are sweet,
And bread [eaten] in secret is pleasant.
¹⁸ But he does not know that the spirits of the dead are there;
That her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10 The proverbs of Solomon.

- A wise son makes a glad father;
But a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.
² Treasures of wickedness profit nothing;
But righteousness delivers from death.
³ Yahweh will not allow the soul of the righteous to famish;
But he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
⁴ He becomes poor who works with a slack hand;
But the hand of the diligent makes rich.
⁵ He who gathers in summer is a wise son;
[But] he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.
⁶ Blessings are on the head of the righteous;
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
⁷ The memory of the righteous is blessed;

- But the name of the wicked will rot.
⁸ The wise in heart will receive commandments;
But a prating fool will fall.

¹⁵ The rich man's wealth is his strong city:
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
¹⁶ The labor of the righteous, to life;
The increase of the wicked, to sin.
¹⁷ He is in the way to life who heeds correction;
But he who forsakes reproof errs.
¹⁸ He who hides hatred is of lying lips;
And he who utters a slander is a fool.
¹⁹ In the multitude of words transgression does not cease;
But he who refrains his lips does wisely.
²⁰ The tongue of the righteous is [as] choice silver:
The heart of the wicked is worth little.
²¹ The lips of the righteous feed many;
But the foolish die for lack of understanding.
²² The blessing of Yahweh, it makes rich;
And he adds no sorrow with it.
²³ It is as sport to a fool to do wickedness;
And [so is] wisdom to a man of understanding.
²⁴ The fear of the wicked, it will come upon him;
And the desire of the righteous will be granted.
²⁵ When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;
But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
²⁶ As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
So is the sluggard to those who send him.
²⁷ The fear of Yahweh prolongs days;
But the years of the wicked will be shortened.
²⁸ The hope of the righteous [will be] gladness;

But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
³⁰ The righteous will never be removed;
But the wicked will not stay in the land.
³¹ The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom;
But the perverse tongue will be cut off.

⁵ The righteousness of the perfect will direct his way;
But the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.
⁶ The righteousness of the upright will deliver them;
But betrayers will be taken in their own iniquity.
⁷ When [a] wicked man dies, [his] expectation will perish;
And the hope of iniquity perishes.
⁸ The righteous is delivered out of trouble,
And the wicked comes in his stead.

⁹ With his mouth the godless man destroys his fellow man;
But through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.
¹⁰ When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices;
And when the wicked perish, there is shouting.
¹¹ By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted;
But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

But a man of understanding holds his peace.
¹³ He who goes about as double-tongued reveals secrets;^a
But he who is of a faithful spirit conceals a matter.

²³ The desire of the righteous is only good;
[But] the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

¹¹ Sheol and Abaddon are before Yahweh;
 How much more then the hearts of the sons of man!
¹² A scoffer does not love to be reproved;
 He will not go to the wise.
¹³ A glad heart makes a cheerful countenance;
 But by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken.
¹⁴ The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge;
 But the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
¹⁵ All the days of the afflicted are evil;
 But he who is of a cheerful heart [has] a continual

^a or, 'in his integrity' feast.

¹⁶ Better is little, with the fear of Yahweh,
 Than great treasure and turmoil with it.
¹⁷ Better is a dinner of herbs, where there is love,
 Than a stalled ox and hatred with it.
¹⁸ A wrathful man stirs up contention;
 But he who is slow to anger appeases strife.
¹⁹ The way of the sluggard is as a hedge of thorns;
 But the path of the upright is made a highway.
²⁰ A wise son makes a glad father;
 But [a] foolish man despises his mother.
²¹ Folly is joy to him who is void of wisdom;
 But a man of understanding makes straight his going.
²² Where there is no counsel, purposes are disappointed;
 But in the multitude of counselors they are established.
²³ A man has joy in the answer of his mouth;
 And a word in due season, how good it is!
²⁴ To the wise the way of life [goes] upward,
 That he may depart from Sheol beneath.
²⁵ Yahweh will root up the house of the proud;
 But he will establish the border of the widow.
²⁶ Evil devices are disgusting to Yahweh;
 But pleasant words [are] pure.
²⁷ He who is greedy of gain troubles his own house;
 But he who hates bribes will live.
²⁸ The heart of the righteous studies to answer;
 But the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil things.
²⁹ Yahweh is far from the wicked;
 But he hears the prayer of the righteous.
³⁰ The light of the eyes rejoices the heart;
 [And] good news make the bones fat.
³¹ The ear that harkens to the reproof of life
 Will reside among the wise.
³² He who refuses correction despises his own soul;
 But he who harkens to reproof gets understanding.
³³ The fear of Yahweh is the instruction of wisdom;
 And before honor [goes] humility.

16 The plans of the heart belong to man;
 But the answer of the tongue is from Yahweh.
² All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;
 But Yahweh weighs the spirits.
³ Commit your works to Yahweh,
 And your purposes will be established.
⁴ Yahweh has made everything for its own end;
 Yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
⁵ Everyone who is proud in heart is disgusting to Yahweh:
 [Though] hand [join] in hand, he will not be unpunished.
⁶ By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for;
 And by the fear of Yahweh men depart from evil.
⁷ When a man's ways please Yahweh,
 He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
⁸ Better is a little, with righteousness,
 Than great revenues with injustice.
⁹ The heart of man devises his way;
 But Yahweh directs his steps.
¹⁰ A divine sentence is in the lips of the king;
 His mouth will not transgress in judgment.
¹¹ A just balance and scales are Yahweh's;
 All the weights of the bag are his work.
¹² It is disgusting to kings to commit wickedness;
 For the throne is established by righteousness.
¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of kings;
 And they love him who speaks right.
¹⁴ The wrath of a king is [as] messengers of death;
 But a wise man will pacify it.
¹⁵ In the light of the king's countenance is life;
 And his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain.
¹⁶ How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!

Yes, to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver.
¹⁷ The highway of the upright is to depart from evil:
 He who keeps his way preserves his soul.
¹⁸ Pride [goes] before destruction,
 And a haughty spirit before a fall.
¹⁹ It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor,
 Than to divide the spoil with the proud.
²⁰ He who gives heed to the word will find good;
 And whoever trusts in Yahweh, he is happy.
²¹ The wise in heart will be called prudent;
 And the sweetness of the lips increases learning.
²² Understanding is a wellspring of life to him who has it;
 But the correction of fools is [their] folly.
²³ The heart of the wise instructs his mouth,
 And adds learning to his lips.
²⁴ Pleasant words are [as] a honeycomb,
 Sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
²⁵ There is a way which seems right to a man,
 But its end are the ways of death.
²⁶ The soul of the laboring man labors for him;
 For his mouth urges him [thereto].
²⁷ A worthless man devises mischief;
 And in his lips there is as a scorching fire.
²⁸ A perverse man scatters abroad strife;
 And a whisperer separates best friends.
²⁹ A man of violence entices his fellow man,
 And leads him in a way that is not good.
³⁰ He who shuts his eyes, [it is] to devise perverse things:
 He who compresses his lips brings evil to pass.
³¹ The gray head is a crown of glory;
 It will be found in the way of righteousness.
³² He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;
 And he who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.
³³ The lot is cast into the lap;
 But the whole disposing of it is of Yahweh.

17 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness with it,
 Than a house full of feasting with strife.
² A slave who deals wisely will have rule over a son who causes shame,
 And will have part in the inheritance among the brothers.
³ The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold;
 But Yahweh tries the hearts.
⁴ An evildoer gives heed to wicked lips;
⁵ Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker;
⁶ Sons of sons are the crown of old men;
 And the glory of sons are their fathers.
⁷ Excellent speech does not become a fool;
 Much less do lying lips a prince.
⁸ A bribe is [as] a precious stone in the eyes of him who has it;
 Wherever it turns, it prospers.
⁹ He who covers a transgression seeks love;
 But he who harps on a matter separates best friends.
¹⁰ A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding
 Than a hundred stripes into a fool.
¹¹ An evil man seeks only rebellion;
 Therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
¹² Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man,
 Rather than a fool in his folly.
¹³ Whoever rewards evil for good,
 Evil will not depart from his house.
¹⁴ The beginning of strife is [as] when one lets out water:
 Therefore leave off contention, before there is quarrelling.
¹⁵ He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous,
 Both of them alike are disgusting to Yahweh.

- 16 Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom,
Seeing he has no understanding?
- 17 A companion loves at all times;
And a brother is born for adversity.
- 18 [A] man void of understanding strikes hands,
And becomes surety in the presence of his fellow man.
- 19 He who loves transgression loves strife:
He who raises his gate high seeks destruction.
- 20 He who has a wayward heart finds no good;
And he who has a perverse tongue falls into mischief.
- 21 He who begets a fool [does it] to his sorrow;
And the father of a fool has no joy.
- 22 A cheerful heart is a good medicine;
But a broken spirit dries up the bones.
- 23 A wicked man receives a bribe out of the bosom,
To pervert the ways of justice.
- 24 Wisdom is before the face of him who has understanding;
But the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.
- 25 A foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.
- 26 Also to punish the righteous is not good,
[Nor] to strike the noble for [their] uprightness.
- 27 He who spares his words has knowledge;
And he who is of a cool spirit is a man of understanding.
- 28 Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise;
When he shuts his lips, he is [esteemed as] prudent.
- 18 He who separates himself seeks [his own] desire,
And rages against all sound wisdom.
- 2 A fool has no delight in understanding,
But only that his heart may reveal itself.
- 3 When the wicked comes, there comes also contempt,
And with ignominy [comes] reproach.
- 4 The words of a man's mouth are [as] deep waters;
The wellspring of wisdom is [as] a gushing brook.
- 5 To respect the person of the wicked is not good,
[Nor] to turn aside the righteous in judgment.
- 6 A fool's lips enter into contention,
And his mouth calls for stripes.
- 7 A fool's mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
- 8 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
And they go down into the innermost parts.
- 9 He also who is slack in his work
Is brother to him who is a destroyer.
- 10 The name of Yahweh is a strong tower;
The righteous runs into it, and is safe.
- 11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And as a high wall in his own imagination.
- 12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty;
And before honor [goes] humility.
- 13 He who gives answer before he hears,
It is folly and shame to him.
- 14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity;
But a broken spirit who can bear?
- 15 The heart of the prudent gets knowledge;
And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
- 16 A gift of man makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.
- 17 He who pleads his cause first [seems] just;
But his fellow man comes and searches him out.
- 18 The lot causes contentions to cease,
And parts between the mighty.
- 19 A brother offended [is harder to be won] than a strong city;
And [such] contentions are like the bars of a castle.
- 20 A man's belly will be filled with the fruit of his mouth;
With the increase of his lips he will be satisfied.

- 21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue;
And those who love it will eat its fruit.
- 22 Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
And obtains favor of Yahweh.
- 23 The poor uses entreaties;
But the rich answers roughly.
- 24 He who has many companions [does it] to his own
destruction;
But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

- 19 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
- 2 Also, without knowledge the soul is not good;
And he who hurries with his feet sins.
- 3 The foolishness of man subverts his way;
And his heart frets against Yahweh.
- 4 Wealth adds many companions;
But the poor is separated from his companion.
- 5 A false witness will not be unpunished;
And he who utters lies will not escape.
- 6 Many will entreat the favor of the liberal man;
And every man is a companion to him who gives gifts.
- 7 All the brothers of the poor hate him:
How much more do his friends go far from him!
He pursues [them with] words, [but] they are gone.
- 8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul:
He who keeps understanding will find good.
- 9 A false witness will not be unpunished;
And he who utters lies will perish.
- 10 Delicate living is not seemly for a fool;
Much less for a slave to have rule over princes.
- 11 The discretion of man makes him slow to anger;
And it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
- 12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion;
But his favor is as dew on the grass.
- 13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father;
And the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.
- 14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers;
But a prudent wife is from Yahweh.
- 15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep;
And the idle soul will suffer hunger.
- 16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul;
[But] he who is careless of his ways will die.
- 17 He who has pity on the poor lends to Yahweh,
And his good deed he will pay him again.
- 18 Chasten your son, seeing there is hope;
And don't set your soul on his destruction.
- 19 A man of great wrath will bear the penalty;
For if you deliver [him], you must do it yet again.
- 20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction,
That you may be wise in your latter end.
- 21 There are many devices in a man's heart;
But the counsel of Yahweh, that will stand.
- 22 That which makes man to be desired is his kindness;
And a poor man is better than a liar.
- 23 The fear of Yahweh, [leads] to life
And he [who has it] will reside satisfied;
He will not be visited with evil. ^a
- 24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish,
And will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
- 25 Strike a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;
And reprove one who has understanding, [and] he will understand knowledge.
- 26 He who does violence to his father, and chases away his mother,
Is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

^a to life. See 1 Samuel 25:6 and footnote there.

27 Cease, my son, to hear instruction
[Only] to err from the words of knowledge.

28 A worthless witness mocks at justice;
And the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers,
And stripes for the back of fools.

20 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler;
And whoever errs by it is not wise.

2 The terror of a king is as the roaring of a lion:
He who makes him furious sins [against] his own soul.

3 It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife;
But every fool will be quarrelling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter;
Therefore he will beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is [like] deep water;
But a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most of man will proclaim every one his own kindness;
But a faithful man who can find?

7 A righteous man who walks in his integrity,
Blessed are his sons after him.

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment
Scatters away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean,
I am pure from my sin?

10 Diverse weights, and diverse measures,
Both of them alike are disgusting to Yahweh.

11 Even a child makes himself known by his doings,
Whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye,
Yahweh has made even both of them.

13 Do not love sleep, or else you will come to poverty;
Open your eyes, [and] you will be satisfied with bread.

14 It is bad, it is bad, says the buyer;
But when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold, and abundance of rubies;
But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 Take his garment who is surety for a stranger;
And hold him in pledge [who is surety] for foreigners.

17 Bread of falsehood is sweet to a man;
But afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel;
And by wise guidance make war.

19 He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets;
Therefore don't company with him who opens his lips wide.

20 Whoever curses his father or his mother,
His lamp will be put out in the middle of the night.

21 An inheritance [may be] obtained hastily at the beginning;
But its end will not be blessed.

22 Don't say, I will recompense evil:
Wait for Yahweh, and he will save you.

23 Diverse weights are disgusting to Yahweh;
And a false balance is not good.

24 A man's goings are of Yahweh;
How then can [noble] man understand his way?

25 It is a snare to man to rashly say, [It is] holy,
And after vows to make inquiry.

26 A wise king winnows the wicked,
And brings the [threshing]-wheel over them.

27 The breath of man is the lamp of Yahweh,
Searching all his innermost parts.

28 Kindness and truth preserve the king;
And his throne is upheld by kindness.

29 The glory of young men is their strength;
And the majesty of old men is the gray head.

30 Stripes that wound cleanse away evil;
And strokes [reach] the innermost parts.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of Yahweh as the watercourses:
He turns it wherever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes;
But Yahweh weighs the hearts.

3 To do righteousness and justice
Is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice.

4 A high look, and a proud heart,
[Even] the lamp of the wicked, is sin.^a

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue
Is a vapor driven to and fro by those who seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked will sweep them away,
Because they refuse to do justice.

8 The way of him who is laden with guilt is exceedingly crooked;
But as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
Than with a contentious woman in a wide house.

10 The soul of the wicked desires evil:
His fellow man finds no favor in his eyes.

11 When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise;
And when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The righteous man considers the house of the wicked,
[How] the wicked are overthrown to [their] ruin.

13 Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor,
He also will cry, but will not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger;
And a present in the bosom, strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the righteous to do justice;
But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.

16 [The] man who wanders out of the way of understanding
Will rest in the assembly of the spirits of the dead.

17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man:
He who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous;
And the betrayer [comes] in the stead of the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in a desert land,
Than with a contentious and fretful woman.

20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
But [a] foolish man swallows it up.

21 He who follows after righteousness and kindness
Finds life, righteousness, and honor.

22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
And brings down the strength of its confidence.

23 Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue
Keeps his soul from troubles.

24 The proud and haughty man, scoffer is his name;
He works in the arrogance of pride.

25 The desire of the sluggard kills him;
For his hands refuse to labor.

26 There is one who covets greedily all the day long;
But the righteous gives and does not withhold.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is disgusting:
How much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!

28 A false witness will perish;
But the man who hears will speak so as to endure.

29 A wicked man hardens his face;
But as for the upright, he establishes his ways.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding
Nor counsel against Yahweh.

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle;
But victory is of Yahweh.

^a HOTTP and LXX omit verse 5: 'The thoughts of the diligent [tend] only to plenteousness; But every one who is in a hurry [hurries] only to want.'

- 22 A [good] name is rather to be chosen than great riches,
[And] loving favor rather than silver and gold.
- ² The rich and the poor meet together;
Yahweh is the maker of them all.
- ³ A prudent man sees the evil, and hides himself;
But the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
- ⁴ The reward of humility [and] the fear of Yahweh
[Is] riches, and honor, and life.
- ⁵ Thorns [and] snares are in the way of the perverse:
He who keeps his soul will be far from them.^a
- ⁷ The rich rules over the poor;
And the borrower is slave to the lender.
- ⁸ He who sows iniquity will reap calamity;
And the rod of his wrath will fail.
- ⁹ He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed;
For he gives of his bread to the poor.
- ¹⁰ Cast out the scoffer, and contention will go out;
Yes, strife and ignominy will cease.
- ¹¹ He who loves pureness of heart,
[For] the grace of his lips the king will be his companion.
- ¹² The eyes of Yahweh preserve [him who has] knowledge;
But he overthrows the words of the betrayer.
- ¹³ The sluggard says, There is a lion outside:
I will be slain in the streets.
- ¹⁴ The mouth of strange women is a deep pit:
He who is abhorred of Yahweh will fall in it.
- ¹⁵ Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child;
[But] the rod of correction will drive it far from him.
- ¹⁶ He who oppresses the poor to increase his [gain],
[And] he who gives to the rich, [will come] only to want.

17 Words of the Wise.

- Incline your ear, and hear the words of the wise,
And apply your heart to my knowledge.
- ¹⁸ For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them inside you,
If they are established together on your lips.
- ¹⁹ That your trust may be in Yahweh,
I have made [them] known to you this day, even to you.
- ²⁰ Have I not written to you excellent things
Of counsels and knowledge,
- ²¹ To make you know the certainty of the words of truth,
That you may carry back words of truth to those who send you?
- ²² Don't rob the poor, because he is poor;
Neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:
- ²³ For Yahweh will plead their cause,
And despoil of soul those who despoil them.
- ²⁴ Make no friendship with a man who is given to anger;
And with a wrathful man you will not go:
- ²⁵ Or else you will learn his ways,
And get a snare to your soul.
- ²⁶ Don't be one of those who strikes hands,
[Or] of those who are sureties for debts.
- ²⁷ If you have not with which to pay,
Why should he take away your bed from under you?
- ²⁸ Don't remove the ancient landmark,
Which your fathers have set.
- ²⁹ Do you see a man diligent in his business?
He will stand before kings;
He will not stand before mean men.

- 23 When you sit to eat with a ruler,
Consider diligently him who is before you;
- ² And put a knife to your throat,
If you are a man who is given to soul.
- ³ Don't be desirous of his dainties;
Seeing they are deceitful food.
- ⁴ Don't weary yourself to be rich;
Cease from your own wisdom.
- ⁵ Will you set your eyes on that which is not?
For [riches] certainly make themselves wings,
Like an eagle that flies toward heaven.
- ⁶ Don't eat the bread of him who has an evil eye,
Neither desire his dainties:
- ⁷ For as he thinks in his soul, so he is:
Eat and drink, he says to you;
But his heart is not with you.
- ⁸ The morsel which you have eaten you will vomit up,
And lose your sweet words.
- ⁹ Don't speak in the hearing of a fool;
For he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- ¹⁰ Don't remove the ancient landmark;
And don't enter into the fields of the fatherless:
- ¹¹ For their Redeemer is strong;
He will plead their cause against you.
- ¹² Apply your heart to instruction,
And your ears to the words of knowledge.
- ¹³ Do not withhold correction from the child;
[For] if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.
- ¹⁴ You will beat him with the rod,
And will deliver his soul from Sheol.
- ¹⁵ My son, if your heart be wise,
My heart will be glad, even mine:
- ¹⁶ Yes, my heart will rejoice,
When your lips speak right things.
- ¹⁷ Don't let your heart envy sinners;
But [be] in the fear of Yahweh all the day long:
- ¹⁸ For surely there is a reward;
And your hope will not be cut off.
- ¹⁹ Hear, my son, and be wise,
And guide your heart in the way.
- ²⁰ Don't be among winebibbers,
Among gluttonous eaters of flesh:
- ²¹ For the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty;
And drowsiness will clothe [a man] with rags.
- ²² Listen to your father who begot you,
And don't despise your mother when she is old.
- ²³ Buy the truth, and don't sell it;
[Yes,] wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
- ²⁴ The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice;
And he who begets a wise child will have joy of him.
- ²⁵ Let your father and your mother be glad,
And let her who bore you rejoice.
- ²⁶ My son, give me your heart;
And let your eyes delight in my ways.
- ²⁷ For a prostitute is a deep ditch;
And a foreign woman is a narrow pit.
- ²⁸ Yes, she lies in wait as a robber,
And increases the betrayers among man.
- ²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contentions?
Who has complaining? Who has wounds without cause?
Who has redness of eyes?
- ³⁰ Those who tarry long at the wine;
Those who go to seek out mixed wine.
- ³¹ Don't look on the wine when it is red,
When it sparkles in the cup,
When it goes down smoothly:
- ³² At the last it bites like a serpent,

^a HOTTP and LXX omit verse 6: 'Train up a child in the way he should go, And even when he is old he will not depart from it.'

And stings like an adder.
³³ Your eyes will see strange things,
 And your heart will utter perverse things.
³⁴ Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea,
 Or as he who lies on the top of a mast.
³⁵ They have stricken me, [you will say], and I was not hurt;
 They have beaten me, and I did not feel it:
 When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

24 Don't be envious against evil men;
 Neither desire to be with them:
² For their heart studies oppression,
 And their lips talk of mischief.
³ Through wisdom is a house built;
 And by understanding it is established;
⁴ And by knowledge are the chambers filled
 With all precious and pleasant riches.
⁵ A wise [noble] man is strong;
 Yes, a man of knowledge increases might
⁶ For by wise guidance you will make your war;
 And in the multitude of counselors there is safety.
⁷ Wisdom is too high for a fool:
 He does not open his mouth in the gate.
⁸ He who devises to do evil,
 Men will call him a mischief-maker.
⁹ The thought of foolishness is sin;
 And the scoffer is disgusting to man.
¹⁰ If you faint in the day of adversity,
 Your strength is small.
¹¹ Deliver those who are carried away to death,
 And see that you hold back those who are ready to be slain.
¹² If you say, Look, we did not know this;
 Does not he who weighs the hearts consider it?
 And he who keeps your soul, does he not know it?
 And will he not render to man according to his work?
¹³ My son, eat honey, for it is good;
 And the drippings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:
¹⁴ So you will know wisdom to be to your soul;
 If you have found it, then there will be a reward,
 And your hope will not be cut off.
¹⁵ Don't lay in wait, O wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous;
 Don't destroy his resting-place:
¹⁶ For a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again;
 But the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
¹⁷ Don't rejoice when your enemy falls,
 And don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown;
¹⁸ Or else Yahweh will see it, and it will be evil in his eyes,
 And he will turn away his wrath from him.
¹⁹ Don't fret yourself because of evildoers;
 Neither be envious at the wicked:
²⁰ For there will be no reward to the evil man;
 The lamp of the wicked will be put out.
²¹ My son, fear Yahweh and the king;
 [And] don't company with those who are given to change:
²² For their calamity will rise suddenly;
 And the destruction from them both, who knows it?

23 These also are [words] of the wise.

To show favoritism in judgment is not good.
²⁴ He who says to the wicked, You are righteous;
 Peoples will curse him, nations will abhor him:
²⁵ But to those who rebuke [him] will be delight,
 And a good blessing will come upon them.
²⁶ He kisses the lips

Who gives a right answer.
²⁷ Prepare your work outside,
 And make it ready for yourself in the field;
 And afterward build your house.
²⁸ Don't be a witness against your fellow man without cause;
 And do not deceive with your lips.
²⁹ Don't say, I will do so to him as he has done to me;
 I will render to the man according to his work.
³⁰ I went by the field of the sluggard,
 And by the vineyard of [the] man void of understanding;
³¹ And, look, it was all grown over with thorns,
 The face of it was covered with nettles,
 And the stone wall of it was broken down.
³² Then I looked, and considered well;
 I saw, and received instruction:
³³ [Yet] a little sleep, a little slumber,
 A little folding of the hands to sleep;
³⁴ So will your poverty come as a robber,
 And your want as an armed man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

² It is the glory of God to conceal a thing;
 But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
³ As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth,
 So the heart of kings is unsearchable.
⁴ Take away the dross from the silver,
 And there comes forth a vessel for the refiner:
⁵ Take away the wicked [from] before the king,
 And his throne will be established in righteousness.
⁶ Don't put yourself forward in the presence of the king,
 And don't stand in the place of great men:
⁷ For it is better that it is said to you, Come up here,
 Than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
 Whom your eyes have seen.
⁸ Don't hastily bring [it] to court,
 Or else what will you do in its end,
 When your fellow man has put you to shame.
⁹ Debate your cause with your fellow man [himself],
 And don't disclose the secret of another;
¹⁰ Or else he who hears it will revile you,
 And your infamy will not turn away.
¹¹ A word fitly spoken
 Is [like] apples of gold in network of silver.
¹² [As] an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
 [So is] a wise reprover on an obedient ear.
¹³ As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
 [So is] a faithful messenger to those who send him;
 For he refreshes the soul of his masters.
¹⁴ [As] clouds and wind without rain,
 [So is] he who boasts himself of his gifts falsely.
¹⁵ By long forbearing is a ruler persuaded,
 And a soft tongue breaks the bone.
¹⁶ Have you found honey?
 Eat so much as is sufficient for you,
 Or else you will be filled with it, and vomit it.
¹⁷ Let your foot be seldom in your fellow man's house,
 Or else he will be weary of you, and hate you.
¹⁸ A man who bears false witness against his fellow man
 Is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.
¹⁹ Confidence in a betrayer in time of trouble
 Is [like] a crumbling tooth, and an unsteady foot.

- ²⁰ [As] vinegar on lye, and [as] smoke for the eyes,^a
So is he who sings songs to a heavy heart.^b
- ²¹ If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink:
- ²² For you will heap coals of fire on his head,
And Yahweh will reward you.
- ²³ The north wind brings forth rain:
So does a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.
- ²⁴ It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
Than with a contentious woman in a wide house.
- ²⁵ [As] cold waters to a thirsty soul,
So is good news from a far country.
- ²⁶ [As] a troubled fountain, and a corrupted spring,
[So is] a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.
- ²⁷ It is not good to eat much honey:
And searching out their glory is glory.
- ²⁸ He whose spirit is without restraint
Is [like] a city that is broken down and without walls.

- 26 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,
So honor is not seemly for a fool.
- ² As the sparrow in her wandering, as the swallow in her flying,
So the curse that is causeless does not come.
- ³ A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
And a rod for the back of fools.
- ⁴ Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
Or else you will also be like him.
- ⁵ Answer a fool according to his folly,
Or else he will be wise in his own eyes.
- ⁶ He who sends a message by the hand of a fool
Cuts off [his own] feet, [and] drinks crime.
- ⁷ [As] the legs hang loose from a cripple:
So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- ⁸ As one who binds a stone in a sling,
So is he who gives honor to a fool.
- ⁹ [As] a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard,
So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- ¹⁰ [As] an archer that wounds all,
So is he who hires a fool and he who hires those who pass by.
- ¹¹ As a dog that returns to his vomit,
[So is] a fool that repeats his folly.
- ¹² Do you see a man wise in his own conceit?
There is more hope of a fool than of him.
- ¹³ The sluggard says,
There is a lion in the way;
A lion is in the streets.
- ¹⁴ [As] the door turns on its hinges,
So does the sluggard on his bed.
- ¹⁵ The sluggard buries his hand in the dish;
It wearies him to bring it again to his mouth.
- ¹⁶ The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit
Than seven men who can render a reason.
- ¹⁷ He who passes by, [and] is furious with strife not belonging to him,
Is [like] one who takes a dog by the ears.
- ¹⁸ As a lunatic who casts firebrands,
Arrows, and death,
- ¹⁹ So is the man who deceives his fellow man,
And says, Am I not joking?
- ²⁰ For lack of wood the fire goes out;
And where there is no whisperer, contention ceases.
- ²¹ [As] coals are to hot embers, and wood to fire,
So is a contentious man to inflame strife.
- ²² The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
And they go down into the innermost parts.

- ²³ Fervent lips and a wicked heart
Are [like] an earthen vessel overlaid with silver dross.
- ²⁴ He who hates dissembles with his lips;
But he lays up deceit inside him:
- ²⁵ When he speaks fair, don't believe him;
For there are seven disgusting things in his heart:
- ²⁶ Though [his] hatred covers itself with guile,
His wickedness will be openly shown before the assembly.
- ²⁷ Whoever digs a pit will fall in it;
And he who rolls a stone, it will return on him.
- ²⁸ A lying tongue hates those whom it has wounded;
And a flattering mouth works ruin.

- 27 Don't boast yourself of tomorrow;
For you don't know what a day may bring forth.
- ² Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth;
A stranger, and not your own lips.
- ³ A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty;
But a fool's vexation is heavier than both of them.
- ⁴ Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming;
But who is able to stand before jealousy?
- ⁵ Better is open rebuke
Than love that is hidden.
- ⁶ Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
But the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
- ⁷ The full soul loathes a honeycomb;
But to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
- ⁸ As a bird that wanders from her nest,
So is a man who wanders from his place.
- ⁹ Oil and perfume rejoice the heart;
So does the sweetness of a man's companion [that comes] from the counsel of the soul.
- ¹⁰ Your own companion, and your father's companion, do not forsake;
And don't go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity:
Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far off.
- ¹¹ My son, be wise, and make my heart glad,
That I may answer him who reproaches me.
- ¹² A prudent man sees the evil, [and] hides himself;
[But] the simple pass on, [and] suffer for it.
- ¹³ Take his garment that is surety for a stranger;
And hold him in pledge [who is surety] for a foreign woman.
- ¹⁴ He who blesses his fellow man with a loud voice, rising early in the morning,
It will be counted a curse to him.
- ¹⁵ A continual dropping in a very rainy day
And a contentious woman are alike:
- ¹⁶ He who would restrain her restrains the wind;
And his right hand encounters oil.
- ¹⁷ Iron sharpens iron;
So a man sharpens the countenance of his fellow man.
- ¹⁸ Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit;
And he who regards his master will be honored.
- ¹⁹ As in water face [answers] to face,
So the heart of man to man.
- ²⁰ Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied;
And the eyes of man are never satisfied.
- ²¹ The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold;
And a man is [tried] by his praise.
- ²² Though you should bray a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with bruised grain,
Yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

^a as smoke for the eyes is to be placed here per HOTTP with a low certainty rating of D on a scale of A-D.

^b HOTTP and LXX omit the following at the first part of this verse: '[As] one who takes off a garment in cold weather'

²³ Be diligent to know the state of your flocks,
[And] look well to your herds:
²⁴ For riches are not forever:
And does the crown endure to all generations?
²⁵ The hay is carried, and the tender grass shows itself,
And the herbs of the mountains are gathered in.
²⁶ The lambs are for your clothing,
And the goats are the price of the field;
²⁷ And [there will be] goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household,
And maintenance for your maidens.

28 The wicked flee when no man pursues;
But the righteous are bold as a lion.
² For the transgression of a land many are its princes;
But by [a] man of understanding [and] knowledge the state
[of it] will be prolonged.
³ A needy [noble] man who oppresses the poor
Is [like] a sweeping rain which leaves no food.
⁴ Those who forsake the law praise the wicked;
But such as keep the law contend with them.
⁵ Evil men don't understand justice;
But those who seek Yahweh understand all things.
⁶ Better is the poor who walks in his integrity,
Than he who is perverse in [his] ways, though he is rich.
⁷ Whoever keeps the law is a wise son;
But he who is a shepherd of gluttons shames his father.
⁸ He who augments his substance by interest and increase,
Gathers it for him who has pity on the poor.
⁹ He who turns away his ear from hearing the law,
Even his prayer is disgusting.
¹⁰ Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,
He will fall into his own pit;
But the perfect will inherit good.
¹¹ The rich man is wise in his own eyes;
But the poor who has understanding searches him out.
¹² When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
But when the wicked rise, man will hide.
¹³ He who covers his transgressions will not prosper:
But whoever confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.
¹⁴ Happy is [the] man who fears always;
But he who hardens his heart will fall into mischief.
¹⁵ [As] a roaring lion, and a ranging bear,
[So is] a wicked ruler over a poor people.
¹⁶ The leader who lacks understanding is also a great
oppressor;
[But] he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.
¹⁷ [A] man who is laden with the blood of a soul
Will flee to the pit; let no man uphold him.
¹⁸ Whoever walks uprightly will be delivered;
But he who is perverse in [his] ways will fall at once.
¹⁹ He who tills his land will have plenty of bread;
But he who follows after vanities will have poverty enough.
²⁰ A faithful man will abound with blessings;
But he who hurries to be rich will not be unpunished.
²¹ To show favoritism is not good;
Neither that a [noble] man should transgress for a piece of bread.
²² He who has an evil eye hurries after riches,
And does not know that want will come upon him.
²³ He who rebukes man will afterward find more favor
Than he who flatters with the tongue.
²⁴ Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, It is no
transgression,
The same is the partner of a destroyer.
²⁵ A greedy soul stirs up strife;
But he who puts his trust in Yahweh will be made fat.

²⁶ He who trusts in his own heart is a fool;
But whoever walks wisely, he will be delivered.
²⁷ He who gives to the poor will not lack;
But he who hides his eyes will have many a curse.
²⁸ When the wicked rise, man hides himself;
But when they perish, the righteous increase.

29 He who being often reprov'd hardens his neck
Will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.
² When the righteous have increased, the people rejoice;
But when a wicked man bears rule, the people sigh.
³ Whoever loves wisdom rejoices his father;
But he who is a shepherd of prostitutes wastes [his] substance.
⁴ The king by justice establishes the land;
But he who exacts gifts overthrows it.
⁵ A [noble] man who flatters his fellow man
Spreads a net for his steps.
⁶ In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare;
But the righteous sings and rejoices.
⁷ The righteous takes knowledge of the cause of the poor;
The wicked does not have understanding to know [it].
⁸ Scoffers set a city in a flame;
But wise men turn away wrath.
⁹ If a wise man has a controversy with a foolish man,
Whether he is angry or laughs, there will be no rest.
¹⁰ The bloodthirsty hate him who is perfect;
And as for the upright, they seek his soul.
¹¹ A fool utters all his anger;
But a wise man keeps it back and stills it.
¹² If a ruler harkens to falsehood,
All his ministers are wicked.
¹³ The poor man and the oppressor meet together;
Yahweh lightens the eyes of them both.
¹⁴ The king who faithfully judges the poor,
His throne will be established forever.
¹⁵ The rod and reproof give wisdom;
But a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.
¹⁶ When the wicked are increased, transgression increases;
But the righteous will look at their fall.
¹⁷ Correct your son, and he will give you rest;
Yes, he will give delight to your soul.
¹⁸ Where there is no vision, the people go wild;
But he who keeps the law, he is happy.
¹⁹ A slave will not be corrected by words;
For though he understands, he will not give heed.
²⁰ Do you see a man who is in a hurry in his words?
There is more hope of a fool than of him.
²¹ He who delicately brings up his slave from a child
Will have him become a son at the last.
²² An angry man stirs up strife,
And a wrathful man abounds in transgression.
²³ The pride of man will bring him low;
But he who is of a lowly spirit will obtain honor.
²⁴ Whoever shares with a thief hates his own soul;
He hears the adjuration and utters nothing.
²⁵ The fear of man brings a snare;
But whoever puts his trust in Yahweh will be safe.
²⁶ Many seek the ruler's favor;
But a man's judgment [comes] from Yahweh.
²⁷ An unjust man is disgusting to the righteous;
And he who is upright in the way is disgusting to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh;
The oracle.

The [noble] man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:

² Surely I am more brutish than any man,

And don't have the understanding of man;

³ And I have not learned wisdom,

Neither have I knowledge of the Holy One.

⁴ Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?

Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has bound the waters in his garment?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?

⁵ Every word of God is tried:

He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

⁶ Don't add to his words,

Or else he will reprove you, and you will be found a liar.

⁷ Two things I have asked of you;

Don't deny me [them] before I die:

⁸ Remove far from me falsehood and lies;

Give me neither poverty nor riches;

Feed me with the food that is needful for me:

⁹ Or else I will be full, and deny [you], and say, Who is Yahweh?

Or else I will be poor, and steal,

And profanely use the name of my God.

¹⁰ Don't slander a slave to his master,

Or else he will curse you, and you will be held guilty.

¹¹ There is a generation who curse their father,

And do not bless their mother.

¹² There is a generation who are pure in their own eyes,

And [yet] are not washed from their filthiness.

¹³ There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes!

And their eyelids are lifted up.

¹⁴ There is a generation whose teeth are [as] swords,
and their jaw teeth [as] knives,

To devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among man.

¹⁵ The horseleach has two daughters, [crying] Give, give.

There are three things that are never satisfied,

[Yes,] four that don't say, Enough:

¹⁶ Sheol; and the barren womb;

The earth that is not satisfied with water;

And the fire that does not say, Enough.

¹⁷ The eye that mocks at his father,

And despises to obey his mother,

The ravens of the valley will pick it out,

And the young eagles will eat it.

¹⁸ There are three things which are too wonderful for me,

Yes, four which I don't know:

¹⁹ The way of an eagle in the air;

The way of a serpent on a rock;

The way of a ship in the midst of the sea;

And the way of a [noble] man with a young woman.

²⁰ So is the way of an adulterous woman;

She eats, and wipes her mouth,

And says, I have done no wickedness.

²¹ For three things the earth trembles,

And for four, [which] it can't bear:

²² For a slave when he is king;

And a fool when he is filled with food;

²³ For an odious woman when she is married;

And a female slave when she takes the place of her mistress.

²⁴ There are four things which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:

²⁵ The ants are not a strong people,

Yet they provide their food in the summer;

²⁶ The conies are but a feeble folk,

Yet make they their houses in the rocks;

²⁷ The locusts have no king,

Yet go they forth all of them by bands;

²⁸ The lizard, you can catch it with [your] hands,

Yet she is in kings' palaces.

²⁹ There are three things which are stately in their march,

Yes, four which are stately in going:

³⁰ The lion, which is mightiest among beasts,

And does not turn away for any;

³¹ The greyhound; the he-goat also;

And the king against whom there is no rising up.

³² If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself,

Or if you have thought evil,

[Put] your hand on your mouth.

³³ For the churning of milk brings forth butter,

And the wringing of the nose brings forth blood;

So the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.

31 The words of King Lemuel; the oracle which his mother taught him.

² What, my son? And what, O son of my womb?

And what, O son of my vows?

³ Don't give your strength to women,

Nor your ways to [those women who] destroy kings.

⁴ It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine;

Nor for princes to desire strong drink.

⁵ Or else they will drink, and forget the law,

And pervert the justice [due] to any who is afflicted.

⁶ Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish,

And wine to the bitter in soul:

⁷ Let him drink, and forget his poverty,

And remember his misery no more.

⁸ Open your mouth for the mute,

In the cause of all such as are left desolate.

⁹ Open your mouth, judge righteously,

And give justice to the poor and needy.

¹⁰ A worthy woman who can find?

For her price is far above rubies.

¹¹ The heart of her husband trusts in her,

And he will have no lack of gain.

¹² She does him good and not evil

All the days of her life.

¹³ She seeks wool and flax,

And works willingly with her hands.

¹⁴ She is like the merchant-ships;

She brings her bread from far.

¹⁵ She rises also while it is yet night,

And gives food to her household,

And their task to her maidens.

¹⁶ She considers a field, and buys it;

With the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

¹⁷ She girds her loins with strength,

And makes her arms strong.

¹⁸ She perceives that her merchandise is profitable:

Her lamp does not go out by night.

¹⁹ She lays her hands to the distaff,

And her hands hold the spindle.

²⁰ She stretches out her hand to the poor;

- Yes, she reaches forth her hands to the needy.
²¹ She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
 For all her household has double clothes.
²² She makes for herself carpets of tapestry;
 Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
²³ Her husband is known in the gates,
 When he sits among the elders of the land.
²⁴ She makes linen garments and sells them,
 And delivers belts to the merchant.
²⁵ Strength and majesty are her clothing;
 And she laughs at the time to come.
²⁶ She opens her mouth with wisdom;
 And the law of kindness is on her tongue.
²⁷ She looks well to the ways of her household,
 And does not eat the bread of idleness.
²⁸ Her sons rise up, and call her blessed;
 Her husband [also], and he praises her, [saying]:
²⁹ Many daughters have done worthily,
 But you excel them all.
³⁰ Grace is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
 [But] a woman who fears Yahweh, she will be praised.
³¹ Give her of the fruit of her hands;
 And let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

² I said in my heart, Come now, I will prove you with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure: and, look, this also was vanity. ² I said of laughter, It is insane; and of mirth, What does it do? ³ I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding [me] with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of man that they should do under heaven all the days of their life. ⁴ I made myself great works; I built myself houses; I planted myself vineyards; ⁵ I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit; ⁶ I made myself pools of water, to water therefrom the forest where trees were reared; ⁷ I bought male slaves and female slaves, and had slaves born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; ⁸ I gathered myself also silver and gold, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces; I got myself men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of man, many women.^a ⁹ So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me. ¹⁰ And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I did not withhold my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor; and this was my portion from all my labor. ¹¹ Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do; and, look, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

¹² And I turned myself to look at wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what [can] man [do] who comes after the king? [Even] that which has been done long ago. ¹³ Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. ¹⁴ The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness: and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. ¹⁵ Then I said in my heart, As it happens to the fool, so it will happen even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. ¹⁶ For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no remembrance forever; seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. And how the wise man dies even as the fool! ¹⁷ So I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a striving after wind.

¹⁸ And I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to man who will be after me. ¹⁹ And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. ²⁰ Therefore I turned about to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. ²¹ For there is man whose labor is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet to man who has not labored in it he will leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²² For what has man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? ²³ For all his days are [but] sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

²⁴ Is it not good that man should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor? This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. ²⁵ For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? ²⁶ For to [the] man who pleases him [God] gives wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

³ For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: ² a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; ³ a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; ⁴ a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; ⁵ a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; ⁶ a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; ⁷ a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silent, and a time to speak; ⁸ a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. ⁹ What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? ¹⁰ I have seen the travail which God has given to the sons of man to be exercised with. ¹¹ He has made everything beautiful in its time: also he has set eternity in their heart, yet so that man cannot find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. ¹² I know that there is nothing better for them, than to rejoice, and to do good so long as they live. ¹³ And also that all of man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. ¹⁴ I know that, whatever God does, it will be forever: nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. ¹⁵ That which is has been long ago; and that which is to be has long ago been: and God seeks again that which has passed away.

¹⁶ And moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. ¹⁷ I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. ¹⁸ I said in my heart, [It is] because of the sons of man, that God may prove them, and that they may see that they themselves are [but as] beasts. ¹⁹ For that which befalls the sons of man befalls beasts; even one thing befalls them: as the one dies, so dies the other; yes, they all have one breath; and man has no preeminence above the beasts: for all is vanity. ²⁰ All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. ²¹ Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the beast, whether it goes downward to the earth? ²² Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who will bring him [back] to see what will be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, look, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. ² Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive; ³ yes, better than them both [did I esteem] him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

⁷ Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. ⁸ There is one who is alone, and he has not a second; yes, he has neither son nor brother; yet is there no end of all his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, [he says], do I labor, and deprive my soul of good? This also is vanity, yes, it is an intense travail. ⁹ Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. ¹⁰ For if they fall, the one will lift up his partner; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and does not have another to lift him up. ¹¹ Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one be warm [alone]? ¹² And if a man prevails against him who is alone, two will withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

¹³ Better is an indigent and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who doesn't know how to receive admonition anymore. ¹⁴ For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. ¹⁵ I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, who stood up in his stead. ¹⁶ There was no end of all the people, even of all those over whom he was: yet those who come after will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

5 Keep your foot when you go to the house of God; for to draw near to hear is better than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they don't even know how to do evil. ² Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be in a hurry to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you are on earth: therefore let your words be few. ³ For a dream comes with a multitude of business, and a fool's voice with a multitude of words. ⁴ When you vow a vow to God, do not defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools: pay that which you vow. ⁵ It is better that you should not vow, than you should vow and not pay. ⁶ Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; neither say before the messenger,^a that it was an unintentional [error]: why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷ For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, and in many words: but fear God.

⁸ If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter: for one higher than the high regards; and there are higher than those. ⁹ And the advantage of a land^b is for everyone. There is a king to [protect] the cultivated field.

¹³ There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, [namely], riches kept by their owner to his hurt: ¹⁴ and those riches perish by evil adventure; and if he has begotten a son, there is nothing in his hand. ¹⁵ As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked he will go again as he came, and will take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. ¹⁶ And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so he will go: and what profit does he have that he labors for the wind? ¹⁷ All his days also he eats in darkness, and he is intensely vexed, and has sickness and wrath.

¹⁸ Look, that which I have seen to be good and to be beautiful is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him: for this is his portion. ¹⁹ All among man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰ For he will not remember much the days of his life; because God answers [him] in the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on man: ² a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but an alien eats it; this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. ³ If a man begets a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he: ⁴ for he comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and his name is covered with darkness; ⁵ moreover he has not seen the sun nor known it; this has rest rather than the other: ⁶ yes, though he lives a thousand years twice told, and yet enjoys no good, do not all go to one place?

^a messenger in this context is likely to mean the priest. Compare to Malachi 2:7. Messenger can also be translated as 'angel'.

⁷ All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the soul is not filled. ⁸ For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? [Or] what has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? ⁹ Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the soul: this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

¹⁰ Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. ¹¹ Seeing there are many things that increase vanity, what is the advantage to man? ¹² For who knows what is good for man in [his] life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? For who can tell man what will be after him under the sun?

7 A [good] name is better than precious oil; and the day of death, than the day of one's birth. ² It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all man; and the living will lay it to his heart. ³ Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made glad. ⁴ The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

⁸ Better is the end of a thing than its beginning; [and] the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. ⁹ Don't be in a hurry in your spirit to be angry; for anger rests in the bosom of fools. ¹⁰ Don't say, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? For you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

¹¹ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance; yes, more excellent is it for those who see the sun. ¹² For wisdom is a defense, even as silver is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it. ¹³ Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? ¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything [that will be] after him.

¹⁹ Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. ²⁰ Surely there is not [a] righteous man on earth, who does good, and does not sin. ²¹ Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your slave curse you; ²² for oftentimes also your own heart knows that you yourself likewise have cursed others.

²³ All this I have proved in wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. ²⁴ That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep; who can find it out? ²⁵ I turned about, and my heart [was set] to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason [of things], and to know that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness is madness. ²⁶ And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, [and] whose hands are bindings: whoever pleases God will escape from her; but the sinner will be taken by her. ²⁷ Look, this I have found, says the Preacher, [laying] one thing to another, to find out the account; ²⁸ which my soul still seeks, but I have not found: of man one among a thousand I have found; but a woman among all those I have not found. ²⁹ Look, this only I have found: that God made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

8 Who is as the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? The wisdom of man makes his face to shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. ² I [counsel you], Keep the king's command, and that in regard of the oath of God. ³ Don't be in a hurry to go out of his presence; don't persist in an evil thing: for he does whatever pleases him. ⁴ For the king's word [has] power; and who may say to him, What are you doing? ⁵ Whoever keeps the commandment will know no evil thing; and a wise man's heart discerns time and judgment: ⁶ for to every purpose there is a time and judgment; because the misery of man is great on him: ⁷ for he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? ⁸ Man does not have power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death; and there is no discharge in war: neither will wickedness deliver him who is given to it.

⁹ All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: [there is] a time in which man has power over man to his hurt. ¹⁰ So I saw the wicked buried, and they came [to the grave]; and those who had done right went away from the holy place, and were forgotten in the city: this also is vanity. ¹¹ Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of man is fully set in them to do evil. ¹² Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and prolong his [days], yet surely I know that it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before him: ¹³ but it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong [his] days, [which are] as a shadow; because he does not fear before God.

¹⁴ There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. ¹⁵ Then I commended mirth, because man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will go with him in his labor [all] the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

¹⁶ When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for there is also one who neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), ¹⁷ then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun: because however much man labors to seek it out, yet he will not find it; and even though a wise man thinks to know it, yet he will not be able to find it. 9 For all this I took to heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man does not know it; all is before them.

² All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices and to him who does not sacrifice; as is the good, so is the sinner; [and] he who swears, as he who fears an oath. ³ This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of man is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that [they go] to the dead. ⁴ For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵ For the living know that they will die: but the dead don't know anything, neither have they a reward anymore; for the memory of them is forgotten. ⁶ Their love as well, as their hatred and their envy, has perished long ago; neither have they anymore a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

⁷ Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. ⁸ Let your garments always be white; and don't let your head lack oil. ⁹ Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. ¹⁰ Whatever your hand finds to do, do [it] with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you go.

¹¹ I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happens to them all. ¹² For man also doesn't know his time: as the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of man snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

¹³ I have also seen wisdom under the sun on this wise, and it seemed great to me: ¹⁴ There was a little city, and few men inside it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. ¹⁵ Now there was found in it an indigent wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet man did not remember that same indigent man. ¹⁶ Then I said, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the indigent man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. ¹⁷ The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. ¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to gush forth a stench; [so] does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor. ² A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart is at his left. ³ Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone [that] he is a fool. ⁴ If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for gentleness allays great offenses.

⁸ He who digs a pit will fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall, a serpent will bite him. ⁹ Whoever cuts out stones will be hurt with them; [and] he who splits wood is endangered by it. ¹⁰ If the iron is blunt, and one does not whet the edge, then he must use more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. ¹¹ If the serpent bites before it is charmed, then is there no advantage to the master of the tongue.

¹² The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. ¹³ The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his mouth is mischievous madness. ¹⁴ A fool also multiplies words: [yet] man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? ¹⁵ The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

¹⁶ Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning! ¹⁷ You are happy, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! ¹⁸ By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks. ¹⁹ A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes glad the life; and silver answers all things. ²⁰ Don't revile the king, no, not in your thought; and don't revile the rich in your bedchamber: for a bird of the heavens will carry the voice, and that which has wings will tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters; for you will find it after many days. ² Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth. ³ If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will be. ⁴ He who observes the wind will not sow; and he who regards the clouds will not reap. ⁵ As you don't know what the way of the wind is, [nor] how the bones [grow] in the womb of her who is pregnant; even so you don't know the work of God who does all. ⁶ In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be alike good. ⁷ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun. ⁸ Yes, if man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. All that comes is vanity.

⁹ Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know, that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. ¹⁰ Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, I have no pleasure in them; ² before the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; ³ in the day when the keepers of the house will tremble, and the strong men will bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows will be darkened, ⁴ and the doors will be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one will rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music will be brought low; ⁵ yes, they will be afraid of [that which is] high, and terrors [will be] in the way; and the almond-tree will blossom, and the grasshopper will be a burden, and desire will fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets: ⁶ before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern, ⁷ and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it. ⁸ Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; all is vanity.

⁹ And further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered, and sought out, [and] set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰ The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, [even] words of truth.

¹¹ The words of the wise are as goads; and as nails well fastened are [the words of] the masters of assemblies, [which] are given from one shepherd. ¹² And furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

¹³ [This is] the end of the matter; all has been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is [applicable to] all man.
¹⁴ For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Song of Songs

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

² Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth;
 For your love is better than wine.
³ Your oils have a goodly fragrance;
 Your name is oil poured forth;
 Therefore the young women love you.
⁴ Draw me; we will run after you:
 The king has brought me into his chambers;
 We will be glad and rejoice in you;
 We will make mention of your love more than of wine:
 Rightly they love you.
⁵ I am black, but comely,
 O you⁺ daughters of Jerusalem,
 As the tents of Kedar,
 As the curtains of Solomon.
⁶ Don't look on me, because I am swarthy,
 Because the sun has scorched me.
 My mother's sons were incensed against me;
 They made me keeper of the vineyards;
 [But] my own vineyard I have not kept.
⁷ Tell me, O you whom my soul loves,
 Where you shepherd [your flock],
 Where you make [it] to rest at noon:
 For why should I be as one who is veiled
 Beside the flocks of your fellow shepherds?^a
⁸ If you don't know, O you most beautiful among women,
 Go your way forth by the footsteps of the flock,
 And shepherd your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.
⁹ I have compared you, O my love,
 To a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.
¹⁰ Your cheeks are comely with plaits [of hair],
 Your neck with strings of jewels.
¹¹ We will make you plaits of gold
 With studs of silver.
¹² While the king sat at his table,
 My spikenard sent forth its fragrance.
¹³ My beloved is to me [as] a bundle of myrrh,
 That lies between my breasts.
¹⁴ My beloved is to me a cluster of henna-flowers
 In the vineyards of En-gedi.
¹⁵ Look, you are beautiful, my love;
 Look you are beautiful;
 Your eyes are doves.
¹⁶ Look, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant:
 Also our couch is green.
¹⁷ The beams of our house are cedars,
 [And] our rafters are firs.

2 I am a rose of Sharon,
 A lily of the valleys.

² As a lily among thorns,
 So is my love among the daughters.
³ As the apple-tree among the trees of the forest,
 So is my beloved among the sons.
 I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
 And his fruit was sweet to my taste.
⁴ He brought me to the banqueting-house,
 And his banner over me was love.
⁵ Strengthen⁺ me with raisins, refresh me with apples;
 For I am sick from love.
⁶ His left hand [is] under my head,
 And his right hand embraces me.
⁷ I adjure you⁺, O daughters of Jerusalem,
 By the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
 That you⁺ do not stir up, nor awake [my] love,
 Until he pleases.
⁸ The voice of my beloved! Look, he comes,
 Leaping on the mountains,
 Skipping on the hills.
⁹ My beloved is like a roe or a young hart:
 Look, he stands behind our wall;
 He looks in at the windows;
 He glances through the lattice.
¹⁰ My beloved spoke, and said to me,
 Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
¹¹ For, look, the winter is past;
 The rain is over and gone;
¹² The flowers appear on the earth;
 The time of the singing [of birds] has come,
 And the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land;
¹³ The fig tree ripens her green figs,
 And the vines are in blossom;
 They give forth their fragrance.
 Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
¹⁴ O my dove, in the clefts of the rock,
 In the covert of the steep place,
 Let me see your countenance,
 Let me hear your voice;
 For sweet is your voice, and your countenance is comely.
¹⁵ Take for us the foxes, the little foxes,
 That spoil the vineyards;
 For our vineyards are in blossom.
¹⁶ My beloved is mine, and I am his:
 He shepherds [his flock] among the lilies.
¹⁷ Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
 Turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young hart On the mountains of Bethel.
3 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loves:
 I sought him, but I did not find him.
² [I said], I will rise now, and go about the city;
 In the streets and in the broad ways
 I will seek him whom my soul loves:
 I sought him, but I did not find him.
³ The watchmen who go about the city found me;
 [To whom I said], Did you⁺ see him whom my soul loves?
⁴ It was but a little while that I passed from them,
 When I found him whom my soul loves:
 I held him, and would not let him go,
 Until I had brought him into my mother's house,

^a fellow shepherds is literally 'partners'. See also verse 8:13.

And into the chamber of her who became pregnant with me.

- ⁵ I adjure you⁺, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
That you⁺ do not stir up, nor awake [my] love,
Until he pleases.
- ⁶ Who is this that comes up from the wilderness
Like pillars of smoke,
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all powders of the merchant?
- ⁷ Look, it is the litter of Solomon;
Threescore mighty men are about it,
Of the mighty men of Israel.
- ⁸ All of them handle the sword, [and] are expert in war:
Every man has his sword on his thigh,
Because of fear in the night.
- ⁹ King Solomon made himself a palanquin
Of the wood of Lebanon.
- ¹⁰ He made its pillars of silver,
Its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
The midst of it being paved with love,
From the daughters of Jerusalem.
- ¹¹ Go forth, O you⁺ daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon,
With the crown with which his mother has crowned him
In the day of his espousals,
And in the day of the gladness of his heart.
- 4 Look, you are beautiful, my love; look, you are beautiful;
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is as a flock of goats,
That lie along the side of mount Gilead.
- ² Your teeth are like a flock [of ewes] that are [newly] shorn,
Which have come up from the washing,
Of which everyone has twins,
And none is bereaved among them.
- ³ Your lips are like a thread of scarlet,
And your mouth is comely.
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate
Behind your veil.
- ⁴ Your neck is like the tower of David
Built for an armory,
On which hang a thousand bucklers,
All the shields of the mighty men.
- ⁵ Your two breasts are like two fawns
That are twins of a roe,
Which feed among the lilies.
- ⁶ Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
I will get myself to the mountain of myrrh,
And to the hill of frankincense.
- ⁷ You are entirely beautiful, my love;
And there is no spot in you.
- ⁸ Come with me from Lebanon, [my] bride,
With me from Lebanon:
Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Senir and Hermon,
From the lions' dens,
From the mountains of the leopards.
- ⁹ You have ravished my heart, my sister, [my] bride;
You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes,
With one chain of your neck.
- ¹⁰ How fair is your love, my sister, [my] bride!
How much better is your love than wine!
And the fragrance of your oils than all manner of spices!

- ¹¹ Your lips, O [my] bride, drop [as] the honeycomb:
Honey and milk are under your tongue;
And the smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
- ¹² A garden shut up is my sister, [my] bride;
A spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
- ¹³ Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits;
Henna with spikenard plants,
- ¹⁴ Spikenard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense;
Myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.
- ¹⁵ [You are] a fountain of gardens,
A well of living waters,
And flowing streams from Lebanon.
- ¹⁶ Awake, O north wind; and come, you south;
Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.
Let my beloved come into his garden,
And eat his precious fruits.
- 5 I have come into my garden, my sister, [my] bride:
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drank my wine with my milk.
Eat, O companions;
Drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved.
- ² I was asleep, but my heart awoke:
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks, [saying,]
Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;
For my head is filled with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night.
- ³ I have put off my garment; how shall I put it on?
I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?
- ⁴ My beloved put in his hand through the hole,
And my insides were moved for him.
- ⁵ I rose up to open to my beloved;
And my hands dropped with myrrh,
And my fingers with liquid myrrh,
On the handles of the bolt.
- ⁶ I opened to my beloved;
But my beloved had withdrawn himself, [and] was gone.
My soul had failed me when he spoke:
I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.
- ⁷ The watchmen who go about the city found me,
They struck me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls took away my mantle from me.
- ⁸ I adjure you⁺, O daughters of Jerusalem,
If you⁺ find my beloved,
That you⁺ tell him, that I am sick from love.
- ⁹ What is your beloved more than [another] beloved,
O you most beautiful among women?
What is your beloved more than [another] beloved,
That you so adjure us?
- ¹⁰ My beloved is white and ruddy,
The chiefest among ten thousand.
- ¹¹ His head is the most fine gold;
His locks are bushy, [and] black as a raven.
- ¹² His eyes are like doves beside the water-brooks,
Washed with milk, [and] fitly set.

¹³ His cheeks are as a bed of spices,
[As] banks of sweet herbs:
His lips are lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.
¹⁴ His hands are rings of gold set with beryl:
His insides are ivory work overlaid [with] sapphires.
¹⁵ His legs are pillars of marble, set on sockets of fine gold:
His aspect is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
¹⁶ His mouth is most sweet;
Yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my companion,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 Where has your beloved gone,
O you most beautiful among women?
Where has your beloved turned,
That we may seek him with you?

² My beloved has gone down to his garden,
To the beds of spices,
To shepherd in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

³ I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine;
He shepherds [his flock] among the lilies,

⁴ You are beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah,
Comely as Jerusalem,
Terrible as an army with banners.

⁵ Turn away your eyes from me,
For they have overcome me.
Your hair is as a flock of goats,
That lie along the side of Gilead.

⁶ Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
Which have come up from the washing;
Of which everyone has twins,
And none is bereaved among them.

⁷ Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate
Behind your veil.

⁸ There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines,
And young women without number.

⁹ My dove, my undefiled, is [but] one;
She is the only one of her mother;
She is the choice one of her who bore her.
The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;
[Yes,] the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

¹⁰ Who is she who looks forth as the morning,
Beautiful as the moon,
Clear as the sun,
Terrible as an army with banners?

¹¹ I went down into the garden of nuts,
To see the green plants of the valley,
To see whether the vine budded,
[And] the pomegranates were in flower.

¹² Before I was aware, my soul set me

¹³ Return, return, O Shulammite;
Return, return, that we may look at you.
Why will you⁺ look at the Shulammite,
As on the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter!
Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skillful workman.

² Your body is [like] a round goblet,
[In which] no mingled wine is wanting:
Your waist is [like] a heap of wheat
Set about with lilies.

³ Your two breasts are like two fawns
That are twins of a roe.

⁴ Your neck is like the tower of ivory;
Your eyes [as] the pools in Heshbon,
By the gate of Bath-rabbim;
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looks toward Damascus.

⁵ Your head on you is like Carmel,
And the hair of your head like purple;
The king is held captive in the tresses [of it].

⁶ How fair and how pleasant are you,

⁷ Your stature is like a palm-tree,
And your breasts to its clusters.

⁸ I said, I will climb up into the palm-tree,
I will take hold of its branches:
Let your breasts be as clusters of the vine,
And the smell of your breath like apples,

⁹ And your mouth like the best wine,
That goes down smoothly for my beloved,
Gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

¹⁰ I am my beloved's;
And his desire is toward me.

¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field;
Let us lodge in the villages.

¹² Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us see whether the vine has budded,
[And] its blossom is open,
[And] the pomegranates are in flower:
There I will give you my love.

¹³ The mandrakes give forth fragrance;
And at our doors are all manner of precious fruits, new and old,
Which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

8 Oh that you were as my brother,
Who nursed the breasts of my mother!
[When] I should find you outside, I would kiss you;
Yes, and none would despise me.

² I would lead you, [and] bring you into my mother's house,
Who would instruct me;
I would cause you to drink of spiced wine,
Of the juice of my pomegranate.

³ His left hand [should be] under my head,
And his right hand should embrace me.

⁴ I adjure you⁺, O daughters of Jerusalem,
That you⁺ do not stir up, nor awake [my] love,
Until he pleases.

⁵ Who is this that comes up from the wilderness,
Leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple-tree I awakened you:
There your mother was in travail with you,
There she who brought you forth was in travail.

⁶ Set me as a seal on your heart,
As a seal on your arm:
For love is as strong as death;
Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol;
The flashes of it are flashes of fire,
An intense flame of Yahweh.

⁷ Many waters can't quench love,
Neither can floods drown it:
If a man would give all the substance of his house for love,
He would be completely despised.

⁸ We have a little sister,
And she has no breasts:
What shall we do for our sister
In the day when she will be spoken for?

⁹ If she is a wall,
We will build on her a turret of silver:
And if she is a door,
We will enclose her with boards of cedar.

¹⁰ I am a wall, and my breasts like the towers [of it]:
Then I was in his eyes as one who found peace.

¹¹ Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon;
He let out the vineyard to keepers;
Every one for its fruit was to bring a thousand [shekels] of silver.

¹² My vineyard, which is mine, is before me:
You, O Solomon, will have the thousand,
And those who keep its fruit two hundred.

¹³ You who dwell in the gardens,
My fellow shepherds listen for your voice:
Cause me to hear it.

¹⁴ Hurry, my beloved,
And be like a roe or a young hart
On the mountains of spices.

The Wisdom of Sirach

- 1 All wisdom is from Yahweh,
And is with him for eternity.
- ² The sand of the seas, and the drops of rain,
And the days of eternity: who will number [them]?
- ³ The height of heaven, and the width of the earth,
And the depth of the deep:^a who will search [them]?
- ⁴ Before all things, wisdom was allotted,
And understanding of intelligence from eternity.^b
- ⁶ The root of wisdom, to whom was it revealed?
And her secrets, who knew [them]?^c
- ⁸ There is one, he alone is to be feared,
Yahweh, he rules over her treasures;^d
- ⁹ He allotted her and numbered her,^e
And poured her out on all his works,
- ¹⁰ Among all flesh according to his gift,
And he supplied her to those who fear him.^f
- ¹¹ The fear of the Lord is glory and exultation,
And gladness and a crown of joy.
- ¹² The fear of the Lord delights the heart.
And gives gladness, and joy, and length of days.
- ¹³ For him who fears the Lord it will be well at the last.
And in the day of his death he will find grace.
- ¹⁴ The beginning of wisdom is the fear of Yahweh,

^a And the depth of the deep, follows the Latin. Most Greek manuscripts read 'and the deep and wisdom'.

^c secrets, based on the Hebrew word used at Sirach 42:18, which contains the same Greek word as this verse. Also compare Job 11:6. Verse 7 is not in the best Greek manuscripts.

^f Syriac reads to those who fear him.

- And with the faithful, she was interwoven in the womb;^g
- ¹⁵ Among men she constructed an eternal foundation,
And among their seed, she will be trusted in.
- ¹⁶ The abundance of wisdom is the fear of Yahweh,
And she soaks them with her nectar.^h
- ¹⁷ Their whole house she fills with delicacies,
And their storehouses with her produce.
- ¹⁸ The crown of wisdom is the fear of Yahweh,
Blossoming with peace and improving health.ⁱ
- ¹⁹ She is a strong staff and a glorious stay;
And lifted up the glory of those who held her.
- ²⁰ The root of wisdom is to fear Yahweh,
And her branches are length of days.^j
- ²² Unrighteous wrath cannot be justified,
For the wrath of his anger will [occasion] his fall.
- ²³ The longsuffering man endures until the [proper] time,
And in the end joy will arise for him;
- ²⁴ He hides his words until the [proper] time,
And the lips of the faithful will declare his understanding.
- ²⁵ In the treasures of wisdom there is a wise proverb,
But godliness is an abomination to the sinner.
- ²⁶ If you desire wisdom, keep the commandments.
And the Lord will grant her freely to you.
- ²⁷ For the fear of the Lord is wisdom and instruction,
And faith and meekness are his good pleasure.
- ²⁸ Do not disobey the fear of the Lord,
And do not come near thereto with a double heart.
- ²⁹ Do not be a hypocrite in the sight of men.
And take heed to [the utterances of] your lips.
- ³⁰ Do not exalt yourself lest you fall
And bring upon your soul disgrace.
And the Lord reveal your hidden [thoughts],
And cast you down in the midst of the assembly,
Because you did not come to the fear of the Lord,
And your heart was full of deceit.

- 2 My son, if you draw near to the fear of Yahweh,
Prepare your soul for trial.^k
- ² Direct your heart aright, and continue steadfast,
And do not hurry in time of calamity.
- ³ Stick to him, and don't be far,
That you may be increased in your latter end.
- ⁴ Accept all that is brought on you,
And be patient in changes of your affliction;
- ⁵ For gold is proved in fire,
And acceptable men in a furnace of affliction.
- ⁶ Trust in him and he will strengthen you,
Make straight your ways and hope in him.

- ⁷ You⁺ who fear the Lord, wait for his mercy;
And do not turn aside lest you⁺ fall.
- ⁸ You⁺ who fear the Lord, put your⁺ trust in him,
And your⁺ reward will not fail.
- ⁹ You⁺ who fear the Lord, hope for good things,
And for eternal gladness and mercy.
- ¹⁰ Look to the generations of old, and see:
Who trusted in Yahweh, and was put to shame?

^g interwoven, literally 'knit together with' or 'joined together with.' See Ps 139:13.

^h them refers back to the men in verse 15 and possibly also their seed.

ⁱ crown, or wreath. May refer to a type of crown made from plants. The crown is what is blossoming in the second part of the verse.

^j Verse 21 in Greek is not likely to be the original text.

^k son. This is the normal mode of addressing pupils. The Greek reads, 'child', but also does so in the Hebrew parts of Sirach where the literal reading is 'son'. For example see Sir 3:8, 12, 17, 4:1. to the fear of Yahweh follows the Syriac reading, Greek reads 'to serve'.

Or who abided in his fear, and was forsaken?

Or who called on him, and was overlooked?

¹¹ For Yahweh is merciful and gracious,
And he saves in time of trouble.

¹² Woe to fearful hearts and faint hands,
And to the sinner who goes two ways.

¹³ Woe to the faint heart; because it does not believe,
Therefore it will not be sheltered.

¹⁴ Woe to you⁺ who have lost patience,
And what will you⁺ do when the Lord visits you⁺?

¹⁵ Those who fear the Lord will not be disobedient to his words,
And those who love him will keep his ways.

¹⁶ Those who fear the Lord will seek his good pleasure,
And those who love him will be filled with the law.

¹⁷ Those who fear the Lord will make ready their hearts,
And will humble their souls in his sight.

¹⁸ For as is his majesty, so also is his mercy,
And as is his name, so also are his works.^a

3 My sons, listen to your⁺ father,
And do as he says, that you⁺ may live.^b

² For Yahweh glorified the father over the sons,
And he firmly set the mother's judgment over them.^c

³ He who honors [his] father makes atonement for sins,
⁴ And he who gives glory to his mother is as one who lays up treasure.

⁵ He who honors [his] father will rejoice under [his] sons,
And in the day of his prayer he will be listened to.

⁶ He who glorifies [his] father will have length of days,
And he who listens to God honors his mother.^d

⁸ My son, in word and in deed honor your father,
So that all blessings may overtake you.

⁹ A father's blessing lays the foundation for the root,
But a mother's curse plucks up the plant.

¹⁰ Do not honor yourself by your father's shame,
For that is no honor to you.

¹¹ A man's glory is the glory of his father,
But he who curses his mother increases sin.

¹² My son, strengthen yourself in the honor of your father,
And do not forsake him all the days of your life;

¹³ And even though his mind fails, leave him alone,
And do not shame him all the days of his life.^e

¹⁴ A father's righteousness will not be wiped away,
And sin will be the recompense for breaking it down.^f

¹⁵ In the day of distress it will be remembered to you,
As heat on frost, to cause your iniquities to cease.

¹⁶ For he who despises his father acts proudly,
And he who curses his mother provokes his Creator.

¹⁷ My son, in your riches walk in meekness,
And you will be loved more than he who gives gifts.

¹⁸ Make your soul smaller than all the great [souls] of old,
And before God you will find mercy.^g

²⁰ For many are the mercies of God,

And to the meek he reveals his secret.

²¹ Do not seek out things which are too wonderful for you,
And do not search for that which is hidden from you.

²² Think about what you are permitted,
And do not occupy yourself in hidden things.

²³ And do not get into what is beyond you,
For more than you can handle has already been shown to you.

²⁴ For many are the thoughts of the sons of man,
And evil imaginations cause [them] to go astray.^h

²⁶ A hardened heart grows bad at its end,
But he who loves good things is guided in them.

²⁷ A hardened heart increases sorrows,
And he who is profane adds iniquity to iniquity.

²⁸ The wound of a scoffer, there are no healings for it,
For his plant is of an evil plant.

²⁹ A wise heart understands proverbs of the wise,
And an ear that listens to wisdom rejoices.

³⁰ A burning fire is quenched by water,
Likewise righteousness atones for sin.

³¹ He who does good, it will meet him in his ways,
And when he is moved he will find support.

4 My son, do not mock at the life of the poor,
And do not grieve the eyes of him who is in bitterness of soul.

² Do not snort at the misery of the soul who lacks,
And do not hide yourself from a contrite soul.ⁱ

³ Do not trouble the insides of the oppressed,
And do not withhold a gift from your indigent.

⁴ Do not despise the requests of the needy,
⁵ And you will not give him a place to curse you.

⁶ He who is bitter in spirit cries out in the pain of his soul,
And his Rock will hear the voice of his cry.

⁷ Cause your soul to be loved by the congregation,
And to a ruler, moreover, bow your head.

⁸ Incline your ear to the poor,
And answer his [greeting of] Peace,^j with meekness.

⁹ Save the oppressed from his oppressors,
And do not let your spirit be weary with right judgment.

¹⁰ Be as a father to the fatherless,
And in the place of a husband to widows.

And God will call you son,
And will be gracious to you.

¹¹ Wisdom teaches her sons,
And testifies to all who understand her.

¹² Those who love her, love life.
And those who seek her, will obtain favor from Yahweh.

¹³ And those who lay hold on her will find honor from Yahweh,
And will encamp in the blessing of Yahweh.

¹⁴ Those who are holy servants, serve her,
And his tent [is] among those who desire her.^k

¹⁵ He who hears me, will judge in truth;

^c sons is literally 'children' in Greek, but see footnote at 2:1; also compare Prov 1:8 and 6:20.

^d God, follows the Syriac word often used for God in Hebrew. Greek reads, 'the Lord'. The Hebrew version does not contain verse 7.

^e leave him alone, in the sense of 'do not bother him'. See similar phrases at Mark 14:6 and 2 Kings 4:27.

^f breaking it down, see similar phrase at Job 19:10, 24:20 and Psalm 52:5. Also compare Sirach 3:14-15 to Job 24:19-20.

^g The Hebrew version does not contain verse 19.

^h Verse 25 has been omitted since it has varying wording and appears in different places in different manuscripts.

ⁱ The translation of the word 'misery' is somewhat uncertain due to the difficulty in determining the underlying Hebrew word.

^j Peace - In Hebrew, 'Shalom', a common word of greeting.

^k The translation of the last half of this verse is uncertain. It is reconstructed here based on transposing two letters in one Hebrew word (אֶהְיֶה) and reading different word spacing in another (בְּמֵאוֹיָהּ).

And he who listens to me, will be given a room in my house.^a

¹⁷ For in disguise, I will walk with him;

And at first, he will choose trials.

¹⁸ Then at the time his heart is filled with me,
I will lead him again, and reveal to him my secrets.

¹⁹ If he turns away, I will cast him off,
And deliver him into the hands of the spoilers.

²⁰ My son, observe the time and season, and be afraid of evil.
And do not be ashamed to your soul.^b

²¹ For there is a shame that brings sin,
And there is a shame that brings glory and grace.

²² Do not regard your soul,
And do not stumble because of your shame.

²³ Do not withhold a word in due season,
And do not hide your wisdom.

²⁴ For by speech wisdom is made known,
And understanding by the answer of the tongue.

²⁵ Do not speak against the truth,
And concerning your ignorance be ashamed.

²⁶ Do not be ashamed to turn from iniquity,
And do not stand before a rushing stream.

²⁷ Do not lay yourself down under a fool,
And do not show favoritism before the mighty.

²⁸ Until death strive for the truth,
and Yahweh will fight for you.

²⁹ Do not be boastful with your tongue,
And slack and negligent with your work.

³⁰ Do not be as a lion in your house,
And reckless in your cultivating.

³¹ Do not let your hand be stretched out to receive,
And drawn back to return.

5 Do not lean on your strength,
And do not say, It is in the power of my hand.

² Do not go after your heart and your eyes,
To walk in the pleasures of evil.

³ Do not say, Who is able to [reach] his strength,
For Yahweh seeks the persecuted.

⁴ Do not say, I have sinned, and will he do anything to me?
For God is slow to anger.

⁵ Do not trust in forgiveness,
To add iniquity to iniquity;

⁶ And then say, His mercies are great,
He will pardon the multitude of my iniquities.

For mercy and anger are with him,
And upon the wicked he will lay his wrath.

⁷ Do not delay to turn to him;
And do not put it off from day to day.

For suddenly his indignation will go forth;
And in the time of vengeance you will be consumed.

⁸ Do not trust in possessions of falsehood,
For they will not profit in the day of wrath.

⁹ Do not be scattered in every wind,
And do not walk in every path.

¹⁰ Be established in your knowledge,
And afterward will be your words.

¹¹ Be swift to give ear,

And in patience of spirit return an answer.

¹² If you have anything [to say], answer your fellow man;
If not, [put] your hand on your mouth.

¹³ Glory and shame are in the hand of one who speaks rashly;
And the tongue of a man is his fall.

¹⁴ Do not be called double-tongued;
And with your tongue do not slander a friend.

For a thief, shame was created;
And reproach for the friend of the double-tongued.

¹⁵ Little or great, do not destroy;
And instead of a friend, do not be an enemy.

6 Reproach will give you an evil name and shame to inherit;
So [it will be with] an evil man [who is] double-tongued.

² Do not fall into the hand of your desire;
Or it will smother your strength over you.

³ It will eat your leaves and root out your fruit;
And leave you like a dry tree.

⁴ For excessive desire destroys its owners;
And the gladness of an enemy will overtake them.^c

⁵ A sweet mouth grows a friend;
And graceful lips will greet [saying], Peace.^d

⁶ Let the men who greet you [saying], Peace,^e be many;
But the owner of your secret, one among a thousand.

⁷ Have you gotten a friend? Get him in trial;
And do not be in a hurry to rely on him.

⁸ For there is a fair-weathered friend,
Who will not continue in the day of trouble.

⁹ There is a friend who turns into an enemy,
And with strife he will uncover your reproach.

¹⁰ There is a friend who is company at a table,
But will not be found in the day of evil.

¹¹ When things are good for you, he is like you;
But when things are bad for you, he will despise you.

¹² If evil overtakes you, he will turn against you;
And he will hide himself from your face.

¹³ Separate yourself from your enemies;
Take heed of your friends.

¹⁴ A faithful friend is a solid friend;
And he who finds him, finds wealth.

¹⁵ For a faithful friend, there is no price;
And there is no weight for his goodness.

¹⁶ A faithful friend is a bundle of life;
He who fears God will obtain it.

¹⁷ For as much as he is, so is his fellow man;
And as his name is, so is his value.

¹⁸ My son, from your youth choose understanding;
And until your gray head you will attain wisdom.

¹⁹ As the plowman and as the reaper, come near to her;
And wait for the abundance of her increase.

For in serving her, you will serve a little;
And tomorrow you will eat her fruit.

²⁰ To a fool, she is one who restrains;
And he who is void of understanding will not bear her.

²¹ She will be like a burdensome stone on him;
And he will not delay to cast her away.

²² For as her name is, so is her instruction;
And she is not plain to many.^f

²⁵ Incline your shoulder and carry her;
And do not be weary of her bundle.^g

^b your soul refers to 'yourself'.

^c excessive desire, this phrase is also used at Isaiah 56:11.

^f The Hebrew text of verses 23-24 is not available. Translations from other languages exist, but could differ substantially from the original.

^g The Hebrew text of verse 26 is not available. See footnote at verse 22.

- ²⁷ Inquire and conduct a search; seek and find.
And take hold of her and don't let her go.
- ²⁸ For afterward you will find her rest;
And [it] will be changed to a delight for you.^a
- ²⁹ And she will be for you a net, a place of strength;
And she will bundle [the net] with garments of gold.
- ³⁰ Her yoke is an ornament of gold;
And her bonds are a cord of blue.
- ³¹ You will put her on as garments of glory;
And crown yourself with her as a crown of beauty.
- ³² If it pleases you, my son, you will become wise;
And if you establish your heart, you will become prudent.
- ³³ If you will bring yourself to hear,
And incline your ear, you will be instructed.^b
- ³⁵ Be pleased to hear all talk;
And do not let a proverb of understanding get away from you.
- ³⁶ See who understands and seek him diligently;
And let your foot wear away his threshold.
- ³⁷ Diligently consider the fear of the Most High;
And always study his commandments.
And he will give your heart understanding;
And according to that which you desire, he will teach you wisdom.
- 7 Do not do evil to yourself;
And evil will not overtake you.
- ² Keep far from iniquity;
And it will turn away from you.
- ³ Do not knowingly plow against a brother;
Or else you will reap it sevenfold.
- ⁴ Do not seek dominion from God;
Or likewise a seat of honor from a king.
- ⁵ Do not justify yourself before a king;
And before a king, do not make yourself wise.
- ⁶ Do not seek to be a ruler
If you do not have the strength to make pride cease.
Or else you will be afraid of the noble;
And allow unjust gain in your integrity.
- ⁷ Do not cause your condemnation in the gates of the congregation;
And you will not cause your fall in the assembly.
- ⁸ Do not conspire to sin twice;
For in one you will not go unpunished.
- ⁹ Do not be stressed in the service of work;
For it has been allotted by God.^c
- ¹⁰ Do not be in a hurry to intercede in disputes;
And in deciding who is right, do not be angry.
- ¹¹ Do not despise a common man who is in bitterness of spirit;
Remember that there is one who lifts up and brings low.
- ¹² Do not plow violence against a brother;
And so, against a fellow man and friend together.
- ¹³ Do not delight to tell lie upon lie;
For the expectation from that will not be pleasant.
- ¹⁴ Do not reveal a secret in the congregation of princes;
And do not repeat what you heard from interceding in a dispute.^d
- ¹⁶ Do not reckon yourself among the men of the people;
Remember, if they cause trouble, do not be angry.

- ¹⁷ Exceedingly bring pride low;
For the expectation of common man is the maggot.
- ¹⁸ Do not exchange a friend for a price;
Nor lend a brother for the gold of Ophir.
- ¹⁹ Do not despise a prudent wife;
And a well-favored [wife] is above rubies.
- ²⁰ Do not afflict a slave who serves faithfully;
Or likewise a hired worker who gives his soul.
- ²¹ A slave who deals wisely, love as your own soul;
Do not withhold freedom from him.
- ²² Do you have a beast? Keep your eyes on it.
And if it is trustworthy, establish it.
- ²³ Do you have sons? Instruct them.
And marry wives to them in their youth.
- ²⁴ Do you have daughters? Guard their flesh.
And do not cause your face to shine toward them.
- ²⁵ Give away a daughter and a concern will go away.
But give her to a [noble] man of understanding.
- ²⁶ Do you have a wife? Do not be disgusted by her.
But a woman who is an enemy, do not trust in her.
- ²⁷ With all your heart, honor your father.
And do not forget the birth pangs of your mother.
- ²⁸ Remember that except through them,
You would not have been [born].
So what will you give back to them
Compared to what they gave to you?
- ²⁹ With all your soul, fear God.
And sanctify his priests.
- ³⁰ With all your might, love him who made you.
And do not forsake his ministers.
- ³¹ Glorify God and honor the priest.
And give their portion as you were commanded:
The bread of the first fruits; and
The heave-offering of the hand; and
The sacrifices of righteousness; and
The heave-offering of the holy things.^e
- ³² And likewise to the needy, hold out your hand;
So that your blessing may be complete.
- ³³ Show grace as a gift in the sight of all the living.
And likewise to the dead, do not deny kindness.
- ³⁴ Do not put off those who weep,
But mourn with those who mourn.
- ³⁵ Do not take away your heart from a friend,
Because by doing this you will be loved.
- ³⁶ With all your works remember the end;
And you will never be destroyed.

- 8 Do not strive with a great man.
Why should you fall into his hand?
- ² Do not plow against a wealthy man,
Or else your price will be weighed.
For gold has made many reckless;
And wealth will lead astray the hearts of the nobles.
- ³ Do not fight with a man of tongue;
And you will not put wood on a fire.
- ⁴ Do not walk along with a foolish man;
Or else he will despise your words.^f
- ⁵ Do not shame a man who turns from transgression;

^a [it] - Based on the Hebrew, what is changed to a delight does not refer to wisdom, rest, bundle, or stone. It could mean that the time afterward will change to a delight. Or perhaps it refers to some previous hardship.

^c This is verse 9 in Hebrew. See footnote at verse 15.

^e Parts of the list of offerings are uncertain in the Hebrew text. They have been reconstructed by comparing the other versions.

^f your words is literally 'the nobles' in Hebrew. The readings have similar letters in Hebrew. 'Nobles' was perhaps repeated in error from Sirach 8:2.

Remember that all of us are guilty.
⁶ Do not humiliate an aged [common] man;
 For we will be numbered among those who grow old.
⁷ Do not boast yourself over him who gave up the ghost;
 Remember all of us will be taken away.
⁸ Do not forsake the talk of the wise;
 But even try to figure out their riddles.
 Because from this you will receive instruction
 To stand before princes.
⁹ Do not despise what you hear among the gray-headed
 Which they have heard from their fathers.
 Because from this you will receive understanding
 To return an answer in the time you need it.

¹⁰ Do not kindle with the coal of the wicked;
 Or else you will be burned with the flame of his fire.
¹¹ Do not move away from before the scoffer
 To set him as an ambusher before you.
¹² Do not lend to a man stronger than you;
 And if you lend, [you are] as one who wastes.
¹³ Do not become surety for more than you have left;
 And if you become surety, [you are] as one who repays.
¹⁴ Do not enter into judgment against a judge;
 For he will judge according to his will.
¹⁵ Do not walk with one who is cruel;
 Or else you will be made heavy with your evil.
 For he will go straight before his face;
 And you will be consumed in his folly.
¹⁶ Do not harden your forehead with one who is given to anger;
 And do not ride with him in the way.
 For blood is as nothing in his eyes;
 And where there is none to deliver, he will destroy you.
¹⁷ Do not reveal yourself with one who is silly;
 For he will not be able to hide your secret.
¹⁸ Do no secret thing before a stranger;
 For you do not know to what end he will bring it.
¹⁹ Do not reveal your heart to all flesh;
 And you will not drive away the good from you.

9 Do not be jealous of the wife of your bosom;
 Or else you will teach evil concerning yourself.
² Do not be zealous to give your soul to a woman;
 So that you cause her to walk on your high places.
³ Do not come near to a strange woman;
 Or else you will fall into her snares.
⁴ Do not sleep with a female musician;
 Or else distracting admiration will burn you.
⁵ Do not think about a virgin;
 Or else you will be snared by her fines.
⁶ Do not give your soul to a prostitute;
 Or else you will turn away your inheritance.
⁷ Your eyes will make a fool of yourself in a vision;
 And you will be made desolate behind her house.
⁸ Hide your eye from a graceful woman;
 And do not look at beauty that is not yours.
 On account of a woman many have been destroyed;
 And so she will burn her lovers with fire.
⁹ Do not taste with her husband;
 And do not turn away with him drinking.

Or else you will incline your heart to her;
 And your blood will incline to destruction.

¹⁰ Do not forsake an old friend;
 For a new one is not acquainted with you.
 New wine [is like a] new friend;
 And after it is old, then you will drink it.
¹¹ Do not be jealous of a wicked man;
 For you do not know what his day [will be].
¹² Do not be jealous of a proud man who prospers;
 Remember that at the time of death he will not go unpunished.
¹³ Be far from a man who has the authority to kill;
 And you will not fear the dread of death.
 And if you have come near, do not be guilty;
 Or else he will take your breath.
 Know that you will be marching among snares;
 And you will be walking on nets.

¹⁴ According to your ability, answer your fellow man;
 But with those who are wise, reveal yourself.
¹⁵ Let what you think be with him who has understanding;
 And [let] all that is your secret [be] among them.
¹⁶ Share your bread with righteous men;
 And let your glory be in the fear of God.

¹⁷ The wise of hands controls his work;
 And a ruler [who controls] his people is wise.
¹⁸ Rash talk is feared on account of a man of tongue;
 And the burden on his mouth will be hated.

10 A judge of a people is one who instructs his people;
 And the dominion of one who gives understanding will be well ordered.

² A king who goes wild will cause the destruction of a city;
 And a city will be inhabited by the understanding of its princes.^a
³ As a judge of a people, so are his ambassadors;
 And as a head of a city, so are its inhabitants.^b
⁴ In the hand of God is the dominion of all of [noble] man;
 And in the presence of the lawgiver, he will put his grandeur.^c
⁵ In the hand of God is the dominion of the world;
 And a man at the time will stand on it.^d

⁶ Do not perform evil against a fellow man for all transgression;
 And do not walk in the way of pride.
⁷ Pride is an enemy to the Lord and to men;
 And to both of them, oppression is a trespass.
⁸ A kingdom will turn away from nation to nation
 Because of the violence of pride.
⁹ What is dust and ashes proud about
 That so long as it lives its nation will be lifted up?
¹⁰ "A whisper of sickness," complains the one who heals.
 "A king today - tomorrow will fall."
¹¹ In death man will inherit:
 The maggot and worm, lice and creeping things.
¹² The beginning of man's pride is [when] he becomes hardened;
 And of his own heart, he will turn away from what he has done.
¹³ For the reservoir of pride is sin;
 And the [reservoir's] fountain gushes out wickedness.

Therefore God will make his plagues wonderful;
And strike him until he is consumed.
¹⁴ The throne of the proud, God has overthrown;
And he seated the poor in their place.^a
¹⁶ The footsteps of the nations, God has closed up;
And he uprooted them from the bottom layer of earth.
¹⁷ And he has scraped them from the earth, and plucked them up;
And the memory of them ceased from the earth.
¹⁸ Pride is not seemly for a common man;
Nor strong anger for him who is born of a woman.
¹⁹ What seed is honored of the seed of a common man?
The seed is dishonored of him who transgresses the commandments.
²⁰ The head among brothers is honored;
But he who fears God [is honored] in the eye [of God].^b
²² Sojourner and stranger, foreigner and poor;
Their glory is the fear of Yahweh.
²³ Do not despise the needy who deals wisely;
And do not honor any violent man.
²⁴ A prince, a ruler, and a judge are honored;
But none is greater than one who fears God.
²⁵ A slave who deals wisely is lifted up;
And a slave who is corrected should not complain.
²⁶ Do not become wise to serve your pleasure;
And do not honor yourself in the time of your need.
²⁷ Better is he who serves and has abundant wealth;
Than he who honors himself and lacks a gift.
²⁸ My son, in meekness honor your soul;
And discretion will be given to you in a similar manner.
²⁹ One who causes the condemnation of his own soul, who will justify him?
And who will honor one who causes the dishonor of his own soul?
³⁰ There is the needy who is honored because of his understanding;
And there is he who is honored because of his riches.
³¹ He who honors himself in his poverty;
In his riches will honor himself more.
And he who is dishonored in his riches;
In his poverty will be dishonored more.
11 The wisdom of the needy will lift up his head
And will seat him among nobles.
² Do not praise man for his form;
And do not be disgusted by man for his appearance.
³ The bee is worthless among the birds;
But her fruit is head of the produce.
⁴ Do not mock at one who wears [only] a loincloth;
And do not scorn at a bitter day.
For the works of Yahweh are wonderful things;
And his work has been hid from man.
⁵ Many who were contrite have sat on a throne;
And [those] not on anyone's mind have worn a turban.
⁶ Many who were lifted up have been dishonored greatly;
And the honored were given into the hand of the lesser.
⁷ Do not overthrow before you conduct a search;
Inquire at first, and afterward rebuke.
⁸ Do not return an answer before you hear;
And do not speak out in the middle of [someone] talking.
⁹ When there is no sorrow, do not fret;

And when there is strife of the proud, do not rise up.
¹⁰ My son, why do you increase your oppression?
For he who hurries to increase will not go unpunished.
My son, surely if you run, you will not arrive;
And surely if you seek, you will not find.
¹¹ There is one who labors, is weary, and runs;
And by doing so, he falls behind.
¹² There is one who is beaten down, and who perishes in his walk,
Lacking everything and has abundant hardship.
But the eye of Yahweh watches him for good;
And he shakes him free from the stinking dust.
¹³ He lifts up his head and exalts him;
And many are amazed at him.
¹⁴ Good and evil, life and death, poverty and riches, are from Yahweh.^c
¹⁷ The gift of the righteous will stand forever;
And his favor will prosper forever.
¹⁸ There is one who makes himself rich by afflicting himself;
And there is one who hides his wages.^d
¹⁹ And in time, he says, "I have found rest;
And now I will eat from my good things."
He does not know when he will pass on;
And he leaves it [all] to another and dies.
²⁰ My son, stand in your task and be satisfied in it;
And grow old in your work.
²¹ Do not be astonished at the works of the sinner;
But believe in Yahweh and abide in your toil.
For it is a light thing in the sight of Yahweh
To quickly and suddenly make the poor rich.
²² The blessing of God is the lot of the righteous;
And in time, his hope will blossom.
²³ Do not say, What do I need?
And now what good thing is for me?
²⁴ Do not say, I have enough with me.
And now what evil thing will concern me?
²⁵ The goodness of a day makes the evil be forgotten;
And the evil of a day makes the goodness be forgotten.^e
²⁷ A time of evil makes delight be forgotten;
And the end of man tells concerning him.
²⁸ Before death, do not call a [noble] man blessed;
For at his end, a man will be recognized.
²⁹ Do not bring every man into your house;
For how many are the wounds of a scammer!
³⁰ Like a bird that is caught in a cage, so is the heart of the proud;
And like a spy, he will see your nakedness.
³¹ The whisperer will turn good to evil;
And he will set a conspiracy for your pleasant things.
³² From a spark, a charcoal increases;
And [from] a worthless man, he lies in wait for blood.
³³ Be afraid of evil, for it brings forth evil.
Why should you take a blemish forever?
³⁴ Do not stick to the wicked or he will overthrow you;
And he will turn you out of your house.
12 If you do good, know to whom you are doing good;
And there will be hope for your goodness.
² Do good to the righteous and find a reward;
If not from him, from Yahweh.

- ³ It is not goodness to support the wicked;
And likewise it is not righteousness for him who did so.
⁴ A double portion of evil will overtake you;
For all the goodness that reached him.
⁵ Do not give him weapons of war.
Why should he turn them against you?
⁶ For God also hates the evil;
And to the wicked he will render vengeance.
⁷ Give to good and withhold from evil;
Treasure the poor and do not give to the proud.^a

- ⁸ A friend will not be known when things are good;
And an enemy will not be hidden when things are bad.
⁹ When things are good for a man, even an enemy is a companion;
And when things are bad for him, even a companion separates.
¹⁰ Never trust in an enemy;
For like bronze, his evil will corrode.
¹¹ And even though he listens to you and walks quietly;
Set your heart to be afraid of him.
Let him be like a polished mirror;
And know that there is no end to the corrosion.
¹² Do not stand him beside you.
Why should he thrust you away and stand in your place?
Do not seat him at your right hand.
Why should he seek your seat?
And at the end, you will grasp my words;
And at my sayings, you will sigh.
¹³ Who will show favor to a snake charmer who is bitten?
Or to anyone who comes near a beast with strong teeth?
¹⁴ So is he who joins with a man of pride
And wallows in his iniquities.
¹⁵ As long as you stand, he will not express himself;
But if you trip, he will not contain himself.
¹⁶ With his lips, an adversary carries;
But with his heart, he considers deep pits.
And even though he weeps with his eyes;
When he finds the [right] time, he will not be filled with blood.
¹⁷ If evil meets you, he is found there;
As a man who [pretends] to uphold you, he will take hold of your heel.
¹⁸ He will wag his head and wave his hand;
And with much whispering, he will change his face.

- 13 He who touches pitch, it will stick to his hand;
And he who joins with a scoffer will learn his way.
² Why would you lift what is too heavy for you?
Then why join yourself with someone richer than you?
Why would a [clay] pot join itself with a [metal] cauldron?
When it is snared with it, then it is broken.
³ When the rich afflicts, he is proud of himself;
But the needy who was wronged, he pleads for mercy.
⁴ If you prosper him, he will be served by you;
And if you bow, he will spare you.
⁵ If you have anything, his words will be good with you;
But he will impoverish you without him having any pain.
⁶ While he needs you, he will be with you;
And he will flatter you, and laugh with you, and make you promises.
⁷ As long as he profits, he will deceive you;
Three times he will strip you.
And then he will see you and be furious with you;
And he will wag his head at you.

- ⁸ Take heed that you are not too bold;
But do not be like those who lack knowledge.
⁹ If a noble comes near, be far;
And by doing so, he will bring you near.
¹⁰ Do not bring yourself near, or else you will be removed;
But do not remove yourself, or else you will be hated.
¹¹ Do not trust being free with him;
And do not believe the multitude of his talking.
For his talking so much is a trial;
And while he flatters you, he searches you.
¹² A ruler will give cruelty and will not spare;
Over the soul of many, he makes a conspiracy.
¹³ Take heed and be careful;
And do not walk with violent men.^b
¹⁵ All flesh loves its kind;
And all of man [loves] one who is like him.
¹⁶ All flesh is beside its kind;
And man will be joined to his kind.
¹⁷ Why will a wolf be joined to a lamb?
So it is with the wicked to the righteous.
¹⁸ From a man there can be peace between a hyena and a dog.
From where can there be peace between the rich and the poor?
¹⁹ The lion feeds on wild donkeys in the wilderness;
Likewise, the rich pastures on those who are needy.
²⁰ Pride is disgusted by meekness;
And the rich is disgusted by the needy.
²¹ The rich who slips is upheld by a fellow man;
But the needy who is tripped will be driven from one fellow man to another.
²² The rich speaks out and his helpers are many.
And his repulsive words are made beautiful.
The needy is tripped [saying], Reach out! Reach out! And lift me!
And he spoke out wisely, but there is no place for him.
²³ When the rich speaks, all have stopped.
And they exalt his understanding to reach the clouds.
When the needy speaks, they say, Who is this?
And if he has stumbled, they also thrust him away.
²⁴ Riches are good if they are without iniquity;
And poverty is evil if it comes from pride.
²⁵ The heart of a common man will change his face;
Whether for good or for evil.
²⁶ The footprint of a good heart is a bright face;
But a distracted [face] tells of thoughts of trouble.

- 14 Blessed is the common man whose mouth has not grieved him;
And whose heart would not bring judgment on him.

And whose hope has not ceased.

And to the man who has an evil eye, gold is not seemly.

And a stranger will squander his good things.
⁵ He who is evil to his soul, to whom will he do good?
And he will not meet with his good things.
⁶ He who is evil to his soul, none is more evil;
And with him is the reward for his evil.^c
⁹ In the eye of him who stumbles, his portion is little;

^b The Hebrew version does not contain verse 14.

And he who takes the portion of his fellow man, wastes his own portion.

¹⁰ The eye of him with an evil eye pounces on his bread;
And there is turmoil at his table.

¹¹ My son, do good to yourself if you have the means;
And prosper according to the power of your hand.

¹² Remember that death does not tarry;
And the statute to Sheol has been told to you.

¹³ Before you die, do good to a friend;
And give to him according to your means.

¹⁴ Do not withhold from the good things of a day;
And in what was acquired, do not pass by.

¹⁵ Will you not forsake your strength to another?
And your labor to those who cast lots?

¹⁶ Give and take, and enjoy your soul;
For there is no seeking of delight in Sheol.

¹⁷ All flesh becomes old like a garment;
And the everlasting statute is, You will surely die.

¹⁸ As a budding leaf on a green tree,
Where one withers and another springs up;
So are the generations of flesh and blood,
One dies and one is weaned.

¹⁹ All his works will surely rot;
And the work of his hands will draw after him.

²⁰ Blessed is the common man who studies in wisdom;
And who looks into understanding.

²¹ Who puts her ways on his heart;
And who considers her understandings.

²² Going out after her in search;
And lurking at all her entrances.

²³ Who looks forth through the window;
And is attentive at her doors.

²⁴ Who encamps round about her house;
And then brings his tent pegs into her wall.

²⁵ And stretches out his tent next to her;
And then stays a good neighbor.

²⁶ And puts his nest in her foliage;
And resides in her branches.

²⁷ And takes refuge in her shadow from the heat;
And stays in her dwelling-places.

15 For he who fears Yahweh will do this;
And he who takes hold of the law will approach her.

² And then she will meet him like [his] mother;
And like the wife of [his] youth, she will receive him.

³ And then she will give him the bread of discretion to eat;
And she will give him the waters of understanding to drink.

⁴ And then he will lean on her and not be tripped;
And he will trust in her and not be ashamed.

⁵ And then she will exalt him above his fellow man;
And in the midst of the assembly, she will open his mouth.

⁶ He will find joy and gladness;
And she will give him an everlasting name to inherit.

⁷ Men of falsehood will not approach her;
And prideful men will not see her.

⁸ She is far from scoffers;
And liars will not remember her.

⁹ Praise is not seemly in the mouth of the wicked;
For it was not distributed to him from God.

¹⁰ In the mouth of the wise, praise will be said;
And he who rules over it will teach it.^a

¹¹ Do not say, "My transgression is from God."
For that which he hates, he does not do.

¹² Beware that you do not say, "It was he who stumbled me."
For there is no need of violent men.

¹³ Yahweh hates disgusting behavior and evil;
And he will not let it happen to those who fear him.

¹⁴ It was he who from the beginning created man;
And gave him into the hand of his imagination.

¹⁵ If it pleases you, you will keep the commandments;
And to do his will is understanding.

¹⁶ Fire and water are poured out before you;
In that which pleases you, put forth your hand.

¹⁷ Life and death are before man;
That which pleases him will be given to him.

¹⁸ The wisdom of Yahweh is sufficient;
He is mighty in strength and looks at all things.

¹⁹ The eyes of God see his works;
And it is he who discerns all that a man does.

²⁰ He did not command common man to sin;
And he did not cause liars to dream.

16 Do not desire the form of young men of falsehood;
And do not rejoice in sons of wickedness.

² And even though they were fruitful, do not exult in them;
If the fear of Yahweh is not with them.

³ Do not trust in their life;
And do not put confidence in their footsteps.

For one is better than a thousand;
And to die childless than to have sons of wickedness.

⁴ From one who fears Yahweh, a city will be inhabited;
And from a family of betrayers, it will be desolate.

⁵ Many such things has my eye seen;
And numerous such things has my ear heard.

⁶ In the congregation of the wicked, a fire is burning;
And in a godless nation, wrath is kindled.

⁷ He did not forgive the ancient princes;
Those who rebelled in their strength.

⁸ And he did not spare the place where Lot sojourned;
Those who were furious in their pride.

⁹ And he did not spare the nation devoted to destruction;
Those who were trodden down in their iniquity.

¹⁰ Likewise [he did not spare] six hundred thousand on foot;
Those who were taken away in the pride of their heart.

¹¹ And if there is another who is stiff-necked;
It would be a wonder if he were to be unpunished.

For mercy and anger are with him;
And he forgives and pardons, but will pour out his wrath.

¹² As is the multitude of his mercies, so is his reproof;
He will judge a man according to his works.

¹³ The unrighteous will not escape in robbery;
And he will not cause the desire of the righteous to cease.

¹⁴ Everyone who does righteousness has a reward;
And everyone will go forth according to his works.^b

¹⁷ Do not say, "I am hidden from God;
And who will remember me on high?

Among a mass of people, I will not be known;
And what is my soul among all that have breath?^c

²⁰ Likewise, he will not set his heart upon me;
And who will consider my ways?

²¹ If I have sinned, no eye will see me.
Or if I lie, it is all hidden, Who will know?

- ²² My work of righteousness, who will declare it?
And what hope is there? For the decree is set."^a
- ²³ Those who are void of understanding will think these things;
And a [noble] man who is silly will consider this.
- ²⁴ Listen to me, my son, and receive my teaching;
And upon my words, set your heart.
- ²⁵ I will pour out my spirit by weight,
And by measure I will declare my knowledge.
- ²⁶ When God created his works from the beginning,
Concerning their life he assigned them portions.
- ²⁷ He set in order his works forever,
And their rule from generation to generation.
They do not hunger, neither are they weak,
And they do not cease from their works.
- ²⁸ Not one presses on his neighbor,
They never disobey his word.
- ²⁹ And after these things the Lord looked upon the earth,
And filled it with his good things.
- ³⁰ With every living soul he covered the face of it;
And into it is their return.

- 17 God created man out of the earth,
And returned him into it again.
- ² Days by number and a set time, he gave them;
And he gave them authority over the things upon it.
- ³ As was fitting for them, he clothed them with strength;
And in his image he made them.
- ⁴ And he put the fear of them upon all flesh,
And gave them dominion over beasts and birds.
- ⁵ With insight and understanding, he filled their heart;^b
⁶ And taught them good and evil.
- ⁷ He formed for them tongue, and eyes, and ears,
And gave them a heart to understand,
- ⁸ To show them the majesty of his works,
That they might glory in his wonders,
- ⁹ And might declare the fear of him in the world,
¹⁰ And praise his holy name.
- ¹¹ He set before them knowledge,
And the law of life he gave them for a heritage.
- ¹² He made an everlasting covenant with them,
And showed them his judgements.
- ¹³ Their eyes beheld his glorious majesty,
And their ear heard his glorious voice.
- ¹⁴ And he said to them, Beware of all unrighteousness;
And he commanded them, each concerning his neighbor.
- ¹⁵ Their ways are ever before him,
They are not hid from his eyes.^c
- ¹⁷ For every nation he appointed a ruler,
But Israel is the Lord's portion,
- ¹⁹ All their works are clear as the sun before him,
And his eyes are continually upon their ways.
- ²⁰ Their iniquities are not hid from him,
And all their sins are before the Lord.
- ²² The righteousness of men is to him as a signet,
And the mercy of man he preserves as the apple of an eye.
- ²³ Afterwards he will rise up and recompense them,
And retribution he will bring upon their own head.
- ²⁴ Nevertheless to those who repent he grants a return,

And comforts those who lose patience.

- ²⁵ Turn to the Lord and forsake sins,
Supplicate before his face and lessen offence.
- ²⁶ Turn to the Most High, and turn away from iniquity,
And vehemently hate the disgusting thing.
- ²⁷ For what pleasure does God have in all who perish in the world,
Instead of those who live and give him praise?
- ²⁸ Thanksgiving perishes from the dead as from one who does not exist,
[But] he who lives and is in health praises the Lord.
- ²⁹ How great is the mercy of the Lord,
And [His] forgiveness to those who turn to him.
- ³⁰ For it is not like this in man,
Nor is his thought like the thoughts of the sons of men.
- ³¹ What is brighter than the sun? Yet this fails;
And how much more man who [has] the inclination of flesh and blood.
- ³² He looks upon the host of the height of heaven,
And [on] all men [who] are earth and ashes.

- 18 He who lives for ever created all things together,
² The Lord alone will be justified.^d
- ⁴ To none has he given power to declare his works,
Yes, who can trace out his mighty deeds?
- ⁵ Who can declare the might of his majesty,
And who can recount his mercies?
- ⁶ No man can take [from them] nor add [to them],
Nor can any trace out the marvellous acts of the Lord.
- ⁷ When a man has finished, then he just begins,
And when he ceases he is in perplexity.
- ⁸ What is man, and what profit is there in him?
What is the good of him, and what is the evil?
- ⁹ The number of man's days
Is great [if it reaches] a hundred years;
- ¹⁰ As a drop of water from the sea, or [as] a grain of sand,
So are [man's] few years in the day of eternity.
- ¹¹ Therefore is the Lord longsuffering toward them
And pours out his mercy upon them.
- ¹² He sees and knows that their end is evil,
Therefore he increases his forgiveness.
- ¹³ The mercy of man is upon his neighbor,
But the mercy of the Lord is upon all flesh,
Reproving, and chastening, and teaching,
And bringing back as a shepherd his flock.
- ¹⁴ He has mercy on those who accept chastening,
And who diligently seek after his judgements.
- ¹⁵ My son, do not put a blemish on [your] good deeds,
Nor [cause] grief through words in any gift;
- ¹⁶ Does not the dew make the burning heat to cease?
So a word changes [the character of] a gift.
- ¹⁷ For there is a good word which is better than a gift;
And both belong to a gracious man.
- ¹⁸ A fool upbraids ungraciously,
And the gift of envious man consumes the eyes.
- ¹⁹ Before you fight, seek a helper;
Before you are sick, a physician.
- ²⁰ Before judgement examine yourself,
And in the hour of visitation you will find forgiveness.
- ²¹ Before you fall humble yourself,

^a the decree is set - the translation of this phrase is uncertain. Alternatively: the decree is distant. The meaning seems to be that the outcome of things is either a) already set and there's nothing that can be done about it (similar to the idiom: 'the die is cast'); or b) a very long time away in the future.

And in time of sin show repentance.
²² Let nothing hinder you from paying your vows in due time,
 And do not wait until death to be justified.
²³ Before you vow, prepare your vows,
 And do not be as one who tempts God.
²⁴ Think of the wrath in the latter days,
 And of the time of vengeance, when he turns away his face.
²⁵ Remember the time of famine in the time of plenty,
 And poverty and want in the days of wealth.
²⁶ From morning until evening the time changes,
 And all things move swiftly before the Lord.
²⁷ A wise man is discreet in all things,
 And in days of sinning keeps himself from offence.
²⁸ Every wise man teaches wisdom,
 And let them who know her give thanks.
²⁹ Those who are wise in teaching also show that they are wise
 In that they pour forth wise proverbs.
³⁰ Do not go after your desires,
 And refrain yourself from your appetites.
³¹ If you grant to your soul the gratification of [her] desire,
 You will make yourself a cause of rejoicing to your enemies.
³² Do not delight yourself in too much luxury,
 For double is its poverty.
³³ Do not be a squanderer and a drunkard,
 Or else there will be nothing in your purse.
19 He who does these things will not become rich,
 And he who despises small things will become altogether naked.
² Wine and women cause the heart to be lustful,
³ And a brazen soul will destroy its owner.
⁴ He who trusts others too quickly is unwise,
 And he who errs sins against his own soul.
⁵ He who has pleasure in evil will be condemned,
⁶ But he who hates talk has the less malice.
⁷ Never repeat a word,
 Then no one will reproach you;
⁸ Do not speak of it to friend or foe;
 And, unless it be a sin to you, do not reveal it,
⁹ Lest he who hear it hate you,
 And regard you as an evildoer.
¹⁰ Have you heard anything? Let it die with you;
 Be of good courage it will not burst you.
¹¹ A fool travails because of a word,
 Even as a woman travails because of a child.
¹² [As] an arrow stuck in the fleshy thigh,
 So is a word in the belly of a fool.
¹³ Reprove a friend, that he do no evil,
 And if he has done anything, that he does not do it again.
¹⁴ Reprove a friend, it may be he did not say it,
 And if he has said it, that he does not do it again.
¹⁵ Reprove a friend, yet often there is slander,
 And do not believe every word.
¹⁶ One man slips, though not from the soul,
 And who has not sinned with his tongue.
¹⁷ Reprove your neighbor, before you threaten,
 And give place to the law of the Most High.^a
²⁰ All wisdom is the fear of the Lord,
 And in all wisdom [there is] the fulfilling of the law.^b
²² But the knowledge of wickedness is not wisdom,
 And the counsel of sinners is not understanding.
²³ There is a form of wisdom which is abomination,

And there is a fool who lacks wisdom.
²⁴ Better is one who has inferior understanding, and fears,
 Than one who is very smart but transgresses the law.
²⁵ There is a subtle [form of] craftiness which is unrighteous,
 And there is one who deceives people with kindness to gain a judgement.
²⁶ There is one who walks humbly and mournfully,
 But inwardly he is full of deceit.
²⁷ [There is one] with a downcast look, pretending to be deaf,
 But when unobserved he will get the better of you;
²⁸ And if, for lack of power, he is hindered from sinning,
 He will do evil when he finds opportunity.
²⁹ A man is known by his appearance,
 And a wise man is known by his face.
³⁰ A man's attire proclaims his deeds,
 And his footsteps show what he is.

20 There is a reproof that is uncalled for,
 And [there is] he who is silent but wise.
² How good it is to reprove
 Rather than to be angry;
³ And let him who makes confession
 Be spared humiliation.
⁴ As is a eunuch who sojourns with a virgin,
 So is he who would do right with violence.
⁵ One keeps silence and is accounted wise,
 And another is despised for his much talking.
⁶ One keeps silence, having nothing to say;
 And another keeps silence, for he sees [it is] a time [for silence].
⁷ The wise man is silent until the [proper] time,
 But the arrogant and the scorner take no note of the time.
⁸ He who is abundant in word is abhorred,
 And he who takes authority [to speak] is hated.
⁹ [Sometimes] it is advantageous for a man to be in adversity,
 And there is a gain that turns to loss.
¹⁰ There is a gift that profits you nothing,
 And there is a gift that brings a double recompense.
¹¹ [Sometimes] there is humiliation through honor,
 And [sometimes] a man from humiliation comes to honor.
¹² One buys much for little,
 Another pays sevenfold.
¹³ A wise man makes himself beloved with few words,
 But the pleasantries of fools are wasted.
¹⁴ The gift of a fool does not profit you,
 For his eyes are many instead of one.
¹⁵ He gives little and criticizes much,
 And opens his mouth like a herald.
 Today he lends and tomorrow he asks it back,
 Hateful is such a one to God and man.
¹⁶ The fool says, "I have no friend,
 And my good deeds receive no thanks,
 Those who eat my bread are evil with tongue."
 How often and how many men laugh him to scorn.
¹⁸ A slip on the pavement is better than [a slip] of the tongue,
 Thus the fall of the wicked comes swiftly.
¹⁹ As the fat tail of a sheep eaten without salt,
 So is a word spoken out of season.
²⁰ A parable from the mouth of a fool is rejected,
 For he utters it out of season.
²¹ One is hindered from sinning through lack [of opportunity],
 And when he rests he is not troubled.
²² Another destroys his soul through [sense of] shame,
 He loses it through lack of frankness.

²³ And another, for shame's sake, promises to a friend,
And makes him an enemy without reason.

²⁴ A foul blot in a man is a lie,
It is [found] continually in the mouth of the ignorant.

²⁵ Preferable is a thief to one who continually lies,
But both will inherit destruction.

²⁶ The disposition of a liar is to be dishonorable,
And his shame is ever with him.

²⁷ The wise man advances himself in words,
And a prudent man pleases the great.

²⁸ He who tills his land raises high his heap,
And he who pleases the great atones for wrong.

²⁹ Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise,
And as a muzzle on the mouth turn away reproofs.

³⁰ Hidden wisdom and concealed treasure,
What profit is there in either?

³¹ Better is a man who hides his folly
Than a man who hides his wisdom.

21 My son, have you sinned? Do not add to it;
And make supplication concerning your former sins.

² Flee from sin as from the face of a serpent;
For if you come near it, it will bite you;

Its teeth are lion's teeth,
Slaying the souls of men.

³ Like a two-edged sword is all iniquity,
From its stroke there is no healing.

⁴ Tyranny and violence destroy wealth,
So the house of the arrogant is desolated.

⁵ Supplication from the mouth of a poor man [reaches] to the ears of the Lord,
And his vindication comes quickly.

⁶ He who hates reproof [walks] in the path of a sinner,
But he who fears the Lord will turn [to him] wholeheartedly.

⁷ The wise discerns him who is before him,
And spies out the sinner at once.

⁸ He who builds his house with other men's money,
Is as one gathering stones for his burial mound.

⁹ [Like] flax wrapped together is the gathering of the ungodly,
And their end is a flame of fire.

¹⁰ The way of sinners is made smooth without stones,
And at its end is the pit of Hades.

¹¹ He who observes the law becomes the master of his natural tendency,
And the fear of the Lord is the consummation of wisdom.

¹² He who is not wise will not be instructed,
And there is a wisdom which makes bitterness to abound.

¹³ The knowledge of a wise man abounds like a spring of water,
And his counsel is like the water of life.

¹⁴ The inward parts of a fool are like a broken vessel,
He holds no knowledge.

¹⁵ If an understanding man hears a wise word,
He commends it, and adds to it;

If a foolish man hears it, he mocks it,
And he casts it behind his back.

¹⁶ The discourse of a fool is like a burden on a journey,
But upon the lips of the wise grace is found.

¹⁷ The utterance of a prudent man is sought for in the assembly,
And his words are pondered in the heart.

¹⁸ As a house that is a prison so is wisdom to a fool,

And the knowledge of an unwise man is [as] talk without sense.

¹⁹ [As] chains on [their] feet, [so] is instruction to the foolish,
And as manacles on their right hand.

²⁰ The fool lifts up his voice with laughter,
But the wise man scarcely smiles in silence.

²¹ As a golden ornament is instruction to the wise,
And as a bracelet upon their right arm.

²² The foot of a fool hastes into a house,
But it is good manners to stand outside.

²³ The fool through the door looks into a house,
But the cautious man demeans himself humbly.

²⁴ It is unseemly for one to listen at the door,
And the wise man is grieved at the disgrace [of it].

²⁵ The lips of babblers [only] repeat the things that are not theirs,
But the words of the wise are weighed in the balance.

²⁶ The heart of fools is in their mouth,
But the mouth of the wise is [in] their heart.

²⁷ When the ungodly curses his adversary
He curses his own soul.

²⁸ The whisperer defiles his own soul,
And is hated wherever he sojourns.

22 The slothful man is like a filthy stone,
And every one flees from its stench.

² A slothful man is like the filth of a dunghill,
Everyone who takes it up shakes it out of his hand.

³ Shame [there is] to the father who begets an uninstructed [son],
And a daughter is born to his loss.

⁴ A prudent daughter is an inheritance to her husband,
But she who brings shame is a grief to him who begat her.

⁵ She who is bold brings shame on her father and husband,
And she is despised by both.

⁶ [As] music in time of mourning, [so is] unseasonable talk;
But stripes and correction are at all times wisdom.

⁷ He who teaches a fool is [as] one who glues together a potsherd,

⁸ He who discourses to a fool is as one discoursing to him who slumbers,

And at the end he says, "What is it?"^a

¹¹ Mourn for the dead, for [his] light has failed,
And mourn for a fool, for understanding has failed [him].

Weep gently for the dead, for he has found rest;
But the life of a fool is worse than death.

¹² The mourning for the dead is for seven days,
But the mourning for a fool is for all the days of his life.

¹³ Do not talk much with a foolish man,
And do not go on the road with a pig,

Beware of him lest you have trouble,
And you become defiled when he shakes himself;

Turn from him and you will find rest,
And [so] you will not be wearied with his folly.

¹⁴ What is heavier than lead,
And what is its name but "Fool"?

¹⁵ Sand and salt and a weight of iron
Are easier to bear than a senseless man.

¹⁶ [As] timber firmly fixed into the wall
Is not loosened by an earthquake,

So a heart established on well-advised counsel
Will not be fearful in time [of danger].

¹⁷ A heart fixed on thoughtful understanding
Is as an ornament graven on a polished wall.

¹⁸ Small stones lying upon a high place
Will not remain against the wind,
So will the fearsome heart [full of] foolish imagination
Be unable to withstand any terror.

¹⁹ A wound in the eye makes tears flow,
And a wound in the heart severs friendship.

²⁰ He who throws stones at birds scares them away,
And he who reproaches a friend dissolves friendship.

²¹ Even if you draw the sword against a friend,
Do not despair, for there is a way out.

²² If you open your mouth against a friend,
Do not fear, for there is a [way of] reconciliation;
But reproach, arrogance, betrayal of a secret, and a deceitful blow,
In these every friend will depart.

²³ Support your neighbor in poverty,
That in his prosperity you may rejoice;
Remain steadfast to him in time of [his] affliction,
That you may be heir with him in his inheritance.

²⁴ Before the fire is the vapor of the furnace and smoke,
So revilings before bloodshed.

²⁵ Do not be ashamed of a friend who becomes poor,
And do not hide yourself from his face;

²⁶ And if evil happens to him through you,
Whoever hears it will beware of you.

²⁷ O that one would set a watch over my mouth,
And a seal of shrewdness upon my lips,
That I do not fall by means of them,
And that my tongue does not destroy me.

23 O that one would set scourges over my mind,^a
And the discipline of wisdom over my heart,
² That they do not spare me for my ignorances,
And do not overlook my sins;

³ That my ignorances not be multiplied,
And that my sins do not abound,
Lest I fall in the sight of my adversaries,
And my enemy rejoice over me.

⁴ O Lord, Father, and Master of my life,
Do not abandon me to their counsel.

⁵ Do not give me a proud look,
And turn away lust from me.

⁶ May the lust of the body not overtake me,
And do not give me over to a shameless soul.

⁷ Hear, my children, [concerning] the discipline of the mouth,
He who keeps [it] will not be ensnared;

⁸ But the sinner is ensnared by his lips,
And the fool stumbles through his mouth.

⁹ Do not accustom your mouth to an oath,
And do not make a habit of naming the Holy One.

¹⁰ For as a servant who is continually scourged
Does not lack [the marks of] a blow,
So he who swears and continually names [the Holy One]
Is not cleansed from sin.

¹¹ A man of many oaths is filled with iniquity,
And the scourge does not depart from his house;
If he offends his sin will be upon him,
And if he disregards it he sins doubly;
And if he swears without need he will not be justified,
And his house will be filled with calamities.

¹² There is a manner of speech that is to be compared with death,
Do not let it be found in the heritage of Jacob.
He who keeps his soul from this will live,
And not wallow in sins.

¹³ Do not accustom your mouth to vulgar speech,
For there is a sinful thing in that.

¹⁴ Remember your father and your mother
When you sit in council among the mighty,
Lest you stumble among them,
And show yourself a fool in your manner [of speech],
And wish you had not been born,
And curse the day of your birth.

¹⁵ A man who is accustomed to disgraceful talk
Will not learn wisdom all his days.

¹⁶ Two types [of men] multiply sins,
And a third brings wrath:
A lustful soul burning like fire,
Which is not quenched until it is consumed;
A fornicator in the body of his flesh,
For he does not cease until the fire consumes him;

¹⁷ [And] the fornicator to whom all bread is sweet,
For he will not leave off until he dies.

¹⁸ [There is] a man who goes astray from his own bed,
And says in his soul: "Who sees me?
Darkness is around me,
and the walls hide me,
And no man sees me, of what shall I be afraid?
The Most High does not remember my sins."

¹⁹ And he does not perceive that the eyes of the Lord
Are ten thousand times brighter than the sun,
Beholding all the ways of men,
And looking into secret places.

²⁰ For all things are known to him before they are created,
So also [he sees them] after they are perfected;

²¹ Such a man will be punished in the streets of the city,
And, where he does not suspect it, will be taken.

²² So also a wife who leaves her husband,
And brings in an heir by a stranger;

²³ First, she is disobedient to the law of the Most High,
Second, she trespasses against her own husband,
Third, she commits adultery through her fornication,
And brings in children by a stranger.

²⁴ She will be led into the assembly,
And upon her children there will be visitation.

²⁵ Her children will not spread out their roots,
And her branches will bear no fruit.

²⁶ She will leave her memory for a curse,
And her reproach will not be blotted out.

²⁷ And those who are left behind will know
That nothing is better than the fear of the Lord,
And nothing sweeter than to observe
The commandments of the Lord.^b

24 Wisdom praises her own soul,
And is honored in the midst of her people.

² She opens her mouth in the assembly of the Most High,
And is honored in the presence of his hosts.

³ "I came forth from the mouth of the Most High,
And as a mist I covered the earth.

⁴ In the high places I fixed my abode,
And my throne was in the pillar of cloud.

⁵ Alone I compassed the circuit of heaven,
And in the depth of the abyss I walked.

⁶ In the waves of the sea, and in all the earth,
And in every people and nation I gained a possession.

⁷ With all these I sought a resting place,
And [said], In whose inheritance shall I lodge?

⁸ Then the Creator of all things gave me a commandment,
And he who created me fixed my dwelling place,

^a Verses 1-5 have been reconstructed based on an emended Greek text and partially on Syriac.

And he said, In Jacob let your dwelling place be,
And in Israel take up your inheritance.
⁹ He created me from the beginning, before the world;
And I will never fail.
¹⁰ In the holy tabernacle I ministered before him,
Moreover, in Zion I was established.
¹¹ Likewise in the beloved city he caused me to rest,
And in Jerusalem was my authority.
¹² And I took root among an honored people,
In the portion of the Lord, and of his inheritance.
¹³ I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus,
And like a cypress on the mountains of Hermon.
¹⁴ I was exalted like a palm tree on the seashore,
And as rose plants in Jericho;
And as a fair olive tree in the plain;
Yes, I was exalted as a plane tree by the waters.
¹⁵ As cassia and camel's thorn I have given a scent of perfumes,
And as choice myrrh I spread abroad a pleasant odor;
As galbanum, and onyx, and stacte;
[I was] as the smoke of incense in the Tabernacle.
¹⁶ I, as a terebinth, spread forth my branches,
And my branches were branches of glory and grace.
¹⁷ As a vine I put forth grace,
And my flowers are the fruit of glory and wealth.^a
¹⁹ Come to me, you⁺ who desire me,
And be⁺ filled with my produce.
²⁰ For my memorial is sweeter than honey,
And the possession of me than honeycomb.
²¹ Those who eat me still hunger [for me],
And those who drink me still thirst [for me].
²² He who obeys me will not be ashamed,
And those who serve me will not commit sin."
²³ All these things are the book of the covenant of God Most High,
The law which Moses commanded [as] a heritage for the assemblies of Jacob.^b
²⁵ Which fills [men] with wisdom, like Pison,
And like Tigris in the days of new [fruits];
²⁶ Which overflows, like Euphrates, with understanding,
And as Jordan in the days of harvest;
²⁷ Which pours forth, as the Nile, instruction,
And as Gihon in the days of vintage.
²⁸ The first [man] did not know her perfectly,
So also the last will not trace her out;
²⁹ For her understanding is more abundant than the sea,
And her counsel is greater than the deep.
³⁰ And as for me, I [was] as a stream from the river,
And I came forth as a conduit into a garden;
³¹ I said, "I will water my garden,
I will abundantly water my garden beds";
And look, my stream became a river,
And my river became a sea.
³² Yet again I will bring instruction to light as the morning,
And will make these things shine forth afar off.
³³ Yet again I will pour forth doctrine as prophecy,
And leave it for eternal generations.
³⁴ Look⁺ [and see], that I have not labored for myself only,
But for all those who diligently seek her.

25 Three things my soul has desired,
And they are lovely in the sight of the Lord and of men:
The concord of brethren, and the friendship of neighbors,
And a wife and a husband suited to each other.
² Three types [of men] my soul hates,
And I am greatly offended at their life,
The poor man who is arrogant and the rich man who is deceitful,
And an old man who is an adulterer.
³ [If] in your youth you have not gathered,
How will you find in your old age?
⁴ How beautiful to gray hairs is judgement,
And for elders to know counsel.
⁵ How beautiful is the wisdom of old men,
And thought and counsel to those who are honored.
⁶ The crown of the aged is their long experience,
And their glorying is the fear of the Lord.
⁷ Nine I have conceived of, I accounted blessed,
And a tenth I will speak of with my tongue:
A man who has joy of his children,
Who lives and sees the fall of his enemies.
⁸ Blessed is the husband of an understanding wife,
Who does not plough with ox and donkey.
Blessed is he who has not slipped with his tongue,
And he who has not served an inferior.
⁹ Blessed is the man who has found prudence,
And discourses to ears that listen.
¹⁰ How great is he who finds wisdom,
But he is not above him who fears the Lord.
¹¹ The fear of the Lord surpasses everything,
He who holds it, to whom shall he be likened?^c
¹³ Any wound, only not a heart wound.
Any wickedness, only not the wickedness of a woman!
¹⁴ Any calamity, only not the calamity of haters!
Any vengeance, only not the vengeance of enemies!
¹⁵ There is no poison above the poison of a serpent,
And there is no wrath above the wrath of a woman.
¹⁶ I would rather dwell with a lion and a dragon,
Than dwell with a wicked woman.
¹⁷ The wickedness of a woman changes her appearance,
And darkens her countenance like a bear's.
¹⁸ In the midst of his friends her husband sits,
And involuntarily he sighs bitterly.
¹⁹ [There is] little malice like the malice of a woman,
May the lot of the wicked fall upon her.
²⁰ As a sandy hill to the feet of the aged,
So is a woman of tongue to a quiet man.
²¹ Do not fall through the beauty of a woman,
And do not be ensnared by what she possesses;
²² For hard slavery and a disgrace it is,
[If the possessions of] a wife support her husband.
²³ Hands that hang down, and palsied knees
For a wife that does not make her husband happy.^d
²⁴ From a woman sin originated,
And because of her we all must die.
26 A good wife, blessed is her husband,
The number of his days is doubled.
² A worthy wife cherishes her husband,
And he fulfills the years of his life in peace.
³ A good wife is a good portion;
She will be given as a portion to those who fear the Lord.

^c Verse 12 is not likely to be part of the original text.

⁴ [Whether] rich or poor, his heart is cheerful,
And his face is merry at all times.

⁵ Of three things my heart is afraid,
And concerning a fourth I am in great fear:
Slander in the city, an assembly of the multitude,
And a false accusation; worse than death are they all;

⁶ Grief of heart and sorrow is a wife jealous of another;
The scourge of the tongue are they all.

⁷ A hard yoke is a wicked woman;
He who takes hold of her is as one grasping a scorpion.

⁸ A drunk woman causes great wrath;
She does not cover her own shame.

⁹ The whoredom of a woman is in the lifting up of her eyes.
And she is known by her eyelids.

¹⁰ Upon a headstrong daughter keep watch,
Lest, finding liberty, she uses it for herself.

¹¹ Look well after a shameless eye,
And do not marvel if it trespasses against you;

¹² As a thirsty traveller opens his mouth,
And drinks of any water that is near,
So she sits down at every tent peg,
And opens her quiver to any arrow.

¹³ The grace of a wife delights her husband,
And her understanding fattens his bones.

¹⁴ A silent woman is a gift from the Lord,
And a well instructed soul is beyond worth.

¹⁵ Grace upon grace is a modest woman,
And there is no weight [of gold] worth a self-controlled soul.

¹⁶ [As] the sun rising in the highest places of the Lord,
[So] also is the beauty of a good wife in the ordering of her house.

¹⁷ [As] the lamp shining on the holy candlestick,
[So] also is the beauty of a face upon a stately figure.

¹⁸ [As] the golden pillars upon the silver base,
[So] also are beautiful feet upon firm heels.^a

²⁸ For two things my heart is grieved,
And for a third wrath comes upon me:
A rich man who has become poor,^b
And men of understanding if they are despised,
And one who turns from righteousness to sin;
The Lord will prepare a sword for him.

²⁹ With difficulty the merchant keeps himself from wrongdoing,
And a huckster will not be acquitted of sin.

27 Many have sinned for the sake of gain,
And he who seeks to multiply [gains] turns away his eye.

² [As] a nail sticks fast between the joinings of stones,
[So] does sin thrust itself in between buying and selling.

³ If a man does not hold diligently to the fear of the Lord,
His house will be swiftly overthrown.

⁴ When a sieve is shaken the refuse remains,
So [it is with] the filth of a man in his reasoning.

⁵ The potter's vessel is proved in the furnace.
And the test of a man is by means of examining him.

⁶ According to the cultivation of a tree so is its yield,
[So] the thought of a man according to his nature.

⁷ Praise no man before taking stock of him,
For by taking stock of man he is discerned.

⁸ If you follow after righteousness you will attain,
And put it on as a robe of glory.

⁹ Birds dwell with their kind,
And truth returns to those who practice it.

¹⁰ The lion waits for its prey,
So does sin for those who work iniquity.

¹¹ The discourse of the godly is always wisdom,
But the fool changes as the moon.

¹² In the midst of fools closely watch the time,
But with a man who is thoughtful abide continually.

¹³ The discourse of fools is an annoyance,
And their laughter is sinful wantonness.

¹⁴ The oath of the godless makes the hair stand on end,
And their strife [makes] a man plug his ears.

¹⁵ A shedding of blood is the strife of the proud,
And their abuse is grievous to hear.

¹⁶ He who reveals secrets destroys trust,
And will find no friend to his soul.

¹⁷ Love a friend and keep faith with him,
But if you reveal his secrets do not follow after him;

¹⁸ For as a man who has destroyed his enemy,
So have you destroyed the friendship of your neighbor.

¹⁹ And as a bird which you have released out of your hand,
So have you let your neighbor go, and you will not catch him again.

²⁰ Do not pursue him, for he is too far gone,
And has escaped like a gazelle from a snare.

²¹ For a wound may be bound up, and for slander there is reconciliation,
But he who reveals secrets has no hope.

²² He who winks with his eye plans evil things,
And he who knows him keeps far from him.

²³ Before your eyes his mouth will speak sweetly,
And he will marvel at your words;

But afterward he will alter his mouth,
And with your words will make a stumbling block.

²⁴ Many things I hate, but nothing like him,
And the Lord will hate him too.

²⁵ He who casts a stone on high casts it upon his own head,
And a deceitful blow apportions wounds to the deceiver.

²⁶ He who digs a pit will fall into it,
And he who sets a snare will be taken in it.

²⁷ He who does evil things, they will roll back upon him,
And he will not know from where they came to him.

²⁸ Mockery and reproach [come] from the proud,
And vengeance, like a lion, lies in wait for them.

²⁹ Those who rejoice in the fall of the godly will be taken in a snare,
And torment will consume them before their death.

³⁰ Wrath and anger, these also are abominations,
And a sinful man takes possession of them.

28 He who takes vengeance will find vengeance from the Lord,
And he will closely observe his sins.

² Forgive an injury [done to you] by your neighbor,
And then, when you pray, your sins will be forgiven.

³ One man cherishes wrath against another,
And does he seek healing from the Lord?

⁴ Upon a man like himself he has no mercy,
And for his own sins does he make supplication?

⁵ He being flesh nourishes wrath,
Who will make atonement for his sins?

⁶ Remember your last end and cease from enmity;
[Remember] corruption and death, and abide in the commandments.

⁷ Remember the commandments, and do not be wrathful with your neighbor;
And [remember] the covenant of the Most High, and overlook ignorance.

⁸ Keep far from strife, and sins will keep far from you,
For a passionate man kindles strife;

⁹ And a sinful man troubles friends,
And casts enmity in the midst of the peaceful.

¹⁰ According to its fuel so does a fire burn,
And according to the stubbornness of a strife so does it increase;
And according to the power of a man so is his wrath,
And according to his wealth so does he increase his wrath.

¹¹ Strife begun in haste kindles a fire,
And a hasty quarrel leads to bloodshed.

¹² If you blow upon a spark it kindles, and if you spit upon it, it is quenched;
And both come forth from your mouth.

¹³ Curse the whisperer and the double-tongued,
For he has destroyed many who were at peace.

¹⁴ The third tongue has shaken many,
And has dispersed them from nation to nation;
Even strong cities it has destroyed,
And overturned the houses of the great.

¹⁵ The third tongue has cast out brave women,
And deprived them of their labors;

¹⁶ He who gives heed to it will not find rest,
Neither will he dwell in quiet.

¹⁷ The stroke of a whip makes a mark,
But the stroke of a tongue breaks bones.

¹⁸ Many have fallen by the edge of the sword,
But not so many as have fallen by the tongue;

¹⁹ Happy is the man who is sheltered from it,
Who has not passed through its wrath,
Who has not drawn its yoke,
And who has not been bound with its bands.

²⁰ For its yoke is a yoke of iron,
And its bands are bands of brass;

²¹ The death of it is an evil death,
And Hades is more profitable than it.

²² [But] it has no power over the godly,
They will not be burned in her flame;

²³ Those who forsake the Lord will fall into it,
And she will burn them, and not be quenched;
As a lion she will be sent upon them,
And as a leopard she will destroy them.

²⁴ See that you hedge your possession about with thorns;
And for your mouth make a door and a bar.

²⁵ Bind up your silver and gold;
And make a balance and weight for your words.

²⁶ Take heed that you do not slip by it,
Lest you fall before him who ensnares.

29 He who lends to his neighbor shows kindness,
And he who strengthened him with his hand keeps the commandments.

² Lend to your neighbor in time of his need,
And repay your neighbor at the appointed time.

³ Confirm your word, and keep faith with him;
And [so] will you always have what you need.

⁴ Many have reckoned a loan as a windfall,
And have brought trouble on those who helped them.

⁵ Until he receives it he kisses your hand,
And speaks humbly about his neighbor's money;
But when payment is due he prolongs the time,
And returns heavy words, and complains of [the shortness of] the time.

⁶ And if he is able [to repay], with difficulty he will receive half,
And counts it as a windfall;
And if not [able to repay], he has deprived him of his money,
And has made him an enemy without cause.
With cursings and railings he repays him,
And instead of honor he repays him with insult.

⁷ Many have turned away [from lending] because of wickedness,
They feared to be defrauded for nothing.

⁸ Nevertheless with the lowly man be longsuffering,
And do not let him wait for alms.

⁹ Help the poor for the commandment's sake,
And do not grieve for the loss.

¹⁰ Lose money for a brother or a friend's sake,
And do not let it rust under a stone or a wall.

¹¹ Lay up your treasure according to the commandments of the Most High,
And it will profit you more than gold.

¹² Store up alms in your store-chambers,
And it will deliver you from all affliction;

¹³ Better than a mighty shield and a heavy spear
Will this avail you against an enemy.

¹⁴ A good man becomes surety for his neighbor,
But he who has lost his sense of shame fails him.

¹⁵ The kindness of a surety do not forget,
For he has given his soul for you.

¹⁶ A sinner destroys the estate of a surety,
¹⁷ And he who is of an ungrateful mind fails him who delivered him.

¹⁸ Suretyship has undone many who were prospering,
And has tossed them about as a wave of the sea.
Wealthy men it has driven from their homes,
And they wandered among strange nations.

¹⁹ The sinner who falls in his suretyship
And tries to get out of it, falls into judgements.

²⁰ Help your neighbor according to your power,
And take heed to yourself that you do not fall.

²¹ The chief requisites for life are water and bread,
And a garment, and a house to cover nakedness.

²² Better the life of a poor man under a shelter of logs,
Than sumptuous food among strangers.

²³ Be content with little or much,
²⁴ It is an evil life going from house to house,
For where one is a sojourner,
One does not open the mouth;

²⁵ You are a stranger and drink contempt;
Besides this you will bear bitter things:

²⁶ "Come here, sojourner, furnish the table,
And if there is anything in your hand, feed me";

²⁷ [Or]: "Get out, sojourner, from the presence of honor,
My brother has come as my guest, I need my house!"

²⁸ These things are grievous to a man who has understanding:
Upbraiding [concerning] sojourning, and the reproach of a money lender.

30 He who loves his son will continue to spank him,
That he may have joy of him at the last.

² He who chastises his son will have profit of him,
And in the midst of his acquaintances he will have glory of him.

³ He who teaches his son will provoke his enemy to jealousy,
And before friends will he exult over him.

⁴ When his father dies [it is] as though he did not die,
For he has left behind him one like him.

⁵ In his life he saw and rejoiced,
And in his death he was not grieved.

⁶ Against [his] enemies he has left an avenger,

And to [his] friends one who repays favor.
⁷ He who pampers his son will bind up his wounds,
 And his heart is troubled at every cry.
⁸ An unbroken horse becomes stubborn,
 And a son left at large becomes headstrong.
⁹ Coddle your child, and he will terrify you;
 Play with him [continually], and he will grieve you.
¹⁰ Do not laugh with him lest he cause you pain,
 And at the last you gnash with your teeth.
¹¹ Do not let him have independence in his youth,
 And do not ignore his mischievous acts.
¹² As a python pounces upon a wild beast,
 So chastise his loins while he is yet young;
 Bow down his head in his youth,
 And spank him while he is yet small,
 Lest he become stubborn and rebel against you,
 And there be born to you vexation of spirit from him.
¹³ Control your son, and make his yoke heavy,
 Lest in his folly he lift himself up against you.
¹⁴ Better is a poor man healthy in body,
 Than a rich man stricken in his flesh.
¹⁵ I desire life in health rather than fine gold,
 And a cheerful spirit rather than pearls.
¹⁶ There is no wealth above the wealth of health;
 And there is no good above [that of] a sound heart.
¹⁷ Better is death than a life of vanity,
 And eternal rest than continual pain.
¹⁸ Good things poured out before a closed mouth
 Are like an offering placed before an idol;
¹⁹ What does it profit the idols of the nations
 Which neither eat nor smell?
 So is he who has wealth,
 But cannot enjoy it;
²⁰ He sees it with his eyes, and groans,
 As a eunuch who embraces a maiden.
²¹ Do not give your soul to sorrow,
 And do not be worried in your own counsel.
²² Joy of heart is life to a man,
 And happiness in a man prolongs days.
²³ Enjoy your soul and cheer your heart,
 And put vexation far from you;
 For sorrow has killed many,
 And there is no profit in vexation.
²⁴ Envy and anger shorten days,
 And anxiety makes gray before the time.^a
²⁵ The sleep of him who is of a cheerful heart is like dainties,
 And his food agrees with him.
31 Watching over wealth is a weariness to the flesh,
 And the worry of it disturbs sleep.
² The worry of [getting] sustenance disturbs slumber,
 And drives away sleep more than severe sickness.
³ The rich man labors in gathering wealth,
 And if he rests it is to gather luxuries,
⁴ The poor man toils to the lessening of his house,
 And if he rests he becomes needy.
⁵ He who runs after gold will not be guiltless,
 And he who loves gain will go astray by it.
⁶ There are many who have been entangled through gold,
 And those who put their trust in pearls [have been ensnared].
⁷ It is a stumbling-block for the foolish,
 And the simpleton is ensnared by it.

⁸ Blessed is the man who is found perfect,
 Who has not gone astray after mammon.
⁹ Who is he, that we may call him blessed?
 For he has done a wonderful thing among his people.
¹⁰ Who has been tested by it, and has remained unharmed?
 Let it be [accounted] to him for honor.
 Who might have fallen away, and did not fall away,
 And might have inflicted harm on his neighbor, but would not?
¹¹ Therefore his prosperity will abide,
 And the assembly will declare his praise.
¹² My son, if you sit at a great man's table,
 Do not be greedy upon it.
 Do not say: "There is plenty here!"
¹³ Remember that an evil eye is an evil thing;
 God has created nothing more evil than the [evil] eye,
 Therefore it weeps because of all things;
¹⁴ Honor your neighbor as yourself,
 And think over whatever may be distasteful to you.^b
¹⁵ Do not stretch out your hand at that which he looks at,
 And do not reach your hand with his into the dish;
¹⁶ Eat like a man what is set before you,
 And do not eat greedily lest you be despised.
¹⁷ Cease first for the sake of manners,
 And do not gobble lest you cause disgust.
¹⁸ And when you sit among many,
 Do not stretch out your hand before your neighbor.
¹⁹ Of a truth, a little suffices for a sensible man,
 Then on his bed he does not groan.
²⁰ Pain and sleeplessness, distress and want of breath,
 And griping, are the lot of a foolish man;
 There is healthy sleep for moderate eating;
 He rises in the morning and his soul is with him.
²¹ But if you are oppressed with [eating] dainties,
 Arise and vomit, so will you have ease.
²² Hearken, my son, and do not despise me,
 And in the end you will understand my words,
 In all your acts be moderate,
 And then no harm will touch you.
²³ He who is seemingly sitting at meat will receive honor,
 The testimony of his good behavior stands secure.
²⁴ He who misbehaves sitting at meat will be talked of in the gate,
 And the testimony of his evil stands secure.
²⁵ Moreover, when at wine, exercise restraint,
 For wine has destroyed many.
²⁶ Like a furnace which tries the work of the blacksmith,
 So is wine in the quarrelling of scorners.
²⁷ Like living water is wine to man,
 If he drinks it in moderation.
 What life has a man who lacks new wine?
 It was created from the beginning for gladness.
²⁸ Joy of heart, gladness and delight,
 Is wine drunk at the [right] time and in sufficiency.
²⁹ Headache, derision, and shame,
 Is wine drunk in strife and anger.
³⁰ Much wine is a snare to the fool,
 It diminishes strength and increases wounds.
³¹ At a banquet of wine do not rebuke a friend,
 And do not grieve him in his merriment.
 Do not speak to him a reproachful word,
 And do not quarrel with him before others.

^a In Greek, verses 30:25-33:16 come after 33:16-36:11. Hebrew, Syriac, and Latin preserve the correct order which is used here.

^b The order of verses 14 and 15 have been switched.

32 Have they made you ruler [of the feast], Do not be lifted up.^a

- Be to them as one of themselves;
 Consider them [first], and then take your seat;
² Prepare for their wants [first], and then recline,
 That you may rejoice on their account,
 And enjoy honor for organizing it.
³ Speak, O elder, for this is your part,
 Yet with discerning discretion, and do not hinder the singing;
⁴ When the music begins do not pour forth talk,
 And do not display your wisdom when it is not wanted.
⁵ As a ruby signet in a work of gold,
 So is good music at a banquet of wine.
⁶ A setting of gold with an emerald signet
 Is the melody of music at pleasant wine-drinking.
⁷ Speak, young man, if you are constrained [to do so],
 If asked twice or even thrice;
⁸ Sum up your speech, say much in little,
 Be as one who knows and can keep silent.
⁹ Among elders do not assert yourself,
 And among the noble do not be perpetually talking.
¹⁰ Before hail speeds the lightning,
 And before the modest speeds favor.
¹¹ At the time of departure do not be the last,
 Depart home and be done with your pleasure.
¹² But if anything comes into your heart, speak,
 In the fear of God, and not in senselessness.
¹³ For all these things bless your Maker,
 Who satisfies you with his goodness.
¹⁴ He who seeks God receives discipline,
 And he who seeks him early obtains favor.
¹⁵ He who seeks the law will gain it,
 But the hypocrite will be ensnared by it.
¹⁶ He who fears the Lord discerns judgement,
 And causes guiding lights to go forth from darkness;
¹⁷ The violent man shuns reproofs,
 And wrests the law to suit his need.
¹⁸ A man of counsel does not hide his understanding,
 But the proud and scornful man will not accept the law.
¹⁹ Do nothing without counsel,
 That you do not repent your act.
²⁰ Do not walk in a path set with snares,
 That you do not stumble twice at an obstacle.
²¹ Do not be confident on a journey regarding robbers,
²² And in your paths be wary.
²³ In whatsoever you do take heed to your soul,
 For he who does this keeps the commandment.
²⁴ He who keeps the law guards himself,
 And he who trusts in the Lord will not be ashamed.

33 No evil befalls him who fears the Lord,
 But in temptation he will deliver him.

- ² He is not wise who hates the law,
 And is tossed about like a ship in a storm.
³ A man of understanding discerns the word,
 And the law is faithful as the inquiry of Urim.^b
⁴ Prepare your speech, and so let yourself be heard,
 Bind up instruction, and [then] make your answer.
⁵ [Like] a cart wheel is the heart of a fool,
 And as a turning axle his [way of] thought.
⁶ Like a saddled horse is the love of a fool,
 He neighs under everyone who sits upon him.

- ⁷ Why is one day distinguished from another,
 When the light of every day in the year is from the sun?
⁸ By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished,
 And he varied seasons and feasts.
⁹ Some of them he exalted and hallowed,
 And some of them he made ordinary days.
¹⁰ And all men are from the ground,
 And Adam was created of earth.
¹¹ In the abundance of his knowledge the Lord distinguished them,
 And made their ways various.
¹² Some of them he blessed and exalted,
 And some of them he sanctified and brought near to himself;
 Some of them he cursed and humbled,
 And overthrew them from their place.
¹³ As the clay of the potter in his hand,
 All his ways are according to his good pleasure;
 So men are in the hand of him who made them,
 To render to them according to his judgement.
¹⁴ Opposite evil [is] good, and opposite death [is] life;
 Likewise opposite the godly [is] the sinner.
¹⁵ Even thus look upon all the works of the Most High,
 They are in pairs, one opposite the other.
¹⁶ And I came at the last,
 As one who gleans after the grape-gatherers.
 By the blessing of the Lord I made progress,
 And, as a grape-gatherer, filled my winepress.
¹⁷ Consider that I did not labor for myself alone,
 But for all those who seek instruction.
¹⁸ Harken to me, you⁺ great ones of the people,
 And you⁺ rulers of the congregation, give ear to me.
¹⁹ To son or wife, to brother or friend,
 Do not give power over you while you live;
 And do not give your goods to another,
 Lest you repent, and ask for them [back].
²⁰ While you yet live, and breath is in you,
 Do not give yourself to any.
²¹ For it is better that your children ask of you,
 Than you should look to the hand of your sons.
²² In all your works keep the upper hand,
 Let no stain come upon your honor.
²³ In the day that you end your life,
 In the day of death, distribute your inheritance.
²⁴ Fodder, and a stick, and burdens, for a donkey;
 Bread, and discipline, and work, for a servant.
²⁵ Set your servant to work, and he will seek rest,
 Leave his hands idle, and he will seek liberty.^c
²⁷ Put him to work that he may not be idle;
 For idleness teaches much mischief.
²⁸ Set him to [such] works as are suited to him,
 And if he does not obey make his fetters heavy.
²⁹ Do not be excessive toward any creature,
 And do nothing without judgement.
³⁰ If you have but one servant, let him be as yourself,
 For with blood have you obtained him.
³¹ If you have but one servant, treat him as your brother,
 For as your own soul you have need of him;
 If you maltreat him, and he departs and runs away,
 Which way will you go to seek him?

^c The text of verse 26 is omitted in Syriac and uncertain in others.

34 He who seeks vanity finds delusion,
And dreams give wings to fools.
² As one who catches a shadow and pursues the wind,
So is he who trusts in dreams.
³ A dream is like a mirror,
The likeness of a face reflecting a face.
⁴ What can be made clean from an unclean thing?
And how can that which is true come from a lie?
⁵ Divinations, and soothsayings, and dreams are vain,
As you hope so does your heart see.
⁶ If they are not sent by the Most High in a visitation,
Do not give your heart to them.
⁷ For dreams have led many astray,
And they have fallen, trusting in them.
⁸ Without deceit the law will be fulfilled;
And wisdom in the mouth of one who is faithful is perfection.

⁹ A well-instructed man knows many things,
And one of much experience expounds knowledge.
¹⁰ He who has no experience knows [but] few things,
¹¹ But he who has wandered multiplies his skill.
¹² I have seen many things in my travels,
And many things have befallen me;
¹³ Often I was in danger even to death,
But was saved thanks to these things.
¹⁴ The spirit of those who seek the Lord will live,
¹⁵ For their hope is on him who saves them,
¹⁶ He who fears the Lord will not be afraid,
He will not lose courage, for he is his hope.
¹⁷ Blessed is the soul of him who fears the Lord;
¹⁸ On whom does he trust? And who is his stay?
¹⁹ The eyes of the Lord are upon those who love him,
A mighty protection and a strong stay,
A shelter from the scorching wind, a shelter from the midday
sun,
A guard from stumbling, a help from falling;
²⁰ One who refreshes the soul and lightens the eyes,
Who gives healing, and life, and blessing.

²¹ The sacrifice of an unrighteous man is a mocking sacrifice,
²² And the oblations of the wicked are not acceptable.
²³ The Most High has no pleasure in the offerings of the ungodly,
Neither is he pacified for sins by the multitude of sacrifices.
²⁴ [As] one who slays a son in the sight of his father,
[So] is he who brings a sacrifice from the belongings of the poor.
²⁵ The bread of the needy is the life of the poor,
He who deprives him of it is a man of blood.
²⁶ He slays his neighbor who takes away his [means of] living,
²⁷ And a shedder of blood is he who deprives the hired worker of his wages.
²⁸ One building, and another pulling down,
What profit have they but [useless] labor?
²⁹ One praying, and another cursing,
To whose voice will the Master listen?
³⁰ He who washes after [contact with] a dead body, and touches it again,
What profit does he have by his washing?
³¹ So a man fasting for his sins,
And going again and doing the same,
Who will hearken to his prayer?
And what has he profited by humiliating himself?

35 He who keeps the law multiplies offerings,
² And he who gives heed to the commandments sacrifices
a peace-offering.
³ He who renders kindness offers fine flour,

⁴ And he who gives alms sacrifices a thanksgiving offering.
⁵ A pleasing thing to the Lord it is to depart from wickedness,
And a propitiation it is to turn away from unrighteousness.
⁶ Do not appear in the presence of the Lord empty,
⁷ For all these things [are due] because of the commandment.
⁸ The offering of a righteous man makes the altar fat,
And the sweet savor therefore [is] before the Most High.
⁹ The sacrifice of a righteous man is acceptable,
And the memorial of it will not be forgotten.
¹⁰ With a good eye glorify the Lord,
And do not hold back the offerings of your hands.
¹¹ In all your works let your countenance beam,
And with gladness sanctify your tithe.
¹² Give to God according to his gift to you,
With a good eye and according as your hand has prospered;
¹³ For he is a God of recompense,
And sevenfold he will recompense you.

¹⁴ Do not bribe [him], for he will not accept [gifts],
¹⁵ And do not trust in a sacrifice of extortion;
For he is a God of justice,
And with him there is no partiality.
¹⁶ He will not respect the person of the poor,
But hearkens to the supplications of the distressed.
¹⁷ He does not ignore the cry of the orphan,
Nor the widow when she pours out her complaint.
¹⁸ Does not the tear run down upon the cheek?
¹⁹ And [is there not] a sigh against him who causes it to run down?
²⁰ [Such] a sigh is a bitterness accepted [of God],
And [such] a cry reaches to the clouds.
²¹ The cry of the poor passes through the clouds,
And until it reaches [God] it does not rest;
It will not cease until God visits,
²² And the righteous Judge executes judgement.
Yes, the Lord will not tarry,
And the Mighty One will not refrain himself,
Until he smites the loins of the merciless,
²³ And repays vengeance on the arrogant;
Until he takes away the sceptre of pride,
And wholly destroys the staff of wickedness;
²⁴ Until he renders to a man [according to] his deed,
And recompenses him [according to] his thought;
²⁵ Until he pleads the cause of his people,
And makes them glad with his salvation.
²⁶ Mercy is fitting in the time of their affliction,
As rain in the time of drought.

36 Save us, O God of all,
² And cast your fear upon all the nations.
³ Shake your hand against the strange people,
That they may see your power.
⁴ As you have sanctified yourself in us before their eyes,
So sanctify yourself in them before our eyes;
⁵ That they may know, even as we know,
That there is no other God but you.
⁶ Renew the signs, and repeat the wonders,
Make glorious your hand and your right arm.
⁷ Awaken wrath, and pour out indignation,
Subdue the foe, and drive out the enemy.
⁸ Hasten the end, and ordain the appointed time,
For who may say to you: "What are you doing?"
⁹ Let him who escapes be devoured in raging fire,
And may those who wrong your people find destruction.
¹⁰ Bring to nothing the head of the princes of Moab,
Who says, "There is none beside me."
¹¹ Gather all the tribes of Jacob,

That they may receive their inheritance, as in days of old.
¹² Have mercy upon the people called by your name,
 Israel whom you surnamed Firstborn.
¹³ Have mercy upon your holy city,
 Jerusalem, the place of your dwelling.
¹⁴ Fill Zion with your majesty,
 And your temple with your glory.
¹⁵ Give testimony to the first of your works,
 And establish the vision spoken in your name.
¹⁶ Give the reward to those who wait for you,
 That your prophets may be shown to be faithful.
¹⁷ Hear the prayer of your servants,
 According to your favor towards your people.
 That all the ends of the earth may know
 That you are the Eternal God.

¹⁸ The throat eats every meat,
 Yet one meat is better than another.
¹⁹ The palate tastes the dainties that are bestowed,
 And the discerning heart the dainties of falsehood.
²⁰ A deceitful heart causes sorrow,
 But a man of experience turns it back upon him.
²¹ A woman will receive any man,
 But one daughter is better than another daughter.
²² The beauty of a woman makes the countenance bright,
 And excels every delight of the eye.
²³ And moreover, if there is in her a gentle tongue,
 Her husband is not from among the sons of men.
²⁴ He who acquires a wife has the highest possession,
 A help meet for him, and a pillar of support.
²⁵ Without a hedge a vineyard is laid waste,
 And without a wife [a man is] a wanderer and homeless.
²⁶ Who trusts an armed band
 That rushes from city to city?
 So is the man who has no rest,
 Who rests [where he can] when evening falls.

37 Every friend says: "I have a friend,"
 But there is a friend [who is] a friend in name [only].
² So there is a sorrow that comes near to death,
 A friend according to the soul turned to an enemy.
³ O evil nature, why were you created,
 To fill the face of the world with deceit?
⁴ An evil friend [is he who] looks to the table,
 But in time of stress stands aloof.
⁵ A good friend [is he who] fights with the stranger,
 And takes hold of the shield against the adversary.
⁶ Do not forget a friend in [the time of] conflict,
 And do not forsake him when you take the spoil.

⁷ Every counsellor points out the way,
 But there is one who counsels a way for his own advantage.
⁸ Of that counsellor let your soul take heed,
 And know beforehand what is his interest;
 For he, too, will take thought for himself;
 Why should it fall out to his advantage?
⁹ And he will say to you, How good is your way!
 Then will he stand aloof and watch your adversity.
¹⁰ Do not take counsel with one who dislikes you,
 And hide your secret from one who is jealous of you.
¹¹ (Do not take counsel) with a woman concerning her rival,
 And an enemy concerning his conflict,
 With a merchant concerning business,
 And with a buyer concerning selling,
 With an evil man concerning the showing of kindness,

And with one who is merciless concerning man's happiness,
 With a worthless workman concerning his work,
 And with a yearly hired worker concerning the sowing of seed,
 With an idle slave concerning much work,
 Do not trust in these for any counsel.
¹² But rather with a man who fears always,
 Whom you know [to be] a keeper of the commandment,
 Whose heart is like your heart,
 And if you stumble he will be grieved for you.
¹³ And also discern the counsel of [your own] heart,
 For there is none more true to you.
¹⁴ The heart of man declares [to him] his opportunities
 Better than seven watchmen on a watchtower.
¹⁵ But in all these things entreat God,
 That he may direct your steps in truth.

¹⁶ The beginning of every action is speech,
 And before every act there is consideration.
¹⁷ The roots of the deliberations of the heart
 Throw out four branches:
¹⁸ Good and evil, life and death;
 But the tongue rules over them altogether.
¹⁹ There is a wise man who is wise to many,
 And to his own soul he shows himself a fool;
²⁰ And there is a wise man who is despised for his words,
 And is cut off from all pleasant food;^a
²² And there is a wise man who is wise to his own soul,
 And the fruit of his knowledge is upon his body.
²³ And there is a wise man who is wise to his people,
 And the fruit of his knowledge is in their bodies.
²⁴ The life of a man [numbers] few days,
 But the life of Israel days without number.^b
²⁵ He who is wise to his own soul will be satisfied with enjoyment,
 And all who see him account him happy.
²⁶ He who is wise [to his] people gains honor,
 And his name will live forever.

²⁷ My son, in your life prove your soul,
 And see what is evil for it, and do not give it that.
²⁸ For not everything is good for everyone;
 Every soul does not choose of every kind.
²⁹ Do not be insatiable in every luxury,
 And give not yourself wholly to every dainty.
³⁰ For in much eating lurks sickness,
 And he who consumes too much draws near to loathing.
³¹ Through lack of self-control many have perished,
 But he who controls himself prolongs his life.

38 Be friends with the physician since you have need of him,
 For God has ordained him also.
² It is from God that the physician becomes wise,
 And from the king he receives gifts.
³ The skill of the physician lifts up his head,
 So that he stands in the presence of princes.
⁴ God has created medicines out of the earth,
 And do not let a man of discernment despise them.
⁵ Was not water made sweet by the wood
 In order to make known his power to all men?
⁶ And he gave to men discernment,
 To glory in his mighty works;
⁷ By them the physician relieves pain,
⁸ Thus also the compounder make his compound,
 That his work does not cease,
 Nor health from the sons of men.

⁹ My son, in sickness do not be negligent;
Pray to God, for he can heal.
¹⁰ Turn from iniquity, and purify your hands;
And from all transgressions cleanse your heart.
¹¹ Give a meal-offering, and also a memorial,
And offer a fat sacrifice to the utmost of your means.
¹² And also give a place to the physician;
And do not let [him] be far from you, for there is indeed need of him.
¹³ For there is a time when success is in his power;
¹⁴ For he also makes supplication to God
To make his diagnosis successful,
And the healing that it may give life.
¹⁵ He who sins against his Maker
Behaves proudly towards the physician.

¹⁶ My son, let tears fall for the dead;
Show yourself sorrowful, and mourn with a lamentation.
Bury his body according to his due,
And do not hide yourself when he has become a corpse.
¹⁷ Make bitter your weeping and passionate your wailing,
And make mourning such as befits him,
For a day or two to avoid scandal,
And be comforted for your sorrow.
¹⁸ For out of sorrow comes forth harm,
So sadness of heart brings down strength.^a
²⁰ Then let your heart be no more occupied with him, Dismiss the remembrance of him, [yet] remember [your] end.
²¹ Remember him not, for he has no hope;
You cannot profit him, while you harm yourself.
²² Remember his doom, for it is your doom [too];
His yesterday, and yours today.
²³ When the dead is at rest, let his memory rest;
And be consoled when his soul departs.

²⁴ The wisdom of the scribe increases wisdom,
And he who has little business can become wise.
²⁵ How can he who holds the plow become wise,
Who glories in brandishing the ox-goad?
Who leads cattle, and turns about oxen,
And whose discourse is with bullocks?
²⁶ He sets his heart on turning his furrows
And his anxiety is to have sufficient fodder.
²⁷ Likewise the engraver and craftsman,
Who passes his time by night as by day;
They cut gravings of signets,
And his diligence is to make variety,
He sets his heart to make his likeness true,
And his anxiety is to finish his work.
²⁸ So the blacksmith sitting by the anvil,
And considering the unwrought iron;
The vapor of the fire cracks his flesh,
And in the heat of the furnace he glows;
The sound of the hammer is continually in his ear,
And his eyes are upon the pattern of the vessel;
He sets his heart upon finishing his works,
And his diligence is to adorn [them] perfectly,
²⁹ So the potter sitting at his work,
And turning about the wheel with his feet,
Who is ever anxiously set at his work,
And all his handiwork is by number;
³⁰ With his arm he fashions the clay,
And he bends its strength before his feet;
He applies his heart to finish the glazing,
And his diligence is to clean the furnace.

³¹ All these rely upon their hands,
And each is wise in his handiwork.
³² Without them a city cannot be inhabited,
And they do not sojourn, neither do they walk up and down.
³³ But in the council of the people they are not sought for,
And in the assembly they will not be exalted;
They will not sit on the seat of the judge,
And they will not [be able to] understand the covenant of judgement;
Neither will they expound righteousness and judgement,
And among rulers they will not be found.
³⁴ But the fabric of the world, they will maintain,
And their thoughts are on the handiwork of [their] craft.

39 Not so he who gives his soul,
And meditates in the law of the Most High;
He searches out the wisdom of all the ancients,
And is occupied in prophecies;
² He preserves the discourses of men of renown,
And enters into subtleties of parables;
³ He seeks out the hidden things of proverbs,
And is conversant with the obscure things of parables.
⁴ He serves among great men,
And appears before a ruler,
He travels in the land of alien nations,
And has tried both good and evil things among men.
⁵ He applies his heart to rise up early to the Lord who made
him;
And before the Most High he makes supplication,
And opens his mouth in prayer,
And makes supplication for his sins.
⁶ If the Great Lord is willing,
He will be filled with the spirit of understanding.
He himself pours forth words of wisdom,
And gives thanks to the Lord in prayer;
⁷ He himself directs his counsel and knowledge,
And in the secrets of it he meditates.
⁸ He himself declares the instruction of his teaching,
And glories in the law of the covenant of the Lord.
⁹ Many praise his understanding,
Never will it be blotted out,
His memorial will not cease,
And his name will live to generations of generations.
¹⁰ His wisdom will the Gentiles declare,
And his praise will the congregation tell forth.
¹¹ If he continues he will be counted [greater than] a thousand;
And if he dies, he will become more renowned.^b

¹² Yet more will I utter, which I have thought upon,
For I am filled like the full moon.
¹³ Harken to me, you⁺ holy children, and bud forth
As a rose growing by a brook of water.
¹⁴ And as frankincense give forth a sweet odor,
And put forth flowers as a lily;
Spread forth a sweet smell, and sing a song of praise;
Bless⁺ the Lord for all his works;
¹⁵ O magnify his name,
And give utterance to his praise,
With songs of the harp and of stringed instruments,
And thus will you⁺ say, with a shout:
¹⁶ The works of God are all good,
And for every need he provided in its time.
¹⁷ None may say: This is worse than that.
For everything in its own time is excellent.
At his word the waters stood as a heap,

^a Verse 19 is not present in Hebrew. The meaning is uncertain in other texts.

^b Verse 11 is reconstructed. Greek is uncertain.

And by the word of his mouth his store-chamber.
¹⁸ He causes his will to prosper,
 And there is no restraint to his salvation.
¹⁹ The works of all flesh are before him,
 And there is nothing hid from before his eyes;
²⁰ From everlasting to everlasting he beholds,
 Therefore there is no limit to his salvation,
 Nothing is small or insignificant with him,
 And there is nothing too wonderful or too hard for him.
²¹ None may say: What is this? Why is that?
 For all has been chosen according to its purpose.
²² His blessing overflows as the Nile,
 And saturates the world as the River.
²³ Thus his indignation drives out nations,
 And he turns a watered land to salt.
²⁴ The paths of the perfect are straight,
 [Even] so are they stumbling-blocks to the presumptuous.
²⁵ Good things for the good he has allotted from the beginning;
 [Even] so to the evil; good and evil.
²⁶ The chief of all things necessary to the life of man
 Are water and fire, and iron and salt,
 And flour of wheat, and milk and honey,
 The blood of the grape, oil and clothing.
²⁷ All these are good to the good,
 [Even] as for the evil they are turned to evil.
²⁸ There are winds that are created for vengeance,
 And in their wrath lay on their scourges heavily;
 And in the time of the end they pour out their strength,
 And appease the wrath of him who created them.
²⁹ Fire and hail, famine and pestilence,
 These also are created for judgement.
³⁰ Beasts of prey, scorpions and vipers,
 And the avenging sword to slay the wicked,
 All these are created for their uses,
 And are in [his] treasure-house, and in [their] time will be requisitioned.
³¹ When he commands them they rejoice,
 And in their prescribed task they do not rebel against him.
³² Therefore from the beginning I stood firm,
 And when I had considered it I set it down in writing:
³³ The works of God are all good,
 They supply every need in its season.
³⁴ None may say: This is worse than that,
 For everything shows its strength in its season.
³⁵ And now sing praises with all your heart,
 And bless the name of the Holy One.

40 Much occupation God has allotted,
 And heavy is the yoke on the sons of men;
 From the day that he comes forth from his mother's womb,
 Until the day of his returning to the mother of all living.^a
² [As for] their thoughts, and fear of heart,
 The idea of their expectation is the day of death.
³ From him who sits upon a throne in exaltation,
 To him who sits in dust and ashes;
⁴ From him who wears a diadem and crown,
 To him who wears a garment of hair,
⁵ [There is but] anger and jealousy, anxiety and fear,
 Terror of death, strife and contention.
 And when he rests upon his bed,
 The sleep of night doubles his trouble.
⁶ For a short time, that he may rest for a moment, he is undisturbed,
 And then by dreams is he disturbed.
 He is troubled by the vision of his soul,
 He is like a fugitive fleeing before the pursuer.
⁷ In the time of his deliverance he is aroused,

^a the mother of all living - i.e. the earth.

And marvels that [there was] fear for nothing.
⁸ With all flesh, both of man and beast,
 And upon sinners sevenfold more,
⁹ [There is] pestilence and bloodshed, blight and drought,
 Devastation and destruction, famine and death.
¹⁰ For the wicked evil was created,
 And because of him destruction does not depart.
¹¹ All things that are from the earth return to the earth,
 And that which is from on high [returns] on high.
¹² All bribery and injustice will be blotted out,
 And faith will abide forever.
¹³ Wealth [obtained] by injustice is like a perennial torrent,
 And like a river that is mighty in a storm;
¹⁴ When it rises rocks are rolled down,
 So does it suddenly come to an end forever.
¹⁵ A branch of violence has no shoot in it,
 And the root of the godless is upon a rocky crag;
¹⁶ It is like the reeds upon the bank of a river,
 Which will be dried up before every other plant.
¹⁷ But kindness will never be moved,
 And righteousness endures forever.
¹⁸ A life of wine and strong drink is sweet,
 But better than both is he who finds a treasure.
¹⁹ A child and a city establish a name,
 But better than both is he who finds wisdom.
 The offspring of cattle, and planting, make a name to flourish.
 But better than both is a loved woman.
²⁰ Wine and strong drink rejoice the heart,
 But better than both is the affection of lovers.
²¹ Pipe and harp make sweet the song,
 But better than both is a pure tongue.
²² Grace and beauty charm your eye,
 But better than both are the products of the field.
²³ A friend and a companion meet opportunely,
 But better than both is a discreet wife.
²⁴ Brothers and help are for a time of affliction,
 But better than both is righteousness [that] delivers.
²⁵ Gold and silver make the foot stand sure,
 But better than both is counsel esteemed.
²⁶ Wealth and strength lift up the heart,
 But better than both is the fear of God.
 In the fear of the Lord there is no lack,
 And with it there is no need to seek [other] help.
²⁷ The fear of God is as an Eden of blessing,
 And over all glory is its canopy.
²⁸ My son, do not lead a beggar's life,
 Better is one dead than one who begs.
²⁹ A man who looks upon a stranger's table,
 His life is not accounted life.
 A pollution of his soul are the dainties presented,
 And to a man of knowledge [they are] a cause of suffering.
³⁰ In the mouth of a greedy man begging is sweet,
 But within him it burns like fire.

41 O, Death, how bitter is the remembrance of you
 To him who lives in peace in his habitation;
 To him who is at ease, and prospers in all,
 And who still has strength to enjoy luxury.
² Hail, Death, how welcome is your decree
 To a man of sorrows, and who lacks strength,
 Who stumbles and trips in everything,
 Who is broken, and has lost hope.
³ Fear not death, [it is] your destiny,
 Remember that the former and the latter share it with you.
⁴ This is the portion of all flesh from God,

And how can you reject the law of the Most High?
[Be it] for a thousand years, a hundred, or ten [that you live],
In Sheol there is no inquiry of [length of] life.

- ⁵ A disgusting offspring is the generation of sinners,
And a godless sprout is in the dwellings of the wicked.
⁶ From the son of the unrighteous dominion will be wrenched away,
And with their posterity will be perpetual reproach.
⁷ Children will curse a wicked father,
For because of him they suffer reproach.
⁸ Woe to you, ungodly men,
Who have forsaken the law of the Most High God.
⁹ If you⁺ be fruitful [it will be] for harm,
And if you⁺ bear children [it will be] for sighing;
And if you⁺ stumble [it will be] for everlasting joy,
And if you⁺ die [it will be] for a curse.
¹⁰ All that is of nothing returns to nothing,
So the godless man, from nothingness to nothingness.
¹¹ Vanity is man concerning his body,
But the name of the pious will not be cut off.
¹² Be in fear for your name, for that abides longer for you
Than thousands of precious treasures.
¹³ Life's goods [last] for limited days,
But the reward of a name for days without number.

- ¹⁴ Hidden wisdom and concealed treasure,
What is the use of either?
¹⁵ Better the man who hides his folly,
Than the man who hides his wisdom.

- ¹⁶ Hear, O children, instruction concerning shame,
And be ashamed according to my judgement.
For not every kind of shame is to be retained,
And not every kind of shame is to be reproved.
¹⁷ Be ashamed of a father and a mother of whoredom,
Of a prince and ruler of lies,
¹⁸ Of a master and a mistress of deceit,
Of an assembly and people of transgression,
Of an associate or friend of dishonesty,
¹⁹ And of a place of pride where you sojourn.
[Be ashamed] of altering an oath or a covenant,
Of stretching out your elbow when sitting at meat,
Of withholding a gift that is asked for,
²⁰ Of turning away the face of your friend,
Of taking away a portion or a gift,
²¹ Of being silent to one who greets,
Of looking upon a woman who is a whore,
Of gazing on a woman who has a husband,
²² Of being busy with his maid,
And of violating her bed,
Of [speaking] to a friend with reproachful words,
And of upbraiding after you have given,
42 Of repeating a thing which you have heard,
And of laying bare any secret counsel:
So you will show proper shame,
And find favor in the sight of all living.

- But of these things do not be ashamed,
And do not let persons lead you to sin:
² Of the law of the Most High, and the statute,
And of justice, to render justice [even] to the wicked,
³ Of keeping accounts with an associate or travel companion,
And of dividing an inheritance or a property,
⁴ Of the small dust of the scales and balance,
And of testing measure and weight,
Of buying, as to whether [it is] little or much,
⁵ And of profit from dealing with a merchant,
Of frequent correction of children,
And of smiting an evil servant.

- ⁶ For an evil wife, a seal,
And where many hands are, a key.
⁷ Upon what is deposited, make a mark,
And let giving and receiving all be in writing.
⁸ Of the correction of the foolish and simple [do not be ashamed],
Or of [the correction of] the old man occupied with whoredom:
So will you be truly well-advised,
And a modest man before all living.
⁹ A daughter is to a father a deceptive treasure,
And the care of her puts away sleep;
In her youth lest she commit adultery,
And when she is married, lest she be hated;
¹⁰ In her virginity lest she be seduced,
And in the house of her husband, lest she be unfaithful,
In the house of her father, lest she be with child,
And in the house of her husband, lest she be barren.
¹¹ Keep a strict watch over your daughter,
Lest she make you a name that stinks,
The talk of the city, and accursed of the people,
And shame you in the gathering at the gate.
In the place where she abides let there be no window,
And in the house where she sleeps no entry round about.
¹² Do not let her display her beauty before any man,
And in the house of women do not let her gossip;
¹³ For from the garment comes forth the moth,
And from a woman a woman's wickedness.
¹⁴ Better the wickedness of a man than the goodness of a woman,
And a daughter who causes shame and pours forth reproach.
¹⁵ Let me make mention of the works of God,
And what I have seen I will also recount.
By the word of God are his works,
And he does his good pleasure according to his decree.
¹⁶ The rising sun is revealed over all,
And the glory of the Lord upon all his works.
¹⁷ The holy ones of God do not have the power
To recount the wondrous works of his might;
[Yet] God has given strength to his hosts
To stand in the presence of his glory.
¹⁸ He searches out the deep, and the heart [of man],
And discerns all their secrets;
For the Lord knows all knowledge,
And he looks into the signs of the world;
¹⁹ Declaring the things that are past and the things that will be,
And revealing the traces of hidden things.
²⁰ No knowledge is lacking to him,
And not a thing escapes him.
²¹ The mighty works of his wisdom, he has ordered;
One is he from everlasting;
Nothing has been added, and nothing taken away [from them],
And he needs none to instruct [him].
²² How desirable are all his works,
And they are as a spark to behold.
²³ All these things live and abide forever,
And for every need all are obedient [to him].
²⁴ All things are different, this from that,
And he did not make one of them superfluous.
²⁵ One thing surpasses another in its goodness,
And who shall be satiated in beholding [their] beauty?

43 The beauty of the height [of the heavens] is the clear firmament,

- And the vault of heaven is a spectacle of glory.
² The sun when he goes forth pours out heat,

How terrible are the works of Yahweh!
³ When it shines at noon it scorches the world,
 Before its burning [heat] who can stand?
⁴ A heated furnace makes the metal become heated,
 [But] the sending forth of the sun sets mountains ablaze.
 The rays from the light scorch the inhabited earth,
 And the light from the lamp scorches the eyes.
⁵ For great is Yahweh who made it,
 And his word causes his mighty one to shine.
⁶ And also the moon he made for its due season,
 To rule over periods for an everlasting sign.
⁷ By her festivals and the appointed times [are fixed],
 A light that wanes when she has come to the full.
⁸ Month by month she renews herself,
 How wonderful [is she] in her changing!
 A beacon for the hosts on high,
 Paving the firmament with her shining.
⁹ The beauty of heaven, and its glory [are] the stars,
 With their bright shining in the heights of God.
¹⁰ At the word of God they stand as decreed,
 And they do not sleep in their watches.
¹¹ Behold the rainbow, and bless the Maker of it;
 It is exceedingly majestic in its glory;
¹² It encompasses the [heavenly] vault in its glory,
 And the hand of God has spread it out in might.
¹³ His power sends out the lightning,
 And makes bright its flashes in judgement;
¹⁴ For it he created a treasure-house,
 And clouds fly forth as fowls.
¹⁵ By his mighty power he makes the clouds strong,
 And the hailstones are broken small.
¹⁶ The voice of his thunder makes the earth travail,
 By his strength he shakes the mountains.
 And the fear of him stirs up the south wind,
¹⁷ And the whirlwind of the north, and hurricane and tempest.
 Like birds he sprinkles his snow,
 And like settling locusts is the coming down of it;
¹⁸ The beauty of its whiteness dazzles the eyes,
 And the heart is amazed at the raining down of it.
¹⁹ Also the hoarfrost, he pours it out like salt,
 And he causes flowers to bloom like sapphires.
²⁰ The cold of the north wind he causes to blow,
 And hardens the pond like a bottle;
 Upon every gathering of waters he spreads a crust,
 And the pond puts on, as it were, a breastplate.
²¹ The produce of the mountains he dries up with scorching heat,
 And the springing grass of the meadows as [with] a flame.
²² Healing for all things is the dropping from the clouds,
 The dew which speedily refreshed the parched ground.
²³ By his counsel he has stilled the great deep,
 And has planted islands in the midst of the deep.
²⁴ Those who go down to the sea declare its bounds,
 And when our ears hear it we marvel.
²⁵ In it are marvels, the wonders of his works,
 All manner of living things, and mighty things of the deep.
²⁶ For his own sake he makes his work prosper,
 And by his word he works his pleasure.
²⁷ Yet more things like these we will not add,
 And the end of the matter is: He is all.
²⁸ We will still magnify, though we cannot fathom,
 For greater is he than all his works.
²⁹ Exceeding terrible is Yahweh,
 And wonderful are his mighty works.
³⁰ You⁺ who magnify Yahweh, lift up your voice,
 As much as you⁺ are able, for there is yet more!
 You⁺ who exalt him, renew your strength,
 And do not be wearied, though you⁺ cannot fathom him.
³¹ Who has seen him that he may declare him?

And who shall magnify him as he is?
³² Many things, greater than these, are hidden,
 I have only seen a few of his works.
³³ Yahweh has made everything,
 And to the godly he has given wisdom.

44 Let me now sing the praises of men of piety,
 Of our fathers in their generations.
² Great glory did the Most High allot them,
 And they were great from the days of old.
³ [Men] who wielded dominion over the earth in their royalty,
 And men of renown in their might;
 Counsellors in their discernment,
 And seers in their prophetic power.
⁴ Princes of nations in their intentions,
 And leaders in their decrees;
 Wise in speech in their scribal office,
 And speakers of wise sayings in their tradition;
⁵ Arrangers of psalms according to rule,
 And authors of written proverbs;
⁶ Men of ability and supported with strength,
 And living at ease in their dwelling-places.
⁷ All these were honored in their generation,
 And in their days had glory.
⁸ Some of them have left a name
 That men might tell their praise;
⁹ And some of them have no memorial,
 There was an end of them when they came to their end;
 They were as though they had not been,
 And also their children after them.
¹⁰ Nevertheless, these were men of piety,
 And their hope has not ceased;
¹¹ With their seed their goodness remains sure,
 And their inheritance to their children's children.
¹² Their seed stands fast in the covenants,
 And in their children for their sakes;
¹³ Their memory abides forever,
 And their righteousness will not be forgotten.
¹⁴ Their bodies were buried in peace,
 But their name lives to all generations.
¹⁵ The assembly repeats their wisdom,
 And the congregation declares their praise.

¹⁶ Enoch was found perfect, and he walked with Yahweh, and was taken;
 A sign of knowledge to every generation.
¹⁷ Noah the righteous was found perfect,
 In the time of destruction he became the renewer;
 For his sake there was a remnant,
 And because of his covenant the Flood ceased;
¹⁸ An eternal covenant [God] made with him
 Not to destroy all flesh [again].

¹⁹ Abraham, the father of a multitude of nations,
 Put no blemish on his honor;
²⁰ He kept the commandments of the Most High,
 And entered into a covenant with him;
 In his flesh he made a covenant with him,
 And in temptation he was found faithful.
²¹ Wherefore, with an oath he swore to him,
 To bless nations in his seed;
 To multiply him as the dust of the earth,
 And to exalt his seed as the stars;
 To cause them to inherit from sea to sea,
 And from the River to the ends of the earth.
²² And also Isaac he established likewise,
 For the sake of Abraham his father;
 He gave him the covenant of all his ancestry.
²³ And a blessing rested on the head of Israel;

And he gave him the title of Firstborn,
 And gave him his inheritance;
 And he set him for tribes,
 To be divided into twelve.

And he brought out from him a man of mercy,
 Who found grace in the sight of all living.

45 Beloved of God and men was Moses,
 Whose memorial is blessed.

² And he made him glorious as God,
 And made him mighty in awe-inspiring deeds.

³ By his words he caused wonders to happen in quick succession,

And he made him bold in the presence of the king.
 And he gave him a charge to the people,
 And showed him his glory.

⁴ For his faithfulness and his meekness,
 He chose him out of all flesh,

⁵ And caused him to hear his voice,
 And let him draw near to the dark cloud;
 And he placed in his hand the commandment,
 Even the law of life and discernment;

That he might teach statutes to Jacob,
 And his testimonies and judgements to Israel.

⁶ And he exalted a holy one like him,
 Even Aaron of the tribe of Levi;

⁷ And he appointed him by a perpetual statute,
 And put honor upon him;

And he blessed him with his glory,
 And girded him with exceedingly great glory.

⁸ And he clothed him with the perfection of adornment,
 And adorned him with splendid vestments, the breeches,
 the tunic, and the robe,

⁹ And encompassed him with pomegranates, and with resounding bells round about,
 To make music with his steps,
 So as to cause the sound of him to be heard in the inmost shrine,

For a memorial for the children of his people;

¹⁰ [With] the holy garments of gold and violet,
 And purple, the work of the designer;

And the breastplate of judgement, and the ephod and belt;

¹¹ And the scarlet, the work of a craftsman,
 [With] precious stones engraved like a signet,
 In settings, the work of the engraver;

For a memorial in engraved writing,
 According to the number of the tribes of Israel,

¹² [With] a crown of pure gold upon [his] turban,
 The diadem engraven "Holy to Yahweh,"
 Glorious majesty and mighty praise,
 The desire of the eyes, goodly and beautiful.

¹³ Before him there never were such things,
 Never did a stranger put them on;

He trusted him and his sons only,
 And his son's sons throughout their generations.

¹⁴ His meal-offering is wholly consumed
 Twice every day as a continual sacrifice.

¹⁵ Moses consecrated him,
 And anointed him with the holy oil;

And it became for him an eternal covenant,
 And for his seed as the days of heaven;
 To minister and to execute the priest's office for him,
 And to bless his people in his name.

¹⁶ He chose him out of all living,
 To bring near the burnt-offerings and the fat pieces,
 And to burn a sweet savor and a memorial,
 And to make atonement for the children of Israel.

¹⁷ And he gave them his commandments,

And invested him with authority over statute and judgement,

That he might teach his people statutes,
 And judgements to the children of Israel.

¹⁸ But strangers were incensed against him,
 And were envious against him in the wilderness;
 The men of Dathan and Abiram,
 And the company of Korah in the violence of their wrath.

¹⁹ And Yahweh saw it and was angered,
 And consumed them in his fierce wrath;

And he brought to pass a sign upon them,
 And devoured them with his fiery flame.

²⁰ And he increased his glory to Aaron,
 And gave him his inheritance:

The holy contributions for their sustenance,
 The offerings of Yahweh made by fire for them to eat,

²¹ The bread of the presence is his portion,
 A gift for him and for his seed.

²² Only in the land of the people might he have no heritage,
 And in their midst divide no inheritance;
 Whose portion and inheritance is Yahweh,
 In the midst of the children of Israel.

²³ Moreover, Phinehas, the son of Eleazar,
 Was glorious in might as a third,

In that he was jealous for the God of all,
 And stood in the breach for his people;

While his heart prompted him,
 And he made atonement for the children of Israel.

²⁴ Therefore also for him he established an ordinance,
 A covenant of peace to maintain the sanctuary;

That to him and to his seed should appertain
 The high priesthood forever.

²⁵ And also with David was his covenant,
 The son of Jesse, of the tribe of Judah;
 The inheritance of the king is his son's alone,
 While the inheritance of Aaron [belongs] to him, and to his seed.

And now bless* Yahweh, the Good,
 Who has crowned you with honor;

²⁶ May he grant you wisdom of heart,
 To judge his people in righteousness,
 That your prosperity may never cease,
 Nor your power for eternal generations.

46 A mighty man of valor was Joshua, the son of Nun,
 A minister of Moses in the prophetic office,

Who was created to be according to his name,
 A great salvation for his chosen ones,

To take vengeance upon the enemy,
 And to give an inheritance to Israel.

² How glorious he was when he stretched forth his hand,
 And brandished his javelin against the city.

³ Who was [able] to stand before him
 When he fought the wars of Yahweh?

⁴ Was it not by his hand that the sun stood still
 And one day became as two?

⁵ For he called to God Most High,
 When enemies pressed him on every side,

And God Most High answered him,
 With hailstones and bolts;

⁶ He cast them down upon the hostile people.
 And in going down he destroyed those who rose up,

That all the nations [devoted to] destruction might know
 That Yahweh was watching their fighting;

And also because he fully followed after God,
⁷ And did an act of piety in the days of Moses,
 He and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh,

In standing firm when the congregation broke loose,
 To turn away wrath from the assembly,
 And to cause the evil report to cease.
⁸ Therefore also these two were set apart,
 From among the six hundred thousand footmen,
 To bring them into their inheritance,
 [Into] a land flowing with milk and honey.
⁹ And he gave strength to Caleb,
 And to old age it stood by him,
 To cause him to tread upon the high places of the land;
 And also his seed obtained a heritage,
¹⁰ That all the seed of Jacob might know
 That it is good to follow wholly after Yahweh.

¹¹ Also the Judges, each with his name,
 All whose hearts were not beguiled,
 Nor turned back from [following] after God,
 Let their memory be for a blessing,
¹² May their bones flourish again out of their place,
 And may their name sprout afresh for their children.

¹³ Honored by his people, and loved by his Maker
 [Was] "He who was asked" from his mother's womb;
 Sanctified in the prophetic office by Yahweh,
 Samuel, [who acted as] judge and priest.
 By the word of God he established the kingdom,
 And anointed princes over the people.
¹⁴ By means of the commandment he commanded the congregation,
 And he visited the gods of Jacob.
¹⁵ By his faithfulness he was proved to be a prophet,
 And by his word a faithful seer.
¹⁶ And when his enemies pressed him on every side,
 He called upon the Yahweh, the Mighty One,
 With the offering of a nursing lamb.
 [He cried to Yahweh].^a
¹⁷ And Yahweh thundered from heaven;
 With a mighty crash his voice was heard,
¹⁸ And he subdued the strong places of the enemy,
 And destroyed all the princes of the Philistines.
¹⁹ And at the time when he rested upon his bed,
 He called Yahweh and his anointed to witness:
 "From whom have I taken a bribe, or a pair of shoes?"
 And no man accused him.
 And also to the time of his end he was found upright
 In the eyes of Yahweh, and in the eyes of all living.
²⁰ And even after his death he was inquired of,
 And he declared to the king his fate;
 And he lifted his voice from the earth,
 To blot out the wickedness of the people.

47 And, furthermore, after him stood up Nathan,
 To stand in the presence of David;

² For as the fat is separated from the offering,
 So was David [separated] from Israel.

³ He played with lions as with young goats,
 And with bears as with calves of Bashan.

⁴ In his youth he slew the giant,
 And took away the reproach from the people;
 When he slung his hand with the sling,
 And broke the pride of Goliath.

⁵ For he called to God Most High.
 And he gave strength to his right hand,
 That it might strike down the man experienced in wars,
 And that he might lift up the horn of his people.

⁶ Therefore the daughters sang of him,

And honored him, [the slayer of] ten thousand.

When he had put on the diadem he fought,
⁷ And subdued the enemy round about,
 And he destroyed the cities of the Philistines,
 And broke in pieces their power to this day.

⁸ In all his doings he gave thanks
 To God Most High with words of glory;
 With his whole heart he loved his Maker,
 And sang praise every day continually.

⁹ Stringed instruments and song before the altar [he ordained],
 To make sweet melody with their music.

¹⁰ He gave comeliness to the feasts,
 And set in order the seasons to perfection,
 While they praised his holy name;
 Before morning it resounded from the sanctuary.

¹¹ Moreover, Yahweh put away his transgression,
 And lifted up his horn forever.
 And he gave him the decree of the kingdom,
 And established his throne over Israel.

¹² And for his sake there stood up after him
 A wise son dwelling in safety.

¹³ Solomon reigned in days of peace,
 And God gave him rest round about.
 He prepared a house for his name,
 And established a sanctuary forever.

¹⁴ How wise were you in your youth,
 And overflowed, like the Nile, with instruction;

¹⁵ You covered the earth with your soul,
 And gathered parables like the sea.

¹⁶ Your name reached to the isles afar off;
 And for your peace you were beloved.

¹⁷ By your songs, proverbs, parables,
 And answers to questions, you astonished the peoples.

¹⁸ You were called by the glorious name,
 Which is called over Israel.

You heaped up gold like tin,
 And multiplied silver like lead.

¹⁹ But you gave your loins to women,
 And caused them to rule over your body;

²⁰ Yes, you brought a blemish upon your honor,
 And defiled your bed,

So as to bring wrath upon your children,
 And sighing concerning your couch.

²¹ So the people became two scepters,
 And from Ephraim [arose] a sinful kingdom.

²² Nevertheless, God did not forsake his mercy,
 And will not let any of his words fall to the ground;

He will not cut off the posterity of his chosen,
 And the offspring of those who love him he will not destroy;
 And he gave to Jacob a remnant,
 And to the house of David a root from him.

²³ And Solomon slept in Jerusalem,
 And left after him one who was overbearing;
 Great in folly, and lacking in understanding

[Was] Rehoboam, he who by his counsel made the people revolt,

Until there arose, let there be no memorial of him,
 Jeroboam the son of Nebat,

Who sinned, and made Israel to sin;
 And he put a stumbling-block [before] Ephraim,

²⁴ To drive them from their land;

And their sin became very great,
 And they sold themselves to do all manner of evil.

^a A clause should be here but is not present in any of the versions. The above bracketed text is supplied from 1 Samuel 7:9.

48 Until there arose a prophet like fire,
 And his word was like a burning furnace.
² And he broke for them the staff of bread,
 And by his zeal he made them small in number.
³ By the word of God he shut up the heavens,
 Also fire came down three times.
⁴ How terrible were you, Elijah!
 And he who is like you will be glorified.
⁵ Who raised up a corpse from death,
 And from Sheol by the favor of Yahweh;
⁶ Who brought down kings to the Pit,
 And famous men from their beds [of sickness];
⁷ Who heard rebukes from Sinai,
 And from Horeb judgements of vengeance.
⁸ Who anointed kings for retribution,
 And a prophet to succeed in your place.
⁹ Who in the whirlwind was taken upwards,
 And with fiery troops to the heavens.
¹⁰ Who is written as ready for the time,
 To still wrath before the fierce anger of God,
 To turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,
 And to restore the tribes of Israel.
¹¹ Blessed are those who see you [at your return], and those who have fallen asleep in love;
 For we too will surely live.
¹² Elijah [it was] who was wrapped in a tempest,
 Then Elisha was filled with his spirit.
 In double measure he multiplied signs,
 And wonderful was all that went forth from his mouth.
 [During] his days he moved before none,
 And no flesh ruled over his spirit;
¹³ Nothing was too wonderful for him,
 And from his grave his flesh prophesied.
¹⁴ In his life he did wonderful acts,
 And in his death marvellous works.
¹⁵ For all this the people did not turn,
 And did not cease from their sins;
 Until they were plucked from their land,
 And were scattered in all the earth;
 And there were left in Judah but a few;
 Yet to the house of David was left a prince.
¹⁶ Some of them did that which was right,
 And some of them sinned more and more.
¹⁷ Hezekiah fortified his city
 By bringing water into the midst of it;
 And he hewed the rocks with iron,
 And dammed up the pool with mountains.
¹⁸ In his days Sennacherib came up,
 And sent Rabshakeh,
 Who stretched forth his hand against Zion,
 And blasphemed God in his pride.
¹⁹ Then were they shaken in the pride of their heart,
 And they were in anguish like a woman in travail;
²⁰ So they called to God Most High,
 And spread forth their hands to him,
 And he heard the voice of their prayer,
 And saved them by the hand of Isaiah.
²¹ And he smote the army of Assyria,
 And discomfited them by the plague.
²² For Hezekiah did that which was pleasing to the Lord,
 And was strong in the ways of David,
 Which Isaiah the prophet commanded,
 Who was great and faithful in his vision.
²³ In his days the sun went backward,
 And he added life to the king.
²⁴ By a spirit of might he saw the latter end,

And comforted the mourners of Zion.
²⁵ To eternity he declared the things that will be,
 And hidden things before they came to pass.
49 The name of Josiah is as sweet incense,
 That is well mixed, the work of the perfumer.
 The memorial of him is sweet in the palate like honey,
 And as music at a banquet of wine.
² For he was grieved at their backslidings,
 And caused the vain abominations to cease;
³ And he gave his heart wholly to God,
 And in days of violence he showed kindness.
⁴ Except David, Hezekiah,
 And Josiah, they all dealt corruptly,
 And forsook the law of the Most High,—
 The kings of Judah, until their end.
⁵ And their might was given to others,
 And their glory to a strange nation.
⁶ And so the Holy City was burned,
 And its ways were laid waste, by the hand of Jeremiah,
⁷ Because they persecuted him,
 And from the womb he was a prophet,
 "To pluck up, to break down, and to destroy,
 And likewise to build, and to plant," and to strengthen.
⁸ Ezekiel saw a vision,
 And declared the different beings of the chariot.
⁹ He also made mention of Job among the prophets,
 Who was complete in all the ways of righteousness.
¹⁰ And also the Twelve Prophets,
 May their bones sprout beneath them,
 Who made Jacob whole,
 And delivered him by confident hope.
¹¹ How shall we magnify Zerubbabel,
 He, indeed, was a signet on the right hand;
¹² And also Joshua, the son of Jehozadak,
 Who in their days built the House,
 And set up on high the Holy Temple,
 Which was prepared for everlasting glory.
¹³ Nehemiah, glorious is his memory.
 Who raised up our ruins,
 And healed our breaches,
 And set up gates and bars.
¹⁴ Few have been created on the earth like Enoch;
 He also was taken up from off the face of it.
¹⁵ Like Joseph was there ever a man born?
 His body was also visited.
¹⁶ Shem, and Seth, with Enoch were honored;
 But above every living thing was the glory of Adam.

Great among his brethren, and the glory of his people

50 Was Simeon, the son of Jochanan, the priest.
 In whose generation the house was renovated,
 And in whose days the temple was fortified;
² In whose generation a reservoir was dug,
 A water cistern like the sea in abundance.^a
³ In his days the wall was built,
 [With] turrets for strength like a king's palace.
⁴ He considered how [to protect] his people from ruin,
 And fortified his city against the enemy.
⁵ How glorious he was when he looked forth from the tent,
 And when he came out of the sanctuary.
⁶ Like a morning star from between the clouds,
 And like the full moon on the feast-days,

^a The order of verses 2 and 3 have been switched.

⁷ Like the sun shining upon the Temple of the King,
And like the bow appearing in the cloud;
⁸ Like blossoms on a branch in the days of first fruits,
And as a lily by the water brooks,
As the sprout of Lebanon in the days of summer,
⁹ And as the fire of incense in the censer;
Like a golden vessel beautifully wrought,
Adorned with all manner of precious stones;
¹⁰ Like a green olive tree full of berries,
And like a wild olive tree nourishing branches.

¹¹ When he put on his glorious robes,
And clothed himself in full splendor,
When he went up to the altar of majesty,
And made glorious the court of the sanctuary;
¹² When he took the portions from the hands of his brethren,
And he stood by the prepared wood,
Around him [was] the garland of his sons,
Like young cedar trees in Lebanon;
And like willows by the brook they surrounded him;
¹³ All the sons of Aaron in their glory,
And the offering by fire to Yahweh in their hand,
In the presence of all the congregations of Israel.
¹⁴ Until he had finished the service of the altar;
And setting in order the rows of wood for the Most High,
¹⁵ He stretched his hand to the cup,
And poured out the blood of the grape,
Yes, he poured it out at the foot of the altar,
A sweet-smelling savor to the Most High, the King of all.
¹⁶ Then the sons of Aaron sounded
With the trumpets of beaten work;
Yes, they sounded, and caused a mighty blast to be heard,
For a remembrance before the Most High.
¹⁷ [Then] all flesh made haste together,
And fell upon their faces to the earth,
To worship before the Most High,
Before the Holy One of Israel;
¹⁸ And the song then gave its voice,
And over the multitude they made sweet melody;
¹⁹ And all the people of the land cried
In prayer before him who is merciful,
Until he had finished the service of the altar,
And his ordinances had brought him near to him.
²⁰ Then he came down and lifted up his hands
Upon all the congregation of Israel,
And the blessing of Yahweh [was] upon his lips,
And in the name of Yahweh he glorified himself.
²¹ And a second time they fell down, [now] to receive
The pardon of God from him.

²² Now bless the God of all,
Who does wondrously on earth,
Who exalts man from the womb,
And does to him according to his good pleasure.
²³ May he grant to you wisdom of heart,
And may there be peace among you.
²⁴ May his mercy be established with Simeon,
And may he raise up for him the covenant of Phinehas;
May there not be one cut off from him,
And as to his seed [may it be] as the days of heaven.

²⁵ Against two nations does my soul feel abhorrence,
And [against] a third, [which is] not a people:
²⁶ The inhabitants of Seir, and Philistia,
And that foolish nation which dwells in Shechem.
²⁷ Wise instruction and apt proverbs
Of Simeon, the son of Jeshua, the son of Eleazar, the son of Sira,
Which he declared in the explanation of his heart,

And which he taught with his understanding.
²⁸ Blessed is the man who meditates on these things;
And he who lays them up in his heart will become wise.
²⁹ For if he does them, he will be strong for all things,
For the fear of Yahweh is life.

51 I will thank you,
Yahweh, O King,
I will praise you,
O God of my salvation;
I will declare your name,
You are the strength of my life;
² For you have redeemed my soul from death,
You have kept back my flesh from the Pit,
And have delivered my feet from the hand of Sheol.
You preserved me from the slander of the people, from the scourge of a slanderous tongue,
And from the lips of those who turn aside to lying,
You were with me in the presence of those who rose up
against me.
³ You helped me, according to the abundance of your mercy,
Out of the snare of those watching for my downfall,
And from the hand of those who seek my soul;
Out of many troubles you have saved me,
⁴ And from the straits of the flame [round about me],
From the midst of the fire that I did not kindle,
⁵ From the deep of the belly of Sheol,
From wickedly devising lips,
And from those who plaster falsehood,
⁶ And [from] the arrows of a deceitful tongue.
My soul drew near to death,
And my life to the nethermost Sheol;
⁷ And I turned about on every side, and there was none who helped me;
Yes, I looked for one to uphold, but there was none.
⁸ Then I remembered the lovingkindnesses of Yahweh,
And his mercies which have been from of old;
He delivers those who put their trust in him,
And redeems them from all evil.
⁹ And I lifted up my voice from the earth,
And from the gates of Sheol I cried;
¹⁰ Yes, I cried: "Yahweh, you are my Father,
My God, and the strength of my salvation,
Do not forsake me in the day of trouble,
In the day of wasteness and desolation.
¹¹ I will praise your name continually,
And will remember you in prayer."
Then Yahweh heard my voice,
And gave ear to my supplication.
¹² And he redeemed from all evil,
And delivered me in the day of trouble;
Therefore will I give thanks [to him] and praise [him],
And I will bless the name of Yahweh:

- i. Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
For his mercy endures forever.
- ii. Give thanks to the God of praises,
For his mercy endures forever.
- iii. Give thanks to the Keeper of Israel,
For his mercy endures forever.
- iv. Give thanks to the Framer of all,
For his mercy endures forever.
- v. Give thanks to the Redeemer of Israel,
For his mercy endures forever.
- vi. Give thanks to him who gathers the outcasts of Israel,
For his mercy endures forever.
- vii. Give thanks to him who builds his City and his Sanctuary,
For his mercy endures forever.
- viii. Give thanks to him who causes a horn to sprout for the house of David,

For his mercy endures forever.
ix. Give thanks to him who chooses the sons of Zadok for priests,

For his mercy endures forever.
x. Give thanks to the Shield of Abraham,
For his mercy endures forever.
xi. Give thanks to the Rock of Isaac,
For his mercy endures forever.
xii. Give thanks to the Mighty One of Jacob,
For his mercy endures forever.
xiii. Give thanks to him who chooses Zion,
For his mercy endures forever.
xiv. Give thanks to the King of the kings of kings,
For his mercy endures forever.
xv. And he has exalted the horn of his people,
The praise of all his pious ones,
xvi. For the children of Israel, a people near to him; Hallelujah.

¹³ I was a youth
When I desired her and sought her out.
¹⁴ In my youth I made supplication and prayer,
And I will seek her out even to the end.
¹⁵ She blossomed like a ripening grape,
My heart rejoiced in her;
My foot trod in her footstep;
From my youth I learned wisdom.
¹⁶ I bowed down my ear a little and received her,
And I found much knowledge.
¹⁷ And her yoke was a glory to me;
And to my teacher I offer thanks.
¹⁸ I purposed to do good with her,
And I will not turn back, for I will find her.
¹⁹ My soul was attached to her,
And I did not turn my face away from her.
I spread forth my hands to the heaven above,
And forever and ever I will not swerve from her.
My hand opened her gates,
And to her I entered, and looked upon her.
²⁰ I directed my soul after her,
And in her purity I found her;
I obtained understanding through her guidance,
Therefore I will not be forsaken.
²¹ My inward parts were troubled like an oven [yearning] to look upon her,
Therefore I have obtained her as a good possession.
²² Yahweh gave me the reward of my lips,
And with my tongue I praise him.
²³ Turn in to me, you⁺ unlearned,
And lodge in my house of instruction.
²⁴ How long will you⁺ lack these things,
And your soul be very thirsty?
²⁵ I open my mouth and speak of her,
Get wisdom for yourselves without money.
²⁶ Bring your necks under her yoke,
And let your soul bear her burden;
She is near to those who seek her,
And he who yearns [for her] finds her.
²⁷ See with your eyes that but a short time I labored for her,
And found abundance of peace.
²⁸ Harken to my teaching in [however small] a number,
And will you⁺ acquire much silver and gold by it.
²⁹ May my soul delight in my Yeshibah,
And you⁺ will not be ashamed to sing my praise.
³⁰ Work your work before the time,
And he will give you your reward in its time.

Blessed be Yahweh, and praised be his name to generations. Thus far the words of Simeon, the son of Jeshua, who is called Ben-Sira. The Wisdom of Simeon, the son of Jeshua, the son of Eleazar, the son of Sira. May the name of Yahweh be blessed from now even to eternity.

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

² Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for Yahweh has spoken: I have nourished and brought up sons, and they have rebelled against me. ³ The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; [but] Israel does not know, my people do not consider. ⁴ Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, sons who deal corruptly! They have forsaken Yahweh, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are estranged backward. ⁵ Why will you⁺ be still stricken, that you⁺ revolt more and more? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. ⁶ From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it; [but] wounds, and bruises, and fresh stripes: they haven't been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with oil. ⁷ Your⁺ country is desolate; your⁺ cities are burned with fire; your⁺ land, strangers devour it in your⁺ presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. ⁸ And the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. ⁹ Except Yahweh of hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, we should have been like Gomorrah.

¹⁰ Hear the word of Yahweh, you⁺ rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God, you⁺ people of Gomorrah. ¹¹ What to me is the multitude of your⁺ sacrifices? says Yahweh: I have had enough of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I do not delight in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats. ¹² When you⁺ come to see my face,^a who has required this at your⁺ hand, to trample my courts? ¹³ Bring no more vain oblations; incense is disgusting to me; new moon and Sabbath, the calling of assemblies—I can't endure evil and the solemn meeting. ¹⁴ Your⁺ new moons and your⁺ appointed feasts my soul hates; they are a trouble to me; I am weary of bearing them. ¹⁵ And when you⁺ spread forth your⁺ hands, I will hide my eyes from you⁺; yes, when you⁺ make many prayers, I will not hear: your⁺ hands are full of blood. ¹⁶ Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your⁺ doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil; ¹⁷ learn to do well; seek justice, correct oppression, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

¹⁸ Come now, and let us reason together, says Yahweh: though your⁺ sins be as scarlet, they will be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they will be as wool. ¹⁹ If you⁺ are willing and obedient, you⁺ will eat the good of the land: ²⁰ but if you⁺ refuse and rebel, you⁺ will be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

²¹ How has the faithful city become a prostitute! She that was full of justice! Righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers.

²² Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.

²³ Your princes are rebellious, and partners of thieves; everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards: they do not judge the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them.

²⁴ Therefore says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease myself of my adversaries, and avenge myself of my enemies; ²⁵ and I will turn my hand on you, and thoroughly purge away your dross, and will take away all your tin; ²⁶ and I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning: afterward you will be called The city of righteousness, a faithful town. ²⁷ Zion will be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness. ²⁸ But the destruction of transgressors and sinners will be together, and those who forsake Yahweh will be consumed. ²⁹ For they will be ashamed of the oaks which you⁺ have desired, and you⁺ will be confounded for the gardens that you⁺ have chosen. ³⁰ For you⁺ will be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water. ³¹ And the strong will be as flax, and his work as a spark; and they will both burn together, and none will quench them.

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. ² And it will come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of Yahweh's house will be established on the top of the mountains, and will be exalted above the hills; and all nations will flow to it. ³ And many peoples will go and say, Come⁺, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion will go forth the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem. ⁴ And he will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.

⁵ O house of Jacob, come⁺, and let us walk in the light of Yahweh. ⁶ For you have forsaken your people the house of Jacob, because they are filled [with customs] from the east, and [are] omen interpreters like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of foreigners. ⁷ And their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. ⁸ Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. ⁹ And man is bowed down, and a man is brought low: therefore don't forgive them. ¹⁰ Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the majesty of his splendor. ¹¹ The lofty looks of man will be brought low, and the haughtiness of men will be bowed down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted in that day.

¹² For there will be a day of Yahweh of hosts on all that is proud and haughty, and on all that is lifted up; and it will be brought low; ¹³ and on all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and on all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴ and on all the high mountains, and on all the hills that are lifted up, ¹⁵ and on every lofty tower, and on every fortified wall, ¹⁶ and on all the ships of Tarshish, and on all pleasant imagery. ¹⁷ And the loftiness of man will be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men will be brought low; and Yahweh alone will be exalted in that day. ¹⁸ And the idols will completely pass away. ¹⁹ And men will go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the majesty of his splendor, when he rises to mightily shake the earth. ²⁰ In that day man will cast away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold, which have been made for them to worship, to the moles and to the bats; ²¹ to go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the majesty of his splendor, when he rises to mightily shake the earth. ²² Cease yourselves from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for what is he to be accounted of?

3 For, look, the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and means of support, the whole support of bread, and the whole support of water; ² the mighty man, and the man of war; the judge, and the prophet, and the fortune-teller, and the elder; ³ the captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counselor, and the expert artificer, and the expert charmer. ⁴ And I will give children to be their princes, and babes will rule over them. ⁵ And the people will be oppressed, man against man, and a man by his fellow man: the child will behave himself proudly against the old man, and the base against the honorable. ⁶ When a man will take hold of his brother in the house of his father, [saying,] You have clothing, be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand; ⁷ in that day he will lift up [his voice], saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: you⁺ will not make me ruler of the people. ⁸ For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Yahweh, to provoke the eyes of his glory. ⁹ The expression of their face witnesses against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they do not hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have done evil to themselves. ¹⁰ Say⁺ of the righteous, that [it will be] well [with him]; for they will eat the fruit of their doings. ¹¹ Woe to the wicked! [It will be] ill [with him]; for what his hands have done will be done to him. ¹² As for my people, children are their oppressors, and creditors rule over them. O my people, those who lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.^a

¹³ Yahweh stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples. ¹⁴ Yahweh will enter into judgment with the elders of his people, and its princes: It is you⁺ who have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your⁺ houses: ¹⁵ what do you⁺ mean that you⁺ crush my people, and grind the face of the poor? says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts.

² In that day the branch of Yahweh will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be excellent and comely for those who have escaped of Israel. ³ And it will come to pass, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, will be called holy, even everyone who is written to life in Jerusalem; ⁴ when the Lord will have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst of it, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. ⁵ And Yahweh will create over the whole habitation of mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory [will be spread] a covering. ⁶ And there will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from storm and from rain.

5 Let me sing for my wellbeloved a song of my beloved concerning his vineyard. My wellbeloved had a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: ² and he dug it, and gathered out its stones, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also hewed out a wine press in it: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth bad [grapes].

³ And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you⁺, between me and my vineyard. ⁴ What more could have been done to my vineyard, that I haven't done in it? Why, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, did it bring forth bad [grapes]? ⁵ And now I will tell you⁺ what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up; I will break down its wall, and it will be trodden down: ⁶ and I will lay it waste; it will not be pruned nor hoed; but there will come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it. ⁷ For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for justice, but, look, oppression; for righteousness, but, look, a cry.

⁸ Woe to those who join house to house, who lay field to field, until there is no room, and you⁺ are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land! ⁹ Yahweh of hosts [revealed] in my ears,^a Of a truth many houses will be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. ¹⁰ For ten acres of vineyard will yield one bath, and a homer of seed will yield [but] an ephah. ¹¹ Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; who tarry late into the night, until wine inflames them! ¹² And the harp and the lute, the tabret and the pipe, and wine, are [in] their feasts; but they do not regard the work of Yahweh, neither have they considered the operation of his hands.

¹³ Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of knowledge; and their honorable men are famished, and their multitude are parched with thirst. ¹⁴ Therefore Sheol has enlarged its soul, and opened its mouth without measure; and their majesty, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he who rejoices among them, descend [into it]. ¹⁵ And man is bowed down, and a man is humbled, and the eyes of the lofty are humbled: ¹⁶ but Yahweh of hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness. ¹⁷ Then the lambs will be shepherded as in their pasture, and wanderers will eat the waste places of the fat ones.

¹⁸ Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and sin as it were with a cart rope; ¹⁹ who say, Let him make speed, let him hurry his work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it! ²⁰ Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! ²¹ Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! ²² Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink; ²³ who justify the wicked for a bribe, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

²⁴ Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom will go up as dust; because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. ²⁵ Therefore is the anger of Yahweh kindled against his people, and he has stretched forth his hand against them, and has struck them; and the mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

²⁶ And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss for them from the end of the earth; and, look, they will come with speed swiftly. ²⁷ None will be weary nor stumble among them; none will slumber nor sleep; neither will the loincloth of their loins be loosed, nor the strap of their sandals be broken: ²⁸ whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs will be accounted as flint, and their wheels as a whirlwind: ²⁹ their roaring will be like a lioness, they will roar like young lions; yes, they will roar, and lay hold of the prey, and carry it away safe, and there will be none to deliver. ³⁰ And they will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea: and if one looks to the land, look, darkness [and] distress; and the light is darkened in its clouds.

6 In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. ² Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³ And one cried to another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. ⁴ And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who cried, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵ Then I said, Woe is me! For I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh of hosts.

⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live charcoal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: ⁷ and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Look, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven. ⁸ And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here I am; send me. ⁹ And he said, Go, and tell this people, You⁺ indeed hear, but don't understand; and you⁺ indeed see, but don't perceive. ¹⁰ Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; or else they will see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed. ¹¹ Then I said, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until cities are waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land becomes completely waste, ¹² and Yahweh has removed man far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land. ¹³ And if there is yet a tenth in it, it also will in turn be eaten up: as a terebinth or as an oak whose stump remains when it is felled; so the holy seed is its stump.

7 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. ² And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.

³ Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shear-jashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field; ⁴ and say to him,

Take heed, and be quiet; don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint, because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.⁵ Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have purposed evil against you, saying, ⁶ Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach in it for us, and set up a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeel; ⁷ thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, It will not stand, neither will it come to pass.⁸ For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years will Ephraim be broken in pieces, so that it will not be a people: ⁹ and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you⁺ will not believe, surely you⁺ will not be established.

¹⁰ And Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz, saying, ¹¹ Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. ¹² But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I try Yahweh. ¹³ And he said, Hear⁺ now, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you⁺ to weary men, that you⁺ will weary my God also? ¹⁴ Therefore the Lord himself will give you⁺ a sign: look, the young woman^a will be pregnant, and give birth to a son, and will call his name Immanuel.^b ¹⁵ Butter and honey he will eat, when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good. ¹⁶ For before the child will know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor will be forsaken. ¹⁷ Yahweh will bring on you, and on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah—[even] the king of Assyria. ¹⁸ And it will come to pass in that day, that Yahweh will hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹ And they will come, and will rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all thorn-hedges, and on all pastures. ²⁰ In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, [even] with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it will also consume the beard.

²¹ And it will come to pass in that day, that a man will keep alive a young cow, and two sheep; ²² and it will come to pass, that because of the abundance of milk which they will give he will eat butter: for butter and honey will every one eat who is left in the midst of the land.

²³ And it will come to pass in that day, that every place, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand [shekels] of silver, will be for briers and thorns. ²⁴ With arrows and with bow will one come there, because all the land will be briers and thorns. ²⁵ And all the hills that were dug with the mattock, you will not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it will be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep.

8 And Yahweh said to me, Take for yourself a great tablet, and write on it with the pen of common man, For Maher-shalal-hash-baz; ² and I will take to me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. ³ And I went to the prophetess; and she became pregnant, and gave birth to a son. Then Yahweh said to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz. ⁴ For before the child will have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria.

⁵ And Yahweh spoke to me yet again, saying, ⁶ Since this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; ⁷ now therefore, look, the Lord brings up on them the waters of the River, strong and many, [even] the king of Assyria and all his glory: and it will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks; ⁸ and it will sweep onward into Judah; it will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the width of your land, O Immanuel.

⁹ Make an uproar, O you⁺ peoples, and be broken in pieces; and give ear, all you⁺ of far countries: gird yourselves, and be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and be broken in pieces. ¹⁰ Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us.^c ¹¹ For Yahweh spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and he turned me away [so as] not to walk in the way of this people, saying, ¹² Don't say⁺, A conspiracy, concerning all of which this people will say, A conspiracy; neither be⁺ afraid of their fear, nor be in dread [of it]. ¹³ Yahweh of hosts, you⁺ will sanctify him; and let him be your⁺ fear, and let him be your⁺ dread. ¹⁴ And he will be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a trap and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁵ And many will stumble on it, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

¹⁶ Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. ¹⁷ And I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. ¹⁸ Look, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of hosts, who stays in mount Zion.

¹⁹ And when they will say to you⁺, Seek to the spiritists and to the wizards, who chirp and who mutter: should not a people seek to their God? On behalf of the living [should they seek] to the dead? ²⁰ To the law and to the testimony! If they don't speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. ²¹ And they will pass through it, very distressed and hungry; and it will come to pass that, when they will be hungry, they will fret themselves, and curse by their king and by their God, and turn their faces upward: ²² and they will look to the earth, and see distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and into thick darkness [they will be] driven away.

9 But there will be no gloom to her that was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. ² The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light: those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, on them light has shined. ³ You have multiplied the nation, you have increased their joy: they joy before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. ⁴ For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian. ⁵ For all the armor of the armed man in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, for fuel of fire. ⁶ For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulder: and his name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷ Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from now on even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will perform this.

⁸ The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it has fallen on Israel. ⁹ And all the people will know, [even] Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, who say in pride and in stoutness of heart, ¹⁰ The bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stone; the sycamores are cut down, but we will put cedars in their place. ¹¹ Therefore Yahweh will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, ¹² the Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

¹³ Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought Yahweh of hosts. ¹⁴ Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm-branch and rush, in one day. ¹⁵ The elder and the honorable man, he is the head; and the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail. ¹⁶ For those who lead this people cause them to err; and those who are led of them are destroyed. ¹⁷ Therefore the Lord will not show mercy over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for everyone is profane and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

¹⁸ For wickedness burns as the fire; it devours the briers and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke. ¹⁹ Through the wrath of Yahweh of hosts is the land darkened;^a and the people are as the fuel of fire: no man spares his brother. ²⁰ And one will snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied: they will eat every man the flesh of his own arm: ²¹ Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together will be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

10 Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write perverseness; ² to turn aside the needy from justice, and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! ³ And what will you⁺ do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you⁺ flee for help? And where will you⁺ leave your⁺ glory? ⁴ They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

⁵ Ho Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! ⁶ I will send him against a godless nation, and against the people of my wrath I will give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. ⁷ Nevertheless he does not mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. ⁸ For he says, Are not my princes all of them kings? ⁹ Isn't Calno as Carchemish? Isn't Hamath as Arpad? Isn't Samaria as Damascus? ¹⁰ As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose graven images excelled those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; ¹¹ shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

¹² Therefore it will come to pass, that, when the Lord has performed his whole work on mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. ¹³ For he has said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding; and I have removed the bounds of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures, and like a valiant man I have brought down those who sit [on thrones]: ¹⁴ and my hand has found as a nest the riches of the peoples; and as one gathers eggs that are forsaken, I have gathered all the earth: and there was none that moved the wing, or that opened the mouth, or chirped.

¹⁵ Will the ax boast itself against him who cuts with it? Will the saw magnify itself against him who wields it? As if a rod should wield those who lift it up, [or] as if a staff should lift up [him who is] not wood. ¹⁶ Therefore will the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory there will be kindled a burning like the burning of fire. ¹⁷ And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day. ¹⁸ And he will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and it will be as when a standard-bearer faints. ¹⁹ And the remnant of the trees of his forest will be few, so that a child may write them.

²⁰ And it will come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped of the house of Jacob, will no more again lean on him who struck them, but will lean on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. ²¹ A remnant will return, [even] the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. ²² For though your people, Israel, are as the sand of the sea, [only] a remnant of them will return: a destruction [is] determined, overflowing with righteousness. ²³ For a full end, and that determined, will the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, make in the midst of all the earth.

²⁴ Therefore thus says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, O my people who dwell in Zion, don't be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strikes you with the rod, and lifts up his staff against you, after the manner of Egypt. ²⁵ For yet a very little while, and the indignation [against you] will be accomplished, and my anger [will be directed] to his destruction. ²⁶ And Yahweh of hosts will stir up against him a scourge, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and his rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up after the manner of Egypt. ²⁷ And it will come to pass in that day, that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed by reason of fatness.

³³ Look, the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, will lop the boughs with terror: and the high of stature will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. ³⁴ And he will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by a majestic one.

11 And there will come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit. ² And the Spirit of Yahweh will rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh. ³ And his delight will be in the fear of Yahweh; and he will not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither decide after the hearing of his ears; ⁴ but with righteousness he will judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked. ⁵ And righteousness will be the loincloth of his waist, and faithfulness the loincloth of his loins.

⁶ And the wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat; and the calf and the young lion will grow fat together; and a little child will lead them. ⁷ And the cow and the bear will be shepherded; their young ones will lie down together; and the lion will eat straw like the ox. ⁸ And the nursing child will play on the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child will put his hand on the adder's den. ⁹ They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰ And it will come to pass in that day, that the root of Jesse, who stands for an ensign of the peoples, to him will the nations seek; and his resting-place will be glorious.

¹¹ And it will come to pass in that day, that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, who will remain, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. ¹² And he will set up an ensign for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. ¹³ The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who vex Judah will be cut off: Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will not vex Ephraim. ¹⁴ And they will fly down on the shoulder of the Philistines on the west; together they will despoil the sons of the east: they will put forth their hand on Edom and Moab; and the sons of Ammon will obey them. ¹⁵ And Yahweh will completely destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will strike it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals. ¹⁶ And there will be a highway for the remnant of his people, who will remain, from Assyria; like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

12 And in that day you will say, I will give thanks to you, O Yahweh; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me. ² Look, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yah, Yahweh, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation. ³ Therefore with joy you^a will draw water out of the wells of salvation. ⁴ And in that day you^a will say, Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name, declare his doings among the peoples, make mention that his name is exalted. ⁵ Sing to Yahweh; for he has done excellent things: let this be known in all the earth. ⁶ Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for great in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.

13 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw. ² Set^a up an ensign on the bare mountain, lift up the voice to them, wave the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. ³ I have commanded my consecrated ones, yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. ⁴ The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people! The noise of a tumult of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yahweh of hosts is mustering the host for the battle. ⁵ They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yahweh, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

⁶ Wail^a; for the day of Yahweh is at hand; as destruction from the Almighty it will come. ⁷ Therefore all hands will be feeble, and every heart of common man will melt: ⁸ and they will be dismayed; pangs and sorrows will take hold [of them]; they will be in pain as a woman in travail: they will look in amazement one at another; their faces [will be] faces of flame. ⁹ Look, the day of Yahweh comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. ¹⁰ For the stars of heaven and its constellations will not give their light; the sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. ¹¹ And I will punish the world for [its] evil, and the wicked for their iniquity: and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. ¹² I will make common man^a more rare than fine gold, even man more than the pure gold of Ophir. ¹³ Therefore I will make the heavens to tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, in the wrath of Yahweh of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. ¹⁴ And it will come to pass, that as the chased roe, and as sheep that no man gathers, they will turn every man to his own people, and will flee every man to his own land. ¹⁵ Everyone who is found will be thrust through; and everyone who is taken will fall by the sword. ¹⁶ Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses will be rifled, and their wives raped.

¹⁷ Look, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not regard silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. ¹⁸ And [their] bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye will not spare sons. ¹⁹ And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. ²⁰ It will never be inhabited, neither will it be stayed in from generation to generation: neither will the Arabian pitch tent there; neither will shepherds make their flocks to lie down there. ²¹ But wild beasts of the desert will lie there; and their houses will be full of doleful creatures; and ostriches will stay there, and wild goats will dance there. ²² And wolves will cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14 For Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the sojourner will join himself with them, and they will be united to the house of Jacob. ² And the peoples will take them, and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel will possess them in the land of Yahweh for male slaves and for female slaves: and they will take them captive whose captives they were; and they will rule over their oppressors.

³ And it will come to pass in the day that Yahweh will give you rest from your sorrow, and from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, ⁴ that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, How has the oppressor ceased! The arrogance has ceased! ⁵ Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers; ⁶ that struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, that ruled the nations in anger with a persecution that none restrained. ⁷ The whole earth is at rest, [and] is quiet: they break forth into singing. ⁸ Yes, the fir-trees rejoice at you, [and] the cedars of Lebanon, [saying,] Since you are laid low, no hewer has come up against us. ⁹ Sheol from beneath is moved for you to meet you at your coming; it stirs up the spirits of the dead for you, even all the chief ones of the earth; it has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. ¹⁰ They will all answer and say to you, Have you also become weak as we? Have you become like us? ¹¹ Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, [and] the noise of your viols: the maggot is spread under you, and the worm covers you.

¹² How you have fallen from heaven, O day-star, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid low the nations! ¹³ And you said in your heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; and I will sit on the mount of congregation, in the uttermost parts of the north; ¹⁴ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High. ¹⁵ Yet you will be brought down to Sheol, to the uttermost parts of the pit. ¹⁶ Those who see you will gaze at you, they will consider you, [saying,] Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; ¹⁷ who made the world as a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who did not let loose his prisoners to their home? ¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, all of them, sleep in glory, every one in his own house. ¹⁹ But you are cast forth away from your tomb like a disgusting branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; as a dead body trodden under foot. ²⁰ You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, you have slain your people; the seed of evildoers will not be named forever.

²¹ Prepare^a slaughter for his sons for the iniquity of their fathers, that they do not rise up, and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities. ²² And I will rise up against them, says Yahweh of hosts, and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son, says Yahweh. ²³ I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, says Yahweh of hosts.

²⁴ Yahweh of hosts has sworn, saying, Surely, as I have thought, so it will come to pass; and as I have purposed, so it will stand: ²⁵ that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains tread him under foot: then will his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulder. ²⁶ This is the purpose that is purposed on the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out on all the nations. ²⁷ For Yahweh of hosts has purposed, and who will annul it? And his hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

²⁸ In the year that King Ahaz died was this burden. ²⁹ Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root will come forth an adder, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent.^a ³⁰ And the firstborn of the poor will be shepherd, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and he will slay your remnant. ³¹ Howl, O gate; cry, O city; you are melted away, O Philistia, all of you; for there comes a smoke out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks.

³² What then will one answer the messengers of the nation? That Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her will the afflicted of his people take refuge.

15 The burden of Moab. For in a night Ar of Moab is laid waste, [and] brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, [and] brought to nothing. ² Ha-Bayith went up, and Dibon, to the high places to weep: Moab wails over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their heads is baldness, every beard is cut off. ³ In their streets they gird themselves with sackcloth; on their housetops, and in their broad places, every one wails, weeping abundantly. ⁴ And Heshbon cries out, and Elealeh; their voice is heard even to Jahaz: therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembles inside him. ⁵ My heart cries out for Moab; her nobles [flee] to Zoar, to Eglath-shelishi-yah: for by the ascent of Luhith with weeping they go up; for in the way of Horonaim they raise up a cry of destruction. ⁶ For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass is withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. ⁷ Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, they will carry away over the brook of the willows. ⁸ For the cry has gone round about the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer-elim. ⁹ For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

16 Send^a the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion. ² For it will be that, as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. ³ Give counsel, execute justice; make your shade as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; don't betray the fugitive. ⁴ Let my outcasts dwell with you; as for Moab, be a covert to him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nothing, destruction ceases, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. ⁵ And a throne will be established in loving-kindness; and one will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, and seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.

⁶ We have heard of the pride of Moab, [that] he is very proud; even of his arrogance, and his pride, and his wrath; his boastings are nothing. ⁷ Therefore Moab will wail for Moab, everyone will wail: for the raisin-cakes of Kir-hareseth you^a will mourn, completely stricken. ⁸ For the fields of Heshbon languish, [and] the vine of Sibmah; the lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness; its shoots were spread abroad, they passed over the sea. ⁹ Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah; I will soak you with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the [battle] shout is fallen. ¹⁰ And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise: no treader will tread out wine in the presses; I have made the [vintage] shout to cease. ¹¹ Therefore my insides sound like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-heres. ¹² And it will come to pass, when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and will come to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail.

¹³ This is the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab in time past. ¹⁴ But now Yahweh has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and of no account.

17 The burden of Damascus. Look, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. ² The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they will be for flocks, which will lie down, and none will make them afraid. ³ And the fortress will cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria; they will be as the glory of the sons of Israel, says Yahweh of hosts.

⁴ And it will come to pass in that day, that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will wax lean. ⁵ And it will be as when one gathers the harvest of standing grain, and his arm reaps the ears; yes, it will be as when one gleanes ears in the valley of Rephaim. ⁶ Yet there will be left in it gleanings, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree, says Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁷ In that day man will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect to the Holy One of Israel. ⁸ And they will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither will they have respect to that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the sun-images. ⁹ In that day their strong cities will be as the forsaken places in the forest and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the sons of Israel; and it will be a desolation. ¹⁰ For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and haven't been mindful of the rock of your strength; therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set it with strange slips. ¹¹ In the day of your planting you hedge it in, and in the morning you make your seed to blossom; but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

¹² Ah, the uproar of many peoples, that roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! ¹³ The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. ¹⁴ At evening, look, terror; [and] before the morning they are not. This is the portion of those who despoil us, and the lot of those who rob us.

18 Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; ² that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, [saying,] Go, you* swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that metes out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide! ³ All you* inhabitants of the world, and you* who stay on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see*; and when the trumpet is blown, hear*.

⁴ For thus has Yahweh said to me, I will be still, and I will behold in my dwelling-place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. ⁵ For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and the spreading branches he will take away [and] cut down. ⁶ They will be left together to the ravenous birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth; and the ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the beasts of the earth will winter on them. ⁷ In that time will a present be brought to Yahweh of hosts from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that metes out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of hosts, the mount Zion.

19 The burden of Egypt. Look, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt: and the idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt in the midst of it. ² And I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they will fight a man against his brother, and a man against his fellow man; city against city, [and] kingdom against kingdom. ³ And the spirit of Egypt will fail in the midst of it; and I will destroy its counsel: and they will seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to the spiritists, and to the wizards. ⁴ And I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king will rule over them, says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts.

⁵ And the waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. ⁶ And the rivers will become foul; the streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up; the reeds and flags will wither away. ⁷ The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. ⁸ And the fishers will lament, and all those who cast angle into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. ⁹ Moreover those who work in combed flax will be confounded, and the weavers will grow pale. ¹⁰ And the weavers will be broken in pieces; all those who work for wages [will be] grieved in soul.

¹¹ The princes of Zoan are completely foolish; the counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become brutish: how do you* say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? ¹² Where then are your wise men? And let them tell you now if they know what Yahweh of hosts has purposed concerning Egypt. ¹³ The princes of Zoan have become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived; they have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes. ¹⁴ Yahweh has mingled a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in every work of her, as a drunk man staggers in his vomit. ¹⁵ Neither will there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm-branch or rush, may do.

¹⁶ In that day the Egyptians will be like women; and they will tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of Yahweh of hosts, which he shakes over them. ¹⁷ And the land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt; everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the purpose of Yahweh of hosts, which he purposes against it.

¹⁸ In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Yahweh of hosts; one will be called The City of the Sun.

¹⁹ In that day there will be an altar to Yahweh in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at its border to Yahweh. ²⁰ And it will be for a sign and for a witness to Yahweh of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior, and a defender, and he will deliver them. ²¹ And Yahweh will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know Yahweh in that day; yes, they will worship with sacrifice and oblation, and will vow a vow to Yahweh, and will perform it. ²² And Yahweh will strike Egypt, striking and healing; and they will return to Yahweh, and he will be entreated of them, and will heal them.

²³ In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

²⁴ In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; ²⁵ for Yahweh of hosts has blessed them, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance.

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; ² at that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off your loins, and put your sandal from off your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³ And Yahweh said, Like my slave Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia; ⁴ so will the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵ And they will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. ⁶ And the inhabitant of this coast-land will say in that day, Look, such is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and we, how shall we escape?

21 The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from a terrible land. ² A grievous vision is declared to me; the betrayer betrays, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all her sighing I have made to cease. ³ Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pangs have taken hold on me, as the pangs of a woman in travail: I am pained so that I can't hear; I am dismayed so that I can't see. ⁴ My heart flutters, horror has frightened me; the twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling to me. ⁵ They prepare the table, they set the watch, they eat, they drink: rise up, you* princes, anoint the shield. ⁶ For thus has the Lord said to me, Go, set a watchman: let him declare what he sees: ⁷ and when he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he will listen diligently with much heed. ⁸ And he cried as a lion: O Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and am set in my ward whole nights; ⁹ and, look, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs. And he answered and said, Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the graven images of her gods are broken to the ground.

¹⁰ O you my threshing, and the grain of my floor! That which I have heard from Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you⁺.

¹¹ The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

¹² The watchman said, The morning comes, and also the night: if you⁺ will inquire, inquire⁺: turn⁺, come⁺.

¹³ The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you⁺ will lodge, O you⁺ caravans of Dedanites. ¹⁴ To him who was thirsty they brought water; the inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. ¹⁵ For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. ¹⁶ For thus has the Lord said to me, Within a year, according to the years of a hired worker, all the glory of Kedar will fail; ¹⁷ and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the sons of Kedar, will be few; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken it.

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you are wholly gone up to the housetops? ² O you who are full of shoutings, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. ³ All your rulers fled away together, they were bound by the archers; all who were found of you were bound together; they fled far off. ⁴ Therefore I said, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly; don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

⁵ For it is a day of discomfiture, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains. ⁶ And Elam bore the quiver, with chariots of man [and] horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. ⁷ And it came to pass, that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. ⁸ And he took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. ⁹ And you⁺ saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many; and you⁺ gathered together the waters of the lower pool; ¹⁰ and you⁺ numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you⁺ broke down the houses to fortify the wall; ¹¹ you⁺ also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you⁺ didn't look to him who had done this, neither had you⁺ respect to him who purposed it long ago.

¹² And in that day the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth: ¹³ but saw joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die. ¹⁴ And Yahweh of hosts revealed himself in my ears, Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you⁺ until you⁺ die, says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁵ Thus says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, [and say],

¹⁶ What do you have here? And whom do you have here, that you have hewed yourself out here a tomb? Hewing himself out a tomb on high, graving a habitation for himself in the rock!

¹⁷ Look, Yahweh will hurl you away violently, O [prominent] man, and he will wrap you up closely. ¹⁸ He will surely wind you round and round, [and toss you] like a ball into a large country; there you will die, and there will be the chariots of your glory, you shame of your lord's house. ¹⁹ And I will thrust you from your office; and from your station he^a will pull you down. ²⁰ And it will come to pass in that day, that I will call my slave Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: ²¹ and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt, and I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. ²² And the key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; and he will open, and none will shut; and he will shut, and none will open. ²³ And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he will be for a throne of glory to his father's house. ²⁴ And they will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the flagons. ²⁵ In that day, says Yahweh of hosts, will the nail that was fastened in a sure place give way; and it will be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was on it will be cut off; for Yahweh has spoken it.

23 The burden of Tyre. Howl, you⁺ ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no access: from the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. ² Be still, you⁺ inhabitants of the coast, O merchants of Sidon, your messengers passed over the sea. ³ And on great waters the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue; and she was the mart of nations. ⁴ Be ashamed, O Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, I haven't traveled, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins. ⁵ When the report comes to Egypt, they will be very pained at the report of Tyre. ⁶ Pass⁺ over to Tarshish; wail, you⁺ inhabitants of the coast. ⁷ Is this your⁺ joyous [city], whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far off to sojourn?

⁸ Who has purposed this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? ⁹ Yahweh of hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. ¹⁰ Pass through your land as the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no restraint anymore. ¹¹ He has stretched out his hand over the sea, he has shaken the kingdoms: Yahweh has given commandment concerning Canaan, to destroy its strongholds. ¹² And he said, You will no more rejoice, O you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon: arise, pass over to Kittim; even there you will have no rest.

¹³ Look, the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not; the Assyrian founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness; they set up their towers; they overthrew its palaces; they made it a ruin. ¹⁴ Howl, you⁺ ships of Tarshish; for your⁺ stronghold is laid waste. ¹⁵ And it will come to pass in that day, that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute. ¹⁶ Take a harp, go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered. ¹⁷ And it will come to pass after the end of seventy years, that Yahweh will visit Tyre, and she will return to her wages, and will prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. ¹⁸ And her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to Yahweh: it will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before Yahweh, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

24 Look, Yahweh makes the earth empty, and makes it waste, and turns it upside down, and scatters abroad its inhabitants. ² And it will be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the male slave, so with his master; as with the female slave, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest to him. ³ The earth will be completely emptied, and completely laid waste; for Yahweh has spoken this word. ⁴ The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away, the lofty people of the earth languish. ⁵ The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants; because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant. ⁶ Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell in it are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few of common man are left. ⁷ The new wine mourns, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸ The mirth of tabrets ceases, the noise of those who rejoice ends, the joy of the harp ceases. ⁹ They will not drink wine with a song; strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. ¹⁰ The waste city is broken down; every house is shut up, that no man may come in. ¹¹ There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. ¹² In the city is left desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. ¹³ For thus it will be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done.

¹⁴ These will lift up their voice, they will shout; for the splendor of Yahweh they cry aloud from the sea. ¹⁵ Therefore glorify⁺ Yahweh in the east, even the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the isles of the sea. ¹⁶ From the uttermost part of the earth we have heard songs: Glory to the righteous.

But I said, I pine away, I pine away, woe is me! The betrayers have betrayed; yes, the betrayers have totally betrayed. ¹⁷ Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, O inhabitant of the earth. ¹⁸ And it will come to pass, that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare: for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. ¹⁹ The earth is completely broken, the earth is rent apart, the earth is shaken violently. ²⁰ The earth will stagger like a drunk man, and will sway to and fro like a hammock; and its transgression will be heavy on it, and it will fall, and not rise again.

²¹ And it will come to pass in that day, that Yahweh will punish the host of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. ²² And they will be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and will be shut up in the prison; and after many days they will be visited. ²³ Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yahweh of hosts will reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders will be glory.

25 O Yahweh, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, [even] counsels of old, in faithfulness [and] truth. ² For you have made of a city a heap, of a fortified city a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city; it will never be built. ³ Therefore will a strong people glorify you; a city of terrible nations will fear you. ⁴ For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. ⁵ As the heat in a dry place you will bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the terrible ones will be brought low.

⁶ And in this mountain Yahweh of hosts will make to all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. ⁷ And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸ He has swallowed up death forever; and the Sovereign Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the reproach of his people he will take away from off all the earth: for Yahweh has spoken it.

⁹ And it will be said in that day, Look, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is Yahweh; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. ¹⁰ For in this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest; and Moab will be trodden down in his place, even as straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. ¹¹ And he will spread forth his hands in the midst of it, as he who swims spreads forth [his hands] to swim; but [Yahweh] will lay low his pride together with the craft of his hands. ¹² And the high fortress of your walls he has brought down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

26 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; salvation he will appoint for walls and bulwarks. ² Open⁺ the gates, that the righteous nation which keeps faith may enter in. ³ You will keep [him] in perfect peace, [whose] mind [is] sustained [by you]; because he trusts in you. ⁴ Trust⁺ in Yahweh forever; for in Yah, Yahweh, is an everlasting rock. ⁵ For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city: he lays it low, he lays it low even to the ground; he brings it even to the dust. ⁶ The foot will tread it down; even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. ⁷ The way of the just is uprightness: you who are upright direct the path of the just.

⁸ Yes, in the way of your judgments, O Yahweh, we have waited for you; to your name, even to your memorial [name], is the desire of our soul. ⁹ With my soul I have desired you in the night; yes, with my spirit inside me I will seek you earnestly: for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. ¹⁰ Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not see the splendor of Yahweh.

¹¹ Yahweh, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see: but they will see [your] zeal for the people, and be put to shame; yes, fire will devour your adversaries. ¹² Yahweh, you will appoint peace for us; for you have also wrought all our works for us. ¹³ O Yahweh our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us; but by you only we will make mention of your name. ¹⁴ [They are] spirits of the dead, they will not live; [they are] deceased, they will not rise: therefore you have visited and destroyed them, and made all remembrance of them to perish. ¹⁵ You have increased the nation, O Yahweh, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land.

¹⁶ Yahweh, in trouble they have visited you; they poured out a prayer [when] your chastening was on them. ¹⁷ Like a woman pregnant, that draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before you, O Yahweh. ¹⁸ We have been pregnant, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we haven't wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. ¹⁹ Your dead will live; my dead bodies will arise. Awake and sing, you⁺ who stay in the dust; for your dew is [as] the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast forth the spirits of the dead.

²⁰ Come, my people, enter into your chambers, and shut your doors about you: hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation has passed by. ²¹ For, look, Yahweh comes forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also will disclose her blood, and will no more cover her slain.

27 In that day Yahweh with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan the swift serpent, and leviathan the crooked serpent; and he will slay the monster that is in the sea.

² In that day: A pleasant vineyard, sing⁺ to it. ³ I Yahweh am its keeper; I will water it every moment: or else any will hurt it, I will keep it night and day. ⁴ Wrath is not in me: Oh that the briars and thorns were against me in battle! I would march on them, I would burn them together. ⁵ Otherwise let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; [yes,] let him make peace with me. ⁶ In days to come Jacob will take root; Israel will blossom and bud; and they will fill the face of the world with fruit.

⁷ Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they slain according to the slaughter of those who were slain by them? ⁸ In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them; he has removed [them] with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. ⁹ Therefore by this will the iniquity of Jacob be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, [so that] the Asherim and the sun-images will rise no more. ¹⁰ For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness: there the calf will feed, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. ¹¹ When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off; the women will come, and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor.

¹² And it will come to pass in that day, that Yahweh will beat off [his fruit] from the flood of the River to the brook of Egypt; and you⁺ will be gathered one by one, O you⁺ sons of Israel.

¹³ And it will come to pass in that day, that a great trumpet will be blown; and they will come who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt; and they will worship Yahweh in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley of those who are overcome with wine! ² Look, the Lord has a mighty and strong one; as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast down to the earth with the hand. ³ The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot: ⁴ and the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, will be as the first-ripe fig before the summer; which when he who looks on it sees, while it is yet in his hand he eats it up. ⁵ In that day will Yahweh of hosts become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people; ⁶ and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

¹¹ No, but by [men of] strange lips and with another tongue he will speak to this people; ¹² to whom he said, This is the rest, give⁺ rest to him who is weary; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. ¹³ Therefore will the word of Yahweh be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

¹⁴ Therefore hear the word of Yahweh, you⁺ scoffers, who rule this people who is in Jerusalem: ¹⁵ Because you⁺ have said, We have made a covenant with death, and we are at agreement with Sheol; when the overflowing scourge will pass through, it will not come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood we have hid ourselves: ¹⁶ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Look, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-[stone] of sure foundation: he who believes will not be caused to flee. ¹⁷ And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet; and the hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding-place. ¹⁸ And your⁺ covenant with death will be annulled, and your⁺ agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overflowing scourge will pass through, then you⁺ will be trodden down by it. ¹⁹ As often as it passes through, it will take you⁺; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night: and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message. ²⁰ For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. ²¹ For Yahweh will rise up as in mount Perazim, he will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his strange work, and bring to pass his act, his strange act. ²² Now therefore don't be⁺ scoffers, or else your⁺ bonds will be made strong; for a decree of destruction I have heard from the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, on the whole earth.

²³ Give⁺ ear, and hear my voice; listen, and hear my speech. ²⁴ Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he [continually] open and harrow his ground? ²⁵ When he has leveled its face, does he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cumin, and put in the wheat in rows, and the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its border? ²⁶ For his God instructs him aright, [and] teaches him. ²⁷ For the fitches are not threshed with a sharp [threshing] instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about on the cumin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cumin with a rod. ²⁸ Bread [grain] is ground; for he will not always be threshing it: and though the wheel of his cart and his horses scatter it, he does not grind it. ²⁹ This also comes forth from Yahweh of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

29 Ho Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add⁺ year to year; let the feasts come round: ² then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation; and she will be to me as Ariel. ³ And I will encamp against you round about, and will lay siege against you with posted troops, and I will raise siege works against you. ⁴ And you will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground, and your speech will be low out of the dust; and your voice will be as a spirit out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust.

⁵ But the multitude of your strangers will be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones as chaff that passes away: yes, it will be suddenly in an instant. ⁶ She will be visited of Yahweh of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire. ⁷ And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her stronghold, and that distress her, will be as a dream, a vision of the night. ⁸ And it will be as when a hungry man dreams, and, look, he eats; but he awakes, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreams, and, look, he drinks; but he awakes, and, look, he is faint, and his soul has appetite: so will the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

⁹ Tarry⁺ and wonder; take your⁺ pleasure and be blind: they are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. ¹⁰ For Yahweh has poured out on you⁺ the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your⁺ eyes, the prophets; and your⁺ heads, the seers, he has covered. ¹¹ And all vision has become to you⁺ as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is learned, saying, Read this, I pray you; and he says, I can't, for it is sealed: ¹² and the book is delivered to him who is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray you; and he says, I am not learned.

¹³ And the Lord said, Since this people draw near [to me], and with their mouth and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught [to them]; ¹⁴ therefore, look, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hid.

¹⁵ Woe to those who hide deep their counsel from Yahweh, and whose works are in the dark, and who say, Who sees us? And who knows us? ¹⁶ You⁺ turn things upside down! Will the potter be esteemed as clay; that the thing made should say of him who made it, He didn't make me; or the thing formed say of him who formed it, He has no understanding?

¹⁷ Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be esteemed as a forest? ¹⁸ And in that day the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. ¹⁹ The meek also will increase their joy in Yahweh, and the poor among man will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰ For the terrible one is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who watch for iniquity are cut off; ²¹ who make man an offender in [his] cause, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and turn aside the just with a thing of nothing.

²² Therefore thus says Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob will not now be ashamed, neither will his face now wax pale. ²³ But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they will sanctify my name; yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. ²⁴ Those also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who murmur will receive instruction.

30 Woe to the rebellious sons, says Yahweh, who take counsel, but not of me; and who make a league, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin; ² who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! ³ Therefore will the strength of Pharaoh be your⁺ shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your⁺ confusion. ⁴ For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. ⁵ They will all become a stench because of a people who cannot profit them, who are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

⁶ The burden of the beasts of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, from where come the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people who will not profit [them]. ⁷ For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose: therefore I have called her Rahab that sits still.

⁸ Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever. ⁹ For it is a rebellious people, lying sons, sons who will not hear the law of Yahweh; ¹⁰ who say to the seers, Don't see; and to the prophets, Don't prophesy to us right things, speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits, ¹¹ get⁺ out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. ¹² Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, Because you⁺ despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on them; ¹³ therefore this iniquity will be to you⁺ as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. ¹⁴ And he will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing; so that there will not be found among its pieces a sherd with which to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern.

¹⁵ For thus said the Sovereign Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest you⁺ will be saved; in quietness and in confidence will be your⁺ strength. And you⁺ would not: ¹⁶ but you⁺ said, No, for we will flee on horses; therefore you⁺ will flee; and, We will ride on the swift; therefore those who pursue you⁺ will be swift. ¹⁷ A thousand together [will flee] at the threat of one; at the threat of five you⁺ will flee: until you⁺ are left as a beacon on the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

¹⁸ And therefore Yahweh will wait, that he may be gracious to you⁺; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you⁺: for Yahweh is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him. ¹⁹ For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; you will weep no more; he will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry; when he will hear, he will answer you. ²⁰ And though the Lord gives you⁺ the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be hidden anymore, but your eyes will see your teachers; ²¹ and your ears will hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk⁺ in it; when you⁺ turn to the right hand, and when you⁺ turn to the left. ²² And you⁺ will defile the overlaying of your graven images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold: you will cast them away as a menstrual cloth; you will say to it, Get away from here.

²³ And he will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground, and it will be fat and plenteous. In that day your cattle will be shepherded in large pastures; ²⁴ the oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory fodder, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. ²⁵ And there will be on every lofty mountain, and on every high hill, brooks [and] streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶ Moreover the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh binds up the hurt of his people, and heals the stroke of their wound.

²⁷ Look, the name of Yahweh comes from far, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a devouring fire; ²⁸ and his breath is as an overflowing stream, that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction: and a bridle that causes to err [will be] in the jaws of the peoples. ²⁹ You⁺ will have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a pipe to come to the mountain of Yahweh, to the Rock of Israel. ³⁰ And Yahweh will cause the grandeur of his voice to be heard, and will show the coming down of his arm, with the indignation of [his] anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, and tempest, and hailstones. ³¹ For through the voice of Yahweh will the Assyrian be dismayed; with his rod he will strike [him]. ³² And every stroke of the appointed staff, which Yahweh will lay on him, will be with [the sound of] tabrets and harps; and in battles with the brandishing [of his arm] he will fight with them. ³³ For a Topheth is prepared of old; yes, for the king it is made ready; he has made it deep and large; its pile is fire and much wood; the breath of Yahweh, like a stream of brimstone, kindles it.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, neither seek Yahweh! ² Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity. ³ Now Egypt is man, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit: and when Yahweh will stretch out his hand, both he who helps will stumble, and he who is helped will fall, and all of them will be consumed together.

⁴ For thus says Yahweh to me, As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds are called forth against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so will Yahweh of hosts come down to fight on mount Zion, and on its hill. ⁵ As birds hovering, so will Yahweh of hosts protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver [it], he will pass over and preserve [it]. ⁶ Turn⁺ to him from whom you⁺ have deeply revolted, O sons of Israel. ⁷ For in that day they will cast away every man his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your⁺ own hands have made to you⁺ for a sin. ⁸ And the Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of a man; and the sword, not of man, will devour him; and he will flee from the sword, and his young men will become subject to slave labor. ⁹ And his rock will pass away by reason of terror, and his princes will be dismayed at the ensign, says Yahweh, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

32 Look, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice. ² And a man will be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a great rock in a weary land. ³ And the eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen. ⁴ And the heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly. ⁵ The fool will no more be called noble, nor the churl said to be bountiful. ⁶ For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity, to do profaneness, and to utter error against Yahweh, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. ⁷ And the instruments of the churl are evil: he devises wicked devices to destroy the meek with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. ⁸ But the noble devises noble things; and in noble things he will continue.

⁹ Rise up, you⁺ women who are at ease, [and] hear my voice; you⁺ careless daughters, give ear to my speech. ¹⁰ For days beyond a year you⁺ will be troubled, you⁺ careless women; for the vintage will fail, the ingathering will not come. ¹¹ Tremble, you⁺ women who are at ease; be troubled, you⁺ careless ones; strip⁺, and make yourselves bare, and gird [sackcloth] on your⁺ loins. ¹² They will strike on the breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. ¹³ On the land of my people thorns and briers will come up; yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city. ¹⁴ For the palace will be forsaken; the populous city will be deserted; the hill and the watchtower will be for dens forever, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks; ¹⁵ until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is esteemed as a forest.

¹⁶ Then justice will stay in the wilderness; and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field. ¹⁷ And the work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. ¹⁸ And my people will remain in a peaceful habitation, and in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting-places. ¹⁹ But it will hail in the downfall of the forest; and the city will be completely laid low. ²⁰ Blessed are you⁺ who sow beside all waters, who send forth the feet of the ox and the donkey.

33 Woe to you who destroy, and you were not destroyed; and who betray, and they did not betray you! When you have ceased to destroy, you will be destroyed; and when you have made an end of betraying, they will betray you. ² O Yahweh, be gracious to us; we have waited for you: be the arm [which attacks] them every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. ³ At the noise of the tumult the peoples have fled; at the lifting up of yourself the nations have scattered. ⁴ And your⁺ spoil will be gathered [as] the caterpillar gathers: as locusts leap will men leap on it. ⁵ Yahweh is exalted; for he stays on high: he has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. ⁶ And there will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge: the fear of Yahweh is his treasure.

⁷ Look, I will appear to them; they cry out in the streets; the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly. ⁸ The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceases: [the enemy] has broken the covenant, he has despised the witnesses, he does not regard common man. ⁹ The land mourns and languishes; Lebanon is confounded and withers away; Sharon is like a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off [their leaves]. ¹⁰ Now I will arise, says Yahweh; now I will lift up myself; now I will be exalted. ¹¹ You⁺ will be pregnant with chaff, you⁺ will give birth to stubble: your⁺ breath is a fire that will devour you⁺. ¹² And the peoples will be as the burnings of lime, as thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire.

¹³ Hear, you⁺ who are far off, what I have done; and, you⁺ who are near, acknowledge my might. ¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless ones: Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings? ¹⁵ He who walks righteously, and speaks uprightly; he who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands from taking a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking on evil: ¹⁶ He will stay on high; his place of defense will be the munitions of rocks; his bread will be given [him]; his waters will be sure.

¹⁷ Your eyes will see the king in his beauty: they will look at a land that reaches far. ¹⁸ Your heart will muse on the terror: Where is he who counted, where is he who weighed [the tribute]? Where is he who counted the towers? ¹⁹ You will not see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend, of a strange tongue that you can't understand. ²⁰ Look at Zion, the city of our solemnities: your eyes will see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tent that will not be removed, the stakes of which will never be plucked up, neither will any of its cords be broken. ²¹ But there Yahweh will be with us in majesty, a place of broad rivers and streams, in which will go no galley with oars, neither will gallant ship pass by it. ²² For Yahweh is our judge, Yahweh is our lawgiver, Yahweh is our king; he will save us. ²³ Your tacklings are loosed; they could not strengthen the foot of their mast, they could not spread the sail: then the prey of a great spoil was divided; the lame took the prey. ²⁴ And the neighbor will not say, I am sick: the people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Come near, you⁺ nations, to hear; and listen, you⁺ peoples: let the earth hear, and the fullness of it; the world, and all things that come forth from it. ² For Yahweh has indignation against all the nations, and wrath against all their host: he has completely destroyed them, he has delivered them to the slaughter. ³ Their slain also will be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up; and the mountains will be melted with their blood. ⁴ And all the host of heaven will be dissolved, and the heavens will be rolled together as a scroll; and all their host will fade away, as the leaf fades from off the vine, and as a fading [leaf] from the fig tree. ⁵ For my sword has drunk its fill in heaven: look, it will come down on Edom, and on the people of my curse, to judgment. ⁶ The sword of Yahweh is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. ⁷ And the wild-oxen will come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls: and their land will be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

⁸ For Yahweh has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion. ⁹ And the streams of [Edom] will be turned into pitch, and its dust into brimstone, and its land will become burning pitch. ¹⁰ It will not be quenched night nor day; its smoke will go up forever; from generation to generation it will lie waste; none will pass through it forever and ever. ¹¹ But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it; and the owl and the raven will stay in it: and he will stretch over it the line of confusion, and the plummet of emptiness. ¹² They will call its nobles to the kingdom, but none will be there; and all its princes will be nothing. ¹³ And thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it will be a habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches. ¹⁴ And the wild beasts of the desert will meet with the wolves, and the wild goat will cry to his companion; yes, the night-monster will settle there, and will find her a place of rest. ¹⁵ There will the dart-snake make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shade; yes, there will the kites be gathered, every one with her mate.

¹⁶ Seek⁺ out of the Book of Yahweh, and read: no one of these will be missing, none will want her mate; for my mouth, it has commanded, and his Spirit, it has gathered them. ¹⁷ And he has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them by line: they will possess it forever; from generation to generation they will stay in it.

35 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad; and the desert will rejoice, and blossom as the rose. ² It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon: they will see the glory of Yahweh, the majesty of our God.

³ Strengthen⁺ the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

⁴ Say to those who are of a fearful heart, Be strong, don't be afraid: look, your⁺ God will come [with] vengeance, [with] the recompense of God; he will come and save you⁺.

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. ⁶ Then will the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the mute will sing; for in the wilderness will waters break out, and streams in the desert. ⁷ And the glowing sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water: in the habitation of the jackals' resting place, will be grass with reeds and rushes. ⁸ And a highway will be there, and a way, and it will be called The Way of Holiness; the unclean will not pass over it; but it will be for [the redeemed]: the wayfaring men, yes fools, will not err [in it]. ⁹ No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous beast go up on it; they will not be found there; but the redeemed will walk [there]: ¹⁰ and the ransomed of Yahweh will return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads: they will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

36 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. ² And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. ³ Then came forth to him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder.

⁴ And Rabshakeh said to them, Say⁺ now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust? ⁵ I say, [your] counsel and strength for the war are but vain words: now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? ⁶ Look, you trust on the staff of this bruised reed, even on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. ⁷ But if you say to me, We trust in Yahweh our God: isn't that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You⁺ will worship before this altar? ⁸ Now therefore, I pray you, give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ⁹ How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's slaves, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ¹⁰ And have I now come up without Yahweh against this land to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

¹¹ Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray you, to your slaves in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and don't speak to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. ¹² But Rabshakeh said, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? [Has he] not [sent me] to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own feces, and to drink their own urine with you⁺?

¹³ Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear⁺ the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴ Thus says the king, Don't let Hezekiah deceive you⁺; for he will not be able to deliver you⁺: ¹⁵ neither let Hezekiah make you⁺ trust in Yahweh, saying, Yahweh will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah: for thus says the king of Assyria, Make your⁺ peace with me, and come out to me; and eat⁺ every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink⁺ every one the waters of his own cistern; ¹⁷ until I come and take you⁺ away to a land like your⁺ own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸ Beware that you don't let Hezekiah persuade you⁺, saying, Yahweh will deliver us. Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ²⁰ Who are they among all the gods of these countries, who have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

²¹ But they held their peace, and did not answer him a word; for the king's commandment was, saying, Don't answer him. ²² Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 And it came to pass, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. ² And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. ³ And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of disgrace; for the sons have come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. ⁴ It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard: therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant who is left.

⁵ So the slaves of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶ And Isaiah said to them, Thus you⁺ will say to your⁺ master, Thus says Yahweh, Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the attendants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷ Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear [some] news, and will return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

⁸ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. ⁹ And he heard it said concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He has come out to fight against you. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ Thus you⁺ will speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹ Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them completely: and will you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?

¹⁴ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of Yahweh, and spread it before Yahweh. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh, saying, ¹⁶ O Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, who sits [above] the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷ Incline your ear, O Yahweh, and hear; open your eyes, O Yahweh, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. ¹⁸ Of a truth, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries, ¹⁹ and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of man's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ²⁰ Now therefore, O Yahweh our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Yahweh, even you only.

²¹ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²² this is the word which Yahweh has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²³ Whom have you defied and blasphemed? And against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? [Even] against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁴ By your slaves you have defied the Lord, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir-trees; and I will enter into its farthest height, its forest park; ²⁵ I have dug and drank water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt. ²⁶ Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. ²⁷ Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, which is blighted before the east wind. ²⁸ But I know your rising up and your sitting down, and your going out and your coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁹ Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.

³⁰ And this will be the sign to you: you⁺ will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow⁺, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³¹ And the remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³² For out of Jerusalem will go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion those who will escape. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will perform this.

³³ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the king of Assyria, He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. ³⁴ By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and he will not come to this city, says Yahweh. ³⁵ For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my slave David's sake.

³⁶ And the angel of Yahweh went forth, and struck in the camp of the Assyrians 185,000; and when men arose early in the morning, look, these were all dead bodies. ³⁷ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. ³⁸ And it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

38 In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Set your house in order; for you will die, and not live. ² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh, ³ and said, Remember now, O Yahweh, I urge you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight. And Hezekiah wept intensely. ⁴ Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵ Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: look, I will add to your days fifteen years. ⁶ And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city. ⁷ And this will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do this thing that he has spoken: ⁸ Look, I will move back the shadow of the steps, which has gone down on the steps from the Upper House of Ahaz - [I will move back] the sun^a backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the steps on which it had gone down.

⁹ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness. ¹⁰ I said, In the noontide of my days I will go into the gates of Sheol: I am deprived of the residue of my years. ¹¹ I said, I will not see Yah, Yah in the land of the living: I will not see man anymore with the inhabitants of this world. ¹² My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me as a shepherd's tent: I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life; he will cut me off from the loom: From day even to night you will make an end of me. ¹³ I quieted [myself] until morning; as a lion, so he breaks all my bones: From day even to night you will make an end of me. ¹⁴ Like a swallow [or] a crane, so I chattered; I moaned as a dove; my eyes fail [with looking] upward: O Lord, I am oppressed, be my surety. ¹⁵ What shall I say? He has both spoken to me, and himself has done it: I will go softly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul. ¹⁶ O Lord, by these things men live; And wholly in them is the life of my spirit: Therefore you recover me, and make me to live. ¹⁷ Look, [it was] for [my] peace [that] I had great bitterness: But you have in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; For you have cast all my sins behind your back. ¹⁸ For Sheol can't praise you, death can't celebrate you: Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your truth. ¹⁹ The living, the living, he will praise you, as I do this day: The father to the sons will make known your truth. ²⁰ Yahweh is [ready] to save me: Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments All the days of our life in the house of Yahweh.^b

^a [I will move back] the sun here resumes and compliments the beginning of the verse, 'I will move back'.

39 At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. ² And Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. ³ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, What did these men say? And where did they come to you from? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country to me, even from Babylon. ⁴ Then he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house they have seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I haven't shown them. ⁵ Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yahweh of hosts: ⁶ Look, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, will be carried to Babylon: nothing will be left, says Yahweh. ⁷ And of your sons who will issue from you, whom you will beget, they will take away; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. ⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Yahweh which you have spoken is good. He said moreover, For there will be peace and truth in my days.

40 Comfort⁺, comfort⁺ my people, says your⁺ God. ² Speak⁺ comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry to her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of Yahweh's hand double for all her sins.

³ The voice of one who cries, Prepare⁺ in the wilderness the way of Yahweh; make level in the desert a highway for our God. ⁴ Every valley will be exalted, and every mountain and hill will be made low; and the uneven will be made level, and the rough places a plain: ⁵ and the glory of Yahweh will be revealed, and all flesh will see it together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

⁶ The voice of one saying, Cry. And one said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all its goodness is as the flower of the field. ⁷ The grass withers, the flower fades, because the breath of Yahweh blows on it; surely the people are grass. ⁸ The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever.

¹² Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? ¹³ Who has directed the Spirit of Yahweh, or being his counselor has taught him? ¹⁴ With whom did he take counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding? ¹⁵ Look, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are accounted as the small dust of the balance: look, he takes up the isles as a very little thing. ¹⁶ And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt-offering. ¹⁷ All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing, and vanity.

¹⁸ To whom then will you⁺ liken God? Or what likeness will you⁺ compare to him? ¹⁹ The image, a workman has cast [it], and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts [for it] silver chains. ²⁰ He who is too impoverished for [such] an oblation chooses a tree that will not rot; he seeks to him a skillful workman to set up a graven image, that will not be moved. ²¹ Have you⁺ not known? Have you⁺ not heard? Has it not been told to you⁺ from the beginning? Have you⁺ not understood from the foundations of the earth? ²² [It is] he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are as grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens as a curtain, and spreads them out as a tent to dwell in; ²³ who brings princes to nothing; who makes the judges of the earth as vanity. ²⁴ Yes, they have not been planted; yes, they have not been sown; yes, their stock has not taken root in the earth: moreover he blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble. ²⁵ To whom then will you⁺ liken me, that I should be equal [to him]? says the Holy One. ²⁶ Lift up your⁺ eyes on high, and see who has created these, that brings out their host by number; he calls them all by name; by the greatness of his might, and for that he is strong in power, not one is lacking.

²⁷ Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, My way is hid from Yahweh, and the justice [due] to me has passed away from my God? ²⁸ Haven't you known? Haven't you heard? The everlasting God, Yahweh, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not faint, neither is weary; there is no searching of his understanding. ²⁹ He gives power to the faint; and to him who has no might he increases strength. ³⁰ Even the youths will faint and be weary, and the young men will completely fall: ³¹ but those who wait for Yahweh will renew their strength; they will mount up with wings as eagles; they will run, and not be weary; they will walk, and not faint.

41 Keep silent before me, O islands; and let the peoples renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment. ² Who has raised up one from the east, whom he calls in righteousness to his foot? He gives nations before him, and makes him rule over kings; he gives them as the dust to his sword, as the driven stubble to his bow. ³ He pursues them, and passes on safely, even by a way that he had not gone with his feet. ⁴ Who has wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last, I am he. ⁵ The isles have seen, and fear; the ends of the earth tremble; they draw near, and come. ⁶ A man helps his fellow man; and says to his brother, Be of good courage. ⁷ So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith, [and] he who smoothes with the hammer him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good; and he fastens it with nails, that it should not be moved.

⁸ But you, Israel, my slave, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend, ⁹ you whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners, and said to you, You are my slave, I have chosen you and not cast you away; ¹⁰ Don't be afraid, for I am with you; don't be dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you; yes, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness. ¹¹ Look, all those who are incensed against you will be put to shame and confounded: those who strive with you will be as nothing, and will perish. ¹² You will seek them, and will not find them, even those who contend with you: those who war against you will be as nothing, and as a thing of nothing. ¹³ For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, Don't be afraid; I will help you. ¹⁴ Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob, and you⁺ vermin Israel; I will help you, says Yahweh, and your

The text of these two verses would read: ²¹ Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a plaster on the boil, and he will recover. ²² Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I will go up to the house of Yahweh?

Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵ Look, I have made you [to be] a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth; you will thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and will make the hills as chaff. ¹⁶ You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them; and you will rejoice in Yahweh, you will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷ The poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue fails for thirst; I, Yahweh, will answer them, I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them. ¹⁸ I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. ¹⁹ I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together: ²⁰ that they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of Yahweh has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹ Produce your⁺ cause, says Yahweh; bring forth your⁺ strong reasons, says the King of Jacob. ²² Let them bring forth, and declare to us what will happen: declare⁺ the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come. ²³ Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you⁺ are gods: yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed and watch it together. ²⁴ Look, you⁺ are of nothing, and your⁺ work is of nothing; he who chooses you⁺ is disgusting.

²⁵ I have raised up one from the north, and he has come; from the rising of the sun one who calls on my name: and he will trample rulers as mortar, and as the potter treads clay. ²⁶ Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know? And formerly, that we may say, [He is] right? Yes, there is none who declares, yes, there is none who shows, yes, there is none who hears your⁺ words. ²⁷ [I am the] first [who says] to Zion, Look, look at them; and I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good news. ²⁸ And when I look, there is no man: even among them there is no counselor, who, when I ask of them, can answer a word. ²⁹ Look, all of them, their works are vanity [and] nothing; their molten images are wind and confusion.

42 Look, my slave, whom I uphold; my chosen, in whom my soul delights: I have put my Spirit on him; he will bring forth justice to the Gentiles. ² He will not cry, nor lift up his voice, nor cause it to be heard in the street. ³ A bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench: he will bring forth justice in truth. ⁴ He will not fail nor be discouraged, until he has set justice in the earth; and the isles will wait for his instructions.

⁵ Thus says God Yahweh, he who created the heavens, and stretched them forth; he who spread abroad the earth and that which comes out of it; he who gives breath to the people on it, and spirit to those who walk in it: ⁶ I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness, and will hold your hand, and will keep you, and give you for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; ⁷ to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison-house. ⁸ I am Yahweh, that is my name; and my glory I will not give to another, neither my praise to graven images. ⁹ Look, the former things have come to pass, and I declare new things; before they spring forth I tell you⁺ of them.

¹⁰ Sing to Yahweh a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth; you⁺ who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, the isles, and its inhabitants. ¹¹ Let the wilderness and its cities lift up [their voice], the villages that Kedar inhabits; let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. ¹² Let them give glory to Yahweh, and declare his praise in the islands. ¹³ Yahweh will go forth as a mighty man; he will stir up [his] zeal like a man of war: he will cry, yes, he will shout aloud; he will do mightily against his enemies.

¹⁴ I have held my peace for a long time; I have been still, and refrained myself: [now] I will cry out like a travailing woman; I will gasp and pant together. ¹⁵ I will lay waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools. ¹⁶ And I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know; in paths that they don't know I will lead them; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things I will do, and I will not forsake them. ¹⁷ They will be turned back, they will be completely put to shame, who trust in graven images, who say to molten images, You⁺ are our gods.

¹⁸ Hear, you⁺ deaf; and look, you⁺ blind, that you⁺ may see. ¹⁹ Who is blind, but my slave? Or deaf, as my messenger whom I send? Who is blind as he who is at peace [with me], and blind as Yahweh's slave? ²⁰ You have seen many things, but you don't retain; his ears are open, but he doesn't hear. ²¹ It pleased Yahweh, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law, and make it honorable. ²² But this is a people robbed and plundered; all of them are snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivers; for a spoil, and none says, Restore.

²³ Who is there among you⁺ who will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear for the time to come? ²⁴ Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? Did not Yahweh? He against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they would not walk, neither were they obedient to his law. ²⁵ Therefore he poured on him the fierceness of his anger, and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire round about, yet he didn't know; and it burned him, yet he didn't lay it to heart.

43 But now thus says Yahweh who created you, O Jacob, and he who formed you, O Israel: Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name, you are mine. ² When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overflow you: when you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, neither will the flame kindle on you. ³ For I am Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior; I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your stead. ⁴ Since you have been precious in my sight, [and] honorable, and I have loved you; therefore I will give man in your stead, and peoples instead of your soul. ⁵ Don't be afraid; for I am with you: I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west; ⁶ I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Don't keep back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of the earth; ⁷ everyone who is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.

⁸ Bring forth the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears. ⁹ Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is truth. ¹⁰ You⁺ are my witnesses, says Yahweh, and my slave whom I have chosen; that you⁺ may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me. ¹¹ I, even I, am Yahweh; and besides me there is no savior. ¹² I have declared, and I have saved, and I have shown; and there was no strange [god] among you⁺: therefore you⁺ are my witnesses, says Yahweh, and I am God. ¹³ Yes, since the day was, I am he; and there is none who can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who can hinder it?

¹⁴ Thus says Yahweh, your⁺ Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your⁺ sake I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring down all of them as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. ¹⁵ I am Yahweh, your⁺ Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your⁺ King. ¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; ¹⁷ who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they will not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched as a wick): ¹⁸ Don't remember⁺ the former things, neither consider the things of old. ¹⁹ Look, I will do a new thing; now it will spring forth; will you⁺ not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and paths^a in the desert. ²⁰ The beasts of the field will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen, ²¹ the people which I formed for myself, that they might set forth my praise.

²² Yet you haven't called on me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel. ²³ You haven't brought me of your sheep for burnt-offerings; neither have you honored me with your sacrifices. I haven't burdened you with offerings, nor wearied you with frankincense. ²⁴ You have bought me no sweet cane with silver, neither have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your iniquities.

²⁵ I, I am he, who blots out your transgressions for my own sake; and I will not remember your sins. ²⁶ Put me in remembrance; let us plead together: set you forth [your cause], that you may be justified. ²⁷ Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against me. ²⁸ Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary; and I will give Jacob a curse, and Israel a reviling.

44 Yet hear now, O Jacob my slave, and Israel, whom I have chosen: ² Thus says Yahweh who made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you: Don't be afraid, O Jacob my slave; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. ³ For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit on your seed, and my blessing on your offspring: ⁴ and they will spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses. ⁵ One will say, I am Yahweh's; and another will call the name of Jacob; and another will write with his hand, For Yahweh, and will name the name of Israel.

⁶ Thus says Yahweh, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God. ⁷ And who is like me? Let him call and declare it, and set it in order for me, since my establishing the ancient people. And let them declare the things that are coming, and that will come to pass, to [those among] them. ⁸ Don't be⁺ afraid, neither be scared: Have I not declared to you of old, and shown it? And you⁺ are my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? Yes, there is no Rock; I don't know any.

⁹ Those who fashion a graven image are all of them vanity; and the things that they delight in will not profit; and their own witnesses don't see, nor know: that they may be put to shame. ¹⁰ Who has fashioned a god, or molten an image that is profitable for nothing? ¹¹ Look, all his partners will be put to shame; and the workmen, they are of man: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; they will fear, they will be put to shame together.

¹² The blacksmith [makes] an ax, and works in the coals, and fashions it with hammers, and works it with his strong arm: yes, he is hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water, and is faint. ¹³ The carpenter stretches out a line; he marks it out with a pencil; he shapes it with planes, and he marks it out with the compasses, and shapes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of man, to dwell in a house. ¹⁴ He cuts down cedars, and takes the holm-tree and the oak, and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest: he plants a fir-tree, and the rain nourishes it. ¹⁵ Then it will be for man to burn; and he takes of it, and warms himself; yes, he kindles it, and bakes bread: yes, he makes a god, and worships it; he makes it a graven image, and falls down to it. ¹⁶ He burns part of it in the fire; with part of it he eats flesh; he roasts roast, and is satisfied; yes, he warms himself, and says, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire. ¹⁷ And its residue he makes a god, even his graven image; he falls down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, Deliver me; for you are my god.

¹⁸ They don't know, neither do they consider: for he has shut their eyes, that they can't see; and their hearts, that they can't understand. ¹⁹ And none calls to mind, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yes, I have also baked bread on its coals; I have roasted flesh and eaten it: and shall I make its residue [into] a disgusting thing? Shall I fall down to a piece of wood? ²⁰ He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has turned him aside; and he can't deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

²¹ Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel; for you are my slave: I have formed you; you are my slave: O Israel, you will not be forgotten of me. ²² I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins: return to me; for I have redeemed you. ²³ Sing, O you⁺ heavens, for Yahweh has done it; shout, you⁺ lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, you⁺ mountains, O forest, and every tree in it: for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel.

²⁴ Thus says Yahweh, your Redeemer, and he who formed you from the womb: I am Yahweh, who makes all things; who stretches forth the heavens alone; who spreads abroad the earth (who is with me?); ²⁵ who frustrates the signs of the liars, and makes fortune-tellers insane; who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish; ²⁶ who confirms the word of his slave, and performs the counsel of his messengers; who says of Jerusalem, She will be inhabited; and of the cities of Judah, They will be built, and I will raise up their waste places; ²⁷ who says to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers; ²⁸ who says of Cyrus, [He is] my shepherd, and will perform all my pleasure, even saying of Jerusalem, She will be built; and of the temple, Your foundation will be laid.

45 Thus says Yahweh to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and I will loose the loins of kings; to open the doors before him, and the gates will not be shut: ² I will go before you, and make the rough places smooth; I will break in pieces the doors of bronze, and cut in sunder the bars of iron; ³ and I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, even the God of Israel. ⁴ For Jacob my slave's sake, and Israel my chosen, I have called you by your name: I have surnamed you, though you haven't known me. ⁵ I am Yahweh, and there is no other; besides me there is no God. I will gird you, though you haven't known me; ⁶ that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am Yahweh, and there is no other. ⁷ I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil. I am Yahweh, who does all these things.

⁸ Trickle, you⁺ heavens, from above, and the skies will pour down righteousness; the earth will open, and salvation will bud and righteousness will spring up together; I, Yahweh, have created it.

⁹ Woe to him who strives with his Maker! A potsherd among the potsherds of the earth! Will the clay say to him who fashions it, What do you make? Or your work, He has no hands? ¹⁰ Woe to him who says to a father, What do you beget? Or to a woman, With what do you travail?

¹¹ Thus says Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: Ask me of the things that are to come; concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands, command⁺ me. ¹² I have made the earth, and created man on it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens; and all their host I have commanded. ¹³ I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways: he will build my city, and he will let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward, says Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁴ Thus says Yahweh, The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you, and they will be yours: they will go after you, in chains they will come over; and they will fall down to you, they will make supplication to you, [saying,] Surely God is in you; and there is no other, no [other] God. ¹⁵ Truly you are a God who hides yourself, O God of Israel, the Savior. ¹⁶ They will be put to shame, yes, confounded, all of them; they will go into confusion together who are makers of idols. ¹⁷ [But] Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an eternal salvation: you⁺ will not be put to shame nor confounded forever without end.

¹⁸ For thus says Yahweh who created the heavens, the God who formed the earth and made it, who established it and did not create it a waste, who formed it to be inhabited: I am Yahweh; and there is no other. ¹⁹ I haven't spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness; I didn't say to the seed of Jacob, Seek⁺ me in vain: I, Yahweh, speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

²⁰ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you⁺ who have escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge who carry the wood of their graven image, and pray to a god that can't save. ²¹ Declare⁺, and bring [it] forth; yes, let them take counsel together: who has shown this from ancient time? Who has declared it of old? Haven't I, Yahweh? And there is no other God besides me, a just God and a Savior; there is none besides me. ²² Look to me, and be⁺ saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other. ²³ By myself I have sworn, the word has gone forth from my mouth [in] righteousness, and will not return, that to me every knee will bow, every tongue will swear. ²⁴ Only in Yahweh, it is said of me, is righteousness and strength. One will come to him; and all those who were incensed against him will be put to shame. ²⁵ In Yahweh will all the seed of Israel be justified, and will glory.

46 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are on the beasts, and on the cattle: the things that you⁺ carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary [beast]. ² They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but their soul has gone into captivity.

³ Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne [by me] from their birth, who have been carried from the womb; ⁴ and even to old age, I am he, and even to hoar hairs I will carry [you⁺]; I have made, and I will bear; yes, I will carry, and will deliver. ⁵ To whom will you⁺ liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? ⁶ Such as lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, they hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god; they fall down, yes, they worship. ⁷ They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands, from its place it will not remove: yes, one may cry to it, yet it can't answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

⁸ Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, O you⁺ transgressors. ⁹ Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is no other; [I am] God, and there is none like me; ¹⁰ declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not [yet] done; saying, My counsel will stand, and I will do all my pleasure; ¹¹ calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country; yes, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it.

¹² Listen to me, you⁺ stout-hearted, who are far from righteousness: ¹³ I bring near my righteousness, it will not be far off, and my salvation will not tarry; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

47 Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for you will no more be called tender and delicate. ² Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers. ³ Your nakedness will be uncovered, yes, your shame will be seen: I will take vengeance, and will not spare man. ⁴ Our Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. ⁵ Sit silent, and get into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for you will no more be called The mistress of kingdoms. ⁶ I was angry with my people, I profaned my inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you showed them no mercy; on the aged you have very heavily laid your yoke. ⁷ And you said, I will be mistress forever; so that you did not lay these things to your heart, neither remembered the latter end of them.

⁸ Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, I am, and there is no other besides me; I will not sit as a widow, neither will I know the loss of children: ⁹ but these two things will come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure they will come upon you, in the multitude of your witchcraft, and the great abundance of your magic words. ¹⁰ For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, None sees me; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is no other besides me. ¹¹ Therefore will evil come upon you; you will not know its dawning: and mischief will fall on you; you will not be able to put it away: and desolation will come upon you suddenly, which you do not know.

¹² Stand now with your magic words, and with the multitude of your witchcraft, in which you have labored from your youth; perhaps you will be able to profit, perhaps you may prevail. ¹³ You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels: let the astrologers stand up now and save you, those observing the stars for determining your horoscopes.^a ¹⁴ Look, they will be as stubble; the fire will burn them; they will not deliver their soul from the power of the flame: it will not be charcoal for their bread, nor a fire to sit before. ¹⁵ Thus will the things be to you in which you have labored: those who have trafficked with you from your youth will wander every one to his quarter; there will be none to save you.

48 Hear you⁺ this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and have come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of Yahweh, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness ² (for they call themselves of the holy city, and lean on the God of Israel; Yahweh of hosts is his name): ³ I have declared the former things from of old; yes, they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them: suddenly I did them, and they came to pass. ⁴ Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow bronze; ⁵ therefore I have declared it to you from of old; before it came to pass I showed it you; or else you will say, My idol has done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, has commanded them. ⁶ You have heard it; look at all this; and you⁺, will you⁺ not declare it? I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you haven't known. ⁷ They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you did not hear them; or else you will say, Look, I knew them. ⁸ Yes, you didn't hear; yes, you didn't know; yes, from of old your ear wasn't opened: for I knew that you would be totally betraying, and were called a transgressor from the womb. ⁹ For my name's sake I will defer my anger, and for my praise I will refrain for you, that I don't cut you off. ¹⁰ Look, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. ¹¹ For my own sake, for my own sake, I will do it; for how should I be profaned? And my glory I will not give to another.

¹² Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I am also the last. ¹³ Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together. ¹⁴ Assemble yourselves, all you⁺, and hear; who among them has declared these things? He whom Yahweh loves will perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm [will be on] the Chaldeans. ¹⁵ I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him; I have brought him, and he will make his way prosperous. ¹⁶ Come⁺ near to me, hear⁺ this; from the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there I am: and now the Sovereign Yahweh has sent me, and his Spirit.

¹⁷ Thus says Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Yahweh your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. ¹⁸ Oh that you would have listened to my commandments! Then your peace would have been as a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea: ¹⁹ your seed also would have been as the sand, and the offspring from inside you like its grains: his name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me.

49 Listen, O isles, to me; and listen, you⁺ peoples, from far: Yahweh has called me from the womb; from inside my mother he has made mention of my name: ² and he has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand he has hid me: and he has made me a polished shaft; in his quiver he has kept me close: ³ and he said to me, You are my slave; Israel, in whom I will be glorified. ⁴ But I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely the justice [due] to me is with Yahweh, and my recompense with my God.

⁵ And now says Yahweh who formed me from the womb to be his slave, to bring Jacob again to him, and that Israel be gathered to him (for I am honorable in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God has become my strength); ⁶ yes, he says, It is too light a thing that you should be my slave to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth. ⁷ Thus says Yahweh, the Redeemer of Israel, its Holy One, to a despised soul, to one who the nations are disgusted by, to a slave of rulers: Kings will see and arise; princes, and they will worship; because of Yahweh who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.

⁸ Thus says Yahweh, In an acceptable time I have answered you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you; and I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritages: ⁹ saying to those who are bound, Go forth; to those who are in darkness, Show yourselves. They will be shepherded in the ways, and on all bare heights will be their pasture. ¹⁰ They will not hunger nor thirst; neither will the heat nor sun strike them: for he who has mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water he will guide them. ¹¹ And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways will be exalted. ¹² Look, these will come from far; and, look, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Syene. ¹³ Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for Yahweh has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

¹⁴ But Zion said, Yahweh has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me. ¹⁵ Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you. ¹⁶ Look, I have graven you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me. ¹⁷ Your builders hurry more than your destroyers, and those who made you waste will go forth from you. ¹⁸ Lift up your eyes round about, and look at all these who gather themselves together, and come to you. As I live, says Yahweh, you will surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, and gird yourself with them, like a bride. ¹⁹ For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now you will be too strait for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away. ²⁰ The sons of your bereavement will yet say in your ears, The place is too strait for me; give a place to me that I may dwell. ²¹ Then you will say in your heart, Who has begotten me these, seeing I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering to and fro? And who has brought these up? Look, I was left alone; these, where were they?

²² Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Look, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and set up my ensign to the peoples; and they will bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters will be carried on their shoulders. ²³ And kings will be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers: they will bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet; and you will know that I am Yahweh; and those who wait for me will not be put to shame.

²⁴ Will the prey be taken from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant be delivered? ²⁵ But thus says Yahweh, Even the captives of the mighty will be taken away, and the prey of the terrible will be delivered; for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your sons. ²⁶ And I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they will be drunk with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

50 Thus says Yahweh, Where is the bill of your⁺ mother's divorce, with which I have put her away? Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you⁺? Look, for your⁺ iniquities you⁺ were sold, and for your⁺ transgressions your⁺ mother was put away. ² Why, when I came, was there no man? When I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. ³ I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

⁴ The Sovereign Yahweh has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary: he wakens morning by morning, he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught. ⁵ The Sovereign Yahweh has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward. ⁶ I gave my back to the strikers, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair; I did not hide my face from shame and spitting. ⁷ For the Sovereign Yahweh will help me; therefore I have not been confounded: therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I will not be put to shame. ⁸ He is near who justifies me; who will contend with me? Let us stand up together: who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. ⁹ Look, the Sovereign Yahweh will help me; who is he who will condemn me? Look, they will all wax old as a garment; the moth will eat them up. ¹⁰ Who is among you⁺ who fears Yahweh, who obeys the voice of his slave? He who walks in darkness, and has no light, let him trust in the name of Yahweh, and rely on his God. ¹¹ Look, all you⁺ who kindle a fire, who gird yourselves about with firebrands; walk⁺ in the flame of your⁺ fire, and among the brands that you⁺ have kindled. This you⁺ will have of my hand: you⁺ will lie down in a place of pain.

51 Listen to me, you⁺ who follow after righteousness, you⁺ who seek Yahweh: look to the rock from where you⁺ were cut, and to the hole of the pit from where you⁺ were dug. ² Look to Abraham your⁺ father, and to Sarah who bore you⁺; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him many.

³ For Yahweh has comforted Zion; he has comforted all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of Yahweh; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

⁴ Attend to me, O my people; and give ear to me, O my nation: for a law will go forth from me, and I will establish my justice for a light of the peoples. ⁵ My righteousness is near, my salvation has gone forth, and my arms will judge the peoples; the isles will wait for me, and on my arm they will trust. ⁶ Lift up your⁺ eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, and the earth will wax old like a garment; and those who dwell in it will die in like manner: but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will not be abolished.

⁷ Listen to me, you⁺ who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; don't be⁺ afraid of the reproach of common man, neither be⁺ dismayed at their revilings. ⁸ For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.

⁹ Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of Yahweh; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Is it not you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the monster? ¹⁰ Is it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? ¹¹ And the ransomed of Yahweh will return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads: they will obtain gladness and joy; [and] sorrow and sighing will flee away.

¹² I, even I, am he who comforts you⁺: who are you, that you are afraid of common man who will die, and of the son of man who will be made as grass; ¹³ and have forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he makes ready to destroy? And where is the fury of the oppressor? ¹⁴ The captive exile will speedily be loosed; and he will not die [and go down] into the pit, neither will his bread fail. ¹⁵ For I am Yahweh your God, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar: Yahweh of hosts is his name. ¹⁶ And I have put my words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, You are my people.

¹⁷ Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, that have drunk at the hand of Yahweh the cup of his wrath; you have drunk the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it. ¹⁸ There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any who takes her by the hand among all the sons who she has brought up. ¹⁹ These two things have befallen you, who will bemoan you? Desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; [with] whom shall I comfort you? ²⁰ Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of Yahweh, the rebuke of your God.

²¹ Therefore now hear this, you afflicted, and drunk, but not with wine: ²² Thus says your Sovereign Yahweh, and your God who pleads the cause of his people, Look, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath; you will no more drink it again: ²³ and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you and those who oppress you, who have said to your soul, Bow down, that we may go over; and you have laid your back as the ground, and as the street, to those who go over.

52 Awake, awake, put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for from now on there will no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. ² Shake yourself from the dust; arise, sit [on your throne], O Jerusalem: the bonds of your neck became loosened, O captive daughter of Zion.

³ For thus says Yahweh, You⁺ were sold for nothing; and you⁺ will be redeemed without silver.

⁴ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there: and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause. ⁵ Now therefore, what do I have here, says Yahweh, seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them howl, says Yahweh, and my name is blasphemed continually all the day. ⁶ Therefore my people will know my name: therefore [they will know] in that day that I am he who speaks; look, it is I.

¹¹ Depart⁺, depart⁺, go⁺ out from there, touch no unclean thing; go⁺ out of the midst of her; cleanse yourselves, you⁺ who bear the vessels of Yahweh. ¹² For you⁺ will not go out in a hurry, neither will you⁺ go by flight: for Yahweh will go before you⁺; and the God of Israel will be your⁺ rearward.

¹³ Look, my slave will deal wisely, he will be exalted and lifted up, and will be very high. ¹⁴ Just as many were astonished at you, so [is his] anointing^a more than a man, his appearance and form more than sons of man. ¹⁵ So he will sprinkle many nations; kings will shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told to them they will see; and that which they had not heard they will understand.

53 Who has believed our message? And to whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed? ² For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he has no form nor majesty; and when we see him, there is no appearance that we should desire him. ³ He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and as one from whom men hide their face he was despised; and we did not esteem him. ⁴ Surely he has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, struck of God, and afflicted. ⁵ But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was on him; and with his stripes we are healed. ⁶ All of us like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and Yahweh has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

⁷ He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth; as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he didn't open his mouth. ⁸ By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and who considered his generation? For he was cut off out of the land of the living; because of the transgression of my people he was stricken to death. ⁹ And they made his grave with the wicked, and his tomb with the rich; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. ¹⁰ Yet it pleased Yahweh to bruise him who was made sick. If his soul makes an offering for sin, [then] he will see [his] seed, he will prolong his days, and the pleasure of Yahweh will prosper in his hand. ¹¹ He will see the light of the travail of his soul, [and] will be satisfied: by his knowledge will my righteous slave justify many; and he will bear their iniquities. ¹² Therefore I will divide him a portion with the great, and he will divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul to death, and was numbered with the transgressors: yet he bore the sins of many, and made intercession for their sins.

54 Sing, O barren, you who did not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not travail: for more are the sons of the desolate than the sons of the married wife, says Yahweh. ² Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations; do not spare: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes. ³ For you will spread abroad on the right hand and on the left; and your seed will possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. ⁴ Don't be afraid; for you will not be ashamed: neither be confounded; for you will not be put to shame: for you will forget the shame of your youth; and the reproach of your widowhood you will remember no more. ⁵ For your Maker is your husband; Yahweh of hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; he will be called the God of the whole earth. ⁶ For Yahweh has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off, says your God. ⁷ For a small moment I have forsaken you; but with great mercies I will gather you. ⁸ In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment; but with everlasting loving-kindness I will have mercy on you, says Yahweh your Redeemer.

⁹ For this is [as] the waters of Noah to me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah will no more go over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. ¹⁰ For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my loving-kindness will not depart from you, neither will my covenant of peace be removed, says Yahweh who has mercy on you.

¹¹ O you afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, look, I will set your stones in fair colors, and lay your foundations with sapphires. ¹² And I will make your pinnacles of rubies, and your gates of carbuncles, and all your border of precious stones. ¹³ And all your sons will be taught of Yahweh; and great will be the peace of your sons. ¹⁴ In righteousness you will be established: you will be far from oppression, for you will not fear; and from terror, for it will not come near you. ¹⁵ Look, they may gather together, but not by me: whoever will gather together against you will fall because of you. ¹⁶ Look, I have created the blacksmith who blows the fire of coals, and brings forth a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. ¹⁷ No weapon that is formed against you will prosper; and every tongue that will rise against you in judgment you will condemn. This is the heritage of the slaves of Yahweh, and their righteousness which is of me, says Yahweh.

55 Ho, everyone who thirsts, come⁺ to the waters, and he who has no silver; come⁺, buy, and eat; yes, come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price. ² Why do you⁺ spend silver for that which is not bread? And your⁺ labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat⁺ that which is good, and let your⁺ soul delight itself in fatness. ³ Incline your⁺ ear, and come to me; hear, and your⁺ soul will live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you⁺, even the sure mercies of David. ⁴ Look, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples. ⁵ Look, you will call a nation that you don't know; and a nation that didn't know you will run to you, because of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he has glorified you.

⁶ Seek⁺ Yahweh while he may be found; call⁺ on him while he is near: ⁷ let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to Yahweh, and he will have mercy on him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. ⁸ For my thoughts are not your⁺ thoughts, neither are your⁺ ways my ways, says Yahweh. ⁹ For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your⁺ ways, and my thoughts than your⁺ thoughts. ¹⁰ For as the rain comes down and the snow from heaven, and does not return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater; ¹¹ so will my word be that goes forth out of my mouth: it will not return to me void, but it will accomplish that which I please, and it will prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. ¹² For you⁺ will go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills will break forth before you⁺ into singing; and all the trees of the field will clap their hands. ¹³ Instead of the thorn will come up the fir-tree; and instead of the brier will come up the myrtle-tree: and it will be to Yahweh for a name, for an everlasting sign that will not be cut off.

56 Thus says Yahweh, Keep⁺ justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. ² Blessed is [the] common man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil. ³ Neither let the foreigner, who has joined himself to Yahweh, speak, saying, Yahweh will surely separate me from his people; neither let the eunuch say, Look, I am a dry tree.

⁴ For thus says Yahweh of the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, and choose that which pleases me, and hold fast my covenant:

⁵ To him I will give in my house and inside my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that will not be cut off.

⁶ Also the foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh, to minister to him, and to love the name of Yahweh, to be his slaves, everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast my covenant; ⁷ even them I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples. ⁸ The Sovereign Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, Yet I will gather [others] to him, besides his own who are gathered. ⁹ All you^a beasts of the field, come to devour, [yes.] all you^a beasts in the forest.

¹⁰ His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all mute dogs, they can't bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. ¹¹ Yes, the dogs are greedy of soul, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds who cannot understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter.^a ¹² Come^a, [they say], I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow will be as this day, [a day] great beyond measure. 57 The righteous perishes, and no man lays it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil [to come]. ² He enters into peace; they rest in their beds, each one who walks in his uprightness.

¹¹ And of whom have you been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and haven't remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? Haven't I held my peace even of long time, and you don't fear me? ¹² I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they will not profit you. ¹³ When you cry, let those who you have gathered deliver you; but the wind will take them, a breath will carry them all away: but he who takes refuge in me will possess the land, and will inherit my holy mountain.

¹⁴ And he will say, Cast^a up, cast^a up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

¹⁵ For thus says the high and lofty One who stays eternally, whose name is Holy: I stay in the high and holy place, and with him who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite. ¹⁶ For I will not contend forever, neither will I always be angry; for the spirit would faint before me, and the breath of those whom I have made. ¹⁷ For the iniquity of his covetousness I was angry, and struck him; I hid [my face] and was angry; and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart. ¹⁸ I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. ¹⁹ I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near, says Yahweh; and I will heal him. ²⁰ But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it can't rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt. ²¹ There is no peace, says my God, to the wicked.

58 Cry aloud, do not spare, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and declare to my people their transgression, and to the house of Jacob their sins. ² Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and did not forsake the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God. ³ Why have we fasted, [they say], and you don't see? [Why] have we afflicted our soul, and you take no knowledge? Look, in the day of your^a fast you^a find [your^a own] pleasure, and exact all your^a labors. ⁴ Look, you^a fast for strife and contention, and to strike with the fist of wickedness: you^a do not fast this day so as to make your^a voice to be heard on high. ⁵ Is such the fast that I have chosen? The day for man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to Yahweh? ⁶ Isn't this the fast that I have chosen: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you^a break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to deal your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house? When you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you don't hide yourself from your own flesh? ⁸ Then will your light break forth as the morning, and your healing will spring forth speedily; and your righteousness will go before you; the glory of Yahweh will be your rearward. ⁹ Then you will call, and Yahweh will answer; you will cry, and he will say, Here I am.

If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking wickedly; ¹⁰ and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul: then your light will rise in darkness, and your obscurity be as the noonday; ¹¹ and Yahweh will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make your bones strong; and you will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail. ¹² And those who will be of you will build the old waste places; you will raise up the foundations of many generations; and you will be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

¹³ If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, [and] the holy of Yahweh honorable; and will honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking [your own] words: ¹⁴ then you will delight yourself in Yahweh; and I will make you to ride on the high places of the earth; and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father: for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

59 Look, Yahweh's hand is not shortened, that it can't save; neither his ear heavy, that it can't hear: ² but your^a iniquities have separated between you^a and your^a God, and your^a sins have hid his face from you^a, so that he will not hear. ³ For your^a hands are defiled with blood, and your^a fingers with iniquity; your^a lips have spoken lies, your^a tongue mutters wickedness.

⁹ Therefore justice is far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but see darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. ¹⁰ We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as those who have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among those who are lusty we are as dead men. ¹¹ We roar all like bears, and moan intensely like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. ¹² For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: ¹³ transgressing and denying Yahweh, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, being pregnant with, and uttering from the heart, words of falsehood. ¹⁴ And justice has turned away backward, and righteousness stands far off; for truth has fallen in the street, and uprightness can't enter. ¹⁵ Yes, truth is lacking; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

And Yahweh saw it, and it was evil in his eyes that there was no justice. ¹⁶ And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it upheld him. ¹⁷ And he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle. ¹⁸ According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense. ¹⁹ So they will fear the name of Yahweh from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of Yahweh drives. ²⁰ And a Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob, says Yahweh. ²¹ And as for me, this is my covenant with them, says Yahweh: my Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, says Yahweh, from now on and forever.

60 Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Yahweh has risen on you. ² For, look, darkness will cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but Yahweh will arise on you, and his glory will be seen on you. ³ And nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

⁴ Lift up your eyes round about, and see: all of them gather themselves together, they come to you; your sons will come from far, and your daughters will be carried in the arms. ⁵ Then you will see and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you, the wealth of the nations will come to you. ⁶ The multitude of camels will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba will come; they will bring gold and frankincense, and will proclaim the good news of the praises of Yahweh. ⁷ All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will minister to you; they will come up with acceptance on my altar; and I will glorify the house of my glory. ⁸ Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? ⁹ Surely the isles will wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

¹⁰ And foreigners will build up your walls, and their kings will minister to you: for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you. ¹¹ Your gates will also be open continually; they will not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive. ¹² For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you will perish; yes, those nations will be completely wasted. ¹³ The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious. ¹⁴ And the sons of those who afflicted you will come bending to you; and all those who despised you will bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they will call you The city of Yahweh, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵ Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. ¹⁶ You will also be nursed with the milk of the nations, and will be nursed with the breast of kings; and you will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷ For bronze I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood bronze, and for stones iron. I will also make your officers peace, and your exactors righteousness. ¹⁸ Violence will no more be heard in your land, desolation nor destruction inside your borders; but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. ¹⁹ The sun will no more be your light by day; neither will the moon give light to you for brightness: but Yahweh will be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory. ²⁰ Your sun will no more go down, neither will your moon withdraw itself; for Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended. ²¹ Your people also will all be righteous; they will inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. ²² The little one will become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, Yahweh, will hurry it in its time.

61 The Spirit of the Sovereign Yahweh is on me; because Yahweh has anointed me to preach good news to the meek; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening [of the prison] to those who are bound; ² to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³ to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of Yahweh, that he may be glorified.

⁴ And they will build the old wastes, they will raise up the former desolations, and they will repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. ⁵ And strangers will stand and shepherd your* flocks, and foreigners will be your* plowmen and your* vine-dressers. ⁶ But you* will be named the priests of Yahweh; men will call you* the ministers of our God: you* will eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory you* will boast yourselves. ⁷ Instead of your* shame [you* will have] double; and instead of dishonor they will rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they will possess double; everlasting joy will be to them. ⁸ For I, Yahweh, love justice, I hate robbery with burnt-offerings; and I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹ And their seed will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples: all who see them will acknowledge them, that they are the seed which Yahweh has blessed.

¹⁰ I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh, my soul will be joyful in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. ¹¹ For as the earth brings forth its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Sovereign Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. 62 For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns. ² And the nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory, and you will be called by a new name, which the mouth of Yahweh will name. ³ You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yahweh, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. ⁴ You will no more be termed Forsaken; neither will your land anymore be termed Desolate: but you will be called Hephzi-bah, and your land Beulah; for Yahweh delights in you, and your land will be married. ⁵ For as a young man takes possession of a virgin, so will your sons take possession of you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so will your God rejoice over you.

¹⁰ Go through, go through the gates; prepare⁺ the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up an ensign for the peoples. ¹¹ Look, Yahweh has proclaimed to the end of the earth, Say⁺ to the daughter of Zion, Look, your salvation comes; look, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. ¹² And they will call them The holy people, The redeemed of Yahweh: and you will be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

63 Who is this that comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This who is glorious in his apparel, striding in the greatness of his strength? I who speak in righteousness, with full resources to save. ² Why are you red in your apparel, and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat? ³ I have trodden the wine press alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yes, I trod them in my anger, and trampled them in my wrath; and their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, and I have stained all my raiment. ⁴ For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come. ⁵ And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore my own arm brought salvation to me; and my wrath, it upheld me. ⁶ And I trod down the peoples in my anger, and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth.

⁷ I will make mention of the loving-kindnesses of Yahweh, [and] the praises of Yahweh, according to all that Yahweh has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. ⁸ For he said, Surely, they are my people, sons who will not deal falsely: so he was their Savior. ⁹ In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bore them, and carried them all the days of old.

¹⁰ But they rebelled, and grieved his Holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, [and] himself fought against them. ¹¹ Then he remembered the days of old, Moses [and] his people, [saying,] Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put his Holy Spirit in the midst of them? ¹² Who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? Who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name? ¹³ Who led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that they did not stumble? ¹⁴ As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Yahweh caused them to rest: so you led your people, to make yourself a glorious name.

¹⁵ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where are your zeal and your mighty acts? The yearning of your insides and your compassions are restrained toward me. ¹⁶ For you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us: you, O Yahweh, are our Father; our Redeemer from everlasting is your name. ¹⁷ O Yahweh, why do you make us to err from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Return for your slaves' sake, the tribes of your inheritance. ¹⁸ Your holy people possessed [it] but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary. ¹⁹ We have become as they over whom you never bore rule, as those who were not called by your name.

64 Oh that you would rend the heavens, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence, ² as when fire kindles the brushwood, [and] the fire causes the waters to boil; to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence! ³ When you did awesome things which we didn't look for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. ⁴ For from of old men haven't heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen a God besides you, who works for him who waits for him. ⁵ You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways: look, you were angry, and we sinned: in them [we have been] of long time; and shall we be saved? ⁶ For we have all become as one who is unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as a polluted garment: and all of us fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. ⁷ And there is none who calls on your name, who stirs up himself to take hold of you; for you have hid your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

⁸ But now, O Yahweh, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you our potter; and all of us are the work of your hand. ⁹ Don't be angry very intensely, O Yahweh, neither remember iniquity forever: see, look, we urge you, we are all your people. ¹⁰ Your holy cities have become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. ¹¹ Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised you, has burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste. ¹² Will you refrain yourself for these things, O Yahweh? Will you hold your peace, and afflict us very intensely?

65 I am inquired of by those who didn't ask [for me]; I am found of those who didn't seek me: I said, Look at me, look at me, to a nation that did not call on my name. ² I have spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts; ³ a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense on bricks; ⁴ who sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; who eat swine's flesh, and broth of contaminated things is in their vessels; ⁵ who say, Stand by yourself, don't come near to me, for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day. ⁶ Look, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but will recompense, yes, I will recompense into their bosom, ⁷ your⁺ own iniquities, and the iniquities of your⁺ fathers together, says Yahweh, who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills; therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom.

⁸ Thus says Yahweh, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Don't destroy it, for a blessing is in it: so I will do for my slaves' sake, that I may not destroy them all. ⁹ And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and my chosen will inherit it, and my slaves will stay there. ¹⁰ And Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people who have sought me. ¹¹ But you⁺ who forsake Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mingled wine to Destiny; ¹² I will destine you⁺ to the sword, and you⁺ will all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you⁺ did not answer; when I spoke, you⁺ did not hear; but you⁺ did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight.

¹³ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Look, my slaves will eat, but you⁺ will be hungry; look, my slaves will drink, but you⁺ will be thirsty; look, my slaves will rejoice, but you⁺ will be put to shame; ¹⁴ look, my slaves will sing for joy of heart, but you⁺ will cry for sorrow of heart, and will wail for vexation of spirit. ¹⁵ And you⁺ will leave your⁺ name for a curse to my chosen; and the Sovereign Yahweh will slay you; and he will call his slaves by another name: ¹⁶ so that he who blesses himself in the earth will bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from my eyes.

¹⁷ For, look, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be remembered, nor come into mind. ¹⁸ But be⁺ glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, look, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. ¹⁹ And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there will be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying. ²⁰ There will be no more from there an infant of days, nor an old man who has not filled his days; for the child will die a hundred years old, and the sinner being a hundred years old will be accursed. ²¹ And they will build houses, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. ²² They will not build, and another inhabit; they will not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree will be the days of my people, and my chosen will long enjoy the work of their hands. ²³ They will not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of Yahweh, and their offspring with them. ²⁴ And it will come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. ²⁵ The wolf and the lamb will be shepherded together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox; and dust will be the serpent's food. They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, says Yahweh.

66 Thus says Yahweh, Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what manner of house will you⁺ build to me? And what place will be my rest? ² For all these things my hand has made, and [so] all these things had come to be, says Yahweh: but to this man I will look, even to him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word. ³ He who kills an ox is as he who slays a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog's neck; he who offers an oblation, [as he who offers] swine's blood; he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their detestable things: ⁴ I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them; because when I called, none answered; when I spoke, they did not hear: but they did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight.

⁵ Hear the word of Yahweh, you⁺ who tremble at his word: Your⁺ brothers who hate you⁺, who cast you⁺ out for my name's sake, have said, Let Yahweh be glorious, that we may see your⁺ joy; but it is they who will be put to shame. ⁶ A voice of tumult from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of Yahweh who renders recompense to his enemies.

⁷ Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child. ⁸ Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Will a land be born in one day? Will a nation be brought forth at once? For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her sons. ⁹ Will I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says Yahweh: will I who cause to bring forth shut [the womb]? says your God.

¹⁵ For, look, Yahweh will come with fire, and his chariots will be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire. ¹⁶ For by fire Yahweh will execute judgment, and by his sword, on all flesh; and the slain of Yahweh will be many. ¹⁷ Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves [to go] to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the detestable, and the mouse, they will come to an end together, says Yahweh.

¹⁸ As for me, given their works and their thoughts: [the time] comes that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they will come, and will see my glory. ¹⁹ And I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles far off, that haven't heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they will declare my glory among the nations. ²⁰ And they will bring all your⁺ brothers out of all the nations for an oblation to Yahweh, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says Yahweh, as the sons of Israel bring their oblation in a clean vessel into the house of Yahweh. ²¹ And of them I will also take for priests [and] for Levites, says Yahweh.

²² For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, will remain before me, says Yahweh, so will your⁺ seed and your⁺ name remain. ²³ And it will come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh will come to worship before me, says Yahweh. ²⁴ And they will go forth, and look at the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me: for their worm will not die, neither will their fire be quenched; and they will be an abhorring to all flesh.

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: ² to whom the word of Yahweh came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³ It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

⁴ Now the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁵ Before I formed you in the belly I knew you, and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations. ⁶ Then I said, Ah, Sovereign Yahweh! Look, I don't know how to speak; for I am a child. ⁷ But Yahweh said to me, Don't say, I am a child; for to whomever I will send you you will go, and whatever I will command you you will speak. ⁸ Don't be afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you, says Yahweh. ⁹ Then Yahweh put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and Yahweh said to me, Look, I have put my words in your mouth: ¹⁰ see, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.

¹¹ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree. ¹² Then Yahweh said to me, You have well seen: for I watch over my word to perform it.

¹³ And the word of Yahweh came to me the second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a boiling cauldron; and the face of it is from the north. ¹⁴ Then Yahweh said to me, Out of the north evil will break forth on all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵ For, look, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says Yahweh; and they will come, and they will set every one his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls round about, and against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁶ And I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands. ¹⁷ You therefore gird up your loins, and arise, and speak to them all that I command you: don't be dismayed at them, or else I will dismay you before them. ¹⁸ For, look, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. ¹⁹ And they will fight against you; but they will not prevail against you: for I am with you, says Yahweh, to deliver you.

2 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I remember for you the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. ³ Israel [was] holiness to Yahweh, the first fruits of his increase: all who devour him will be held guilty; evil will come upon them, says Yahweh.

⁴ Hear⁺ the word of Yahweh, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: ⁵ thus says Yahweh, What unrighteousness have your⁺ fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and have become vain? ⁶ Neither did they say, Where is Yahweh who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that a man has not passed through, and where man has not dwelt? ⁷ And I brought you⁺ into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you⁺ entered, you⁺ defiled my land, and made my heritage disgusting. ⁸ The priests didn't say, Where is Yahweh? And those who handle the law didn't know me: the rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

⁹ Therefore I will yet contend with you⁺, says Yahweh, and with the sons of your⁺ sons I will contend. ¹⁰ For pass over to the isles of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. ¹¹ Has a nation exchanged [its] gods, which yet are no gods? But my people have exchanged my glory for that which does not profit.^a ¹² Be astonished, O you⁺ heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be⁺ very desolate, says Yahweh. ¹³ For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

¹⁴ Is Israel a slave? Is he a home-born [slave]? Why has he become a prey? ¹⁵ The young lions have roared on him, and yelled; and they have made his land waste: his cities are burned up, without inhabitant. ¹⁶ The sons also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the top of your head. ¹⁷ Have you not procured this to yourself, in that you have forsaken Yahweh your God, when he led you by the way? ¹⁸ And now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? Or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River? ¹⁹ Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backslidings will reprove you: know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing, that you have forsaken Yahweh your God, and that my fear is not in you, says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts.

²⁰ For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, I will not serve; for on every high hill and under every green tree you were laying down prostituting. ²¹ Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then have you turned into the wild branches of a foreign vine to me? ²² For though you wash yourself with lye, and take yourself much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ²³ How can you say, I am not defiled, I haven't gone after the Baalim? See your way in the valley, know what you have done: [you are] a swift dromedary traversing her ways; ²⁴ a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in the desire of her soul; in her occasion who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they will find her. ²⁵ Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst: but you said, It is in vain; no, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.

²⁶ As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets; ²⁷ who say to a stock, You are my father; and to a stone, You have brought me forth: for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. ²⁸ But where are your gods that you have made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah.

²⁹ Why will you⁺ contend with me? All of you⁺ have transgressed against me, says Yahweh. ³⁰ In vain I have struck your⁺ sons; they received no correction: your⁺ own sword has devoured your⁺ prophets, like a destroying lion. ³¹ O generation, see⁺ the word of Yahweh. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, We have broken loose; we will come no more to you? ³² Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me days without number. ³³ How you trim your way to seek love! Therefore even the wicked women you have taught your ways. ³⁴ Also in your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the innocent poor: you did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things. ³⁵ Yet you said, I am innocent; surely his anger has turned away from me. Look, I will enter into judgment with you, because you say, I haven't sinned. ³⁶ Why do you want to go away so much to change your course? You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria. ³⁷ From there also you will go forth, with your hands on your head: for Yahweh has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper with them.

3 They say, If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and becomes another man's, will he return to her again? Will not that land be greatly polluted? But you have prostituted with many companions; yet return again to me, says Yahweh. ² Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see; where haven't you been lain with? By the ways you have sat for them, as an Arabian in the wilderness; and you have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. ³ Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. ⁴ Will you not from this time cry to me, My Father, you are the best friend of my youth? ⁵ Will he retain [his anger] forever? Will he keep it to the end? Look, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way.

⁶ Moreover Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She's gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree and prostituted there. ⁷ And I said after she had done all these things, She will return to me; but she didn't return: and her betraying sister Judah saw it. ⁸ And I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet betraying Judah her sister didn't fear; but she also went and prostituted. ⁹ And it came to pass through the lightness of her prostitution, that she defiled herself together with the land, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks. ¹⁰ And yet for all this her betraying sister Judah has not returned to me with her whole heart, but feignedly, says Yahweh.

¹¹ And Yahweh said to me, Backsliding Israel has shown her soul more righteous than betraying Judah. ¹² Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, you backsliding Israel, says Yahweh; I will not look in anger on you⁺; for I am merciful, says Yahweh, I will not keep [anger] forever. ¹³ Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against Yahweh your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you⁺ haven't obeyed my voice, says Yahweh. ¹⁴ Return, O backsliding sons, says Yahweh; for I am a husband to you⁺: and I will take you⁺ one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you⁺ to Zion: ¹⁵ and I will give you⁺ shepherds according to my heart, who will shepherd you⁺ with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶ And it will come to pass, when you⁺ have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says Yahweh, they will say no more, The ark of the covenant of Yahweh; neither will it come to mind; neither will they remember it; neither will they miss it; neither will it be made anymore. ¹⁷ At that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of Yahweh; and all the nations will be gathered to it, to the name of Yahweh, to Jerusalem: neither will they walk anymore after the stubbornness of their evil heart. ¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your⁺ fathers.

¹⁹ But I said, How I will put you among the sons, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of the nations! And I said, You will call me My Father, and will not turn away from following me. ²⁰ Surely as a wife betrays [by divorcing] from her companion, so you⁺ have betrayed me, O house of Israel, says Yahweh. ²¹ A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping [and] the supplications of the sons of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten Yahweh their God. ²² Return, you⁺ backsliding sons, I will heal your⁺ backslidings.

Look, we have come to you; for you are Yahweh our God. ²³ Truly, delusion comes from the hills, the tumult on the mountains: [but] truly in Yahweh our God is the salvation of Israel. ²⁴ But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵ Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Yahweh our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day; and we haven't obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God.

4 If you will return, O Israel, says Yahweh, if you will return to me, and if you will put away your detestable things out of my sight; then you will not be removed; ² and you will swear, As Yahweh lives, in truth, in justice, and in righteousness; and the nations will bless themselves in him, and in him they will glory.

³ For thus says Yahweh to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your⁺ fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns. ⁴ Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh, and take away the foreskins of your⁺ heart, you⁺ men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; or else my wrath will go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your⁺ doings.

⁵ Declare⁺ in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow⁺ the trumpet in the land: cry aloud and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fortified cities. ⁶ Set up a standard toward Zion: flee for safety, don't stop; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. ⁷ A lion has gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he has gone forth from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. ⁸ For this gird yourselves with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of Yahweh has not turned back from us. ⁹ And it will come to pass at that day, says Yahweh, that the heart of the king will perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests will be astonished, and the prophets will wonder.

¹⁰ Then I said, Ah, Sovereign Yahweh! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You⁺ will have peace; whereas the sword reaches to the soul.

¹¹ At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; ¹² a full wind from these will come for me: now I will also utter judgments against them. ¹³ Look, he will come up as clouds, and his chariots [will be] as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. ¹⁴ O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long will your evil thoughts lodge inside you? ¹⁵ For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: ¹⁶ make mention to the nations; Look, publish against Jerusalem [that] watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷ As keepers of a field are those against her round about, because she has been rebellious against me, says Yahweh. ¹⁸ Your way and your doings have procured these things to you; this is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart.

¹⁹ Inside me, inside me! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. ²⁰ Destruction on destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly my tents are destroyed, [and] my curtains in a moment. ²¹ How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? ²² For my people are foolish; they don't know me. They are foolish sons, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil; but to do good they don't know.

²³ I saw the earth, and, look, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴ I saw the mountains, and, look, they trembled, and all the hills moved to and fro. ²⁵ I looked and saw that man was not there, and all the birds of the heavens had fled. ²⁶ I looked and saw that the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of Yahweh, [and] before his fierce anger.

²⁷ For thus says Yahweh, The whole land will be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. ²⁸ For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it. ²⁹ Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they come into holes, hide in thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells in them. ³⁰ And you, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you dress yourself with scarlet, though you deck you with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain you make yourself fair; [your] lovers despise you, they seek your soul. ³¹ For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, [saying,] Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers.

5 Run⁺ to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you⁺ can find a man, if there is any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. ² And if they say, As Yahweh lives; surely they swear falsely. ³ O Yahweh, don't your eyes look at truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved; you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

⁴ Then I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they don't know the way of Yahweh, nor the law of their God: ⁵ I will get myself to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of Yahweh, and the law of their God. But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. ⁶ Therefore a lion out of the forest will slay them, a wolf of the evenings will destroy them, a leopard will watch against their cities; everyone who goes out from there will be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, [and] their backslidings have increased.

⁷ How can I pardon you? Your sons have forsaken me, and sworn by those that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and they dwell at a prostitute's house.^a ⁸ They were as fed horses roaming at large; everyone neighed after his fellow man's wife. ⁹ Shall I not visit for these things? says Yahweh; and will not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

¹⁰ Go⁺ up on her walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end: take away her branches; for they are not Yahweh's. ¹¹ For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have totally betrayed me, says Yahweh. ¹² They have denied Yahweh, and said, It is not he; neither will evil come upon us; neither will we see sword nor famine: ¹³ and the prophets will become wind, and the word is not in them: thus it will be done to them.

¹⁴ Therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of hosts, Because you⁺ speak this word, look, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it will devour them. ¹⁵ Look, I will bring a nation on you⁺ from far, O house of Israel, says Yahweh: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know, neither understand what they say. ¹⁶ Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. ¹⁷ And they will eat up your harvest, and your bread, [which] your sons and your daughters should eat; they will eat up your flocks and your herds; they will eat up your vines and your fig trees; they will beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword. ¹⁸ But even in those days, says Yahweh, I will not make a full end with you⁺.

¹⁹ And it will come to pass, when you⁺ will say, Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us? Then you will say to them, Like you⁺ have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your⁺ land, so you⁺ will serve strangers in a land that is not yours⁺.

²⁰ Declare⁺ this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, ²¹ Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and don't see; who have ears, and don't hear: ²² Don't you⁺ fear me? says Yahweh: Will you⁺ not tremble at my presence, who has placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? And though its waves toss themselves, yet they can't prevail; though they roar, yet they can't pass over it. ²³ But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. ²⁴ Neither do they say in their heart, Let us now fear Yahweh our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; and preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest. ²⁵ Your⁺ iniquities have turned away these things, and your⁺ sins have withheld good from you⁺. ²⁶ For among my people are found wicked men: they watch, as a fowler lying in wait; they set a trap, they catch men. ²⁷ As a cage is full of birds, so their houses are full of deceit: therefore they have become great, and waxed rich. ²⁸ They are waxed fat, they shine: yes, they overpass in deeds of wickedness; they don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they don't judge the right of the needy. ²⁹ Shall I not visit for these things? says Yahweh; will not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

³⁰ A wonderful and horrible thing has come to pass in the land: ³¹ the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will you⁺ do in the end of it?

6 Flee for safety, you⁺ sons of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth-haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction. ² The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, I will cut off. ³ Shepherds with their flocks will come to her; they will pitch their tents against her round about; they will shepherd every one in his place. ⁴ Prepare^a war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. ⁵ Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces. ⁶ For thus has Yahweh of hosts said, Cut^a down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. ⁷ As a well casts forth its waters, so she casts forth her wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds. ⁸ Be instructed, O Jerusalem, or else my soul will be alienated from you; and I will make you a desolation, a land not inhabited.

⁹ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again your hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets. ¹⁰ To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? Look, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot listen: look, the word of Yahweh has become to them a reproach; they have no delight in it. ¹¹ Therefore I am full of the wrath of Yahweh; I am weary with holding in: pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife will be taken, the aged with him who is full of days. ¹² And their houses will be turned to others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says Yahweh. ¹³ For from the least of them even to the greatest of them everyone is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely. ¹⁴ They have healed also the hurt of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. ¹⁵ They were ashamed when they did these disgusting things.^a But, they did not feel ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they will fall among those who fall; at the time that I visit them they will be cast down, says Yahweh.

¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh, Stand^a in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way; and walk in it, and you^a will find rest for your^a souls: but they said, We will not walk [in it]. ¹⁷ And I set watchmen over you^a, [saying,] Listen to the sound of the trumpet; but they said, We will not listen. ¹⁸ Therefore hear, you^a nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. ¹⁹ Hear, O earth: look, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. ²⁰ To what purpose does frankincense from Sheba come to me, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your^a burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your^a sacrifices pleasing to me. ²¹ Therefore thus says Yahweh, Look, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people; and the fathers and the sons together will stumble against them; the neighbor and his fellow man will perish.

²² Thus says Yahweh, Look, a people comes from the north country; and a great nation will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ²³ They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, O daughter of Zion. ²⁴ We have heard its report; our hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, [and] pangs as of a woman in travail. ²⁵ Don't go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy, [and] terror, are on every side. ²⁶ O daughter of my people, gird with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes: make mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer will suddenly come upon us.

²⁷ Among my people, I have made you as a trier [of metals], as a fortress you will examine and try their way. ²⁸ All of them are grievous revolvers, going about with slanders; they are bronze and iron: all of them, they deal corruptly. ²⁹ The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. ³⁰ Men will call them refuse silver, because Yahweh has rejected them.

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² Stand in the gate of Yahweh's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of Yahweh, all you^a of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Yahweh. ³ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your^a ways and your^a doings, and I will make it so that you^a stay in this place. ⁴ Don't trust^a in lying words, saying, The temple of Yahweh, the temple of Yahweh, the temple of Yahweh, are these [buildings]. ⁵ For if you^a thoroughly amend your^a ways and your^a doings; if you^a thoroughly execute justice between a man and his fellow man; ⁶ if you^a don't oppress the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your^a own hurt: ⁷ then I will make it so that you^a stay in this place, in the land that I gave to your^a fathers, from of old even forevermore.

⁸ Look, you^a trust in lying words, that can't profit. ⁹ Will you^a steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you^a have not known, ¹⁰ and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that you^a may do all these disgusting things? ¹¹ Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your^a eyes? Look, I, even I, have seen it, says Yahweh.

¹² But go^a now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I made my name stay at first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³ And now, because you^a have done all these works, says Yahweh, and I spoke to you^a, rising up early and speaking, but you^a didn't hear; and I called you^a, but you^a didn't answer: ¹⁴ therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you^a trust, and to the place which I gave to you^a and to your^a fathers, as I did to Shiloh. ¹⁵ And I will cast you^a out of my sight, as I have cast out all your^a brothers, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

¹⁶ Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. ¹⁷ Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸ The sons gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. ¹⁹ Do they provoke me to anger? says Yahweh; [do they] not [provoke] themselves, to the confusion of their own faces? ²⁰ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man, and on beast, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it will burn, and will not be quenched.

²¹ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your^a burnt-offerings to your^a sacrifices, and eat^a flesh. ²² For I did not speak to your^a fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices: ²³ but this thing I commanded them, saying, Listen to my voice, and I will be your⁺ God, and you⁺ will be my people; and walk⁺ in all the way that I command you⁺, that it may be well with you⁺. ²⁴ But they didn't listen, nor incline their ear, but walked in [their own] counsels [and] in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. ²⁵ Since the day that your⁺ fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent all my slaves the prophets to you⁺, daily rising up early and sending them: ²⁶ yet they didn't listen to me, nor incline their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers.

^a This refers to the people regarding these prophets as shameful persons. The clause which follows refers to feeling shame. See also verse 8:12 and HOTTP.

²⁷ And you will speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you will also call to them; but they will not answer you. ²⁸ And you will say to them, This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of Yahweh their God, nor received instruction: truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

²⁹ Cut off your hair, [O Jerusalem], and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Yahweh has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. ³⁰ For the sons of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight, says Yahweh: they have set their detestable things in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³¹ And they have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, neither did it come into my mind. ³² Therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that it will no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they will bury in Topheth, until there is no place [to bury]. ³³ And the dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth; and none will frighten them away. ³⁴ Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land will become a waste.

8 At that time, says Yahweh, they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves; ² and they will spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they will not be gathered, nor be buried, they will be for dung on the face of the earth. ³ And death will be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them, says Yahweh of hosts.

⁴ Moreover you will say to them, Thus says Yahweh: Will men fall, and not rise up again? Will one turn away, and not return? ⁵ Why then has this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? They hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. ⁶ I listened and heard, but they did not speak aright: no man repents of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? Everyone turns to his race,^a as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle. ⁷ Yes, the stork in the heavens knows her appointed times; and the turtle dove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people don't know the law of Yahweh.

⁸ How do you⁺ say, We are wise, and the law of Yahweh is with us? But, look, the false pen of the scribes has wrought falsely.

⁹ The wise men are put to shame, they are dismayed and taken: look, they have rejected the word of Yahweh; and what manner of wisdom is in them? ¹⁰ Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who will possess them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely. ¹¹ And they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. ¹² They were ashamed when they did these disgusting things.^b But, they did not feel ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they will fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they will be cast down, says Yahweh. ¹³ I will completely consume them, says Yahweh: there will be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf will fade; and [the things that] I have given them will pass away from them.

¹⁴ Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for Yahweh our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against Yahweh. ¹⁵ We looked for peace, but no good came; [and] for a time of healing, and, look, dismay! ¹⁶ The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those who dwell in it. ¹⁷ For, look, I will send serpents, adders, among you⁺, which will not be charmed; and they will bite you⁺, says Yahweh.

9 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ² Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of betraying men. ³ And they arm their tongues, [as] their bows, with falsehood; and it is not for loyalty that they are strong: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me, says Yahweh. ⁴ Take⁺ heed every one of his fellow man, and don't trust⁺ in any brother; for every brother will completely supplant, and every fellow man will go about with slanders. ⁵ And they will deceive every one his fellow man, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, perversion; they are unable to come back. ⁶ Oppression upon oppression, deceit upon deceit; they refuse to know me, says Yahweh.

¹⁰ For the mountains I will lift: a weeping and a wailing; and for the pastures of the wilderness: a lamentation; because they are burned up, so that none passes through; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled, they are gone. ¹¹ And I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling-place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

¹² Who is the wise man, that may understand this? And [who is] he to whom the mouth of Yahweh has spoken, that he may declare it? Why has the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passes through? ¹³ And Yahweh says, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and haven't obeyed my voice, neither walked in it, ¹⁴ but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baalim, which their fathers taught them; ¹⁵ therefore this is what Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says, Look, I will feed this people with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁶ I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.

¹⁷ This is what Yahweh of hosts says, Consider⁺, and call⁺ for the mourning women, that they may come; and send⁺ for the skillful women, that they may come: ¹⁸ and let them hurry, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. ¹⁹ For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How we are ruined! We are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings. ²⁰ Yet hear the word of Yahweh, O you⁺ women, and let your⁺ ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your⁺ daughters wailing, and every woman her fellow woman lamentation. ²¹ For death has come up into our windows, it has entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, [and] the young men from the streets. ²² Speak, Thus says Yahweh, The dead bodies of man will fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman; and none will gather [them].

²³ Thus says Yahweh, Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, don't let the rich man glory in his riches; ²⁴ but let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am Yahweh who exercises loving-kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, says Yahweh.

²⁵ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will punish all those who are circumcised in [their] uncircumcision: ²⁶ Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the sons of Ammon, and Moab, and all who have the corners [of their hair] cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.

10 Hear⁺ the word which Yahweh speaks to you⁺, O house of Israel: ² thus says Yahweh, Don't learn the way of the nations, and don't be dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the nations are dismayed at them. ³ For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the ax. ⁴ They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it will not move. ⁵ They are like a palm-tree, of turned work, and don't speak: they must surely be borne, because they can't go. Don't be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good.

⁶ There is none like you, O Yahweh; you are great, and your name is great in might. ⁷ Who should not fear you, O King of the nations? For to you does it appertain; since among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like you. ⁸ But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! It is but a stock. ⁹ There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men. ¹⁰ But Yahweh is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to endure his indignation.

¹¹ Thus you⁺ will say to them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these will perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.

¹² He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding he has stretched out the heavens: ¹³ when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasures. ¹⁴ All of man has become brutish [and is] without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his graven image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁵ They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they will perish. ¹⁶ The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: Yahweh of hosts is his name.

¹⁷ Gather up your wares out of the land, O you who remain in the siege. ¹⁸ For thus says Yahweh, Look, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel [it].

¹⁹ Woe is me^a because of my hurt! My wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is [my] grief, and I must bear it. ²⁰ My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my sons have gone forth from me, and they are not: there is none to spread my tent anymore, and to set up my curtains. ²¹ For the shepherds have become brutish, and haven't inquired of Yahweh: therefore they haven't prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. ²² The voice of news, look, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling-place of jackals.

²³ O Yahweh, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in a man who walks to direct his steps. ²⁴ O Yahweh, correct me,^b but in measure: not in your anger, or else you will bring me to nothing. ²⁵ Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and on the families that do not call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² Hear⁺ the words of this covenant. And speak them to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ³ and say to them, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: Cursed be the man who does not hear the words of this covenant, ⁴ which I commanded your⁺ fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you⁺: so you⁺ will be my people, and I will be your⁺ God; ⁵ that I may establish the oath which I swore to your⁺ fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then I answered, and said, Amen, O Yahweh.

⁶ And Yahweh said to me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear⁺ the words of this covenant, and do them. ⁷ For I earnestly protested to your⁺ fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. ⁸ Yet they didn't obey, nor incline their ear, but walked every one in the stubbornness of their evil heart:

^a me. Although this is singular it has a collective meaning. It is the people who speak. Also in verse 24.

therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them.

⁹ And Yahweh said to me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they have gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. ¹¹ Therefore thus says Yahweh, Look, I will bring evil on them, which they will not be able to escape; and they will cry to me, but I will not listen to them. ¹² Then will the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³ For according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you⁺ set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.

¹⁴ Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble. ¹⁵ What has my beloved to do in my house, seeing she has wrought lewdness [with] many, and the holy flesh has passed from you? When you do evil, then you rejoice. ¹⁶ Yahweh called your name, A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and the branches of it are broken. ¹⁷ For Yahweh of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have wrought for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

¹⁸ And Yahweh gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. ¹⁹ But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I didn't know that they had devised devices against me, [saying,] Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be remembered no more. ²⁰ But, O Yahweh of hosts, who judges righteously, who tries the heart and the mind, I will see your vengeance on them; for to you I have revealed my cause. ²¹ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your soul, saying, You will not prophesy in the name of Yahweh, that you will not die by our hand; ²² therefore this is what Yahweh of Hosts says, Look, I will punish them: the young men will die by the sword; their sons and their daughters will die by famine; ²³ and there will be no remnant to them: for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

12 You are righteous, O Yahweh, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are total betrayers at ease? ² You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. ³ But you, O Yahweh, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. ⁴ How long will the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? For the wickedness of those who dwell in it, the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He will not see our latter end.

⁵ If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? ⁶ For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have betrayed you; even they have cried aloud after you: don't believe them, though they speak good things to you.

⁷ I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. ⁸ My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. ⁹ Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her round about? Go⁺, assemble⁺ all the beasts of the field, bring⁺ them to devour. ¹⁰ Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. ¹¹ They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart. ¹² Destroyers have come upon all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Yahweh devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. ¹³ They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have tired themselves out, and profit nothing. And be⁺ ashamed of your⁺ fruits, because of the fierce anger of Yahweh.

¹⁴ Thus says Yahweh against all my evil neighbors, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Look, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵ And it will come to pass, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. ¹⁶ And it will come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As Yahweh lives; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then they will be built up in the midst of my people. ¹⁷ But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, says Yahweh.

13 Thus says Yahweh to me, Go, and buy a linen loincloth, and put it on your loins, and don't put it in water. ² So I bought a loincloth according to the word of Yahweh, and put it on my loins. ³ And the word of Yahweh came to me the second time, saying, ⁴ Take the loincloth that you have bought, which is on your loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock. ⁵ So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as Yahweh commanded me. ⁶ And it came to pass after many days, that Yahweh said to me, Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the loincloth from there, which I commanded you to hide there. ⁷ Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the loincloth from the place where I had hid it; and, look, the loincloth was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

⁸ Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹ Thus says Yahweh, After this manner I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and have gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, will even be as this loincloth, which is profitable for nothing. ¹¹ For as the loincloth sticks to the loins of a man, so I have caused to stick to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, says Yahweh; that they may be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

¹² Therefore you will speak to them this word: This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Every bottle will be filled with wine: and they will say to you, Don't we certainly know that every bottle will be filled with wine? ¹³ Then you will say to them, Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. ¹⁴ And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says Yahweh: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.

¹⁵ Hear⁺, and give ear; don't be proud; for Yahweh has spoken.

¹⁶ Give glory to Yahweh your⁺ God, before he causes darkness, and before your⁺ feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you⁺ look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. ¹⁷ But if you⁺ will not hear it, my soul will weep in secret for [your⁺] pride; and my eye will weep intensely, and run down with tears, because Yahweh's flock is taken captive.

¹⁸ Say to the king and to the queen-mother, Humble yourselves, sit down; for what is on your⁺ head has come down, even the crown of your⁺ glory. ¹⁹ The cities of the South are shut up, and there is none to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive.

²⁰ Lift up your⁺ eyes, and look at those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock?

²¹ What will you say, when he will set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be best friends to you? Will not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? ²² And if you say in your heart, Why have these things come upon me? For the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence. ²³ Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you⁺ also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. ²⁴ Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. ²⁵ This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me, says Yahweh; because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. ²⁶ Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame will appear. ²⁷ I have seen your detestable things, even your adulteries, and your neighings, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! You will not be made clean; how much longer will it be?

14 The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought.

⁷ Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name's sake, O Yahweh; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you. ⁸ O you hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a sojourner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to tarry for a night? ⁹ Why should you be as a man frightened, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, O Yahweh, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; don't leave us.

¹⁰ Thus says Yahweh to this people, Even so they have loved to wander; they haven't refrained their feet: therefore Yahweh does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. ¹¹ And Yahweh said to me, Don't pray for this people for [their] good. ¹² When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and meal-offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

¹³ Then I said, Ah, Sovereign Yahweh! Look, the prophets say to them, You⁺ will not see the sword, neither will you⁺ have famine; but I will give you⁺ assured peace in this place. ¹⁴ Then Yahweh said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I did not send them, neither have I commanded them, neither did I speak to them: they prophesy to you⁺ a lying vision, and a psychic reading, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. ¹⁵ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I did not send them, yet they say, Sword and famine will not be in this land: By sword and famine will those prophets be consumed. ¹⁶ And the people to whom they prophesy will be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they will have none to bury them—they, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness on them. ¹⁷ And you will say this word to them, Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and don't let them cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. ¹⁸ If I go forth into the field, then, look, the slain with the sword! And if I enter into the city, then, look, those who are sick with famine! For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge.

¹⁹ Have you completely rejected Judah? Has your soul loathed Zion? Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and, look, dismay! ²⁰ We acknowledge, O Yahweh, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. ²¹ Do not abhor [us], for your name's sake; do not shame the throne of your glory: remember, don't break your covenant with us. ²² Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Are you not he, O Yahweh our God? Therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.

15 Then Yahweh said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my soul would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. ² And it will come to pass, when they say to you, Where shall we go forth? Then you will tell them, Thus says Yahweh: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. ³ And I will appoint over them four kinds, says Yahweh: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and to destroy. ⁴ And I will cause them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

⁵ For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem? Or who will bemoan you? Or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare?

⁶ You have rejected me, says Yahweh, you have gone backward: therefore I have stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting. ⁷ And I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved [them] of children, I have destroyed my people; they didn't return from their ways. ⁸ Their widows have increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly. ⁹ She who has borne seven languishes; she has breathed out her soul; her sun has gone down while it was yet day; she has been put to shame and confounded: and the residue of them I will deliver to the sword before their enemies, says Yahweh.

¹⁰ Woe to me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; [yet] every one of them curses me.

¹¹ Yahweh said, Truly I will release you for [your] good; truly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. ¹² Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and bronze? ¹³ Your substance and your treasures I will give for a spoil, as a price for all your sins, even in all your borders. ¹⁴ And I will make you a slave of your enemies into a land which you don't know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which will burn on you⁺.

¹⁵ O Yahweh, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; don't take me away in your long-suffering: know that for your sake I have suffered reproach.

¹⁶ Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, O Yahweh, God of hosts. ¹⁷ I did not sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation. ¹⁸ Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful [brook], as waters that fail?

¹⁹ Therefore thus says Yahweh, If you return, then I will bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you will be as my mouth: they will return to you, but you will not return to them. ²⁰ And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Yahweh. ²¹ And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.

16 The word of Yahweh came also to me, saying, ² You will not take for yourself a wife, neither will you have sons or daughters, in this place. ³ For thus says Yahweh concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who begot them in this land: ⁴ They will die grievous deaths: they will not be lamented, neither will they be buried; they will be as dung on the face of the ground; and they will be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth.

⁵ For thus says Yahweh, Don't enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says Yahweh, even loving-kindness and tender mercies. ⁶ Both great and small will die in this land; they will not be buried, neither will men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; ⁷ neither will men break bread for the mourner, to comfort them for the dead; neither will men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. ⁸ And you will not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink. ⁹ For thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Look, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your⁺ eyes and in your⁺ days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

¹⁰ And it will come to pass, when you will show this people all these words, and they will say to you, Why has Yahweh pronounced all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against Yahweh our God? ¹¹ Then you will say to them, Because your⁺ fathers have forsaken me, says Yahweh, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and haven't kept my law; ¹² and you⁺ have done evil more than your⁺ fathers; for, look, you⁺ walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you⁺ don't listen to me: ¹³ therefore I will cast you⁺ forth out of this land into the land that you⁺ haven't known, neither you⁺ nor your⁺ fathers; and there you⁺ will serve other gods day and night; for I will show you⁺ no favor.

¹⁴ Therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that it will no more be said, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt; ¹⁵ but, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them. And I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶ Look, I will send for many fishers, says Yahweh, and they will fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷ For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. ¹⁸ And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their disgusting things.

¹⁹ O Yahweh, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you will the nations come from the ends of the earth, and will say, Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, [even] vanity and things in which there is no profit. ²⁰ Will man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods?

²¹ Therefore, look, I will cause them to know, this once I will cause them to know my hand and my might; and they will know that my name is Yahweh.

17 The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, [and] with the point of a diamond: it is graven on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your⁺ altars; ² while their sons remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees on the high hills. ³ O you in the field who goes to the mountain,^a I will give your substance and all your treasures for a spoil, [and] your high places for sin, throughout all your borders. ⁴ And you, by your own fault, will discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you don't know: for you⁺ have kindled a fire in my anger which will burn forever.

⁵ Thus says Yahweh: Cursed is the [noble] man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from Yahweh. ⁶ For he will be like the heath in the desert, and will not see when good comes, but will stay in the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. ⁷ Blessed is the [noble] man who trusts in Yahweh, and whose trust is Yahweh. ⁸ For he will be as a tree planted by the waters, that spreads out its roots by the river, and will not fear when heat comes, but its leaf will be green; and will not be careful in the year of drought, neither will cease from yielding fruit.

⁹ The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it? ¹⁰ I, Yahweh, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings. ¹¹ As the partridge that sits on [eggs] which she has not laid, so is he who gets riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they will leave him, and at his end he will be a fool.

¹² A glorious throne, [set] on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary. ¹³ O Yahweh, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you will be put to shame. Those who depart from me will be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Yahweh, the fountain of living waters. ¹⁴ Heal me, O Yahweh, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved: for you are my praise. ¹⁵ Look, they say to me, Where is the word of Yahweh? Let it come now. ¹⁶ As for me, I haven't hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face. ¹⁷ Don't be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil. ¹⁸ Let them be put to shame who persecute me, but don't let me be put to shame; let them be dismayed, but don't let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

¹⁹ Thus Yahweh said to me: Go, and stand in the gate of the sons of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; ²⁰ and say to them, Hear⁺ the word of Yahweh, you⁺ kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: ²¹ Thus says Yahweh, Take heed to your⁺ souls, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; ²² neither carry forth a burden out of your⁺ houses on the Sabbath day, neither do⁺ any work: but hallow⁺ the Sabbath day, as I commanded your⁺ fathers. ²³ But they didn't listen, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction.

²⁴ And it will come to pass, if you⁺ diligently listen to me, says Yahweh, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to hallow the Sabbath day, to do no work in it; ²⁵ then there will enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will remain forever. ²⁶ And they will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places round about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill-country, and from the South, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meal-offerings, and frankincense, and bringing [sacrifices of] thanksgiving, to the house of Yahweh. ²⁷ But if you⁺ will not listen to me to hallow the Sabbath day, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it will not be quenched.

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words. ³ Then I went down to the potter's house, and, look, he was making a work on the wheels. ⁴ And when the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

⁵ Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁶ O house of Israel, can't I do with you⁺ as this potter? says Yahweh. Look, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you⁺ in my hand, O house of Israel. ⁷ At what instant I will speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; ⁸ if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. ⁹ And at what instant I will speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; ¹⁰ if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they do not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. ¹¹ Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Yahweh: Look, I frame evil against you⁺, and devise a device against you⁺: return⁺ now every one from his evil way, and amend your⁺ ways and your⁺ doings. ¹² But they say, It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart.

¹³ Therefore thus says Yahweh: Ask⁺ now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. ¹⁴ Will the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of Shaddai?^a [Or] will the cold waters that flow down from far away be dried up? ¹⁵ For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false [gods]; and they made them stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths, in a way not cast up; ¹⁶ to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and shake his head. ¹⁷ I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will see them with the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

¹⁸ Then they said, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law will not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

¹⁹ Give heed to me, O Yahweh, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. ²⁰ Will evil be recompensed for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them. ²¹ Therefore deliver up their sons to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, [and] their young men struck of the sword in battle. ²² Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you will bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. ²³ Yet, Yahweh, you know all their counsel against me to slay me; don't forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal with them in the time of your anger.

19 This is what Yahweh said, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle,^b and [take] of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; ² and go forth to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I will tell you; ³ and say, Hear⁺ the word of Yahweh, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, Look, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears will tingle. ⁴ Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they didn't know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with innocent blood, ⁵ and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt-offerings to Baal; which I didn't command, nor speak it, neither did it come into my mind: ⁶ therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that this place will no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter. ⁷ And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their soul: and their dead bodies I will give to be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth. ⁸ And I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. ⁹ And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they will eat every one the flesh of his fellow man, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their soul, will distress them.

¹⁰ Then you will break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, ¹¹ and will say to them, Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again; and they will bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. ¹² Thus I will do to this place, says Yahweh, and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: ¹³ and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, will be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings to other gods.

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of Yahweh's house, and said to all the people: ¹⁵ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, Look, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.

20 Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was leading officer in the house of Yahweh, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. ² Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Yahweh. ³ And it came to pass on the next day, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah to him, Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but Magor-missabib. ⁴ For thus says Yahweh, Look, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they will fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes will watch it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive to Babylon, and will slay them with the sword. ⁵ Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all its precious things, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies; and they will make them a prey, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶ And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house will go into captivity; and you will come to Babylon, and there you will die, and there you will be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.

⁷ O Yahweh, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I have become a laughingstock all the day, everyone mocks me. ⁸ For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and destruction! Because the word of Yahweh has been a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. ⁹ And if I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak anymore in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can't [contain]. ¹⁰ For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, [say] all my friends among common man, those who watch for my fall; perhaps he will be persuaded, and we will prevail against him, and we will take our revenge on him. ¹¹ But Yahweh is with me as a mighty one [and] a terrible: therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they will not prevail; they will be completely put to shame, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which will never be forgotten. ¹² But, O Yahweh of hosts, who tries the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you I have revealed my cause. ¹³ Sing to Yahweh, praise you⁺ Yahweh; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴ Cursed be the day in which I was born: don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. ¹⁵ Cursed be the man who brought good news to my father, saying, A man-child is born to you; making him very glad. ¹⁶ And let that man be as the cities which Yahweh overthrew, and didn't repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; ¹⁷ because he didn't slay me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always pregnant. ¹⁸ Why did I come forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, ² Inquire, I pray you, of Yahweh for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps Yahweh will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

³ Then Jeremiah said to them, Thus you⁺ will say to Zedekiah: ⁴ This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Look, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your⁺ hands, with which you⁺ fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you⁺, outside the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. ⁵ And I myself will fight against you⁺ with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. ⁶ And I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they will die of a great pestilence. ⁷ And afterward, says Yahweh, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his slaves, and the people, and those who are left in this city, from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their soul: and he will strike them with the edge of the sword; he will not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

⁸ And to this people you will say, Thus says Yahweh: Look, I set before you⁺ the way of life and the way of death. ⁹ He who remains in this city will die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you⁺, he will live, and his soul will be to him for a prey. ¹⁰ For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good, says Yahweh: it will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.

¹¹ And concerning the house of the king of Judah, hear⁺ the word of Yahweh: ¹² O house of David, thus says Yahweh, Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, or else my wrath will go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your⁺ doings. ¹³ Look, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, [and] of the rock of the plain, says Yahweh; you⁺ who say, Who will come down against us? Or who will enter into our habitations? ¹⁴ And I will punish you⁺ according to the fruit of your⁺ doings, says Yahweh; and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it will devour all that is round about her.

22 Thus said Yahweh: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, ² And say, Hear the word of Yahweh, O king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you, and your slaves, and your people who enter in by these gates. ³ Thus says Yahweh: Execute⁺ justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the sojourner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴ For if you⁺ do this thing indeed, then there will enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his slaves, and his people. ⁵ But if you⁺ will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says Yahweh, that this house will become a desolation. ⁶ For thus says Yahweh concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are Gilead to me, [and] the head of Lebanon; [yet] surely I will make you a wilderness, [and] cities which are not inhabited. ⁷ And I will prepare destroyers against you, every one with his weapons; and they will cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. ⁸ And many nations will pass by this city, and they will say every man to his fellow man, Why has Yahweh done thus to this great city? ⁹ Then they will answer, Because they forsook the covenant of Yahweh their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.

¹⁰ Don't weep⁺ for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep intensely for him who goes away; for he will return no more, nor see his native country. ¹¹ For thus says Yahweh concerning Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, [and] who went forth out of this place: He will not return there anymore. ¹² But in the place where they have led him captive, there he will die, and he will see this land no more.

¹³ Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by injustice; who uses his fellow man's service without wages, and does not give him his wages; ¹⁴ who says, I will build me a wide house and spacious chambers, and cut him out many windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermillion. ¹⁵ Will you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him. ¹⁶ He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this the knowledge of me? says Yahweh. ¹⁷ But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. ¹⁸ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: they will not lament for him, [saying,] Ah my brother! Ah best brother!^a They will not lament for him, [saying,] Ah lord! Ah his excellence! ¹⁹ He will be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. ²¹ I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your manner from your youth, that you didn't obey my voice. ²² The wind will shepherd all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. ²³ O inhabitant of Lebanon, that make your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come upon you, the pain as of a woman in travail!

²⁴ As I live, says Yahweh, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet I would pluck you from there; ²⁵ and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your soul, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶ And I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you⁺ were not born; and there you⁺ will die. ²⁷ But to the land to where their soul longs to return, they will not return there. ²⁸ Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? Is he a vessel in which none delights? Why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they don't know? ²⁹ O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Yahweh. ³⁰ Thus says Yahweh, Write⁺ this man childless, a [prominent] man who will not prosper in his days; for no more will a man of his seed prosper, sitting on the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.

23 Woe to the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says Yahweh. ² Therefore this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You⁺ have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; look, I will visit on you⁺ the evil of your⁺ doings, says Yahweh. ³ And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they will be fruitful and multiply. ⁴ And I will set up shepherds over them, who will shepherd them; and they will fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither will any be lacking, says Yahweh.

⁵ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he will reign as king and deal wisely, and will execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶ In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will stay safely; and this is his name by which he will be called: Yahweh our righteousness. ⁷ Therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that they will no more say, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt; ⁸ but, As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them. And they will dwell in their own land.

⁹ Concerning the prophets. My heart inside me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunk man, and like an [able-bodied] man whom wine has overcome, because of Yahweh, and because of his holy words. ¹⁰ For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. And their course is evil, and their might is not right; ¹¹ for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house I have found their wickedness, says Yahweh. ¹² Therefore their way will be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they will be driven on, and fall in it; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation, says Yahweh.

¹³ And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. ¹⁴ In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that none returns from his wickedness: they are all of them to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah. ¹⁵ Therefore this is what Yahweh of Hosts says concerning the prophets: Look, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem has ungodliness gone forth into all the land.

¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you⁺: they teach you⁺ vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Yahweh. ¹⁷ They say continually to those who despise me, Yahweh has said, You⁺ will have peace; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, No evil will come upon you⁺. ¹⁸ For who has stood in the council of Yahweh, that he should perceive and hear his word? Who has marked my word, and heard it? ¹⁹ Look, the tempest of Yahweh, [even his] wrath, has gone forth, yes, a whirling tempest: it will burst on the head of the wicked. ²⁰ The anger of Yahweh will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you⁺ will understand it perfectly. ²¹ I did not send these prophets, yet they ran: I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied. ²² But if they had stood in my council, then they would cause my people to hear my words, and turn them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

²³ Am I a God at hand, says Yahweh, and not a God far off? ²⁴ Can any hide himself in secret places so that I will not see him? says Yahweh. Don't I fill heaven and earth? says Yahweh. ²⁵ I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. ²⁶ How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart, ²⁷ who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his fellow man, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal? ²⁸ The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? says Yahweh. ²⁹ Isn't my word like fire? says Yahweh; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? ³⁰ Therefore, look, I am against the prophets, says Yahweh, that steal my words every man from his fellow man. ³¹ Look, I am against the prophets, says Yahweh, that use their tongues, and say, He says. ³² Look, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says Yahweh, and tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I did not send them, nor command them; neither do they profit this people at all, says Yahweh.

³³ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, will ask you, saying, What is the burden of Yahweh? Then you will say to them, You are the burden. I will cast you⁺ off, says Yahweh. ³⁴ And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who will say, The burden of Yahweh, I will even punish that man and his house. ³⁵ Thus you⁺ will say every man to his fellow man, and every man to his brother, What has Yahweh answered? And, What has Yahweh spoken? ³⁶ And the burden of Yahweh you⁺ will mention no more: for every man's own word will be his burden; for you⁺ have perverted the words of the living God, of Yahweh of hosts our God. ³⁷ Thus you will say to the prophet, What has Yahweh answered you? And, What has Yahweh spoken? ³⁸ But if you⁺ say, The burden of Yahweh; therefore thus says Yahweh: Because you⁺ say this word, The burden of Yahweh, and I have sent to you⁺, saying, You⁺ will not say, The burden of Yahweh; ³⁹ therefore, look, I will surely lift you⁺ up, and I will cast you⁺ off, and the city that I gave to you⁺ and to your⁺ fathers, away from my presence: ⁴⁰ and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you⁺, and a perpetual shame, which will not be forgotten.

24 Yahweh showed me, and, look, two baskets of figs set before the temple of Yahweh, after Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and blacksmiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ² One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. ³ Then Yahweh said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad.

⁴ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁵ This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: Like these good figs, so I will regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. ⁶ For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. ⁷ And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yahweh: and they will be my people, and I will be their God; for they will return to me with their whole heart.

⁸ And as the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says Yahweh, So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt, ⁹ I will even give them up to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them. ¹⁰ And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon), ² which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³ From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these three and twenty years, the word of Yahweh has come to me, and I have spoken to you⁺, rising up early and speaking; but you⁺ haven't listened. ⁴ And Yahweh has sent all his slaves the prophets to you⁺, rising up early and sending them (but you⁺ haven't listened, nor inclined your⁺ ear to hear), ⁵ saying, Return⁺ now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your⁺ doings, and dwell in the land that Yahweh has given to you⁺ and to your⁺ fathers, from of old and even forevermore; ⁶ and don't go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and don't provoke me to anger with the work of your⁺ hands; and I will do you⁺ no hurt. ⁷ Yet you⁺ haven't listened to me, says Yahweh; that you⁺ may provoke me to anger with the work of your⁺ hands to your⁺ own hurt. ⁸ Therefore this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: Because you⁺ haven't heard my words, ⁹ look, I will send and take all the families of the north, says Yahweh, and [I will send] to Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my slave, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations round about; and I will completely destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰ Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. ¹¹ And this whole land will be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹² And it will come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says Yahweh, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. ¹³ And I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For many nations and great kings will make slaves of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.

¹⁵ For this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, to me: take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. ¹⁶ And they will drink, and reel to and fro, and be insane, because of the sword that I will send among them. ¹⁷ Then I took the cup at Yahweh's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom Yahweh had sent me: ¹⁸ [to wit,] Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; ¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his slaves, and his princes, and all his people; ²⁰ and all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹ Edom, and Moab, and the sons of Ammon; ²² and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; ²³ Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners [of their hair] cut off; ²⁴ and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people who stay in the wilderness; ²⁵ and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶ and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach will drink after them.

²⁷ And you will say to them, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink⁺, and be drunk, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you⁺. ²⁸ And it will be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you will say to them, Thus says Yahweh of hosts: You⁺ will surely drink. ²⁹ For, look, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you⁺ be completely unpunished? You⁺ will not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says Yahweh of hosts.

³⁰ Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them, Yahweh will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread [the grapes], against all the inhabitants of the earth. ³¹ A noise will come even to the end of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, says Yahweh.

³² Thus says Yahweh of hosts, Look, evil will go forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest will be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ³³ And the slain of Yahweh will be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they will not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they will be dung on the face of the ground. ³⁴ Wail, you⁺ shepherds, and cry; and wallow [in ashes], you⁺ majestic ones of the flock; for the days of your⁺ slaughter and of your⁺ dispersions have fully come, and you⁺ will fall like a goodly vessel. ³⁵ And the shepherds will have no way to flee, nor the majestic ones of the flock to escape. ³⁶ A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the majestic ones of the flock! For Yahweh lays waste their pasture. ³⁷ And the peaceful folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Yahweh. ³⁸ He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppressing [sword], and because of his fierce anger.

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Yahweh, saying, ² Thus says Yahweh: Stand in the court of Yahweh's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Yahweh's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not diminish a word. ³ It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. ⁴ And you will say to them, Thus says Yahweh: If you⁺ will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you⁺, ⁵ to listen to the words of my slaves the prophets, whom I send to you⁺, even rising up early and sending them, but you⁺ haven't listened; ⁶ then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. ⁷ And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Yahweh.

⁸ And it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that Yahweh had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, You will surely die. ⁹ Why have you prophesied in the name of Yahweh, saying, This house will be like Shiloh, and this city will be desolate, without inhabitant? And all the people had gathered to Jeremiah in the house of Yahweh.

¹⁰ And when the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of Yahweh; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's [house]. ¹¹ Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you⁺ have heard with your⁺ ears. ¹² Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, Yahweh sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you⁺ have heard. ¹³ Now therefore amend your⁺ ways and your⁺ doings, and obey the voice of Yahweh your⁺ God; and Yahweh will repent of the evil that he has pronounced against you⁺. ¹⁴ But as for me, look, I am in your⁺ hand: do with me as is good and right in your⁺ eyes. ¹⁵ Only know⁺ for certain that, if you⁺ put me to death, you⁺ will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth Yahweh has sent me to you⁺ to speak all these words in your⁺ ears.

¹⁶ Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God. ¹⁷ Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, ¹⁸ Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Zion will be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. ¹⁹ Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear Yahweh, and entreat the favor of Yahweh, and Yahweh repented of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus we are committing great evil against our own souls.

²⁰ And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of Yahweh, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: ²¹ and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty-men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: ²² and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, [namely], Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; ²³ and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. ²⁴ But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 ² This^a is what Yahweh said to me: Make bonds and bars for yourself, and put them on your neck; ³ and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the sons of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; ⁴ and give them a charge to their masters, saying, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus you⁺ will say to your⁺ masters: ⁵ I have made the earth, and man and beast that are on the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. ⁶ And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my slave; and the beasts of the field also I have given him to serve him. ⁷ And all the nations will serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes: and then many nations and great kings will make him their slaves. ⁸ And it will come to pass, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish, says Yahweh, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. ⁹ But as for you⁺, don't listen to your⁺ prophets, or to your⁺ fortune-tellers, or to your⁺ dreamers, or to your⁺ psychics,^b or to your⁺ sorcerers, who speak to you⁺, saying, You⁺ will not serve the king of Babylon: ¹⁰ for they prophesy a lie to you⁺, to remove you⁺ far from your⁺ land, and that I should drive you⁺ out, and you⁺ should perish. ¹¹ But the nation that will bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that [nation] I will let remain in their own land, says Yahweh; and they will till it, and dwell in it.

¹² And I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your⁺ necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³ Why will you⁺ die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ And don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you⁺, saying, You⁺ will not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you⁺. ¹⁵ For I haven't sent them, says Yahweh, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you⁺ out, and that you⁺ may perish, you⁺, and the prophets who prophesy to you⁺.

¹⁶ Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says Yahweh: Don't listen to the words of your⁺ prophets who prophesy to you⁺, saying, Look, the vessels of Yahweh's house will now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you⁺. ¹⁷ Don't listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation? ¹⁸ But if they are prophets, and if the word of Yahweh is with them, let them now make intercession to Yahweh of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of Yahweh, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon. ¹⁹ For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, ²⁰ which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; ²¹ yes, thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of Yahweh, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: ²² They will be carried to Babylon, and there they will be, until the day that I visit them, says Yahweh; then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.

28 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Zedekiah king of Judah,^a in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of Yahweh, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ² Thus speaks Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within two full years I will bring again into this place all the vessels of Yahweh's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: ⁴ and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went to Babylon, says Yahweh; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of Yahweh, ⁶ even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: May Yahweh do so; May Yahweh perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Yahweh's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place. ⁷ Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: ⁸ The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. ⁹ The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet will come to pass, then will the prophet be known, that Yahweh has truly sent him. ¹⁰ Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. ¹¹ And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus says Yahweh: Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹² Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³ Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus says Yahweh: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their stead bars of iron. ¹⁴ For thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they will serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. ¹⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah: Yahweh has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh, Look, I will send you away from off the face of the earth: this year you will die, because you have spoken rebellion against Yahweh. ¹⁷ So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon ² (after Jeconiah the king, and the queen-mother, and the eunuchs, [and] the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the blacksmiths, had departed from Jerusalem), ³ by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, ⁴ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵ Build⁺ houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. ⁶ Take⁺ wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your⁺ sons, and give your⁺ daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply⁺ there, and don't be diminished. ⁷ And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you⁺ to be carried away captive, and pray to Yahweh for it; for in its peace you⁺ will have peace. ⁸ For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says, the God of Israel: Don't let your⁺ prophets who are in the midst of you⁺, and your⁺ fortune-tellers, deceive you⁺; neither listen⁺ to your⁺ dreamers whom you⁺ get to dream. ⁹ For they prophesy falsely to you⁺ in my name: I haven't sent them, says Yahweh. ¹⁰ For thus says Yahweh, After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you⁺, and perform my good word toward you⁺, in causing you⁺ to return to this place. ¹¹ For I know the thoughts that I think toward you⁺, says Yahweh, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you⁺ hope in your⁺ latter end. ¹² And you⁺ will call on me, and you⁺ will go and pray to me, and I will listen to you⁺. ¹³ And you⁺ will seek me, and find me, when you⁺ will search for me with all your⁺ heart. ¹⁴ And I will be found of you⁺, says Yahweh, and I will turn again your⁺ captivity, and I will gather you⁺ from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you⁺, says Yahweh; and I will bring you⁺ again to the place from where I caused you⁺ to be carried away captive.

¹⁵ Because you⁺ have said, Yahweh has raised us up prophets in Babylon; ¹⁶ thus says Yahweh concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your⁺ brothers who have not gone forth with you⁺ into captivity; ¹⁷ this is what Yahweh of Hosts says; Look, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. ¹⁸ And I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an execration, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; ¹⁹ because they haven't listened to my words, says Yahweh, with which I sent to them my slaves the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you⁺ would not hear, says Yahweh. ²⁰ Hear⁺ therefore the word of Yahweh, all you⁺ of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²¹ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you⁺ in my name: Look, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he will slay them before your⁺ eyes; ²² and of them will be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; ²³ because they have wrought folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their fellow men's wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I did not command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness, says Yahweh.

²⁴ And concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you will speak, saying, ²⁵ Thus speaks Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶ Yahweh has made you priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of Yahweh, for every man who is insane, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. ²⁷ Now therefore, why haven't you rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you⁺, ²⁸ since he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, [The captivity] is long: build⁺ houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them? ²⁹ And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰ Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ³¹ Send to all those of the captivity, saying, Thus says Yahweh concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you⁺, and I did not send him, and he has caused you⁺ to trust in a lie; ³² therefore thus says Yahweh, Look, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he will not have a man to dwell among this people, neither will he see the good that I will do to my people, says Yahweh, because he has spoken rebellion against Yahweh.

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² Thus speaks Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³ For, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says Yahweh; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they will possess it.

⁴ And these are the words that Yahweh spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. ⁵ For thus says Yahweh: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. ⁶ Ask⁺ now, and see whether a man travails with child: why do I see every [able-bodied] man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces have turned pale? ⁷ Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he will be saved out of it. ⁸ And it will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers will no more make him their slave; ⁹ but they will serve Yahweh their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. ¹⁰ Therefore don't be afraid, O Jacob my slave, says Yahweh; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, look, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob will return, and will be quiet and at ease, and none will make him afraid. ¹¹ For I am with you, says Yahweh, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.

¹² For thus says Yahweh, Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. ¹³ There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. ¹⁴ All your lovers have forgotten you; they don't seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins have increased. ¹⁵ Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins have increased, I have done these things to you. ¹⁶ Therefore all those who devour you will be devoured; and all your adversaries, every one of them, will go into captivity; and those who despoil you will be a spoil, and all who prey on you I will give for a prey. ¹⁷ For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says Yahweh; because they have called you an outcast, [saying,] It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.

¹⁸ Thus says Yahweh: Look, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling-places; and the city will be built on its own hill, and the palace will be inhabited after its own manner. ¹⁹ And out of them will proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they will not be few; I will also glorify them, and they will not be small. ²⁰ His sons also will be as previously, and his congregation will be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress him. ²¹ And his majestic one will be of himself, and his ruler will proceed from the midst of him; and I will cause him to draw near, and he will approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says Yahweh. ²² And you⁺ will be my people, and I will be your⁺ God.

²⁴ The fierce anger of Yahweh will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you⁺ will understand it.

31 At that time, says Yahweh, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people. ² Thus says Yahweh, The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. ³ Yahweh appeared of old to me, [saying,] Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving-kindness I have drawn you. ⁴ Again I will build you, and you will be built, O virgin of Israel: again you will be adorned with your tabrets, and will go forth in the dances of those who make merry. ⁵ Again you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters will plant, and will enjoy [the fruit]. ⁶ For there will be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim will cry, Arise⁺, and let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God.

¹⁰ Hear the word of Yahweh, O you⁺ nations, and declare it in the isles far off; and say, He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock. ¹¹ For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. ¹² And they will come and sing in the height of Zion, and will flow to the goodness of Yahweh, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the sons of the flock and of the herd: and their soul will be as a watered garden; and they will not sorrow anymore at all. ¹³ Then will the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. ¹⁴ And I will soak the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people will be satisfied with my goodness, says Yahweh.

¹⁵ Thus says Yahweh: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her sons; she refuses to be comforted for her sons, because they are not. ¹⁶ Thus says Yahweh: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work will be rewarded, says Yahweh; and they will come again from the land of the enemy. ¹⁷ And there is hope for your latter end, says Yahweh; and [your] sons will come again to their own border. ¹⁸ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself [thus], You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as a calf unaccustomed [to the yoke]: turn me, and I will be turned; for you are Yahweh my God. ¹⁹ Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth. ²⁰ Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I earnestly remember him still: therefore my insides yearn for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says Yahweh.

²¹ Set up waymarks, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these cities of yours. ²² How long will you go here and there, O you backsliding daughter? For Yahweh has created a new thing in the earth: A woman will encircle an [able-bodied] man.

²³ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, Yet again they will use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I will bring again their captivity: Yahweh bless you, O habitation of righteousness, O mountain of holiness. ²⁴ And Judah and all its cities will dwell in it together, the husbandmen, and [those who] go about with flocks. ²⁵ For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul I have replenished. ²⁶ On this I awakened, and looked; and my sleep was sweet to me.

²⁷ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. ²⁸ And it will come to pass that, like I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says Yahweh. ²⁹ In those days they will say no more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the teeth of the sons are set on edge. ³⁰ But every one will die for his own iniquity: any among man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge.

³¹ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: ³² not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which covenant of mine they broke, although I was a husband to them, says Yahweh. ³³ But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says Yahweh: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart I will write it; and I will be their God, and they will be my people: ³⁴ and they will teach no more every man his fellow man, and every man his brother, saying, Know Yahweh; for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says Yahweh: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.

³⁵ Thus says Yahweh, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; Yahweh of hosts is his name: ³⁶ If these ordinances depart from before me, says Yahweh, then the seed of Israel also will cease from being a nation before me forever. ³⁷ Thus says Yahweh: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says Yahweh.

³⁸ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that the city will be built to Yahweh from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner. ³⁹ And the measuring line will go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and will turn about to Goah. ⁴⁰ And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, will be holy to Yahweh; it will not be plucked up, nor thrown down anymore forever.

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. ² Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. ³ For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy, and say, Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will take it; ⁴ and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes will look at his eyes; ⁵ and he will bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he will be until I visit him, says Yahweh: though you⁺ fight with the Chaldeans, you⁺ will not prosper?

⁶ And Jeremiah said, The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁷ Look, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it. ⁸ So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of Yahweh, and said to me, Buy my field, I pray you, that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of Yahweh. ⁹ And I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the silver, even seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰ And I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the silver in the balances. ¹¹ So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, [containing] the terms and the stipulations, and that which was open: ¹² and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my cousin,^a and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. ¹³ And I charged Baruch before them, saying, ¹⁴ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. ¹⁵ For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards will yet again be bought in this land.

¹⁶ Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh, saying, ¹⁷ Ah Sovereign Yahweh! Look, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you,¹⁸ who show loving-kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their sons after them; the great, the mighty God, Yahweh of hosts is his name;¹⁹ great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of man, to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:²⁰ who did set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among man; and made you a name, as at this day;²¹ and did bring forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror;²² and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;²³ and they came in, and possessed it, but they did not obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come upon them.²⁴ Look, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has come to pass; and, look, you see it.²⁵ And you have said to me, O Sovereign Yahweh, Buy the field for silver, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

²⁶ Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷ Look, I am Yahweh, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me? ²⁸ Therefore thus says Yahweh: Look, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it: ²⁹ and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, will come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink-offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.³⁰ For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have done only that which was evil in my eyes from their youth; for the sons of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yahweh.³¹ For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face,³² because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and of the sons of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.³³ And they have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they haven't listened to receive instruction.³⁴ But they set their detestable things in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.³⁵ And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through [the fire] to Molech; which I did not command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this disgusting thing, to cause Judah to sin.

³⁶ And now therefore this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, concerning this city, of which you⁺ say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence:³⁷ Look, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:³⁸ and they will be my people, and I will be their God:³⁹ and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for the good of them, and of their sons after them:⁴⁰ and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me.⁴¹ Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.⁴² For thus says Yahweh: Like I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them.⁴³ And fields will be bought in this land, of which you⁺ say, It is desolate, without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.⁴⁴ Men will buy fields for silver, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill-country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, says Yahweh.

33 Moreover the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ² Thus says Yahweh who does it, Yahweh who forms it to establish it; Yahweh is his name: ³ Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and difficult things, which you don't know. ⁴ For this is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down:^a The mounds and the sword⁵ are coming to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of man, whom I have slain in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city: ⁶ Look, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. ⁷ And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. ⁸ And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me. ⁹ And [this city] will be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory to all the nations of the earth, which will hear all the good that I do to them, and will fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it.

¹⁰ Thus says Yahweh: Yet again there will be heard in this place, of which you⁺ say, It is waste, without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, ¹¹ the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, Give thanks to Yahweh of hosts, for Yahweh is good, for his loving-kindness [endures] forever; [and of those] who bring [sacrifices of] thanksgiving into the house of Yahweh. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, says Yahweh.

¹² Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Yet again there will be in this place, which is waste, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. ¹³ In the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, will the flocks again pass under the hands of him who numbers them, says Yahweh.

¹⁴ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. ¹⁵ In those days, and at that time, I will cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he will execute justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will stay safely; and this is what she will be called: Yahweh our righteousness. ¹⁷ For thus says Yahweh: David will not lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; ¹⁸ neither will the priests the Levites lack a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to burn meal-offerings, and to sacrifice continually.

¹⁹ And the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁰ Thus says Yahweh: If you⁺ can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there will not be day and night in their season; ²¹ then may also my covenant be broken with David my slave, that he will not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. ²² As the host of heaven can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so I will multiply the seed of David my slave, and the Levites who minister to me.

²³ And the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴ Have you not considered what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which Yahweh chose, he has cast them off? Thus they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. ²⁵ Thus says Yahweh: If [there is] not my covenant of day and night, if I haven't appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; ²⁶ then I will also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my slave, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all its cities, saying: ² This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire: ³ and you will not escape out of his hand, but will surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes will look at the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with you mouth to mouth, and you will go to Babylon. ⁴ Yet hear the word of Yahweh, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus says Yahweh concerning you, You will not die by the sword; ⁵ you will die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will make a burning for you; and they will lament you, [saying,] Ah Lord! For I have spoken the word, says Yahweh.

⁸ The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; ⁹ that every man should let his male slave, and every man his female slave, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should make slaves of them, [to wit,] of a Jew his brother. ¹⁰ And all the princes and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that every one should let his male slave, and every one his female slave, go free, that none should make slaves of them anymore; they obeyed, and let them go: ¹¹ but afterward they turned, and caused the male slaves and the female slaves, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for male slaves and for female slaves.

¹² Therefore the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ¹³ This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your⁺ fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves, saying, ¹⁴ At the end of the seven year period you⁺ will let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you will let him go free from you: but your⁺ fathers did not listen to me, neither inclined their ear. ¹⁵ And you⁺ had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his fellow man; and you⁺ had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: ¹⁶ but you⁺ turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his male slave, and every man his female slave, whom you⁺ had let go free according to their soul, to return; and you⁺ brought them into subjection, to be to you⁺ for male slaves and for female slaves.

¹⁷ Therefore thus says Yahweh: You⁺ have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his fellow man: look, I proclaim to you⁺ a liberty, says Yahweh, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you⁺ to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸ And I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; ¹⁹ the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; ²⁰ I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their soul; and their dead bodies will be for food to the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth. ²¹ And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their soul, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, that have gone away from you⁺. ²² Look, I will command, says Yahweh, and cause them to return to this city; and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ² Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of Yahweh, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. ³ Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; ⁴ and I brought them into the house of Yahweh, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. ⁵ And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, Drink⁺ wine. ⁶ But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, You⁺ will drink no wine, neither you⁺, nor your⁺ sons, forever: ⁷ neither will you⁺ build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your⁺ days you⁺ will dwell in tents; that you⁺ may live many days in the land in which you⁺ sojourn. ⁸ And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; ⁹ nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: ¹⁰ but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹ But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we dwell at Jerusalem.

¹² Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Go, and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you⁺ not receive instruction to listen to my words? says Yahweh. ¹⁴ The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you⁺, rising up early and speaking; and you⁺ haven't listened to me. ¹⁵ I have sent also all my slaves the prophets to you⁺, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return⁺ now every man from his evil way, and amend your⁺ doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, and you⁺ will dwell in the land which I have given to you⁺ and to your⁺ fathers: but you⁺ haven't inclined your⁺ ear, nor listened to me. ¹⁶ Since the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; ¹⁷ therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Look, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they haven't heard; and I have called to them, but they haven't answered.

¹⁸ And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you⁺ have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your⁺ father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you⁺; ¹⁹ therefore thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to stand before me forever.

36 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² Take a roll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. ³ It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

⁴ Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Yahweh, which he had spoken to him, on a roll of a book. ⁵ And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I can't go into the house of Yahweh: ⁶ therefore you go, and read in the roll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of Yahweh in the ears of the people in Yahweh's house on the fast-day; and also you will read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. ⁷ It may be they will present their supplication before Yahweh, and will return every one from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Yahweh has pronounced against this people. ⁸ And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of Yahweh in Yahweh's house.

⁹ Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Yahweh. ¹⁰ Then Baruch read in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of Yahweh, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house, in the ears of all the people.

¹¹ And when Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of Yahweh, ¹² he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, look, all the princes were sitting there, [to wit,] Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. ¹³ Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. ¹⁴ Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the roll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came to them. ¹⁵ And they said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. ¹⁶ Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. ¹⁷ And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth? ¹⁸ Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. ¹⁹ Then said the princes to Baruch, Go, hide yourself, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you⁺ are.

²⁰ And they went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. ²¹ So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. ²² Now the king was sitting in the winter-house in the ninth month: and [there was a fire in] the brazier burning before him. ²³ And it came to pass, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, that [the king] cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. ²⁴ And they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his slaves who heard all these words. ²⁵ Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them. ²⁶ And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Yahweh hid them.

²⁷ Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, ²⁸ Take again another roll for yourself, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹ And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you will say, Thus says Yahweh: You have burned this roll, saying, Why have you written in it, saying, The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cause to cease from there man and beast? ³⁰ Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have none to sit on the throne of David; and his dead body will be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. ³¹ And I will punish him and his seed and his slaves for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen. ³² Then Jeremiah took another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote in it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.

37 And Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ² But neither he, nor his slaves, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of Yahweh, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

³ And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to Yahweh our God for us. ⁴ Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. ⁵ And Pharaoh's army came forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem.

⁶ Then the word of Yahweh came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷ This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Thus you⁺ will say to the king of Judah, that sent you⁺ to me to inquire of me: Look, Pharaoh's army, which has come forth to help you⁺, will return to Egypt into their own land. ⁸ And the Chaldeans will come again, and fight against this city; and they will take it, and burn it with fire. ⁹ Thus says Yahweh, Do not deceive your⁺ souls, saying, The Chaldeans will surely depart from us; for they will not depart. ¹⁰ For though you⁺ had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you⁺, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

¹¹ And it came to pass that, when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, ¹² then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the midst of the people. ¹³ And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Chaldeans. ¹⁴ Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵ And the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison^a in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶ When Jeremiah came into the dungeon-house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; ¹⁷ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from Yahweh? And Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, You will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. ¹⁸ Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, In what have I sinned against you, or against your slaves, or against this people, that you⁺ have put me in prison? ¹⁹ Where now are your⁺ prophets who prophesied to you⁺, saying, The king of Babylon will not come against you⁺, nor against this land? ²⁰ And now hear, I pray you, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray you, be presented before you, that you don't cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. ²¹ Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 And Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, ² Thus says Yahweh, He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes forth to the Chaldeans will live, and his soul will be to him for a prey, and he will live. ³ Thus says Yahweh, This city will surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will take it. ⁴ Then the princes said to the king, Let this man, we pray you, be put to death; since he weakens the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt. ⁵ And Zedekiah the king said, Look, he is in your⁺ hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you⁺. ⁶ Then they took Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

⁷ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), ⁸ Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹ My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city. ¹⁰ Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies. ¹¹ So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. ¹² And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so. ¹³ So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

¹⁴ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of Yahweh: and the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you a thing; hide nothing from me. ¹⁵ Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me. ¹⁶ So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As Yahweh lives, that made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your soul.

¹⁷ Then said Jeremiah to Zedekiah, Thus says Yahweh, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If you will go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul will live, and this city will not be burned with fire; and you will live, and your house. ¹⁸ But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then will this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you will not escape out of their hand. ¹⁹ And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who have fallen away to the Chaldeans, in case they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. ²⁰ But Jeremiah said, They will not deliver you. Obey, I urge you, the voice of Yahweh, in that which I speak to you: so it will be well with you, and your soul will live. ²¹ But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that Yahweh has shown me: ²² look, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house will be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women will say, Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you: [now that] your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back. ²³ And they will bring out all your wives and your sons to the Chaldeans; and you will not escape out of their hand, but will be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you will cause this city to be burned with fire.

²⁴ Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you will not die. ²⁵ But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and say to you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you: ²⁶ then you will say to them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. ²⁷ Then all the princes came to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. ²⁸ So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And it came to pass that Jerusalem was taken.^b

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it. ² In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city. ³ And all the princes of the king of

^b And it came to pass that Jerusalem was taken. Some interpret that verse 28 should be divided, with this last part moved to Chapter 39.

Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, [to wit,] Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sar-sechim the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

⁴ And it came to pass that, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. ⁵ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. ⁶ Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. ⁷ Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. ⁸ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the house^a of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also that fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. ¹⁰ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

¹¹ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, ¹² Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he will say to you. ¹³ So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; ¹⁴ they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

¹⁵ Now the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ¹⁶ Go, and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Look, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they will be accomplished before you in that day. ¹⁷ But I will deliver you in that day, says Yahweh; and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸ For I will surely save you, and you will not fall by the sword, but your soul will be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me, says Yahweh.

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. ² And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, Yahweh your God pronounced this evil on this place; ³ and Yahweh has brought it, and done according to as he spoke: because you^{} have sinned against Yahweh, and haven't obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come upon you^{}. ⁴ And now, look, I loose you this day from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well to you; but if it seems ill to you to come with me into Babylon, forbear: look, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go. ⁵ Now since he had not yet gone back, [he said] Go back then to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a present, and let him go. ⁶ Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷ Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; ⁸ then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, [to wit,] Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. ⁹ And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you^{}. ¹⁰ As for me, look, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who will come to us: but you^{}, gather⁺ wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your^{} vessels, and dwell in your^{} cities that you^{*} have taken. ¹¹ Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the sons of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; ¹² then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered very much wine and summer fruits.

¹³ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ¹⁴ and said to him, Do you know that Baalis the king of the sons of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your soul? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them. ¹⁵ Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray you, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man will know it: why should he take your soul, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? ¹⁶ But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, You will not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.

41 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed and [one of] the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. ² Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah arose, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³ Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with him, [to wit,] with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

⁴ And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, ⁵ that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaven and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with meal-offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of Yahweh. ⁶ And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. ⁷ And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, [and cast them] into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. ⁸ But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, Don't slay us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and did not slay them among their brothers. ⁹ Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain was the cistern of Gedaliah. This was the one that Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were slain. ¹⁰ Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the sons of Ammon.

¹¹ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹² then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³ Now it came to pass that, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴ So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the sons of Ammon. ¹⁶ Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, [to wit,] the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: ¹⁷ and they departed, and dwelt in Geruth Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, ¹⁸ because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, ² and said to Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we pray you, our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Yahweh your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes see us: ³ that Yahweh your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do. ⁴ Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you; look, I will pray to Yahweh your God according to your words; and it will come to pass that whatever thing Yahweh will answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you. ⁵ Then they said to Jeremiah, Yahweh be a true and faithful witness among us, if we do not do according to all the word with which Yahweh your God will send you to us. ⁶ Whether it is good, or whether it is evil, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God.

⁷ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah. ⁸ Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, ⁹ and said to them, This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him: ¹⁰ If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I repent of the evil that I have done to you. ¹¹ Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; don't be afraid of him, says Yahweh: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. ¹² And I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and he will let you return to your own land.

¹³ But if you say, We will not dwell in this land; so that you do not obey the voice of Yahweh your God, ¹⁴ saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we will see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there we will dwell: ¹⁵ now therefore hear the word of Yahweh, O remnant of Judah: Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; ¹⁶ then it will come to pass, that the sword, which you fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, of which you are afraid, will stick [closely] after you there in Egypt; and there you will die. ¹⁷ So it will be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there: they will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them will remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.

¹⁸ For thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will my wrath be poured forth on you, when you will enter into Egypt; and you will be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you will see this place no more. ¹⁹ Yahweh has spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Don't go into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified to you this day. ²⁰ For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to Yahweh your God, saying, Pray for us to Yahweh our God; and according to all that Yahweh our God will say, so declare to us, and we will do it: ²¹ and I have this day declared it to you; but you haven't obeyed the voice of Yahweh your God in anything for which he has sent me to you. ²² Now therefore know certainly that you will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to sojourn there.

43 And it came to pass that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, with which Yahweh their God had sent him to them, even all these words, ² then Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely: Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, You will not go into Egypt to sojourn there; ³ but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon. ⁴ So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey the voice of Yahweh, to dwell in the land of Judah. ⁵ But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that had returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to sojourn in the land of Judah; ⁶ the [able-bodied] men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every soul who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; ⁷ and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey the voice of Yahweh: and they came to Tahpanhes.

⁸ Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹ Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brickwork, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; ¹⁰ and say to them, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Look, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my slave, and I will set his throne on these stones that I have hid; and he will spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹ And he will come, and will strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death [will be given] to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. ¹² And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he will burn them, and carry them away captive: and he will array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he will go forth from there in peace. ¹³ He will also break the pillars of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire.

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwelt in the land of Egypt, who dwelt at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, ² Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: You⁺ have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and, look, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them, ³ because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense to serve other gods, that they did not know, neither they, nor you⁺, nor your⁺ fathers. ⁴ Nevertheless I sent all my slaves the prophets to you⁺, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, don't do this disgusting thing that I hate. ⁵ But they didn't listen, nor incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. ⁶ Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day. ⁷ Therefore now thus says Yahweh, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you⁺ commit [this] great evil against your⁺ own souls, to cut off from you⁺ man and woman, infant and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, to leave you⁺ none remaining; ⁸ in that you⁺ provoke me to anger with the works of your⁺ hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you⁺ have gone to sojourn; that you⁺ may be cut off, and that you⁺ may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹ Have you⁺ forgotten the wickedness of your⁺ fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of his wives, and your⁺ own wickedness, and the wickedness of your⁺ wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you⁺ and before your⁺ fathers.

¹¹ Therefore thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Look, I will set my face against you⁺ for evil, even to cut off all Judah. ¹² And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they will all be consumed; in the land of Egypt they will fall; they will be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they will die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they will be an execration, [and] an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. ¹³ For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; ¹⁴ so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, will escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which their soul longs to return to dwell there: for none will return except such as will escape.

¹⁵ Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, ¹⁶ As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Yahweh, we will not listen to you. ¹⁷ But we will certainly perform every word that has gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. ¹⁸ But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink-offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. ¹⁹ And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings to her, without our husbands?

²⁰ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the [prominent] men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him that answer, saying, ²¹ The incense that you⁺ burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you⁺ and your⁺ fathers, your⁺ kings and your⁺ princes, and the people of the land, didn't Yahweh remember them, and didn't it come into his mind? ²² So that Yahweh could no longer bear, because of the evil of your⁺ doings, and because of the disgusting things that you⁺ have done; therefore your⁺ land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. ²³ Because you⁺ have burned incense, and because you⁺ have sinned against Yahweh, and haven't obeyed the voice of Yahweh, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened to you⁺, as it is this day.

²⁴ Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of Yahweh, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: ²⁵ Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, You⁺ and your⁺ wives have both spoken with your⁺ mouths, and with your⁺ hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her: establish then your⁺ vows, and perform your⁺ vows. ²⁶ Therefore hear⁺ the word of Yahweh, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Look, I have sworn by my great name, says Yahweh, that my name will no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Sovereign Yahweh lives. ²⁷ Look, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there is an end of them. ²⁸ And those who escape the sword will return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, that have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, will know whose word will stand, mine, or theirs. ²⁹ And this will be the sign to you⁺, says Yahweh, that I will punish you⁺ in this place, that you⁺ may know that my words will surely stand against you⁺ for evil: ³⁰ Thus says Yahweh, Look, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his soul; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his soul.

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ² This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, to you, O Baruch: ³ You said, Woe is me now! For Yahweh has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest. ⁴ Thus you will say to him, Thus says Yahweh: Look, that which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. ⁵ And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for, look, I will bring evil on all flesh, says Yahweh; but your soul I will give to you for a prey in all places where you go.

46 The word of Yahweh which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. ² Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh-neco king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.

³ Prepare⁺ the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. ⁴ Harness the horses, and get up, you⁺ horsemen, and stand forth with your⁺ helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. ⁵ Why have I seen it? They are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled apace, and don't look back: terror is on every side, says Yahweh. ⁶ Don't let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen. ⁷ Who is this that rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? ⁸ Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and their inhabitants. ⁹ Go up, you⁺ horses; and rage, you⁺ chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, that handle the shield; and the Ludim, that handle and bend the bow. ¹⁰ For that day is [a day] of the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword will devour and be satiate, and will drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. ¹¹ Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. ¹² The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they have fallen both of them together.

¹³ The word that Yahweh spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴ Declare⁺ in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say⁺, Stand forth, and prepare yourself; for the sword has devoured round about you. ¹⁵ Why has Apis fled? Your bull did not stop, because Yahweh drove him out. ¹⁶ He stumbled much, yes, a man fell on his fellow man: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. ¹⁷ Call⁺ the name of Pharaoh king of Egypt: A noise that let the appointed time pass by. ¹⁸ As I live, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so he will come. ¹⁹ O you daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis will become a desolation, and will be burned up, without inhabitant. ²⁰ Egypt is a very fair heifer; [but] destruction out of the north has come, it has come. ²¹ Also her hired workers in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also have turned back, they have fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity has come upon them, the time of their visitation. ²² Her sound will be like a serpent going away; for they will march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. ²³ They will cut down her forest, says Yahweh, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. ²⁴ The daughter of Egypt will be put to shame; she will be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. ²⁵ Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Look, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: ²⁶ and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their souls, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his slaves; and afterward it will be stayed in, as in the days of old, says Yahweh.

²⁷ But don't be afraid, O Jacob my slave, neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, look, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob will return, and will be quiet and at ease, and none will make him afraid. ²⁸ Don't you be afraid, O Jacob my slave, says Yahweh; for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.

47 The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza. ² Thus says Yahweh: Look, waters rise up out of the north, and will become an overflowing stream, and will overflow the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell in it; and man will cry, and all the inhabitants of the land will wail. ³ At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers don't look back to their sons for feebleness of hands; ⁴ because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper that remains: for Yahweh will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor. ⁵ Baldness has come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of the Anakim: how long will you cut yourself? ⁶ O you sword of Yahweh, how long will it be before you are quiet? Put yourself up into your scabbard; rest, and be still. ⁷ How can you be quiet, seeing Yahweh has given you a charge? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there he has appointed it.

48 Of Moab. Thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe to Nebo! For it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. ² The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. You also, O Madmen,^a will be brought to silence; the sword will pursue you. ³ The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction! ⁴ Moab is destroyed; They caused a cry to be heard as far as Zoar. ⁵ For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping they will go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. ⁶ Flee, save your⁺ souls, and be like a juniper in the wilderness. ⁷ For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also will be taken: and Chemosh will go forth into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁸ And the destroyer will come upon every city, and no city will escape; the valley also will perish, and the plain will be destroyed; as Yahweh has spoken. ⁹ Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get away: and her cities will become a desolation, without any to dwell in them. ¹⁰ Cursed be he who does the work of Yahweh negligently; and cursed be he who keeps back his sword from blood.

¹¹ Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. ¹² Therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will send to him those who pour off, and they will pour him off; and they will empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. ¹³ And Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence. ¹⁴ How do you⁺ say, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war? ¹⁵ Moab is laid waste, and they have gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of hosts. ¹⁶ The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. ¹⁷ All you⁺ who are round about him, bemoan him, and all you⁺ who know his name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod! ¹⁸ O you daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. ¹⁹ O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, What has been done? ²⁰ Moab is put to shame; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell⁺ it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. ²¹ And judgment has come upon the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, ²² and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth-diblathaim, ²³ and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth-gamul, and on Beth-meon, ²⁴ and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. ²⁵ The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says Yahweh.

²⁶ Make⁺ him drunk; for he magnified himself against Yahweh: and Moab will wallow in his vomit, and he also will be in derision. ²⁷ For wasn't Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you wag the head. ²⁸ O you⁺ inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and stay in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. ²⁹ We have heard of the pride of Moab, [that] he is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. ³⁰ I know his wrath, says Yahweh, that it is nothing; his boastings have wrought nothing. ³¹ Therefore I will wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir-heres they will mourn. ³² With more than the weeping of Jazer I will weep for you, O vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer has fallen. ³³ And gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the winepresses: none will tread with shouting; the shouting will be no shouting. ³⁴ From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz they have uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath-shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also will become desolate. ³⁵ Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says Yahweh, him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods.

³⁶ Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten has perished. ³⁷ For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the loins sackcloth. ³⁸ On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which none delights, says Yahweh. ³⁹ How it is broken down! [How] they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So will Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are round about him. ⁴⁰ For thus says Yahweh: Look, he will fly as an eagle, and will spread out his wings against Moab. ⁴¹ Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. ⁴² And Moab will be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against Yahweh. ⁴³ Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, O inhabitant of Moab, says Yahweh. ⁴⁴ He who flees from the fear will fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit will be taken in the snare: for I will bring on Moab the year of their visitation, says Yahweh.

⁴⁵ Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire has gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the top of the head of the tumultuous ones. ⁴⁶ Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. ⁴⁷ Yet I will bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says Yahweh. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

49 Of the sons of Ammon. Thus says Yahweh: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Milcom possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities? ² Therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon; and it will become a desolate heap, and her daughters will be burned with fire: then will Israel possess those who possessed him, says Yahweh. ³ Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you⁺ daughters of Rabbah, gird⁺ with sackcloth: lament, and run to and fro among the fences; for Milcom will go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁴ Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, [saying,] Who will come to me? ⁵ Look, I will bring a fear on you, says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, from all who are round about you; and you⁺ will be driven out every man right forth, and there will be none to gather together the fugitives. ⁶ But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the sons of Ammon, says Yahweh.

⁷ Of Edom. Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished? ⁸ Flee⁺, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I will visit him. ⁹ If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, would they not destroy until they had enough? ¹⁰ But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he cannot hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is not. ¹¹ Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me. ¹² For thus says Yahweh: Look, they to whom it did not pertain to drink of the cup will assuredly drink; and are you he who will altogether go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but you will surely drink. ¹³ For I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, that Bozrah will become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities will be perpetual wastes.

¹⁴ I have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, [saying,] Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. ¹⁵ For, look, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among man. ¹⁶ As for your terribleness, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who stay in the clefts of the rock, that hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says Yahweh. ¹⁷ And Edom will become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will hiss at all its plagues. ¹⁸ As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring cities, says Yahweh, a man will not dwell there, neither will any son of man sojourn in it. ¹⁹ Look, he will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make him run away from it; and whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd that will stand before me?

²⁰ Therefore hear⁺ the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they will drag them away, [even] the little ones of the flock; surely he will make their habitation desolate over them. ²¹ The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise of which is heard in the Red Sea. ²² Look, he will come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

²³ Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they melt [with fear]; on the sea [there is] anxiety, it can't be quiet. ²⁴ Damascus is waxed feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. ²⁵ How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? ²⁶ Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh of hosts. ²⁷ And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

²⁸ Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon struck. Thus says Yahweh: Arise⁺, go up to Kedar, and destroy the sons of the east. ²⁹ They will take their tents and their flocks; they will carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they will cry to them, Terror on every side! ³⁰ Flee⁺, wander far off, dwell in the depths, O you⁺ inhabitants of Hazor, says Yahweh; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against them, and has conceived a purpose against you⁺. ³¹ Arise, get⁺ up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says Yahweh. It has neither gates nor bars. They stay alone. ³² And their camels will be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners [of their hair] cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says Yahweh. ³³ And Hazor will be a dwelling-place of jackals, a desolation forever: man will not dwell there, neither will any son of man sojourn in it.

³⁴ The word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, ³⁵ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Look, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. ³⁶ And on Elam I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there will be no nation where the outcasts of Elam will not come. ³⁷ And I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their soul; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger, says Yahweh; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; ³⁸ and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes, says Yahweh. ³⁹ But it will come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, says Yahweh.

50 The word that Yahweh spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. ² Declare⁺ among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and do not conceal: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is dismayed; her images are put to shame, her idols are dismayed. ³ For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which will make her land desolate, and none will dwell in it: they have fled, they have gone, both man and beast. ⁴ In those days, and in that time, says Yahweh, the sons of Israel will come, they and the sons of Judah together; they will go on their way weeping, and will seek Yahweh their God. ⁵ They will inquire concerning Zion with their faces toward there, [saying,] Come⁺, and join yourselves to Yahweh in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.

⁶ My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting-place. ⁷ All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Yahweh, the habitation of righteousness, even Yahweh, the hope of their fathers. ⁸ Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks. ⁹ For, look, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they will set themselves in array against her; from there she will be taken: their arrows will be as a mighty man taking away children, they will not return in vain. ¹⁰ And Chaldea will be a prey: all who prey on her will be satisfied, says Yahweh.

¹¹ Because you⁺ are glad, because you⁺ rejoice, O you⁺ who plunder my heritage, because you⁺ are wanton as a heifer that treads out [the grain], and neigh as strong horses; ¹² your⁺ mother will be completely put to shame; she who bore you⁺ will be confounded: look, she will be the hindmost of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ¹³ Because of the wrath of Yahweh she will not be inhabited, but she will be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon will be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. ¹⁴ Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about, all you⁺ who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against Yahweh. ¹⁵ Shout against her round about: she has submitted herself; her bulwarks have fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Yahweh: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. ¹⁶ Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they will turn every one to his people, and they will flee every one to his own land.

²⁹ Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against her round about; let none of her escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Yahweh, against the Holy One of Israel. ³⁰ Therefore will her young men fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh. ³¹ Look, I am against you, O you proud one, says the Lord, Yahweh of hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. ³² And the proud one will stumble and fall, and none will raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all who are round about him.

³³ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. ³⁴ Their Redeemer is strong; Yahweh of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. ³⁵ A sword is on the Chaldeans, says Yahweh, and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her princes, and on her wise men. ³⁶ A sword is on the boasters, and they will become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they will be dismayed. ³⁷ A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mingled people who are in the midst of her; and they will become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they will be robbed. ³⁸ A drought is on her waters, and they will be dried up; for it is a land of graven images, and they are mad over idols. ³⁹ Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wolves will dwell there, and the ostriches will dwell in it: and it will be inhabited no more forever; neither will it be stayed in from generation to generation. ⁴⁰ As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring cities, says Yahweh, so a man will not dwell there, neither will any son of man sojourn in it.

⁴¹ Look, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ⁴² They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, O daughter of Babylon. ⁴³ The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, [and] pangs as of a woman in travail. ⁴⁴ Look, [the enemy] will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd that can stand before me? ⁴⁵ Therefore hear⁺ the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they will drag them away, [even] the little ones of the flock; surely he will make their habitation desolate over them. ⁴⁶ At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.

51 Thus says Yahweh: Look, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Leb-kamai,^a a destroying wind. ² And I will send to Babylon strangers, that will winnow her; and they will empty her land: for in the day of trouble they will be against her round about. ³ Against [him who] bends let the archer bend his bow, and against [him who] lifts himself up in his coat of mail: and don't spare⁺ her young men; destroy⁺ completely all her host. ⁴ And they will fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.

⁵ For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of Yahweh of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. ⁶ Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his soul; don't be cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. ⁷ Babylon has been a golden cup in Yahweh's hand, that made all the earth drunk: the nations have drank of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. ⁸ Babylon has suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if perhaps she may be healed. ⁹ We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. ¹⁰ Yahweh has brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Yahweh our God.

¹⁵ He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding he has stretched out the heavens: ¹⁶ when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasures. ¹⁷ Everyone among man has become brutish [and is] without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁸ They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they will perish. ¹⁹ The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things, and the rod of his inheritance: Yahweh of hosts is his name.

²⁰ You are my battle-ax and weapons of war: and with you I will break in pieces the nations; and with you I will destroy kingdoms; ²¹ and with you I will break in pieces the horse and his rider; ²² and with you I will break in pieces the chariot and him who rides in it; and with you I will break in pieces man and woman; and with you I will break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you I will break in pieces the young man and the virgin; ²³ and with you I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you I will break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke [of oxen]; and with you I will break in pieces governors and deputies. ²⁴ And I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your⁺ sight, says Yahweh.

²⁵ Look, I am against you, O destroying mountain, says Yahweh, which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. ²⁶ And they will not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you will be desolate forever, says Yahweh.

²⁷ Set⁺ up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough cankerworm. ²⁸ Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, their governors, and all their deputies, and all the land of their dominion. ²⁹ And the land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of Yahweh against Babylon stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. ³⁰ The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they have become as women: her dwelling-places are set on fire; her bars are broken. ³¹ One post will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: ³² and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened.

³³ For thus says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest will come for her. ³⁴ Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. ³⁵ The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon, will the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea, will Jerusalem say. ³⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh: Look, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. ³⁷ And Babylon will become heaps, a dwelling-place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. ³⁸ They will roar together like young lions; they will growl as lions' whelps. ³⁹ When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not awaken, says Yahweh. ⁴⁰ I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

^a Leb-kamai, this expression means "the Heart of my adversaries" and is believed to refer to the Chaldeans.

⁴¹ How is Sheshach taken! And the praise of the whole earth seized! How has Babylon become a desolation among the nations! ⁴² The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. ⁴³ Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass by it. ⁴⁴ And I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations will not flow anymore to him: yes, the wall of Babylon will fall.

⁴⁵ My people, go⁺ out of the midst of her, and save your soul every man from the fierce anger of Yahweh. ⁴⁶ Or else your⁺ heart will be faint, and you⁺ will fear for the news that will be heard in the land; for news will come one year, and after that in another year [will come] news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. ⁴⁷ Therefore, look, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the graven images of Babylon; and her whole land will be confounded; and all her slain will fall in the midst of her. ⁴⁸ Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, will sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers will come to her from the north, says Yahweh. ⁴⁹ As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon will fall the slain of all the land. ⁵⁰ You⁺ who have escaped the sword, go⁺, don't stand still; remember Yahweh from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your⁺ mind. ⁵¹ We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of Yahweh's house. ⁵² Therefore, look, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will execute judgment on her graven images; and through all her land the wounded will groan. ⁵³ Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me will destroyers come to her, says Yahweh.

⁵⁴ The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans! ⁵⁵ For Yahweh lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: ⁵⁶ for the destroyer has come upon her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for Yahweh is a God of recompenses, he will surely repay. ⁵⁷ And I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they will sleep a perpetual sleep, and not awaken, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of hosts. ⁵⁸ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: The broad walls of Babylon will be completely overthrown, and her high gates will be burned with fire; and the peoples will labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they will be weary.

⁵⁹ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief chamberlain. ⁶⁰ And Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. ⁶¹ And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, ⁶² and say, O Yahweh, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none will dwell in it, neither man nor beast, but that it will be desolate forever. ⁶³ And it will be, when you have made an end of reading this book, that you will bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates: ⁶⁴ and you will say, Thus will Babylon sink, and will not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; (and they will be weary). Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ² And he did that which was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³ For through the anger of Yahweh it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence.

And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴ And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. ⁵ So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ⁶ In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was intense in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷ Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about); and they went toward the Arabah. ⁸ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁹ Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. ¹⁰ And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹ And he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

¹² Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem: ¹³ and he burned the house of Yahweh, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every house of the great, he burned with fire. ¹⁴ And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem round about. ¹⁵ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the artisans. ¹⁶ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

¹⁷ And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of Yahweh, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all the bronze of them to Babylon. ¹⁸ The pots also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered, they took away. ¹⁹ And the cups, and the firepans, and the basins, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the spoons, and the bowls—that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver,—the captain of the guard took away. ²⁰ The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which King Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh—the bronze of all these vessels was without weight. ²¹ And as for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers: it was hollow. ²² And a capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital round about, all of bronze: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. ²³ And there were ninety and six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were a hundred on the network round about.

²⁴ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: ²⁵ and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. ²⁶ And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²⁷ And the king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.

²⁸ This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty; ²⁹ in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two souls; ³⁰ in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five souls: all the souls were four thousand and six hundred.

³¹ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the [first] year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; ³² and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, ³³ and changed his prison garments. And [Jehoiachin] ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: ³⁴ and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

1 How^a the city sits solitary, that was full of people! She has become as a widow, that was great among the nations! She who was a princess among the provinces has become slave labor! ² She weeps intensely in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; Among all her friends she has none to comfort her: All her companions have betrayed her; they have become her enemies. ³ Judah has gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude; She dwells among the nations, she finds no rest: All her persecutors overtook her inside the straits. ⁴ The ways of Zion mourn, because none come to the solemn assembly; All her gates are desolate, her priests sigh: Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness. ⁵ Her adversaries have become the head, her enemies prosper; For Yahweh has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: Her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary. ⁶ And from the daughter of Zion all her majesty has departed: Her princes have become like harts that find no pasture, And they are gone without strength before the pursuer. ⁷ Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her wandering all her pleasant things that were from the days of old: When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and none helped her, The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations. ⁸ Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she has become as an unclean thing; All who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: Yes, she sighs, and turns backward. ⁹ Her filthiness was in her skirts; she didn't remember her latter end; Therefore she has come down wonderfully; she has no comforter: See, O Yahweh, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself. ¹⁰ The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things: For she has seen that the nations have entered into her sanctuary, Concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly. ¹¹ All her people sigh, they seek bread; They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul: See, O Yahweh, and behold; for I have become abject.

¹² Is it nothing to you^a, all you^a who pass by? Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me, With which Yahweh has afflicted [me] in the day of his fierce anger. ¹³ From on high he has sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them; He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back: He has made me desolate and faint all the day. ¹⁴ The yoke of my transgressions is tied by his hand; They are knit together, they have come up on my neck; he has made my strength to fail: The Lord has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand. ¹⁵ The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men in the midst of me; He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men: The Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter of Judah. ¹⁶ For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water; Because the comforter that should refresh my soul is far from me: My sons are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed. ¹⁷ Zion spreads forth her hands; there is none to comfort her; Yahweh has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are round about him should be his adversaries: Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing. ¹⁸ Yahweh is righteous; for I have rebelled against his mouth: Hear, I pray you^a, all you^a peoples, and look at my sorrow: My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity. ¹⁹ I called for my lovers, [but] they deceived me: My priests and my elders gave up the ghost in the city, While they sought food for them to refresh their souls.

²⁰ Look, O Yahweh; for I am in distress; my insides are troubled; My heart is turned inside me; for I have grievously rebelled: Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death. ²¹ They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me; All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it: You have brought the day that you have proclaimed, and they will be like me. ²² Let all their wickedness come before you; And do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions: For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger! He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, And has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger. ² The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied: He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground; he has profaned the kingdom and its princes. ³ He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel; He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy: And he has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours round about. ⁴ He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand as an adversary, And has slain all who were pleasant to the eye: In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire. ⁵ The Lord has become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Israel; He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds; And he has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. ⁶ And he has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly: Yahweh has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, And has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. ⁷ The Lord has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary; He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: They have made a noise in the house of Yahweh, as in the day of a solemn assembly. ⁸ Yahweh has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying; And he has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together. ⁹ Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars: Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not; Yes, her prophets find no vision from Yahweh. ¹⁰ The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, they keep silent; They have cast up dust on their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

¹¹ My eyes fail with tears, my insides are troubled; My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, Because the young children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city. ¹² They say to their mothers, Where is grain and wine? When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom. ¹³ What shall I testify to you? What shall I liken to you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you? ¹⁴ Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions; And they have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, But have seen for you false oracles and causes of banishment. ¹⁵ All who pass by clap their hands at you; They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, [saying,] Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? ¹⁶ All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you; They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed [her] up; Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. ¹⁷ Yahweh has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old; He has thrown down, and has not pitied: And he has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries. ¹⁸ Their heart cried to the Lord: O walls of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease. ¹⁹ Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord: Lift up your hands toward him for the soul of your young children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

²⁰ See, O Yahweh, and look at whom you have done thus! Will the women eat their fruit, the children who are cuddled in the hands? Will the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord? ²¹ The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets; My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword: You have slain them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, [and] not pitied. ²² You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side; And there was none who escaped or remained in the day of Yahweh's anger: Those who I have cuddled and brought up, my enemy has consumed.

3 I am the [noble] man who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. ² He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light. ³ Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day. ⁴ My flesh and my skin he has made old; he has broken my bones. ⁵ He has built against me, and surrounded me with gall and travail. ⁶ He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those who have been long dead. ⁷ He has walled me about, that I can't go forth; he has made my chain heavy. ⁸ Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer. ⁹ He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked. ¹⁰ He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places. ¹¹ He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate. ¹² He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. ¹³ He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my reins. ¹⁴ I have become a derision for my whole nation, and their song all the day. ¹⁵ He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood. ¹⁶ He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes. ¹⁷ And you have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgot prosperity. ¹⁸ And I said, My strength has perished, and my expectation from Yahweh. ¹⁹ Remember my affliction and my wandering, the wormwood and the gall. ²⁰ My soul has them still in remembrance, and is bowed down inside me. ²¹ This I recall to my mind; therefore I have hope. ²² [It is of] Yahweh's loving-kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassions do not fail. ²³ They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. ²⁴ Yahweh is my portion, says my soul; therefore I will hope in him. ²⁵ Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. ²⁶ It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Yahweh. ²⁷ It is good for a [noble] man that he bear the yoke in his youth. ²⁸ Let him sit alone and keep silent, because he has laid it on him. ²⁹ Let him put his mouth in the dust, if perhaps there may be hope. ³⁰ Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled full with reproach. ³¹ For the Lord will not cast off forever. ³² For though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. ³³ For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the sons of a man.^a ³⁴ To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth, ³⁵ To turn aside the right of a [noble] man before the face of the Most High, ³⁶ To subvert man in his cause, the Lord does not approve. ³⁷ Who is he that says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord does not command it? ³⁸ Out of the mouth of the Most High does there not come evil and good? ³⁹ Why does man complain, a living [noble] man for the punishment of his sins?

⁴⁰ Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Yahweh. ⁴¹ Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens. ⁴² We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned. ⁴³ You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have slain, you have not pitied. ⁴⁴ You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through. ⁴⁵ You have made us an offscouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples. ⁴⁶ All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us. ⁴⁷ Fear and the pit have come upon us, devastation and destruction. ⁴⁸ My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people. ⁴⁹ My eye pours down, and does not cease, without any intermission, ⁵⁰ Until Yahweh looks down, and beholds from heaven. ⁵¹ My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city. ⁵² They have chased me intensely like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause. ⁵³ They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me. ⁵⁴ Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off.

⁵⁵ I called on your name, O Yahweh, out of the lowest dungeon. ⁵⁶ You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry. ⁵⁷ You drew near in the day that I called on you; you said, Don't be afraid. ⁵⁸ O Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life. ⁵⁹ O Yahweh, you have seen my wrong; judge my cause. ⁶⁰ You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me. ⁶¹ You have heard their reproach, O Yahweh, and all their devices against me, ⁶² The lips of those who rose up against me, and their device against me all the day. ⁶³ Look at their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song. ⁶⁴ You will render to them a recompense, O Yahweh, according to the work of their hands. ⁶⁵ You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them. ⁶⁶ You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Yahweh.

4 How has the gold become dim! [How] has the most pure gold changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street. ² The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! ³ Even the jackals draw out the breast, they nurse their young ones: The daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. ⁴ The tongue of the nursing child sticks to the roof of his mouth for thirst: The young children ask bread, and no man breaks it to them. ⁵ Those who did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. ⁶ For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on her. ⁷ Her nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk; They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire. ⁸ Their visage is blacker than a charcoal; they are not recognized in the streets: Their skin shrivels to their bones; it is withered, it has become like a stick. ⁹ Those who are slain with the sword are better than those who are slain with hunger; For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field. ¹⁰ The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children; They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people. ¹¹ Yahweh has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger; And he has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations. ¹² The kings of the earth did not believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem. ¹³ [It is] because of the sins of her prophets, [and] the iniquities of her priests, Who have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her. ¹⁴ They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, So that men can't touch their garments. ¹⁵ Depart*, they cried to them, Unclean! Depart, depart, don't touch! When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They will no more sojourn [here]. ¹⁶ The anger of Yahweh has scattered them; he will no more regard them: They did not respect the persons of the priests, they did not favor the elders. ¹⁷ Our eyes do yet fail [in looking] for our vain help: In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save. ¹⁸ They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets: Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end has come. ¹⁹ Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens: They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. ²⁰ The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Yahweh, was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under his shadow we will live among the nations.

²¹ Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz: The cup will pass through to you also; you will be drunk, and will make yourself naked. ²² The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity: He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

5 Remember, O Yahweh, what has come upon us: Look, and see our reproach. ² Our inheritance has turned to strangers, Our houses to aliens. ³ We are orphans and fatherless; Our mothers are as widows. ⁴ We have drunk our water for silver; Our wood is sold to us. ⁵ Our pursuers are on our necks: We are weary, and have no rest. ⁶ We have given the hand to the Egyptians, And to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. ⁷ Our fathers sinned, and are not; And we have borne their iniquities. ⁸ Slaves rule over us: There is none to deliver us out of their hand. ⁹ We get our bread at the peril of our souls, Because of the sword of the wilderness. ¹⁰ Our skin is black like an oven, Because of the burning heat of famine. ¹¹ They humbled the women in Zion, The virgins in the cities of Judah. ¹² Princes were hanged up by their hand: The faces of elders were not honored. ¹³ The young men bore the mill; And the children stumbled under the wood.

¹⁴ The elders have ceased from the gate, The young men from their music. ¹⁵ The joy of our heart has ceased; Our dance has turned into mourning. ¹⁶ The crown has fallen from our head: Woe to us! For we have sinned. ¹⁷ For this our heart is faint; For these things our eyes are dim; ¹⁸ For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate: The foxes walk on it.

¹⁹ You, O Yahweh, remain forever; Your throne is from generation to generation. ²⁰ Why do you forget us forever, [And] forsake us so long time? ²¹ Turn us to you, O Yahweh, and we will be turned; Renew our days as of old. ²² But you have completely rejected us; You are very angry against us.

Ezekiel

1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth [month], in the fifth [day] of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ² In the fifth [day] of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, ³ the word of Yahweh came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of Yahweh was there on him.

⁴ And I looked and saw that a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with a fire infolding itself, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst of it as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire. ⁵ And out of the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of man. ⁶ And every one had four faces, and every one of them had four wings. ⁷ And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze. ⁸ And they had the hands of man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings [thus]: ⁹ their wings were joined one to another; they did not turn when they went; they went every one straight forward. ¹⁰ As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them had also the face of an eagle. ¹¹ And their faces and their wings were separate above; two [wings] of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. ¹² And they went every one straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they did not turn when they went. ¹³ As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: [the fire] went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. ¹⁴ And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

¹⁵ And I looked at the living creatures, and saw one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of their four faces. ¹⁶ The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel inside a wheel. ¹⁷ When they went, they went in their four directions: they did not turn when they went. ¹⁸ As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes round about. ¹⁹ And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰ Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²¹ When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

²² And over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of a firmament, like the awesome crystal to look at, stretched forth over their heads above. ²³ And under the firmament their wings were straight, the one toward the other: every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. ²⁴ And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁵ And there was a voice above the firmament that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings.

2 And he said to me, Son of Man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you. ² And the Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. ³ And he said to me, Son of Man, I send you to the sons of Israel, to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. ⁴ And the sons are impudent and stiffhearted: I am sending you to them; and you will say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh. ⁵ And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear (for they are a rebellious house), yet will know that there has been a prophet among them. ⁶ And you, Son of Man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷ And you will speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are in rebellion.

⁸ But you, Son of Man, hear what I say to you; don't be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you. ⁹ And I looked and saw that a hand was put forth to me; and saw that a roll of a book was in it; ¹⁰ And he spread it before me: and it was written inside and outside; and there were written in it lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

3 And he said to me, Son of Man, eat that which you find; eat this roll, and go, speak to the house of Israel. ² So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the roll. ³ And he said to me, Son of Man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your insides with this roll that I give you. Then I ate it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

⁴ And he said to me, Son of Man, go, get to the house of Israel, and speak with my words to them. ⁵ For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; ⁶ not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can't understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. ⁷ But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are of a hard forehead and of a stiff heart. ⁸ Look, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. ⁹ As an adamant harder than flint I have made your forehead: don't fear them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ¹⁰ Moreover he said to me, Son of Man, all my words that I will speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. ¹¹ And go, get to them of the captivity, to the sons of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

¹² Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, [saying,] Blessed be the glory of Yahweh from his place. ¹³ And [I heard] the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. ¹⁴ So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of Yahweh was strong on me. ¹⁵ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, who dwelt by the river Chebar, and there where they were dwelling; and I sat there dismayed among them seven days.

¹⁶ And it came to pass at the end of seven days,^a that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁷ Son of Man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. ¹⁸ When I say to the wicked, You will surely die; and you do not give him warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man will die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. ¹⁹ Yet if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. ²⁰ Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he will die: because you have not given him warning, he will die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. ²¹ Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul.

²² And the hand of Yahweh was there on me; and he said to me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you. ²³ Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, look, the glory of Yahweh stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ²⁴ Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵ But you, Son of Man, look, they will lay bands on you, and will bind you with them, and you will not go out among them: ²⁶ and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you will be mute, and will not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷ But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 You also, Son of Man, take for yourself a tile, and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: ² and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about. ³ And you take to yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it will be besieged, and you will lay siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴ Moreover you lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; [according to] the number of the days that you will lie on it, you will bear their iniquity. ⁵ For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred and ninety days: so you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶ And again, when you have accomplished these, you will lie on your right side, and will bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, I have appointed it to you. ⁷ And you will set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you will prophesy against it. ⁸ And, look, I lay bands on you, and you will not turn from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

⁹ You take also to yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make yourself bread of them; [according to] the number of the days that you will lie on your side, even three hundred and ninety days, you will eat of it. ¹⁰ And your food which you will eat will be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time you will eat it. ¹¹ And you will drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you will drink. ¹² And you will eat it as barley cakes, and you will bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man. ¹³ And Yahweh said, Even thus will the sons of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them. ¹⁴ Then I said, Ah Sovereign Yahweh! Look, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of beasts; neither has there come contaminated flesh into my mouth. ¹⁵ Then he said to me, See, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you will prepare your bread on it. ¹⁶ Moreover he said to me, Son of Man, look, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they will eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they will drink water by measure, and in dismay: ¹⁷ that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed a man and his brother, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 And you, Son of Man, take yourself a sharp sword; [as] a barber's razor you will take it to yourself, and will cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take yourself balances to weigh, and divide the hair. ² A third part you will burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you will take a third part, and strike with the sword round about it; and a third part you will scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ³ And you will take of them a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. ⁴ And of these again you will take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; therefrom will a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are round about her. ⁶ And she has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they haven't walked in them. ⁷ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you⁺ are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you⁺, and haven't walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you⁺; ⁸ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. ⁹ And I will do in you that which I haven't done, and to which I will not do anymore the like, because of all your disgusting behaviors. ¹⁰ Therefore the fathers will eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons will eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you I will scatter to all the winds. ¹¹ Therefore, as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your disgusting behaviors, therefore I also will shave [you off];^a neither will my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. ¹² A third part of you will die with the pestilence, and with famine they will be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part will fall by the sword round about you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

¹³ Thus will my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I will be comforted; and they will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. ¹⁴ Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are round about you, in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵ So it will be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are round about you, when I will execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes (I, Yahweh, have spoken it); ¹⁶ when I will send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you⁺. And I will increase the famine on you⁺, and will break your⁺ staff of bread; ¹⁷ and I will send on you⁺ famine and evil beasts, and they will bereave you; and pestilence and blood will pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

6 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them, ³ and say, You⁺ mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign Yahweh: Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: Look, I, even I, will bring a sword on you⁺, and I will destroy your⁺ high places. ⁴ And your⁺ altars will become desolate, and your⁺ sun-images will be broken; and I will cast down your⁺ slain men before your⁺ idols. ⁵ And I will lay the dead bodies of the sons of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your⁺ bones round about your⁺ altars. ⁶ In all your⁺ dwelling-places the cities will be laid waste, and the high places will be desolate; that your⁺ altars may be laid waste and made desolate,^b and your⁺ idols may be broken and cease, and your⁺ sun-images may be cut down, and your⁺ works may be abolished. ⁷ And the slain will fall in the midst of you⁺, and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh.

⁸ Yet I will leave a remnant, in that you⁺ will have some who escape the sword among the nations, when you⁺ will be scattered through the countries. ⁹ And those of you⁺ who escape will remember me among the nations where they will be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which prostitute after their idols: and they will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their disgusting behaviors. ¹⁰ And they will know that I am Yahweh: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.

¹¹ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas! Because of all the evil disgusting behaviors of the house of Israel; for they will fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. ¹² He who is far off will die of the pestilence; and he who is near will fall by

^a shave [you off], literally: 'cut [you] down'. In this phrase, there is a play on words involving verse 5:1 where Ezekiel was instructed to shave his head and beard. (See HOTTP/CTAT)

^b made desolate, literally, 'will expiate'. The Hebrew word here is not the same as the word for desolate in verse 4. However, it sounds similar--it is a play on words.

the sword; and he who remains and is besieged will die by the famine: thus I will accomplish my wrath on them. ¹³ And you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh, when their slain men will be among their idols round about their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered sweet savor to all their idols. ¹⁴ And I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness of Diblatha, in all their habitations: and they will know that I am Yahweh.

7 Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² And you, Son of Man, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to the land of Israel, An end: the end has come upon the four corners of the land. ³ Now the end is on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your disgusting behaviors. ⁴ And my eye will not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your disgusting behaviors will be in the midst of you: and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh.

⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: An evil, an only evil; look, it comes. ⁶ An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; look, it comes. ⁷ Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land: the time has come, the day is near, [a day of] tumult, and not [of] joyful shouting, on the mountains. ⁸ Now I will shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your disgusting behaviors. ⁹ And my eye will not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your disgusting behaviors will be in the midst of you; and you⁺ will know that I, Yahweh, do strike.

¹⁰ Look, the day, see it comes: your doom has gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. ¹¹ Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness; none of them [will remain], nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth: neither will there be eminency among them. ¹² The time has come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all their multitude. ¹³ For the seller will not return to that which is sold, although they are yet alive: for the vision is concerning their whole multitude, none will return; neither will any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

¹⁴ They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but none goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all their multitude.

¹⁵ The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine inside: he who is in the field will die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence will devour him. ¹⁶ But the ones of those who escape will escape, and will be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, everyone in his iniquity. ¹⁷ All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be weak as water. ¹⁸ They will also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror will cover them; and shame will be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. ¹⁹ They will cast their silver in the streets, and their gold will be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Yahweh: they will not satisfy their souls, neither fill their insides; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. ²⁰ As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in splendor; but they made the images of their disgusting things [and] their detestable things in it: therefore I have made it to them as an unclean thing. ²¹ And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they will profane it. ²² I will also turn my face from them, and they will profane my secret [place]; and robbers will enter into it, and profane it.

²³ Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴ Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places will be profaned. ²⁵ Destruction comes; and they will seek peace, and there will be none. ²⁶ Mischief will come upon mischief, and rumor will be on rumor; and they will seek a vision of the prophet; but the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. ²⁷ The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land will be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their deserts I will judge them; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth [month], in the fifth [day] of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Sovereign Yahweh fell there on me. ² Then I looked and saw a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loins and downward, fire; and from his loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. ³ And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner [court] that looks toward the north; where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴ And, look, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.

⁵ Then he said to me, Son of Man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and look, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. ⁶ And he said to me, Son of Man, do you see what they do? Even the great disgusting things that the house of Israel commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you will again see yet other great disgusting things.

⁷ And he brought me to the door of the court; and I looked and saw a hole in the wall. ⁸ Then he said to me, Son of Man, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, look, a door. ⁹ And he said to me, Go in, and see the wicked disgusting things that they do here. ¹⁰ So I went in and saw; and look, every form of creeping things, and detestable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed on the wall round about. ¹¹ And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up. ¹² Then he said to me, Son of Man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his chambers of imagery? For they say, Yahweh does not see us; Yahweh has forsaken the land. ¹³ He also said to me, You will again see yet other great disgusting things which they do.

¹⁴ Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and look, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵ Then he said to me, Have you seen [this], O Son of Man? You will again see yet greater disgusting things than these.

¹⁶ And he brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house; and look, at the door of the temple of Yahweh, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of Yahweh, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshiping the sun toward the east. ¹⁷ Then he said to me, Have you seen [this], O Son of Man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they do the disgusting things which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and, look, they put the branch to their nose. ¹⁸ Therefore I will also deal in wrath; my eye will not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them.

9 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause⁺ those who have charge over the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. 2 And look, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. And they went in, and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, on which it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. 4 And Yahweh said to him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and that cry over all the disgusting things that are done in the midst of it. 5 And to the others he said in my hearing, Go⁺ through the city after him, and strike: don't let your⁺ eye spare, neither have⁺ pity; 6 slay completely the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men who were before the house. 7 And he said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go⁺ forth. And they went forth, and struck in the city. 8 And it came to pass, while they were striking, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, Ah Sovereign Yahweh! Will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?

9 Then he said to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of wresting [of judgment]: for they say, Yahweh has forsaken the land, and Yahweh does not see. 10 And as for me also, my eye will not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head. 11 And look, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as you have commanded me.

10 Then I looked, and saw that in the firmament that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2 And he spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling [wheels], even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. 3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. 4 And the glory of Yahweh mounted up from the cherub, [and stood] over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory. 5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. 6 And it came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling [wheels], from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. 7 And the cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took [of it], and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. 8 And there appeared in the cherubim the form of man's hand under their wings.

9 And I looked, and saw, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. 10 And as for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, as if a wheel had been inside a wheel. 11 When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. 12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, [even] the wheels that the four of them had. 13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling [wheels]. 14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. 16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also did not turn from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 And the glory of Yahweh went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. 19 And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Yahweh's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. 21 Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of man was under their wings. 22 And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Yahweh's house, which looks eastward: and look, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. 2 And he said to me, Son of Man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; 3 who say, [The time] is not near to build houses: this [city] is the cauldron, and we are the flesh. 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O Son of Man.

5 And the Spirit of Yahweh fell on me, and he said to me, Speak, Thus says Yahweh: Thus you⁺ have said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your⁺ mind. 6 You⁺ have multiplied your⁺ slain in this city, and you⁺ have filled its streets with the slain. 7 Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Your⁺ slain whom you⁺ have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this [city] is the cauldron; but you⁺ will be brought forth out of the midst of it. 8 You⁺ have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you⁺, says the Sovereign Yahweh. 9 And I will bring you⁺ forth out of the midst of it, and deliver you⁺ into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you⁺. 10 You⁺ will fall by the sword; I will judge you⁺ in the border of Israel; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. 11 This [city] will not be your⁺ cauldron, neither will you⁺ be the flesh in the midst of it; I will judge you⁺ in the border of Israel; 12 and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh: for you⁺ have not walked in my statutes, neither have you⁺ executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you⁺.

13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Sovereign Yahweh! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 15 Son of Man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your kindred, and all the house of Israel, all of them, [are they] to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get⁺ far from Yahweh; to us this land is given for a possession. ¹⁶ Therefore say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come. ¹⁷ Therefore say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will gather you⁺ from the peoples, and assemble you⁺ out of the countries where you⁺ have been scattered, and I will give you⁺ the land of Israel. ¹⁸ And they will come there, and they will take away all its detestable and disgusting things from there. ¹⁹ And I will give them another heart, and I will put a new spirit inside you⁺; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; ²⁰ that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they will be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹ But those whose heart walks after their detestable things and disgusting things, I will bring their way on their own heads, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

²² Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ²³ And the glory of Yahweh went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ²⁴ And the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵ Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that Yahweh had shown me.

12 The word of Yahweh also came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, that have eyes to see, and don't see, that have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. ³ Therefore, you Son of Man, prepare for yourself stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and you will remove from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴ And you will bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and you will go forth yourself at evening in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. ⁵ Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry out through it. ⁶ In their sight you will bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you will cover your face, that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel.

⁷ And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.

⁸ And in the morning the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹ Son of Man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? ¹⁰ Say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: This burden [concerns] the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are. ¹¹ Say, I am your⁺ sign: like I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity. ¹² And the prince who is among them will bear on his shoulder in the dark, and will go forth: they will dig through the wall to carry out through it: he will cover his face, because he will not see the land with his eyes. ¹³ My net also I will spread on him, and he will be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there. ¹⁴ And I will scatter toward every wind all who are round about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. ¹⁵ And they will know that I am Yahweh, when I will disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. ¹⁶ But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their disgusting behaviors among the nations where they come; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

¹⁷ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁸ Son of Man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; ¹⁹ and say to the people of the land, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate of all that is in it, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it. ²⁰ And the cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will be a desolation; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh.

²¹ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²² Son of Man, what is this proverb that you⁺ have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails? ²³ Tell them therefore, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will make this proverb to cease, and they will no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say to them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴ For there will be no more any false vision nor flattering psychic readings inside the house of Israel. ²⁵ For I am Yahweh; I will speak, and the word that I will speak will be performed; it will be deferred no more: for in your⁺ days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will perform it, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

²⁶ Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²⁷ Son of Man, look, those of the house of Israel say, The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off. ²⁸ Therefore say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: None of my words will be deferred anymore, but the word which I will speak will be performed, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

13 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, Hear⁺ the word of Yahweh: ³ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ⁴ O Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. ⁵ You⁺ have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of Yahweh. ⁶ They have seen falsehood and a lying psychic reading, who say, Yahweh says; but Yahweh has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. ⁷ Have you⁺ not seen a false vision, and have you⁺ not spoken a lying psychic reading, in that you⁺ say, Yahweh says; albeit I haven't spoken?

⁸ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you⁺ have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, look, I am against you⁺, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ⁹ And my hand will be against the prophets who see false visions, and who tell lying fortunes: they will not be in the council of my people, neither will they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither will they enter into the land of Israel; and you⁺ will know that I am the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁰ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, look, they daub it with untempered [mortar]: ¹¹ say to those who daub it with untempered [mortar], that it will fall: there will be an overflowing shower; and you⁺, O great hailstones, will fall; and a stormy wind will rend it. ¹² Look, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you⁺, Where is the daubing with which you⁺ have daubed it? ¹³ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there will be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. ¹⁴ So I will break down the wall that you⁺ have daubed with untempered [mortar], and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; and it will fall, and you⁺ will be consumed in the midst of it: and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁵ Thus I will accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have daubed it with untempered [mortar]; and I will say to you⁺, The wall is no more, neither those who daubed it; ¹⁶ [to wit,] the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁷ And you, Son of Man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, ¹⁸ and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of [persons of] every stature to hunt souls! Will you⁺ hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? ¹⁹ And you⁺ have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your⁺ lying to my people who listen to lies.

²⁰ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against your⁺ pillows, with which you⁺ there hunt the souls to make [them] fly, and I will tear them from your⁺ arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls who you⁺ hunt to make [them] fly. ²¹ Your⁺ kerchiefs also I will tear, and deliver my people out of your⁺ hand, and they will be no more in your⁺ hand to be hunted; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. ²² Because with lies you⁺ have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: ²³ therefore you⁺ will no more see false visions, nor tell any fortunes: and I will deliver my people out of your⁺ hand; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh.

14 Then certain of the elders of Israel came to me, and sat before me. ² And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ³ Son of Man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? ⁴ Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I Yahweh will answer him in it according to the multitude of his idols; ⁵ that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

⁶ Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Return⁺, and turn yourselves from your⁺ idols; and turn away your⁺ faces from all your⁺ disgusting things. ⁷ For every man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I Yahweh will answer him by myself: ⁸ and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. ⁹ And if the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, Yahweh, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. ¹⁰ And they will bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet will be even as the iniquity of him who seeks [him]; ¹¹ that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves anymore with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹² And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹³ Son of Man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and beast; ¹⁴ though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁵ If I cause evil beasts to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the beasts; ¹⁶ though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. ¹⁷ Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and beast; ¹⁸ though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. ¹⁹ Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast; ²⁰ though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

²¹ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: How much more when I send my four intense judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil beasts, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast! ²² Yet, look, in it will be left a remnant that will be carried forth, both sons and daughters: look, they will come forth to you⁺, and you⁺ will see their way and their doings; and you⁺ will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. ²³ And they will comfort you⁺, when you⁺ see their way and their doings; and you⁺ will know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

15 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, what is the vine-tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³ Will wood be taken of it to make any work? Or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? ⁴ Look, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned: is it profitable for any work? ⁵ Look, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, will it yet be meet for any work! ⁶ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷ And I will set my face against them; they will go forth from the fire, but the fire will devour them; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. ⁸ And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

16 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, cause Jerusalem to know her disgusting behaviors; ³ and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to Jerusalem: Your birth and your nativity is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴ And as for your nativity, in the day you were born your umbilical cord was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. ⁵ No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your soul was abhorred, in the day that you were born.

⁶ And when I passed by you, and saw you weltering in your blood, I said to you in your blood, live; yes, I said to you in your blood, live. ⁷ I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and waxed great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare. ⁸ Now when I passed by you, and looked on you, and saw your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says the Sovereign Yahweh, and you became mine. ⁹ Then I washed you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰ I clothed you also with embroidered work, and put sandals on you with sealskin, and I girded you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. ¹¹ And I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. ¹² And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³ Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceedingly beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. ¹⁴ And your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁵ But you trusted in your beauty, and prostituted because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by, that it may be for him. ¹⁶ And you took of your garments, and made for yourself high places decked with diverse colors, and prostituted on them: [this] should not come, neither should it be [so]. ¹⁷ You also took your fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given to you, and made for yourself images of men, and prostituted with them; ¹⁸ and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. ¹⁹ My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a sweet savor; and [thus] it was, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ²⁰ Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and these you have sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your prostitutions a small matter, ²¹ that you have slain my sons, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through [the fire] to them? ²² And in all your disgusting behaviors and your prostitutions you haven't remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were weltering in your blood.

²³ And it has come to pass after all your wickedness (woe, woe to you! says the Sovereign Yahweh), ²⁴ that you have built yourself a vaulted place, and have made yourself a lofty place in every street. ²⁵ You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and were disgusted with your beauty, and have spread your legs^a for everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. ²⁶ You have also prostituted with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. ²⁷ Look therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary [food], and delivered you to the soul of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. ²⁸ You have prostituted also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have prostituted with them, and yet you were not satisfied. ²⁹ You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of traffic, to Chaldea; and yet you were not satisfied herewith.

³⁰ How weak is your heart, says the Sovereign Yahweh, seeing you do all these things, the work of an overbearing prostitute; ³¹ in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn wages. ³² A wife who commits adultery! Who takes strangers instead of her husband! ³³ They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. ³⁴ And you are different from [other] women in your prostitution, in that no one solicits you for prostitution; and you pay but you are not paid, therefore you are different.

³⁵ Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of Yahweh: ³⁶ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your disgusting things, and for the blood of your sons, that you gave to them; ³⁷ therefore look, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸ And I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. ³⁹ I will also give you into their hand, and they will throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they will strip you of your clothes, and take your fair jewels; and they will leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰ They will also bring up a company against you, and they will stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹ And they will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease prostituting, and you will also give no wages anymore. ⁴² So I will cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy will depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be angry no more. ⁴³ Because you haven't remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, look, I also will bring your way on your head, says the Sovereign Yahweh: and you will not commit this lewdness with all your disgusting behaviors.

⁴⁴ Look, everyone who uses proverbs will use [this] proverb against you, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. ⁴⁵ You are the daughter of your mother, that loathes her husband and her sons; and you are the sister of your sisters, that loathed their husbands and their sons: your⁺ mother was a Hittite, and your⁺ father an Amorite. ⁴⁶ And your elder sister is Samaria, that dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, that dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. ⁴⁷ Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor followed their disgusting behaviors; but, as [if that were] a very little [thing], you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. ⁴⁸ As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, Sodom your sister did not do, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. ⁴⁹ Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰ And then they were lifted up, and then did disgusting things before me: therefore I took them away as I saw [this]. ⁵¹ Neither did Samaria commit half of your sins; but you have multiplied your disgusting behaviors more than they, and have justified your sisters by all the disgusting things that you have done. ⁵² You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins you are more disgusting than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

⁵³ And I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in the midst of them; ⁵⁴ that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. ⁵⁵ And your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former estate; and you and your daughters will return to your⁺ former estate. ⁵⁶ For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷ before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, who do despite to you round about. ⁵⁸ You have borne your lewdness and your disgusting behaviors, says Yahweh. ⁵⁹ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰ Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. ⁶¹ Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you will receive your sisters, your elder [sisters] and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. ⁶² And I will establish my covenant with you; and you will know that I am Yahweh; ⁶³ that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth anymore, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

17 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; ³ and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, full of feathers, which had diverse colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: ⁴ he cropped off the topmost of its young twigs, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. ⁵ He also took of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow-tree. ⁶ And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

⁷ There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, look, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the rows of its plantation, that he might water it. ⁸ It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. ⁹ Say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Will it prosper? Will he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? And not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots. ¹⁰ Yes, look, being planted, will it prosper? Will it not completely wither, when the east wind touches it? It will wither on the rows where it grew.

¹¹ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹² Say now to the rebellious house, Don't you⁺ know what these things mean? Tell them, Look, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to himself to Babylon: ¹³ and he took of the royal seed, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; ¹⁴ that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. ¹⁵ But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he escape who does such things? Will he break the covenant, and yet escape? ¹⁶ As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he will die. ¹⁷ Neither will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many souls. ¹⁸ For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and look, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he will not escape. ¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. ²⁰ And I will spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. ²¹ And all his places of refuge with all his bands will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered toward every wind: and you⁺ will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

²² Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: ²³ in the mountain of the height of Israel I will plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar: and under it will stay all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches they will stay. ²⁴ And all the trees of the field will know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.

18 The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, ² What do you⁺ mean, that you⁺ use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the teeth of the sons are set on edge? ³ As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, you⁺ will not have [occasion] anymore to use this proverb in Israel. ⁴ Look, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins will die.

⁵ But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, ⁶ and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his fellow man's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, ⁷ and has not wronged any, but has restored his pledge for debt, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ⁸ he who has not given forth on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, ⁹ has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to act in accordance with them; he is just, he will surely live, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁰ If he begets a son who is violent, a shedder of blood, and is one who does this type of thing;^a ¹¹ and not only does this type of thing, but also has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his fellow man's wife, ¹² has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has done a disgusting thing, ¹³ has given forth on interest, and has taken increase; will he then live? He will not live: he has done all these disgusting things; he will surely die; his blood will be on him.

¹⁴ Now, look, if he begets a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and he sees, and does not do such; ¹⁵ who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his fellow man's wife, ¹⁶ neither has wronged any, has not taken anything for a pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ¹⁷ who has withdrawn his hand^b from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he will not die for the iniquity of his father, he will surely live. ¹⁸ As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, look, he will die in his iniquity.

¹⁹ Yet you⁺ say, Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he will surely

^a this type of thing. Literally, 'from one of these'. Probably referring to the acts of violence and shedding blood that characterize this person. Also in verse 11.

live. ²⁰ The soul who sins will die: the son will not bear the iniquity of the father, neither will the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous will be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be on him.

²¹ But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all my statutes, and does that which is lawful and right, he will surely live, he will not die. ²² None of his transgressions that he has committed will be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he will live. ²³ Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the Sovereign Yahweh; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? ²⁴ But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the disgusting things that the wicked man does, will he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he will die.

²⁵ Yet you⁺ say, The way of the Lord is not fair. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way fair? Are not your⁺ ways unfair? ²⁶ When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies in it; in his iniquity that he has done he will die. ²⁷ Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he will save his soul alive. ²⁸ Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he will surely live, he will not die. ²⁹ Yet says the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not fair. O house of Israel, are not my ways fair? Are not your⁺ ways unfair? ³⁰ Therefore I will judge you⁺, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the Sovereign Yahweh. Return⁺, and turn yourselves from all your⁺ transgressions; so iniquity will not be your⁺ ruin. ³¹ Cast away all your⁺ transgressions from you⁺, by which you⁺ have transgressed through them; and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you⁺ die, O house of Israel? ³² For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Sovereign Yahweh: So turn yourselves, and live.

19 Moreover, take yourself up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, ² and say, What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her whelps. ³ And she brought up one of her whelps: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured man. ⁴ The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt. ⁵ Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. ⁶ And he went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured man. ⁷ And he cast down his widows, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fullness of it, because of the noise of his roaring. ⁸ Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. ⁹ And they put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into fortresses, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰ Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. ¹¹ And it had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. ¹² But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. ¹³ And now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. ¹⁴ And fire has gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and will be for a lamentation.

20 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth [month], the tenth [day] of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and sat before me. ² And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ³ Son of Man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Is it to inquire of me that you⁺ have come? As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you⁺. ⁴ Will you judge them, Son of Man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the disgusting things of their fathers; ⁵ and say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am Yahweh your⁺ God; ⁶ in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. ⁷ And I said to them, Cast⁺ away every man the detestable things of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Yahweh your⁺ God. ⁸ But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they did not every man cast away the detestable things of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ⁹ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹ And I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if man does, he will live in them. ¹² Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies them. ¹³ But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if man keeps, he will live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. ¹⁴ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. ¹⁵ Moreover I also swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; ¹⁶ because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷ Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I did not destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.

¹⁸ And I said to their sons in the wilderness, Don't walk⁺ in the statutes of your⁺ fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹ I am Yahweh your⁺ God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; ²⁰ and hallow my Sabbaths; and they will be a sign between me and you⁺, that you⁺ may know that I am Yahweh your⁺ God. ²¹ But the sons rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if man does, he will live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. ²² Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. ²³ Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; ²⁴ because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

²⁵ Moreover I also gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; ²⁶ and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through [the fire] all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Yahweh.

²⁷ Therefore, Son of Man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: In this moreover have your⁺ fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. ²⁸ For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savor, and they poured out there their drink-offerings. ²⁹ Then I said to them, What is the high place to where you⁺ go? So its name is called Bamah to this day. ³⁰ Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Do you⁺ pollute yourselves after the manner of your⁺ fathers? And you⁺ prostitute after their detestable things? ³¹ And when you⁺ offer your⁺ gifts, when you⁺ make your⁺ sons to pass through the fire, do you⁺ pollute yourselves with all your⁺ idols to this day? And shall I be inquired of by you⁺, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you⁺; ³² and that which comes into your⁺ mind will not be at all, in that you⁺ say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to minister wood and stone.

³³ As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you⁺: ³⁴ and I will bring you⁺ out from the peoples, and will gather you⁺ out of the countries in which you⁺ are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; ³⁵ and I will bring you⁺ into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you⁺ face to face. ³⁶ Like I entered into judgment with your⁺ fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you⁺, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ³⁷ And I will cause you⁺ to pass under the rod, and I will bring you⁺ into the bond of the covenant; ³⁸ and I will purge out from among you⁺ the rebels, and those who transgress against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they will not enter into the land of Israel: and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. ³⁹ As for you⁺, O house of Israel, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Go⁺, serve every one his idols, and hereafter also, if you⁺ will not listen to me; but my holy name you⁺ will profane no more with your⁺ gifts, and with your⁺ idols.

⁴⁰ For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Sovereign Yahweh, there will all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there I will accept them, and there I will require your⁺ offerings, and the first fruits of your⁺ oblations, with all your⁺ holy things. ⁴¹ As a sweet savor I will accept you⁺, when I bring you⁺ out from the peoples, and gather you⁺ out of the countries in which you⁺ have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you⁺ in the sight of the nations. ⁴² And you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh, when I will bring you⁺ into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your⁺ fathers. ⁴³ And there you⁺ will remember your⁺ ways, and all your⁺ doings, in which you⁺ have polluted yourselves; and you⁺ will loathe yourselves in your⁺ own sight for all your⁺ evils that you⁺ have committed. ⁴⁴ And you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh, when I have dealt with you⁺ for my name's sake, not according to your⁺ evil ways, nor according to your⁺ corrupt doings, O you⁺ house of Israel, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

⁴⁵ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁴⁶ Son of Man, set your face toward the south, and drop [your word] toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; ⁴⁷ and say to the forest of the South, Hear the word of Yahweh:

Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Look, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame will not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north will be burned by it. ⁴⁸ And all flesh will see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it; it will not be quenched. ⁴⁹ Then I said, Ah Sovereign Yahweh! They say of me, Is he not a speaker of parables?

21 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop [your word] toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; ³ and say to the land of Israel, Thus says Yahweh: Look, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴ Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore will my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: ⁵ and all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it will not return anymore. ⁶ Sigh therefore, you Son of Man; with the breaking of your loins and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. ⁷ And it will be, when they say to you, Why do you sigh? Then you will say, Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart will melt, and all hands will be feeble, and every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water: look, it comes, and it will be done, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

⁸ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹ Son of Man, prophesy, and say, Thus says Yahweh: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; ¹⁰ it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? The rod of my son, it despises every tree. ¹¹ And it is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. ¹² Cry and wail, Son of Man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. ¹³ For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that despises will be no more? says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁴ You therefore, Son of Man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their chambers. ¹⁵ I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! It is made as lightning, it is sheathed for slaughter. ¹⁶ Gather yourself together, go to the right, set yourself in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. ¹⁷ I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

¹⁸ The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, ¹⁹ Also, you Son of Man, appoint for yourself two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they will both come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. ²⁰ You will appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. ²¹ For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to tell his fortune: he shook the arrows to and fro, he consulted the talismans, he looked in the liver. ²² In his right hand was the reading [for] Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. ²³ And it will be to them as a false reading in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.

²⁴ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you⁺ have made your⁺ iniquity to be remembered, in that your⁺ transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your⁺ doings your⁺ sins appear; because you⁺ have come to remembrance, you⁺ will be taken with the hand. ²⁵ And you, O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, ²⁶ thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this [will be] no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. ²⁷ I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: neither has this taken place, until he comes whose right it is; and I will give it [to him].

²⁸ And you, Son of Man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh concerning the sons of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; ²⁹ while they see for you false visions, while they tell you a lying fortune, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. ³⁰ Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, I will judge you. ³¹ And I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. ³² You will be for fuel to the fire; your blood will be in the midst of the land; you will be no more remembered: for I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

22 Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² And you, Son of Man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her disgusting behaviors. ³ And you will say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: A city that sheds blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! ⁴ You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. ⁵ Those who are near, and those who are far from you, will mock you, you infamous one [and] full of tumult.

⁶ Look, the princes of Israel, every one according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. ⁷ In you they have set light by father and mother; in the midst of you they have dealt by oppression with the sojourner; in you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow. ⁸ You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ⁹ Slandorous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness. ¹⁰ In you they have uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you they have humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. ¹¹ And one has done a disgusting thing with his fellow man's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. ¹² In you they have taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your fellow men by oppression, and have forgotten me, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹³ Look, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. ¹⁴ Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I will deal with you? I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and will do it. ¹⁵ And I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. ¹⁶ And I will be profaned by you, in the sight of the nations; and you will know that I am Yahweh.

¹⁷ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁸ Son of Man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are bronze and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. ¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you⁺ have all become dross, therefore, look, I will gather you⁺ into the midst of Jerusalem.

²⁰ As they gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you⁺ in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you⁺ there, and melt you⁺. ²¹ Yes, I will gather you⁺, and blow on you⁺ with the fire of my wrath, and you⁺ will be melted in the midst of it. ²² As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you⁺ will be melted in the midst of it; and you⁺ will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you⁺.

²³ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²⁴ Son of Man, say to her, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation. ²⁵ There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst of it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in the midst of it. ²⁶ Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. ²⁷ Her princes in the midst of it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, [and] to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. ²⁸ And her prophets have daubed for them with untempered [mortar], seeing false visions, and telling them lying fortunes, saying, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, when Yahweh has not spoken. ²⁹ The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the sojourner wrongfully. ³⁰ And I sought for a man among them, that should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none. ³¹ Therefore I have poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way I have brought on their heads, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

23 The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, ² Son of Man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: ³ and they prostituted in Egypt; they prostituted in their youth; where their breasts were squeezed and their virgin nipples were caressed. ⁴ And the names of them were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

⁵ And Oholah prostituted when she was mine; and she lusted after her lovers, on the nearby Assyrians, ⁶ who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. ⁷ And she bestowed her prostitution on them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whomever she lusted after, with all their idols she defiled herself. ⁸ Neither has she left her prostitution since [the days of] Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they caressed her virgin nipples; and they poured out their prostitution on her. ⁹ Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she lusted after. ¹⁰ These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and they slew her with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her.

¹³ And I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. ¹⁴ And she increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, ¹⁵ girded with loincloths on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look at, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their nativity. ¹⁶ And as soon as she saw them she lusted after them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. ¹⁷ And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. ¹⁸ So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like my soul was alienated from her sister. ¹⁹ Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had prostituted in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ And she lusted after their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ²¹ Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth, when from Egypt they caressed your nipples and squeezed your youthful breasts.

²² Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, [and] all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴ And they will come against you equipped with chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they will set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet round about; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their judgments. ²⁵ And I will set my jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in fury; they will take away your nose and your ears; and your residue will fall by the sword: they will take your sons and your daughters; and your residue will be devoured by the fire. ²⁶ They will also strip you of your clothes, and take away your fair jewels. ²⁷ Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution [brought] from the land of Egypt; so that you will not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt anymore. ²⁸ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; ²⁹ and they will deal with you in hatred, and will take away all your labor, and will leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution.

³⁰ These things will be done to you, for that you have prostituted after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. ³¹ You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand. ³² Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it contains much. ³³ You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. ³⁴ You will even drink it and drain it out, and you will gnaw its sherds, and will tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ³⁵ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore bear you also your lewdness and your prostitution.

³⁶ Yahweh said moreover to me: Son of Man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their disgusting behaviors. ³⁷ For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols they have committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through [the fire] to them for food. ³⁸ Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ³⁹ For when they had slain their sons to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, look, thus they have done in the midst of my house. ⁴⁰ And furthermore you⁺ have sent for men who come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent, and, see, they came; for whom you washed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments, ⁴¹ and sat on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, on which you set my incense and my oil. ⁴² And the voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and men of the multitude of man were brought from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads.

⁴³ Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, Now they will still prostitute with her, and she [with them]. ⁴⁴ And they went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. ⁴⁵ And righteous men, they will judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. ⁴⁶ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed to and fro and robbed. ⁴⁷ And the company will stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they will slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. ⁴⁸ Thus I will cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your⁺ lewdness. ⁴⁹ And they will recompense your⁺ lewdness on you⁺, and you⁺ will bear the sins of your⁺ idols; and you⁺ will know that I am the Sovereign Yahweh.

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth [day] of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, write for yourself the name of the day, [even] of this very same day: the king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this very same day. ³ And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Set on the cauldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: ⁴ gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. ⁵ Take the choice of the flock, and also pile the bones under it; make it boil well; yes, its bones were boiled in the midst of it.

⁶ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city, to the cauldron whose corrosion is in it, and whose corrosion has not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece; No lot has fallen on it. ⁷ For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it on the bare rock; she did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. ⁸ That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered. ⁹ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. ¹⁰ Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. ¹¹ Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its bronze may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the corrosion of it may be consumed. ¹² It has frustrated the efforts [to clean it]; yet her great corrosion does not go forth out of her; her corrosion [does not go forth] by fire. ¹³ In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you were not cleansed, you will not be cleansed from your filthiness anymore, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. ¹⁴ I, Yahweh, have spoken it: it will come to pass, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, they will judge you, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁵ Also the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁶ Son of Man, look, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you will neither mourn nor weep, neither will your tears run down. ¹⁷ Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headtire on you, and put your sandals on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat the bread of men.^{a 18} So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

¹⁹ And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things are to us, that you do so? ²⁰ Then I said to them, The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²¹ Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your⁺ power, the desire of your⁺ eyes, and that on which your⁺ soul pities; and your⁺ sons and your⁺ daughters whom you⁺ have left behind will fall by the sword. ²² And you⁺ will do as I have done: you⁺ will not cover your⁺ lips, nor eat the bread of men. ²³ And your⁺ tires will be on your⁺ heads, and your⁺ sandals on your⁺ feet: you⁺ will not mourn nor weep; but you⁺ will pine away in your⁺ iniquities, and moan one toward another. ²⁴ Thus Ezekiel will be to you⁺ a sign; according to all that he has done you⁺ will do: when this comes, then you⁺ will know that I am the Sovereign Yahweh.

²⁵ And you, Son of Man, will it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their soul, their sons and their daughters, ²⁶ that in that day he who escapes will come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? ²⁷ In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you will speak, and be mute no more: so you will be a sign to them; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

25 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, set your face toward the sons of Ammon, and prophesy against them: ³ and say to the sons of Ammon, Hear the word of the Sovereign Yahweh: Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Because you said, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: ⁴ therefore, look, I will deliver you to the sons of the east for a possession, and they will set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they will eat your fruit, and they will drink your milk. ⁵ And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the sons of Ammon a couching-place for flocks: and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. ⁶ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel; ⁷ therefore, look, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you will know that I am Yahweh.

⁸ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because Moab and Seir say, Look, the house of Judah is like all the nations; ⁹ therefore, look, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, ¹⁰ to the sons of the east, [to go] against the sons of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the sons of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹ And I will execute judgments on Moab; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

¹² Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them; ¹³ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan they will fall by the sword. ¹⁴ And I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they will do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they will know my vengeance, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity; ¹⁶ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Look, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the seacoast. ¹⁷ And I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they will know that I am Yahweh, when I will lay my vengeance on them.

26 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first [day] of the month,^b that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken [that was] the gate of the peoples; she has turned to me; I will be replenished, now that she is laid waste: ³ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, Look, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. ⁴ And they will destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. ⁵ She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Sovereign Yahweh; and she will become a spoil to the nations. ⁶ And her daughters who are in the field will be slain with the sword: and they will know that I am Yahweh.

⁷ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. ⁸ He will slay with the sword your daughters in the field; and he will make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. ⁹ And he will set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. ¹⁰ By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust will cover you: your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he will enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which a breach is made. ¹¹ With the hoofs of his horses he will tread down all your streets; he will slay your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength will go down to the ground. ¹² And they will make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they will break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they will lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters. ¹³ And I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps will be heard no more. ¹⁴ And I will make you a bare rock; you will be a place for the spreading of nets; you will be built no more: for I Yahweh have spoken it, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to Tyre: will not the isles shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? ¹⁶ Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, and will tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. ¹⁷ And they will take up a lamentation over you, and say to you, How you are destroyed, that were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, that was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, that caused their terror to be on all who dwelt there! ¹⁸ Now will the isles tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the isles that are in the sea will be dismayed at your departure.

¹⁹ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: When I will make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I will bring up the deep on you, and the great waters will cover you;

²⁰ then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time; and will make you to dwell in the nether parts of the earth, like places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you are not inhabited; but I will make glory in the land of the living. ²¹ I will make you a terror, and you will no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

27 The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, ² And you, Son of Man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; ³ and say to Tyre, O you that dwell at the entry of the sea, that are the merchant of the peoples to many isles, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: You, O Tyre, have said, I am perfect in beauty. ⁴ Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty. ⁵ They have made all your planks of fir-trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. ⁶ Of the oaks of Bashan they have made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in cypress-wood, from the isles of Kittim. ⁷ Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for an ensign; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was your awning. ⁸ The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, O Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. ⁹ The old men of Gebal and its wise men were in you, your caulkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise. ¹⁰ Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your majesty. ¹¹ The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls round about, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls round about; they have perfected your beauty.

¹² Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. ¹³ Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the souls of man and vessels of bronze for your merchandise. ¹⁴ They of the house of Togamah traded for your wares with horses and warhorses and mules. ¹⁵ The sons of Rodan were your traffickers; many isles were the mart of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. ¹⁶ Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. ¹⁷ Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. ¹⁸ Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool, ¹⁹ and the earthenware wine jars of Izalla,^a for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. ²⁰ Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. ²¹ Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these they were your merchants. ²² The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. ²³ Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur [and] Chilmad, were your traffickers. ²⁴ These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords and made of cedar, these were your merchandise. ²⁵ The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

²⁶ Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. ²⁷ Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your caulkers, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, will fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. ²⁸ At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs will shake. ²⁹ And all who handle the oar, the mariners, [and] all the pilots of the sea, will come down from their ships; they will stand on the land, ³⁰ and will cause their voice to be heard over you, and will cry bitterly, and will cast up dust on their heads, they will wallow themselves in the ashes: ³¹ and they will make themselves bald for you, and gird them with sackcloth, and they will weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. ³² And in their wailing they will take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, [saying,] Who is there like Tyre, like her that is brought to silence in the midst of the sea? ³³ When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you did enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. ³⁴ In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell in the midst of you. ³⁵ All the inhabitants of the isles are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their countenance. ³⁶ The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you have become a terror, and you will nevermore have any being.

28 The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, ² Son of Man, say to the leader of Tyre, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God;— ³ look, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; ⁴ by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten you riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; ⁵ by your great wisdom [and] by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches;— ⁶ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, ⁷ therefore, look, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they will defile your brightness. ⁸ They will bring you down to the pit; and you will die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. ⁹ Will you yet say before him who slays you, I am God? But you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you. ¹⁰ You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹¹ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹² Son of Man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. ¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, the sardius, the topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes was in you; in the day that you were created they were prepared. ¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub that covers; I set you; you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁵ You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. ¹⁶ By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁷ Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may look at you. ¹⁸ By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore I have brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who look at you. ¹⁹ All those who know you among the peoples will be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you will nevermore have any being.

²⁰ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²¹ Son of Man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, ²² and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against you, O Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you; and they will know that I am Yahweh, when I will have executed judgments in her, and will be sanctified in her. ²³ For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded will fall in the midst of her, with the sword on her on every side; and they will know that I am Yahweh. ²⁴ And there will be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any who are round about them, who did despite to them; and they will know that I am the Sovereign Yahweh.

²⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: When I will have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and will be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to my slave Jacob. ²⁶ And they will dwell securely in it; yes, they will build houses, and plant vineyards, and will dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite round about them; and they will know that I am Yahweh their God.

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth [month], in the twelfth [day] of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt; ³ speak, and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the crocodile^a that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, My river is my own, and I have made it for myself. ⁴ And I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. ⁵ And I will cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers: you will fall on the open field; you will not be brought together nor gathered; I have given you for food to the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the heavens. ⁶ And all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷ When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and rent all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and made all their loins to be at a stand.

⁸ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off from you man and beast. ⁹ And the land of Egypt will be a desolation and a waste; and they will know that I am Yahweh. Because he has said, The river is mine, and I have made it; ¹⁰ therefore, look, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even to the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹ No foot of man will pass through it, nor foot of beast will pass through it, neither will it be inhabited forty years. ¹² And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste will be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

¹³ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; ¹⁴ and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they will be there a base kingdom. ¹⁵ It will be the basest of the kingdoms; neither will it anymore lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they will no more rule over the nations. ¹⁶ And it will be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to remembrance, when they turn to look after them: and they will know that I am the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁷ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first [month], in the first [day] of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁸ Son of Man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet he had no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. ¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he will carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it will be the wages for his army. ²⁰ I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they wrought for me, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

²¹ In that day I will cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

30 The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, ² Son of Man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Wail⁺, Alas for the day! ³ For the day is near, even the day of Yahweh is near; it will be a day of clouds, a time of the nations. ⁴ And a sword will come upon Egypt, and anguish will be in Ethiopia, when the slain will fall in Egypt; and they will take away her multitude, and her foundations will be broken down. ⁵ Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mingled people, and Cub, and the sons of the land that is in league, will fall with them by the sword.

⁶ Thus says Yahweh: Those also who uphold Egypt will fall; and the pride of her power will come down: from the tower of Seveneh they will fall in it by the sword, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ⁷ And they will be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities will be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. ⁸ And they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed. ⁹ In that day messengers will go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there will be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, look, it comes.

¹⁰ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. ¹¹ He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land; and they will draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. ¹² And I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

¹³ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there will be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. ¹⁴ And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. ¹⁵ And I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. ¹⁶ And I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin will be in great anguish, and No will be broken up; and Memphis [will have] anguish daily. ¹⁷ The young men of On and of Pibeseth will fall by the sword; and these [cities] will go into captivity. ¹⁸ At Tehaphnehes also the day will withdraw itself, when I will break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power will cease in her: as for her, a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity. ¹⁹ Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

²⁰ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first [month], in the seventh [day] of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²¹ Son of Man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, look, it has not been bound up, to apply [healing] medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it is strong to hold the sword. ²² Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong [arm], and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³ And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. ²⁴ And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. ²⁵ And I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh will fall down; and they will know that I am Yahweh, when I will put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will stretch it out on the land of Egypt. ²⁶ And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

31 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third [month], in the first [day] of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: Whom are you like in your greatness? ³ Look, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. ⁴ The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: its rivers ran round about its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. ⁵ Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot [them] forth. ⁶ All the birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young; and under its shadow dwelt all great nations. ⁷ Thus it was fair in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. ⁸ The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir-trees were not like its boughs, and the plane-trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. ⁹ I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.

¹⁰ Therefore thus said the Sovereign Yahweh: Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top to [reach] among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; ¹¹ I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he will surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. ¹² And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches have fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth have gone down from his shadow, and have left him. ¹³ On his ruin all the birds of the heavens will stay, and all the beasts of the field will be on his branches; ¹⁴ to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top to [reach] among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up in their height, [even] all that drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the sons of man, with those who go down to the pit.

¹⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were kept back; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. ¹⁶ I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the nether parts of the earth. ¹⁷ They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, [who] dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the nations.

¹⁸ To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether parts of the earth: you will lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

32 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first [day] of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him, You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet are you as a crocodile^a in the seas; and you broke forth with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. ³ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they will bring you up in my net. ⁴ And I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the heavens to stay on you, and I will satisfy the beasts of the whole earth with you. ⁵ And I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. ⁶ I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses will be full of you. ⁷ And when I will extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make their stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light. ⁸ All the bright lights of heaven I will make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ⁹ I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I will bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ¹⁰ Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid for you, when I will brandish my sword before them; and they will tremble at every moment, every man for his own soul, in the day of your fall.

¹¹ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: The sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you. ¹² By the swords of the mighty I will cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are all of them: and they will bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude will be destroyed. ¹³ I will destroy also all its beasts from beside many waters; neither will the foot of man trouble them anymore, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. ¹⁴ Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁵ When I will make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I will strike all those who dwell in it, then they will know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁶ This is the lamentation with which they will lament; the daughters of the nations will lament with it; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, they will lament with it, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁷ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth [day] of the month,^b that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁸ Son of Man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the majestic nations, to the nether parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. ¹⁹ Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. ²⁰ They will fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. ²¹ The strong among the mighty will speak to him out of the midst of Sheol with those who help him: they have gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. ²² Asshur is there and all her company; their^a graves are round about them; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; ²³ whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

²⁴ There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁵ They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are round about them;^b all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of those who are slain.

²⁹ There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. ³⁰ There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

³¹ Pharaoh will see them, and will be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ³² For I put his terror in the land of the living; but he will be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

33 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, speak to the sons of your people, and say to them, When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; ³ if, when he sees the sword come upon the land, he blows the trumpet, and warns the people; ⁴ then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and does not take warning, if the sword comes, and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. ⁵ He heard the sound of the trumpet, and did not take warning; his blood will be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. ⁶ But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes, and takes any soul from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.

⁷ So you, Son of Man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. ⁸ When I say to the wicked, O wicked man, you will surely die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man will die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. ⁹ Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he does not turn from his way; he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

¹⁰ And you, Son of Man, say to the house of Israel: Thus you⁺ speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live? ¹¹ Say to them, As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn⁺, turn⁺ from your⁺ evil ways; for why will you⁺ die, O house of Israel? ¹² And you, Son of Man, say to the sons of your people, The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall by it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither will he who is righteous be able to live by it in the day that he sins. ¹³ When I say to the righteous, that he will surely live; if he trusts to his righteousness, and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, in it he will die. ¹⁴ Again, when I say to the wicked, You will surely die; if he turns from his sin, and does that which is lawful and right; ¹⁵ if the wicked restores the pledge, gives again that which he had taken by robbery, walks in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he will surely live, he will not die. ¹⁶ None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he will surely live.

¹⁷ Yet the sons of your people say, The way of the Lord is not fair: but as for them, their way is not fair. ¹⁸ When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he will even die in it. ¹⁹ And when the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he will live by it. ²⁰ Yet you⁺ say, The way of the Lord is not fair. O house of Israel, I will judge you⁺ every one after his ways. ²¹ And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth [month], in the fifth [day] of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city is struck. ²² Now the hand of Yahweh had been on me in the evening, before he who had escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was mute no more.

²³ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²⁴ Son of Man, those who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land was given to us for inheritance. ²⁵ Therefore say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: You⁺ eat with the blood, and lift up your⁺ eyes to your⁺ idols, and shed blood: and will you⁺ possess the land? ²⁶ You⁺ stand on your⁺ sword, you⁺ do disgusting things, and you⁺ defile every one his fellow man's wife: and will you⁺ possess the land? ²⁷ Thus you will say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the pestilence. ²⁸ And I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power will cease; and the mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that none will pass through. ²⁹ Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all the disgusting things that they have done.

³⁰ And as for you, Son of Man, the sons of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you⁺, and hear what the word is that comes forth from Yahweh. ³¹ And they come to you like the coming of a people, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. ³² And, look, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a beautiful voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. ³³ And when this comes to pass (look, it comes), then they will know that a prophet has been among them.

34 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who have been shepherding themselves! Should not the shepherds shepherd the sheep? ³ You⁺ eat the milk,^a and you⁺ clothe yourselves with the wool, you⁺ kill the fatlings; but you⁺ don't shepherd the sheep. ⁴ The diseased you⁺ have not strengthened, neither have you⁺ healed that which was sick, neither have you⁺ bound up that which was broken, neither have you⁺ brought back that which was driven away, neither have you⁺ sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you⁺ have ruled over them. ⁵ And they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the beasts of the field, and were scattered. ⁶ My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the face of the earth; and there was none who searched or sought [after them].

⁷ Therefore, you⁺ shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: ⁸ As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, surely since my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds shepherded themselves, and didn't shepherd my sheep; ⁹ therefore, you⁺ shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: ¹⁰ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from shepherding the sheep; neither will the shepherds shepherd themselves anymore; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.

¹¹ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. ¹² As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so I will seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. ¹³ And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will shepherd them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴ I will shepherd them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel will their fold be: there they will lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture they will be shepherded on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵ I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁶ I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will shepherd them in justice.

¹⁷ And as for you⁺, O my flock, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the he-goats. ¹⁸ Does it seem a small thing to you⁺ to have fed on the good pasture, but you⁺ must tread down with your⁺ feet the residue of your⁺ pasture? And to have drank of the clear waters, but you⁺ must foul the residue with your⁺ feet? ¹⁹ And as for my sheep, they eat that which you⁺ have trodden with your⁺ feet, and they drink that which you⁺ have fouled with your⁺ feet.

²⁰ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to them: Look, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹ Because you⁺ thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your⁺ horns, until you⁺ have scattered them abroad; ²² therefore I will save my flock, and they will no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³ And I will set up another shepherd over them, and he will shepherd them, even my slave David; he will shepherd them, and he will be their shepherd. ²⁴ And I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my slave David prince among them; I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

²⁵ And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they will dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. ²⁶ And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there will be showers of blessing. ²⁷ And the tree of the field will yield its fruit, and the earth will yield its increase, and they will be secure in their land; and they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. ²⁸ And they will no more be a prey to the nations, neither will the beasts of the earth devour them; but they will dwell securely, and none will make them afraid. ²⁹ And I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they will be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations anymore. ³⁰ And they will know that I, Yahweh, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ³¹ And you⁺ my sheep, the sheep of my pasture: you⁺ are man, [and] I am your⁺ God, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

35 Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, set your face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, ³ and say to it, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against you, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. ⁴ I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate; and you will know that I am Yahweh. ⁵ Because you have had a perpetual enmity, and have given over the sons of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end; ⁶ therefore, as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I will prepare you to blood, and blood will pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood will pursue you. ⁷ Thus I will make mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns. ⁸ And I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses they will fall who are slain with the sword. ⁹ I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh.

¹⁰ Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess it; whereas Yahweh was there: ¹¹ therefore, as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I will judge you. ¹² And you will know that I, Yahweh, have heard all your revilings which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour. ¹³ And you⁺ have magnified yourselves against me with your⁺ mouth, and have multiplied your⁺ words against me: I have heard it. ¹⁴ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵ As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you: you will be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

^a the milk - the expression refers to milk and the products of milk such as butter, cheese, cream, etc.

36 And you, Son of Man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, You⁺ mountains of Israel, hear the word of Yahweh. ² Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because the enemy has said against you⁺, Aha! And, The ancient high places are ours in possession; ³ therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because, even because they have made you⁺ desolate, and swallowed you⁺ up on every side, that you⁺ might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you⁺ are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; ⁴ therefore, you⁺ mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign Yahweh: Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which have become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are round about; ⁵ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, in order that its pasture ground [may be delivered] for plunder. ⁶ Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you⁺ have borne the shame of the nations: ⁷ therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I have sworn, [saying,] Surely the nations that are round about you⁺, they will bear their shame.

⁸ But you⁺, O mountains of Israel, you⁺ will shoot forth your⁺ branches, and yield your⁺ fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. ⁹ For, look, I am for you⁺, and I will turn to you⁺, and you⁺ will be tilled and sown; ¹⁰ and I will multiply man on you⁺, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities will be inhabited, and the waste places will be built; ¹¹ and I will multiply on you⁺ man and beast; and they will increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you⁺ to be inhabited after your⁺ former estate, and will do better [to you⁺] than at your⁺ beginnings: and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh. ¹² Yes, I will cause man to walk on you⁺, even my people Israel; and they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no more from now on bereave them. ¹³ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Because they say to you⁺, You [land] are a devourer of man, and have been a bereaver of your nation; ¹⁴ therefore you will devour man no more, neither bereave your nation anymore, says the Sovereign Yahweh; ¹⁵ neither will I let you hear anymore the shame of the nations, neither will you cause your nation to stumble anymore, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹⁶ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁷ Son of Man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. ¹⁸ Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; ¹⁹ and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. ²⁰ And when the people^a came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of Yahweh, and have gone forth out of his land. ²¹ But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went.

²² Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: I don't do [this] for your⁺ sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you⁺ have profaned among the nations, where you⁺ went. ²³ And I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you⁺ have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations will know that I am Yahweh, says the Sovereign Yahweh, when I will be sanctified in you⁺ before their eyes. ²⁴ For I will take you⁺ from among the nations, and gather you⁺ out of all the countries, and will bring you⁺ into your⁺ own land. ²⁵ And I will sprinkle clean water on you⁺, and you⁺ will be clean: from all your⁺ filthiness, and from all your⁺ idols, I will cleanse you⁺. ²⁶ A new heart also I will give you⁺, and a new spirit I will put inside you⁺; and I will take away the stony heart out of your⁺ flesh, and I will give you⁺ a heart of flesh. ²⁷ And I will put my Spirit inside you⁺, and cause you⁺ to walk in my statutes, and you⁺ will keep my ordinances, and do them. ²⁸ And you⁺ will dwell in the land that I gave to your⁺ fathers; and you⁺ will be my people, and I will be your⁺ God. ²⁹ And I will save you⁺ from all your⁺ uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you⁺. ³⁰ And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you⁺ may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. ³¹ Then you⁺ will remember your⁺ evil ways, and your⁺ doings that were not good; and you⁺ will loathe yourselves in your⁺ own sight for your⁺ iniquities and for your⁺ disgusting behaviors.

³² I don't do [this] for your⁺ sake, says the Sovereign Yahweh, be it known to you⁺: be ashamed and confounded for your⁺ ways, O house of Israel. ³³ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: In the day that I cleanse you⁺ from all your⁺ iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places will be built. ³⁴ And the land that was desolate will be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. ³⁵ And they will say, This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. ³⁶ Then the nations that are left round about you⁺ will know that I, Yahweh, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and I will do it.

³⁷ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: For this, moreover, I will be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with man like a flock. ³⁸ As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so will the waste cities be filled with flocks of man; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

37 The hand of Yahweh was on me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of Yahweh, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. ² And he caused me to pass by them round about: and, look, there were very many in the open valley; and, look, they were very dry. ³ And he said to me, Son of Man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Sovereign Yahweh, you know. ⁴ Again he said to me, Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, O you⁺ dry bones, hear the word of Yahweh. ⁵ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh to these bones: Look, I will cause breath to enter into you⁺, and you⁺ will live. ⁶ And I will lay sinews on you⁺, and will bring up flesh on you⁺, and cover you⁺ with skin, and put breath in you⁺, and you⁺ will live; and you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh.

^a the people. Literally, 'he' (see HOTTP/CTAT). Likely refers to the 'people of Yahweh' in this verse which is also masculine singular in form.

⁷ So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and, look, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸ And I looked, and saw that there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. ⁹ Then he said to me, Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, Son of Man, and say to the wind, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. ¹⁰ So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

¹¹ Then he said to me, Son of Man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: look, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. ¹² Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will open your⁺ graves, and cause you⁺ to come up out of your⁺ graves, O my people; and I will bring you⁺ into the land of Israel. ¹³ And you⁺ will know that I am Yahweh, when I have opened your⁺ graves, and caused you⁺ to come up out of your⁺ graves, O my people. ¹⁴ And I will put my Spirit in you⁺, and you⁺ will live, and I will place you⁺ in your⁺ own land: and you⁺ will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it and performed it, says Yahweh.

¹⁵ The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, ¹⁶ And you, Son of Man, take for yourself one stick, and write on it, For Judah, and for the sons of Israel his partners: then take another stick, and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and [for] all the house of Israel his partners: ¹⁷ and join them for you one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. ¹⁸ And when the sons of your people will speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these? ¹⁹ Say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his partners; and I will put them with it, [even] with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in my hand. ²⁰ And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes. ²¹ And say to them, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I will take the sons of Israel from among the nations, where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: ²² and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king will be king to them all; and no more will they be two nations, neither will they be divided into two kingdoms anymore at all; ²³ neither will they defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their backslidings, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so they will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴ And my slave David will be king over them; and all of them will have one shepherd: they will also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. ²⁵ And they will dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my slave, in which your⁺ fathers dwelt; and they will dwell in it, they, and their sons, and the sons of their sons, forever: and David my slave will be their prince forever. ²⁶ Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them forevermore. ²⁷ My tabernacle also will be with them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people. ²⁸ And the nations will know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary will be in the midst of them forevermore.

38 And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ² Son of Man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³ and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ⁴ and I will turn you about, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; ⁵ Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; ⁶ Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

⁷ Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies that are assembled to you, and be a guard to them.

⁸ After many days you will be visited: in the latter years you will come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they will dwell securely, all of them. ⁹ And you will ascend, you will come like a storm, you will be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.

¹⁰ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: It will come to pass in that day, that things will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil device: ¹¹ and you will say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; ¹² to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are [now] inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth. ¹³ Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all its young lions, will say to you, Have you come to take the spoil? Have you assembled your company to take the prey? To carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil?

¹⁴ Therefore, Son of Man, prophesy, and say to Gog, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, will you not wake up? ¹⁵ And you will come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; ¹⁶ and you will come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it will come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I will be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes.

¹⁷ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my slaves the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸ And it will come to pass in that day, when Gog will come against the land of Israel, says the Sovereign Yahweh, that my wrath will come up into my nostrils. ¹⁹ For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath I have spoken, Surely in that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel; ²⁰ so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all of man who are on the face of the earth, will shake at my presence, and the mountains will be thrown down, and the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹ And I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains, says the Sovereign Yahweh: every man's sword will be against his brother. ²² And with pestilence and with blood I will enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. ²³ And I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they will know that I am Yahweh.

39 And you, Son of Man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Look, I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ² and I will turn you about, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; ³ and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴ You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. ⁵ You will fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ⁶ And I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the isles; and they will know that I am Yahweh. ⁷ And my holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned anymore: and the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸ Look, it comes, and it will be done, says the Sovereign Yahweh; this is the day of which I have spoken. ⁹ And those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go forth, and will make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they will make fires of them seven years; ¹⁰ so that they will take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they will make fires of the weapons; and they will plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

¹¹ And it will come to pass in that day, that I will give to Gog a place of renown for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it will stop those who pass through: and there they will bury Gog and all his multitude; and they will call it The valley of Hamon-gog. ¹² And seven months will the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. ¹³ Yes, all the people of the land will bury them; and it will be to them a renown in the day that I will be glorified, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁴ And they will set apart men of continual employment, who will pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the face of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months they will search. ¹⁵ And those who pass through the land will pass through; and when any sees man's bone, then he will set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. ¹⁶ And Hamonah will also be the name of a city. Thus they will cleanse the land.

¹⁷ And you, Son of Man, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I sacrifice for you⁺, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you⁺ may eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸ You⁺ will eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹ And you⁺ will eat fat until you⁺ are full, and drink blood until you⁺ are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you⁺. ²⁰ And you⁺ will be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

²¹ And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations will see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. ²² So the house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God, from that day and forward. ²³ And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. ²⁴ According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I did to them; and I hid my face from them.

²⁵ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Now I will bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. ²⁶ And they will bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they will dwell securely in their land, and none will make them afraid; ²⁷ when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸ And they will know that I am Yahweh their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them anymore there; ²⁹ neither will I hide my face anymore from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth [day] of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the very same day, the hand of Yahweh was on me, and he brought me there. ² In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on which was, as it were the frame of a city on the south. ³ And he brought me there; and, look, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. ⁴ And the man said to me, Son of Man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I will show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you were brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel.

⁵ And, look, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. ⁶ Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. ⁷ And every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and [the space] between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. ⁸ He measured also the porch of the gate, ⁹ eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. ¹⁰ And the lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; the three of them were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹ And he measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; ¹² and a border before the lodges, one cubit [on this side], and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. ¹³ And he measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a width of five and twenty cubits; door against door. ¹⁴ He also made posts, threescore cubits; and the court [went] all round the gate [reaching] to the posts. ¹⁵ And [from] the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. ¹⁶ And there were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts inside the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward; and on [each] post were palm-trees. ¹⁷ Then brought he me into the outer court; and, look, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were on the pavement. ¹⁸ And the pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. ¹⁹ Then he measured the length from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, a hundred cubits, [both] on the east and on the north.

²⁰ And the gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured its length and its width. ²¹ And its lodges were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arch was after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width five and twenty cubits. ²² And its windows, and its arch, and its palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arch was before them. ²³ And there was a gate to the inner court opposite the [other] gate, [both] on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

²⁴ And he led me toward the south; and, look, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arch according to these measures. ²⁵ And there were windows in it and in its arch round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width five and twenty cubits. ²⁶ And there were seven steps to go up to it, and its arch was before them; and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. ²⁷ And there was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

²⁸ Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; ²⁹ and its lodges, and its posts, and its arch, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in its arch round about; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. ³⁰ And there were arches round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. ³¹ And its post was toward the outer court; and palm-trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

³² And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures; ³³ and its lodges, and its posts, and its arch, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in its arch round about; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. ³⁴ And its post was toward the outer court; and palm-trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

³⁵ And he brought me to the north gate: and he measured [it] according to these measures; ³⁶ its lodges, its posts, and its arch: and there were windows in it round about; the length was fifty cubits, and the width five and twenty cubits. ³⁷ And its post was toward the outer court; and palm-trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

³⁸ And a chamber with its door was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt-offering. ³⁹ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay on them the burnt-offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering. ⁴⁰ And on the [one] side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. ⁴¹ Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, on which they slew [the sacrifices]. ⁴² And there were four tables for the burnt-offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; on which they laid the instruments with which they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice. ⁴³ And the hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened inside round about: and the flesh of the oblation [was brought] to the tables.

⁴⁴ And outside the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate, and their prospects were toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. ⁴⁵ And he said to me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house; ⁴⁶ and the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Yahweh to minister to him. ⁴⁷ And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

⁴⁸ Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the width of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹ The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and on ten steps they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 And he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the width of the tabernacle. ² And the width of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits. ³ Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴ And he measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place.

⁵ Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. ⁶ And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, and not have hold in the wall of the house. ⁷ And the side-chambers were broader as they encompassed [the house] higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the width of the house [continued] upward; and so one went up [from] the lowest [chamber] to the highest by the middle [chamber]. ⁸ I saw also that the house had a raised basement round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. ⁹ The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers, on the outside, was five cubits, and that which was left of the structure of the side rooms which belonged to the house. ¹⁰ And between the chambers was a width of twenty cubits round about the house on every side. ¹¹ And the doors of the side-chambers were toward [the place] that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the width of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

¹² And the building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and its length ninety cubits. ¹³ So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, a hundred cubits long; ¹⁴ also the width of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, a hundred cubits.

¹⁵ And he measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the arches of the court; ¹⁶ the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, opposite the threshold, ceiled with wood round about, and [from] the ground up to the windows (now the windows were covered), ¹⁷ to [the space] above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall round about inside and outside, by measure. ¹⁸ And it was made with cherubim and palm-trees; and a palm-tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; ¹⁹ so that there was the face of man toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side. [Thus was it] made through all the house round about: ²⁰ from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm-trees made: thus was the wall of the temple.

²¹ As for the temple, the door-posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance [of it] was as the appearance [of the temple]. ²² The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before Yahweh. ²³ And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴ And the doors had two leaves [apiece], two turning leaves: two [leaves] for the one door, and two leaves for the other. ²⁵ And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, like were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶ And there were closed windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was opposite the separate place, and which was opposite the building toward the north. ² Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. ³ Opposite the twenty [cubits] which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story. ⁴ And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits' width, and inward a passage of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. ⁵ Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. ⁶ For they were in three stories, and they did not have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore [the uppermost] was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. ⁷ And the wall that was outside by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, its length was fifty cubits. ⁸ For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, look, before the temple were a hundred cubits. ⁹ And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

¹⁰ In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place and before the building, there were chambers, ¹¹ and the way before them was like the appearance of [the way of] the chambers which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width, and all their egresses were both according to their fashions. And as their doors, ¹² so were also the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

¹³ Then he said to me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they are the holy chambers, where the priests who are near to Yahweh will eat the most holy things: there they will lay the most holy things, and the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. ¹⁴ When the priests enter in, then they will not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they will lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they will put on other garments, and will approach to that which pertains to the people.

¹⁵ Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. ¹⁶ He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. ¹⁷ He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed round about. ¹⁸ He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ¹⁹ And he turned about to the west side: he measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰ He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. ² And, look, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. ³ And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ⁴ And the glory of Yahweh came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. ⁵ And the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, look, the glory of Yahweh filled the house.

⁶ And I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. ⁷ And he said to me, Son of Man, as for the place of my throne, and as for the place of the soles of my feet, [they will be] where I will stay in the midst of the sons of Israel forever. And the house of Israel will no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings [in] their high places; ⁸ in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door-post beside my door-post, and there was [but] the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by the disgusting behaviors that they have done: therefore I have consumed them in my anger. ⁹ Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will stay in the midst of them forever.

¹⁰ You, Son of Man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. ¹¹ And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its egresses, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep its whole form, and all its ordinances, and do them. ¹² This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit of it round about will be most holy. Look, this is the law of the house.

¹³ And these are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): And a hole of one cubit and the width a cubit, and its border by its edge round about a span; and this will be the base of the altar. ¹⁴ And from the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge will be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge will be four cubits, and the width a cubit. ¹⁵ And the upper altar will be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there will be four horns. ¹⁶ And the altar hearth will be twelve [cubits] long by twelve broad, square in its four sides. ¹⁷ And the ledge will be fourteen [cubits] long by fourteen broad in its four sides; and the border about it will be half a cubit; and its bottom will be a cubit round about; and its steps will look toward the east.

¹⁸ And he said to me, Son of Man, thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they will make it, to offer burnt-offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. ¹⁹ You will give to the priests the Levites who are of the seed of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Sovereign Yahweh, a young bull for a sin-offering. ²⁰ And you will take of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border round about: thus you will cleanse it and make atonement for it. ²¹ You will also take the bull of the sin-offering, and it will be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary. ²² And on the second day you will offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin-offering; and they will cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³ When you have made an end of cleansing it, you will offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. ²⁴ And you will bring them near before Yahweh, and the priests will cast salt on them, and they will offer them up for a burnt-offering to Yahweh. ²⁵ Seven days you will prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they will also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶ Seven days they will make atonement for the altar and purify it; so they will consecrate it. ²⁷ And when they have accomplished the days, it will be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests will make your⁺ burnt-offerings on the altar, and your⁺ peace-offerings; and I will accept you⁺, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

44 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. ² And Yahweh said to me, This gate will be shut; it will not be opened, neither will any man enter in by it; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it will be shut. ³ As for the prince, he will sit in it as prince to eat bread before Yahweh; he will enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and will go out by the way of the same.

⁴ Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked and saw that the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh: and I fell on my face. ⁵ And Yahweh said to me, Son of Man, mark well, and look with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of Yahweh, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every egress of the sanctuary. ⁶ And you will say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: O you⁺ house of Israel, let it suffice you⁺ of all your⁺ disgusting behaviors, ⁷ in that you⁺ have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you⁺ offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, [to add] to all your⁺ disgusting behaviors.^a ⁸ And you⁺ have not kept the charge of my holy things; but you⁺ have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

⁹ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, will enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the sons of Israel. ¹⁰ But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they will bear their iniquity. ¹¹ Yet they will be ministering in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they will slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they will stand before them to minister to them. ¹² Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore I have lifted up my hand against them, says the Sovereign Yahweh, and they will bear their iniquity. ¹³ And they will not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they will bear their shame, and the disgusting things that they have done. ¹⁴ Yet I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all its service, and for all that will be done in it.

¹⁵ But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from me, they will come near to me to minister to me; and they will stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Sovereign Yahweh: ¹⁶ they will enter into my sanctuary, and they will come near to my table, to minister to me, and they will keep my charge. ¹⁷ And it will be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they will be clothed with linen garments; and no wool will come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and inside. ¹⁸ They will have linen ties on their heads, and will have linen breeches on their loins; they will not gird themselves with [anything that causes] sweat. ¹⁹ And when they go forth into the outer court to the people, they will put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they will put on other garments, that they do not sanctify the people with their garments. ²⁰ Neither will they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they will only cut off the hair of their heads. ²¹ Neither will any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. ²² Neither will they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they will take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. ²³ And they will teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴ And in a controversy they will stand to judge; according to my ordinances they will judge it: and they will keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they will hallow my Sabbaths. ²⁵ And they will go in to no dead of man to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. ²⁶ And after he is cleansed, they will reckon to him seven days. ²⁷ And in the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he will offer his sin-offering, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

²⁸ And they will have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you⁺ will give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. ²⁹ They will eat the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs. ³⁰ And the first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every oblation of everything, of all your⁺ oblations, will be for the priest: you⁺ will also give to the priests the first of your⁺ dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹ The priests will not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or beast.

45 Moreover, when you⁺ will divide by lot the land for inheritance, you⁺ will offer an oblation to Yahweh, a holy portion of the land; the length will be the length of five and twenty thousand [reeds], and the width will be twenty thousand: it will be holy in all its border round about. ² Of this there will be for the holy place five hundred [in length] by five hundred [in width], square round about; and fifty cubits for its suburbs round about. ³ And of this measure you will measure a length of five and twenty thousand, and a width of ten thousand: and in it will be the sanctuary, which is most holy. ⁴ It is a holy portion of the land; it will be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Yahweh; and it will be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵ And five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, will be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, [for] cities to live in. ⁶ And you⁺ will appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, side by side with the oblation of the holy portion: it will be for the whole house of Israel. ⁷ And [whatever is] for the prince [will be] on the one side and on the other side of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy oblation and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. ⁸ In the land it will be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes will no more oppress my people; but they will give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

⁹ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: Let it suffice you⁺, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; take away your⁺ exactions from my people, says the Sovereign Yahweh. ¹⁰ You⁺ will have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath. ¹¹ The ephah and the bath will be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: its measure will be after the homer. ¹² And the shekel will be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, will be your⁺ maneh.

¹⁸ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: In the first [month], in the first [day] of the month, you will take a young bull without blemish; and you will cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹ And the priest will take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it on the door-posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰ And so you will do on the seventh [day] of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you⁺ will make atonement for the house.

²¹ In the first [month], in the fourteenth day of the month, you⁺ will have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread will be eaten. ²² And on that day the prince will prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin-offering. ²³ And the seven days of the feast he will prepare a burnt-offering to Yahweh, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin-offering. ²⁴ And he will prepare a meal-offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ²⁵ In the seventh [month], in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, he will do the like the seven days; according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meal-offering, and according to the oil.

46 Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east will be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened. ² And the prince will enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and will stand by the post of the gate; and the priests will prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he will worship at the threshold of the gate: then he will go forth; but the gate will not be shut until the evening. ³ And the people of the land will worship at the door of that gate before Yahweh on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. ⁴ And the burnt-offering that the prince will offer to Yahweh will be on the Sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; ⁵ and the meal-offering will be an ephah for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

⁶ And on the day of the new moon it will be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they will be without blemish: ⁷ and he will prepare a meal-offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according to as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ⁸ And when the prince will enter, he will go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he will go forth by the way of it.

⁹ But when the people of the land will come before Yahweh in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship will go forth by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate will go forth by the way of the north gate: he will not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but will go forth straight before him. ¹⁰ And the prince, when they go in, will go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, they will go forth [together]. ¹¹ And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meal-offering will be an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ¹² And when the prince will prepare a freewill-offering, a burnt-offering or peace-offerings as a freewill-offering to Yahweh, one will open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he will prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he will go forth; and after his going forth one will shut the gate.

¹³ And you will prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt-offering to Yahweh daily: morning by morning you will prepare it. ¹⁴ And you will prepare a meal-offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering to Yahweh continually by perpetual ordinances. ¹⁵ Thus they will prepare the lamb, and the meal-offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt-offering.

¹⁹ Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and, see, there was a place on the hinder part westward. ²⁰ And he said to me, This is the place where the priests will boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, [and] where they will bake the meal-offering; that they do not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people. ²¹ Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, look, in every corner of the court there was a court. ²² In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty [cubits] long and thirty broad: these four set into the corners were of one measure. ²³ And there was a wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the walls round about. ²⁴ Then he said to me, These are the boiling-houses, where the ministers of the house will boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 And he brought me back to the door of the house; and, look, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward (for the forefront of the house was toward the east); and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. ² Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of [the gate] that looks toward the east; and, look, there ran out waters on the right side.

³ When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. ⁴ Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through [the waters], waters that were to the loins. ⁵ Afterward he measured a thousand; [and it was] a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through.

⁶ And he said to me, Son of Man, have you seen [this]? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. ⁷ Now when I had returned, look, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. ⁸ Then he said to me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Arabah; and they will go toward the sea; into the sea [will the waters go] which were made to issue forth; and the waters will be healed. ⁹ And it will come to pass, that every living soul which swarms, in every place where the rivers^a come, will live; and there will be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and [the waters of the sea] will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river comes. ¹⁰ And it will come to pass, that fishers will stand by it: from En-ge-di even to En-eglaim will be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish will be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceedingly many. ¹¹ But its miry places, and its marshes, will not be healed; they will be given up to salt. ¹² And by the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, will grow every tree for food, whose leaf will not wither, neither will its fruit fail: it will bring forth new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit will be for food, and its leaf for healing.

¹³ Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: This will be the border, by which you⁺ will divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph [will have two] portions. ¹⁴ And you⁺ will inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your⁺ fathers: and this land will fall to you⁺ for inheritance.

²¹ So you⁺ will divide this land to you⁺ according to the tribes of Israel. ²² And it will come to pass, that you⁺ will divide it by lot for an inheritance to you⁺ and to the strangers who sojourn among you⁺, who will beget sons among you⁺; and they will be to you⁺ as the home-born among the sons of Israel; they will have inheritance with you⁺ among the tribes of Israel. ²³ And it will come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourns, there you⁺ will give him his inheritance, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

48 Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath (and they will have their sides east [and] west), Dan, one [portion]. ² And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one [portion]. ³ And by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one [portion]. ⁴ And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one [portion]. ⁵ And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one [portion]. ⁶ And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one [portion]. ⁷ And by the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one [portion].

⁸ And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, will be the oblation which you⁺ will offer, five and twenty thousand [reeds] in width, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary will be in the midst of it. ⁹ The oblation that you⁺ will offer to Yahweh will be five and twenty thousand [reeds] in length, and ten thousand in width. ¹⁰ And for these, even for the priests, will be the holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand [in length], and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Yahweh will be in the midst of it. ¹¹ [It will be] for the priests who are sanctified, the sons of Zadok, who have kept my charge, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. ¹² And it will be to them an oblation from the oblation of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

¹³ And answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites will have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in width: all the length will be five and twenty thousand, and the width ten thousand. ¹⁴ And they will sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor will the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to Yahweh.

¹⁵ And the five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the five and twenty thousand, will be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city will be in the midst of it. ¹⁶ And these will be its measures: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. ¹⁷ And the city will have suburbs: toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. ¹⁸ And the residue in the length, answerable to the holy oblation, will be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it will be answerable to the holy oblation; and its increase will be for food to those who labor in the city. ¹⁹ And those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, will till it. ²⁰ All the oblation will be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: you⁺ will offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

²¹ And the residue will be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city; in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it will be for the prince: and the holy oblation and the sanctuary of the house will be in the midst of it. ²² Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it will be for the prince.

^a rivers, or 'two currents [of a river]'

²³ And as for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one [portion]. ²⁴ And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one [portion]. ²⁵ And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one [portion]. ²⁶ And by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one [portion]. ²⁷ And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one [portion]. ²⁸ And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border will be even from Tamar, the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook [of Egypt], to the great sea. ²⁹ This is the land which you⁺ will divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

³⁰ And these are the egresses of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred [reeds] by measure; ³¹ and the gates of the city will be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. ³² And at the east side four thousand and five hundred [reeds], and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. ³³ And at the south side four thousand and five hundred [reeds] by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. ³⁴ At the west side four thousand and five hundred [reeds], with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. ³⁵ It will be eighteen thousand [reeds] round about: and the name of the city from that day will be, Yahweh is there.

Daniel

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it. ² And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god. ³ And the king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in [certain] of the sons of Israel, even of the royal seed and of the nobles; ⁴ youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans. ⁵ And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end of it they should stand before the king. ⁶ Now among these were, of the sons of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷ And the prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave [the name of] Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, [of] Shadrach; and to Mishael, [of] Meshach; and to Azariah, [of] Abed-nego.

⁸ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ⁹ Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. ¹⁰ And the prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your⁺ food and your⁺ drink: for why should he see your⁺ faces worse looking than the youths who are of your⁺ own age? So you⁺ would endanger my head with the king. ¹¹ Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: ¹² Prove your slaves, I urge you, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. ¹³ Then let our countenances be looked on before you, and the countenance of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your slaves.

¹⁷ Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. ¹⁸ And at the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹ And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. ²⁰ And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the sacred scholars^a and psychics^b who were in all his realm. ²¹ And Daniel continued even to the first year of King Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. ² Then the king commanded to call the sacred scholars, and the psychics, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. ³ And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. ⁴ Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live forever: tell your slaves the dream, and we will show the interpretation. ⁵ The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing has gone from me: if you⁺ don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you⁺ will be cut in pieces, and your⁺ houses will be made a dunghill. ⁶ But if you⁺ show the dream and its interpretation, you⁺ will receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation. ⁷ They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his slaves the dream, and we will show the interpretation. ⁸ The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that you⁺ would gain time, because you⁺ see the thing has gone from me. ⁹ But if you⁺ don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you⁺; for you⁺ have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time is changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you⁺ can show me its interpretation. ¹⁰ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man on the earth that can show the king's matter, since no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any sacred scholar, or psychic, or Chaldean. ¹¹ And it is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other that can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. ¹² For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³ So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his colleagues to be slain.

^b psychics in the book of Daniel is used in the general sense of one who interprets signs, communicates with spirits, and other does other rituals to determine one's fate.

¹⁴ Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon; ¹⁵ he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶ And Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

¹⁷ Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his colleagues: ¹⁸ that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his colleagues should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹ Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. ²⁰ Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. ²¹ And he changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; ²² he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. ²³ I thank you, and praise you, O you God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter. ²⁴ Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him: Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation.

²⁵ Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in a hurry, and said thus to him, I have found a [prominent] man of the sons of the captivity of Judah, that will make known to the king the interpretation. ²⁶ The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation? ²⁷ Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded can neither wise men, psychics, sacred scholars, nor astrologers, show to the king; ²⁸ but there is a God in heaven that reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: ²⁹ as for you, O king, your thoughts came [into your mind] on your bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what will come to pass. ³⁰ But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

³¹ You, O king, looked, and saw a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its aspect was terrible. ³² As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, ³³ its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. ³⁴ You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. ³⁵ Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, were broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

³⁶ This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. ³⁷ You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; ³⁸ and wherever the sons of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens he has given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. ³⁹ And after you will arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of bronze, which will bear rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰ And the fourth kingdom will be strong as iron, since iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, it will break in pieces and crush. ⁴¹ And whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but there will be in it of the strength of the iron, since you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴² And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong, and partly broken. ⁴³ And whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they will mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they will not stick one to another, even as iron does not mingle with clay. ⁴⁴ And in the days of those kings will the God of heaven set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be left to another people; but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. ⁴⁵ Since you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what will come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure.

⁴⁶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odors to him. ⁴⁷ The king answered to Daniel, and said, Of a truth your⁺ God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret. ⁴⁸ Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ And Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and its width six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ² Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³ Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴ Then the herald cried aloud, To you⁺ it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵ that at what time you⁺ hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you⁺ fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; ⁶ and whoever does not fall down and worship will the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ⁷ Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁸ Therefore at that time [prominent] men, Chaldeans, came near and brought accusation against the Jews. ⁹ They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live forever. ¹⁰ You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who will hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psalter, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, will fall down and worship the golden image; ¹¹ and whoever does not fall down and worship, will be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ¹² There are Jewish [prominent] men whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these [prominent] men, O king, have not regarded you: they don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

¹³ Then Nebuchadnezzar in [his] rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these [prominent] men before the king. ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar answered and said to them, Is it on purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that you⁺ don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵ Now if you⁺ are ready that at what time you⁺ hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psalter, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you⁺ fall down and worship the image which I have made, [well]: but if you⁺ don't worship, you⁺ will be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god who will deliver you⁺ out of my hands? ¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷ If it is [so], our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸ But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

¹⁹ Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: [therefore] he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰ And he commanded mighty [prominent] men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [and] to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹ Then these [prominent] men were bound in their hosen, their tunics, and their mantles, and their [other] garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²² Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire slew those [prominent] men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. ²³ And these three [prominent] men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in a hurry: he spoke and said to his counselors, Didn't we cast three [prominent] men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said to the king, True, O king. ²⁵ He answered and said, Look, I see four [prominent] men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods. ²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the opening of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, you⁺ slaves of the Most High God, come forth, and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came forth out of the midst of the fire. ²⁷ And the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these [prominent] men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their hosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his slaves who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, will be cut in pieces, and their houses will be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that is able to deliver after this sort. ³⁰ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you⁺. ² It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has wrought toward me. ³ How great are his signs! And how mighty are his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵ I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶ Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷ Then the sacred scholars, the psychics, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers came in; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. ⁸ But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, [saying,] ⁹ O Belteshazzar, master of the sacred scholars, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. ¹⁰ Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I looked, and saw a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great. ¹¹ The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to heaven, and its sight to the end of all the earth. ¹² Its leaves were fair, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. ¹³ I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and, look, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven. ¹⁴ He cried aloud, and said thus, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. ¹⁵ Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: ¹⁶ let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. ¹⁷ The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men. ¹⁸ This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

¹⁹ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for awhile, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries. ²⁰ The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to heaven, and its sight to all the earth; ²¹ whose leaves were fair, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and on whose branches the birds of the heavens stayed: ²² it is you, O king, that have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown, and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the end of the earth. ²³ And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, until seven times pass over him; ²⁴ this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king: ²⁵ that you will be driven from men, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field, and you will be made to eat grass as oxen, and will be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times will pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. ²⁶ And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom will be sure to you, after that you will have known that the heavens do rule. ²⁷ Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility.

²⁸ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹ At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. ³⁰ The king spoke and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? ³¹ While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, [saying,] O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you: ³² and you will be driven from men; and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field; you will be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times will pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. ³³ The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until his hair was grown like eagles' [feathers], and his nails like birds' [claws].

³⁴ And at the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. ³⁵ And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can hold back his hand, or say to him, What are you doing? ³⁶ At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. ³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. ² Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. ³ Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. ⁴ They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone. ⁵ In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote across from the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. ⁶ Then the king's countenance was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees struck one against another. ⁷ The king cried aloud to bring in the psychics, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever will read this writing, and show me its interpretation, will be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and will be the third ruler in the kingdom. ⁸ Then all the king's wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. ⁹ Then King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

¹⁰ [Now] the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spoke and said, O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance be changed. ¹¹ There is a [prominent] man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar your father, the king, [I say], your father, made him master of the sacred scholars, psychics, Chaldeans, and astrologers; ¹² since an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

¹³ Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel, who is of the sons of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? ¹⁴ I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵ And now the wise men, the psychics, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. ¹⁶ But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you will be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and will be the third ruler in the kingdom.

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. ¹⁸ You, O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: ¹⁹ and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. ²⁰ But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: ²¹ and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the beasts', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will. ²² And you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, ²³ but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand is your breath, and are all your ways, you have not glorified. ²⁴ Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

²⁵ And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. ²⁶ This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; ²⁷ TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. ²⁸ PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

²⁹ Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean king was slain. ³¹ And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; ² and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king should have no damage. ³ Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

⁴ Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel as concerning the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, since he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. ⁵ Then these [prominent] men said, We will not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. ⁶ Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus to him, King Darius, live forever. ⁷ All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whoever will ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he will be cast into the den of lions. ⁸ Now, O king, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter. ⁹ Therefore King Darius signed the writing and the interdict.

¹⁰ And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem) and he knelt on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did previously. ¹¹ Then these [prominent] men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. ¹² Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's interdict: Have you not signed an interdict, that every man who will make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, will be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter. ¹³ Then they answered and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the sons of the captivity of Judah, does not regard you, O king, nor the interdict that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day. ¹⁴ Then the king, when he heard these words, was intensely displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. ¹⁵ Then these [prominent] men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.

¹⁶ Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. [Now] the king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you. ¹⁷ And a stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. ¹⁸ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him.

¹⁹ Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in a hurry to the den of lions. ²⁰ And when he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, slave of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions? ²¹ Then said Daniel to the king, O king, live forever. ²² My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; since before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, I have done no hurt. ²³ Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

²⁸ So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. ² Daniel spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, look, the four winds of heaven broke forth on the great sea. ³ And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. ⁴ The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I looked until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. ⁵ And, look, another beast, a second, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh. ⁶ After this I looked, and saw another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. ⁷ After this I saw in the night-visions, and, look, a fourth beast, terrible and powerful, and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. ⁸ I considered the horns, and, look, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, look, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

⁹ I looked until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat: his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, [and] its wheels burning fire. ¹⁰ A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousands of thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. ¹¹ I looked at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I looked even until the beast was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. ¹² And as for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

¹³ I saw in the night-visions, and, look, there came with the clouds of heaven one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. ¹⁴ And there was given to him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and his kingdom [is] that which will not be destroyed.

¹⁵ As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶ I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. ¹⁷ These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, that will arise out of the earth. ¹⁸ But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. ¹⁹ Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of bronze; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; ²⁰ and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other [horn] which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. ²¹ I looked, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; ²² until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

²³ Thus he said, The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be diverse from all the kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and will tread it down, and break it in pieces. ²⁴ And as for the ten horns, out of this kingdom will ten kings arise: and another will arise after them; and he will be diverse from the former, and he will put down three kings. ²⁵ And he will speak words against the Most High, and will wear out the saints of the Most High; and he will think to change the times and the law; and they will be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. ²⁶ But the judgment will be set, and they will take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. ²⁷ And the kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him. ²⁸ Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

8 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. ² And I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in Shushan the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. ³ Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. ⁴ I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

⁵ And as I was considering, look, a he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. ⁶ And he came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. ⁷ And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him; and there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand. ⁸ And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable [horns] toward the four winds of heaven.

⁹ And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceedingly great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious [land]. ¹⁰ And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. ¹¹ Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and it took away from him the continual [burnt-offering], and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ¹² And the host was given over [to it] together with the continual [burnt-offering] through transgression; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did [its pleasure] and prospered. ¹³ Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long will be the vision [concerning] the continual [burnt-offering], and the transgression that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? ¹⁴ And he said to me, To two thousand and three hundred evenings [and] mornings; then the sanctuary will be cleansed.

¹⁵ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and, look, there stood before me as the appearance of a [prominent] man. ¹⁶ And I heard man's voice between [the banks of] the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. ¹⁷ So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but he said to me, Understand, O Son of Man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end. ¹⁸ Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. ¹⁹ And he said, Look, I will make you know what will be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰ The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹ The he-goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. ²² And as for that which was broken, in the place of which four stood up, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. ²³ And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, will stand up. ²⁴ And his power will be mighty, but not by his own power; and he will destroy wonderfully, and will prosper and do [his pleasure]; and he will destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. ²⁵ And through his policy he will cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he will magnify himself in his heart, and in [their] security he will destroy many: he will also stand up against the prince of princes; but he will be broken without hand. ²⁶ And the vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but you shut up the vision; for it belongs to many days [to come]. ²⁷ And I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but none understood it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ² in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years of which the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years.

³ And I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. ⁴ And I prayed to Yahweh my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving-kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁵ we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances; ⁶ neither have we listened to your slaves the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷ O Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. ⁸ O Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. ⁹ To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; ¹⁰ neither have we obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his slaves the prophets. ¹¹ Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, even turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore the curse has been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the slave of God; for we have sinned against him. ¹² And he has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole heaven has not been done as has been done on Jerusalem. ¹³ As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come upon us: yet we have not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. ¹⁴ Therefore Yahweh has watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Yahweh our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice. ¹⁵ And now, O Lord our God, who have brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. ¹⁶ O Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and your wrath, I pray you, be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are round about us. ¹⁷ Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your slave, and to his supplications, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. ¹⁸ O my God, incline your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and look at our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our supplications before you for our righteousnesses, but for your great mercies' sake. ¹⁹ O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people are called by your name.

²⁰ And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God for the holy mountain of my God; ²¹ yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. ²² And he caused me to understand, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding. ²³ At the beginning of your supplications the word went forth, and I have come to tell; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the word, and understand the vision.

²⁴ Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. ²⁵ Therefore know and discern: from the going forth of the word to restore and to build Jerusalem, to an anointed leader, [there are] seven weeks. And sixty-two weeks it will be built again,^a with street and moat, even in troublous times. ²⁶ And after the sixty-two weeks an anointed one will be cut off, and will have nothing. And the people of a coming leader will destroy the city and the sanctuary. And its end will be with a flood, and even to the end will be war; desolations are determined. ²⁷ And he will make a firm covenant with many for one week. And in the midst of the week he will cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease; and on the wing of detestable things^b [will come] one who makes desolate even to the full end, and that which is determined will be poured out on the desolator.^c

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the word was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the word, and had understanding of the vision. ² In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. ³ I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. ⁴ And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, ⁵ I lifted up my eyes, and looked and saw a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with pure gold of Uphaz: ⁶ his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished bronze, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. ⁷ And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. ⁸ So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my grandeur was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. ⁹ Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

¹⁰ And, look, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. ¹¹ And he said to me, O Daniel, you man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for now I have been sent away to you. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. ¹² Then he said to me, Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I have come for your words' sake. ¹³ But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, look, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to make you understand what will befall your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for [many] days: ¹⁵ and when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. ¹⁶ And, look, one in the likeness of the sons of man touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength. ¹⁷ For how can the slave of this my lord talk with this my lord? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.

^a And sixty-two weeks it will be built again, this phrase expresses the idea that Jerusalem will remain built until the end of the sixty-two week period. It does not focus on when the building would be taking place. See page 26 in the citation from the footnote at the end of verse 27. See also the first paragraph of Albert Barnes' Notes on the Bible at this verse under the phrase, 'The street shall be built again'.

¹⁸ Then there touched me again one like the appearance of man, and he strengthened me. ¹⁹ And he said, O man greatly beloved, don't be afraid: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong. And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me. ²⁰ Then he said, Do you know why I have come to you? And now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I go forth, look, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹ But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none who holds with me against these, but Michael your^a prince. 11 And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

² And now I will show you the truth. Look, there will stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth will be far richer than all of them: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, he will stir up all against the realm of Greece. ³ And a mighty king will stand up, that will rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. ⁴ And when he will stand up, his kingdom will be broken, and will be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom will be plucked up, even for others besides these.

⁵ And the king of the south will be strong, and [one] of his princes; and he will be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion will be a great dominion. ⁶ And at the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she will not retain the strength of her arm; neither will he stand, nor his arm; but she will be given up, and those who brought her, and he who begot her, and he who strengthened her in those times.

¹⁰ And his sons will war, and will assemble a multitude of great forces, which will come upon, and overflow, and pass through; and they will return and war, even to his fortress. ¹¹ And the king of the south will be moved with anger, and will come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he will set forth a great multitude, and the multitude will be given into his hand. ¹² And the multitude will be lifted up, and his heart will be exalted; and he will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not prevail. ¹³ And the king of the north will return, and will set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he will come upon at the end of the times, [even of] years, with a great army and with much substance. ¹⁴ And in those times there will many stand up against the king of the south: also the sons of the violent among your people will lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they will fall. ¹⁵ So the king of the north will come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south will not stand, neither his chosen people, neither will there be any strength to stand. ¹⁶ But he who comes against him will do according to his own will, and none will stand before him; and he will stand in the glorious land, and in his hand will be destruction. ¹⁷ And he will set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he had equitable conditions, and performed them: and he will give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she will not stand, neither be for him. ¹⁸ After this he will turn his face to the isles, and will take many: but a prince will cause the reproach offered by him to cease; moreover, he will cause his reproach to turn on him. ¹⁹ Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he will stumble and fall, and will not be found.

²⁰ Then in his place one will stand up that will cause an exactor to pass through the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he will be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. ²¹ And in his place will stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the grandeur of the kingdom: but he will come in time of security, and will obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²² And the flooding forces will be flooded away from before him, and will be broken; and also the leader of the covenant. ²³ And after the league made with him he will work deceitfully; for he will come up, and will become strong, with a small people. ²⁴ In time of security he will come even on the fattest places of the province; and he will do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he will scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yes, he will devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. ²⁵ And he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south will war in battle with an exceedingly great and mighty army; but he will not stand; for they will devise devices against him. ²⁶ Yes, those who eat of his dainties will destroy him, and his army will flood; and many will fall down slain. ²⁷ And as for both these kings, their hearts will be to do mischief, and they will speak lies at one table: but it will not prosper; for yet the end will be at the time appointed.

²⁸ Then he will return into his land with great substance; and his heart [will be] against the holy covenant; and he will do [his pleasure], and return to his own land. ²⁹ At the time appointed he will return, and come into the south; but it will not be in the latter time as it was in the former. ³⁰ For ships of Kittim will come against him; therefore he will be grieved, and will return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and will do [his pleasure]: he will even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. ³¹ And forces will stand on his part, and they will profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and will take away the continual [burnt-offering], and they will set up the detestable thing^a that makes desolate. ³² And such as do wickedly against the covenant he will pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God will be strong, and do [exploits]. ³³ And those who are wise among the people will instruct many; yet they will fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, [many] days. ³⁴ Now when they will fall, they will be helped with a little help; but many will join themselves to them with flatteries. ³⁵ And some of those who are wise will fall, to refine among them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

³⁶ And the king will do according to his will; and he will exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and will speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and he will prosper until the indignation is accomplished; for that which is determined will be done. ³⁷ Neither will he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he will magnify himself above all. ³⁸ But in his place he will honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers did not know he will honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. ³⁹ And he will deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges [him] he will increase with glory; and he will cause them to rule over many, and will divide the land for a price.

⁴⁰ And at the time of the end the king of the south will contend with him; and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he will enter into the countries, and will flood and pass through. ⁴¹ He will enter also into the glorious land, and tens of thousands will be overthrown; but these will be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. ⁴² He will stretch forth his hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt will not escape. ⁴³ But he will have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians will be at his steps. ⁴⁴ But news out of the east and out of the north will trouble him; and he will go forth with great fury to destroy and to completely sweep away many. ⁴⁵ And he will plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he will come to his end, and none will help him.

12 And at that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who stands for the sons of your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people will be delivered, everyone who will be found written in the book. ² And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³ And those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. ⁴ But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many will run to and fro, and the knowledge will be increased.

⁵ Then I, Daniel, looked, and noticed that there stood another two, the one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. ⁶ And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long will it be to the end of these wonders? ⁷ And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it will be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things will be finished. ⁸ And I heard, but I didn't understand: then I said, O my lord, what will be the issue of these things? ⁹ And he said, Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰ Many will purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked will do wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand; but those who are wise will understand. ¹¹ And from the time that the continual [burnt-offering] will be taken away, and the detestable thing^a that makes desolate [is] set up, there will be a thousand and two hundred and ninety days. ¹² Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. ¹³ But you go your way until the end; for you will rest, and will stand in your lot, at the end of the days.

Hosea

1 The word of Yahweh that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

² When Yahweh spoke at the first by Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea, Go, take to yourself a wife of prostitution and children of prostitution; for the land commits great prostitution, [departing] from Yahweh. ³ So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she became pregnant, and bore him a son. ⁴ And Yahweh said to him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. ⁵ And it will come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. ⁶ And she became pregnant again, and gave birth to a daughter. And [Yahweh] said to him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah; for I will no more have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them. ⁷ But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Yahweh their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. ⁸ Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she became pregnant, and gave birth to a son. ⁹ And [Yahweh] said, Call his name Lo-ammi; for you⁺ are not my people, and I will not be your⁺ [God].

¹⁰ Yet the number of the sons of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, You⁺ are not my people, it will be said to them, [You⁺ are] the sons of the living God. ¹¹ And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel. 2 Say⁺ to your⁺ brothers, Ammi; and to your⁺ sisters, Ruhamah.

² Contend with your⁺ mother, contend; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her prostitution from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; ³ or else I will strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. ⁴ Yes, on her sons I will have no mercy; for they are sons of prostitution; ⁵ for their mother has prostituted; she who became pregnant with them has done shamefully; for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink. ⁶ Therefore, look, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she will not find her paths. ⁷ And she will follow after her lovers, but she will not overtake them; and she will seek them, but will not find them: then will she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then it was better with me than now.

⁸ For she did not know that I gave her the grain, and the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal. ⁹ Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. ¹⁰ And now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none will deliver her out of my hand. ¹¹ I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feasts, her new moons, and her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies. ¹² And I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, These are my wages that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field will eat them. ¹³ And I will visit on her the days of the Baalim, to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, says Yahweh.

¹⁴ Therefore, look, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably to her. ¹⁵ And I will give her her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she will answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁶ And it will be at that day, says Yahweh, that you will call: Ishi; and will call me no more: Baali. ¹⁷ For I will take away the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, and they will no more be mentioned by their name. ¹⁸ And in that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make them to lie down safely. ¹⁹ And I will betroth you to me forever; yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, and in justice, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies. ²⁰ I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness; and you will know Yahweh.

²¹ And it will come to pass in that day, I will answer, says Yahweh, I will answer the heavens, and they will answer the earth; ²² and the earth will answer the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will answer Jezreel. ²³ And I will sow her to me in the earth; and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy; and I will say to those who were not my people, You are my people; and they will say, [You are] my God.

3 And Yahweh said to me, Go again, love a woman loved by a companion, but [is] an adulteress, even as Yahweh loves the sons of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins. ² So I bought her to me for fifteen [shekels] of silver, and a homer of barley, and a half-homer of barley; ³ and I said to her, You will remain with me many days; you will not prostitute; and you will not have any sex with any man—not even me. ⁴ For the sons of Israel will remain many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without pillar, and without ephod or talismans: ⁵ afterward the sons of Israel will return, and seek Yahweh their God, and David their king, and will come with fear to Yahweh and to his goodness in the latter days.

4 Hear the word of Yahweh, you⁺ sons of Israel; for Yahweh has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land. ² Swearing, lying, killing, stealing, and committing adultery are rampant; and blood is everywhere.^a ³ Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells in it will languish, with the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens; yes, the fish of the sea also will be taken away. ⁴ Yet let no man strive, neither let any man reprove; for your people are as those who strive with the priest. ⁵ And you will stumble in the day, and the prophet also will stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother.

⁶ My people are destroyed for lack of the knowledge^b [of God]: because you have rejected the knowledge [of God], I will also reject you, that you will be no priest to me: seeing you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your sons. ⁷ As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will change their glory into shame. ⁸ They feed on the sin of my people, and set their soul on their iniquity. ⁹ And it will be, like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them their doings. ¹⁰ And they will eat, and not have enough; they will cause prostitution, and will not increase; because they have left off taking heed to Yahweh.

¹¹ Prostitution and wine and new wine take away the understanding. ¹² My people ask counsel at their stock, and their staff declares to them; for the spirit of prostitution has caused them to err, and they have prostituted, [departing] from under their God. ¹³ They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because their shadow is good: therefore your⁺ daughters commit prostitution, and your⁺ brides commit adultery. ¹⁴ I will not punish your⁺ daughters when they commit prostitution, nor your⁺ brides when they commit adultery; for [the men] themselves go apart with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with prostitutes; and the people that does not understand will be overthrown.

¹⁵ Though you, Israel, are prostituting, yet don't let Judah offend; and don't come⁺ to Gilgal, neither go⁺ up to Beth-aven, nor swear, As Yahweh lives. ¹⁶ For Israel has behaved himself stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer: now Yahweh will feed them as a lamb in a large place. ¹⁷ Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone. ¹⁸ Their drink has become sour; they prostitute continually; her rulers dearly love shame. ¹⁹ The wind has wrapped her up in its wings; and they will be put to shame because of their altars.

5 Hear this, O you⁺ priests, and listen, O house of Israel, and give ear, O house of the king; for to you⁺ pertains the judgment; for you⁺ have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread on Tabor. ² And the revolvers have gone deep in making slaughter; but I am a rebuker of them all. ³ I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me; for now, O Ephraim, you have prostituted, Israel is defiled. ⁴ Their doings will not allow them to turn to their God; for the spirit of prostitution is inside them, and they don't know Yahweh. ⁵ And the pride of Israel testifies to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity; Judah also will stumble with them. ⁶ They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Yahweh; but they will not find him: he has withdrawn himself from them. ⁷ They have betrayed Yahweh; for they have borne strange sons: now will the new moon devour them with their fields.

⁸ Blow⁺ the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: sound an alarm at Beth-aven; behind you, O Benjamin. ⁹ Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel I have made known that which will surely be. ¹⁰ The princes of Judah are like those who remove the landmark: I will pour out my wrath on them like water. ¹¹ Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was determined to walk after crap. ¹² Therefore I am to Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. ¹³ When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah [saw] his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king: but he is not able to heal you⁺, neither will he cure you⁺ of your⁺ wound. ¹⁴ For I will be to Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there will be none to deliver. ¹⁵ I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me earnestly.

6 Come, and let us return to Yahweh; for he has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck, and he will bind us up. ² After two days he will revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we will live before him. ³ And let us know, let us follow on to know Yahweh: his going forth is sure as the morning; and he will come to us as the rain, as the latter rain that waters the earth.

⁴ O Ephraim, what shall I do to you? O Judah, what shall I do to you? For your⁺ goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the dew that goes early away. ⁵ Therefore I have hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and my judgment goes forth as the light. ⁶ For I desire goodness, and not sacrifice; and knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings. ⁷ But they like man have transgressed the covenant: there they have betrayed me. ⁸ Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity; it is stained with blood. ⁹ And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem; yes, they have committed lewdness. ¹⁰ In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing: there prostitution is [found] in Ephraim, Israel is defiled. ¹¹ Also, O Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, when I bring back the captivity of my people.

^b the knowledge. The definite article, 'the' makes this a specific type of knowledge, mostly likely referring back to the knowledge mentioned in verse 1. See K&D.

7 When I would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the troop of robbers ravages outside. ² And they don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face. ³ They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. ⁴ They are all adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceases to stir [the fire], from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened. ⁵ On the day of our king the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with scoffers. ⁶ For they have brought their heart into their ambush, as into an oven: their baker sleeps all the night; in the morning it burns as a flaming fire. ⁷ They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges; all their kings have fallen: there is none among them who calls to me.

⁸ Ephraim, he mixes himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. ⁹ Strangers have devoured his strength, and he does not know [it]: yes, gray hairs are here and there on him, and he does not know [it]. ¹⁰ And the pride of Israel testifies to his face: yet they have not returned to Yahweh their God, nor sought him, for all this. ¹¹ And Ephraim is like a silly dove, without understanding: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. ¹² When they will go, I will spread my net on them; I will bring them down as the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard. ¹³ Woe to them! For they have wandered from me; destruction to them! For they have trespassed against me: though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. ¹⁴ And they have not cried to me with their heart, but they howl on their beds: they gash themselves for grain and new wine; they rebel against me. ¹⁵ Though I have taught and strengthened their arms, yet they devise mischief against me. ¹⁶ They return, but not upwards; they are like a deceitful bow; their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 [Set] the trumpet to your mouth. As an eagle [he comes] against the house of Yahweh, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. ² They will cry to me, My God, we Israel know you. ³ Israel has cast off that which is good: the enemy will pursue him. ⁴ They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I did not know it: of their silver and their gold they have made for themselves idols, that they may be cut off. ⁵ He has cast off your calf, O Samaria; my anger is kindled against them: how long will it be before they attain to innocence? ⁶ For from Israel is even this; the workman made it, and it is not God; yes, the calf of Samaria will be broken in pieces. ⁷ For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind: he has no standing grain; the blade will yield no meal; if it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.

⁸ Israel is swallowed up: now they are among the nations as a vessel in which none delights. ⁹ For they have gone up to Assyria, [like] a wild donkey alone by himself: Ephraim has hired lovers. ¹⁰ Yes, though they hire among the nations, now I will gather them; and they begin to be diminished by reason of the burden of the king of princes.

¹¹ Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, altars have been to him for sinning. ¹² I wrote for him the ten thousand things of my law; but they are counted as a strange thing. ¹³ As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but Yahweh does not accept them: now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins; they will return to Egypt. ¹⁴ For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities: but I will send a fire on their cities, and it will devour their castles.

9 Don't rejoice, O Israel, for joy, like the peoples; for you have prostituted [away] from your God; you have loved wages on every grain-floor. ² The threshing-floor and the wine press will not feed them, and the new wine will fail her. ³ They will not dwell in Yahweh's land; but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria. ⁴ They will not pour out wine-offerings to Yahweh, neither will they be pleasing to him: their sacrifices will be to them as the bread of mourners; all who eat of it will be polluted; for their bread will be for their soul; it will not come into the house of Yahweh. ⁵ What will you⁺ do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of Yahweh? ⁶ For, look, they have gone away from destruction; [yet] Egypt will gather them up, Memphis will bury them; their pleasant things of silver, nettles will possess them; thorns will be in their tents. ⁷ The days of visitation have come, the days of recompense have come; Israel will know it: the prophet is a fool, the man who has the spirit is insane, for the abundance of your iniquity, and because the enmity is great. ⁸ Ephraim [was] a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a fowler's snare is in all his ways, [and] enmity in the house of his God. ⁹ They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

¹⁰ I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your⁺ fathers as the first-ripe in the fig tree at its first season: but they came to Baal-peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became detestable things like that which they loved.

¹¹ As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird: there will be no birth, and no pregnancy, and no conception. ¹² Though they bring up their sons, yet I will bereave them, so that man will not be left: yes, woe also to them when I depart from them! ¹³ I saw Ephraim as a grove of palm trees planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim will bring out his sons to the slayer. ¹⁴ Give them, O Yahweh—what will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. ¹⁵ All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them: because of the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are revolvers. ¹⁶ Ephraim is struck, their root is dried up, they will bear no fruit: yes, though they bring forth, yet I will slay the beloved fruit of their womb. ¹⁷ My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him; and they will be wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant vine, that puts forth his fruit: according to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars; according to the goodness of their land they have made goodly pillars. ² Their heart is divided; now they will be found guilty: he will strike their altars, he will destroy their pillars. ³ Surely now they will say, We have no king; for we don't fear Yahweh; and the king, what can he do for us?

⁴ They speak [vain] words, swearing falsely in making covenants: therefore judgment springs up as hemlock in the furrows of the field. ⁵ The neighbor of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth-aven; for its people will mourn over it, and its priests who rejoiced over it, for its glory, because it has departed from it. ⁶ It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to the great king: Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel. ⁷ Samaria is cut off, her king as a twig on the water. ⁸ The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars; and they will say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

⁹ O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood; the battle against the sons of iniquity does not overtake them in Gibeah. ¹⁰ When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the peoples will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two furrows. ¹¹ And Ephraim is a heifer that is taught, that loves to tread out [the grain]; but I have passed by her fair neck: I will set a rider on Ephraim; Judah will plow, Jacob will break his clods.

¹² Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness; break up your⁺ fallow ground; for it is time to seek Yahweh, until he comes and rains righteousness on you⁺. ¹³ You⁺ have plowed wickedness, you⁺ have reaped iniquity; you⁺ have eaten the fruit of lies; for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. ¹⁴ Therefore will a tumult arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces with her sons. ¹⁵ So Beth-el will do to you⁺ because of your⁺ great wickedness: at daybreak the king of Israel will be completely cut off.

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt. ² The more [the prophets] called them, the more they went from them: they sacrificed to the Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. ³ Yet I taught Ephraim to walk; He took them up in his arms; but they did not know that I healed them. ⁴ I drew them with cords of man, with bands of love; and I was to them as those who lift up the yoke from their jaws; and I laid food before them.

⁵ They will not return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian will be their king, because they refused to return [to me]. ⁶ And the sword will fall on their cities, and will consume their bars, and devour [them], because of their own counsels. ⁷ And my people are bent on backsliding from me: though they call them to [him who is] on high, none at all will exalt [him].

⁸ How shall I give you up, Ephraim? [How] shall I cast you off, Israel? How shall I make you as Admah? [How] shall I set you as Zeboiim? My heart is turned inside me, my compassions are kindled together. ⁹ I will not execute the fierceness of my anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of you; and I will not come in wrath. ¹⁰ They will walk after Yahweh, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the sons will come trembling from the west. ¹¹ They will come trembling as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria; and I will make them to dwell in their houses, says Yahweh.

¹² Ephraim circles me about with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; and even Judah went down from God and the faithful Holy One. 12 Ephraim feeds on wind, and follows after the east wind: he continually multiplies lies and violence; and they make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt. ² Yahweh also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings he will recompense him. ³ In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his manhood he had power with God: ⁴ yes, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and made supplication to him: he found him at Beth-el, and there he spoke with us, ⁵ even Yahweh, the God of hosts; Yahweh is his memorial [name]. ⁶ Therefore you will turn to your God: keep kindness and justice, and wait for your God continually.

⁷ [He is] a trafficker, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loves to oppress. ⁸ And Ephraim said, Surely I have become rich, I have found wealth for myself: in all my labors they will find in me no iniquity which [would be] sin. ⁹ But I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt; I will yet again make you to dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. ¹⁰ I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the hand of the prophets I have used similitudes. ¹¹ Is Gilead iniquity? They are altogether false; in Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yes, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the field. ¹² And Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept [sheep]. ¹³ And by a prophet Yahweh brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved. ¹⁴ Ephraim has provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore his blood will be left on him, and his reproach his Lord will return to him.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling; he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. ² And now they sin more and more, and have made for themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let man who sacrifices kiss the calves. ³ Therefore they will be as the morning cloud, and as the dew that passes early away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

⁴ Yet I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt; and you will know no god but me, and besides me there is no savior. ⁵ I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. ⁶ According to their pasture, so they were filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore they have forgotten me. ⁷ Therefore I am to them as a lion; as a leopard I will watch by the way; ⁸ I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart; and there I will devour them like a lioness; the wild beast will tear them.

⁹ It is your destruction, O Israel, that [you are] against me, against your help. ¹⁰ Where now is your king, that he may save you in all your cities? And your judges, of whom you said, Give me a king and princes? ¹¹ I have given you a king in my anger, and have taken him away in my wrath. ¹² The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is laid up in store. ¹³ The sorrows of a travelling woman will come upon him: he is an unwise son; for it is time he should not tarry in the place of the breaking forth of sons. ¹⁴ I will ransom them from the power of Sheol; I will redeem them from death: O Death, I will be your plague. O Sheol, I will be your destruction. Repentance will be hid from my eyes.

¹⁵ Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come, the breath of Yahweh coming up from the wilderness; and his spring will become dry, and his fountain will be dried up: he will make spoil of the treasure of all goodly vessels. ¹⁶ Samaria will bear her guilt; for she has rebelled against her God: they will fall by the sword; their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped up.

14 O Israel, return to Yahweh your God; for you have fallen by your iniquity. ² Take with you⁺ words, and return to Yahweh: say to him, Take away all iniquity, and accept that which is good: so we will render [as] bullocks [the offering of] our lips. ³ Assyria will not save us; we will not ride on horses; neither will we say anymore to the work of our hands, [You⁺ are] our gods; for in you the fatherless finds mercy.

⁴ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely; for my anger is turned away from him. ⁵ I will be as the dew to Israel; he will blossom as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon. ⁶ His branches will spread, and his grandeur will be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon. ⁷ Those who dwell under his shadow will return; they will revive the grain, and blossom as the vine: his scent will be as the wine of Lebanon. ⁸ Ephraim [will say], What have I to do anymore with idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a green fir-tree; from me is your fruit found.

⁹ Who is wise, that he may understand these things? Prudent, that he may know them? For the ways of Yahweh are right, and the just will walk in them; but transgressors will fall in them.

Joel

1 The word of Yahweh that came to Joel the son of Pethuel. ² Hear this, you⁺ old men, and give ear, all you⁺ inhabitants of the land. Has this been in your⁺ days, or in the days of your⁺ fathers? ³ Tell⁺ your⁺ sons of it, and [let] your⁺ sons [tell] their sons, and their sons another generation. ⁴ That which the palmer-worm has left has the locust eaten; and that which the locust has left has the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm has left has the caterpillar eaten.

⁵ Awake, you⁺ drunkards, and weep; and wail, all you⁺ drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your⁺ mouth. ⁶ For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the jaw-teeth of a lioness. ⁷ He has laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he has made it clean bare, and cast it away; its branches are made white.

¹³ Gird yourselves [with sackcloth], and lament, you⁺ priests; wail, you⁺ ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, you⁺ ministers of my God: for the meal-offering and the drink-offering are withheld from the house of your⁺ God. ¹⁴ Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the old men [and] all the inhabitants of the land to the house of Yahweh your⁺ God, and cry to Yahweh.

¹⁵ Alas for the day! For the day of Yahweh is at hand, and as destruction from the Almighty it will come. ¹⁶ Is not the food cut off before our eyes, [yes,] joy and gladness from the house of our God? ¹⁷ The seeds rot under their clods; the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the grain is withered. ¹⁸ How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. ¹⁹ O Yahweh, to you I will cry; for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. ²⁰ Yes, the beasts of the field pant to you; for the water brooks are dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow⁺ the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of Yahweh comes, for it is near at hand; ² a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread on the mountains; a great and a strong people; there has not ever been the like, neither will [there] be anymore after them, even to the years of many generations. ³ A fire devours before them; and behind them a flame burns: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yes, and none has escaped them.

⁴ The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so they run. ⁵ Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. ⁶ At their presence the peoples are in anguish; all faces are waxed pale. ⁷ They run like mighty men; they climb the wall like men of war; and they march every one on his ways, and they do not proceed in a confused manner on their way. ⁸ Neither does one thrust another; they march every [able-bodied] man in his path; and they burst through the weapons, and don't break off [their course]. ⁹ They leap on the city; they run on the wall; they climb up into the houses; they enter in at the windows like a thief. ¹⁰ The earth quakes before them; the heavens tremble; the sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. ¹¹ And Yahweh utters his voice before his army; for his camp is very great; for he is strong that executes his word; for the day of Yahweh is great and very awesome; and who can endure it?

¹² Yet even now, says Yahweh, turn⁺ to me with all your⁺ heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: ¹³ and rend your⁺ heart, and not your⁺ garments, and turn to Yahweh your⁺ God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and repents of the evil. ¹⁴ Who knows whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal-offering and a drink-offering to Yahweh your⁺ God?

¹⁸ Then Yahweh was jealous for his land, and had pity on his people. ¹⁹ And Yahweh answered and said to his people, Look, I will send you⁺ grain, and new wine, and oil, and you⁺ will be satisfied with them; and I will no more make you⁺ a reproach among the nations; ²⁰ but I will remove far off from you⁺ the northern [army], and will drive it into a land barren and desolate, its forefront into the eastern sea, and its hinder part into the western sea; and its stench will come up, and its ill savor will come up, because it has done great things.

²¹ Don't be afraid, O land, be glad and rejoice; for Yahweh has done great things. ²² Don't be afraid, you⁺ beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and the vine yield their strength. ²³ Be glad then, you⁺ sons of Zion, and rejoice in Yahweh your⁺ God; for he gives you⁺ the former rain in just measure, and he causes to come down for you⁺ the rain, the former rain and the latter rain, in the first [month]. ²⁴ And the floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil. ²⁵ And I will restore to you⁺ the years that the locust has eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you²⁶. And you²⁶ will eat in plenty and be satisfied, and will praise the name of Yahweh your²⁶ God, who has dealt wondrously with you²⁶; and my people will never be put to shame. ²⁷ And you²⁷ will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Yahweh your²⁷ God, and there is no other; and my people will never be put to shame.

²⁸ And it will come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; and your²⁸ sons and your²⁸ daughters will prophesy, your²⁸ old men will dream dreams, your²⁸ young men will see visions: ²⁹ and also on the male slaves and on the female slaves in those days I will pour out my Spirit. ³⁰ And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. ³¹ The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and awesome day of Yahweh comes. ³² And it will come to pass, that whoever will call on the name of Yahweh will be delivered; for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Yahweh has said, and among the remnant those whom Yahweh calls.

3 For, look, in those days, and in that time, when I will bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, ² I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment on them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations: and they have parted my land, ³ and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. ⁴ Yes, and what are you⁴ to me, O Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Will you⁴ render me a recompense? And if you⁴ recompense me, swiftly and speedily I will return your⁴ recompense on your⁴ own head. ⁵ Since you⁵ have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your⁵ temples my goodly precious things, ⁶ and have sold the sons of Judah and the sons of Jerusalem to the sons of the Grecians, that you⁶ may remove them far from their border; ⁷ look, I will stir them up out of the place where you⁷ have sold them, and will return your⁷ recompense on your⁷ own head; ⁸ and I will sell your⁸ sons and your⁸ daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba, to a nation far off: for Yahweh has spoken it.

¹⁴ Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of Yahweh is near in the valley of decision. ¹⁵ The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. ¹⁶ And Yahweh will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth will shake: but Yahweh will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the sons of Israel. ¹⁷ So you¹⁷ will know that I am Yahweh your¹⁷ God, staying in Zion my holy mountain: then Jerusalem will be holy, and there will no strangers pass through her anymore.

¹⁸ And it will come to pass in that day, that the mountains will drop down sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk, and all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters; and a fountain will come forth from the house of Yahweh, and will water the valley of Shittim. ¹⁹ Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the sons of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. ²⁰ But Judah will remain forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. ²¹ And I will make their blood innocent, that I have not made innocent: for Yahweh stays in Zion.

Amos

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

² And he said, Yahweh will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither.

³ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: ⁴ but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. ⁵ And I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria will go into captivity to Kir, says Yahweh.

⁶ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they carried away captive the whole people, to deliver them up to Edom: ⁷ but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces. ⁸ And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

⁹ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they delivered up the whole people to Edom, and did not remember the brotherly covenant: ¹⁰ but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it will devour its palaces.

¹¹ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword, and had cast off all pity, and his anger tore perpetually, and he kept his wrath forever: ¹² but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah.

¹³ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of the sons of Ammon, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have ripped up the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border. ¹⁴ But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind; ¹⁵ and their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together, says Yahweh.

2 Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime: ² but I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet; ³ and I will cut off the judge from the midst of it, and will slay all its princes with him, says Yahweh.

⁴ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have rejected the law of Yahweh, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have caused them to err, after which their fathers walked: ⁵ but I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

⁶ Thus says Yahweh: For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals—⁷ those who pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father go to the [same] maiden, to profane my holy name: ⁸ and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of such as have been fined.

⁹ Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. ¹⁰ Also I brought you⁺ up out of the land of Egypt, and led you⁺ forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. ¹¹ And I raised up of your⁺ sons for prophets, and of your⁺ young men for Nazirites. Is it not even thus, O you⁺ sons of Israel? says Yahweh. ¹² But you⁺ gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, Don't prophesy.

¹³ Look, I will press [you⁺] in your⁺ place, as a cart presses that is full of sheaves. ¹⁴ And flight will perish from the swift; and the strong will not strengthen his force; neither will the mighty deliver his soul; ¹⁵ neither will he stand that handles the bow; and he who is swift of foot will not deliver [his soul]; neither will he who rides the horse deliver his soul; ¹⁶ and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked in that day, says Yahweh.

3 Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you⁺, O sons of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying, ² You⁺ only I have known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will visit all your⁺ iniquities on you⁺. ³ Will two walk together, except they have agreed? ⁴ Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he has taken nothing? ⁵ Can a bird fall in a snare on the earth, where no trap is [set] for him? Will a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken nothing at all? ⁶ Will the trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? Will evil befall a city, and Yahweh has not done it? ⁷ Surely the Sovereign Yahweh will do nothing, except he reveals his secret to his slaves the prophets. ⁸ The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Sovereign Yahweh has spoken; who can but prophesy?

⁹ Publish⁺ in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and look at what great tumults are in it, and what oppressions are in the midst of it. ¹⁰ For they don't know to do right, says Yahweh, who stores up violence and robbery in their palaces. ¹¹ Therefore thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: An adversary [there will be], even round about the land; and he will bring down your strength from you, and your palaces will be plundered. ¹² Thus says Yahweh: As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so will the sons of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed.

¹³ Hear⁺, and testify against the house of Jacob, says the Sovereign Yahweh, the God of hosts. ¹⁴ For in the day that I will visit the transgressions of Israel on him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground. ¹⁵ And I will strike the winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end, says Yahweh.

4 Hear this word, you⁺ kine of Bashan, who are in the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their lords, Bring, and let us drink. ² The Sovereign Yahweh has sworn by his holiness, that, look, the days will come upon you⁺, that they will take you⁺ away with hooks, and your⁺ residue with fishhooks. ³ And you⁺ will go out at the breaches, everyone straight before her; and you⁺ will be cast toward Harmon, says Yahweh.

⁴ Come to Beth-el, and transgress; to Gilgal, [and] multiply transgression; and bring your⁺ sacrifices every morning, [and] your⁺ tithes every three days; ⁵ and offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill-offerings and publish them: for this pleases you⁺, O you⁺ sons of Israel, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

⁶ And I also have given you⁺ cleanness of teeth in all your⁺ cities, and want of bread in all your⁺ places; yet you⁺ have not returned to me, says Yahweh. ⁷ And I also have withheld the rain from you⁺, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city: one piece was rained on, and the piece on which it did not rain withered. ⁸ So two or three cities wandered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet you⁺ have not returned to me, says Yahweh. ⁹ I have struck you⁺ with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your⁺ gardens and your⁺ vineyards and your⁺ fig trees and your⁺ olive trees has the palmer-worm devoured: yet you⁺ have not returned to me, says Yahweh. ¹⁰ I have sent among you⁺ the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your⁺ young men I have slain with the sword, and have carried away your⁺ horses; and I have made the stench of your⁺ camp to come up even into your⁺ nostrils: yet you⁺ have not returned to me, says Yahweh. ¹¹ I have overthrown [cities] among you⁺, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you⁺ were as a brand plucked out of the burning: yet you⁺ have not returned to me, says Yahweh.

¹² Therefore thus I will do to you, O Israel; [and] because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel. ¹³ For, look, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares what his thought is to man; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the Earth—Yahweh, the God of hosts, is his name.

5 Hear⁺ this word which I take up for a lamentation over you⁺, O house of Israel. ² The virgin of Israel is fallen; she will no more rise: she is cast down on her land; there is none to raise her up. ³ For thus says the Sovereign Yahweh: The city that went forth a thousand will have a hundred left, and that which went forth a hundred will have ten left, to the house of Israel.

⁴ For thus says Yahweh to the house of Israel, Seek⁺ me, and you⁺ will live; ⁵ but don't seek Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and don't pass to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Beth-el will come to nothing. ⁶ Seek Yahweh, and you⁺ will live; or else he will break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it will devour, and there will be none to quench it in Beth-el. ⁷ You⁺ who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth, ⁸ [seek him] that makes the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night; that calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth (Yahweh is his name); ⁹ that brings sudden destruction on the strong, so that destruction comes on the fortress.

¹⁰ They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they are disgusted by him who speaks uprightly. ¹¹ Forasmuch therefore as you⁺ trample on the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: you⁺ have built houses of cut stone, but you⁺ will not dwell in them; you⁺ have planted pleasant vineyards, but you⁺ will not drink their wine. ¹² For I know how manifold are your⁺ transgressions, and how mighty are your⁺ sins—you⁺ who afflict the just, who take a bribe, and who turn aside the needy in the gate [from their right]. ¹³ Therefore he who is prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time.

¹⁴ Seek good, and not evil, that you⁺ may live; and so Yahweh, the God of hosts, will be with you⁺, as you⁺ say. ¹⁵ Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish justice in the gate: it may be that Yahweh, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

¹⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh, the God of hosts, the Lord: Wailing will be in all the broad ways; and they will say in all the streets, Alas! Alas! And they will call the husbandman to mourning, and a wailing for such as are skillful in lamentation. ¹⁷ And in all vineyards will be wailing; for I will pass through the midst of you, says Yahweh.

¹⁸ Woe to you⁺ who desire the day of Yahweh! Why would you⁺ have the day of Yahweh? It is darkness, and not light. ¹⁹ As if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. ²⁰ Will not the day of Yahweh be darkness, and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

²¹ I hate, I despise your⁺ feasts, and I will take no delight in your⁺ solemn assemblies. ²² Yes, though you⁺ offer me your⁺ burnt-offerings and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your⁺ fat beasts. ²³ Take away from me the noise of your songs; for I will not hear the melody of your viols. ²⁴ But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

²⁵ Did you⁺ bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? ²⁶ Yes, you⁺ have borne the tabernacle of your⁺ king and the Kewan—your⁺ idols, the star of your⁺ god which you⁺ made to yourselves. ²⁷ Therefore I will cause you⁺ to go into captivity beyond Damascus, says Yahweh, whose name is the God of hosts.

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure in the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come! ² Pass⁺ to Calneh, and see; and from there go⁺ to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? Or is their border greater than your⁺ border? ³ — you⁺ who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near; ⁴ who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves on their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; ⁵ who sing idle songs to the sound of the viol; who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David; ⁶ who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

⁷ Therefore they will now go captive with the first that go captive; and the revelry of those who stretched themselves will pass away. ⁸ The Sovereign Yahweh has sworn by his soul, says Yahweh, the God of hosts: I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces; therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it. ⁹ And it will come to pass, if ten men remain in one house, that they will die. ¹⁰ And when a man's uncle will take him up, even he who burns him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and will say to him who is in the innermost parts of the house, Is there yet any with you? And he will say, No; then he will say, Hold your peace; for we may not make mention of the name of Yahweh. ¹¹ For, look, Yahweh commands, and the great house will be struck with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

¹² Will horses run on the rock? Will one plow [there] with oxen? For you⁺ have turned justice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood; ¹³ you⁺ who rejoice in a thing of nothing,^a who say, Have we not taken to us horns^b by our own strength? ¹⁴ For, look, I will raise up against you⁺ a nation, O house of Israel, says Yahweh, the God of hosts; and they will afflict you⁺ from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah.

7 Thus the Sovereign Yahweh showed me: and, look, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, look, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. ² And it came to pass that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Sovereign Yahweh, forgive, I urge you: how will Jacob stand? For he is small. ³ Yahweh repented concerning this: It will not be, says Yahweh.

⁴ Thus the Sovereign Yahweh showed me: and, look, the Sovereign Yahweh called to contend by fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the land. ⁵ Then I said, O Sovereign Yahweh, cease, I urge you: how will Jacob stand? For he is small. ⁶ Yahweh repented concerning this: this also will not be, says the Sovereign Yahweh.

⁷ Thus he showed me: and, look, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. ⁸ And Yahweh said to me, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Look, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will not again pass by them anymore; ⁹ and the high places of Isaac will be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

¹⁰ Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. ¹¹ For thus Amos says, Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely be led away captive out of his land. ¹² Also Amaziah said to Amos, O you seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there: ¹³ but don't prophesy again anymore at Beth-el; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house.

¹⁴ Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore-trees: ¹⁵ and Yahweh took me from following the flock, and Yahweh said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel. ¹⁶ Now therefore hear the word of Yahweh: You say, Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't drop [your word] against the house of Isaac; ¹⁷ therefore thus says Yahweh: Your wife will prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword, and your land will be divided by line; and you yourself will die in a land that is unclean, and Israel will surely be led away captive out of his land.

8 Thus the Sovereign Yahweh showed me: and, look, a basket of summer fruit. ² And he said, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then Yahweh said to me, The end has come upon my people Israel; I will not again pass by ^a a thing of nothing, in Hebrew this may be a word play of the town 'Lo-debar' as in 2Sam 9:4-5 and 17:27.

them anymore. ³ And the songs of the temple will be wailings in that day, says the Sovereign Yahweh: the dead bodies will be many: in every place they will cast them forth with silence.

⁴ Hear this, O you⁺ who would swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail, ⁵ saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit; ⁶ that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and sell the refuse of the wheat? ⁷ Yahweh has sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. ⁸ Will not the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River; and it will be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt. ⁹ And it will come to pass in that day, says the Sovereign Yahweh, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day. ¹⁰ And I will turn your⁺ feasts into mourning, and all your⁺ songs into lamentation; and I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and its end as a bitter day.

¹¹ Look, the days come, says the Sovereign Yahweh, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Yahweh. ¹² And they will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they will run to and fro to seek the word of Yahweh, and will not find it. ¹³ In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst. ¹⁴ Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, As your god, O Dan, lives; and, As the pilgrimage of Beer-sheba lives; they will fall, and never rise up again.

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar: and he said, Strike the capitals, that the thresholds may shake; and break them to pieces on the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: there will not one of them flee away, and there will not one of them escape. ² Though they dig into Sheol, from there will my hand take them; and though they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down. ³ And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there; and though they are hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, from there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. ⁴ And though they go into captivity before their enemies, from there I will command the sword, and it will slay them: and I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good.

⁵ For the Lord, Yahweh of hosts, [is] he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt; ⁶ [it is] he who builds his staircase in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth; Yahweh is his name.

⁷ Are you⁺ not as the sons of the Ethiopians to me, O sons of Israel? says Yahweh. Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? ⁸ Look, the eyes of the Sovereign Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; except that I will not completely destroy the house of Jacob, says Yahweh. ⁹ For, look, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, like [grain] is sifted in a sieve, yet the least kernel will not fall on the earth. ¹⁰ All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, The evil will not overtake nor meet us.

¹¹ In that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David that has fallen, and close up its breaches; and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; ¹² that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations that are called by my name, says Yahweh who does this. ¹³ Look, the days come, says Yahweh, that the plowman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed; and the mountains will drop sweet wine, and all the hills will melt. ¹⁴ And I will bring back the captivity of my people Israel, and they will build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and drink their wine; they will also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. ¹⁵ And I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them, says Yahweh your God.

Obadiah

1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Sovereign Yahweh concerning Edom: We have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, [saying,] Arise⁺, and let us rise up against her in battle. ² Look, I have made you small among the nations: you are greatly despised. ³ The pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who stay in the clefts of the rock, in the height of your habitation; who says in his heart, Who will bring me down to the ground? ⁴ Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there, says Yahweh.

⁵ If thieves came to you, if robbers by night (how you are cut off!), would they not steal [only] until they had enough? If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? ⁶ How are [the things of] Esau searched! How are his hidden treasures sought out! ⁷ All the men of your confederacy have brought you on your way, even to the border: the men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you; [those who eat] your bread lay a snare under you: there is no understanding in him. ⁸ Shall I not in that day, says Yahweh, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? ⁹ And your mighty men, O Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter.

¹⁰ For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. ¹¹ In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots on Jerusalem, even you were as one of them. ¹² But don't look on the day of your brother in the day of his disaster, and don't rejoice over the sons of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither speak proudly in the day of distress. ¹³ Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yes, don't look on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither lay⁺ [hands] on their substance in the day of their calamity. ¹⁴ And don't stand in the crossway, to cut off those of his that escape; and don't deliver up those of his that remain in the day of distress.

¹⁵ For the day of Yahweh is near on all the nations: as you have done, it will be done to you; your dealing will return on your own head. ¹⁶ For as you⁺ have drank on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually; yes, they will drink, and swallow down, and will be as though they had not been.

¹⁷ But in mount Zion there will be those who escape, and it will be holy; and the house of Jacob will possess those who dispossess them. ¹⁸ And the house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they will burn among them, and devour them; and there will not be any remaining to the house of Esau; for Yahweh has spoken it. ¹⁹ And those of the South will possess the mount of Esau, and those of the lowland the Philistines; and they will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria; and Benjamin [will possess] Gilead. ²⁰ And the captives of this bulwark of the sons of Israel, who are [among] the Canaanites, [will possess] even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the South. ²¹ And saviors will come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom will be Yahweh's.

Jonah

1 Now the word of Yahweh came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ² Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness has come up before me. ³ But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh; and he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh.

⁴ But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was likely to be broken. ⁵ Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man to his god; and they cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it to them. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. ⁶ So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, What do you mean, O sleeper? Arise, call on your God, perhaps God will think on us, that we will not perish. ⁷ And they said every one to his fellow man, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is on us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸ Then they said to him, Tell us, we pray you, for whose cause this evil is on us; what is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you? ⁹ And he said to them, I am a Hebrew; and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land. ¹⁰ Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, What is this that you have done? For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Yahweh, because he had told them.

¹¹ Then they said to him, What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us? For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. ¹² And he said to them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so the sea will be calm to you^{}: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is on you^{}. ¹³ Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get back to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. ¹⁴ Therefore they cried to Yahweh, and said, We urge you, O Yahweh, we urge you, let us not perish for this man's soul, and don't lay innocent blood on us; for you, O Yahweh, have done as it pleased you. ¹⁵ So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶ Then the men feared Yahweh exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh, and made vows.

¹⁷ And Yahweh prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the insides of the fish three days and three nights. 2 Then Jonah prayed to Yahweh his God out of the insides of the fish. ² And he said,

I called by reason of my affliction to Yahweh,

And he answered me;

Out of the belly of Sheol I cried,

[And] you heard my voice.

³ For you had cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas, And the flood was round about me;

All your waves and your billows passed over me.

⁴ And I said, I am cast out from before your eyes;

Yet I will look again toward your holy temple.

⁵ The waters surrounded me, even to the soul;

The deep was round about me;

The weeds were wrapped about my head.

⁶ I went down to the bottoms of the mountains;

The earth with its bars [closed] on me forever:

Yet you have brought up my life from the pit, O Yahweh my God.

⁷ When my soul fainted inside me, I remembered Yahweh;

And my prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

⁸ Those who regard lying vanities

Forsake their own mercy.

⁹ But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving;

I will pay that which I have vowed.

Salvation is of Yahweh.

¹⁰ And Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

3 And the word of Yahweh came to Jonah the second time, saying, ² Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the preaching that I bid you. ³ So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yahweh. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, of three days' journey. ⁴ And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh will be overthrown.

⁵ And the people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁶ And the news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷ And he made proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; don't let them feed, nor drink water; ⁸ but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and beast, and let them cry mightily to God: yes, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹ Who knows whether God will not turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we will not perish? ¹⁰ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil which he said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry.

² And he prayed to Yahweh, and said, I pray you, O Yahweh, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and one who repents of the evil. ³ Therefore now, O Yahweh, take, I urge you, my soul from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. ⁴ And Yahweh said, Do you well to be angry? ⁵ Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made for himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city.

⁶ And Yahweh God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the gourd. ⁷ But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it struck the gourd, that it withered. ⁸ And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for his soul to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. ⁹ And God said to Jonah, Do you well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even to death. ¹⁰ And Yahweh said, You have had regard for the gourd, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: ¹¹ and should I not have regard for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than sixscore thousand of man who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

Micah

1 The word of Yahweh that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

² Hear, you⁺ peoples, all of you⁺: listen, O earth, and all that is in it: and let the Sovereign Yahweh be witness against you⁺, the Lord from his holy temple. ³ For, look, Yahweh comes forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread on the high places of the earth. ⁴ And the mountains will be melted under him, and the valleys will be split, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. ⁵ For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem? ⁶ Therefore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field, [and] as places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down her stones into the valley, and I will uncover her foundations. ⁷ And all her graven images will be beaten to pieces, and all her wages will be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay desolate; for of the wages of a prostitute she has gathered them, and to the wages of a prostitute they will return.

⁸ For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches. ⁹ For her wounds are incurable; for it has come even to Judah; it reaches to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Don't tell it in Gath, don't weep at all: at Beth-leaphrah I have rolled myself in the dust. ¹¹ Pass by, O inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame: the inhabitant of Zaanan has not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel will take from you⁺ its standing ground. ¹² For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from Yahweh to the gate of Jerusalem. ¹³ Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O inhabitant of Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in you. ¹⁴ Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel. ¹⁵ I will yet bring to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah, him who will possess you: the glory of Israel will come even to Adullam. ¹⁶ Make yourself bald, and cut off your hair for the sons of your delight: enlarge your baldness as the eagle; for they have gone into captivity from you.

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they do it, because it is in the power of their hand. ² And they covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a [noble] man and his house, even a man and his heritage. ³ Therefore thus says Yahweh: Look, I devise an evil against this family, from which you⁺ will not remove your⁺ necks, neither will you⁺ walk haughtily; for it is an evil time. ⁴ In that day they will take up a parable against you⁺, and lament with a doleful lamentation, [and] say, We are completely ruined: he exchanges the portion of my people: how he removes [it] from me! In order to make restitution, he divides our fields. ⁵ Therefore you will have none who will cast the line by lot in the assembly of Yahweh.

⁶ Do not prophesy⁺, [thus] they prophesy. They will not prophesy to these: reproaches will not depart. ⁷ Will it be said, O house of Jacob, Is the Spirit of Yahweh straitened? Are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly? ⁸ Even yesterday my people rose up as an enemy: in front of a cloak you⁺ strip the glory from those who pass by securely, being averse to war. ⁹ The women of my people you⁺ cast out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you⁺ take away my majesty forever. ¹⁰ Arise⁺, and depart; for this is not your⁺ resting-place; because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction. ¹¹ If a man walking after the wind and producing lies, lies, [saying,] I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink; he will even be the prophet of this people.

¹² I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the midst of their pasture; they will make great noise by reason of man. ¹³ The breaker has gone up before them: they have broken forth and passed on to the gate, and have gone out of it; and their king has passed on before them, and Yahweh at the head of them.

3 And I said, Hear, I pray you⁺, you⁺ heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: is it not for you⁺ to know justice? ² You⁺ who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; ³ who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh inside the cauldron. ⁴ Then they will cry to Yahweh, but he will not answer them; yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, according to as they have wrought evil in their doings.

⁵ Thus says Yahweh concerning the prophets who make my people to err; that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and whoever does not put into their mouths, they even prepare war against him: ⁶ Therefore it will be night to you⁺, that you⁺ will have no vision; and it will be dark to you⁺, that you⁺ will not have fortune-telling; and the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be black over them. ⁷ And the seers will be put to shame, and the fortune-tellers confounded; yes, they will all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. ⁸ But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of Yahweh, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

⁹ Hear this, I pray you⁺, you⁺ heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, who are disgusted by justice, and pervert all equity. ¹⁰ They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. ¹¹ The heads of it judge for reward, and its priests teach for wages, and its prophets tell the future for silver: yet they lean on Yahweh, and say, Is not Yahweh in the midst of us? No evil will come upon us. ¹² Therefore will Zion for your⁺ sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

4 But in the latter days it will come to pass, that the mountain of Yahweh's house will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will flow to it. ² And many nations will go and say, Come⁺, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For out of Zion will go forth the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem; ³ and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations far off: and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore. ⁴ But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none will make them afraid: for the mouth of Yahweh of hosts has spoken it. ⁵ For all the peoples walk every one in the name of his god; and we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God forever and ever.

⁶ In that day, says Yahweh, I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; ⁷ and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and Yahweh will reign over them in mount Zion from now on even forever. ⁸ And you, O tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come, yes, the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

⁹ Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no king in you, has your counselor perished, that pangs have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail? ¹⁰ Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now you will go forth out of the city, and will stay in the field, and will come even to Babylon: there you will be rescued; there Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. ¹¹ And now many nations are assembled against you, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye see [our desire] on Zion. ¹² But they don't know the thoughts of Yahweh, neither do they understand his counsel; for he has gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor. ¹³ Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze; and you will beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain to Yahweh, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth. 5 Now gash yourself, O daughter of troops: he has laid siege against us; they will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

² But you, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which are little to be among the thousands of Judah, out of you will one come forth to me who is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting. ³ Therefore he will give them up, until the time that she who travails has brought forth: then the residue of his brothers will return to the sons of Israel. ⁴ And he will stand, and will shepherd [his flock] in the strength of Yahweh, in the splendor of the name of Yahweh his God: and they will remain; for now he will be great to the ends of the earth. ⁵ And this [man] will be [our] peace. When the Assyrian will come into our land, and when he will tread in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principals of man. ⁶ And they will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with the dagger: and he will deliver from the Assyrian, when he comes into our land, and when he treads inside our border. ⁷ And the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples as dew from Yahweh, as showers on the grass, that do not tarry for man, nor wait for the sons of men. ⁸ And the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver. ⁹ Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all your enemies be cut off.

¹⁰ And it will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh, that I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you, and will destroy your chariots: ¹¹ and I will cut off the cities of your land, and will throw down all your strongholds. ¹² And I will cut off sorcerers out of your hand; and you will have no psychics:^a ¹³ and I will cut off your graven images and your pillars out of the midst of you; and you will no more worship the work of your hands; ¹⁴ and I will pluck up your Asherim out of the midst of you; and I will destroy your cities. ¹⁵ And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations which did not listen.

6 Hear⁺ now what Yahweh says: Arise, contend before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. ² Hear, O you⁺ mountains, Yahweh's controversy, and you⁺ enduring foundations of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. ³ O my people, what have I done to you? And in what have I wearied you? Testify against me. ⁴ For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of slaves; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. ⁵ O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; [remember] from Shittim to Gilgal, that you⁺ may know the righteous acts of Yahweh.

⁶ How shall I come before Yahweh, and bow myself before the high God? Shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves a year old? ⁷ Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams, [or] with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? ⁸ He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does Yahweh require of you, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

⁹ The voice of Yahweh cries to the city, and wisdom will see your name: hear⁺ the rod, and who has appointed it. ¹⁰ Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a scant measure that is abhorred? ¹¹ Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? ¹² For its rich men are full of violence, and its inhabitants have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. ¹³ Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound; I have made you desolate because of your sins. ¹⁴ You will eat, but not be satisfied; and your humiliation will be in the midst of you: and you will put away, but will not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword. ¹⁵ You will sow, but will not reap; you will tread the olives, but you will not anoint with oil; and the vintage, but will not drink the wine. ¹⁶ For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and you⁺ walk in their counsels; that I may make you a desolation, and her^b inhabitants a hissing; and you⁺ will bear the reproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! For I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; my soul desires the first-ripe fig. ² The godly has perished from the earth, and the upright is not among man: all of them lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. ³ Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently; the prince asks, and the judge [is ready] for a reward; and the great man, he utters the evil desire of his soul: thus they weave it together. ⁴ The best of them is as a brier; the upright is [worse] than a thorn hedge: the day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has come; now will be their perplexity. ⁵ Don't trust⁺ in a companion; don't put⁺ confidence in a best friend; keep the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom. ⁶ For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

⁷ But as for me, I will look to Yahweh; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. ⁸ Don't rejoice against me, O my enemy: when I fall, I will arise; when I sit in darkness, Yahweh will be a light to me. ⁹ I will bear the indignation of Yahweh, because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my cause, and executes judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, [and] I will see his righteousness. ¹⁰ Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me, Where is Yahweh your God? My eyes will see [my desire] on her; now she will be trodden down as the mire of the streets. ¹¹ A day for building your walls! In that day the decree will be far removed. ¹² In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and [from] mountain to mountain. ¹³ Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell in it, for the fruit of their doings.

¹⁴ Shepherd your people with your rod, the flock of your heritage, which stay solitarily, in the forest in the midst of Carmel: let them pasture in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old. ¹⁵ As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt I will show him^a marvelous things. ¹⁶ The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might; they will lay their hand on their mouth; their ears will be deaf. ¹⁷ They will lick the dust like a serpent; like crawling things of the earth they will come trembling out of their close places; they will come with fear to Yahweh our God, and will be afraid because of you.

¹⁸ Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in loving-kindness. ¹⁹ He will again have compassion on us; he will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. ²⁰ You will perform the truth to Jacob, [and] the loving-kindness to Abraham, which you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum

1 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. ² Yahweh is a jealous God and avenges; Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath; Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserves [wrath] for his enemies. ³ Yahweh is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave unpunished [the guilty]: Yahweh has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. ⁴ He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers: Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes. ⁵ The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt; and the earth arose at his presence, yes, the world, and all that dwell in it. ⁶ Who can stand before his indignation? And who can arise in the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him. ⁷ Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. ⁸ But with an overrunning flood he will make a full end of her^b place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

⁹ What do you^c devise against Yahweh? He will make a full end; affliction will not rise up the second time. ¹⁰ For entangled like thorns, and drunk as with their drink, they are consumed completely as dry stubble. ¹¹ One has gone forth out of you, that devises evil against Yahweh, that counsels wickedness.

¹² Thus says Yahweh: Though they are in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he will pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. ¹³ And now I will break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds in sunder. ¹⁴ And Yahweh has given commandment concerning you, that no more of your name will be sown: out of the house of your gods I will cut off the graven image and the molten image; I will make your grave; for you have not measured up.^c

¹⁵ Look, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, that publishes peace! Keep your feasts, O Judah, perform your vows; for the wicked one will no more pass through you; he is completely cut off. 2 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you: keep the fortress, watch the way, make your loins strong, fortify your power mightily. ² For Yahweh restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the emptiers have emptied them out, and destroyed their vine-branches. ³ The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots are blazing in the day of his preparation, and the cypress [spears] are brandished. ⁴ The chariots rage in the streets; they rush to and fro in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches; they run like the lightnings. ⁵ He remembers his majestic ones: they stumble in their march; they hurry to her wall, and the mantelet is prepared. ⁶ The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. ⁷ And he is drawn up, she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her female slaves moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts.

⁸ But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water: yet they flee away. Stand, stand, [they cry]; but none looks back. ⁹ Take⁺ the spoil of silver, take⁺ the spoil of gold; for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. ¹⁰ She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melts, and the knees strike together, and anguish is in all loins, and the faces of them all are waxed pale. ¹¹ Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion [and] the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? ¹² The lion tore in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey, and his dens with ravin. ¹³ Look, I am against you, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will burn your crowd in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will be heard no more.

3 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and rapine; the prey does not depart. ² The noise of the whip, and the noise of the rattling of wheels, and prancing horses, and bounding chariots, ³ the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, and the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies; they stumble on their bodies;— ⁴ because of the multitude of the prostitutions of the well-favored prostitute, the mistress^d of witchcrafts, that sells nations through her prostitutions, and families through her witchcrafts. ⁵ Look, I am against you, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will uncover your skirts on your face; and I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. ⁶ And I will cast detestable things on you, and make you vile, and will set you as a gazing-stock. ⁷ And it will come to pass, that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? From where shall I seek comforters for you?

^c not measured up, that is, lacking in weight as if being measured against a standard on a scale. See Dan 5:27 for a similar context.

⁸ Are you better than No-amon, that was situated among the rivers, that had the waters round about her; whose rampart was the sea, [and] her wall was more than the sea? ⁹ Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were your helpers. ¹⁰ Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity; her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. ¹¹ You also will be drunk; you will be hid; you also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. ¹² All your fortresses will be [like] fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³ Look, your people in the midst of you are women; the gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies: the fire has devoured your bars. ¹⁴ Draw yourself water for the siege; strengthen your fortresses; go into the clay, and tread the mortar; make strong the brickkiln. ¹⁵ There the fire will devour you; the sword will cut you off; it will devour you like the cankerworm: make yourself many as the cankerworm; make yourself many as the locust. ¹⁶ You have multiplied your merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm ravages, and flees away. ¹⁷ Your princes are as the locusts, and your marshals as the swarms of grasshoppers, which encamp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun rises they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. ¹⁸ Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; your majestic ones stay at rest; your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is none to gather them. ¹⁹ There is no assuaging of your hurt: your wound is grievous: all who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for on whom has not your wickedness passed continually?

Habakkuk

1 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet saw. ² O Yahweh, how long shall I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you of violence, and you will not save. ³ Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perverseness? For destruction and violence are before me; and there is strife, and contention rises up. ⁴ Therefore the law is slacked, and justice does never go forth; for the wicked circles about the righteous; therefore justice goes forth perverted.

⁵ Look⁺ among the nations, and see⁺, and wonder⁺ marvelously; for a work is working in your⁺ days, which you⁺ will not believe though it is told you⁺. ⁶ For, look, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that marches through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling-places that are not theirs. ⁷ They are terrible and awesome; their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. ⁸ Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen press proudly on: and they ride from afar; they fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. ⁹ They come all of them for violence; the set of their faces is forwards; and they gather captives as the sand. ¹⁰ Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him; he derides every stronghold; for he heaps up dust, and takes it. ¹¹ Then he will sweep by [as] a wind, and will pass over, and be guilty, [even] he whose might is his god.

¹² Are not you from everlasting, O Yahweh my God, my Holy One? We will not die. O Yahweh, you have appointed him for judgment; and you, O Rock, have established him for correction. ¹³ You who are of purer eyes than to look at evil, and who cannot look at perverseness, why do you look on betrayers, and hold your peace when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he; ¹⁴ and make man as the fish of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? ¹⁵ He takes up all of them with the angle, he catches them in his net, and gathers them in his drag: therefore he rejoices and is glad. ¹⁶ Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his drag; because by them his portion is fat, and his food plenteous. ¹⁷ Will he therefore draw his sword, and not spare to slay the nations continually?

2 I will stand on my watch, and set myself on the tower, and will look forth to see what he will speak with me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint. ² And Yahweh answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he may run that reads it. ³ For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and will not lie: though it tarries, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay.

⁴ Look, his soul is presumptuous, it is not upright in him; but the righteous will live by his faith. ⁵ And how much more arrogant is a betrayer, a haughty [able-bodied] man, that does not keep at home; who enlarges his soul as Sheol, and he is as death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. ⁶ Will not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him who increases that which is not his! How long? And that loads himself with pledges! ⁷ Will they not rise up suddenly that will bite you, and awake that will vex you, and you will be for booty to them? ⁸ Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of man's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it.

⁹ Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! ¹⁰ You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. ¹¹ For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber will answer it.

¹⁵ Woe to him who gives his fellow man drink, mixing your strong wine, and make him drunk also, that you may look at their nakedness! ¹⁶ You are filled with shame, and not glory: you also drink, and show your foreskin; the cup of Yahweh's right hand will come round to you, and foul shame will be on your glory. ¹⁷ For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you, and the destruction of the beasts, which will frighten you; because of man's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it.

¹⁸ What does it profit the graven image, that its maker has graven it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? ¹⁹ Woe to him who says to the wood, "Awake; Arise!" [And] to the mute stone, "It will teach." Look, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. ²⁰ But Yahweh is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silent before him.

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, set to Shigionoth.

² O Yahweh, I have heard the report of you, and am afraid:
O Yahweh, revive your work in the midst of the years;
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember mercy.

³ God came from Teman,
And the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah.

His grandeur covered the heavens,
 And the earth was full of his praise.
⁴ And [his] brightness was as the light;
 He had rays [coming forth] from his hand;
 And there was the hiding of his power.
⁵ Before him went the pestilence,
 And fiery bolts went forth at his feet.
⁶ He stood, and measured the earth;
 He looked, and drove apart the nations;
 And the eternal mountains were scattered;
 The everlasting hills bowed down;
 His goings were [as] of old.
⁷ I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction;
 The curtains of the land of Midian trembled.
⁸ Was Yahweh displeased with the rivers?
 Was your anger against the rivers,
 Or your wrath against the sea,
 That you rode on your horses,
 On your chariots of salvation?
⁹ Your bow was bared naked;^a
 By means of a word the arrows are assigned by oath.
 Selah.

You split the earth with rivers.
¹⁰ The mountains saw you, and were afraid;
 The tempest of waters passed by;
 The deep uttered its voice,
 And lifted up its hands on high.
¹¹ The sun and moon stood still in their habitation,
 At the light of your arrows as they went,
 At the shining of your glittering spear.
¹² You marched through the land in indignation;
 You threshed the nations in anger.
¹³ You went forth for the salvation of your people,
 For the salvation of your anointed;
 You wounded the head out of the house of the wicked man,
 Laying bare the foundation even to the neck. Selah.
¹⁴ You pierced with his own staves the head of his warriors:
 They came as a whirlwind to scatter me;
 Their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.
¹⁵ You trod the sea with your horses,
 The heap of mighty waters.
¹⁶ I heard, and my body trembled,
 My lips quivered at the voice;
 Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place;
 Because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble,
 For the coming up of the people that invades us.
¹⁷ For though the fig tree will not flourish,
 Neither will fruit be in the vines;
 The labor of the olive will fail,
 And the fields will yield no food;
 The flock will be cut off from the fold,
 And there will be no herd in the stalls:
¹⁸ Yet I will rejoice in Yahweh,
 I will joy in the God of my salvation.
¹⁹ Yahweh, the Lord, is my strength;
 And he makes my feet like hinds' [feet]
 And will make me to walk on my high places.

Zephaniah

1 The word of Yahweh which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

² I will completely consume all things from off the face of the ground, says Yahweh. ³ I will consume man and beast; I will consume the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, says Yahweh. ⁴ And I will stretch out my hand on Judah, and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, [and] the name of the Chemarim with the priests; ⁵ and those who worship the host of heaven on the housetops; and those who worship, that swear to Yahweh and swear by Milcom; ⁶ and those who have turned back from following Yahweh; and those who have not sought Yahweh, nor inquired after him.

⁷ Hold your peace at the presence of the Sovereign Yahweh; for the day of Yahweh is at hand: for Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests. ⁸ And it will come to pass in the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with foreign apparel. ⁹ And in that day I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, that fill their master's house with violence and deceit. ¹⁰ And in that day, says Yahweh, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. ¹¹ Wail, you⁺ inhabitants of Maktesh; for all the people of Canaan are undone; all those who were laden with silver are cut off. ¹² And it will come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps; and I will punish the men who are settled on their lees, who say in their heart, Yahweh will not do good, neither will he do evil. ¹³ And their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation: yes, they will build houses, but will not inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, but will not drink their wine.

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, O nation that has no shame; ² before the decree brings forth, [before] the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yahweh comes on you⁺, before the day of Yahweh's anger comes on you⁺. ³ Seek⁺ Yahweh, all you⁺ meek of the earth, who have kept his ordinances; seek⁺ righteousness, seek⁺ meekness: it may be you⁺ will be hid in the day of Yahweh's anger.

⁴ For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation; they will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up.

⁵ Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Yahweh is against you⁺, O Canaan, the land of the Philistines; I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. ⁶ And the seacoast will be pastures, cisterns of shepherds and folds for flocks. ⁷ And the portion will be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they will feed [their flocks] thereupon; in the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down in the evening; for Yahweh their God will visit them, and bring back their destiny.

⁸ I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the sons of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. ⁹ Therefore as I live, says Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the sons of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people will make a prey of them, and the remnant of my nation will inherit them. ¹⁰ This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Yahweh of hosts. ¹¹ Yahweh will be awesome to them; for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men will worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the nations.

¹² You⁺ Ethiopians also, they are slain by my sword. ¹³ And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness. ¹⁴ And herds will lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in her capitals; [their] voice will sing in the windows; desolation will be in the thresholds: for he has laid bare the cedar-work. ¹⁵ This is the joyous city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none besides me: how has she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and wag his hand.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted! To the oppressing city! ² She did not obey the voice; she did not receive correction; she did not trust in Yahweh; she did not draw near to her God. ³ Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they leave nothing until the next day. ⁴ Her prophets are reckless and betraying men; her priests have profaned the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. ⁵ Yahweh in the midst of her is righteous; he will not do iniquity; every morning he brings his justice to light, he does not fail; but the unjust knows no shame. ⁶ I have cut off nations; their battlements are desolate; I have made their streets waste, so that none passes by; their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. ⁷ I said, Only fear me; receive correction; so her dwelling will not be cut off, [according to] all that I have appointed concerning her: but they rose early and corrupted all their doings.

⁸ Therefore wait⁺ for me, says Yahweh, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

⁹ For then I will turn to the peoples a pure language,^a that they may all call on the name of Yahweh, to serve him with one consent.^b ¹⁰ From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, will bring my offering. ¹¹ In that day you will not be put to shame for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. ¹² But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of Yahweh. ¹³ The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they will feed and lie down, and none will make them afraid.

¹⁴ Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. ¹⁵ Yahweh has taken away your judgments, he has cast out your enemy: the King of Israel, even Yahweh, is in the midst of you; you will not fear evil anymore. ¹⁶ In that day it will be said to Jerusalem, Don't be afraid; O Zion, don't let your hands be slack. ¹⁷ Yahweh your God is in the midst of you, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over you with singing. ¹⁸ I will gather those who sorrow for the solemn assembly, who were of you; [to whom] the burden on her was a reproach. ¹⁹ Look, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you; and I will save that which is lame, and gather that which was driven away; and I will make them a praise and a name, whose shame has been in all the earth. ²⁰ At that time I will bring you⁺ in, at the time when I will gather you⁺; for I will make you⁺ a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring back your⁺ captivity before your⁺ eyes, says Yahweh.

Haggai

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, ² Thus speaks Yahweh of hosts, saying, This people say, It is not the time [for us] to come, the time for Yahweh's house to be built. ³ Then the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ⁴ Is it a time for you⁺ yourselves to dwell in your⁺ ceiled houses, while this house lies waste? ⁵ Now therefore this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: Consider your⁺ ways. ⁶ You⁺ have sown much, and bring in little; you⁺ eat, but you⁺ don't have enough; you⁺ drink, but you⁺ are not filled with drink; you⁺ clothe yourselves, but there is none warm; and he who earns wages, earns wages [to put it] into a bag with holes.

⁷ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Consider your⁺ ways. ⁸ Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, says Yahweh. ⁹ You⁺ looked for much, and, look, it came to little; and when you⁺ brought it home, I blew on it. Why? says Yahweh of hosts. Because of my house that lies waste, while you⁺ run every man to his own house. ¹⁰ Therefore above you⁺ the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. ¹¹ And I called for a drought on the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, and on the oil, and on that which the ground brings forth, and on man, and on cattle, and on all the labor of the hands.

¹² Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yahweh their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Yahweh their God had sent him; and the people feared before Yahweh. ¹³ Then Haggai, Yahweh's messenger, spoke Yahweh's message to the people, saying, I am with you⁺, says Yahweh. ¹⁴ And Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of hosts, their God, ¹⁵ in the four and twentieth day of the month, in the sixth [month], in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh [month], in the one and twentieth [day] of the month, the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ² Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ³ Who is left among you⁺ that saw this house in its former glory? And how do you⁺ see it now? Is it not in your⁺ eyes as nothing? ⁴ Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says Yahweh; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all you⁺ people of the land, says Yahweh, and work: for I am with you⁺, says Yahweh of hosts, ⁵ [according to] the word that I covenanted with you⁺ when you⁺ came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remained among you⁺: don't be⁺ afraid. ⁶ For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; ⁷ and I will shake all nations; and the precious things of all nations will come; and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁸ The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁹ The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former, says Yahweh of hosts; and in this place I will give peace, says Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁰ In the four and twentieth [day] of the ninth [month], in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, ¹² If one bears holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt touches bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, will it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No. ¹³ Then Haggai said, If one who is unclean by reason of a soul touches any of these, will it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It will be unclean. ¹⁴ Then Haggai answered and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, says Yahweh; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. ¹⁵ And now, I pray you⁺, consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of Yahweh, ¹⁶ how were you? When one came to a heap of twenty [measures], there were but ten; when one came to the winevat to draw out fifty vessels, there were but twenty. ¹⁷ I struck you⁺ with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the work of your⁺ hands; yet you⁺ did not [turn] to me, says Yahweh. ¹⁸ Consider, I pray you⁺, from this day and backward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth [month], since the day that the foundation of Yahweh's temple was laid, consider it. ¹⁹ Is the seed yet in the barn? And even the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not brought forth; from this day I will bless [you⁺].

²⁰ And the word of Yahweh came the second time to Haggai in the four and twentieth [day] of the month, saying, ²¹ Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth; ²² and I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them; and the horses and their riders will come down, every one by the sword of his brother. ²³ In that day, says Yahweh of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel, my slave, the son of Shealtiel, says Yahweh, and will make you as a signet; for I have chosen you, says Yahweh of hosts.

Zechariah

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ² Yahweh was very displeased with your⁺ fathers. ³ Therefore you say to them, Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Return to me, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will return to you⁺, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁴ Don't be⁺ as your⁺ fathers, to whom the former prophets cried, saying, Thus says Yahweh of hosts, Return⁺ now from your⁺ evil ways, and from your⁺ evil doings: but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says Yahweh. ⁵ Your⁺ fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶ But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my slaves the prophets, did they not overtake your⁺ fathers? And they turned and said, Like Yahweh of hosts thought to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so has he dealt with us.

⁷ On the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ⁸ I saw in the night, and, look, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him there were horses, red, sorrel, and white. ⁹ Then I said, O my lord, what are these? And the angel who talked with me said to me, I will show you what these are. ¹⁰ And the man who stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are those whom Yahweh has sent to walk to and fro through the earth. ¹¹ And they answered the angel of Yahweh who stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, look, all the earth sits still, and is at rest.

¹² Then the angel of Yahweh answered and said, O Yahweh of hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years? ¹³ And Yahweh answered the angel who talked with me with good words, [even] comfortable words. ¹⁴ So the angel who talked with me said to me, Cry out, saying, Thus says Yahweh of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁵ And I am very intensely displeased with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. ¹⁶ Therefore thus says Yahweh: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies; my house will be built in it, says Yahweh of hosts, and a line will be stretched forth over Jerusalem. ¹⁷ Cry out yet again, saying, Thus says Yahweh of hosts: My cities will yet overflow with prosperity; and Yahweh will yet comfort Zion, and will yet choose Jerusalem.

¹⁸ And I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw four horns. ¹⁹ And I said to the angel who talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. ²⁰ And Yahweh showed me four blacksmiths. ²¹ Then I said, What do these come to do? And he spoke, saying, These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.

2 And I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. ² Then I said, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width, and what is its length. ³ And, look, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

⁴ and said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, by reason of the multitude of man and cattle in her. ⁵ For I, says Yahweh, will be to her a wall of fire round about, and I will be the glory in the midst of her.

⁶ Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, says Yahweh; for I have spread you^a abroad as the four winds of the heavens, says Yahweh. ⁷ Ho Zion, escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon. ⁸ For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: After glory he has sent me to the nations which plundered you^a; for he who touches you^a touches the apple^a of my eye. ⁹ For, look, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to their slaves; and you^a will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me. ¹⁰ Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for, look, I come, and I will stay in the midst of you, says Yahweh. ¹¹ And many nations will join themselves to Yahweh in that day, and will be my people; and I will stay in the midst of you, and you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you. ¹² And Yahweh will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will yet choose Jerusalem. ¹³ Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh; for he has awakened out of his holy habitation.

3 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yahweh, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. ² And Yahweh said to Satan, Yahweh rebuke you, O Satan; yes, Yahweh who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? ³ Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. ⁴ And he answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, Take the filthy garments from off him. And to him he said, Look, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich apparel. ⁵ And I said, Let them set a clean turban on his head. So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of Yahweh was standing by.

⁶ And the angel of Yahweh protested to Joshua, saying, ⁷ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my charge, then you also will judge my house, and will also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. ⁸ Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your companions that sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, look, I will bring forth my slave the Branch. ⁹ For, look, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: look, I will engrave its engraving, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. ¹⁰ In that day, says Yahweh of hosts, you^a will invite every man his fellow man under the vine and under the fig tree.

4 And the angel who talked with me came again, and woke me, as a man who is awakened out of his sleep. ² And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I have seen, and, look, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; ³ and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it. ⁴ And I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? ⁵ Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, Don't you know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. ⁶ Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of Yahweh to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁷ Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel [you will become] a plain; and he will bring forth the top stone with shoutings of Grace, grace, to it. ⁸ Moreover the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹ The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands will also finish it; and you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you^a. ¹⁰ For who has despised the day of small things? For these seven will rejoice, and will see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel; [these are] the eyes of Yahweh, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

¹¹ Then I answered, and said to him, What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on the left side of it? ¹² And I answered the second time, and said to him, What are these two olive-branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty the gold out of themselves? ¹³ And he answered me and said, Don't you know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. ¹⁴ Then he said, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

5 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw a flying roll. ² And he said to me, What do you see? And I answered, I see a flying roll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits. ³ Then he said to me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole land: for according to this side [of the scroll], everyone who steals will be emptied; and according to the other side, everyone who swears will be emptied. ⁴ I brought it out, says Yahweh of hosts, and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will reside in the midst of his house, and will consume it with its timber and its stones.

⁵ Then the angel who talked with me went forth, and said to me, Lift up now your eyes, and see what this is that goes forth. ⁶ And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the ephah that goes forth. He said moreover, This is their desire^b in all the land ⁷ (and, look, there was lifted up a talent of lead); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah. ⁸ And he said, This is Wickedness: and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead on its mouth. ⁹ Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw there came forth two women, and the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a stork; and they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven. ¹⁰ Then I said to the angel who talked with me, Where do these bear the ephah? ¹¹ And he said to me, To build her a house in the land of Shinar: and when it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place.

6 And again I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw four chariots come out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. ² In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; ³ and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grizzled strong horses. ⁴ Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, What are these, my lord? ⁵ And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four winds of heaven, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶ [The chariot] in which are the black horses goes forth toward the north country; and the white went forth after them; and the grizzled went forth toward the south country. ⁷ And the strong went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Go^a from here, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. ⁸ Then he cried to me, and spoke to me, saying, Look, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

⁹ And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁰ Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and you come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon; ¹¹ yes, take [of them] silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest;

¹² and speak to him, saying, Thus speaks Yahweh of hosts, saying, Look, the man whose name is the Branch: and he will grow up out of his place; and he will build the temple of Yahweh; ¹³ even he will build the temple of Yahweh; and he will bear the grandeur, and will sit and rule on his throne; and he will be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace will be between them both. ¹⁴ And the crowns will be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and for the kindness of the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of Yahweh. ¹⁵ And those who are far off will come and build in the temple of Yahweh; and you⁺ will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you⁺. And [this] will come to pass, if you⁺ will diligently obey the voice of Yahweh your⁺ God.

7 And it came to pass in the fourth year of King Darius, that the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah in the fourth [day] of the ninth month, even in Kislev. ² Now [they of] Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to entreat the favor of Yahweh, ³ [and] to speak to the priests of the house of Yahweh of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years? ⁴ Then the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying, ⁵ Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When you⁺ fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh [month], even these seventy years, did you⁺ at all fast to me, even to me? ⁶ And when you⁺ eat, and when you⁺ drink, don't you⁺ eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁷ [Should you⁺] not [hear] the words which Yahweh cried out by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and her cities round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?

⁸ And the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, saying, ⁹ Thus has Yahweh of hosts spoken, saying, Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother; ¹⁰ and don't oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the sojourner, nor the poor; and let none of you⁺ devise evil against his brother in your⁺ heart. ¹¹ But they refused to listen, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. ¹² Yes, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which Yahweh of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore there came great wrath from Yahweh of hosts. ¹³ And it has come to pass that, as he cried out, and they would not hear, so they will cry out, and I will not hear, said Yahweh of hosts; ¹⁴ but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

8 And the word of Yahweh of hosts came [to me], saying, ² Thus says Yahweh of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. ³ Thus says Yahweh: I have returned to Zion, and will stay in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem will be called The city of truth; and the mountain of Yahweh of hosts, The holy mountain. ⁴ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: There will yet dwell old men and old women in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. ⁵ And the streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. ⁶ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes? says Yahweh of hosts. ⁷ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Look, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; ⁸ and I will bring them, and they will stay in the midst of Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

⁹ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Let your⁺ hands be strong, you⁺ who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were there in the day that the foundation of the house of Yahweh of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. ¹⁰ For before those days there was no wage for man, nor any wage for beast; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary: for I set all of man, every man against his fellow man. ¹¹ But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days, says Yahweh of hosts. ¹² For [there will be] the seed of peace; the vine will give its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹³ And it will come to pass that, as you⁺ were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you⁺, and you⁺ will be a blessing. Don't be afraid, [but] let your⁺ hands be strong.

¹⁴ For this is what Yahweh of Hosts says: As I thought to do evil to you⁺, when your⁺ fathers provoked me to wrath, says Yahweh of hosts, and I did not repent; ¹⁵ so again I have thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: don't be⁺ afraid. ¹⁶ These are the things that you⁺ will do: speak⁺ every man the truth with his fellow man; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your⁺ gates; ¹⁷ and let none of you⁺ devise evil in your⁺ hearts against his fellow man; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, says Yahweh.

¹⁸ And the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying, ¹⁹ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: The fast of the fourth [month], and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, will be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace. ²⁰ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: [It will] yet [come to pass], that there will come peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities; ²¹ and the inhabitants of one [city] will go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of Yahweh, and to seek Yahweh of hosts: I will go also. ²² Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Yahweh of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Yahweh. ²³ Thus says Yahweh of hosts: In those days [it will come to pass], that ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, We will go with you⁺, for we have heard that God is with you⁺.

9 The burden of the word of Yahweh on the land of Hadrach, and Damascus [will be] its resting-place (for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Yahweh); ² and Hamath, also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise. ³ And Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. ⁴ Look, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will strike her power in the sea; and she will be devoured with fire. ⁵ Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will be very pained; and Ekron, for her expectation will be put to shame; and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited. ⁶ And a bastard will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. ⁷ And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his detestable things from between his teeth; and he also will be a remnant for our God; and he will be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

⁸ And I will encamp about my house against the army, that none pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them anymore: for now I have seen with my eyes.

⁹ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: look, your king comes to you; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt the son of a donkey. ¹⁰ And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow will be cut off; and he will speak peace to the nations: and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹ As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water. ¹² Turn⁺ to the stronghold, you⁺ prisoners of hope: even today I declare that I will render double to you. ¹³ For I have bent Judah for me, I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and will make you as the sword of a mighty man. ¹⁴ And Yahweh will be seen over them; and his arrow will go forth as the lightning; and the Sovereign Yahweh will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south. ¹⁵ Yahweh of hosts will defend them; and they will devour, and will tread down the sling-stones; and they will drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they will be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶ And Yahweh their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; for [they will be as] the stones of a crown, lifted on high over his land. ¹⁷ For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask⁺ of Yahweh rain in the time of the latter rain, [even of] Yahweh who makes lightnings; and he will give them showers of rain, to everyone grass in the field. ² For the talismans have spoken vanity, and the fortune-tellers have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams, they comfort in vain: therefore they go their way like sheep, they are afflicted, because there is no shepherd. ³ My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the he-goats; for Yahweh of hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his horse of grandeur in the battle. ⁴ From him will come forth the cornerstone, from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together. ⁵ And they will be as mighty men, treading down [their enemies] in the mire of the streets in the battle; and they will fight, because Yahweh is with them; and the riders on horses will be confounded. ⁶ And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back; for I have mercy on them; and they will be as though I had not cast them off: for I am Yahweh their God, and I will hear them. ⁷ And [they of] Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through wine; yes, their sons will see it, and rejoice; their heart will be glad in Yahweh.

⁸ I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they will increase as they have increased. ⁹ And I will sow them among the peoples; and they will remember me in far countries; and they will raise their sons, and will return. ¹⁰ I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and [place] will not be found for them. ¹¹ And he will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart. ¹² And I will strengthen them in Yahweh; and they will walk up and down in his name, says Yahweh.

11 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars. ² Wail, O fir-tree, for the cedar has fallen, because the majestic ones are destroyed: wail, O you⁺ oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has come down. ³ A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! For the pride of the Jordan is laid waste.

⁴ Thus Yahweh my God said: Shepherd the flock of slaughter; ⁵ whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and those who sell them say, Blessed be Yahweh, for I am rich; and their own shepherds don't pity them. ⁶ For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, says Yahweh; but, look, I will deliver man, every man into his fellow man's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. ⁷ So I shepherded the flock of slaughter, and the sheep-dealers. And I took to me two poles; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I shepherded the flock. ⁸ And I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. ⁹ Then I said, I will not shepherd you⁺: that which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those that are left eat every one the flesh of another. ¹⁰ And I took my staff Beauty, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹ And it was broken in that day; and the sheep-dealers that gave heed to me knew that it was the word of Yahweh. ¹² And I said to them, If you⁺ think good, give me my wages; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my wages thirty [shekels] of silver. ¹³ And Yahweh said to me, Cast it to the potter, the goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty [shekels] of silver, and cast them to the potter, in the house of Yahweh. ¹⁴ Then I cut apart my other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ And Yahweh said to me, Take to yourself yet again the instruments of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶ For, look, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those that are cut off, neither will seek that which remains behind, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat [sheep], and will tear their hoofs in pieces. ¹⁷ Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye: his arm will be clean dried up, and his right eye will be completely darkened.

12 The burden of the word of Yahweh concerning Israel. [Thus] says Yahweh, who stretches forth the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man inside him: ² look, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the peoples round about, and on Judah also it will be in the siege against Jerusalem. ³ And it will come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all who burden themselves with it will be critically wounded; and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. ⁴ In that day, says Yahweh, I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵ And the chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Yahweh of hosts their God. ⁶ In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and [they of] Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. ⁷ Yahweh also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not magnify above Judah. ⁸ In that day Yahweh will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and he who is feeble among them at that day will be as David; and the house of David will be as God, as the angel of Yahweh before them. ⁹ And it will come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰ And I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will be in bitterness for him, as one who is in bitterness for his firstborn. ¹¹ In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. ¹² And the land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; ¹³ the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; ¹⁴ all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 In that day there will be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. ² And it will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. ³ And it will come to pass that, when any will yet prophesy, then his father and his mother who begot him will say to him, You will not live; for you speak lies in the name of Yahweh; and his father and his mother who begot him will thrust him through when he prophesies. ⁴ And it will come to pass in that day, that the prophets will be ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: ⁵ but he will say, I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for man has acquired me from my youth. ⁶ And one will say to him, What are these wounds between your arms? Then he will answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

⁷ Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the [prominent] man who is my associate, says Yahweh of hosts: strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; and I will turn my hand on the little ones. ⁸ And it will come to pass, that in all the land, says Yahweh, two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it. ⁹ And I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They will call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they will say, Yahweh is my God.

14 Look, a day of Yahweh comes, when your spoil will be divided in the midst of you. ² For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women raped; and half of the city will go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people will not be cut off from the city. ³ Then will Yahweh go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. ⁴ And his feet will stand in that day on the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives will be divided in the midst of it toward the east and toward the west, [and there will be] a very great valley; and half of the mountain will remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. ⁵ And you⁺ will flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; yes, you⁺ will flee, like you⁺ fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. ⁶ And it will come to pass in that day, that there will not be light; the bright ones will withdraw themselves: ⁷ but it will be one day which is known to Yahweh; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light. ⁸ And it will come to pass in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter it will be.

⁹ And Yahweh will be King over all the earth: in that day Yahweh will be one, and his name one. ¹⁰ All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine-presses. ¹¹ And men will dwell in her, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely.

¹² And this will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. ¹³ And it will come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from Yahweh will be among them; and they will lay hold every one on the hand of his fellow man, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his fellow man. ¹⁴ And Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about will be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. ¹⁵ And so will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the beasts that will be in those camps, as that plague.

¹⁶ And it will come to pass, that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Yahweh of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. ¹⁷ And it will be, that whoever of [all] the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh of hosts, on them there will be no rain. ¹⁸ And if the family of Egypt does not go up, and does not come, will this not happen to them? This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tabernacles. ¹⁹ This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tabernacles. ²⁰ In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, HOLY TO YAHWEH; and the pots in Yahweh's house will be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹ Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to Yahweh of hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and boil in them: and in that day there will be no more a Canaanite in the house of Yahweh of hosts.

Malachi

1 The burden of the word of Yahweh to Israel by Malachi. ² I have loved you⁺, says Yahweh. Yet you⁺ say, In what have you loved us? Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother, says Yahweh: yet I loved Jacob; ³ but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and [gave] his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness. ⁴ Whereas Edom says, We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places; this is what Yahweh of Hosts says, They will build, but I will throw down; and men will call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom Yahweh has indignation forever. ⁵ And your⁺ eyes will see, and you⁺ will say, May Yahweh be magnified beyond the border of Israel.

⁶ A son honors his father, and a slave his master: if then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says Yahweh of hosts to you⁺, O priests, that despise my name. And you⁺ say, In what have we despised your name? ⁷ You⁺ offer polluted bread on my altar. And you⁺ say, In what have we polluted you? In that you⁺ say, The table of Yahweh is contemptible. ⁸ And when you⁺ offer the blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! And when you⁺ offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now to your governor; will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person? says Yahweh of hosts. ⁹ And now, I pray you⁺, entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us: this has been by your⁺ means: will he accept any of your⁺ persons? says Yahweh of hosts. ¹⁰ Oh that there were one among you⁺ who would shut the doors, that you⁺ might not kindle [fire on] my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you⁺, says Yahweh of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your⁺ hand.

¹¹ For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same my name [will be] great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense [will be] offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name [will be] great among the Gentiles, says Yahweh of hosts. ¹² But you⁺ profane it, in that you⁺ say, The table of Yahweh is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible. ¹³ You⁺ also say, Look, what a weariness it is! And you⁺ have snorted at it, says Yahweh of hosts; and you⁺ have brought that which was taken by violence, and the lame, and the sick; thus you⁺ bring the offering: should I accept this at your⁺ hand? says Yahweh. ¹⁴ But cursed be the deceiver, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord a blemished thing; for I am a great King, says Yahweh of hosts, and my name is awesome among the Gentiles.

2 And now, O you⁺ priests, this commandment is for you⁺. ² If you⁺ will not hear, and if you⁺ will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, says Yahweh of hosts, then I will send the curse on you⁺, and I will curse your⁺ blessings; yes, I have cursed them already, because you⁺ don't lay it to heart. ³ Look, I will rebuke your⁺ seed, and will spread feces on your⁺ faces, even the feces of your⁺ feasts; and you⁺ will be taken away with it. ⁴ And you⁺ will know that I have sent this commandment to you⁺, that my covenant may be with Levi, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁵ My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. ⁶ The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. ⁷ For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Yahweh of hosts. ⁸ But you⁺ have turned aside out of the way; you⁺ have caused many to stumble in the law; you⁺ have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁹ Therefore I have also made you⁺ contemptible and base before all the people, according to as you⁺ have not kept my ways, but have had respect of persons in the law.

¹⁰ Don't we all have one father? Has not one God created us? Why do we betray every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹ Judah has betrayed, and a disgusting thing is done in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹² Yahweh will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to Yahweh of hosts. ¹³ And this again you⁺ do: you⁺ cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he does not regard the offering anymore, neither receives it with goodwill at your⁺ hand. ¹⁴ Yet you⁺ say, Why? Because Yahweh has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, whom you have betrayed,^a though she is your partner, and the wife of your covenant. ¹⁵ And no one who does this has part of the Spirit remaining in him; neither is such a one seeking a godly seed. Therefore take heed⁺ to your⁺ spirit; and do not betray the wife of your youth. ¹⁶ For he who hates, divorces,^b says Yahweh, the God of Israel, and he will cover his garment with violence,^c says Yahweh of hosts. Therefore take heed to your⁺ spirit, that you⁺ do not betray [the wife of your youth].^d

¹⁷ You⁺ have wearied Yahweh with your⁺ words. Yet you⁺ say, In what have we wearied him? In that you⁺ say, Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of Yahweh, and he delights in them; or where is the God of justice? 3 Look, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you⁺ seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you⁺ desire, look, he comes, says Yahweh of hosts. ² But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: ³ and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they will offer to Yahweh offerings in righteousness. ⁴ Then will the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. ⁵ And I will come near to you⁺ to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the false swearers, and against those who unjustly reduce the wages of the hired worker, the widow, and the fatherless, and who turn aside the sojourner [from his right], and do not fear me, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁶ For I, Yahweh, do not change; therefore you⁺, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

⁷ From the days of your⁺ fathers you⁺ have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you⁺, says Yahweh of hosts. But you⁺ say, In what shall we return? ⁸ Will man rob God? Yet you⁺ rob me. But you⁺ say, In what have we robbed you? In tithes and offerings. ⁹ You⁺ are cursed with the curse; for you⁺ rob me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰ Bring⁺ the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now herewith, says Yahweh of hosts, if I will not open for you⁺ the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing for you⁺, that there will not be room enough [to receive it]. ¹¹ And I will rebuke the devourer for your⁺ sakes, and he will not destroy the fruits of your⁺ ground; neither will your⁺ vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, says Yahweh of hosts. ¹² And all nations will call you⁺ happy; for you⁺ will be a delightful land, says Yahweh of hosts.

¹³ Your⁺ words have been stout against me, says Yahweh. Yet you⁺ say, What have we spoken against you? ¹⁴ You⁺ have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before Yahweh of hosts? ¹⁵ And now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they make trial of God, and escape.

¹⁶ Then those who feared Yahweh spoke one with another; and Yahweh listened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for those who feared Yahweh, and who thought on his name. ¹⁷ And they will be mine, says Yahweh of hosts, [even] my own possession, in the day that I make; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. ¹⁸ Then you⁺ will return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve him.

4 For, look, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up, says Yahweh of hosts, that it will leave them neither root nor branch. ² But to you⁺ who fear my name the sun of righteousness will arise with healing in its wings; and you⁺ will go forth, and leap as calves of the stall. ³ And you⁺ will tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your⁺ feet in the day that I make, says Yahweh of hosts.

^a betrayed: that is, deliberately broke promises and/or loyalty on which others had relied. In this passage, to betray is to divorce. See other verses which use the same word. For example see Exodus 21:8 and Judges 9:23.

^c he will cover his garment with violence: For more information on the meaning of covering of a garment with violence, see Ps 73:6 and Prov 13:2. Also compare Ps 109:29, Isa 59:6, Obad 1:10, and Hab 2:17.

^d This verse could be translated less literally as, 'If someone hates, he can divorce, but then punishment will return to him because of it. Therefore watch yourself carefully, so that you do not betray your wife by divorcing her.'

⁴ Remember⁺ the law of Moses my slave, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances.

⁵ Look, I will send you⁺ Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of Yahweh comes. ⁶ And he will turn the heart of the fathers to the sons, and the heart of the sons to their fathers; or else I will come and strike the earth with a curse.

Background

The purpose of this translation is: to provide a modern version that retains the accuracy of older English translations; to update archaic words so that it is easier to read using a modern English vocabulary; and to apply discoveries of new materials, such as manuscripts, to improve accuracy.

This Bible is free to copy, even commercially, but is not to be modified except as specified in the section below entitled "Copyright Restrictions."

Special Features

Plus signs (+) are used in superscripts next to words such as "you" and "your" when they refer to a group of two or more. This is done to improve accuracy.

In some cases, the word 'you' or 'your' is not present in some verses for smoother English style. This was mostly done in imperative (command) sentences. If the word 'you' was plural and the context is not clear, the plus sign will move to the verb. For example, a command such as, "Do you* not seek these things" becomes "Do+ not seek these things." In such cases, other plural verbs in the same verse may be marked plural as needed to avoid ambiguity. In situations other than these, verbs are not generally marked as to whether they refer to a singular or plural subject.

Brackets [] are used to enclose words supplied in the translation that are not present in the original Bible text in order to make a passage more understandable. A threshold is involved in disclosing these. There are some words that will normally be supplied and not disclosed in brackets, but for the most part these are required if not clearly implied by the original Bible text. The reason that brackets are used, instead of italics or other means, is discussed below in Style Guidelines.

Authoritative Texts

The UPDV Bible is based on the American Standard Version of 1901 (ASV). The ASV was used as the starting point for this Bible (except for First Maccabees and Sirach). The UPDV Bible is a revision of the ASV.

The authoritative texts used for further refinement of the translation are as follows (see also the special section in the appendix concerning the Book of Matthew):

Old Testament: Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (Electronic Edition). United Bible Societies' Preliminary and Interim Report on the Hebrew Old Testament Text Project (5 volumes). The final report in Critique Textuelle De L'Ancien Testament by Dominique Barthelemy (First 4 volumes).

New Testament (Greek): United Bible Societies—The Greek New Testament, Fifth Edition (UBS5) and Nestle-Aland Novum Testamentum Graece, 28th Edition (NA28). Readings in these Greek editions within single brackets have been generally retained as part of the regular text in the UPDV Bible. These readings may be regarded as part of the text but they cannot be taken as completely certain. This type of bracketed text should not be confused with use of bracketed text in the UPDV Bible. In the UPDV Bible, bracketed text is used to indicate words used to help in understanding the text that are not present in the original languages.

New Testament (Syriac): The Old Syriac and Peshitta versions were also reviewed for variant readings. In some cases, it was found that one or more Syriac versions were more likely to contain the original reading than was the Greek critical text. Footnotes indicate where the Syriac was followed instead of the Greek critical text.

By using the above texts, the UPDV Bible uses the eclectic method of selecting the original reading of verses. This means that when more than one reading for a passage exists, each verse is evaluated independently based on its merits. Some variants (different readings of verses) are disclosed in footnotes especially when they affect entire verses which are omitted or inserted. In rare instances, the texts above were not followed if convincing evidence was found to the contrary. In such cases, they are listed in the Variant Exceptions section in this appendix.

Gender

Gender has been generally translated literally. The following general guidelines are used to distinguish the various meanings:

Gender in The New Testament

The current usage of gender in the New Testament is similar to the guidelines noted below for the Old Testament. However, due to differences between the languages and styles, not all of same distinctions are present. Context will generally dictate the interpretation.

Gender in The Old Testament

Man, of man, from man, etc.: When used in its plain form, generally refers to mankind, humans, or people, without necessarily indicating male or female.

'Common man' is used in a similar manner, but in general, refers to ordinary man, as a class, also known as commoners.

A man, any man, this man, men, etc.: Generally refer to one or more of the male sex of man, or a group which may at least partially consist of males.

[Able-bodied] men, [prominent] men, etc.: This is based on a Hebrew word which focuses on a special type of strength, such as mighty, capability, being a soldier, being in one's prime, age, nobility, leadership, wisdom, or other such types of special qualities. The quality referred to is somewhat interpretive based on the context and is placed within brackets. See Exodus 10:11 for example.

A woman, any woman, this woman, women, etc.: Generally refer to one or more of the female sex of man, or a group which may at least partially consist of females.

Sons and daughters: These are generally retained and can mean either literal descendants or something else as indicated by the context.

He, she, and other such references are generally retained and unchanged from the ASV.

Content Warning for Children

This Bible may contain material not suitable for children.

The Book of Matthew

The Book of Matthew in this Bible is a reconstructed text generally based on the use of existing material from Matthew, as well as being supplemented or modified with text from Mark and Luke. The chapters and verses in Matthew have also been renumbered.

It has become apparent that the Book of Matthew has undergone a significant amount of modification since the original. These modifications have generally gone unnoticed because the modifications seem to have happened before the time of currently existing Greek manuscripts.

By most accounts, Matthew was originally written in Hebrew or Aramaic. Although we do not have what are likely to be copies of a direct line to the Hebrew version, there are some indirect witnesses to it. Some of the Church fathers make references to a gospel written in Hebrew. At times, they even indicate where it differs from the Greek version. They also mention different Hebrew versions, different groups using them, and some issues with these groups and texts. This provides us with some important information concerning the original text of Matthew.

Witnesses To A Substantially Different Text

1) We have long been aware of some comments by Epiphanius that he knew of some Hebrew versions that did not contain the first two chapters. He also seems to indicate that some may have at least contained the genealogy section.

2) Somewhat recently, in 1966, Shlomo Pines in "The Jewish Christians of the Early Centuries of Christianity According to a New Source", describes the contents of a text which reflects the views and traditions of a Jewish Christian community. On page 21 he states that this text, which may have been written down in the fifth century or later, may represent an independent, otherwise quite unknown tradition concerning some events which occurred in the earliest Christian community. Further, he states that this tradition, however distorted it may have been in the course of transmission, could yet conceivably go back in parts to the first period of Christianity.

The section relevant to Matthew is on page 23. After some discussion as to whether the original text includes narratives as well as just 'sayings', he goes on to say that the Jewish Christian texts imply that the 'true' Hebrew Gospel did not contain an account of the birth and life of Jesus.

3) New witnesses have been found to Matthew 1:16 which include Manuscripts R and O at 17.3ab of the early document, "The Dialogue of Timothy and Aquila" (TA), the Old Syriac (Sinaiticus), some Palestinian Syriac, some Greek manuscripts, and Von Soden's critical text. These texts appear to show that this verse was modified very early to support the concept of a virgin birth of Jesus.

4) Beginning with Matthew 1:18 (old numbering), a very unusual syntax appears for a text which has been translated from Hebrew to Greek. Instead of finding any resemblance to Hebrew style, we find an almost exact match to a narrative from ancient Greek literature.^a This tends to show that what we have is something introduced later into the text when it was in Greek.

5) An article titled, "Dreams, the Ancient Novels, and the Gospel of Matthew: An Intertextual Study", provides some interesting background on the dream stories in Matthew:

"No doubt the dream narratives in Matthew lack the flourish and color that we find in the dream reports of the Greek novels. ... Yet the formal features of the dream narratives in Matthew correspond to those found in other Greco-Roman literature, including the romance novels. Based simply on the formal features of the dreams in Matthew, it seems evident that an ancient auditor in the Greco-Roman world would bring to Matthew's dream narratives the same literary expectations and values as the dreams found in the novels."^b

"Chariton 2.9.6 offers a particularly interesting parallel to Matt 1:18b-24 (old numbering). Just as Callirhoe comes to a decision about her unborn child by means of a dream, Joseph also comes to a decision about Mary's unborn child by means of a dream. Because of the dream, Callirhoe does not kill her unborn child but gives birth to the child and makes it a legitimate child of Dionysius. ... Thus the dreams in Matthew's infancy narrative and the Greek novels share similar functions in relation to children and prophecy." It goes on further to discuss how in Matthew 27:19 (old numbering), the dream terminology of Pilate's wife "is consistent with that in Matthew's infancy narrative..."^c

This indicates that these portions of Matthew, not only at the beginning, but also at the end, may be the creation of a later writer who was familiar with novels in his culture; rather than being the original work of a Hebrew author.

Patterns of the Modified Text

Although the above factors focus on the first two chapters, the modifications continue throughout Matthew. The first two chapters turn out to be just a symptom of a much more widespread problem. In reviewing Matthew, some patterns emerge when we find material that is not present in John, Mark, or Luke. In general terms, Matthew contains unparalleled materials that tend to:

- a) Sensationalize or exaggerate;
- b) Support a misunderstood Scripture;
- c) Prematurely insert extra prophecies; and
- d) Over-emphasize certain phrases and topics.

Context

In many cases, passages were found that were not in their proper context. By presenting the material in a context which was not originally intended when the words were spoken, this was likely to result in misinterpretation. There were also cases of multiple sayings that were placed together even though they happened at different times and in different contexts.

Reconstruction

The UPDV has used the existing material in Matthew as a basis for reconstructing a replacement text which:

- a) Removes the unattested material;
- b) Puts the events in a more chronological order;
- c) Places the text in its proper context; and
- d) Covers the same general subjects and events.

While the existing material of Matthew was used as much as possible, sometimes it was necessary to use the text from parallel accounts in Mark and Luke. Sometimes different readings from Matthew, Mark, and Luke were combined together in whole or in part. In some cases, the text in Matthew was not included in any form due to the lack of a confirming witness to the reading or context. Some texts which appear genuine are included even though the location they belong is not certain; however, footnotes are generally present indicating the uncertainty of the location. Slight modification of the narrative material was occasionally required in order to transition the reconstructed text with the surrounding context.

Renumbering

The chapter and verse numbering in Matthew has been changed. It is at times necessary to refer to the old method of numbering and/or the new one. In such cases, the old system will be indicated by (old) or (old numbering). The new system will be indicated by (new) or (new numbering). In cases where it is not indicated, the new system is to be assumed by default.

Additional reference material related to the reconstruction of Matthew may be found at the website www.updated.org including a conversion chart from the old numbering system to the new numbering system; a parallel comparison of the old text of Matthew to the new; and a guide to the new text showing the general references from which it was derived.

Acts of the Apostles (Acts)

The book of the Acts of the Apostles is not included in this Bible. It appears that the book of Acts was generally based on historical people and events for its outline; however, many of the details within it appear to be created. The reasons for taking this position include the following:

- 1) The internal writing style in the Gospel of Luke is different in some respects when compared to Acts. This tends to indicate that someone else wrote Acts. For example, note the use of the Greek word $\tau\epsilon$ (9 times in Luke; 151 times in Acts). Also compare the difference in use of $\alpha\nu\eta\rho$ (27 times in Luke; 100 times in Acts) to $\alpha\nu\theta\rho\omega\pi\omicron\varsigma$ (95 times in Luke, 46 times in Acts). See the following article for other examples: A.W. Argyle, "The Greek of Luke and Acts," New Testament Studies (Cambridge University Press) 20 (1974): pp. 441 - 445.
- 2) Contradictions to other events in the New Testament. For example compare Galatians 1:11-2:10 to the corresponding events in Acts.
- 3) Significant amounts of material which are unsubstantiated. Many of the details found in Acts are not present in Paul's writings even when they would be expected. For example, compare the details of Paul's conversion and persecution of the Church in Galatians 1:13-24 and 1 Corinthians 15:1-9 to those found in Acts.

4) Similarities of some parts of Acts with Greco-Roman literature. This may indicate some of the material in Acts was created based on stories in the literature of the time. For examples of this see: Ruben Rene Dupertuis, "The Summaries in Acts 2, 4, and 5 and Greek Utopian Literary Traditions." PhD diss., Claremont Graduate University, 2005.

First Maccabees (I Maccabees)

The book of First Maccabees is included since it fills in some important events in the history of Israel between the time of Malachi and the New Testament.

However, in reviewing the text, it appears that some parts of First Maccabees were likely to have been added at a later time. The following factors were evaluated in excluding text that was not likely to be original:

- 1) Sections of text which were introduced by a suspect style of writing. This includes evaluating the way subjects were referred to at the beginning of new context.
- 2) The pattern of vocabulary, grammar, and/or style of writing do not appear to be from the original author based on comparison to the rest of his writing.
- 3) The text does not appear to parallel the account given by Josephus, the ancient historian. A significant portion of First Maccabees appears to have been used by Josephus. However some parts were not. This could be since he did not want to use them, or because these parts were not in the copy which he had at the time.
- 4) The context and/or flow of thought seem unusually abrupt or out of place.

This process resulted in retaining about 75% of the text of First Maccabees. The sections of text which are not included are: 1:1-9 (partial), Chapter 8, 9:34, 12:1-23, and 13:43-16:24. There is additional information in the footnotes at these texts.

The book's historical chapter and verse numbering has generally been followed. This allows easier comparison to other versions and use of reference works. There is no present intention of including in this Bible any of the books commonly known as Second, Third, or Fourth Maccabees. However, the name of First Maccabees was retained since that is what it is commonly known as today.

First Maccabees was not included in the ASV which was the starting point for the rest of the UPDV Bible (except Sirach). The following text was used as the starting point in the UPDV Bible for First Maccabees: The Holy Bible Translated, from the Latin Vulgate; Diligently Compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other Editions in Divers Languages. Baltimore: John Murphy Company, 1914.

Wisdom of Sirach (Sirach)

It is generally accepted that the author of Sirach was a teacher and scribe in the second century BC. He was well-versed in the Scriptures and wrote to help those who wanted to make progress in both knowing the Scriptures and doing them. References and allusions to other parts of the Old Testament abound. Sirach is also a practical guide, often similar to the style of James in the New Testament. The original time of writing is estimated to be between 190 BC and 180 BC, a time after Malachi of the Old Testament and before the New Testament.

Sirach was originally written in Hebrew. But over time, the Hebrew copies fell into disuse. In modern times, Sirach had generally only been found in Greek, Syriac, and Latin manuscripts. Practically no Hebrew existed. However, from 1896 AD to 1982 AD, significant Hebrew manuscripts for some parts of Sirach were identified. The translation of Sirach in this Bible uses those Hebrew manuscripts in many cases instead of the Greek and other manuscripts.

The historical chapter and verse numbering has generally been followed. This allows easier comparison to other versions and use of reference works. The book's title 'Wisdom of Sirach' is sometimes referred to as Sirach, Wisdom of Sirach, Ben-Sira, Wisdom of Ben-Sira, or Ecclesiasticus. The dash is sometimes omitted in Ben-Sira.

This translation of Sirach was not derived from the ASV which was the starting point for the rest of this Bible (except First Maccabees).

Definitions

For the purposes of this Bible, the following general definition(s) are used:

Life, Live, Save, Saved: Aramaic is likely the original language of part of the New Testament. In Syriac, a type of Aramaic, there is a word for 'life' which can mean 'life' such as eternal life. In some instances where the Syriac has the word 'life', it shows in Greek as 'saved' or a similar word. While the Greek may have a valid meaning, it was determined better in some contexts to use 'life' (and derivatives such as 'to live') to represent the same basic Syriac word. This way it is easier to see the relationship between similar words in the surrounding context. For example, John 5:34 is often translated as '...that you* may be saved'. Yet John 5:40 is translated '...that you* may have life'. However, in Syriac, the words 'be saved' and 'have life' both have the same root meaning of 'life'. These are some of the reasons why the Syriac text has been followed at John 5:34 and 10:9.

Sex, Having Sex, or Having Any Sex: Someone is 'having sex' or 'having any sex' by contacting the genitalia, groin, inner thigh, the breasts, between the breasts, the buttocks, or between the buttocks of another; when such contact is with an intent to arouse or gratify anyone's sexual, erotic, or reproductive desire; given that 'contacting' means touching in any way, with any body part or any physical object, either directly or indirectly.

Slaves, Slavery: The words related to slaves and slavery have been translated as literal as possible. However, it is important to understand slavery in terms of the specific ancient cultures that are represented in the Bible. Attempting to understand slavery based on preconceptions from other times or cultures may lead to misunderstandings. For additional background, a comprehensive Bible reference should be consulted such as the entry for 'Slavery' in The Anchor Bible Dictionary, New York: Doubleday, 1992.

Style

The conventions for usage and style generally use the following as guides (with some exceptions): The Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition, The University of Chicago Press, 2003. And, The SBL Handbook of Style, Hendrickson Publishers, Inc., 1999.

Examples of the style conventions used are:

Spelling out numbers from one through one hundred instead of using the numerals follows the general principle at 9.3.

Using brackets [] for words not found in the original follows rules 6.104 and 11.68. Italics were not used for this purpose since rule 7.49 states that the purpose of italics is to call attention to a certain portion of text.

Capitalization is used for what are clearly proper nouns and adjectives per the rules for religious names and terms at 8.97 through 8.119. Accordingly, words such as he and his, even when referring to God, are not capitalized unless at the beginning of a sentence. Also of note on this subject, the original Hebrew and Greek texts generally do not show any difference when they use words such as he and his in reference to God.

Names

Sometimes the traditional spelling, or the one that is consistently used throughout the Bible, is used for the names of people and places. Also see the section below titled, "The Name of God."

The Speech of God

It is possible that the underlying word in Aramaic in John 1:1 was originally 'Memra' (מַמְרָא). This would match the extensive use in some of the Targums (Aramaic translations of the Old Testament). The significance of this is that John may have used his understanding of this term from the Targum when he wrote in John 1:1, 'In the beginning was the Speech...'

In reference to the use of 'Memra' in the Targums, J.W. Etheridge states:

"... it seems, I repeat, impossible to restrict the signification of the epithet in question to a mere figurative personification, and not to perceive that St. John, when he wrote the first verses of his Gospel, communicated to the Gentile churches a mystery of the truth which had long been held sacred by the ancient people of God." (J.W. Etheridge, M.A. The Targums of Onkelos and Jonathan Ben Uzziel on the Pentateuch with the Fragments of the Jerusalem Targum from the Chaldee. KTAV Publishing House, Inc. New York, 1968, first published 1862, pages 19-20.)

Holding a similar view is Martin McNamara who says:

"...it is legitimate to assume that John is very much under the influence of the targums in the formulation of his doctrine of the Logos." Martin McNamara, Targum and Testament. William B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 1972, page 104.

In understanding John 1:1, it is also important to differentiate between the meaning of the 'Logos' of Greek Philosophy and the 'Memra' of the Old Testament. John Gill in his 'Exposition of the Entire Bible' at John 1:1 indicates that the meaning of John 1:1 is based on the meaning of 'Memra' from the Targums rather than from the writings of Plato or his followers. Gill further states that it is much more probable that Plato got his idea of the 'Logos' from the 'Memra' of the Old Testament, rather than supposing that John's ideas in John 1:1 were derived from Plato.

In order to show where 'Memra' is used in the Old Testament, the corresponding English translation has been underlined. For example, in Genesis 1:3, the Targum reads, 'And the Memra of the Lord said'. Our present version reads, 'And God said'. Accordingly, 'God' in Genesis 1:3 in this translation has been underlined. This shows the corresponding use of 'Memra' in the Targum. This also shows a possible relationship between 'God' of Genesis 1:3 to the 'Speech' of John 1:1. The 'Speech' of John

1:1 is also underlined since it is likely to have been originally derived from 'Memra' in the Targum.

If the word 'I' is underlined, the verb next to it will also be underlined to make it easier to notice.

In Genesis 1:3, 7, 9, 11, 15, 24, and 30, the last phrase of the verse is underlined to show the additional phrase 'according to the decree of his Memra' or 'according to his Memra' which appears at the end of the verse in the Targum. In Genesis 1:3 the Targum reads, 'and there was light according to the decree of his Memra'. The rest of the verses listed above read in the Targum, 'and it was so according to his Memra.'

The following are the instances where underlining has taken place to show an underlying use of 'Memra' in the Old Testament as well as the possible use of the same word in New Testament (parenthesis indicate the number of times 'Memra' appears in a verse if more than once):

'Memra' has only been noted in Genesis through Deuteronomy, Psalms, and Isaiah in the Old Testament of the UPDV Bible. 'Memra' is present elsewhere in the Targums. However, the reason for its use in these other places often seems to be for other purposes such as avoiding the use of God's name directly in negative contexts. However, the primary reason for indicating 'Memra' in this Bible is to show the possible background to John 1:1. Accordingly, 'Memra' is only noted in the books where it is reasonably associated with John's use. Also see the note below in Variant Exceptions for John 1:1.

The Name of God

The Old Testament

In the Old Testament, the names "Yahweh" (a personal name for God) and "Yah" (a contracted form of Yahweh) are used instead of what is rendered in many versions as "LORD."

In addition to the name "Yahweh," the name "Sovereign Yahweh" is used when the two Hebrew words "Lord" and "Yahweh" are together. This is intended to portray an emphatic title of God incorporating majesty and authority.

The New Testament and Greek Sections of Sirach

In the New Testament, and in the Greek sections of Sirach, the existing Greek manuscripts do not contain the name "Yahweh" as do the Old Testament Hebrew manuscripts. Almost all references to God or "Yahweh" in the New Testament and the Greek sections of Sirach are in the form of Lord, God, or Master. However, it is possible to determine where "Yahweh," or another title for God, was likely to be the meaning.

The UPDV Bible attempts to maintain the distinction between "Yahweh" and "the Lord" in the New Testament and the Greek sections of Sirach when possible. However, the reader should understand that this is done to facilitate understanding and that the existing underlying Greek manuscripts generally only say "the Lord."

Translation of Soul

The translation of the word 'Soul' throughout this Bible is done literally and consistently. It directly represents the words 'Nephesh/Nefesh' in Hebrew and 'Psyche/Psuche' in Greek. That means that anytime the word 'Soul' appears, it translates only those Hebrew and Greek words. It may have a wide range of meanings in English; but, it is always translated the same in this Bible. This gives the reader the ability to derive a fuller meaning by allowing the Bible to interpret itself. One may also consult Bible dictionaries and commentaries for further study.

Variant Exceptions

The following are instances where the UPDV Bible has followed a reading different than those of the HOTTP, CTAT, or UBS primary recommendations.

John 1:1 - The meaning of the Aramaic word (מִלְתָּא) is broader than the translation 'Word'. Although it can mean either, here 'Speech' is more accurate. In some other places in the Bible this

Aramaic is also translated as 'Speech'. Compare, for example, John 4:42 and 8:43 in Syriac and Greek. Also see this verse in 'The Pulpit Commentary: St. John Vol. I. Edited by H. D. M. Spence-Jones'. See the note above regarding 'The Speech of God'. Also see a more detailed article on the Internet at the following web site:

<https://www.updated.org/help/speech.html>

John 4:14 – This verse has been conjecturally reconstructed. Compare the text at the verse to the current Greek text in the footnote at the verse to see the differences. This verse is reconstructed based on the following:

1) The Liege Diatessaron shows a reading of 'living water' in this verse, although the rest of the verse appears to be an expanded reading which also has 'eternal life'.

2) The context is one where 'living water' is a subject of the discussion (see John 4:10 and 4:11). It would be expected that this same subject would also be used in this verse. However, the phrase 'eternal life' is used much more often. Accordingly, at an early stage, a copyist or translator decided that the word 'live or living' went with 'eternal' for 'eternal life' instead of 'living water'.

3) The word for 'springing up' is likely to have been added to help in the translation after 'eternal life' was selected in the text. Compare Syr-c which omits it to Syr-s.

4) The form of the text appears to expect 'forever' to end the sentence by itself. Compare the literal first part to the literal reconstructed second part of this verse below:

(whoever drinks of the water...) will not thirst—forever
(the water) will be in him a well of living water—forever

5) An original Aramaic would be easy to confuse based on a similar text.

6) See a similar case at John 6:27.

John 5:34 – See the entry for 'Life' in the Definitions Section of the Appendix.

John 6:27 – This verse has been conjecturally reconstructed. Compare the text at the verse to the current Greek text in the footnote at the verse to see the differences. This verse is reconstructed based on similar reasons to John 4:14 above. Note particularly in this verse: The Liege Diatessaron; the context discussing food; the comparison of food that perishes to food that lasts forever; and the Aramaic similarity.

John 7:37-39 – See footnote for the reading in the CT. These verses are in the known manuscripts. However, these verses are not included in this Bible for reasons which include the following:

1) In several cases in the Gospels, there are passages pertaining to the Holy Spirit which appear to be additions to the text by someone other than the original author. See the Appendix below for Luke 11:13 and the other verses listed there as well. Note also John 20:22 which was likely part of an addition by someone other than the original author of the Gospel.

2) The text here is problematic for a number of reasons and has generally defied attempts to understand it. A number of journal articles and commentaries are available on this subject. The problems include difficulty finding the Scripture that is referred to; determining who the water comes from; and understanding the punctuation. It is possible that these problems resulted from a disturbance in the text.

3) These three verses do not seem to fit in the context of the surrounding verses. Before and after these verses, the subject is where Jesus came from and where he is going. It is difficult to see why there would be an interruption to discuss the receiving of the Spirit by believers at a later time. Also it is hard to see why the crowd reacts based on these three verses.

4) The attendants from 7:32 appear to have been dispatched around the middle of the feast (see 7:14). However, 7:37 together with 7:45 seem to make the day the attendants return as the last day of the feast.

5) The interpretation given in John 7:39 seems unrealistic and contradictory to the dialog about living water in John 4:6-15, especially John 4:14.

Given the factors above, it is likely that these verses are out of place and/or have been tampered with. Accordingly, they have been moved out of the main body of text and placed in a footnote.

John 7:53-8:11 – This is not a variant from the Critical Text. CT is certain (Level A) that John 7:53-8:11 is not part of the original text.

John 10:9 – See the entry for 'Life' in the Definitions Section of the Appendix.

John 19:36-21:25 – Although known manuscripts contain these passages, they are likely to be additions by someone other than the original author. Accordingly, this text has not been included. The reasons for this determination include the following:

1) The wording of John 19:35 seems to be the most natural ending of the book. Note the similar endings at John 20:30-31 and 21:24-25 which progressively imitate and expand the ending at John 19:35. This may indicate two additional layers of expansion in the ending of the text of John.

2) John's ending at 3 John 1:12 is similar to John 19:35.

3) Several elements of style and vocabulary are not consistent with the author's writing in other places.

4) Generally, the content in this section conflicts with, or is not substantiated by, parallel accounts in the New Testament.

Matthew 1:16 – See footnote at this verse. The Greek followed is based on the TA mentioned there. However it is styled to NA28 for conjunctions and omits the intervening dialog by the speaker.

Matthew 7:22 – See footnote at this verse. The CT was not certain (Level C) of its choice of the reading 'works' instead of 'children'. The UPDV Bible has chosen 'children' due to the similarity of the words in Hebrew and Aramaic. It is easy to see how they would be confused by a translator from one of those languages into Greek. In Greek however, they are quite different and would not likely be mistaken for one another. Compare Luke 7:35 which also has the reading 'children'.

Mark 14:28 – See footnote at this verse. This verse is not included for the reasons which include the following: The Fayyum Fragment does not contain this verse; this verse seems out of context; this verse is probably borrowed from an early error in Mark 16:7. See also the note in the Appendix on Mark 16:7 below.

Mark 16:7 – See also the note in the Appendix on Mark 14:28 above. It seems most likely that Mark 16:7 in our Greek texts was either an early modification or an error in an early translation (compare Luke 24:6). This probably resulted in the insertion of Mark 14:28 as well as the reason for part of the story in John 21.

Luke Chapters 1 and 2 – There is evidence that the early life of Christ probably was not in the original gospel account from which Luke is derived. The Book of Matthew was likewise found to include similar material of a doubtful origin. Accordingly, it seemed best to not include these two chapters in the text of Luke. For additional information, see Joseph P. Tyson, Marcion and Luke-Acts (Columbia, University of South Carolina Press, 2006), p. 119. See also the note below regarding Luke 23:39-24:53.

Luke 3:23 – This verse has been restored based on the following: The phrase 'he was known as' is also used in a similar sense in Matthew 2:2 (per quote from Epiphanius). It is likely an original Aramaic was translated into a Greek reading of 'as was supposed'. This gives it the nuance of 'it was said to be, but wasn't really true.' However, that is not the meaning here.

The Aramaic has two meanings. Here it more literally means to be called or known as something. Compare also the similar Aramaic root at John 19:17. The word for 'began' in Greek (see CT reading below) seems to be a mistranslation of 'to be', see Payne Smith page 101, column 1. The CT reads this verse as follows: 'And Jesus himself, when he began, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the [son] of Eli.' See also Matthew 1:16-2:23 (old numbering), Luke 1:27, 34, 2:5, Isaiah 7:14.

Luke 11:13 – The reading of 'good [things]' is based on the parallel account in Matthew 14:37 (or 7:11 in old numbering). It is likely that the reading of 'Holy Spirit' was a later addition. It may have taken place due to the similar looking Greek word for 'good' being read as 'holy'. Once 'holy' was read, 'spirit' could have been added to make the meaning clearer.

There is a variant here in some Greek texts which reads 'good gifts' instead of 'Holy Spirit'. This variant may be a correction by someone realizing something was wrong with the text and using the immediate context for the correction. However, it seems an original reading of the single word 'good', as read in Matthew, would be most likely to explain the other readings.

This error in the text, along with other factors, likely show the tendency of early editors to add phrases about the 'Holy Spirit', especially in Luke. Those texts in Luke, which are not attested by the other gospel writers and are not suggested by the context, are not included in the main body of text. They are included only in the footnotes and are at the following verses: Luke 1:15, 1:41, 1:67, 2:25, 2:26, 2:27, 4:1, 4:14, 10:21, and 11:13. See also a similar case at John 14:26.

Luke 11:41 – See footnote at this verse. This change was made due to the likelihood of an original Aramaic text being slightly misread. Compare Matthew 15:22 as well as the contexts of these passages. For more information see: Maurice Casey, Aramaic Approach to Q (New York: Cambridge University Press, 2002), pp. 10, 23, 24. Also note the references there. The rest of the verse was translated following the Greek forms as closely as possible in the context of the corrected wording.

Luke 11:42 – See footnote at this verse. This change was made due to the likelihood of an original Aramaic text being slightly misread (שבתא for שבתא). In addition to the difference with Matthew 15:23, 'rue' was not subject to tithing according to Jewish writings (the Mishnah). For more information see: Arndt, Danker, and Bauer, A Greek-English lexicon of the New Testament and other early Christian literature (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2000), p. 810.

Luke 23:39-24:53 – The tendency of the other Gospel accounts has been to include endings which are of a doubtful origin. Based on the style, content of the text, other witnesses, and the textual variants at the end of Luke, it is likely that some of the material in Luke is not original. Accordingly, it seemed best to include in the ending of Luke only the material which is either directly or indirectly attested to by some other source. The comparison material was based on the other texts in the New Testament, including the other Gospel accounts as well as in Luke up to this point. This ending section of Luke has been reconstructed accordingly. Also see the note above regarding Luke Chapters 1 and 2. For further background refer to: Joseph P. Tyson, Marcion and Luke-Acts (Columbia, University of South Carolina Press, 2006), p. 119.

Revelation 11:1 – See footnote at this verse. This change was made due to the likelihood of an original Aramaic text being slightly misread. For additional information see: Jastrow pages 955-956; Payne Smith p. 361; and C. C. Torrey, The Apocalypse of John (Yale University Press, 1958), p. 120.

Revelation 19:13 – See footnote at this verse. The way the literal reading appears is awkward in style and not consistent with John's other uses of the phrase 'the Word of God'. Something in the text is likely to have dropped out or something in the syntax is likely to be misunderstood. All things considered, it seems most likely that John's intent was to merely write another name by which the person was known and to indicate that it was found in the Word of God. Accordingly, the structure of the verse has been rearranged and the word 'in' has been supplied by conjecture.

Exodus 34:24 – See footnote at this verse.

Deuteronomy 31:11 – See footnote at Exodus 34:24.

Joshua 19:7 – The UPDV Bible follows CTAT's reconstruction of the original text.

Judges 5:30 – The UPDV Bible follows a conjectural restoration noted in K&D to read 'the neck of the queen' instead of 'the neck(s) of the spoil'.

2 Samuel 4:6 – CTAT prefers M reading with C-level confidence. However, due to similar reading in Ezekiel 23:40 along with witnesses of G, S, and T, and only vocalization change required, the UPDV Bible has followed: "and, look, they."

2 Samuel 12:31 – This verse and the parallel passage at 1 Chronicles 20:3 are sometimes translated as the captured inhabitants being subject to various types of tortures such as being hacked with saws and axes and being burned. It also appears that the difficulty in understanding these verses has led to the original Hebrew undergoing slight modification at an early stage. Accordingly, the UPDV Bible has translated these passages by re-evaluating the original language, context, and use of similar vocabulary elsewhere in the Bible. There are three main parts of this verse which directed the translation:

a) There is a one letter difference between the Hebrew word in 2 Samuel 'put [them]' (יָשַׁם) and 1 Chronicles 'sawed [them]' (יָשַׁר). Based on comparing the two readings, it is believed that 'put [them]' was the original meaning. The concept is that they were made to work using these tools.

b) There is a one letter difference between the Hebrew word in 2 Samuel 'axes' (מַגְזֵרִים) and 1 Chronicles 'saws [of a stone-cutter]' (מַגְזֵרִים). Based on the more comprehensive and seemingly more accurate account in 2 Samuel, the reading in 1 Chronicles was assumed to have been slightly modified at an early stage due to difficulty understanding the text.

c) Only the passage in 2 Samuel contains 'made them serve making bricks'. This is sometimes translated as 'made them pass through the brickkiln'. The difference is due to the verb in Hebrew currently reading הַעֲבִיר (passed through, made to pass). However, it most likely originally read, with a very similar one letter difference, הַעֲבִיר (made to serve). This fits the context. It also matches similar wording and vocabulary about being made to serve making bricks at Exodus 1:13. Making captives serve in a particular function is similar to that found at Joshua 9:21.

CTAT and HOTTP did not recommend these readings; however, they were limited in scope by available texts. They did not recommend something as original when there was no text with the reading currently found to exist. However, HOTTP does note that the readings followed in (a) and (c) above probably represent the original texts. And with respect to (b), CTAT indicated considerable doubt in their recommendation.

1 Chronicles 4:32 – The UPDV Bible follows CTAT's reconstruction of the original text.

1 Chronicles 20:3 – See note above at 2 Samuel 12:31.

Psalms 2:9 – See footnote at this verse. The UPDV Bible has followed the Hebrew text with different vowel pointing in accordance with the LXX reading.

Psalms 106:20 – See footnote at this verse. Also see Jeremiah 2:11. This verse is on ancient rabbinical lists of euphemisms in the Bible. 'Their glory' appears to be a euphemism to avoid directly referencing God in this context. See the discussion in CTAT at Psalm 106:20.

Jeremiah 2:11 – See footnote at this verse. Also see Psalm 106:20. This verse is on ancient rabbinical lists of euphemisms in the Bible. A translation such as 'their glory' appears to be a euphemism to avoid directly saying that God could be exchanged for something. 'His glory' also seems out of place given the first person surrounding context. See the discussion in CTAT at Psalm 106:20 and the footnote in the text of WBC at Jeremiah 2:11.

Jeremiah 22:18 – See footnote at this verse. This reading was followed for reasons which include the following: a) The Hebrew word for 'sister' is similar to one meaning 'brotherhood' as in Zechariah 11:14. b) A lament in this form is nearly always addressed to the person who would be dead. There is no dead woman in the context who would be called 'sister'. c) When two phrases are next to each other in a lament, generally the second phrase is either a duplication of the first; a further identification of the first; or an emphasis of the first. In this verse, 'my brother' is emphasized as 'best brother'. And, 'lord' is emphasized as 'his excellence'.

For further reference, see Theodor H. Gaster, 'Myth, Legend, and Custom in the Old Testament', page 604. Also see the historical examples in Mark E. Cohen's, 'The Canonical Lamentations of Ancient Mesopotamia'. And also see the Syriac at this verse.

Jeremiah 27:1 – See footnote at this verse. The UPDV Bible has followed an optional recommendation in HOTTP.

Jeremiah 28:1 – CTAT indicates the LXX is nearly certain to have the earlier reading, and that the MT appears to have text inserted in this verse at a later time by a secondary source. CTAT still recommends the MT based on textual criteria. However, based on all factors, the UPDV Bible has followed the LXX. See footnote at this verse. See also CTAT.

Ezekiel 27:19 – The UPDV Bible follows CTAT's conjectural restoration of the original text.

Those referenced only in the footnotes are: Matthew (see individual footnotes and separate section in appendix), John 1:7, 1:12, 5:34, 6:68, 10:9, 14:26, Mark 6:3, Luke 1:27, 34, 2:5, 3:23, 11:13, Genesis 46:19-22, 46:26-27, Exodus 1:5, First Maccabees, and Sirach.
